(k) "Kind" as distinguished from the term "grade" refers only to mixed fertilizer and means the substances, and the proportions thereof, containing the guaranteed plant food content of mixed fertilizer—as for example, in the case of nitrogenous material, 80% water-soluble and 20% water-insoluble nitrogen; or in the case of potash, 75% sulphate of potash and 25% muriate of potash.

(l) "Price list" means any price statement, irrespective of form, issued or used by the seller, setting forth the prices, grades, kinds, terms of payment, types of containers or bags, method and conditions of delivery and any other provisions relating to sales of the commodities being priced.

(m) "Spring season" means the fertilizer selling season from December 1 of any calender year to and including June 30 of the next succeeding calendar year.

(n) "Fall season" means the fertilizer selling season from July 1 to November 30, inclusive, of any calendar year.

(o) "Premium brand" means a kind and grade of mixed fertilizer or superphosphate which during the period February 16–20, 1942, was listed by the manufacturer of the premium brand at an additional price above the price of a similar regular grade of mixed fertilizer or superphosphate manufactured and listed by him.

(p) "Transportation cost" means the cost of transportation actually incurred, except that for movement other than by for-hire carrier, the transportation cost shall be the reasonable value of the service, not exceeding any maximum price established therefor.

(q) "Carload lot" means a shipment of any quantity which moves as a rail carload under Office of Defense Transportation or tariff requirements.

(r) "Unit" means 1% of a ton, or 20 pounds.

(s) "Ton" means 2,000 pounds net weight.

[Former paragraphs (o) and (p) revoked, and former paragraphs (q), (r), (s), (t) and (u) redesignated as (o), (p), (q), (r) and (s) by Am. 4, effective 11-26-45]

SEC. 9. Maximum prices of mixed fertilizer, superphosphate, potash and nitrogenous fertilizer materials. (a) The maximum prices at which sales and deliveries of mixed fertilizer, superphosphate, potash and nitrogenous fertilizer A seller who had established no margin by sales during March of 1942 shall allow for sales to dealers the margin below maximum prices to consumers established by his most closely competitive seller. If the product was not generally sold during March of 1942, the margin shall be the same as that established for the most nearly comparable product which was sold during March of 1942.

[Section 9 amended by Am. 2, 9 F.R. 13974, effective 11-28-44 and as otherwise noted]

SEC. 10. Export sales. (a) Except as hereinafter provided, this regulation shall have no application to export sales of mixed fertilizers or fertilizer materials covered herein. The maximum prices for such sales shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the Second Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation.

(b) Base prices. For the purposes of the Second Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation, the maximum domestic base prices for mixed fertilizers, f. o. b. ports, shall be determined by adding to the appropriate price in subparagraph (a) of the schedules under Appendix A of this Second Revised Maximum Price Regulation 135 any applicable extra charges permitted in Appendix A (b) (2) and deducting from such prices as so adjusted the appropriate amounts set forth in subparagraphs (1) and (2) below:

(1) Schedule of deductions.

potash and nitrogenous materials. The base price for grades and kinds of mixed fertilizer, superphosphate, potash and nitrogenous material not priced in the tables in Schedules A to R inclusive shall be determined by the Office of Price Administration. Anyone, requesting a base price for a grade, shall file with the Office of Price Administration in Washington, D. C., an application setting forth the analysis in percentages of nitrogen, available phosphoric acid and water-soluble potash. The Office of Price Administration will promptly establish a base price for such grade and inform the applicant of such price. This base price shall be subject to adjustment by the Office of Price Administration at any time.

[Appendix heading and paragraph (a) amended by Am. 4, effective 11-26-45]

(b) To the base prices for mixed fertilizer, superphosphate or potash set forth in the schedules of this appendix, or arrived at in the manner provided for in paragraph (a) above, the following additions may be and the following deductions must be made before making any appropriate additions or deductions for discounts, delivery differentials, etc.:

(1) Premium brands. There may be added differentials no greater in cents per ton than were in effect during the period February 16–20, 1942.

(2) Special ingredients in other than premium brands. An extra charge for specified quantities of the following ingredients may be added, (except in the case of schedules H, O, P, Q and R, which contain express provisions for such ingredients).

	Per unit
Sulphate of potash [2]	$0.40
Magnesium oxide from sulphate of potash-magnesia, sea water magnesium or similar source	1.00
Potash from cotton hulls or boll ashes [3]	.25
Nitrogen [4]	.30
	Per pound
Copper sulphate	$0.10
Manganese sulphate	.05
Borax	.05
Elemental sulphur	.035
Iron sulphate	.04
Zinc sulphate	.10
Ground tobacco stems: [3]	Per hundred pounds
In complete mixed fertilizer	$0.30
In phosphate-potash mixtures	.50
In superphosphate	1.00

[1] Except for Schedules G, I, J and L where it is $0.30 per unit.

[2] Applicable only to tobacco grades in Schedule B.

[3] Applicable only to tobacco grades in Schedules D, E and F.

[4] Applicable only in Schedules M and N.

(3) (i) Bag differentials. Except for nitrogenous materials, there may be added the following amounts per ton for textile bags:

(b) Terms. (1) The base prices, after making the appropriate additions or deductions provided for in the general provisions of this appendix are the consumer's time prices for payment on October 1 on spring shipments and on December 1 on fall shipments, after which dates interest at the legal rate may be charged.

(2) On sales sight draft, SD/BL, c. o. d., cash in advance or cash within 7 days of date of shipment, a discount of 10% is to be made from the time prices.

(c) Delivery. (1) When delivery is taken at a rail siding, warehouse or boatlanding, deduct 75¢ per ton from the time or cash prices in New Jersey and Long Island and Richmond, New York and Rockland Counties, New York and $1.00 per ton for all other counties in New York.

(2) When delivery is taken at a factory, whether or not such factory is located in the area covered in Schedule C, deduct the amounts per ton set forth below from the time or cash prices for the shortest highway mileage from factory to consumer's nearest railroad station. For consumers located in:

(i) New Jersey and Richmond, New York and Rockland Counties in New York. 75¢ per ton for distances up to 5 miles plus 2½¢ per ton for each additional mile but not to exceed $3.50 per ton, including ferry tolls.

(ii) Long Island. 75¢ per ton for distances up to 5 miles plus 3¢ per ton for each additional mile but not to exceed the lowest carload rail freight rate per ton on the commodity from factory to consumer's nearest railroad station.

(iii) Remainder of New York State. $1.00 per ton for distances up to 5 miles plus 2½¢ per ton for each additional mile but not to exceed the lowest carload rail freight rate per ton on the commodity from factory to consumer's nearest railroad station.

(3) For less than carload shipments to consumer's nearest railroad station or less than 10-ton truckload deliveries to consumer's premises, an additional charge may be made equal to the transportation cost in excess of the carload or full truckload rate.

Special ingredients. In addition to the adjustments provided for in the general provisions of this appendix, the base prices may be adjusted as follows for special ingredients:

In other than premium brands and tobacco grades. Add 15¢ per unit of nitrogen for each 5% of water-insoluble nitrogen guaranteed in excess of 10%.

In tobacco grades (other than premium brands):

(1) Add or deduct 15¢ per unit of nitrogen for each 5% of water-insoluble nitrogen in excess of or less than 25%.

(2) Add $1.25 per ton for each hundred pounds of oilseed meal, other than castor, guaranteed therein.

(3) Sulphate of potash differential in the general provisions of Appendix A do not apply to tobacco grades in Schedule G. Instead, deduct 30¢ for each 1% of chlorine in excess of 2% and, except for grades 5–5–20 and 4–9–3, add 60¢ per ton if all potash is derived from sulphate of potash.

(b) Delivery differentials: Nearest port means Baltimore, Norfolk, Wilmington, Charleston, Savannah or Jacksonville, the one from which the applicable rail or trucking rate as specified below, when added to the f. o. b. port price will give the lowest delivered price at the point of delivery.

(i) To determine the delivered-to-the-farm base price at any point: The delivered-to-the-farm base price is the base price in (a) for the area in which the farm is located, after making the appropriate additions or deductions provided for in the general provisions of this appendix and for special ingredients and after deducting freight allowances as follows:

(1) In the area covered by Column I (except as provided in (iii) below). The amount, if any, by which $5.00 exceeds the lowest carload rail freight rate per ton on the commodity from the nearest port to the consumer's nearest railroad station.

(ii) In the area covered by Columns II, III and IV (except as provided in (iii) below). The amount, if any, by which $3.75 exceeds the trucking rate per ton from the nearest port to the city or town nearest to or in which the farm is located, using the shortest highway mileage on the official state highway map and using the following trucking rates:

Mileage from Baltimore

$0.75 per ton for distances up to 5 miles; plus
2½ cents per ton for each additional mile for the next 70 miles, plus
1 cent per ton for each additional mile beyond 75 miles.

Mileage from other ports

$0.75 per ton for distances up to 15 miles
1.00 per ton for distances more than 15 and up to 25 miles
1.50 per ton for distances more than 25 and up to 40 miles

For distances over 40 miles, $1.50 per ton plus 1 cent per ton per mile in excess of 40 miles. (Assume 40 miles from Norfolk to Cape Charles.)

(iii) When delivery is made to the consumer's premises from a railhead, boatlanding or warehouse, as distinguished from delivery direct from factory, and the transportation cost (in no case to exceed the lowest published tariff rates or the trucker's maximum trucking rate) to the consumer's premises from the railroad station nearest thereto exceeds 75 cents per ton, such excess may be added to the prices as determined in (i) or (ii) above.

(2) Delivery at a factory not located at a port, or at a warehouse, boat landing or railsiding. If a consumer takes delivery at a factory not located at a port, or at a warehouse, boat landing or railsiding, deduct 75 cents per ton from the delivered-to-the-farm base price at such point as determined in (1) (i) or (1) (ii) above.

[Subparagraph (2) amended by Am. 4, effective 11–26–45]

(c) Quantity differentials. For deliveries in carloads or in 10-ton truck lots, deduct 2% from the price established by (b) (1) (i), (b) (1) (ii) or (b) (2) above.

[Paragraphs (b) and (c) amended by Am. 2]

(d) Terms. (1) To determine consumers' time prices, add 10 per cent to prices established by (b) (1) (i), (b) (1) (ii), (b) (2) or (c) above on unpaid balances as of May 1, on shipments made prior thereto and after the preceding December 1; as of July 1, on shipments made between the preceding April 30 and July 1; as of October 1, on shipments made between the preceding June 30 and October 1; and as of December 1, on shipments made between the preceding September 30 and December 1. Interest at the legal rate may be charged beginning with the date time prices become effective.

(2) For c. o. d. sales, shipments SD/BL, or for cash within 10 days after delivery, deduct 1% from the price established by (b) (1) (i), (b) (1) ii), (b) (2) or (c) above.

[Paragraph (d) amended by Am. 2, 9 F.R. 13974, effective 11–28–44, and Am. 4, effective 11–26–45]

II. Nitrogenous fertilizer materials. (a) Cash (payment within 10 days after delivery) prices per ton for nitrogenous fertilizer materials in bags shall be:

(1) F. o. b. the nearest wholesale price basing point as specified:

16–0–0	imported nitrate of soda	$37.00 f. o. b. nearest port
16–0–0	domestic nitrate of soda	34.00 f. o. b. Hopewell, Virginia
14–0–0	domestic nitrate of soda	30.00 f. o. b. Holston, Tennessee
14–0–14	nitrate of soda-potash	46.00 f. o. b. nearest port
20.5–0–0	sulphate of ammonia	36.20 f. o. b. nearest port or $35.20 f. o. b. nearest producing point, whichever results in the lowest delivered price.
20.5–0–0	ammonium-nitrate-lime compound	36.50 f. o. b. Hopewell, Virginia
20.6–0–0	calcium cyanamide	42.25 f. o. b. Niagara Falls, Ontario, Canada
32.5 (or higher)–0–0	imported ammonium nitrate	Add $5.00 per ton to the wholesale price at the point of delivery from the producer. (The wholesale price of imported ammonium nitrate in bags is equivalent per unit of nitrogen to the wholesale price of sulphate of ammonia in bulk at the point of delivery.)
32.5 (or higher)–0–0	domestic ammonium nitrate	55.00 f. o. b. Sheffield, Alabama
42–0–0	urea compound	66.40 f. o. b. the nearest port.

(2) Plus the cost of tax tags and the attaching thereof or state tonnage or inspection tax,

(3) Plus the transportation cost from the wholesale price basing point to the point at which the consumer takes delivery,

(4) Plus one charge of 50 cents per ton in the case of a manufacturer or dealer making delivery to a consumer of materials handled through his factory or warehouse.

(b) To determine the time price, add 10 per cent to the cash price. Interest at the legal rate may be added after May 1 on spring goods and after December 1 on fall goods.

[Part II amended by Am. 2, 9 F.R. 13974, effective 11–28–44]

[*Item added by Am. 4, effective 11–26–45]

Special ingredients. In addition to the adjustments provided for in the general provisions of this appendix, the base prices may be adjusted as follows for special ingredients:

Nitrate nitrogen, $0.50 per unit of N.

Total organic nitrogen (excess over one-tenth water-soluble shall be priced as ammoniacal nitrogen), $4.40 per unit of N.

Potash other than muriate forms, $0.30 per unit of K_2O.

Sulphur, $0.55 per unit of S.

Copper sulphate, $5.30 per unit of CuO.

Borax, $2.50 per unit of B_2O_3.

Zinc sulphate, $3.65 per unit of ZnO.

Iron sulphate, $1.30 per unit of Fe_2O_3.

Aluminum sulphate, $4.50 per unit of Al_2O_3.

Manganese sulphate, $3.00 per unit of MnO.

Magnesium oxide, $1.00 per unit of MgO.

(b) Quantity discounts. Buyers who during the preceding 12-month period have purchased and paid for mixed fertilizer and fertilizer materials, except nitrogenous materials, in the quantities specified below shall be allowed the following quantity discounts from the prices in (a) after making the appropriate additions or deductions provided for in the general provisions of this appendix:

	Percent
30 tons or more but less than 100 tons	5
100 tons or more but less than 300 tons	8
300 tons or more	10

(c) Delivery—(1) Farm delivery. The delivered-to-the-farm base price is the price in (a) above after making the appropriate additions or deductions provided for in the general provisions of this appendix and after deducting therefrom the applicable quantity discount and the amount, if any, by which $4.50 per ton exceeds the lowest carload rail freight rate per ton on the commodity to the consumer's nearest railroad station from Jacksonville or Tampa, whichever is lower.

(2) Railsiding or boatlanding delivery. To arrive at the base price for goods delivered at the consumer's nearest railsiding or boatlanding deduct $0.75 from the delivered-to-the-farm price established in (1) above.

(3) Port factory delivery. To arrive at the base price for goods sold f. o. b. factory or warehouse at Tampa or Jacksonville, deduct $5.25 per ton from the prices in (a) after making the appropriate additions or deductions provided for in the general provisions of this appendix and after deducting the applicable quantity discount.

(4) Inland factory delivery. To arrive at the base price for goods sold f. o. b. factory or warehouse at locations other than Tampa or Jacksonville, add to the f. o. b. port factory price, established in (3) above, the lowest carload rail freight rate on the commodity to such inland factory or warehouse from Tampa or Jacksonville, whichever is lower.

(5) For less than carload shipments to consumer's nearest railroad station an additional charge may be made equal to the transportation cost in excess of the carload rate.

[Subparagraph (5) amended by Am. 2, 9 F.R. 13974, effective 11–28–44]

(d) Terms—(1) Time prices. The time prices are the prices established in (c) above. Interest may be added at the rate of 6% per annum from the 10th of the month following the month in which delivery is made.

(2) Cash discount. From the time prices deduct 5% for payment in cash by the 10th of the month following the month in which delivery is made.

II. Nitrogenous fertilizer materials. (a) Cash (payment by the 10th of the month following the month of delivery) prices per ton for nitrogenous fertilizer materials in bags shall be:

(1) F. o. b. the nearest wholesale price basing point as specified:

16–0–0	imported nitrate of soda	$37.00 f. o. b. nearest port
16–0–0	domestic nitrate of soda	34.00 f. o. b. Hopewell, Virginia
14–0–0	domestic nitrate of soda	30.00 f. o. b. Holston, Tennessee
14–0–14	nitrate of soda-potash	46.00 f. o. b. nearest port
20.5–0–0	sulphate of ammonia	36.20 f. o. b. nearest port
20.5–0–0	ammonium nitrate-lime-compound	36.50 f. o. b. Hopewell, Virginia
20.6–0–0	calcium cyanamide	42.25 f. o. b. Niagara Falls, Ontario, Canada
32.5 (or higher)–0–0	ammonium nitrate	55.00 f. o. b. Sheffield, Alabama
42–0–0	urea compound	66.40 f. o. b. nearest port
7–0–0	castor pomace [1]	24.30 f. o. b. Bayonne, New Jersey

[1] Basis 7 units of ammonia and in original bags, plus or minus $2.90 per unit of ammonia variation from 7 units.

[Table amended by Am. 3, 10 F.R. 1402, effective 2–6–45]

(2) Plus the cost of tax tags and the attaching thereof,

(3) Plus the transportation cost from the wholesale price basing point to the point at which the consumer takes delivery,

(4) Plus one charge of 50 cents per ton in the case of a manufacturer or dealer making delivery to a consumer of materials handled through his factory or warehouse.

(b) To determine the time price, add 5 percent to the cash price. Interest may be charged at the rate of 6 percent per annum from the 10th of the month following the month in which delivery is made.

[Part II amended by Am. 2, 9 F.R. 13974, effective 11–28–44]

(b) Terms. (1) On sales sight draft, SD/BL, c. o. d., or cash in advance, a discount of 1% is to be made from the base prices after making the appropriate additions and deductions provided for in the general provisions of this appendix.

(2) To determine the time prices, add 10 per cent to the base prices after making the appropriate additions and deductions provided for in the general provisions of this appendix. Interest at 6 per cent per annum may be charged after May 1 on spring goods and after December 1 on fall goods.

[Subparagraph (2) amended by Am. 3, 10 F.R. 1402, effective 2–6–45]

(c) Delivery. (1) When delivery is taken at a factory, whether or not such factory is located in the area covered in Schedule I, deduct the following amounts from the cash or time prices for the shortest highway mileage from factory to railhead or dealer's warehouse nearest consumer's premises:

$0.75 per ton for distances up to 15 miles.

$1.00 per ton for distances over 15 up to 25 miles.

$1.50 per ton for distances over 25 up to 40 miles.

For distances over 40 miles, $1.50 per ton plus 1 cent per ton per mile in excess of 40 miles.

(2) For less than carload shipments to consumer's nearest railhead, an additional charge may be made equal to the transportation cost in excess of the carload rate.

II. Nitrogenous fertilizer materials. (a) Cash (payment upon delivery) prices per ton for nitrogenous fertilizer materials in bags shall be:

[Table amended by Am. 2, 9 F.R. 13974, effective 11–28–44. *Prices added: Item added by Am. 4, effective 11–26–45]

(b) Terms. (1) The base price, after making appropriate additions and deductions provided for in the general provisions of this appendix, is the price for sales sight draft, SD/BL, c. o. d., cash in advance or cash within 10 days after delivery.

(2) To determine the time prices, add 11 per cent to the cash prices. Interest may be charged from December 1 on fall shipments and from May 1 on spring shipments at the rate of 8 per cent per annum (10 per cent per annum after maturity in Oklahoma, Texas and New Mexico only).

[Subparagraph (2) amended by Am. 2, 9 F.R. 13974, effective 11–28–44]

(c) Delivery. (1) When delivery is taken at a factory, whether or not such factory is located in the area covered in Schedule K, deduct the following amounts from the cash or time prices for the shortest highway mileage from factory to railhead or dealer's warehouse nearest consumer's premises:

$0.75 per ton for distances up to 15 miles.

$1.00 per ton for distances between 15 and 25 miles.

$1.50 per ton for distances between 25 and 40 miles.

For distances over 40 miles, $1.50 per ton plus 1¢ per ton per mile in excess of 40.

(2) For less than carload shipments to consumer's nearest railhead, an additional charge may be made equal to the transportation cost in excess of the carload rate.

II. Nitrogenous fertilizer materials. (a) Cash (payment within 10 days after delivery) prices per ton for nitrogenous fertilizer materials in bags shall be:

(1) F. o. b. the nearest wholesale price basing point as specified:

16–0–0	imported nitrate of soda	$37.00 f. o. b. nearest port
16–0–0	domestic nitrate of soda	34.00 f. o. b. Hopewell, Virginia
14–0–0	domestic nitrate of soda	30.00 f. o. b. Holston, Tennessee
14–0–14	nitrate of soda-potash	46.00 f. o. b. nearest port
20.5–0–0	sulphate of ammonia	36.20 f. o. b. nearest port or $35.20 f. o. b. nearest producing point, whichever results in the lowest delivered price.
20.5–0–0	ammonium nitrate-lime-compound	$36.50 f. o. b. Hopewell, Virginia
20.6–0–0	calcium cyanamide	42.25 f. o. b. Niagara Falls, Ontario, Canada
32.5 (or higher)–0–0	ammonium nitrate	55.00 f. o. b. nearest producing point
42–0–0	urea compound	66.40 f. o. b. nearest port

(2) Plus the cost of tax tags and the attaching thereof,

(3) Plus the transportation cost from the wholesale price basing point to the point at which the consumer takes delivery,

(4) Plus one charge of 50 cents per ton in the case of a manufacturer or dealer making delivery to a consumer of materials handled through his factory or warehouse.

(b) To determine the time price, add 11 per cent to the cash price. Interest may be charged at rates and from dates as specified in I (b) (2) above.

(c) Delivery. (1) When delivery is taken at a factory, whether or not such factory is located in the area covered in Schedule M, deduct the following amounts from the cash or time prices for the shortest highway mileage from factory to railhead or dealer's warehouse nearest to consumer's premises:

$0.75 per ton for distances up to 10 miles.
$1.10 per ton for distances between 10 and 15 miles.
$1.20 per ton for distances between 15 and 20 miles.
$1.25 per ton for distances between 20 and 25 miles.
$1.35 per ton for distances between 25 and 30 miles.
$1.40 per ton for distances between 30 and 35 miles.
$1.50 per ton for distances between 35 and 40 miles.

For distances over 40 miles, $1.50 plus 1¢ per ton per mile in excess of 40 miles.

(2) For less than carload shipments to consumer's nearest railhead, an additional charge may be made equal to the transportation cost in excess of the carload rate.

SCHEDULE N—FOR CONSUMERS LOCATED IN OHIO INDIANA, MICHIGAN, ILLINOIS, WISCONSIN, IOWA, MISSOURI, MINNESOTA, NEBRASKA, KANSAS, NORTH DAKOTA, SOUTH DAKOTA AND OKLAHOMA (COUNTIES EXCEPTED IN SCHEDULE E)

(a) Delivered-to-railhead or warehouse base prices per ton for goods in 80 or 100-pound paper bags for consumers located in the following states:

[1] On direct shipments from points of production or port of entry, when consumer takes delivery at car door, deduct $3.00 per ton from the above prices.

[Paragraph (a) amended by Am. 2, 9 F.R. 13974, effective 11-28-44 and Am. 3, 10 F.R. 1402, effective 2-6-45. *Price added by Am. 4, effective 11-26-45]

Base prices for western parts of North Dakota, and South Dakota:

Eastern Nebraska. Prices in the tables above apply to deliveries in the counties of Dakota, Thurston, Burt, Dodge, Saunders, Lancaster and Gage and counties east thereof.

Central Nebraska. Add $1.40 per ton for deliveries in counties west of the above and east of and including counties of Knox, Antelope, Boone, Nance, Merrick, Hall, Adams and Webster.

[Above paragraph amended by Am. 3, 10 F.R. 1402, effective 2-6-45]

Western Nebraska. For the area west of counties listed in Central Nebraska, add the carload rate of freight in excess of $5.00 per ton from Chicago to destination, divided by .84, to the prices for Central Nebraska.

North Dakota. Prices in the tables above apply to delivery in the counties of Pembina, Walsh, Grand Forks, Cass, Richland and Traill and counties east thereof.

South Dakota. Prices in the tables above apply to delivery in the counties of McPherson, Faik, Edmunds, Hyde, Buffalo, Burle and Charles Mix and counties east thereof.

Western North and South Dakota. For the area west of the counties listed above, add the carload rate of freight in excess of $5.00 per ton from Chicago to destination, divided by .82, to the prices in the tables for eastern North and South Dakota.

(b) Terms. (1) The base price, after making the appropriate additions and deductions provided for in the general provisions of this appendix, shall be the time price. Interest may be charged at the legal rate from the date of delivery of the goods.

(2) On sales sight draft, SD/BL, c. o. d., or cash in advance, deduct 5% from the time price.

(c) Delivery. (1) For deliveries taken at a factory, whether or not such factory is located in the area covered in Schedule N, deduct the lowest carload rail rate per ton on the commodity from factory to railhead nearest to consumer's premises.

(2) For less-than-carload shipments, add the difference between the carload and less-than-carload rate of freight.

For potash from muriate, deduct 25¢ per unit.

(b) Terms. (1) The base prices, after making the appropriate additions or deductions provided for in the general provisions of this appendix, shall be the time prices. Interest may be charged at the legal rate after 30 days from the date of delivery.

(2) Cash discount. To determine the cash price, deduct from the time price 5% for cash payment within 10 days after delivery.

(c) Delivery—(1) Delivered or f. o. b. warehouse. Prices above are delivered to consumer's ranch in full truckloads, to consumer's nearest rail station in carloads, or f. o. b. dealer's or agent's warehouse for sales of any quantity, except that for deliveries direct from factory in the area covered by Column III, the transportation cost from the nearest factory, of the fertilizer manufacturer who supplied the fertilizer, to the consumer's ranch or rail station in excess of $3.00 per ton, may be for the buyer's account.

(2) F. o. b. factory. For sales, f. o. b. the factory, deduct $1.00 per ton from the time or cash price for the area in which the factory is located.

(3) Less truckload deliveries. If delivery is made to the consumer's ranch in less than truckloads, the cost of trucking in excess of the full truckload rate may be added to the price as determined in (1) above.

(4) Materials, f. o. b. port or production point. For sales of nitrate of soda f. o. b. truck at port of entry, or superphosphate f. o. b. truck at point of production, deduct $2.00 per ton from the prices in Column I.

(5) Direct shipments of fertilizer. For sales of ordinary superphosphate, nitrate of soda and urea compound delivered in carload lots direct from the point of production or port of entry to the consumer's rail station, deduct $2.00 per ton from the delivered price as otherwise determined herein.

For sales of triple superphosphate, sulphate of ammonia, ammonium nitrate and ammonium phosphate delivered in carload lots direct from the point of production to the consumer's rail station, deduct $2.00 per ton from the price in Column I, except that additional freight, if any, to such point of delivery, in excess of the freight customarily absorbed by the producer of such material, may be charged to the consumer.

PART 1384—HARDWOOD LUMBER PRODUCTS

[MPR 568,[1] Amdt. 6]

HARDWOOD PLYWOOD

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

Maximum Price Regulation 568 is amended in the following respects:

1. In section 3, the heading of that section and paragraphs (a) and (b) are amended to read as follows with paragraph (c) remaining as presently written.

SEC. 3. Maximum f. o. b. mill prices: direct-mill sales—(a) Items specifically priced. The maximum f. o. b. mill prices on direct-mill sales for hardwood plywood manufactured to specifications CS-35-42, 82-17, § B-1b or JAN-P-66, § B-1b shall be the prices set forth in section 16.

(b) Maximum prices for hardwood plywood covered by this regulation but not specifically priced. Hardwood plywood not covered by the tables in section 16 is, nevertheless, subject to this regulation and the maximum price for the plywood shall be established as provided in this section.

Not later than 15 days after the manufacturer accepts an order or quotes a price on an inquiry for hardwood plywood covered by this paragraph (b) the manufacturer shall file an application for price approval with the Lumber Branch of the Office of Price Administration, Washington, 25, D. C., in the manner provided below.

No person shall deliver the plywood or collect payment or a portion of the payment for such plywood unless the manufacturer of the hardwood plywood files an application for price approval as provided in this section 3 (b) within the 15-day period described above.

As soon as an application for price approval containing all of the information and attachments required by Form 6073-2575 or Form 6073-2576 appearing in subparagraphs (1) and (2) below respectively, whichever is the appropriate form, is filed by the manufacturer as required in this section, the manufacturer may use the requested price as a tentative maximum price, but all quotations, contracts, and invoices must notify the buyer that the price is subject to approval by the Office of Price Administration. If the requested price is reduced by the Office of Price Administration, the seller shall within 10 days after he receives notice of such reduction refund any excess which he may have received over the price approved by the Office of Price Administration and revise any outstanding invoices, quotations, or contracts which may exceed the approved price.

Within thirty (30) days following receipt by the Lumber Branch of the Office of Price Administration of an application which is properly filed and contains all of the information and attachments required by Form 6073-2575 or Form 6073-2576, whichever is the appropriate form, the Office of Price Administration shall transmit to the manufacturer an approval of a maximum price. If the Office of Price Administration fails to send such price approval, the manufacturer may use as his maximum price the lesser of either:

(A) The price requested on the application, or

(B) The maximum price which the Office of Price Administration may have previously approved for that seller for the same item of plywood.

However, the maximum price in either (A) or (B) shall apply only to the one order covered by the application and only to the quantity of hardwood plywood covered by that order on the date of the application.

If the application has not been properly filed with complete information and attachments within the fifteen (15) day time limit as specified above, the requested price shall not be deemed approved even though the Office of Price Administration does not transmit an approval of a maximum price within the 30-day period described above.

Each application shall cover only one specification of hardwood plywood even though the manufacturer is fulfilling an order involving more than one specification, and each application must be complete with all attachments. The applicant must number his applications serially beginning with Number 1.

A maximum price approved by the Office of Price Administration on Form 6073-2575 for an item covered by paragraph (b) (1) shall apply only to the one order covered by the application and to subsequent sales of the identical item by that seller to the same buyer and for the same purpose as those in that order. However, a maximum price duly approved by the Office of Price Administration on Form 6073-2576 for an item covered by paragraph (b) (2) shall apply to subsequent sales by that seller of the identical item of hardwood plywood unless the Office of Price Administration limits the applicability of the approved price in some manner.

A maximum price duly approved by the Office of Price Administration, under this section 3 (b) may subsequently be reduced by the Office of Price Administration in regard to shipments made subsequent to a date specified by that Office, but such date shall not be earlier than the date of the notice of the reduction.

(1) Technical hardwood plywood. For hardwood plywood manufactured according to Specification AN-NN-P-511b, AN-P-69, 72-48, 39-P-15 (Int.), 82-17, §§ B-1c and B-1d, (Marine and Hutment grades), JAN-P-66, §§ B-1c, B-1d and B-1e, (Marine, Hutment and Fire Retardant grades), or JEG-11, an application for price approval shall be considered only, (A), on sales or quotations to the United States or any agency thereof, or, (B), on sales or quotations to a buyer who indicates or shows to the satisfaction of the Office of Price Administration that the particular specification of hardwood plywood is required for the particular purpose to which the plywood is put.

An application for price approval for hardwood plywood of one of the specifications named above in this subparagraph (1) shall be submitted by the manufacturer in duplicate on Form 6073-2575 reproduced below:

c. Manufactured in zone 3	91.50	100.00	108.00	112.50	118.50

B. Requiring addition of a face and back to produce ¼" 3 ply plywood of mahogany or other imported wood, or walnut of specifications other than as priced in tables 1, 2 or 3.
(Type 3 glue; rotary cut inner plies of hardwood, species at option of manufacturer, drum sanded 2 sides, widths up to 36".)

	Lengths
	Up to 48"	Over 48" to 60"	Over 60" to 72"	Over 72" to 84"	Over 84" to 96"
a. Manufactured in zone 1	$62.00	$70.50	$75.00	$83.50	$95.50

c. Manufactured in zone 3	89.75	98.25	105.75	109.75	113.75

NOTE 1. In order to price a basic panel to produce other than ¼" 3 ply plywood the appropriate differentials from table 4 shall be used.

NOTE 2. Table 8 shall be used in determining the prices for plywood with mahogany or other imported woods, or walnut face, or face and back which are not specifically priced in tables 1, 2 or 3. However, approval of the price for such plywood must be obtained in accordance with section 3 (b) of the regulation except as provided in note 3 below.

NOTE 3. When the completed plywood is not for resale in its original form (that is, in the blank form sawn to square or rectangular form and sanded), and the customer furnishes the face or the face and back to the plywood manufacturer to produce mahogany or other imported woods or walnut plywood, the applicable basic panel prices in table 8 shall be the plywood manufacturer's maximum f. o. b. mill price for that plywood to such customer.

In any transaction other than that set forth above in this note 3, when the customer furnishes the face or the face and back the manufacturer's maximum f. o. b. mill price for that plywood shall be the applicable basic panel prices in table 8. However, the maximum prices for all sellers other than the manufacturer of that plywood shall be the appropriate prices provided in section 3 or section 6. If the completed panel is not specifically priced in section 16, the manufacturer of the plywood shall apply for an approved price for the completed plywood under the provisions of section 3 (b) in order to establish the basis on which subsequent sellers can determine their prices.

This amendment shall become effective November 26, 1945.

NOTE: All reporting and record keeping requirements of this amendment have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 21st day of November 1945.

FERTILIZER AND FERTILIZER MATERIALS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

Section 2.12 of Revised Supplementary Regulation No. 1 is amended by adding the following paragraph at the end thereof:

(v) Any kind of mixed fertilizer, superphosphate, potash or nitrogenous material:

(1) In tablet, capsule, liquid or gaseous form for use by consumers as such, or

(2) In granular form in packages of less than 80 pounds net weight, or

(3) In granular form in a container of any size if such container or a tag attached thereto clearly states that such fertilizer was manufactured and is offered to consumers for use on lawns, parks, golf courses, cemeteries, roadsides, flowers, bulbs, shrubs, gardens or ornamental trees or plants rather than for use on commercial field crops.

[SR 14C,[1] Amdt. 14]

PREPARED MUSTARD

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

Supplementary Regulation 14C is amended in the following respects:

Section 4.7 is added to read as follows:

SEC. 4.7 (a) Maximum prices for sales by manufacturers of prepared mustard in containers of 16 ounces and over. The manufacturer's maximum price per dozen or other unit to any class of purchaser for an item of prepared mustard in containers of 16 ounces and over shall be his maximum price under § 1499.2 of the General Maximum Price Regulation plus an increase per dozen or other unit, figured by multiplying $0.006 by the number of ounces of mustard seed contained in the selling unit being priced.

(b) Maximum prices for sales by wagon wholesalers of prepared mustard in containers of 16 ounces and over. A wagon wholesaler shall figure his maximum price per dozen or other unit for each item of prepared mustard in containers of 16 ounces and over by adding to his net delivered cost a markup of 25% of such cost. These maximum prices shall be refigured on receipt of an item whenever there is any change in the net delivered cost.

A "wagon wholesaler" is one who purchases the item being priced and distributes it to retailers or to commercial, industrial, or institutional users from an inventory stocked in trucks or other conveyances which are under the supervision of driver salesmen who make delivery at the time and place of sale. Such a wholesaler is a wagon wholesales only for sales made in this manner.

A wagon wholesaler's "net delivered cost" means the amount he pays for the item delivered at his customary receiving point less all discounts allowed him, except the discount for prompt payment. However, no expense of local trucking or handling shall be included.

(c) Notification of new maximum price. With the first delivery after November 21, 1945, of any item of prepared mustard in containers of 16 ounces and over in any case where a seller determines his maximum price pursuant to this section, he shall:

(1) Supply each wholesaler and retailer who purchases from him with a written notice, as set forth below:

(Insert date)

NOTICE TO WHOLESALERS AND RETAILERS

Our O. P. A. ceiling price for (describe item by kind, grade, brand, and container type and size) has been changed by the Office of Price Administration. We are authorized to inform you that if you are a wholesaler or retailer pricing this item under Maximum Price Regulations Nos. 421, 422 or 423, you must refigure your ceiling price for this item on the first delivery of it to you from your customary type of supplier containing this notification on and after (insert effective date of ceiling price change). You must refigure your ceiling price following the rules in section 6 of Maximum Price Regulations Nos. 421, 422 or 423, whichever is applicable to you.

For a period of 60 days after determining such maximum price and with the first shipment after the 60-day period to each person who has not made a purchase within that time, each seller shall include in each case, carton or other receptacle containing the item, the written notice set forth above, or securely attach it to the outside. However, for sales direct to any retailer, the seller may supply the notice by attaching it to or stating it on the invoice covering the shipment, instead of providing it with the goods.

This amendment shall become effective November 21, 1945.

Issued this 21st day of November 1945.

CHESTER BOWLES,
Administrator.

PART 1499—COMMODITIES AND SERVICES

[MPR 580, Amdt. 2 to Gen. Retail Order 3]

"HOUSE-TO-HOUSE" SALES

An opinion accompanying this Amendment 2 to General Retail Order No. 3 under section 23 of Maximum Price Regulation 580[1] issued simultaneously herewith has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

[1] 10 F.R. 12603.

General Retail Order No. 3 under section 23 of Maximum Price Regulation 580 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1 is amended by adding the following undesignated paragraph at the end thereof:

However, this order shall not apply to you if you are a "house-to-house seller." "House-to-house seller" means a retailer who in the year 1944 secured at least 75% of his dollar volume of business through the personal solicitation of orders by salesmen calling at the homes or places of business of ultimate consumers, who are not commercial, industrial or institutional users. A retailer is a "house-to-house seller" only with respect to articles delivered pursuant to orders which had been solicited in the manner stated above.

2. Section 2 (c) (1) is amended by adding the following sentence at the end thereof: "However, if you received an adjustment of your maximum price of that article under the provisions of § 1499.18 (a) of the General Maximum Price Regulation, your "1942 markup" is your markup over net cost of that article which you last delivered prior to October 4, 1945, computed by dividing the net cost of that article (as shown on the last invoice you received for the article prior to October 4, 1945) into the difference between that net cost and your selling price on that last delivery prior to October 4, 1945."

This amendment shall become effective November 23, 1945.

Issued this 21st day of November 1945.

MAXIMUM RATES OF TRANSPORTERS OF MOTOR VEHICLES

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this Amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

A new section 14 is added as follows:

SEC. 14. Modification of maximum rates for the transportation of automobiles and trucks by carriers other than common carriers. Notwithstanding any other provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation, maximum rates for the transportation of motor vehicles over highways, by the Driveaway, Truckaway, Towaway, and similar methods, by carriers other than common carriers, may be established or adjusted in accordance with the following procedure:

(a) The carrier and the shipper may mutually agree upon an adjusted rate or a new rate which shall be reported by the carrier to the Transportation and Public Utilities Division, Office of Price Administration within 10 days of the date of the agreement on the "rate report" form prescribed below. The reported agreed price, may not exceed the lowest level of rates for the "same or similar services" lawfully charged by available common or contract carriers in the same area. Rates in excess of those levels may not be established except upon a showing of substantial hardship under Supplementary Regulation 15.

Increases under this paragraph (a) may be made only where the shipper furnishes a statement to the effect that the resulting increases in transportation costs will not be used as the basis for increasing the ceiling price for the commodity or service which the shipper sells whether by reason of transportation allowances permitted in the applicable OPA maximum price regulation, petitions for amendment, or applications for adjustments or exceptions, or in any other manner, which will result in higher ceiling prices to the purchaser or consignee of the commodities.

(b) Reports filed under this Section shall contain the following information:

(1) Name and address of carrier, indicating whether an individual, partnership, or corporation.

(2) Brief description of business indicating operating authority and permit numbers.

(3) Names and addresses of customers to be served.

(4) Type of motor vehicle to be carried, as truck, passenger automobile, etc., points of origin and destination, or description of territory served, the existing or old rates, and the new rates agreed upon.

(5) Common or contract carrier rates for the same or similar service available in the same area, with reference to tariff authorities for such rates. Where such rates are available in published Tariff rates or schedules, reference to such rates or schedules will suffice.

The report must be accompanied by the shipper's statement referred to above.

(c) Established rates become ceiling. Any rate established under this Section becomes a ceiling and may not subsequently be redetermined under this Section, but can only be changed on specific order of OPA pursuant to an appropriate application for adjustment.

This amendment shall become effective November 21, 1945.

NOTE: All reporting requirements of this amendment have been approved by the Budget Bureau in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 21st day of November 1945.

ORDINARY CHANNEL BLACK

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

Maximum Price Regulation 597 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 4 (a) is amended to read as follows:

(a) Applicability. This regulation applies only to ordinary channel black (including ink and color blacks) and the following premium brands of channel black which for the purposes of this regulation shall be considered ordinary channel black: "Ex-cello X" produced by the Imperial Oil and Gas Products Company; "Uncompressed Blacks A" and "AA" produced by Charles Eneu Johnson and Company; "No. 242" produced by the Columbian Carbon Company; "Black Pearls #78" (dustless), "Monarch #78," and "Black Pearls #80" (dustless), "Spheron C," "Spheron I," produced by the Cabot Carbon Co.; "Dixie B," "Kosmos B" and "Kosmos 3 X B," produced by the United Carbon Company; "Extra Witco Uncompressed," "Witco 270," and "Witco R 20" produced by the Panhandle Carbon Company.

2. The following sentence is added to section 12 (b): "However, in the case of premium brands of channel black listed in section 4 (a) a reseller's maximum price for the particular brand listed shall be his maximum price established under the General Maximum Price Regulation on May 11, 1942 plus the difference between the manufacturer's current and March 1942 price per pound for the same brand in bags in carload lots."

This amendment shall become effective November 28, 1945.

Issued this 23d day of November 1945.

a. By deleting "(1)" immediately preceding "truck and trailer delivered maximum prices" and inserting in lieu thereof "(i)".

b. "(1)" is inserted immediately preceding "P. S. 100 and P. S. 200 fuel oils."

c. Subparagraph (2) is renumbered (ii).

d. A new subparagraph (2) is added to read as follows:

(2) Pressure appliance fuel. Maximum tank wagon prices exclusive of all taxes of any petroleum fraction sold for use as pressure appliance fuel in the States of Arizona, California, Nevada, Oregon, and Washington shall be as follows:

Quantity	Amount
In single lot deliveries of 40 gallons or more.	The reference seller's (as designated in section 7.2) maximum tank wagon price exclusive of all taxes for 73 octane aviation gasoline.
In single lot deliveries of 10 to 39 gallons.	The maximum price for 40 gallons or more plus 3¢ per gallon.
In single lot deliveries of 5 to 9 gallons.	The maximum price for 40 gallons or more plus 6¢ per gallon.
For package deliveries.	Applicable bulk price plus seller's regularly established package differential.

5. The table entitled "Amount of increase" in section 6.4 (a) (1) (ii) is amended to read as follows:

PART 1347—PAPER, PAPER PRODUCTS, RAW MATERIALS FOR PAPER AND PAPER PRODUCTS, PRINTING AND PUBLISHING

[MPR 450[1], Amdt. 8]

WRITING PAPER AND CERTAIN OTHER FINE PAPERS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

Maximum Price Regulation 450 is amended in the following respect:

Section 16 is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 16. Sales to the United States Government or any agency thereof. The maximum price for sales to the United States Government or any agency thereof shall be the maximum price for the sale of that paper by a manufacturer as listed in this regulation less a discount of 3%. Differentials shall be applied in accordance with the provisions of this regulation relating to the application of such differentials upon sales other than to the Federal Government.

With respect to such sales, manufacturers should refer to section 4 of this regulation in which there are set forth certain conditions under which a sale by a manufacturer to or through a merchant to a specific purchaser is considered to be a sale by that manufacturer to that purchaser.

This amendment shall become effective November 28, 1945.

Issued this 23d day of November 1945.

PART 1358—TOBACCO

[RMPR 494,[1] Amdt. 4]

DOMESTIC CIGAR FILLER AND BINDER TOBACCO

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

Revised Maximum Price Regulation 494 is amended in the following respects:

1. In subparagraph 2 (a) (6) the words "Stemming Ends grade" and "Types 54 and 55" are deleted wherever they appear.

2. The following sentence is added to subparagraph 2 (a) (11): "This definition shall not apply to Types 54 and 55."

3. In paragraph 4 (a) the words "Type 54 (Southern Wisconsin, except Grant County)" "Type 55 (Northern Wisconsin, including Grant County)" "Type 54" and "Type 55" are deleted wherever they appear.

4. Paragraph 4 (c) is redesignated paragraph 4 (e) and a new paragraph (c) is added to section 4 to read as follows:

(c) Maximum prices for Types 54 and 55—(1) Weighted average maximum selling price for packed tobacco. If you are a packer of Type 54 (Southern Wisconsin except Grant County) or Type 55 (Northern Wisconsin including Grant County) your maximum price per pound, marked weight, shall be a weighted average selling price computed as follows:

(i) You shall ascertain your net delivered cost for such tobacco in green condition of the 1939, 1940 and 1941 crops which you purchased.

(ii) You shall ascertain the total amount you realized from your sales of this tobacco in packed condition of the 1939, 1940 and 1941 crops which you sold. From this total you shall subtract your packing costs (as defined in subparagraph 2 (a) (20)) on the tobacco which you sold.

(iii) You shall then ascertain your markup factor for sales of packed tobacco by dividing the resulting figure at (ii) by the resulting figure at (i).

(iv) Your maximum price per pound for packed tobacco of a particular crop year shall be a weighted average maximum selling price to be ascertained by dividing the net delivered cost to you of the tobacco of that crop year in green condition by the number of pounds of packed tobacco, marked weight, derived from the tobacco which you bought of the crop year being priced. You shall multiply this result by your markup factor you determined at (iii) above. To this result you shall add the packing costs (as defined in subparagraph (2 (a) (20)) per pound marked weight attributable to the tobacco of the crop year being priced. This sum shall be your weighted average maximum selling price per pound, marked weight, for all your sales of packed tobacco of a particular crop year.

You may sell any of this tobacco at a price in excess of your weighted average maximum selling price per pound, marked weight, only if your weighted average selling price for all your sales of this type of tobacco at no time exceeds your weighted average maximum selling price per pound determined at (iv) above.

(2) Packer's markup for sweated in the bundle tobacco. A packer's maximum price per pound for sweated in the bundle or bale tobacco shall be ascertained by multiplying the net delivered cost per pound to the packer of the tobacco being priced by 1.15.

"Packer" of Types 54 and 55 means a person who with respect to the tobacco being priced sorts, grades, sizes, ties in hands, fully sweats and packs in cases or bundles or bales the tobacco in accordance with established trade custom ready for use by a manufacturer of tobacco products. Tobacco shall not be considered fully sweated unless it has undergone a forced sweat of at least six weeks in heated premises or a natural sweat extending at least through July 31st of the year following the year in which the tobacco was grown. Tobacco which is sold unsweated in bundles or bales shall not be considered packed tobacco. However, low grades (as defined in 2 (a) (19)) may be sold with a packer's markup whether the tobacco is packed in bundles, bales, or cases or with any or all of a packer's functions omitted, in accordance with established trade custom. A manufacturer shall be deemed a packer of any tobacco with respect to which he performs or causes to be performed for his account these functions. With respect to any particular lot of tobacco, there may be only one "packer", regardless of whether the tobacco is re-sweated, re-graded, re-sorted or other packer's functions repeated.

"Sweated in the bundle or bale tobacco" means tobacco which has been fully sweated in the bundle or bale as defined in the definition of "Packer" of Types 54 and 55 above but on which any or all of the functions of sorting, sizing, grading, or tying in hands has been omitted. No further packer's markup may be taken on tobacco which has been sold as sweated in the bundle tobacco.

3. A new paragraph (d) is added to section 4 to read as follows:

(d) Packers of all types of domestic cigar filler and binder tobacco of the 1945 and later crops shall meet the following requirements in their purchases and storage of such tobacco:

(1) The packer shall mark crops in the customary manner and keep crops of separate producers segregated for a period of not less than fifteen days after he takes them into premises owned or controlled by him, in such fashion that the weight of the separate crops may be readily ascertained.

(2) The packer shall give each producer from whom he purchases a crop, a receipt indicating the green weight and grades of the tobacco purchased and shall keep copies of such receipts for examination by the Office of Price Administration for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect.

NOTE: All reporting and record-keeping requirements of this amendment have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

This amendment shall become effective November 23, 1945.

Issued this 23d day of November 1945.

CHESTER BOWLES,
Administrator.

Approved November 9, 1945.

J. B. HUTSON,
Acting Secretary of Agriculture.

Chapter XXIII—Surplus Property Administration

[SPA Reg. 5,[2] Order 5]

PART 8305—SURPLUS NONINDUSTRIAL REAL PROPERTY

DISPOSITION OF CERTAIN WAR HOUSING PROJECTS BY THE NATIONAL HOUSING AGENCY

The National Housing Agency has reported that its constituent agency, the Defense Homes Corporation, now owns and is operating the following war housing projects which are located in the Metropolitan Area of the District of Columbia:

McLean Gardens, Fairlington, Naylor Gardens, Meridian Hill Hotel, Lucy D. Slowe Hall, G. W. Carver Hall, which projects the Defense Homes Corporation has indicated its intention of declaring surplus at an early date.

The National Housing Agency represents that in order to take advantage of a present favorable market for these properties it is desirable that they be processed for disposition without giving notice of availability in the manner provided in § 8305.12, and without awaiting the required ninety (90) day period for the exercise of any priorities. Notice of availability will however be given to priority holders and to the public by adequate sales notices in newspapers published in the District of Columbia, where the properties are located, or to which they are adjacent, and in other appropriate methods and localities so that interested persons will be advised of the availability of said properties and given an opportunity to submit offers therefor.

It is further represented that during a period of many months in anticipation of the time when such properties would be made available for disposal there have been proposals and inquiries from a large number of potential purchasers, and that substantially wide publicity has been given to the prospective availability of the properties.

The National Housing Agency further desires to have the authority to negotiate with prospective purchasers for the sale of said projects in order to obtain the highest possible price therefor and, under proper circumstances, to afford credit to the purchasers upon the payment of reasonable amounts in cash. It is therefore ordered, That:

1. Notwithstanding the provisions of this part, upon a declaration of surplus by the Defense Homes Corporation of the following war housing projects designated as: the National Housing Agency, as disposal agency, after having given notice by mail to all Government agencies listed in Exhibit B and to the State and local governments thirty (30) days prior to the date of sale, and after having also advertised such projects for sale in newspapers published in the District of Columbia at least four (4) consecutive weeks prior to the date of sale, and after having also during such period advertised the properties for sale in such other newspapers or trade publications, including press releases, as will widely publicize the same and give adequate information to interested persons concerning the general nature of the properties, which notices by mail and by publication may be given and commenced respectively prior to the formal declaration of surplus, is hereby authorized to negotiate for a sale of any one or all of such projects, including land, buildings, and facilities thereof. The price at which any such projects shall be transferred to a Government agency shall be the fair value thereof as determined by the National Housing Agency; and the price at which any of such projects shall be sold to a person other than a Government agency shall be the best price obtainable, which price shall not be less than the current market value of any such project.

McLean Gardens, Fairlington, Naylor Gardens, Meridian Hill Hotel, Lucy D. Slowe Hall, G. W. Carver Hall,

2. The disposal of any of such projects to purchasers other than Government agencies may be made upon such terms and conditions, including such credit terms over such period of years, and at such rates of interest, as the National Housing Agency may deem to be necessary or desirable to facilitate any such sale, to protect the interest of the Government and to carry out the requirements and objectives of the act; Provided, however, That a written statement of the proposed price and terms for the disposal of any of such projects shall first be submitted to the Administrator for review, setting forth:

(a) The general description of the land, buildings, and facilities included in the project, the acquisition cost thereof, and the present investment of Defense Homes Corporation therein;

(b) An estimate of the reproduction cost under present market conditions;

(c) A summary of the publicity, advertisement, or circularization given with respect to the availability of the property for sale; and

(d) A summarized tabulation of all offers received.

3. If the Administrator has interposed no objection to the proposed sale of any such project before the expiration of the fifth day after that on which the written statement was submitted to him the National Housing Agency may then accept the proposed offer and consummate the sale.

This order shall become effective November 16, 1945.

Administrator.

AUTHORITY: §§ 8310.1 to 8310.23, inclusive, issued under Surplus Property Act of 1944, 58 Stat. 765, 50 U.S.C. App. Sup. 1611, and under Pub. Law 181, 79th Cong., 1st Sess.

§ 8310.1 Definitions—(a) Terms defined in act. Terms not defined in paragraph (b) of this section which are defined in the Surplus Property Act of 1944 shall in this part have the meaning given to them in the act.

(b) Other terms. (1) "Disposal agency" means the Government agency designated pursuant to the act to dispose of industrial real property.

(2) "Industrial real property" means real property primarily or predominantly suitable for purposes of manufacturing, fabricating or processing of products, and real property which is suitable and equipped for mining operations. It includes unimproved land, as well as land together with buildings, fixtures, facilities and equipment located on such land or adapted to use in connection with such purposes. In any case, the Administrator may determine whether real property is or is not industrial real property as defined herein.

(3) "Plant" includes land together with all buildings, fixtures, facilities, and equipment of all types located on or used in the operation of given industrial real property.

(4) "Priority" means the right, subject to stated conditions and limitations, to purchase or lease industrial real property to the exclusion of others.

(5) "Real property" means any interest owned by the United States or any Government agency in land and in any fixtures or improvements thereon of any kind, but does not include the public domain or such lands withdrawn or reserved from the public domain as the Surplus Property Administrator determines are suitable for return to the public domain for disposition under the general land laws.

(6) "Scrambled facility" means any government-owned industrial real property together with its appurtenant equipment, structures, and other personal property which is operated as an integral part of a privately owned plant and is not capable of economic operation as a separate and independent unit.

(7) "Small business" shall include any commercial, industrial or manufacturing enterprise, or group of enterprises under common ownership or control, which does not at the date of purchase or lease of industrial real property hereunder have more than five hundred employees, or any commercial, industrial or manufacturing enterprise which by reason of its relative size and position in its industry is certified by Smaller War Plants Corporation, with the approval of the Surplus Property Administrator, to be a small business.

(8) "Single purpose plant" means any plant the basic structure of which cannot be readily adapted to uses other than those for which it was originally designed and used.

(9) "State or local government" means any State, territory or possession of the United States, the District of Columbia, and any political subdivision or instrumentality thereof.

(10) "Transportation facilities" includes vehicles, rights of way, roads, structures, and equipment used or intended to be used for transportation purposes, except when appurtenant to industrial real property.

(11) "Nonprofit institution" means any nonprofit scientific, literary, educational, public-health, public-welfare, charitable or eleemosynary institution, organization, or association, or any nonprofit hospital or similar institution, organization, or association, which has been held exempt from taxation under section 101 (6) of the Internal Revenue Code, or any nonprofit volunteer fire company or cooperative hospital or similar institution which has been held exempt from taxation under section 101 (8) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(12) "Educational institution" means any school, school system, library, college, university, or other similar institution, organization, or association, which is organized for the primary purpose of carrying on instruction or research in the public interest, and which is a nonprofit institution.

(13) "Public-health institution" means any hospital, board, agency, institution, organization, or association, which is organized for the primary purpose of carrying on medical, public-health, or sanitational services in the public interest, or research to extend the knowledge in these fields, and which is a nonprofit institution.

§ 8310.2 Scope. This part applies to all Government-owned industrial real property in the United States, its territories and possessions, including plants constructed under Emergency Plant Facilities Contracts but excluding any other plants located on land which the Government does not own. Nothing in this part applies to real property included within the scope of Part 8305 [1] or to airports, harbors, marine terminals, port terminals, power transmission lines, transportation facilities, or pipe lines and facilities used for transporting petroleum products or gas, except when any such facility is an integral part of a plant subject to this part.

§ 8310.3 Basic policy. (a) In all studies, negotiations, disposals, and any other actions taken pursuant to this part the disposal agency shall give due weight to the applicable objectives set forth in section 2 of the act. The Surplus Property Administrator finds that it is imperative that prompt action be taken with respect to the disposal of government-owned industrial real property except such property as may be needed for purposes of national defense. Whenever feasible, the owning agency with the consent of any sponsoring agency may, while property is still in production, declare the property surplus subject to leases and to any other outstanding contract rights and also subject to any conditions the owning or sponsoring agency may deem necessary in the interest of national defense. The disposal agency should, subject to the approval of the owning agency in cases in which national security is involved, enter into negotiations for the sale or lease of plants and take other steps hereunder toward the disposal of such plants prior to their declaration as surplus: Provided, however, That no final action shall be taken until such plant has been declared surplus.

(b) It is the policy of the Administrator that industrial real property shall be disposed of generally by negotiated sale or lease as provided in this part and in appropriate cases by sealed bids.

§ 8310.4 Duties of owning and disposal agencies—(a) General. Upon receipt by the disposal agency of a declaration, it shall undertake immediately to dispose of the property covered by the declaration in accordance with the requirements of the act and of this part.

(b) Care and handling. (1) The disposal agency shall promptly upon receipt of a declaration of surplus industrial real property, undertake to work out with the owning agency mutually satisfactory arrangements for the disposal agency's assumption of the care and handling of, and accountability for, the property covered by such declaration. Such assumption shall be completed within ninety (90) days after the disposal agency receives the declaration unless additional time is allowed by the Surplus Property Administrator. Any taxes or rentals becoming due on such property after the date of such assumption shall be paid by the disposal agency.

(2) The disposal agency shall make or cause to be made repairs necessary for the protection and maintenance of the property. It shall give careful consideration to what improvements or changes may be necessary for the completing, converting or rehabilitating of the property in order best to attain the applicable objectives of the act, and may make commitments and expenditures for such purposes as in its opinion will further such objectives: Provided, however, That not more than $100,000 shall be expended by the disposal agency for any such changes or improvements in connection with any one plant or property without prior approval by the Administrator in writing.

(3) The disposal agency may renew any lease relating to surplus industrial real property and shall assume and carry out any obligation which may have been entered into by an owning agency to restore any such property. The disposal agency as such shall not by exercise of any option or otherwise purchase industrial real property for resale or lease without the prior written consent of the Administrator.

(c) Transfer of title papers, documents, etc. Upon request of the disposal agency, and consistent with any necessary restrictions in the interest of national security, the owning agency shall immediately supply the disposal agency with the originals or true copies of all documents or portions thereof pertaining to the surplus industrial real property which are in the possession of the owning agency and copies of which have not been filed with the declaration. These shall include appraisal reports, abstracts of titles, tax receipts, deeds, affidavits of title, copies of judgment in condemnation proceedings, and all other title papers relating to the property. All such papers and documents which may still be needed by the owning agency shall be returned to it as soon as the needs of the disposal agency have been satisfied. The disposal agency may transfer to the purchaser of surplus industrial real property, as a part of the disposal transaction, any abstract of title or title guaranty or title insurance policy which relates to the property being transferred and which is no longer needed either by the owning or by the disposal agency. The terms upon which such transfer shall be made shall be fixed by the disposal agency.

§ 8310.5 Restriction on disposal in certain cases. Any plant or facility classified by the Surplus Property Administrator as an aluminum, magnesium, synthetic rubber, chemical, aviation gasoline, iron and steel, or aircraft plant or facility or shipyard which cost more than $500,000 may be disposed of by sale or lease in accordance with this part only with prior written approval by the Administrator: Provided, however, That any aircraft plant or facility or shipyard which the Administrator acting under Part 8301 [2] classifies as readily adaptable to or desirable for uses other than aircraft manufacture or shipbuilding or repair, respectively, may be disposed of by sale or lease without prior written approval by the Administrator.

§ 8310.6 Price. (a) The price at which the disposal agency shall make a sale of industrial real property to a person other than a Government agency shall be determined by taking into consideration actual proposals received and the use of property most desirable in the light of the applicable objectives of the act. It need not necessarily be the same as the fair value of the property determined in accordance with Special Order 19.[3]

(b) In accordance with the requirements of section 12 (c) of the act, all transfers of industrial real property to Government agencies as provided in § 8310.11 of this part shall be at the fair value as determined and recorded pursuant to the provisions of Special Order 19 unless transfer without reimbursement or transfer of funds is otherwise authorized by law.

(c) State or local governments or educational or public-health institutions seeking to acquire surplus industrial real property for educational use or to promote or protect the public health shall be entitled to acquire such property at the fair value as determined and recorded pursuant to the provisions of Special Order 19 less any discount which the Administrator may allow because of the benefit which has accrued or may accrue to the United States by such use. Applications for such discounts shall be filed with the Administrator and shall be accompanied by a certificate under oath by an authorized official of the buyer that the property is being acquired solely for educational or health purposes and that the buyer is a State or local government or an educational or public-health institution. The certificate shall also set forth in detail the manner in which the property will be employed for educational or health purposes and shall include such further information as will aid the Administrator in determining to what extent the United States will be benefited by the proposed use. After considering the application, and any additional evidence it may deem appropriate, the Administrator will notify the applicant of his action on the application and will certify to the disposal agency the amount of any discount which may be granted. The Administrator may authorize any such disposal to be made upon such conditions as he may deem expedient, including provisions for the reversion of such property to the United States if the buyer ceases to use it for educational or health purposes.

§ 8310.7 Studies by disposal agency. (a) The disposal agency shall compile appropriate information regarding all industrial real property to be disposed of hereunder, including generally the data listed on Exhibit A to this part.

(b) Collection of information. Any report by any expert engaged to collect or evaluate information pursuant to this part shall contain a certificate that he has no interest, direct or indirect, which would conflict in any manner or degree with the preparation and submission of an impartial report. Consistent with any necessary restrictions in the interest of national security, the owning agency shall render all possible assistance to the disposal agency in compiling such information, and where the owning agency shall have prepared any such information it shall immediately upon request forward the same to the disposal agency and shall cooperate with the disposal agency in obtaining any further necessary information. The owning agency and the disposal agency shall avoid duplication of work in compiling or preparing any such information. Studies pursuant to this section shall so far as possible be coordinated with the preparation of the reports required under section 19 of the act.

§ 8310.8 Scrambled facilities and multiple tenancy. In the case of any scrambled facilities the disposal agency shall give careful study to the desirability of conversion to a unit capable of independent operation. In all appropriate cases careful consideration shall also be given to the feasibility of sub-dividing a plant to make it available for multiple tenancy or joint use by more than one small business.

§ 8310.9 Procedures by disposal agency prior to disposal of industrial real property. The disposal agency shall widely publicize all industrial real property which becomes available for disposal hereunder, giving information adequate to inform interested persons of the general nature of the property and its possible uses. Such publicity shall be by public advertising, by press releases and, particularly in the case of single purpose plants, by direct circularization to potential purchasers and by personal interviews. No industrial real property shall be disposed of hereunder unless it shall have been publicly advertised for sale for a period of at least fourteen (14) days, Provided, however, That the advertising may take place either before or after the property is declared surplus or partly before and partly after. If no disposition of property is made within six (6) months after the end of the advertising period, the property shall be advertised again for another period of fourteen (14) days prior to sale. The disposal agency should consult with local groups and organizations. The disposal agency shall upon request supply to bona fide potential purchasers and lessees adequate preliminary information and shall make available for inspection all information compiled pursuant to § 8310.7 and, with the cooperation of the owning agency where necessary, shall render such assistance to such persons as may enable them so far as feasible to acquire complete information regarding plants. Interested persons should be encouraged to make offers to purchase or lease on whatever terms they may deem expedient in the light of the use or uses, products, processes, methods of production, or other factors, which bear upon the adaptability of such property for peacetime production. The disposal agency shall establish procedures so that all such persons showing due diligence are given full and complete opportunity to make a proposal.

§ 8310.10 Inspection. All persons interested in the acquisition of industrial real property available for disposal hereunder shall, with the cooperation of the owning agency where necessary, be permitted to make a complete inspection of such property, subject to any necessary restrictions in the interest of national security and subject to such rules or regulations as may be prescribed by the disposal agency. The consent of the owning or sponsoring agency is required where the industrial real property is still in production or is not yet declared surplus.

§ 8310.11 Priority for Government agencies and State or local governments—(a) Priorities. Government agencies shall be accorded first priority to acquire industrial real property hereunder for their use: Provided, That the Smaller War Plants Corporation shall have such priority to purchase any such property for its use and for resale or lease to small business when in its judgment such disposition is authorized by section 18 (e) of the act. State or local governments shall be accorded second priority hereunder.

(b) Notice. In the case of any given property a notice calling attention to the advertising made pursuant to § 8310.9, shall be sent at the earliest possible time to all Government agencies listed on Exhibit B, to the governments of the State and of each political subdivision in which the property is physically located, and to State or local governments which have expressed an interest in the property. If the advertising is repeated for an additional period of fourteen (14) days pursuant to the provisions of § 8310.9, the notice required by this section need not be repeated.

(c) Time and method of exercise. The priorities provided for by the act and established hereunder may be exercised at any time prior to the execution of a binding contract for disposal of the property. A priority holder wishing to exercise his priority shall indicate his intention to do so by making an offer for the purchase or lease of the property or by submitting to the disposal agency a written application requesting that the property be held for disposal to the priority holder. Such offer or application shall state the price or rental that the applicant is willing to pay, or state that a transfer without reimbursement or transfer of funds is authorized by law, and shall give all pertinent facts pertaining to the applicant's need for the property. If the applicant shall require time to acquire funds or to obtain the authority to take the property without reimbursement or transfer of funds, it shall so state and indicate the length of time needed for that purpose. Upon receipt of an offer or an application with such a statement the disposal agency shall forward a copy thereof, together with its recommendation to the Surplus Property Administrator. The Administrator will review the application, determine what time (if any) shall be allowed applicant to conclude the acquisition of the property, and advise the disposal agency and the applicant of such determination. During the time thus allowed the property may not be disposed of to any other person.

(d) Determination between claimants having same priority. Whenever two or more Government agencies or two or more State or local governments, respectively, shall make acceptable offers for the same property, the disposal agency shall determine, on the basis of the relative needs of the claimants, which offer to accept of those within the same class of priority. No disposal of such property shall be made until five (5) days after the claimants have been notified of such determination, and, if any claimant shall feel aggrieved by such determination and shall so notify the disposal agency in writing within such five (5) days, the disposal agency shall report the matter in writing to the Surplus Property Administrator setting forth all the facts, including the basis of the respective claims and of the determination by the disposal agency together with any statements in writing that the claimants or any of them may wish to file with the Administrator. The Administrator will review the matter and report his determination to the disposal agency. Pending such determination by the Administrator, no disposal of such property shall be made. The Administrator's determination shall be final for all purposes.

§ 8310.12 Proposals. All proposals made by any person interested in the acquisition of any industrial real property shall be in writing and, in addition to the financial terms upon which the proposal is predicated, shall contain such information as the disposal agency may request. Any information submitted the disclosure of which might tend to subject the person submitting it to a competitive business disadvantage shall upon request be held in strict confidence by the disposal agency and by any other Government agency to which it is made available.

§ 8310.13 Consideration of proposals. Whenever in any case more than one proposal is received, the disposal agency shall accept that proposal which it finds upon an evaluation of all the information available to it, will most clearly tend to meet the applicable objectives of the act. In any case, the disposal agency shall reject any proposal if it finds that on the whole it conflicts with such objectives. In considering proposals the disposal agency shall give thorough consideration to whether such objectives can best be met by leasing. Emphasis shall be placed upon the urgency of getting plants into civilian production speedily so as to provide maximum employment in the postwar period. Due regard shall be given, however, to the possibility of enlarging the present major contribution to this objective which is made by small business as defined herein and to the importance in this connection of maintenance of free independent competitive enterprise and the establishment of a maximum of independent operators in industry.

It is the policy of the Administrator that plants, particularly medium-sized and small plants, be sold or leased to local or small firms, preferably those owned or controlled by veterans. The disposal agency should therefore accept offers from responsible local groups with adequate working capital, experience and other necessary qualifications, and should where necessary extend liberal credit terms over a period of years, in preference to a cash offer from a firm or group which would tend to concentrate economic power.

The disposal agency should seriously consider offers to purchase or lease which will result in a lower monetary return if the applicable objectives of the act will be better attained thereby.

The disposal agency shall keep a written record of the factors it weighed in arriving at a decision and shall forward to the Administrator copies of all complaints it may receive from unsuccessful bidders.

§ 8310.14 Options. Industrial real property shall be declared surplus subject to any outstanding rights of refusal or options to purchase or otherwise acquire such plants, and nothing in this part shall be deemed to impair the right of any person to exercise any valid right of refusal or option. In no case, however, shall any owning agency sell or lease plants pursuant to such rights or options, but all dispositions pursuant to such rights or options shall be made by the disposal agency, which shall request the assistance of the owning agency when necessary. Upon the lapse or waiver of any such right or option the property shall be disposed of as promptly as possible in accordance with the provisions of this part.

§ 8310.15 Submission to Attorney General. In any case in which a plant cost $1,000,000 or more a complete statement of the proposed disposal which has been tentatively decided upon, including all information compiled or obtained pursuant to §§ 8310.7 and 8310.12 shall be made available to the Attorney General as required by section 20 of the act.

§ 8310.16 Disposal contract. As a part of each disposal pursuant to this part, the person acquiring the industrial real property shall certify in writing that he is acquiring the property for his own use, and, in the case of a purchase, that he is not purchasing it for the purpose of reselling or leasing it, and that in no case will he resell or lease it within three (3) years without written notice to the disposal agency of the purchaser or lessee and the conditions of such resale or lease within thirty (30) days of such event. If the disposal agency extends credit, the purchaser shall agree that until full payment is made, he will not resell or lease the property without the prior written consent of the disposal agency to such resale or lease. In appropriate cases, after consultation with the owning agency or with any other interested agency if such consultation is requested in either case, the disposal agency shall require an agreement that the productive facilities of the plant shall remain available to the Government for present or future Governmental defense needs upon such terms as may then be mutually agreed upon. All representations and agreements required by this section shall be recited in the instrument of transfer.

§ 8310.17 Restrictions on dismantling. (a) No fixtures, machinery or equipment shall be removed by the disposal agency from any plant subject to this part except such as is determined by the disposal agency in writing not to be essential to the operation of the plant for the purposes for which it determines that the plant should be disposed of. In connection with the leasing of any plant subject to this part, the disposal agency may, however, in any case sell to the lessee any personal property located on or used in the operation of the plant and not affixed to the realty.

(b) No surplus plant other than a scrambled facility shall be dismantled by the disposal agency or disposed of to any person who does not expect to operate it at the place where it is located, unless the governments of the State and of each political subdivision in which such plant is physically located have been given at least thirty (30) days' notice by the disposal agency of its intention to dismantle such plant or dispose of it to a person who intends to dismantle it. If within such thirty (30) days any such government shall indicate an interest in acquiring such plant, it shall be given a reasonable additional opportunity to submit an offer or application pursuant to § 8310.11.

(c) A plant may be disposed of to a person for the purpose of dismantling and exporting it only after at least fifteen (15) days' prior written notice to the Administrator.

§ 8310.18 Form of transfer. The form of deed or instrument of transfer shall be approved by the Attorney General. Transfers shall be by quitclaim deed unless the disposal agency finds that a warranty deed is necessary to obtain a reasonable price for the property or to render the title marketable and unless the use of such a deed is recommended and approved by the Attorney General as provided in the act.

§ 8310.19 Disposals under laws other than the Surplus Property Act. (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, disposals of surplus industrial real property shall not be made under laws other than the Surplus Property Act of 1944 but shall be made only by the disposal agency in strict accordance with the provisions of this part unless the Surplus Property Administrator upon written application by the owning agency shall consent in writing to a different procedure.

(b) Transfers of industrial real property to Government agencies for war production purposes shall not be subject to any of the provisions of this part and may be made by the owning agency directly.

§ 8310.20 Permit or order use. When a Government agency utilizing Government-owned industrial real property under some form of arrangement with another Government agency having primary jurisdiction over the property no longer needs the property, such real property and any interest therein shall be returned to the agency having primary jurisdiction over the property in accordance with the arrangement between such agencies, except where the property has been substantially improved while being so utilized. In this latter event the agency utilizing the property shall make a report of the facts to the Administrator for his determination as to how the interests of the Government will be best subserved.

NOTE: Sections 8310.22 and 8310.23 formerly §§ 8310.20 and 8310.21, redesignated Nov. 16, 1945.

§ 8310.22 Records and reports. Owning and disposal agencies shall prepare and maintain such records as will show full compliance with the provisions of this part and with the applicable provisions of the act. Reports shall be prepared and filed with the Surplus Property Administrator in such manner as may be specified by order issued under this part subject to the approval of the Bureau of the Budget pursuant to the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

§ 8310.23 Regulations to be reported to the Administrator. Each owning and disposal agency shall file with the Surplus Property Administrator copies of all regulations, orders, and instructions of general applicability which it may issue in furtherance of the provisions, or any of them, of this part.

This revision of this part shall become effective November 16, 1945.

W. STUART SYMINGTON,
Administrator.

NOVEMBER 16, 1945.

[SPA Reg. 9,[1] Order 3]

PART 8309—CONTRACTOR INVENTORY AND DISPOSALS BY OWNING AGENCIES

DISPOSAL OF SCRAP AND SALVAGE CONTAINING RADIUM AND RADIO-ACTIVE SALTS

Among the surplus property under Government ownership or control becoming available for disposal will be significant amounts of scrap and salvage containing radium and radio-active salts. Examples of such property are luminous instrument dials and markers. The unrestricted disposal of such property will present a twofold problem of danger to public health and the possibility of contamination of other materials which will later be used in industry. The purpose of this order is so far as possible to eliminate this health hazard and industrial contamination.

Pursuant to the authority of the Surplus Property Act of 1944 (58 Stat. 765; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 1611) and Public Law 181, 79th Congress, It is hereby ordered, That:

All owning and disposal agencies in making or authorizing disposals of scrap or salvage owned by them or under their control as contractor inventory or otherwise which contains radium or radio-active salts shall make every effort to channel such property into the hands of radium refining organizations, or, if this is not possible, to insure its complete elimination from the civilian economy by destruction or otherwise.

This order shall become effective November 16, 1945.

W. STUART SYMINGTON,
Administrator.

PART 8318—DISPOSAL OF IMPROVEMENTS AND LEASEHOLD INTERESTS IN INDUSTRIAL AND MARINE REAL PROPERTY

Sec.

8318.1 Definitions.
8318.2 Scope: related regulations.
8318.3 Methods of disposal.
8318.4 Disposal of leasehold interests.
8318.5 Interim use pending disposal.
8318.6 Easements having no commercial value.
8318.7 Disposals under laws other than the Surplus Property Act.
8318.8 Submission to the Attorney General.
8318.9 Records and reports.
8318.10 Regulations to be reported to the Administrator.

AUTHORITY: §§ 8318.1 to 8318.10, inclusive, issued under the Surplus Property Act of 1944, 58 Stat. 765, 50 U.S.C. App. Sup. 1611, and under Pub. Law 181, 79th Cong., 1st Sess.

§ 8318.1 Definitions—(a) Terms defined in act. Terms not defined in paragraph (b) of this section which are defined in the Surplus Property Act of 1944 shall in this part have the meaning given to them in the act.

(b) Other terms. (1) "Disposal agency" means the Government agency designated pursuant to the act to dispose of industrial real property or marine real property.

(2) "Industrial real property" means real property primarily or predominantly suitable for purposes of manufacturing, fabricating or processing of products, and real property which is suitable and equipped for mining operations. It includes unimproved land, as well as land together with buildings, fixtures, facilities and equipment located on such land or adapted to use in connection with such purposes. In any case, the Administrator may determine whether real property is or is not industrial real property as defined herein.

(3) "Improvements" includes Government-owned buildings, fixtures, facilities and equipment located on any industrial or marine real property.

(4) "Marine real property" includes the land site and all permanent structures which comprise a shipyard, ship repair yard, marine terminal, port terminal, or harbor.

(5) "Readily severable" means capable of being removed and sold without substantial damage to either the property being removed or the premises.

(6) "Real property" means any interest owned by the United States or any Government agency in land and in any fixtures or improvements thereon of any kind, but does not include the public domain or such lands withdrawn or reserved from the public domain as the Surplus Property Administrator determines are suitable for return to the public domain for disposition under the general land laws.

§ 8318.2 Scope; related regulations. Government-owned industrial improvements which are located on surplus land owned by the Government and any industrial improvements constructed under an Emergency Plant Facilities Contract under which the Government may acquire title to the land, shall be disposed of under Part 8310.[1] Improvements on non-industrial Government-owned land which is not surplus or on non-industrial non-Government-owned land leased or occupied by an owning agency with or without an obligation to restore the premises shall be disposed of in accordance with the provisions of Part 8305.[2] Plant equipment as defined in Part 8306 which is not readily severable shall be disposed of pursuant to the provisions of § 8306.7.[3] Any improvements on, or leasehold or other interests in, industrial or marine real property in the United States, its territories and possessions, not covered by the above regulations shall be disposed of in accordance with this part. Included under this part are industrial and marine improvements on land which is leased or occupied by an owning agency or which it has an option to lease or which it has an option to buy other than under an Emergency Plant Facilities Contract.

§ 8318.3 Methods of disposal. (a) Subject to the provisions of this section, owning agencies may make disposals of improvements hereunder by any one or more of the following methods:

(1) By transfer to the lessor or owner of the premises in full or partial satisfaction of any obligation to restore the premises, provided the lessor or owner shall pay for any excess value.

(2) By disposition in accordance with contractual commitments.

(3) By sale intact.

(4) By transfer to another Government agency intact.

(5) By disposal of all readily severable property in accordance with any other applicable regulations of the Administrator.

(6) By demolition contract let only on competitive bids whereby title to material not readily severable passes to the demolition contractor.

(7) By demolition of property not readily severable and disposal of surplus used building and construction materials by competitive bidding and of other resulting materials in accordance with any other applicable regulations of the Administrator. Any such competitive bidding shall be conducted under rules and regulations prescribed by the owning agencies containing provisions, among others, requiring lots to be offered in such reasonable quantities as to permit all bidders, small as well as large, to compete on equal terms, requiring wide public notice concerning such sales and time intervals between notice and sale adequate to give all interested purchasers a fair opportunity to buy, and reserving the right to reject all bids.

(8) By abandonment if the owning agency has no obligation to remove such improvements and it finds in writing that such property is without commercial value or that the estimated cost of its care, handling, removal, and disposition would exceed the estimated proceeds of sale.

(b) Disposals by owning agencies hereunder shall be made at prices that are fair and reasonable under all the circumstances taking into account the limited sale value of the property in place and its special value, if any, to the purchaser. In all cases, prior to disposal a written estimate shall be made of both the value of the improvements for use in place and their salvage value. The disposal agencies for industrial and marine real property shall, upon request, furnish advice and assistance to the owning agencies in the establishment of fair and reasonable prices hereunder.

(c) No improvements costing more than $100,000 shall be disposed of or demolished hereunder by the owning agency without prior submission to and the consent of the appropriate disposal agency, unless such improvements are located on Government-owned land which is not surplus and is not expected to become surplus.

(d) With the exception of transfers to other Government agencies, no improvements on land which the Government by lease, option to lease, or otherwise, has a right to occupy for an additional definite period of five years or more, shall be disposed of by the owning agency hereunder if the leasehold or other interests are no longer needed by the owning agency, but it shall declare the improvements as surplus in place together with the leasehold or other interests. At the request of the appropriate disposal agency any improvements, regardless of cost and the terms under which the land is occupied, shall be declared surplus in place together with any related leasehold or other interests no longer needed by the owning agency. Upon such declaration any industrial property shall be disposed of in accordance with the provisions of Part 8310.[1]

(e) Whenever the owning agency is unable to obtain a fair and reasonable price for the sale in place of improvements hereunder and it finds in writing that it is not in the best interests of the Government to remove or demolish such improvements, the owning agency shall declare such property as surplus in place, together with any related leasehold or other interests no longer needed by the owning agency. Upon such declaration any industrial property shall be disposed of in accordance with the provisions of Part 8310.[1]

§ 8318.4 Disposal of leasehold interests. Whenever an owning agency no longer needs a leasehold or other right of occupancy in land, it shall transfer such interest directly to any other Government agency desiring it without declaring it as surplus. Any such transfer may be conditioned upon the transferee agency's assuming all or any obligations incurred by the transferor agency in connection with the interest transferred. Owning agencies shall take reasonable steps to ascertain the needs of other Government agencies for such interests. If such leasehold or other interest is not claimed by any Government agency within a reasonable time and the owning agency has the legal right to cancel, such lease shall be cancelled without declaring it as surplus.

§ 8318.5 Interim use pending disposal. Pending the disposition of improvements or leasehold or other interests hereunder, the owning agency prior to the time accountability is assumed by the disposal agency and the disposal agency thereafter, may grant a revocable permit to any person to use such property in any case in which it finds that the interests of the Government will be best served by such action. Any such use shall be conditioned upon payment of such consideration as may be fair and reasonable under all the circumstances.

§ 8318.6 Easements having no commercial value. Any Government agency may, with or without consideration, dispose of an easement to the owner of the land subject to the easement when such agency shall determine that the easement has no commercial value and is no longer needed: Provided, That, when any such easement shall have been acquired for a substantial consideration such disposal shall be made only for a reasonable value, taking into consideration any portion of the purchase price paid for severance damages.

§ 8318.7 Disposals under laws other than the Surplus Property Act. Disposals of property within the scope of this part shall not be made under laws other than the Surplus Property Act of 1944 but shall be made only in strict accordance with the provisions of this part unless the Administrator upon written application by the owning agency shall consent in writing to a different procedure.

§ 8318.9 Records and reports. Owning and disposal agencies shall prepare and maintain such records as will show full compliance with the provisions of this part and with the applicable provisions of the act. Reports shall be prepared and filed with the Surplus Property Administrator in such manner as may be specified by order issued under this part subject to the approval of the Bureau of the Budget pursuant to the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

§ 8318.10 Regulations to be reported to the Administrator. Each owning and disposal agency shall file with the Surplus Property Administrator copies of all regulations, orders, and instructions of general applicability which it may issue in furtherance of the provisions, or any of them, of this part.

This part shall become effective November 16, 1945.

W. STUART SYMINGTON,
Administrator.

LOUIS WASMER, INC.

PUBLIC NOTICE CONCERNING PROPOSED TRANSFER OF CONTROL

The Commission hereby gives notice that on October 30, 1945, there was filed with it an application (B5-TC-468) for its consent under section 310 (b) of the Communications Act (47 USCA 310) to the proposed transfer of control of Louis Wasmer, Inc. (licensee of standard broadcast station KHQ, Spokane, Washington) from Louis Wasmer to Spokane Chronicle Company (a Washington corporation), Spokane, Washington. The proposed transfer of control of the above licensee is based upon a contract entered into October 15, 1945, between Louis Wasmer and Spokane Chronicle Company under which the former agreed to sell to the latter all of the issued and outstanding 2,500 shares of capital stock of Louis Wasmer, Inc. for a total consideration of $1,295,000.00. Of this amount, $25,000 was paid as earnest money upon execution of the contract. The contract provides that the above sum shall be increased by a sum equal to the net profits (excepting capital gains from the sale of marketable securities), and decreased by the amount of any dividends paid, or net losses sustained between January 1, 1945, and the closing date fixed by the contract as within 30 days of the day on which the matter is formally approved by the Commission. The stock to be transferred is to be free and clear of encumbrances, and the assets and properties of the licensee are as shown in a balance sheet of December 31, 1944, and a schedule of inventory, both of which are attached to and made a part of the contract. If purchaser should fail or refuse to consummate the purchase according to the terms of the agreement, the $25,000.00 deposit is to become property of seller. However, if seller should default or the contract should be terminated, said deposit is to be refunded. If the Commission does not approve the application within nine months from the date of filing the agreement, the contract may be terminated by either party upon notice. Further details of the contract as well as pertaining to the application may be determined from an examination of the application on file at the offices of the Commission.

In the Commission's decision of September 6, 1945, granting the application for transfer of control of the Crosley Corporation (Docket No. 6767), it was announced that public hearings would be held to consider proposed new rules and regulations for the handling of assignment and transfer applications including provision for public notice by the applicant and the Commission of the filing of such applications and pertinent details in cases where a controlling interest is involved. Thereafter, on October 3, 1945, the Commission also gave public notice (10 F.R. 12926) that pending the issuance of such proposed new rules, hearing thereon, and final adoption, consideration of such applications would be deferred unless applicants desired to follow the procedure proposed in the WLW decision, and supplement their applications so as to come within the framework of the announced procedure including the provision for public notice. Pursuant thereto, the Commission was advised on October 30, 1945, that notice was inserted in the Spokane Chronicle (a Spokane paper of general circulation) of the proposed transfer of control of the licensee and sale of the properties of KHQ.

In accordance with the procedure proposed in the WLW decision and that announced in the Commission's release, no action will be had upon the KHQ application for a period of 60 days from October 30, 1945, within which time other persons desiring to apply for the facilities involved may do so upon the same terms and conditions as set forth in the above-described contract.

LOADING AND UNLOADING OF FREIGHT IN NEW YORK HARBOR

Pursuant to the authority vested in me by paragraph (c) of the first ordering paragraph of Service Order No. 368 (10 F.R. 14030), permission is granted for any common carrier by railroad subject to the Interstate Commerce Act:

To disregard the provisions of Service Order No. 368 insofar as it applies in New York harbor to:

1. Cars containing freight (such as chemicals, explosives, etc.), which due to its nature cannot be unloaded on the piers because of port security regulations;

2. Cars containing freight which the railroad definitely knows will be delivered by car float or by connecting rail line to vessel within 5 days of the date such cars become 10-day cars;

3. Cars containing freight which are covered by orders for delivery to vessels within 5 days of the date such cars become 10-day cars.

This general permit shall became effective at 5:00 p. m., November 20, 1945 and shall expire at 11:59 p. m., November 30, 1945.

A copy of this general permit has been served upon the Association of American Railroads, Car Service Division, as agent of the railroads subscribing to the car service and per diem agreement under the terms of that agreement; and notice of this permit shall be given to the general public by depositing a copy in the office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D. C., and by filing it with the Director, Division of the Federal Register.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 20th day of November 1945.

CAPITAL TRANSIT CO.

POSSESSION, CONTROL, AND OPERATION OF TRANSPORTATION SYSTEM, PLANTS, AND FACILITIES

To CAPITAL TRANSIT COMPANY,
Washington, D. C.:

1. You are hereby notified that, by order of the President of the United States (Executive Order 9658, supra), possession and control of your transportation system, including all real and personal property, plants, facilities, and other assets, wherever situated, used or useful in connection with the operation of such system, are hereby taken and assumed by the Director of the Office of Defense Transportation as of 3:00 o'clock, p. m., on the 21st day of November, 1945. Possession and control is not taken of any of your property, plants, facilities, or other assets, which are not used or useful in the operation of your transportation system.

2. The purpose of possession, control, and operation of your transportation system and properties by the United States pursuant to said Executive order is to assure the maintenance of an effective system of transportation for the armed forces and the civilian population.

3. Effective this date, Guy A. Richardson is hereby appointed Federal Manager of the transportation system and properties taken hereunder, with full authority, subject to the direction of the Director of the Office of Defense Transportation:

(a) To possess, control, and operate, or arrange for the operation of the system and properties taken hereunder in such manner as may be necessary to carry out the provisions, and to accomplish the purposes of the Executive order, through or with the aid of such public or private agencies, persons, or corporations as he may designate;

(b) Subject to the provisions of the Executive order, to manage or operate or arrange for the management or operation of said system and properties under such terms and conditions of employment as he deems advisable and proper;

(c) From time to time, to return to you such real or personal property, or other assets, as he determines to be unnecessary to the operation of your transportation system; and

(d) To request the Secretary of War or such persons as he may designate, to furnish protection for persons employed or seeking employment with the transportation system of which possession is taken hereunder and the properties of such system, and to furnish equipment, manpower, and other facilities or services necessary to carry out the provisions, and to accomplish the purposes of the Executive order of the President.

4. Copies of this notice and order shall be posted by you in your principal place of business, and in each office, car barn, and garage maintained in connection with the operation of your transportation system.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 21st day of November, 1945.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION.

[File No. 70–1162]

UNION ELECTRIC CO. OF MISSOURI AND UNION ELECTRIC LAND AND DEVELOPMENT CO.

NOTICE REGARDING FILING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 21st day of November 1945.

Notice is hereby given that an application or declaration has been filed with this Commission pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 by Union Electric Company of Missouri (Union), a registered holding company, and its subsidiary company, Union Electric Land and Development Company (Subsidiary).

Notice is further given that any interested person may not later than December 3, 1945, at 5:30 p. m., e. s. t., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the reasons for such request and the nature of his interest or may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. At any time thereafter, said declaration or application, as filed or as amended, may become effective or may be granted as provided in Rule U-23 of the rules and regulations promulgated pursuant to said act. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia 3, Pennsylvania.

All interested persons are referred to said document which is on file in the office of this Commission for a statement of the transactions therein proposed which are summarized as follows:

Union proposes to acquire from Subsidiary 90 purchase money notes aggregating $90,882 and 4 rental notes aggregating $192, subject to adjustment for payments on such notes between August 31, 1945, and the time of delivery from Subsidiary. On August 20, 1945, Subsidiary sold all its remaining real estate holdings for $311,001 in cash which amount, together with other funds, has been applied to its indebtedness to Union. Further, Subsidiary now proposes to pay over to Union the remainder of its cash, together with all of its other assets, including such purchase money notes and such rental notes. It is stated that such transactions comply with the Commission's order of April 14, 1942 (Holding Company Act Release No. 3405), requiring Union to sever its relationship with Subsidiary by disposing of its direct or indirect ownership of securities issued and properties owned by Subsidiary. It is further stated that the indebtedness owing by Subsidiary to Union exceeds the valuation of Subsidiary's assets less reserve and other liabilities. Thus, it is proposed to transfer the assets of Subsidiary to Union in payment pro tanto of such indebtedness. After such transfer, Subsidiary proposes to dissolve without the surrender of its outstanding shares of capital stock.

By the Commission.

WAR SHIPPING ADMINISTRATION.

LIBBY SCOW V #1

DETERMINATION OF VESSEL OWNERSHIP

Notice of determination by War Shipping Administrator pursuant to section 3 (b) of the act approved March 24, 1943, (Public Law 17—78th Congress).

Whereas on May 12, 1942 title to the vessel "Libby Scow V #1," (170046) (including all spare parts, appurtenances and equipment) was requisitioned pursuant to section 902 of the Merchant Marine Act, 1936, as amended; and

Whereas section 3 (b) of the act approved March 24, 1943, (Public Law 17, 78th Congress), provides in part as follows:

(b) The Administrator, War Shipping Administration, may determine at any time prior to the payment in full or deposit in full with the Treasurer of the United States, or the payment or deposit of 75 per centum, or just compensation therefor, that the ownership of any vessel (the title to which has been requisitioned pursuant to section 902 of the Merchant Marine Act, 1936, as amended, or the act of June 6, 1941 (Public Law 101, Seventy-seventh Congress)), is not required by the United States, and after such determination has been made and notice thereof has been published in the FEDERAL REGISTER, the use rather than the title to such vessel shall be deemed to have been requisitioned for all purposes as of the date of the original taking: Provided, however, That no such determination shall be made with respect to any vessel after the date of delivery of such vessel pursuant to title requisition except with the consent of the owner. • • •;

Whereas no portion of just compensation for the said vessel has been paid or deposited with the Treasurer of the United States; and

Whereas the ownership of the said vessel, spare parts, appurtenances and equipment is not required by the United States; and

Whereas the former owner of the vessel has consented to this determination and to the return of the vessel and the conversion of the requisition of title therein to a requisition of use thereof in accordance with the above-quoted provision of law;

Now, therefore, I, Emory S. Land, Administrator, War Shipping Administration, acting pursuant to the above-quoted provisions of law, do hereby determine that the ownership of said vessel, spare parts, appurtenances and equipment is not required by the United States, and that, from and after the date of publication hereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER, the use rather than title thereto shall be deemed to have been requisitioned, for all purposes, as of the date of the original taking.

Dated: November 21, 1945.

DETERMINATION OF VESSEL OWNERSHIP

Notice of determination by War Shipping Administrator pursuant to section 3 (b) of the act approved March 24, 1943, (Public Law 17, 78th Congress).

Whereas on May 13, 1942 title to the vessel "Libby Scow V #2," (170254) (including all spare parts, appurtenances and equipment) was requisitioned pursuant to section 902 of the Merchant Marine Act, 1936, as amended; and

Whereas section 3 (b) of the act approved March 24, 1943, (Public Law 17, 78th Congress), provides in part as follows:

(b) The Administrator, War Shipping Administration, may determine at any time prior to the payment in full or deposit in full with the Treasurer of the United States, or the payment or deposit of 75 per centum, or just compensation therefor, that the ownership of any vessel (the title to which has been requisitioned pursuant to section 902 of the Merchant Marine Act, 1936, as amended, or the act of June 6, 1941, (Public Law 101, Seventy-seventh Congress)), is not required by the United States, and after such determination has been made and notice thereof has been published in the FEDERAL REGISTER, the use rather than the title to such vessel shall be deemed to have been requisitioned for all purposes as of the date of the original taking; Provided, however, That no such determination shall be made with respect to any vessel after the date of delivery of such vessel pursuant to title requisition except with the consent of the owner. • • •;

Whereas no portion of just compensation for the said vessel has been paid or deposited with the Treasurer of the United States; and

Whereas the ownership of the said vessel, spare parts, appurtenances and equipment is not required by the United States; and

Whereas the former owner of the vessel has consented to this determination and to the return of the vessel and the conversion of the requisition of title therein to a requisition of use thereof in accordance with the above-quoted provision of law;

Now therefore, I, Emory S. Land, Administrator, War Shipping Administration, acting pursuant to the above-quoted provisions of law, do hereby determine that the ownership of said vessel, spare parts, appurtenances and equipment is not required by the United States, and that, from and after the date of publication hereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER, the use rather than title thereto shall be deemed to have been requisitioned, for all purposes, as of the date of the original taking.

Dated: November 21, 1945.

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

Chapter IX—Production and Marketing Administration (Marketing Agreements and Orders)

PART 930—MILK IN THE TOLEDO, OHIO, MARKETING AREA

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

Amendment No. 2 to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Toledo, Ohio, Marketing Area.

Findings and determinations—(a) Findings upon the basis of hearing record. Pursuant to the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601 et seq.), and the rules of practice and procedure governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders, as amended (7 C.F.R. Cum. Supp., 900.1 et seq., 10 F.R. 11791), a public hearing was held upon certain proposed amendments to the tentatively approved marketing agreement and to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Toledo, Ohio, marketing area. It is hereby found upon the evidence introduced at such hearing, said findings being in addition to the findings previously made upon the evidence introduced at the original hearing on said order and at hearings on the amendments thereto, and to the other findings made prior to or at the time of the original issuance of said order and prior to or at the time of the issuance of the amendments thereto (all of which findings are hereby ratified and affirmed, save only as such findings are in conflict with the findings hereinafter set forth), that:

(1) The order regulating the handling of milk in the said marketing area, as amended and as hereby amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(2) The prices calculated to give milk produced for sale in the Toledo, Ohio, marketing area a purchasing power equivalent to the purchasing power of such milk, as determined pursuant to sections 2 and 8 (e) of the act, are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supplies of and demand for such milk, and the minimum prices set forth in the said order, as amended and as hereby amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest; and

(3) The said order, as amended and as hereby amended, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as, and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in, a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held.

(b) Determinations. It is hereby determined that handlers (excluding cooperative associations of producers who are not engaged in processing, distributing, or shipping milk covered by this order, as amended) of at least 50 percent of the volume of milk covered by this order, which is marketed within the Toledo, Ohio, marketing area, refused or failed to sign the tentatively approved marketing agreement regulating the handling of milk in the said marketing area; and it is hereby further determined that:

(1) The refusal or failure of such handlers to sign said tentatively approved marketing agreement tends to prevent the effectuation of the declared policy of the act;

(2) The issuance of the said order, as amended and as hereby amended, is the only practical means pursuant to the declared policy of the act of advancing the interests of producers of milk which is produced for sale in the said marketing area; and

(3) The issuance of the order, as amended and as hereby amended, is approved or favored by at least two-thirds of the producers who, during September 1945 (determined to be a representative period), were engaged in the production of milk for sale in the said marketing area.

PART 1112—SALARIES AND WAGES OF AGRICULTURAL LABOR IN THE STATE OF ARIZONA

WORKERS ENGAGED IN DRY-PACK HARVESTING OF LETTUCE IN MARICOPA COUNTY, ARIZONA

§ 1112.4 Workers engaged in dry-pack harvesting of lettuce in Maricopa County, Arizona. Pursuant to § 4001.7 of the regulations of the Economic Stabilization Director relating to salaries and wages issued August 28, 1943, as amended (8 F.R. 11950, 12139, 16702; 9 F.R. 6035, 14547; 10 F.R. 9478, 9628) and to the regulations of the War Food Administrator issued March 23, 1945 (10 F.R. 3177) entitled "Specific Wage Ceiling Regulations" and based upon a certification of the Arizona USDA Wage Board that a majority of the producers of lettuce in the area affected participating in a hearing conducted for such purpose have requested the intervention of the Secretary of Agriculture, and based upon relevant facts submitted by the Arizona USDA Wage Board and obtained from other sources, it is hereby determined that:

(a) Areas, crops and classes of workers. Persons engaged in dry-pack harvesting of lettuce in Maricopa County, Arizona, are agricultural labor as defined in § 4001.1 (1) of the regulations of the Economic Stabilization Director issued on August 28, 1943, as amended (8 F.R. 11960, 12139, 16702; 9 F.R. 6035, 14547; 10 F.R. 9478, 9628).

(b) Maximum wage rates for dry-pack harvesting of lettuce. (1) Dry-pack harvesting—40¢ per standard crate.

(2) Crew organization and supervision—5¢ per standard crate.

If wages are not paid on the basis of the standard crate, the rates of compensation shall not exceed the equivalent of the rates specified herein.

(c) Administration. The Arizona USDA Wage Board, located at 222 South First Avenue, Phoenix, Arizona, will have charge of the administration of this section in accordance with the provisions of the specific wage ceiling regulations issued by the War Food Administrator on March 23, 1945 (10 F.R. 3177).

(d) Applicability of specific wage ceiling regulations. This section shall be deemed to be a part of the specific wage ceiling regulations issued by the War Food Administrator on March 23, 1945 (10 F.R. 3177) and the provisions of such regulations shall be applicable to this section and any violation of this section shall constitute a violation of such specific wage ceiling regulations.

Effective date. This Supplement No. 89 shall become effective at 12:01 a. m., Pacific Standard Time, November 23, 1945.

PART 602—GENERAL ORDERS AND DIRECTIVES

DISTRIBUTION OF BITUMINOUS COAL PRODUCED IN U. S.

It appears appropriate to make the following changes in the bituminous coal distribution program: (1) To eliminate the preference provisions with respect to coal moving via the Great Lakes, inasmuch as weather conditions preclude substantial lake movement after December 1, 1945; (2) to revive the first preference on shipments of coal for special purpose use; (3) to revive the second preference on shipments of coal in certain sizes to retail dealers; (4) to permit shippers who have discharged or arranged to discharge their monthly preference obligations to retail dealers to make additional shipments to the retail trade, under certain specified conditions; (5) to prohibit industrial consumers with more than 60 days' supply of coal from receiving more coal from Districts 1–4, inclusive, 6, 9–11, inclusive, and 13 than their monthly consumption requirements; (6) to prohibit industrial consumers of coal produced in Districts 7 and 8 from obtaining more coal from these districts than is permitted by the Stock Limitation Table in effect on and before October 1, 1945; and (7) to relax restrictions on receipts of coal by retail dealers.

Various special directions and statements governing shipments of coal during the months of October and November are being revoked by SFAW Order No. 31, which is being issued today and which will become effective December 1, 1945. Other necessary changes in the distribution program are being made by this amendment to SFAW Regulations No. 27, which will also be effective on December 1. Industrial consumers ordering coal for the month of December shall be guided by the provisions of the order and the regulation, as amended.

1. Paragraph (1) of paragraph (d)[1] of § 602.703 is eliminated in its entirety.

2. A new paragraph is added to § 602.703 to read as follows:

(j) Additional shipments to retail dealers. If you are a shipper of coal and you have filled or arranged to fill your monthly obligations to each retail dealer entitled to this second preference, you may distribute among retail dealers of your own selection any coal not required to meet your obligations imposed by this regulation, Provided, That:

(1) You shall first report at the beginning of each calendar month the amount of coal which it is contemplated will be available for such additional shipments to retail dealers during the month, and

(2) You shall report at the end of each calendar month the amount of such shipments made to each retail dealer. Such reports shall be forwarded to the appropriate Area Distribution Manager, specified in Subsection (f) of this section.

NOTE: Under paragraph (d) of this section, shippers are required to ship, subsequent to December 1, 1945, in equal monthly amounts, to the maximum extent practicable, the balance of the coal which each retail dealer is entitled to receive up to March 31, 1946, under this second preference. Thus, if a shipper contemplates that he will have available for shipment to retail dealers, during any calendar month (December 1945, or January, February and March 1946), coal in excess of 25 per cent of the unfilled balance of his preference obligations to retail dealers, this tonnage must be reported before it may be furnished to retail dealers under this paragraph.

3. Section 602.704, governing shipments of coal moving to docks via the Great Lakes is eliminated in its entirety.

4. The title of paragraph (b)[2] of § 602.715, and paragraph (b) thereof are amended to read as follows:

(b) Restrictions on receipts by industrial consumers of coal produced in Districts 1–4, inclusive, 6, 9–11, inclusive, and 13 and high volatile coal produced in Districts 7 and 8. (1) If you are a consumer of coal whose days' supply exceeds 60 days, you are prohibited from receiving, during any calendar month, any coal produced in Districts 1–4, inclusive, 6, 9–11, inclusive, and 13 in an amount greater than 100 percent of your monthly consumption requirements, without first obtaining permission from the SFAW Area Distribution Manager for the district in which the coal is produced.

NOTE: At the present time a special direction is in effect covering receipts by industrial consumers of coal produced in Districts 10 and 11. So long as that direction or other applicable special directions are in effect, they supersede the provisions of this paragraph.

5. Paragraph (d) of § 602.715 is eliminated in its entirety.

6. The following paragraph is added to paragraph (a) of § 602.717:

A shipper with tonnage available may make additional shipments to retail dealers, although not entitled to preference, under the provisions of paragraph (j) of § 602.703. Retail dealers requiring additional tonnage to meet the needs of their customers should, accordingly, endeavor to supplement their receipts by arranging to order coal from shippers with available surplus.

7. Section 602.718 is eliminated in its entirety.

This amendment shall become effective December 1, 1945. It shall not affect any civil or criminal liabilities incurred under the provisions of the regulation previously in effect.

PART 602—GENERAL ORDERS AND DIRECTIVES

REVOCATION OF CERTAIN DIRECTIONS AND STATEMENTS

Because of the close of the season of navigation on the Great Lakes and because of the modification of the bituminous coal distribution program (Amendment No. 6 to SFAW Regulation No. 27), pursuant to Executive Order No. 9332 (8 F.R. 5355), the following directions and statements are hereby revoked:

Notice of Direction to Shippers of Coal Produced in Districts 2, 7 or 8 Moving Via the Great Lakes, issued September 14, 1945 (10 F.R. 11884).

Notice of Direction to Shippers of Coal Produced in Districts 1, 3, 4 or 6 Moving Via the Great Lakes, issued October 15, 1945 (10 F.R. 12898).

Notice of Direction to All Persons Shipping Bituminous Coal Produced in Districts 1–4, inclusive and 6–8, inclusive, and to Certain Dock Operators, issued October 17, 1945 (10 F.R. 12983).

Notice of Direction to Shippers of Coal Moving Via the Great Lakes to Commercial Docks, issued October 24, 1945 (10 F.R. 13306).

Notice of Direction to All Shippers of Coal Produced in District 8, issued October 24, 1945 (10 F.R. 13306), and as amended November 19, 1945 (10 F.R. 14319).

Notice of Direction to All Shippers and Industrial Consumers of Coal Produced in District 8, issued October 29, 1945 (10 F.R. 13438).

Accordingly, the following statements are no longer in effect:

Statement Concerning the Prohibition of Shipments of Bituminous Coal to Industrial Consumers Having 45 Days' or More Supply, issued October 18, 1945 (10 F.R. 13103).

Statement Concerning Preference Shipments on Bituminous Coal, issued October 18, 1945 (10 F.R. 13103).

Statement Clarifying Preference on Shipments of Coal Produced in District 8 Moving Via the Great Lakes, issued November 1, 1945 (10 F.R. 13621).

The provisions of this order shall become effective December 1, 1945. This order does not affect any liability incurred under the directions enumerated above. All coal affected by this order remains subject to applicable regulations, orders and directions of SFAW.

(E.O. 9332, 8 F.R. 5355; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; Sec. 2 (a), 54 Stat. 676, as amended by 55 Stat. 236, 56 Stat. 176 and 58 Stat. 827)

Issued this 21st day of November 1945.

C. J. POTTER,
Deputy Solid Fuels
Administrator for War.

PART 802—GENERAL LICENSES

METAL DRUMS AND CONTAINERS

Part 802 General licenses is hereby amended by adding thereto § 802.14 as follows:

§ 802.14 Metal drums and containers "G-MDC". A general license designated "G-MDC" is hereby granted authorizing the exportation to any destination of metal drums and containers when filled with any commodity the exportation of which is authorized under general license or under any type of export license document issued by the Department of Commerce or the Department of State.

This amendment shall become effective immediately upon publication.

PART 804—INDIVIDUAL LICENSES

APPLICATIONS TO EXPORT COAL AND COKE

Section 804.7 Special provisions concerning applications to export certain commodities is hereby amended in the following particulars:

Paragraph (j) Coal is amended to read as follows:

(j) Coal and coke. All applications for licenses to export coal or coke must indicate:

(1) The total quantity for which application is made in terms of gross and net tons and size; the name and location of the producing mine or mines; and the amount to be supplied by each such mine or mines.

(2) Whether the order has been accepted by the mine.

(3) The rate of shipment from mine.

(4) The port of loading and the pier to be used.

(5) The approximate dates of loading.

PART 805—SELECTED DESTINATIONS CLEARANCE PROCEDURE

BLOCKADE CONTROL PERMIT

Section 805.4 Blockade control permit is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 805.4 Blockade control permit. (a) Applications for individual license to export commodities set forth in paragraph (b) of this section to:

Portugal.
Portuguese Atlantic Islands.
Portuguese Guinea.
Spain.
Spanish Atlantic Islands.
Spanish International Morocco and Tangier.

will not be considered unless a blockade control permit has previously been issued by appropriate authorities in London, or unless covered by an exception stated in paragraph (c) of this section. License applications will be accepted by the Department of Commerce, Office of International Trade Operations only after notification by the appropriate authorities of the issuance of the permit. Upon receipt of notice of the issuance of the permit, the exporter will be advised to file a license application. Applications for blockade control permits shall be made in the country of destination by the consignee.

(b) Except as provided in paragraph (c) of this section, the commodities for which a blockade control permit is required are listed below:

Portugal

Tinplate.
Wheat, wheat flour and other grains.

Portuguese Atlantic Islands

Wheat flour (for Sao Thomo only).
Wheat.

Portuguese Guinea

Sugar.
Wheat flour.

Spain

Animal, vegetable and fish oils, fats, and greases.
Basic slag.
Beans.
Binder twine, rope and other twine (including jute yarn).
Cocoa and cocoa preparations.
Coffee.
Edible oils.
Fertilizers (nonphosphatic) of animal and vegetable origin not chemically prepared; bone, fish and meat meal.
Fodder including hay, cereal, offals, chick-peas, maize, maize meal, barley, oats, pulses.
Hemp, soft.
Hides and leather (excluding manufactures).
Industrial oilseeds, (resins, cacao, castor, soya, copra, flaxseed, hempseed, kernels, nuts, peanuts, rapeseed, cottonseed, perilla, poppy, sunflower, sesame, babassu, etc.).
Jute, raw (including punga, urena), waste, tissues and manufacture (including bags).
Manila hemp and tow.
Nitrogenous fertilizers, natural or synthetic (Chile saltpetre, sulfate of ammonia, calcium cyanamide, etc.).
Phosphates, natural.
Rice and maizena (cornstarch).
Rubber latex.
Rubber—raw (including synthetic).
Rubber tires and tubes, except for bicycles and motorcycles.
Sisal hemp and tow; kapok.
Sugar.
Superphosphates.
Tin ore, metal scrap.
Tinplate.
Tree spray, porocide.
Wheat, rye, and their flours.

Spanish Atlantic Islands

Animal fats and vegetable oils and oilseeds.
Coffee.
Fertilizers.
Fodder including hay, cereal, offals, chick-peas, maize, maize meal, barley, oats, pulses.
Meat.
Pork and bacon.
Rice.
Rubber tires and tubes, except for bicycles and motorcycles.
Sugar.
Superphosphates.
Wheat, rye, and their flours.

Spanish Morocco and Tangier

Coffee.
Sugar.

(c) Exceptions. The requirements of this section shall not apply to:

(1) Exportations to all destinations subject to the blockade control permit regulations of non-commercial consignments when shipped by mail, provided the commodities so shipped are for the personal use of the consignee or ultimate consignee. When this exception is applicable, the application for license must specify the "personal use".

(2) Exportations of normal trade samples of reasonable quantity, when shipped by mail, to all destinations subject to blockade control permit regulations. Where this exception is applicable the license application must specify that the intended shipment will consist of samples and describe such samples in detail.

This amendment shall become effective immediately upon publication.

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Suspension Order S-912]

STENNO RIBBON & CARBON MANUFACTURING CO.

George L. Koehn, doing business as Stenno Ribbon & Carbon Manufacturing Co., is engaged in the manufacture and sale of typewriter and duplicating machine ribbons and other typewriter supplies at 3207 S. W. First Avenue, Portland, Oregon. During the period from October 9, 1944 to March 26, 1945, George L. Koehn applied preference ratings of AA-1 to purchase orders for 30,929 yards, approximately 37 inches wide, and 1,175,000 yards, approximately ½ inch wide, of typewriter ribbon cloth, valued at $22,389.14, with various wholesalers and manufacturers, although he was not entitled to apply such preference ratings, in violation of Priorities Regulation No. 3. George L. Koehn was aware of the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 3 and his actions constituted grossly negligent violations thereof.

These violations have directed critical materials to uses not authorized by the Civilian Production Administration. In view of the foregoing, it is hereby ordered, that:

§ 1010.912 Suspension Order S-912. (a) George L. Koehn shall not for a period of three months from the effective date of this order, apply or extend any preference ratings, regardless of the delivery date named in any purchase order to which such ratings may be applied or extended.

(b) George L. Koehn shall cancel immediately all preference ratings which he has applied or extended to orders which have not yet been filled.

(c) All preference ratings, allotments and allocations presently outstanding in connection with orders for delivery of cloth to George L. Koehn or placed prior to the termination date of this order are void and shall not be given any effect by suppliers of George L. Koehn or by any other person. This does not apply to cloth already delivered or in transit for delivery to him on the effective date of this order.

(d) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve George L. Koehn from any restriction, prohibition or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the Civilian Production Administration except insofar as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(e) The restrictions and prohibitions contained herein shall apply to George L. Koehn, doing business as Stenno Ribbon & Carbon Manufacturing Co., or under any other name, his successors and assigns or persons acting on his behalf. Prohibitions against the taking of any action include the taking indirectly as well as directly of such action.

(f) This order shall take effect on November 23, 1945.

Issued this 15th day of November 1945.

TABLE 2—CLASSES OF PERSONS SUBJECT TO SPECIFIC INVENTORY PROVISIONS

NOTE: Table 2 amended Nov. 23, 1945.

Explanation. The classes of persons listed in Column 1 are subject to the specific inventory provisions shown, as explained in paragraph (c) (2) of the regulation.

Column 2 shows either the CPA order or regulation which controls the inventories of the particular class of persons, or if no order is specified, there is shown a period of time representing the maximum inventory permitted as explained in paragraph (c) (2). An asterisk (*) indicates that the practicable minimum working inventory limit of paragraph (c) (1) also applies, that is, if it would be less than the specific limit indicated.

Column 3 tells the Division or Office in the Civilian Production Administration to which should be sent any appeals or questions regarding the limitations described. However, if the applicable order says appeals are to be filed somewhere else, such as the nearest CPA field office, that provision controls.

Column 4 (Remarks) gives explanations, exemptions or other special rules applicable to the particular class of persons or limitation. Where this column specifies certain materials, the limitation or exemption for the particular class of person applies only to the materials specified.

Classes of persons (1)	Order or limitation (2)	CPA division or office administering the control (3)	Remarks (4)
Bag makers (cotton textiles)	M-221	Containers
Brush manufacturers	M-81	Textiles	Bristles.
File and rasp manufacturers	120 days*	Inventory control	Applicable only to special high carbon steel in special forms and shapes needed to make files and rasps.
Jeweled watch manufacturers	None	Inventory control	No inventory restrictions apply to receipts of steel, iron products, copper and copper base alloys for making jeweled watches.
Merchants (consumers' soft goods inventory).	L-219	Wholesale and retail trade.
Newspapers, publishers of	L-240	Printing and publishing.	Print paper.
Newsprint users, other than news paper publishers.	L-240, Schedule 1.	Printing and publishing.	Newsprint.
Piston ring manufacturers	90 days*	Inventory control	Applicable only to special heat treated, tempered, polished, and colored high carbon steel (known as segment or expander steel) for use in the production of piston rings.
Rubber and rubber product manufacturers.	R-1	Rubber bureau
Segregated structural steel for construction, persons using.	()	Inventory control	See special rule under "Steel" in table 1.
Suppliers	L-63	Wholesale and retail trade.
Telegraph operators	()	Inventory control	All provisions of this regulation apply, except that with respect to steel, iron products, copper and copper base alloys such operators are subject to the rule of paragraph (c) (1) instead of the specific limitation in Column 2 of Table 1.
Telephone operators	()	Inventory control
Transportation systems, operators of (MRO supplies).	()	Inventory control	All provisions of this regulation apply, except that with respect to the materials on Table 1 (other than lumber) such operators are subject to paragraph (c) (1) instead of the specific limitations in Column 2 of Table 1. This does not prevent an operator from maintaining minimum stocks of material for emergency use, nor from acquiring reasonable stocks of ties and lumber for seasoning.
Utility producers (electric, power, gas, water and central steam heating).	()	Inventory control	All provisions of this regulation apply, except that with respect to steel, iron products, copper and copper base alloys such producers are subject to the rule of paragraph (c) (1) instead of the specific limitation in Column 2 of Table 1.

*Or a practicable minimum working inventory, whichever is less.

TABLE 3—EXEMPTED MATERIALS AND PRODUCTS

NOTE: Table 3 amended Nov. 23, 1945.

Explanation. The following materials and products are exempt from the inventory restrictions on receipts of this regulation and of all other CPA orders or regulations unless they specifically state otherwise.

Abrasive products—made from manufactured or natural abrasives, including all items under CMP code 720
Aluminum in all forms
Asbestos, unmanufactured, all grades and types
Asbestos friction materials
Asbestos Tape .010-.025 thickness
Asbestos textiles
Batteries, dry cell
Bearings—ball and roller, including all items under CMP code 155
Bending machines for pipe, plate, roll, or structural shapes, including all items under CMP code 356
Bentonite
Capital equipment (other than that elsewhere listed on this table and other than wood poles, cross arms, domestic watt hour meters, power and distribution transformers, circuit breakers and switch gear)
Chains, except stud link anchor, cast steel, power transmission, but including all items under CMP code 712
China clay (English)
Cork, raw—corkwood, milling cork, grinding cork
Cranes and Hoists, except Contractors Elevating, Contractors Towing, Crawler Tractor Motor Truck Mounted, Mine and Smelter Types, but including all items under CMP code 146
Domestic andalusite
Domestic dumortierite
Fibrous glass products
Files and Rasps, including all items under CMP code 644
Forging Machines, including all items under CMP code 354
Foundry Machinery, Equipment and Supplies, including all items under CMP code 363
Furfural
Furnaces, metal melting, including all items under CMP code 422
Gages and Precision Measuring Tools, including all items under CMP code 658
Heat Treating Equipment, metal, including all items under CMP code 364
Ilmenite
Istle fiber and products
Jigs, dies and fixtures
Jute fiber and jute products except burlap
Kyanite (Indian)
Lamps, incandescent
Machine Tools, non-portable power driven, including all items under CMP code 350
Machine Tool and Metal Working Machine Attachments and Accessories, including all items under CMP code 362
Magnesium in all forms.
Mechanics Hand Service Tools, including all items under CMP code 647
Metal Cutting Tools, including all items under CMP code 362
Metal Working Machines and Tools, portable, power-driven, including all items under CMP code 365
Metal Working Presses, hydraulic and mechanical, including all items under CMP code 355
Mineral aggregates:
  Sand
  Gravel
  Crushed stone.
  Slag
Packings, Gaskets and Oil Seals
Pipe fittings—steel and brass not including compression, flared or Parker types
Piping accessories: industrial, marine, under CMP Code 597.
Potter's flint
Pulpwood
Rolling Mill Stands and Attached Equipment, including all items under CMP code 357
Salt (sodium chloride) in bulk
Sediment separators
Shears, Punches and Nibblers, power-driven, including all items under CMP code 358
Sodium sulfate (salt cake)
Sodium sulfite
Stoneware clay
Sulphur
Valve handwheels
Valves, goggle
Valves, iron, under CMP Code 575 (piping system: not airbrake equipment, aircraft, instrument, refrigeration, regulating, plumbing fixture and trim) except lubricated plug type.
Valves, steel, under CMP Code 574 (piping system: not aircraft, instrument, refrigeration, regulating) except lubricated plug type.
Vermiculite
Waste paper
Wire Drawing Machinery, including all items under CMP code 359
Wood pulp
Wool: Raw wool

INTERPRETATION 1

INVENTORIES IN SEASONAL INDUSTRIES

Paragraph (c) (1) of Priorities Regulation 32 prohibits any person from accepting a delivery which will give him "more than a practicable minimum working inventory reasonably necessary to meet his own deliveries on the basis of his current or scheduled method and rate of operation". This does not prevent a person engaged in a seasonal industry who normally stocks up inventory in advance of the season from accepting delivery of his requirements of the inventory in question, provided (a) that he is not guilty of hoarding, and (b) that the deliveries accepted are no greater and no further in advance than those which he would normally accept in the ordinary course of his business to meet reasonably anticipated requirements. (Issued Aug. 28, 1945.)

INTERPRETATION 2

MINIMUM SALE QUANTITIES AND PRODUCTION RUNS

(a) Applicable provisions of the regulations. Priorities Regulation 32 forbids the making or acceptance of a delivery which will give the customer more than the "practicable minimum working inventory reasonably necessary" for him to make his own deliveries. A similar provision in paragraph (c) (2) of Priorities Regulation No. 3 says that a customer who is applying a rating for which no specific quantities have been authorized may use it only to get the "minimum amount needed."

(b) Factors to be considered in determining how much can be ordered and delivered. In determining a customer's minimum inventory "reasonably necessary" under Priorities Regulation 32 or his "minimum amount needed" under Priorities Regulation No. 3, it is proper in some cases to consider not only the immediate needs of the customer's plant but also whether the amount which he orders will be a minimum production run for his supplier. The customer may order and receive (and the supplier may deliver) the customer's requirements for a longer period in advance than he actually needs at the time of delivery if, but only if, it is not practicable for him to get the item from any supplier in the smaller quantities which he presently needs. The supplier may reject his customer's order if it is less than the minimum which he regularly sells or less than his minimum production run of a product which is mass produced under the conditions explained in Interpretation 3 of Priorities Regulation 1.

(c) Relief in exceptional cases. If the conditions stated in paragraph (b) above cannot be satisfied but the customer wants to order or accept delivery of more than his actual needs at the time of delivery, he should apply to the War Production Board for permission, stating the facts and why it is not practicable to satisfy the condition of paragraph (b).

(d) Special provisions for certain materials. Where a specific minimum sale quantity is shown in Column 3 of Table 1 of Priorities Regulation 32 with respect to any material or product, that quantity controls instead of the rule in this interpretation.

(e) Specific limits on ratings may not be exceeded. This interpretation does not apply to the use of a rating where a specific quantity is stated in the instrument assigning the rating. If a person is assigned a rating for a specific amount of material, he may not use it to get more. If he finds that he can only get the material in larger quantities, he should apply for a modification of the rating.

(f) No effect on contractual rights. The times and amounts in which deliveries are to be made are to be determined by agreement between the supplier and the customer. Nothing in this interpretation relieves a supplier from fulfilling a contract to make deliveries at specified times in specified amounts. For example, if a customer has agreed to buy and a supplier has agreed to furnish 100 units a month for six months, this interpretation does not obligate the buyer to accept 600 units delivered during the first month, although it permits him to do so under the conditions described in paragraph (b). (Issued Oct. 1, 1945.)

MAKING OR DELIVERING MATERIAL EARLIER THAN REQUIRED BY CUSTOMERS

(a) Paragraph (b) of Priorities Regulation 32 prohibits a person from knowingly making a delivery which will give his customer more than the latter is permitted to receive under the regulation. Paragraph (f) of that regulation prohibits a person from processing or fabricating material if his inventory of the material in its processed or fabricated form will be more than a practicable minimum working inventory. These two restrictions should be borne in mind by any supplier who wants to make or deliver any material to his customer earlier or in greater quantities than required by the customer.

(b) For example: A supplier has accepted his customer's order of a product to be delivered at the rate of 100 a month for six months. The supplier would like to ship 200 a month for three months, or perhaps the entire 600 in the first month. Since the customer's requirements of 100 a month are presumably all he could accept within the inventory limitations of paragraph (c) of the regulation, the requirement that the supplier may not knowingly ship more than this would prevent him from delivering earlier than required by his customer, unless he received notice from his customer that the receipt of the larger amount would not cause him to have an excess inventory.

(c) Thus, before delivering a material or product substantially earlier or in greater quantities than is called for by his customer's order, a supplier is required to satisfy himself that the receipt by the customer of the changed quantities will be within the permissible inventory limitations applicable to the customer. The supplier may rely on any statement or notice to this effect from his customer, unless he knows or has reason to know that it is false.

(d) Similarly, assuming his customer would not be permitted to receive the larger quantities, the supplier should take this into account in his plans for processing the material or product so that he himself will not have an inventory greater than permitted by paragraph (f) of the regulation.

(e) This interpretation, of course, does not change the rule on delivery or acceptance of minimum sale quantities or production runs to the extent described in Interpretation 2 to this regulation, nor does it prevent earlier delivery of iron products, steel, copper and copper base alloys under the conditions described in paragraph (c) (3) of Priorities Regulation 32. Also, if any WPB order or regulation permits increased deliveries to the extent necessary to avoid shipping partly filled containers (such as paragraph (y) (4) of Order M-300), the rule in this interpretation does not prevent such deliveries. (Issued Oct. 1, 1945.)

INVENTORY MATERIAL

(a) Paragraph (c) of Priorities Regulation 32 prohibits a person from accepting delivery of material if his inventory of it is, or will be, greater than the maximum prescribed. For the purpose of this regulation, material is considered to be inventory until it is actually put into process or is actually installed or assembled. Putting into process does not include minor initial operations, such as painting, and does not include any shearing, cutting, trimming or other operation unless such initial operations are part of a continuous fabricating or assembling operation. Nor does it include operations such as inspection, testing and ageing nor segregation or earmarking for a specific job or operation.

(b) For example, if a manufacturer who uses wire or rod cuts a sufficient quantity of it to length at one time to maintain his operations for a considerable period of time, the cut pieces remain as inventory until processed into another form or until assembled or installed.

(c) If a manufacturer purchases and stores steel castings in the form purchased, the steel castings are not put into process when the castings are painted and stored. Consequently, the inventory of castings includes those painted and stored.

(d) If a manufacturer shears steel sheet and stocks in sheared form, such stock is still part of his inventory, if the material does not continue in production. (Issued Aug. 28, 1945)

INTERPRETATION 5

EFFECT OF REDUCTION IN CONSUMPTION RATE ON PERMITTED INVENTORIES

(a) Paragraph (c) of Priorities Regulation 32 prohibits the acceptance of delivery of material if a person's inventory of it is, or will be, more than the amount permitted by the regulation. If material is acquired within these restrictions, the regulation does not prohibit the mere possession of an inventory if a change in circumstances makes it greater than the amount permitted. For instance, if based upon current rate of production a manufacturer's permitted inventory of one item of steel is 100 tons and he has in inventory 60 tons, he may receive a further delivery of 40 tons. If after receiving the delivery of 40 tons his rate of consumption, because of contract cancellation or the like, is reduced drastically, the mere fact that he has an inventory of 100 tons, although his permitted inventory may be only 10 tons, is not a violation of the regulation. He may not, of course, accept any further deliveries of that item of steel until his inventory has been reduced below 10 tons (except as provided in paragraph (h) of Priorities Regulation 32 and Direction 3 to that regulation, relating to material already shipped, special items, etc.)

(b) Similarly, the regulation does not affect the liability of a customer for material in inventory when the customer cancels his contract. Such liability is controlled by the provisions of the contract between the customer and his supplier and by contract law. (Issued Aug. 28, 1945)

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Suspension Order S-835, as Amended Nov. 26, 1945]

SPRINGFIELD UNION PUBLISHING CO. AND REPUBLICAN PUBLISHING CO.

Springfield Union Publishing Company and Republican Publishing Company, corporations doing business in Springfield, Massachusetts, collectively publish Springfield Republican, Springfield Daily News, Sunday Springfield Union-Springfield Republican, Weekly Republican, Springfield Union and Springfield Evening Union in Springfield, Massachusetts. For the purposes of establishing a quota of print paper, all of these newspapers are editions of the same newspaper. Suspension Order S-835 was originally issued on July 2, 1945 against the corporations for violations of Limitation Order L-240 in having used 1009.45 tons of print paper in excess of their quotas for the first, second, and third quarters of 1943, and the first, third and fourth quarters of 1944. At a further hearing held before a Compliance Commissioner on November 14, 1945, it was determined that the corporations violated the terms of the suspension order by using approximately 100.5 tons of print paper in excess of the amount permitted by paragraph (a) of that order during the third quarter of 1945, and violated Limitation Order L-240 by consuming approximately 47 tons of print paper in excess of the permissible quota during the second quarter of 1945. These actions constituted wilfull violations of the suspension order and the provisions of Limitation Order L-240,

This excessive use of paper has diverted critical materials to uses not authorized by the War Production Board. In view of the foregoing, it is hereby ordered, That: § 1010.835 Suspension Order No. S-835 be amended to read as follows:

§ 1010.835 Suspension Order No. 835. (a) During the fourth calendar quarter of 1945 the Republican Publishing Co. and the Springfield Union Publishing Co. shall not use or cause to be used more than 1820 tons of print paper in the publication of their newspapers.

(b) During the first and the second quarters of 1946 the Springfield Union Publishing Co. and Republican Publishing Co. shall reduce their consumption of print paper by 100 tons per quarter under the consumption quota they would otherwise be entitled to use in each of these quarters under the provisions of Limitation Order L-240.

(c) Republican Publishing Co. and Springfield Union Publishing Co. shall within 10 days from the date of issuance of this order report to the Manager of the Regional Compliance Department of the Civilian Production Administration in Boston the total amount of print paper which they have used or caused to be used in the publication of their newspapers from October 1, 1945 to the date of the Sunday following the date of issuance of this order, inclusive, and shall report not later than Thursday of each week thereafter the quantity of print paper used in the publication of their newspapers during the preceding week ending with and including Sunday.

(d) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Springfield Union Publishing Company or Republican Publishing Company from any restriction, prohibition, or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the War Production Board except insofar as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(e) The restrictions and prohibitions contained herein shall apply to Springfield Union Publishing Company and the Republican Publishing Company, their successors or assigns, or persons acting on their behalf. Prohibitions against the taking of any action include the taking indirectly as well as directly of any such action.

Issued this 26th day of November 1945.

PART 3293—CHEMICALS

[Conservation Order M-300, Direction 4]

SPECIAL PROVISIONS FOR ORDERS FOR PENICILLIN

The following direction is issued pursuant to Conservation Order M-300:

(a) The supply of penicillin is substantially less than present and anticipated military and other requirements, and it has become necessary in order to eliminate serious hazard to life and health, to give preference to certain essential orders for penicillin in accordance with the conditions of this Direction.

(b) Definitions. For the purposes of this Direction:

(1) "Penicillin" means a chemotherapeutic agent isolated from Penicillium notatum, P. chrysogenum and variants. The term includes penicillin in any medicinal tablet, ampoule or other form as well as bulk penicillin in any form.

(2) "Hospital" means any hospital for the treatment of humans located in the United States or its territories or possessions and the Veterans' Administration and the U. S. Public Health Service, but does not include any Army or Navy hospital.

(3) "Producer" means any person who produces penicillin and refers to him with respect to the amount he produces and not with respect to the amount he purchases for resale.

(c) Preferred orders—(1) Orders to which preference is given. The following types of orders for penicillin must be treated in all respects as if rated CC:

(i) Any order placed by a hospital, including orders previously placed but not filled on November 23, 1945.

(ii) Any order certified in accordance with subparagraph (2) below. These orders are automatically preferred, and no application for a rating need be filed. A person receiving any order of the type specified may not extend a CC rating, but may place certified orders where permitted under paragraph (c) (2) below.

(2) Certification. Any person ordering penicillin to fill orders which he has received from hospitals, or to fill orders which he has received bearing certificates filed under this paragraph, may furnish the supplier with a certificate in the form prescribed below, except that a person who not only produces penicillin but also purchases it for resale, may place certified orders on other suppliers only to the extent that under paragraph (d) below he is not required to fill such orders from his own production. The certificate shall be in substantially the following form:

"Certified as required to fill hospital orders under Direction 4 to M-300.

Name of purchaser
By ---
Duly authorized official"

The standard certification provided for in Priorities Regulation 7 may not be used instead.

(d) Quantity of penicillin production for which preference must be given under this direction. No producer of penicillin need, during any calendar month, deliver on orders preferred by this direction, more than an amount equal to 40 percent of his preceding month's production of penicillin or 40 percent of his estimated production for that calendar month, whichever is greater.

(e) Dosage forms. Each producer shall if possible operate his facilities in such manner as to provide adequate quantities of penicillin required to fill orders placed by hospitals and certified orders in the dosage form specified in such orders. The same rule applies to persons purchasing penicillin for resale who possess facilities for preparing penicillin in dosage form.

(f) Reports. Reports of production, stocks and shipments shall be filed within 15 days after the close of each calendar month (reports for October, 1945, shall be filed as soon as possible after issuance of this direction) by every producer of penicillin and by every distributor who buys penicillin from any producer for resale with his (the distributor's) name on the label.

These reports shall be filed on Form WPB-2947 in the following manner:

Specify in the blocks provided the name and address of the company reporting, name of materials, month, unit of measure (billion Oxford units) and whether producer or distributor (or both).

In section I, show in column 1, Army parenteral, Army bulk, Army other dosage forms, Navy parenteral, Navy bulk, Navy other dosage forms, export parenteral, export bulk, export other dosage forms, domestic civilian parenteral, domestic civilian bulk, domestic civilian other dosage forms, and list the quantities actually shipped in each of these categories in column 4 (change heading to read "quantity shipped"). Do not show individual customers names. Leave columns 1a, 5, 5a, 6 and 7 blank.

In section II list in column 9 production (total units of penicillin) irrespective of type of salt or dosage form) during the month for which the report is filed and in column 10 stocks as of the first day of the current month. Leave other columns blank. Persons who are both producers and distributors should exclude from the figures reported in columns 9 and 10, any material purchased from others.

The above reporting requirements have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(g) Communications to Civilian Production Administration. Communications concerning this direction shall be addressed to the Civilian Production Administration, Chemicals Division, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: M-300, Direction 4.

Issued this 23d day of November 1945.

PART 3293—CHEMICALS

[General Allocation Order M-300, Schedule 71, as Amended Nov. 26, 1945]

ETHYL ALCOHOL

Section 3293.1071 Schedule 71 to General Allocation Order M-300 is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 3293.1071 Schedule 71 to General Allocation Order M-300—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this schedule: (1) "Ethyl alcohol" means the product of that name, from whatever source derived. The term includes mixtures of ethyl alcohol and denaturants, including the product known as "proprietary solvent". The term does not include ethyl alcohol which has been tax paid for beverage purposes, nor does the term include ethyl alcohol imported into the continental United States unless it was imported tax free for industrial purposes under section 3125 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(2) "Primary supplier" means any person engaged in the production of ethyl alcohol under an industrial alcohol permit issued by the Bureau of Internal Revenue, any importer, the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, or any other government agency, except with respect to special sales under PR 13.

(b) General provisions. Ethyl alcohol is subject to the provisions of General Allocation Order M–300 as an Appendix B material except ethyl alcohol produced in the states of Washington, Oregon, California, Arizona, New Mexico, Nevada, Utah, Colorado, Wyoming, Idaho, Montana, or imported into those states from outside of the continental United States. The initial allocation date is October 1, 1943, when ethyl alcohol first became subject to allocation under Order M–30 (now revoked). For the purpose of this schedule the restrictions applicable to "suppliers" under Order M–300 apply for allocation periods beginning on or after December 1, 1945, only to "primary suppliers" as defined in paragraph (a) (2) above and do not apply to deliveries of ethyl alcohol for beverage purposes. The allocation period is the calendar month.

(c) Transition from Appendix C to Appendix B control. For calendar months prior to December 1, 1945, allocation control of ethyl alcohol is as an Appendix C material, and for calendar months beginning with December 1945, allocation control of ethyl alcohol produced in states other than Washington, Oregon, California, Arizona, New Mexico, Nevada, Utah, Colorado, Wyoming, Idaho, Montana, or imported into other states from outside the continental United States is as an Appendix B material. Regular and interim authorizations issued under Appendix C control on Form WPB–2947 to deliver are not affected by the change to Appendix B control.

Authorizations issued under Appendix C control on Form WPB–2945 to accept delivery are not effective after November 30, 1945, since authorization to accept delivery is not required under Appendix B control.

(d) Deliveries by Reconstruction Finance Corporation. Deliveries for each calendar month by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation will be authorized by the Civilian Production Administration and delivery may not be made without such authorization but no application need be filed by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation.

(e) Primary suppliers' applications on Form WPB–2947. Each primary supplier, except the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, seeking an authorization to deliver or use ethyl alcohol for industrial purposes shall file application on Form WPB–2947. Filing date is the 15th day of the month before the month in which delivery or use is proposed to be made. Send four copies (one certified) to the Civilian Production Administration, Chemicals Division, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: M–300–71. The unit of measure is gallons. Notwithstanding the instructions on Form WPB–2947, the supplier should file a consolidated return including all points within the area covered by this schedule from which shipments are to be made instead of separate applications for each plant and warehouse.

In section 1 state the aggregate quantity which you wish to deliver or use for industrial purposes without giving customers' names or primary products or end uses. State also what portion of this quantity you wish to purchase from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation for industrial purposes. Fill in section 2 as indicated. Do not include in Section 2 any figures covering ethyl alcohol which has been or will be tax paid for beverage purposes or delivered in bond for the purpose of tax paying for beverage purposes. The Civilian Production Administration will release an aggregate quantity for industrial purposes pursuant to paragraph (f) of Order M–300.

(f) Certified statements of use. The usual end use certificates required for Appendix B materials are not required for ethyl alcohol.

(g) Beverage spirits—(1) Tax payment, and deliveries in bond, for beverage purposes. Any person may tax pay ethyl alcohol for beverage purposes, and any producer may deliver in bond ethyl alcohol to any person authorized under the rules and regulations of the Bureau of Internal Revenue to receive ethyl alcohol in bond for the purpose of tax paying the same for beverage purposes.

(2) Acceptance of delivery in bond for beverage purposes. Any person may accept delivery of ethyl alcohol in bond for the purpose of tax paying the same for beverage purposes if that person is authorized to do so under the rules and regulations of the Bureau of Internal Revenue.

(h) Budget Bureau approval. The above reporting requirements have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(i) Communications to Civilian Production Administration. Communications concerning this schedule shall be addressed to the Civilian Production Administration, Chemicals Division, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: M–300–71.

PART 4600—RUBBER, SYNTHETIC RUBBER AND PRODUCTS THEREOF

[Rubber Order R–1, Amdt. 1 to Appendix II, as Amended Nov. 15, 1945]

Appendix II, Manufacturing regulations, as amended Nov. 15, 1945 is hereby further amended by changing List 9, Regulations for the Manufacture of Tire Tubes (Except Airplane and Bicycle Tire Tubes) to read as follows:

LIST 9—MANUFACTURE OF TIRE TUBES (EXCEPT AIRPLANE AND BICYCLE TIRE TUBES)

(a) Manufacturing regulations. (1) Tubes of any size and type may be manufactured Provided, That:

(i) Natural Rubber and natural rubber latex are consumed only in valves (where permitted in List 16), valve adhesion pads, splicing gum strips and cements, and identification inks and cements.

(ii) Passenger car tubes of all types shall contain not more than .02 pounds of natural rubber per tube.

(2) The manufacture of tubes consuming more natural rubber than permitted by paragraph (a) (1) (i) of this List 9 is prohibited.

(3) The manufacture of tubes from GR–1 before January 1, 1946, shall be limited to the sizes and types listed in Table A. Beginning January 1, 1946, the manufacture of tubes from GR–1 shall be permitted in all sizes and types.

TABLE A—GR–1 TUBES

Size:	Type
6.00–16	Passenger.[1]
6.00–16	Truck.[1]
All	Combat (U. S.).
6.00–17	Truck and bus.
6.00–20	Do.
6.50 and larger, all rim diameters.	Do.

1. Explanation of the supplement.
2. Applicability of Food Products Regulation No. 1.
3. Definitions.

ARTICLE II—PRICING PROVISIONS

4. Maximum prices for sales of fruit preserves, jams and jellies by processors.
5. Maximum prices for sales of apple butter by processors.
6. Maximum prices for sales by processors of items which cannot be priced under section 4, 5 or 8 (a).
7. Maximum prices for sales by wagon wholesalers and by distributors other than wholesalers and retailers.
8. Provisions of Article II of Food Products Regulation No. 1 applicable to this supplement.

ARTICLE III—MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

9. Reports that processors must file for prices figured under sections 4 and 5.
10. Individual adjustment of processors' maximum prices.
11. Provisions of Article III of Food Products Regulation No. 1 applicable to this supplement.

AUTHORITY: § 1351.480, issued under 56 Stat. 23, 765; 57 Stat. 556; Pub. Law 383, 78th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871; E.O. 9328, 8 F.R. 4681; E.O. 9599, 10 F.R. 10155.

ARTICLE I—EXPLANATION OF THE SUPPLEMENT

SECTION 1. Explanation of the supplement. (a) This supplement establishes maximum prices for sales of the flavors of fruit preserves, jams and jellies listed in section 4 (a), and of apple butter, by all persons except wholesalers and retailers (wagon wholesalers, however, are included). However, sales and deliveries of products covered by this supplement by a processor in any calendar year in which his total volume of sales of the products does not exceed 500 quarts (or an equivalent amount in other container sizes) are not subject to the maximum prices or other requirements imposed by this supplement or any other maximum price regulation.

(b) This supplement applies in the 48 States of the United States and the District of Columbia.

(c) This supplement supersedes the provisions of all other maximum price regulations as to the commodities and sellers covered.

(d) This supplement becomes effective November 28, 1945.

SEC. 2. Applicability of Food Products Regulation No. 1. Important: Not all of the provisions affecting the maximum prices of the designated flavors of fruit preserves, jams and jellies and of apple butter are stated in this supplement. Those which are not specifically set forth here are stated in Food Products Regulation No. 1, and they are just as much a part of this supplement as if they were printed here. The "Explanation of the Regulation" is also a part of this supplement.

The particular sections of Food Products Regulation No. 1 which are applicable to this supplement are listed at appropriate places in the following provisions (in each case the section number set forth in parentheses is the appropriate section number of Food Products Regulation No. 1). When any applicable section of the regulation is amended, the amendment also is applicable to this supplement.

SEC. 3. Definitions. (a) When used in this supplement, the term:

(1) "Fruit preserves and jams" means any viscous or semi-solid food obtained by concentrating a mixture of fruit and saccharine ingredients in which the fruit ingredient is not less than 45 parts and the saccharine ingredients not more than 55 parts by weight, as defined by the Regulation Fixing and Establishing Definitions and Standards of Identity for Preserves, Jams, issued under the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act of 1938 and printed in the FEDERAL REGISTER on September 5, 1940.[2]

(2) "Fruit jellies" means any semi-solid food of gelatinous consistency obtained by concentrating, by the application of heat, a mixture of fruit juice or diluted or concentrated fruit juice and saccharine ingredients, in which the fruit juice is not less than 45 parts by weight and the saccharine ingredients not more than 55 parts by weight, as defined by the Regulation Fixing and Establishing Definitions and Standards of Identity for Jellies, issued under the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act of 1938 and printed in the FEDERAL REGISTER on September 5, 1940.[3]

(3) "Apple butter" means the smooth, semi-solid food having a characteristic apple flavor obtained by cooking a mixture of the strained edible portion of apples and saccharine ingredients, consisting of not less than 5 parts, by weight, of apple ingredient (calculated on a fresh fruit basis using an average percentage of soluble apple solids of 13.7 percent) to 2 parts, by weight, of saccharine ingredients. The product may be prepared with or without any of the following: Apple juice, lemon juice, lime juice, citric acid, lactic acid, malic acid, tartaric acid and salt. Saccharine ingredients may be any of the following: (i) Sugar, (ii) invert sugar sirup, (iii) brown sugar, (iv) invert brown sugar sirup, (v) honey, (vi) corn sirup, (vii) any combination of two or more of (i), (ii), (iii), (iv), (v) and (vi), but if honey is a component the weight of its solids is not less than ⅔ of the weight of the solids of the combination; or (viii) any combination of corn sugar or dextrose and (i), (ii), (iii), (iv), (v), (vi), or (vii), but if honey is a component the weight of its solids is not less than ⅔ of the weight of the solids of the combination. Apple butter is further defined by the Regulation Fixing and Establishing Definitions and Standards of Identity for Fruit Butters, issued under the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act of 1938,[4] and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on September 5, 1940.

(4) "Fruit," as applied to fruit preserves, jams and jellies, includes berries.

(5) "Variety" means a kind of fruit or berry.

(6) "Basic wage rate" means the single rate or established range of rates applicable to a given job classification for straight time, day operation as included in the basic wage rate schedule covering all job classifications in a factory.

(b) The definitions of the following terms, set forth in the designated sections of Food Products Regulation No. 1, are applicable to this supplement:

"Person" (section 1.1 of FPR 1).
"Processor" (section 1.2 of FPR 1).
"Distributor" (section 1.3 of FPR 1).
"Repacker" (section 1.4 of FPR 1).
"Wholesaler" and "retailer" (section 1.6 of FPR 1).
"Ultimate consumer" (section 1.7 of FPR 1).
"Item" (section 1.8 of FPR 1).
"Container type" (section 1.9 of FPR 1).
"Sale" (section 1.10 of FPR 1).
"Price" (section 1.11 of FPR 1).
"Records" (section 1.14 of FPR 1).

ARTICLE II—PRICING PROVISIONS

SEC. 4. Maximum prices for sales of fruit preserves, jams and jellies by processors—(a) Flavors covered by this supplement and general explanation of pricing methods. The flavors of fruit preserves, jams and jellies covered by this supplement are those processed from the following varieties of fruit:

Apple	Grape
Apricot	Loganberry
Blackberry	Peach
Boysenberry	Pineapple
Cherry	Plum
Crabapple	Prune
Currant	Raspberry
Elderberry	Strawberry
Gooseberry	Youngberry

Also covered are mixed flavors processed from any two or more of the listed varieties of fruit.

For an item covered by this section, the processor figures his maximum price for sales to purchasers other than government procurement agencies under the particular paragraph listed below which is applicable to the item being priced:

To price an item sold during the applicable 1941 base period, specified in

[1] 9 F.R. 6711; 10 F.R. 11298, 12446.

[2] 5 F.R. 3554.

[3] 8 F.R. 3558.

[4] 8 F.R. 3561.

§ 1341.302 (b) (2) of Maximum Price Regulation 226 [5] and for which the processor figured a maximum price under the general formula provisions of Maximum Price Regulation 473,[6] see paragraph (b), below.

To price an item sold during the applicable 1941 base period specified in § 1341.302 (b) (2) of Maximum Price Regulation 226 and for which the processor figured a maximum price under the general formula provisions of that regulation but did not figure a maximum price under Maximum Price Regulation 473, see paragraph (c), below.

To price an item for which the maximum price under Maximum Price Regulation 226 was determined by using a competitor's maximum price, or for which the maximum price under that regulation or Maximum Price Regulation 473 was determined by specific authorization or the elective pricing method, and to price any item that cannot otherwise be priced, see paragraph (f), below.

The processor shall figure a maximum price for each factory at which he processes the item being priced. (However, he may then elect to combine prices as provided in section 8 (e), below.)

(b) General rule for pricing items sold during the applicable 1941 base period and for which maximum prices were figured under the general formula provisions of Maximum Price Regulation 473. In general, this paragraph applies to the pricing of items which the processor sold during the applicable base period specified in § 1341.302 (b) (2) of Maximum Price Regulation 226 and for which he figured maximum prices under the general formula provisions of Maximum Price Regulation 473. It does not apply to items which were priced under Maximum Price Regulation 226 by using competitors' maximum prices (and then taking competitors' adjustments for raw materials under Maximum Price Regulation 473), nor to items which were priced by individual authorization or the elective pricing method under Maximum Price Regulation 226 or 473.

For sales of an item to purchasers other than government procurement agencies, the processor shall figure his maximum price per dozen containers or other unit, f.o.b. shipping point, as follows. He shall:

[6] 8 F.R. 13104, 13846, 15257, 16129, 98; 9 F.R. 392, 1596.

(2) Add permitted increase for raw material costs under Maximum Price Regulation 473. Next, the processor shall add his permitted increase for raw material costs as required to be figured under section 2 (c) of Maximum Price Regulation 473.

(3) Adjust for approved 1943 increases in wage rates. Next, the processor shall adjust the resulting figure for the 1943 increase in wage rates if he incurred a wage rate increase approved by the War Labor Board or under the Fair Labor Standards Act and made effective after January 1, 1943, but before January 1, 1944. The adjustment is made by multiplying by the appropriate figure named in the following table for the area in which his factory is located.

Area	States	Multiply by—
1	Alabama, Arkansas, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, Mississippi, Missouri, North Carolina, Oklahoma, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia and West Virginia	1.02
2	All other States	1.015

(4) Subtract 2%. Next, the processor shall subtract from the resulting figure 2% of that figure.

(5) Subtract the raw material cost under Maximum Price Regulation 473. Next, the processor shall subtract the lawful cost per dozen or other unit for raw materials used in figuring his maximum price for the item under section 2 (b) and (c) of Maximum Price Regulation 473. The deduction shall include any transportation and hauling charges for raw material used in establishing that maximum price.

Explanation of what is meant by the term "lawful cost per dozen or other unit for raw materials used in figuring his maximum price for the item under section 2 (b) and (c) of Maximum Price Regulation 473." (i) In the case of a fresh or frozen fruit listed in section 2 (c) (1) of Maximum Price Regulation 473 (for example, fresh blackberries), the term means the appropriate figure named in the applicable table in that section, after conversion to cents per unit of the finished product.

(ii) In the case of a fresh, frozen or packed fruit covered by section 2 (c) (2) of Maximum Price Regulation 473 (for example, fresh currants), the term means the weighted average cost delivered at the factory of the particular variety of 1943 fresh, frozen or packed fruit purchased or contracted for during and prior to the applicable 1943 base period (after conversion to cents per unit of the finished product), as required to be figured under and subject to the limitations of that section.

(iii) In the case of a flavor processed from more than one variety (for example, cherry and peach) or more than one type (for example, fresh and frozen strawberries), the term means the sum of (a) the weighted average cost delivered at the factory of 1942 fruit purchased or contracted for during and prior to the applicable 1942 base period, as required to be figured under § 1341.302 (a) (3) of Maximum Price Regulation 226, and (b) the amount of the permitted increase for raw material costs for the flavor in question (after conversion to cents per unit of the finished product), as required to be figured under section 2 (c) (3) of Maximum Price Regulation 473.

(6) Add the 1945 raw material cost. Next, the processor shall add to the resulting figure his weighted average cost delivered at the factory of 1945 fruit purchased or contracted for prior to the time of figuring the maximum price under this supplement, after conversion to cents per unit of the finished product.

(i) In figuring the weighted average cost delivered at the factory of 1945 fruit purchased or contracted for prior to the time of figuring the maximum price under this supplement, the processor shall exclude from the computations any amounts paid for fruit in excess of the following amounts (after conversion to cents per unit of the finished product):

(a) For the frozen fruits listed below, the maximum price named in the supplement to Food Products Regulation No. 1, applicable at the time of purchase, for sales by processors on a no-storage basis for the particular variety, in barrels, plus the seller's increase for storage under that supplement and the amount of any transportation charges actually incurred by the processor from the supplier's shipping point to the processor's factory.

Frozen blackberries
Frozen boysenberries
Frozen red sour pitted cherries
Frozen gooseberries
Frozen loganberries
Frozen raspberries
Frozen strawberries
Frozen youngberries

(b) For all packed and frozen fruit (other than those listed in (a), above), the maximum prices which the processor's supplier or suppliers were entitled to charge him under the supplement to Food Products Regulation No. 1, or other maximum price regulation, applicable at the time of purchase, in the respective sales by which they were acquired by the processor, plus the amount of any transportation charges actually incurred by the processor from the supplier's shipping point to the processor's factory.

(c) For the following fresh fruits, a weighted average raw material price no higher than the appropriate average price designated for payment to growers by the Department of Agriculture, as set forth below, except that for the quantities of any fruit actually purchased by grade or district classification announced by the Department of Agriculture, a weighted average raw material price for those purchases shall be included in the weighted average raw material cost, figured on the basis of the weighted average price actually paid for each grade or district classification but not in excess of the price named below for that grade or district classification.

[Grades referred to are those specified in the joint announcements of United States Department of Agriculture and Office of Price Administration]

Fruit	Area	Price[3]
Apples used in processing apple preserves.	Washington, Oregon, California, Idaho and Montana.	$4.10 per cwt.
	All other States	$5.60 per cwt.

Prunes	All States	$55.00 per ton.
Raspberries, black	All States	$0.13 per pound.
Raspberries, red	All States	$0.15 per pound.
Strawberries:
Ettersburg, Corvallis and Redheart, stemmed basis.[4]	All States	$0.17 per pound.
Others, stemmed basis[4]	All States	$0.15 per pound.
Youngberries	All States	$0.12 per pound.

[3] These weighted average raw material prices apply whether the processor buys the strawberries stemmed or unstemmed. If he buys the strawberries unstemmed, he may not add any cost of stemming.

"Delivered to the customary receiving point" means delivered to place where the processor received delivery of the raw material during 1941. If the processor had no customary receiving point during that year, "delivered to the customary receiving point" means delivered to the nearest place where processors of the same raw material, whose factories are located in the same producing area, received delivery during that year.

(d) For a flavor processed from 1945 fruit of more than one variety or more than one type, the appropriate amount for the number of pounds or other unit used of each variety and type, in accordance with (a), (b) and (c), above.

(ii) "1945 fruit" includes only fresh fruit and packed and frozen fruit of the 1945 pack.

(iii) "Packed", as used in this paragraph (b) (6), refers to fruit that has been canned or otherwise processed, but does not include frozen fruit.

(7) Adjust for approved increases in basic wage rate. Finally, the processor shall multiply the resulting figure by the appropriate labor increase factor named in the table below if he has incurred an increase in basic wage rate approved by the War Labor Board, and if the increase became effective on or after January 1, 1944, and before August 18, 1945. An increase in basic wage rate will be considered to have occured only if the single rate or the mid-point of the range of rates for unskilled female labor has been increased.

Area	States	Multiply by—
1	Alabama, Arkansas, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, Mississippi, Missouri, North Carolina, Oklahoma, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia, and West Virginia	1.009
2	All other States	1.004

The resulting figure is the processor's maximum price per dozen containers or other unit, f. o. b. shipping point, for sales to purchasers other than government procurement agencies.

(c) Rule for pricing items in certain cases where the processor did not figure maximum prices under the general formula provisions of Maximum Price Regulation 473. In general, this paragraph applies to the pricing of items which the processor cannot price under paragraph (b), above, for the reason that he did not figure a maximum price under the general formula provisions of Maximum Price Regulation 473 but for which he figured a maximum price under the general formula provisions of Maximum Price Regulation 226. It does not apply to items which were priced under Maximum Price Regulation 226 by using competitors' maximum prices or by individual authorization or the elective pricing method under Maximum Price Regulation 226 or 473.

For sales of an item to purchasers other than government procurement agencies, the processor shall figure his maximum price per dozen containers or other unit, f. o. b. shipping point, as follows. He shall:

(1) Start with his maximum price under Maximum Price Regulation 226. (i) The processor shall use as his starting point his maximum price for the item, f. o. b. shipping point, as required to be figured under Maximum Price Regulation 226. Where the processor figured a separate maximum price for a separate class of purchasers under § 1341.302 (f) or (g) of that regulation, his starting point shall be the maximum price so figured. He shall not start with a maximum price for sales to the United States or its agencies figured under § 1341.302 (h) of Maximum Price Regulation 226.

(ii) Instead of using the maximum price ordinarily required by (i), above, the processor, at his election, may use as his base price for a listed flavor which he also processed in 1942, the following figure:

(a) For a unit of one dozen one-pound glass jars, the appropriate figure named in the following table:

Flavor:	Price
Currant jelly	$2.05
Grape jelly	1.53
Apricot preserves	2.00
Cherry preserves	1.96
Grape preserves	1.52
Peach preserves	1.91
Strawberry preserves	2.25
Blackberry preserves	2.11
Raspberry preserves	2.19

(b) For a unit of one dozen glass containers of any other size not larger than a 32-ounce jar, a figure determined by adjusting the base price named for the flavor in the table in (a), as follows:

Deduct the container cost. The processor shall subtract the direct cost of the containers from the price named for a unit of one dozen one-pound jars. "Direct cost of the containers" means the net cost, as of September 30, 1943, at the processor's factory, of the containers, caps, labels and proportionate part of the outgoing shipping carton, but it does not include costs of filling, closing, labeling or packing.

Adjust for any difference in contents. The figure obtained by this deduction shall be adjusted by dividing it by the number of ounces or other units in one dozen one-pound jars and multiplying the result by the number of the same units in one dozen of the container size being priced.

Add the new container cost. Next, the processor shall add to the adjusted figure the "direct cost of the containers" in the size being priced.

(2) Subtract the raw material cost under Maximum Price Regulation 226. Next, the processor shall subtract the weighted average cost delivered at the factory of 1942 fruit purchased or contracted for during and prior to the applicable 1942 base period, as required to be figured under § 1341.302 (a) (3) of Maximum Price Regulation 226.

(3) Add the 1945 raw material cost. Next, the processor shall add to the resulting figure his weighted average cost delivered at the factory of 1945 fruit purchased or contracted for prior to the time of figuring the maximum price under this supplement, after conversion to cents per unit of the finished product. This cost shall be figured in the same manner and subject to the same limitations as provided in paragraph (b) (6), above.

(4) Adjust for approved 1943 increases in wage rates. Next, the processor shall adjust the resulting figure for the 1943 increase in wage rates if he incurred a wage rate increase approved by the War Labor Board or under the Fair Labor Standards Act and made effective after January 1, 1943, but before January 1, 1944. The adjustment is made by multiplying by the appropriate figure named in the table in paragraph (b) (3), above.

(5) Subtract 2%. Next, the processor shall subtract from the resulting figure 2% of that figure.

(6) Adjust for approved increases in basic wage rate. Finally, the processor shall multiply the resulting figure by the appropriate labor increase factor named in the table in paragraph (b) (7), above, if he has incurred an increase in basic wage rate approved by the War Labor Board, and if the increase became effective on or after January 1, 1944, and before August 18, 1945. An increase in basic wage rate will be considered to have occurred only if the single rate or the mid-point of the range of rates for unskilled female labor has been increased.

The resulting figure is the processor's maximum price per dozen containers or other unit, f. o. b. shipping point, for sales to purchasers other than government procurement agencies.

(d) Adjustment of raw material costs by processors who obtained permitted increases from comparable processors pursuant to § 1341.302(f) of Maximum Price Regulation 226. A processor who during the applicable 1941 base period sold the item being priced only to ultimate consumers (other than industrial, institutional and commercial users) and obtained his permitted increase pursuant to § 1341.302(f) of Maximum Price Regulation 226 from the nearest comparable processor who sells to retailers or wholesalers, in figuring a maximum price under paragraph (b) or (c), above, shall adjust for raw material cost in the following manner.

(1) If he is figuring his maximum price under paragraph (b), instead of making the subtraction and addition ordinarily required by paragraph (b) (5) and (6) he shall add the amount (converted to retail units on the basis of his own yields) arrived at by subtracting (i) the raw material cost under Maximum Price Regulation 473 that his most closely competitive processor who sells to retailers or wholesalers is required to subtract under paragraph (b) (5), from (ii) the 1945 raw material cost that the same processor is required to add under paragraph (b) (6).

(2) If he is figuring his maximum price under paragraph (c), instead of making the subtraction and addition ordinarily required by paragraphs (c) (2) and (3) he shall add the amount (converted to retail units on the basis of his own yields) arrived at by subtracting (i) the raw material cost under Maximum Price Regulation 226 that his most closely competitive processor who sells to retailers or wholesalers is required to subtract under paragraph (c) (2), from (ii) the 1945 raw material cost that the same processor is required to add under paragraph (c) (3).

(3) Normally, the "most closely competitive processor" mentioned above will be the same processor from whom the processor obtained his permitted increase under § 1341.302 (f) of Maximum Price Regulation 226. In each case, however, the competitive processor shall be one who figured his maximum price under the same method (paragraph (b) or (c), above) that is being used by the processor. Furthermore, where the 1945 raw material prices for fresh fruit named for the product in paragraph (b) (6) (i) (c), and used by the processor in the flavor being priced, differ by area, the competitive processor shall be one whose customary receiving point is located in the same area as that of the processor figuring his adjustment for raw material cost under this paragraph (d).

(e) Allocation of costs. In converting the cost of raw materials or any other cost factor into cost per dozen or other unit for any kind, flavor, brand and container type and size, the cost shall be allocated in the same proportion as the same cost was allocated to that item in 1942.

(f) Items for which maximum prices cannot be figured under the foregoing rules of this section or section 8 (a). If the processor cannot figure a maximum price, f. o. b. shipping point, under the foregoing rules of this section or under section 8 (a) for sales of any item to purchasers other than government procurement agencies, he shall figure his maximum price under section 6. If he cannot or is not permitted to figure his maximum price in that manner, he shall apply to the Office of Price Administration for authorization of a maximum price under section 8 (c).

SEC. 5. Maximum prices for sales of apple butter by processors—(a) General explanation of pricing methods for apple butter. To price an item of apple butter, the processor figures his maximum price for sales to purchasers other than government procurement agencies under the particular paragraph listed below which is applicable to the item being priced:

To price an item sold during the base period specified in § 1341.452 (a) (1) of Maximum Price Regulation 232[7] (October and November 1941) and for which the processor figured a maximum price under the general formula provisions of Maximum Price Regulation 498,[8] see paragraph (b), below.

To price an item sold during the base period specified in § 1341.452 (a) (1) of Maximum Price Regulation 232 (October and November 1941) and for which the processor figured a maximum price under the general formula provisions of that regulation but did not figure a maximum price under Maximum Price Regulation 498, see paragraph (c), below.

To price an item for which the maximum price under Maximum Price Regulation 232 was determined by using a competitor's maximum price, or for which the maximum price under that regulation or Maximum Price Regulation 498 was determined by specific authorization or the alternative pricing method, and to price any item that cannot otherwise be priced, see paragraph (f), below.

The processor shall figure a maximum price for each factory at which he processes the item being priced. (However, he may then elect to combine prices as provided in section 8 (e), below).

(b) General rule for pricing items of apple butter sold during the 1941 base period (October and November 1941) and for which maximum prices were figured under the general formula provisions of Maximum Price Regulation 498. In general, this paragraph applies to the pricing of items of apple butter which the processor sold during the 1941 base period (October and November 1941) and for which he figured maximum prices under the general formula provisions of Maximum Price Regulation 498. It does not apply to items which were priced under Maximum Price Regulation 232 by using competitors' maximum prices (and then taking competitors' increases for fruit under Maximum Price Regulation 498), nor to items which were priced by individual authorization or the alternative pricing method under Maximum Price Regulation 232 or 498.

For sales of an item to purchasers other than government procurement agencies, the processor shall figure his maximum price per dozen or other unit, f. o. b. shipping point, as follows. He shall:

(1) Start with the base price under Maximum Price Regulation 498. The processor shall use as his starting point his base price under section 2 (a) of Maximum Price Regulation 498. Where his base price under section 2 (a) of Maximum Price Regulation 498 is a separate maximum price figured for sales to ultimate consumers (other than industrial, institutional and commercial users) under § 1341.452 (f) of Maximum Price Regulation 232, he shall use that price as his starting point.

(2) Add permitted increase for fruit under Maximum Price Regulation 498. Next, the processor shall add his permitted increase for fruit as required to be figured under section 2 (b) of Maximum Price Regulation 498.

(3) Adjust for approved 1943 increases in wage rates. Next, the processor shall adjust the resulting figure for the 1943 increase in wage rates if he incurred a wage rate increase approved by the War Labor Board or under the Fair Labor Standards Act and made effective after January 1, 1943, but before January 1, 1944. The adjustment is made by multiplying by the appropriate figure named in the following table for the area in which his factory is located.

Area	States	Multiply by—
2	All other States	1.01

(4) Subtract 2%. Next, the processor shall subtract from the resulting figure 2% of that figure.

(5) Subtract the raw material cost under Maximum Price Regulation 498. Next, the processor shall subtract the weighted average cost, delivered at the factory, for 1943 fresh apples and apple chops purchased or contracted for between September 1, 1943 and December 1, 1943 (after conversion to cents per unit of the finished product), as required to be figured under and subject to the limitations of section 2 (b) (1) of Maximum Price Regulation 498.

(6) Add the 1945 raw material cost. Next, the processor shall add to the resulting figure his 1945 weighted average cost delivered at the factory of 1945 fruit purchased or contracted for prior to the time of figuring the maximum price under this supplement, after conversion to cents per unit of the finished product.

(i) In figuring the weighted average cost delivered at the factory of 1945 fruit purchased or contracted for prior to the time of figuring the maximum price under this supplement, the processor shall exclude from the computations any amounts paid for fruit in excess of the following amounts (after conversion to cents per unit of the finished product):

(a) For apple chops, the maximum prices which the processor's supplier or suppliers were entitled to charge him under the supplement to Food Products Regulation No. 1, applicable at the time of purchase, in the respective sales by which the apple chops were acquired by the processor, plus the amount of any transportation charges actually incurred by the processor from the supplier's shipping point to the processor's factory.

(b) For fresh apples, a weighted average raw material price no higher than the appropriate price named below:

	Area	Price
Fresh apples	Washington, Oregon, California, Idaho, and Montana.	$2.20 per cwt.
	All other States	$3.00 per cwt.

The raw material prices named in the table above for fresh apples refer to designated prices delivered to the processor's customary receiving point. The actual transportation charges incurred from the processor's customary receiving point to his factory shall be added to the amount named at the customary receiving point. The location of the processor's customary receiving point is controlling in determining the applicable price in the table, and not the place where the raw material is grown or his factory located. However, if the processor purchases the raw material in an area other than that in which his customary receiving point is located, the applicable price in the table is the price named for the area in which the raw material is grown, and he shall add to this amount the actual transportation charges that would have been incurred in moving the goods from his customary receiving point to his factory.

"Delivered to the customary receiving point" means delivered to place where the processor received delivery of the raw material during 1941. If the processor had no customary receiving point during that year, "delivered to the customary receiving point" means delivered to the nearest place where processors of the same raw material, whose factories are located in the same area, received delivery during that year.

(ii) "1945 fruit" includes only fresh apples and apple chops processed from apples of the 1945 crop.

(7) Adjust for approved increases in basic wage rate. Finally, the processor shall multiply the resulting figure by the appropriate labor increase factor named in the table below if he has incurred an increase in basic wage rate approved by the War Labor Board, and if the increase became effective on or after January 1, 1944, and before August 18, 1945. An increase in basic wage rate will be considered to have occurred only if the single rate or the mid-point of the range of rates for unskilled female labor has been increased.

Area	States	Multiply by—
1	Alabama, Arkansas, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, Mississippi, Missouri, North Carolina, Oklahoma, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia, and West Virginia	1.009
2	All other States	1.004

The resulting figure is the processor's maximum price per dozen containers or other unit, f. o. b. shipping point, for sales to purchasers other than government procurement agencies.

(c) Rule for pricing items of apple butter in certain cases where the processor did not figure maximum prices under the general formula provisions of Maximum Price Regulation 498. In general, this paragraph applies to the pricing of items of apple butter which the processor cannot price under paragraph (b), above, for the reason that he did not figure a maximum price under the general formula provisions of Maximum Price Regulation 498 but for which he figured a maximum price under the general formula provisions of Maximum Price Regulation 232. It does not apply to items which were priced under Maximum Price Regulation 232 by using competitors' maximum prices or by individual authorization or the alternative pricing method under Maximum Price Regulation 232 or 498.

For sales of an item to purchasers other than government procurement agencies, the processor shall figure his maximum price per dozen containers or other unit, f. o, b. shipping point, as follows. He shall:

(1) Start with his maximum price under Maximum Price Regulation 232. The processor shall use as his starting point his maximum price for the item, f. o. b. shipping point, as required to be figured under Maximum Price Regulation 232. Where the processor figured a separate maximum price for sales to ultimate consumers (other than industrial, institutional and commercial users) under § 1341.452 (f) of that regulation, his starting point shall be the maximum price so figured.

(2) Subtract the raw material cost under Maximum Price Regulation 232.

[8] 8 F.R. 16503; 9 F.R. 98, 1597, 7833.

Next, the processor shall subtract the weighted average cost, delivered at the factory, of 1942 fruit purchased or contracted for between March 1, 1942 and October 1, 1942, as required to be figured under § 1341.452 (a) and (b) of Maximum Price Regulation 232 and subject to the limitations of those provisions.

(3) Add the 1945 raw material cost. Next, the processor shall add to the resulting figure his weighted average cost delivered at the factory of 1945 fruit purchased or contracted for prior to the time of figuring the maximum price under this supplement, after conversion to cents per unit of the finished product. This cost shall be figured in the same manner and subject to the same limitations as provided in paragraph (b) (6), above.

(4) Adjust for approved 1943 increases in wage rates. Next, the processor shall adjust the resulting figure for the 1943 increase in wage rates if he incurred a wage rate increase approved by the War Labor Board or under the Fair Labor Standards Act and made effective after January 1, 1943, but before January 1, 1944. The adjustment is made by multiplying by the appropriate figure named in the table in paragraph (b) (3), above.

(5) Subtract 2%. Next, the processor shall subtract from the resulting figure 2% of that figure.

(6) Adjust for approved increases in basic wage rates. Finally, the processor shall multiply the resulting figure by the appropriate labor increase factor named in the table in paragraph (b) (7), above, if he has incurred an increase in basic wage rate approved by the War Labor Board, and if the increase became effective on or after January 1, 1944, and before August 18, 1945. An increase in basic wage rate will be considered to have occurred only if the single rate or the midpoint of the range of rates for unskilled female labor has been increased.

The resulting figure is the processor's maximum price per dozen containers or other unit, f. o. b. shipping point, for sales to purchasers other than government procurement agencies.

(d) Adjustment of raw material costs by processors who obtained permitted increases from comparable processors pursuant to § 1341.542 (f) of Maximum Price Regulation 232. A processor who during the applicable 1941 base period sold the item being priced only to ultimate consumers (other than industrial, institutional and commercial users) and obtained his permitted increase pursuant to § 1341.452 (f) of Maximum Price Regulation 232 from the nearest comparable processor who sells to retailers or wholesalers, in figuring a maximum price under paragraph (b) or (c), above, shall adjust for raw material cost in the following manner.

(1) If he is figuring his maximum price under paragraph (b), instead of making the subtraction and addition ordinarily required by paragraphs (b) (5) and (6), he shall add the amount (converted to retail units on the basis of his own yields) arrived at by subtracting (i) the raw material cost under Maximum Price Regulation 498 that his most closely competitive processor who sells to retailers or wholesalers is required to subtract under paragraph (b) (5), from (ii) the 1945 raw material cost that the same processor is required to add under paragraph (b) (6).

(2) If he is figuring his maximum price under paragraph (c), instead of making the subtraction and addition ordinarily required by paragraphs (c) (2) and (3) he shall add the amount (converted to retail units on the basis of his own yields) arrived at by subtracting (i) the raw material cost under Maximum Price Regulation 232 that his most closely competitive processor who sells to retailers or wholesalers is required to subtract under paragraph (c) (2), from (ii) the 1945 raw material cost that the same processor is required to add under paragraph (c) (3).

(3) Normally, the "most closely competitive processor" mentioned above will be the same processor from whom the processor obtained his permitted increase under § 1341.452 (f) of Maximum Price Regulation 232. In each case, however, the competitive processor shall be one who figured his maximum price under the same method (paragraph (b) or (c), above) that is being used by the processor. Furthermore, where the raw material prices for fresh apples named in paragraph (b) (6) (i) (b), and used by the processor in the product being priced, differ by area, the competitive processor shall be one whose customary receiving point is located in the same area as that of the processor figuring his adjustment for raw material cost under this paragraph (d).

(e) Allocation of costs. In converting the cost of fruit into cost per dozen or other unit for any brand and container type and size, the cost shall be allocated in the same proportion as the same cost was allocated to that brand and container type and size in 1942.

(f) Items for which maximum prices cannot be figured under the foregoing rules of this section or section 8 (a). If the processor cannot figure a maximum price, f. o. b. shipping point, under the foregoing rules of this section or under section 8 (a) for sales of any item to purchasers other than government procurement agencies, he shall figure his maximum price under section 6. If he cannot or is not permitted to figure his maximum price in that manner, he shall apply to the Office of Price Administration for authorization of a maximum price under section 8 (c).

SEC. 6. Maximum prices for sales by processors of items which cannot be priced under section 4, 5 or 8 (a). If the processor cannot otherwise determine his maximum price for an item under section 4, 5 or 8 (a), he shall figure his maximum price under the pricing method of this section. However, the processor who qualifies as a retailer under Maximum Price Regulation 422[9] or 423[10] shall not use the pricing method of this section, but he shall apply to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., for authorization of a maximum price under section 8 (c).

(a) Pricing method for sales to purchasers other than government procurement agencies. Under this section, the processor shall figure his maximum price per dozen containers or other unit, f. o. b. shipping point; for sales to purchasers other than government procurement agencies as follows. (A maximum price shall be figured for each factory at which he processes the item being priced, although the processor may later elect to combine prices as provided in section 8 (e), below.) He shall:

(i) Figure the "direct cost" of the item. The processor shall figure his "direct cost" per dozen containers or other unit by adding together his current:

(i) Actual cost per unit of all ingredients (other than raw agricultural commodities) and of packaging materials, for which maximum prices have been established, figured at no more than the current maximum prices applying to the class of purchasers to which the processor belongs, or, if no maximum prices apply, figured at no more than their current market prices;

(ii) Actual cost per unit of all raw agricultural ingredients, for which maximum prices have been established, figured at no more than the current maximum prices applying to the class of purchasers to which he belongs;

(iii) Actual cost per unit of all other raw agricultural ingredients, for which no maximum prices have been established but for which the Department of Agriculture has recommended prices for payment to growers, figured at no more than those prices;

(iv) Actual cost per unit of all other raw agricultural ingredients, figured at no more than their current market prices;

(v) Direct labor cost per unit, figured at no more than lawful current rates; and

(vi) Transportation charges per unit by the usual mode of transportation from his customary supplier to his factory with respect to any cost used in (i), above, and from his customary receiving point to his factory with respect to any cost used in (ii), (iii) and (iv), above, if that cost is not a delivered cost and if these charges are customarily incurred.

(2) Multiply by 1.35. Finally the processor shall multiply his "direct cost" per dozen containers or other unit of the item by 1.35.

The resulting figure is the processor's maximum price per dozen containers or other unit, f. o. b. shipping point, for sales of the item to purchasers other than procurement agencies.

(b) Pricing method for sales to government procurement agencies. The processor's maximum price for sales of the item to government procurement agencies shall be determined as provided in section 8 (h).

(c) Meaning of "current." As used in this section, "current" means at the time of figuring the maximum price.

(d) Direct labor cost: In deciding whether items of labor cost are to be treated as direct cost in figuring the price or are to be treated as overhead, the processor shall follow his customary practice. Thus, if a processor customarily has treated cleaning labor as an item of overhead, he shall continue to treat it in this way when figuring the maximum price.

(e) Reporting prices. Before making any sales or deliveries to any purchasers of any item for which he figures his maximum price under this section, the processor shall file with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., a report in duplicate and signed by him, showing:

(1) A description in detail of the item being priced, including its grade and brand name (if any) to be used, a statement of the facts that make it different from the most similar item for which he has determined a maximum price, identifying the similar item and stating its maximum price, and a statement giving the reasons why he cannot figure a maximum price under the other pricing methods of this supplement. (The statement of reasons should indicate whether sales of the item have been made previously and if so how its maximum price was determined, and the reasons why the seller cannot price the item under section 4, 5 or 8 (a).)

(2) The weighted average raw material price paid per ton or other unit for any 1945 fresh fruit used in the item being priced, delivered to the processor's customary receiving point.

(3) The current case (unit) yield per ton or other unit of 1945 fruit used in the item being priced.

(4) The current total direct cost per dozen containers or other unit of the item being priced, also showing separately cost of ingredients, cost of packaging materials, direct labor cost and incoming transportation charges incurred by the processor.

(5) The current total cost per dozen containers or other unit of the item being priced (i. e. the total of direct cost, indirect labor, depreciation, factory rental, insurance, machinery repairs, and other cost factors generally pertaining to processing operations; and general administrative and selling expenses).

(6) The maximum price per dozen containers or other unit of the item being priced, f. o. b. shipping point, for sales to purchasers other than government procurement agencies, as figured under this section.

(7) The volume of the item that he has produced since January 1, 1945.

The processor shall also furnish any additional information which the Office of Price Administration may require.

(f) Approval, disapproval or revision of reported maximum price. The Price Administrator may at any time approve, disapprove or revise any maximum price figured under this section so as to bring it into line with maximum prices for comparable commodities and sellers.

SEC. 7. Maximum prices for sales by wagon wholesalers and distributors other than wholesalers and retailers—(a) Wagon wholesalers—(1) General pricing method. The maximum price which a wagon wholesaler may charge for an item of fruit preserves, jams or jellies or apple butter shall be determined as follows:

If his supplier's maximum price under this supplement is greater than the supplier's maximum price under the maximum price regulation previously applicable to the supplier, the wagon wholesaler shall add the difference to the maximum price he had under Maximum Price Regulation 473 or 498 or, in the case of pineapple preserves, jams or jellies, under Maximum Price Regulation 255.[11] If his supplier's maximum price under this supplement is less than the supplier's maximum price under the maximum price regulation previously applicable to the supplier, the wagon wholesaler shall subtract the difference from the maximum price he had under Maximum Price Regulation 473 or 498 or, in the case of pineapple preserves, jams or jellies, under Maximum Price Regulation 255. However, in no event may the wagon wholesaler's maximum price be greater than 124% of his net delivered cost.

If the wagon wholesaler handled the product (fruit preserves, jams and jellies, or apple butter) before November 28, 1945, but did not handle the particular item being priced before that date, his maximum price for the new item shall be his net delivered cost multiplied by a markup factor. This markup factor shall be figured by dividing his maximum price (as figured under this paragraph (a)) for the most closely comparable item of the product already handled by him by the net delivered cost to him of that item.

(2) Meaning of "wagon wholesaler." A "wagon wholesaler" is one who purchases the item being priced and distributes it to retailers or to commercial, industrial or institutional users from an inventory stocked in trucks or other conveyances which are under the supervision of driver salesmen who make delivery at the time and place of sale. Such wholesaler is a wagon wholesaler only for sales of items customarily sold in this manner.

(3) Meaning of "net delivered cost." In this section, "net delivered cost" means the amount the wagon wholesaler pays for the item delivered to his customary receiving point (but not in excess of the processor's maximum price for it, f. o. b. shipping point, plus actual charges incurred for transportation to the wagon wholesaler's customary receiving point), less all discounts allowed him except the discount for prompt payment. No expense of local trucking or unloading shall be included. Net delivered cost shall be figured on the basis of the wagon wholesaler's first delivery made, of any purchase of the item, on or after the effective date of this supplement or of an amendment changing the processor's maximum price.

(4) Items that cannot be priced under subparagraph (1). If the wagon wholesaler cannot figure his maximum price under the foregoing pricing methods, his maximum price shall be:

(i) The maximum price of his supplier, f. o. b. shipping point, plus incoming freight paid by the wagon wholesaler, if he purchased the particular goods being priced from a supplier other than a wholesaler or retailer who prices under Maximum Price Regulation 421," 422 or 423.

(ii) The "net cost" of his supplier under Maximum Price Regulation 421, 422 or 423, plus incoming freight paid by the wagon wholesaler, if he purchased the particular goods being priced from a wholesaler or retailer who prices under one of those regulations.

(b) Distributors other than wholesalers and retailers. The maximum price, f. o. b. shipping point, of a distributor who is not a wholesaler or retailer shall be:

(1) The maximum price of his supplier, f. o. b. shipping point, plus incoming freight paid by the distributor, if he purchased the particular goods being priced from a supplier other than a wholesaler or retailer who prices under Maximum Price Regulation 421, 422 or 423.

(2) The "net cost" of his supplier under Maximum Price Regulation 421, 422 or 423, plus incoming freight paid by the distributor, if he purchased the particular goods being priced from a wholesaler or retailer who prices under one of those regulations.

SEC. 8. Provisions of Article II of Food Products Regulation No. 1 applicable to this supplement. The following provisions of Food Products Regulation No. 1 are applicable to this supplement:

(a) Maximum prices for products in new container types or sizes (sec. 2.2 of FPR 1).

(b) Adjustment of dollars-and-cents maximum prices for processors who perform the wholesale or retail function (sec. 2.3 of FPR 1). This section applies only to maximum prices figured under section 6 by a processor who performs the wholesale function. For this purpose a maximum price figured under that section shall be considered a dollars-and-cents maximum price.

(c) Individual authorization of maximum prices (sec. 2.5 of FPR 1).

(d) When the seller must figure a delivered price (sec. 2.6 of FPR 1). The "base period" is the applicable 1941 base period specified in § 1341.302 (b) (2) of Maximum Price Regulation 226 in the case of fruit preserves, jams and jellies, and October and November 1941 in the case of apple butter.

(e) Uniform prices where the processor or repacker has more than one factory (sec. 2.7 of FPR 1).

(f) Uniform delivered prices where the seller has customarily been selling on an f. o. b. shipping point basis (sec. 2.8 of FPR 1). The "base period" is the applicable 1941 base period specified in § 1341.302 (b) (2) of Maximum Price Regulation 226 in the case of fruit preserves, jams and jellies, and October and November 1941 in the case of apple butter.

(g) Payment of brokers (sec. 2.11 of FPR 1).

(h) Maximum prices for sales to government procurement agencies (sec. 2.12 of FPR 1).

(i) Special packing expenses that may be reflected in maximum prices for sales to government procurement agencies (sec. 2.13 of FPR 1).

(j) Treatment of federal and state taxes (sec. 2.14 of FPR 1). The "base period" is the applicable 1941 base period specified in § 1341.302 (b) (2) of Maximum Price Regulation 226 in the case of fruit preserves, jams and jellies, and October and November 1941 in the case of apple butter.

(k) Units of sale and fraction of a cent (sec. 2.15 of FPR 1).

(l) Maintenance of customary discounts and allowances (sec. 2.16 of FPR 1).

ARTICLE III—MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

SEC. 9. Reports that processors must file for maximum prices figured under sections 4 and 5. Before making any sales or deliveries to any purchasers of any item for which he figures his maximum price under section 4 (a) or (b) or section 5 (a) or (b) of this supplement, the processor shall file with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., a report in duplicate and signed by him, showing:

(a) A description in detail of the item being priced, including its grade and brand name (if any).

(b) The raw material cost per dozen containers or other unit under the maximum price regulation previously applicable, as follows:

(1) If the maximum price is figured under section 4 (b), the lawful cost per dozen or other unit for raw materials used in figuring the maximum price for the item under section 2 (b) and (c) of Maximum Price Regulation 473 (subtracted under section 4 (b) (5), above).

(2) If the maximum price is figured under section 4 (c), the weighted average cost delivered at the factory of 1942 fruit purchased or contracted for during and prior to the applicable 1942 base period, as required to be figured under § 1341.302 (a) (3) of Maximum Price Regulation 226 (subtracted under section 4 (c) (2), above).

(3) If the maximum price is figured under section 5 (b), the weighted average cost, delivered at the factory, for 1943 fresh apples and apple chops purchased or contracted for between September 1, 1943, and December 1, 1943 (after conversion to cents per unit of the finished product), as required to be figured under and subject to the limitations of section 2 (b) (1) of Maximum Price Regulation 498 (subtracted under section 5 (b) (5), above).

(4) If the maximum price is figured under section 5 (c), the weighted average cost, delivered at the factory, of 1942 fruit purchased or contracted for between March 1, 1942 and October 1, 1942, as required to be figured under § 1341.452 (a) and (b) of Maximum Price Regulation 232 and subject to the limitations of those provisions (subtracted under section 5 (c) (2), above).

(c) The weighted average cost delivered at the factory of 1945 fruit purchased or contracted for prior to the time of figuring his maximum price under this supplement, after conversion to cents per units of the finished product.

(d) The weighted average raw material price paid per ton or other unit for any 1945 fresh fruit used in the item being priced, delivered to his customary receiving point, and the current case (unit) yield per ton or other unit of 1945 fresh fruit used in the item being priced.

(e) The figure from which 2% is subtracted in figuring the maximum price (the figure arrived at under section 4 (b) (3), 4 (c) (4), 5 (b) (3) or 5 (c) (4), as the case may be).

(f) 98% of the figure stated in paragraph (e), above.

(g) The difference between the raw material cost per dozen containers or other unit under the maximum price regulation previously applicable, as stated in paragraph (b), above, and the weighted average cost delivered at the factory of 1945 fruit included in the maximum price figured under this supplement, as stated in paragraph (c), above.

(h) The 1945 maximum price per dozen containers or other unit, f. o. b. shipping point, for sales to purchasers other than government procurement agencies, before adjusting for approved increases in basic wage rate.

(i) The 1945 maximum price per dozen containers or other unit, f. o. b. shipping point, for sales to purchasers other than government procurement agencies, after adjusting for approved increases in basic wage rate (where appropriate).

(j) The volume of the item that he has produced since January 1, 1945.

SEC. 10. Individual adjustment of processors' maximum prices—(a) For sales to purchasers other than government procurement agencies—(1) When adjustments may be made. Either on his own motion or upon application in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1,[12] the Price Administrator may adjust a processor's maximum price for any item figured under section 4 or 5 of this supplement for sales to purchasers other than government procurement agencies, where it apears that:

(i) The maximum price is below the median price at which sales of the item (regardless of brand) may be made to purchasers other than government procurement agencies by processors located in the general processing area;

(ii) The processor would be entitled to a price increase under the standards set forth in subparagraph (2), below; and

(iii) In the judgment of the Price Administrator, an increase in the processor's maximum price would be in furtherance of the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, the Stabilization Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Orders Nos. 9250, 9328 and 9599.

(2) Amount of adjustment. The maximum price, as adjusted under this section, shall in no event be higher than the median price at which sales of the item (regardless of brand) may be made to purchasers other than government procurement agencies by processors located in the general processing area. Subject to this limitation and the limitation of subparagraph (1), (iii), above, the adjusted maximum price shall not exceed the following amount:

(i) Processing costs for the item if the processor's percentage of net operating profits (before income and excess profits taxes) to net sales of fruit preserves, jams and jellies and apple butter, during the most recent fiscal year, was 6.5 percent or higher; or

(ii) Total costs for the item if the processor's percentage of net operating profits (before income and excess profits taxes) to net sales of fruit preserves, jams and jellies and apple butter, during the most recent fiscal year, was less than 6.5 percent but no lower than 4 percent; or

(iii) Total costs for the item plus a profit equal to 4 percent of the adjusted maximum price, if the processor's percentage of net operating profits (before income and excess profits taxes) to net sales of fruit preserves, jams and jellies and apple butter, during the most recent fiscal year, was lower than 4 percent.

[12] 9 F.R. 10476, 13715, 11295.

(b) For sales to government procurement agencies—(1) When adjustments may be made. Either on his own motion or upon application in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1, the Price Administrator may adjust a processor's maximum price for any item determined under section 8 (h) of this supplement for sales to government procurement agencies when the processor has entered into or proposes to enter into a government contract or subcontract thereunder, where it appears that:

(i) The maximum price is below the median price at which sales of the item (regardless of brand) may be made to government procurement agencies by processors located in the general processing area;

(ii) The processor would be entitled to a price increase under the standards set forth in subparagraph (2), below; and

(iii) In the judgment of the Price Administrator, an increase in the processor's maximum price would be in furtherance of the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, the Stabilization Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Orders Nos. 9250, 9328 and 9599.

(2) Amount of adjustment. The maximum price, as adjusted under this section, shall in no event be higher than the median price at which sales of the item (regardless of brand) may be made to government procurement agencies by processors located in the general processing area. Subject to this limitation and the limitation of subparagraph (1), (iii), above, the adjusted maximum price shall not exceed the following amount:

(i) Processing costs for the item if the processor's percentage of net operating profits (before income and excess profits taxes) to net sales of fruit preserves, jams and jellies and apple butter, during the most recent fiscal year, was 6.5 percent or higher; or

(ii) Total costs for the item if the processor's percentage of net operating profits (before income and excess profits taxes) to net sales of fruit preserves, jams and jellies and apple butter, during the most recent fiscal year, was less than 6.5 percent but no lower than 4 percent; or

(iii) Total costs for the item plus a profit equal to 4 percent of the adjusted maximum price, if the processor's percentage of net operating profits (before income and excess profits taxes) to net sales of fruit preserves, jams and jellies and apple butter, during the most recent fiscal year, was lower than 4 percent.

(3) Contracts pending authorization of prices. While an application for authorization of a maximum price under section 8 (c) is pending, the processor may file written notice with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., of his intention to seek an adjustment under this paragraph (b) if the maximum price subsequently authorized is less than the price for sales to government procurement agencies proposed by him in his application and named in the notice. When such a notice is filed, contracts, bids, payments, and deliveries may be made on the basis of the price named in the notice, provided that the contract in each case stipulates that final settlement (including any necessary refunds) shall be made consistently with the maximum price as finally established. If the maximum price authorized is less than the amount to which it may be adjusted under this paragraph (b), and the processor files his application for adjustment within 30 days after the maximum price is authorized, any adjustment granted shall be effective from the date of the filing of the notice of intention.

(4) Contracts pending disposition of application for adjustment. Upon the filing of an application for adjustment under this paragraph (b) or within 30 days prior thereto, and until final disposition of the application, contracts may be entered into or proposed and bids submitted at the price or prices requested in the application, and deliveries may be made under such contracts, except that the processor may not receive and the buyer may not pay the amount by which the price exceeds the maximum price unless and until an order granting a higher price has been issued. The processor shall include in any sale, contract to sell, or offer to sell at the price requested in an application the following:

(i) His maximum price for sales of the item to government procurement agencies.

(ii) A statement that the quoted price is subject to approval by the Office of Price Administration.

(iii) A statement that an appropriate application has been filed, or will be filed within 30 days, with the Office of Price Administration.

Any government agency may appear as an interested party in the case of any such application.

(c) Form and place of filing application. Applications for adjustment shall be filed with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., in duplicate on Office of Price Administration Form No. 6039–2526, and shall contain the information specified in that form. Copies may be obtained from any field office of the Office of Price Administration or from the Wholesale-Retail and Fruit and Vegetable Branch, Food Price Division, Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C. The Office of Price Administration may request the processor to file any additional cost data based upon operating experience.

(d) Determination of limitations on adjustment in certain cases. If the particular item (regardless of brand) is not the "basic item" of that flavor of fruit preserves, jams or jellies, or of apple butter, for the purpose of making adjustments the Price Administrator may determine the applicable median price at which sales of the item (regardless of brand) may be made to the appropriate class of purchasers by processors located in the general processing area, by customary differential from the reported maximum prices for the basic item of the same product sold by processors in the same or nearest general processing area.

"Basic item" of any flavor of fruit preserves, jams or jellies, or of apple butter, means the item (regardless of brand) for which the greatest number of maximum prices have been reported.

(e) Definitions. When used in this section:

(1) "Net sales" means total sales less return sales of finished product.

(2) "Processing costs for the item" means current:

(i) Actual cost per unit of all ingredients (other than raw agricultural commodities) and of packaging materials, for which maximum prices have been established, figured at no more than the current maximum prices applying to the class of purchasers to which the processor belongs, or, if no maximum prices have been established, figured at no more than their current market prices;

(ii) Actual cost per unit of all raw agricultural ingredients, figured at no more than applicable prices which the processor is permitted to use in figuring a maximum price under section 4 or 5;

(iii) Direct labor cost per unit, figured at no more than lawful current rates;

(iv) Transportation costs per unit by the usual mode of transportation, from the processor's customary supplier to his factory with respect to any cost used in (i), above, and from his customary receiving point to his factory with respect to any cost used in (ii), above, if that cost is not a delivered cost and if these charges are customarily incurred; and

(v) Other costs of processing per unit, such as indirect labor (figured at no more than lawful current rates), depreciation, factory rental, insurance, machinery repairs, and other cost factors generally pertaining to processing operations, but not including general administrative and selling expense.

(3) "Total costs for the item" means processing costs plus current general administrative and selling expenses per unit.

(4) "Median price" means the middle price of a series of prices arranged in order of size or, if the series consists of an even number of prices, the simple arithmetic average of the two middle prices.

(5) "Government contract" means any contract with the United States or any agency thereof or with the Government or any agency thereof of any country whose defense the President deems vital to the defense of the United States under the terms of the act of March 11, 1941, entitled "An Act to Promote the Defense of the United States".

(6) "Subcontract" means any purchase order or agreement to make or furnish any commodity needed for the performance of another Government contract or subcontract thereunder.

(f) Effect of prior adjustments. In determining adjustments under this section, changes in prices resulting from the granting of prior adjustments to other processors under this section shall, so far as practicable, be disregarded.

(g) Relationship with Revised Supplementary Order No. 9. No application for adjustment filed on or after November 28, 1945, under Revised Supplementary Order No. 9 [14] with respect to maximum prices of processors for sales to government procurement agencies of commodities covered by this supplement will be granted.

SEC. 11. Provisions of Article III of Food Products Regulation No. 1 applicable to this supplement. The following provisions of Food Products Regulation No. 1 are applicable to this supplement:

(a) Weights (sec. 3.2 of FPR 1).
(b) Storage (sec. 3.3 of FPR 1).
(c) Export sales (sec. 3.4 of FPR 1).
(d) Notification of new maximum prices (sec. 3.5 of FPR 1).
(e) Records which must be kept (sec. 3.6 of FPR 1).
(f) Sales slips and receipts (sec. 3.8 of FPR 1).
(g) Transfers of business or stock in trade (sec. 3.9 of FPR 1).

This supplement shall become effective November 28, 1945.

NOTE: All record-keeping and reporting requirements of this supplement have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 23d day of November 1945.

CHESTER BOWLES,
Administrator.

Approved: November 9, 1945.

J. B. HUTSON,
Acting Secretary of Agriculture.

[14] 9 F.R. 1594.

For the reasons set forth in the statement of considerations and by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Orders Nos. 9250, 9328, 9599 and 9620, I find that the issuance of this supplement insofar as it establishes maximum prices based on the raw material prices (other than for apples) referred to in the statement of considerations that are above the minimum amounts required by law, is necessary to aid in the effective prosecution of the war and to correct gross inequities.

J. C. COLLET,
Stabilization Administrator.

PART 1305—ADMINISTRATION

[Gen. RO 3, Amdt. 12]

RATION BANKING; BANKS

A rationale for this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

General Ration Order 3 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1305.411 (c) (3) is amended to read as follows:

(3) Each participating bank shall receive three-fourths (¾) cent for each item included in the deposit. (Each separate evidence shall be deemed to be a separate item, except that in the case of coupons or stamps required by the Office of Price Administration to be affixed to a card or sheet, each card or sheet bearing stamps or coupons shall be deemed one item. A deposit slip shall not be deemed an item.)

2. Section 1305.411 (c) is amended by adding a new subparagraph (9) to read as follows:

(9) Notwithstanding the provisions of subparagraph (6) of this section, on and after November 24, 1945, each participating bank shall receive three-fourths (¾) cent for each sealed box, sealed envelope or other sealed package containing tokens accepted by it and received by or in transit to a Distribution Center on or before December 31, 1945.

3. Section 1305.412 (a) (15) is revoked.

This amendment shall become effective at 12:01 a. m., November 24, 1945.

Issued this 23d day of November 1945.

RICHARD H. FIELD,
Acting Administrator.

PART 1315—RUBBER AND PRODUCTS AND MATERIALS OF WHICH RUBBER IS A COMPONENT

[MPR 149, Amdt. 22]

MECHANICAL RUBBER GOODS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

Maximum Price Regulation 149 is amended in the following respects:

A new section designated § 1315.30c is added to read as follows:

§ 1315.30c Industry-wide adjustments for reconversion products. Special pricing provisions applicable to particular products may be established by orders issued under this section when, with respect to the product, the Administrator finds:

(a) That in 1944 its production was approximately one-half or less of its production in its last representative period of peacetime production;

(b) That this reduction in dollar volume resulted from (1) governmental restrictions on the manufacture of products or on the use of materials, facilities, or manpower, or (2) the use of facilities for the production of war goods, or (3) other direct needs of the war effort; and

(c) That because of change in government restrictions or in the needs of the war program, manufacturers of the product generally are able to begin or to increase substantially the production of the product line.

If in the judgment of the Administrator, the purposes of this section will be effectuated, as to a particular product, without any special pricing provisions, an order under this section will not be issued with respect to that product even though the above findings could be made as to it.

Orders under this section, will generally authorize industry-wide increases in the established maximum prices of manufacturers in those industries based upon surveys conducted by the Price Administrator, either upon the request of the particular industry or upon his own motion. Those orders will establish adjusted maximum prices or methods of determining such prices by the use of price increase factors. Where, however, in the judgment of the Price Administrator, the use of an industry-wide factor will, by reason of the diversity in the products made by the member firms, the wide variation in cost experience among them, or other reasons be an inequitable and inappropriate means of establishing reconversion prices, he may provide for the calculation and application of individual price increase factors.

Broadly stated, the new maximum prices will represent costs experienced during the last period of normal production adjusted for subsequent lawful changes in the level of materials prices and in basic wage rate schedules of factory workers, plus the industry's average peacetime profit margin over cost. Changes in materials prices may be measured by materials cost increase factors, determined by the Administrator, in those cases where such action may be necessary to eliminate temporary or artificial influences. In the case of an industry for which the Administrator has decided that price increase factors should be determined and applied for each firm, the profit element in each increase factor will be the firm's own base period profit margin or one-half the industry's average peacetime margin, whichever is the higher.

Orders issued under this section may also modify or supersede the provisions of Maximum Price Regulation 149 with respect to the establishment of maximum prices, if, on the basis of the particular characteristics of the industry involved, the Administrator finds that another method of price determination will effectuate the purposes of this regulation better than the general pricing provisions of the regulation. In addition, those orders may establish new maximum prices or a method of determining new maximum prices for sales by persons other than manufacturers which will supersede maximum prices fixed by other regulations for such sales and which will be consistent with the standards applied by the Office of Price Administration for the reasonable absorption of necessary cost increases.

Orders issued under this section will not ordinarily reduce higher maximum prices which manufacturers have previously established in accordance with the applicable provisions.

A manufacturer of a product covered by an order issued under this section may not obtain an adjustment of his maximum prices under any adjustment provision other than Supplementary Orders Nos. 118 and 119, unless the adjustment provision itself or the order issued under this section covering his product expressly provides otherwise.

Small volume manufacturers may use as their new maximum prices those which they calculate under Supplementary Order No. 118, and general orders issued pursuant thereto, if the maximum prices so calculated are higher than maximum prices set under orders issued under this section. Any other manufacturer may apply for an individual adjustment under Supplementary Order No. 119, if, after the adjustment authorized for his industry by an order under this section, his maximum price still continues eligible for adjustment in accordance with the provisions of that supplementary order.

Orders issued under this section may require a manufacturer to arrange the production and distribution of his products so that they will be representative of his production and distribution in a specified past period for goods in a particular category. The Administrator may also require authorized price increases to be applied among articles or price lines in a manner consistent with the need, under the stabilization program, to maintain the production of lower-priced articles.

This amendment shall become effective December 1, 1945.

Issued this 26th day of November 1945.

CHESTER BOWLES,
Administrator.

PART 1351—FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

[MPR 422,[1] Amdt. 62]

CEILING PRICES OF CERTAIN FOODS SOLD AT RETAIL IN GROUP 3 AND GROUP 4 STORES

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

Section 20 (j) is amended to read as follows:

(j) Poultry and turkey bought live, dressed or drawn and sold in parts—(1) "Cut-up poultry and cut-up turkey." If you buy poultry or turkey live, dressed or drawn, and you sell such poultry or turkey in parts which are "cut-up poultry" or "cut-up turkey" as defined in Second Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 269,[2] you shall figure your ceiling price for each item of such "cut-up poultry" or "cut-up turkey" as though you had bought it "cut-up", using as your "net cost" per pound the lowest ceiling price fixed by Second Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 269, which would apply to sales to you by your customary type of supplier delivered to your usual receiving point, of such "cut-up" poultry or turkey items during the week in which you are figuring your ceiling price for the item. To that "net cost," you shall apply the mark-up applicable to that kind of poultry or turkey bought cut-up and sold cut-up. The resulting figure will be your ceiling price per pound for that item of "cut-up poultry" or "cut-up turkey."

(2) Poultry and turkey other than "cut-up poultry" or "cut-up turkey." If you buy poultry or turkey live, dressed or drawn and you self such poultry or turkey in parts (other than split, or in quarters) which are not "cut-up poultry" or "cut-up turkey" as defined in Second Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 269, you shall figure a separate ceiling price for each of such parts. You must use as your "net cost" per pound for each of such parts the lowest ceiling price per pound fixed by Second Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 269 which would apply to sales to you by your customary type of supplier delivered to your usual receiving point, of such part, during the week in which you are figuring your ceiling price for the item. To that "net cost", you shall apply the mark-up applicable to that kind of poultry or turkey bought cut-up and sold cut-up. The resulting figure will be your ceiling price per pound for such parts.

This amendment shall become effective December 6, 1945.

[MPR 177,[1] Amdt. 10]

MEN'S AND BOYS' TAILORED CLOTHING

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

Maximum Price Regulation 177 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1389.104 is amended by adding a new paragraph (c) to read as follows:

(c) Special provision for pricing of certain garments made of 18 oz. wool serge cloth, or 32 oz. overcoating cloth. This paragraph establishes the maximum price of a garment made of 18 oz. wool serge cloth (either O. D. or re-dyed from O. D.) or 32 oz. overcoating cloth, (either O. D. or re-dyed from O. D.), if the maximum price calculated under subparagraphs (a) (3) or (b) (2) exceeds the seller's "highest price line limit" for garments of the same classification, that is, the highest price determined under subparagraphs (a) (1), (a) (2) or (b) (1).

(1) Find the fabric cost of the garment being priced.

(2) Subtract from this figure the weighted average fabric cost[2] of all garments delivered since May 1, 1945 at the seller's highest price line limit, which are the same as or similar to the garment being priced except for the difference in fabrics. (If no deliveries of such garments were made since May 1, 1945, use period since May 1, 1944.)

(3) Add this amount to the highest price line limit used in (2).

(4) Result is the maximum price of the garment being priced.

This amendment shall become effective December 1, 1945.

Issued this 26th day of November 1945.

[2] Weighted average fabric cost is found by dividing the total fabric cost of all garments delivered at the highest price line limit since May 1, 1945, which are the same as or similar to the garment being priced except for the difference in fabrics, by the total number of such garments delivered since May 1, 1945. (If no deliveries of such garments were made since May 1, 1945 use period since May 1, 1944.)

PART 1389—APPAREL

[MPR 570,[1] Amdt. 3]

WOMEN'S, MISSES' AND CHILDREN'S UNDERWEAR, NIGHTWEAR AND NEGLIGEE GARMENTS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

Maximum Price Regulation 570 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 3 (a) is amended to add the following note at the end of the second paragraph thereof.

NOTE: A contractor's plant is not a separate plant within the meaning of this paragraph. However, any person who has filed a pricing chart for a contractor's plant as a separate manufacturer, may sell and deliver until December 24, 1945 all garments put into process in that contractor's plant at maximum prices calculated on the basis of that separate pricing chart. After December 24, 1945 all garments must be sold and delivered at or below the maximum prices calculated on the basis of a pricing chart prepared in accordance with this section.

2. Section 10 (c) (1) is amended to read as follows:

(c) Records. (1) Every manufacturer and manufacturing-retailer shall maintain the records required by this regulation and keep them available for inspection by the Office of Price Administration. Records shall include purchase invoices, sales invoices, pricing chart, statements of base period costs and the records required by Appendix C. All records except invoices must be kept in the place where his manufacturing processes are carried on, or if he has no plant, in his main office from which billings are made. Sales invoices must be kept in the main office from which billings are made. Purchase invoices may be kept either in the main office from which billings are made or in the place where his manufacturing processes are carried on.

3. The portion of the first paragraph of section 11, preceding subparagraph (1) is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 11. Exception to highest price line limitation. If the highest selling price line listed on your pricing chart for any category is below the selling price line listed for that category in Group J of Appendix D, (for category numbers 215, 215a, 216 and 217 read Group N instead of Group J) you may sell garments in that category in any selling price line up to the selling price line listed for that category in Group J (for category numbers 215, 215a, 216 and 217, read Group N instead of Group J): Provided, That the maximum price of such a garment shall be calculated in the following manner:

4. Section 18 (a) is amended to read as follows:

(a) "Appropriate District Office", means the District Office of the Office of Price Administration having jurisdiction over the area in which is located the place where your records of direct cost calculations are required to be kept by this regulation.

5. Section 21 (a) is amended to add the following undesignated paragraph at the end thereof:

However, if you manufacture any of your materials and therefore have no invoice covering the purchase of such materials, you must keep a record showing for each such material (1) name and construction of material; (2) number of maximum price regulation or order under which your maximum price for each such material would be determined; (3) net maximum price per yard for each such material, in the greige or unfinished state, (yarn-dyed woolens are considered unfinished woolens) in effect on the date of delivery to the finishing plant. If you keep a purchase record as described above, the information required by this paragraph shall be entered in this purchase record. If you do not keep a purchase record, you must keep the information required by this paragraph in a separate record. The entries in this record must be numbered consecutively and shall be considered to be the purchase record entries for such materials.

6. Section 21 (c) (10) (ii) (a) is amended to add the following undesignated paragraph at the end thereof:

However, if you manufacture the material you may use as the net cost of the unfinished material the net maximum price calculated as described in section 21 (a) (3) above. Wherever this regulation refers to materials purchased by you, it shall also be deemed to mean materials manufactured by you.

NOTE: All reporting and record-keeping requirements of this amendment have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

This amendment shall become effective December 1, 1945.

Issued this 26th day of November 1945.

ETHYL ALCOHOL (EXCLUDING WEST COAST ETHYL ALCOHOL)

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

Maximum Price Regulation 28 is amended in the following respects:

1. By adding to § 1412.252 the following paragraph:

(e) The provisions of this regulation shall not apply to sales of alcoholic beverages or alcohol for use in alcoholic beverages.

2. The following is added to the list of definitions in § 1412.260 (a):

(6) "Jobber" means a seller of industrial alcohol who operated for his own risk and account as a distributor in March 1942, and who does not engage in the production of industrial ethyl alcohol.

3. The first sentence immediately following the heading of § 1412.263 Appendix A is amended to read as follows: "The following maximum prices are established f. o. b. manufacturer's production point, freight equalized with competing production points, for sales by manufacturers in quantities of fifty gallons or more of ethyl alcohol (i) produced in any state of the United States and the District of Columbia except California, Oregon and Washington, or (ii) purchased from the Office of Defense Supplies or any other government agency."

4. The column of maximum prices for fermentation ethyl alcohol in § 1412.263 Appendix A (a) (1) is amended to read as follows:

	Fermentation ethyl alcohol
CD 12	$0.546
CD 13	.546
CD 14	.543
SD 1	.542
SD 2B	.535
SD 3A	.531
SD 12A	.527
SD 23A	.536
SD 23G	.582
SD 23H	.54
Proprietary name solvent	.56

5. In § 1412.263 Appendix A (b) (1) (i) substitute the figure "$0.535" for "$0.50."

6. By adding the following sentence to paragraph (j) of § 1412.263 Appendix A: "Sales of alcoholic beverages or alcohol for use in alcoholic beverages are not covered by the provisions of this paragraph (j)."

7. By adding the following new § 1412.264 Appendix B:

§ 1412.264 Appendix B: Maximum prices for jobbers' sales of ethyl alcohol. Each jobber's maximum price for industrial ethyl alcohol (excepting anti-freeze based on ethyl alcohol) shall be his maximum price as determined under the General Maximum Price Regulation plus 3 cents per gallon.

This amendment shall become effective November 28, 1945.

Issued this 26th day of November 1945.

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

Revised Maximum Price Regulation 373 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 21 (a) (1) (vii) is amended by inserting after the words "licensed boarding house," and before the words "marine provisioner," the words "clubs or associations of persons,".

2. Section 21 (b) (2) is amended to read as follows:

(2) Sales by producers in the Island of Oahu of island-grown fresh fruits and vegetables. The table under paragraph (e) below fixes the maximum prices at which producers, wholesalers and retailers may sell island-grown fresh fruits and vegetables in the Island of Oahu. The maximum wholesale prices shall also be applicable to sales by a producer to a retailer or an institutional buyer. The maximum retail prices shall also be applicable to sales by a producer to an ultimate consumer. The maximum producer's prices shall apply to all other sales by producers. No transportation charges may be added to the producer's maximum prices for any sales made by him.

This amendment shall become effective as of October 8, 1945.

Chapter XVIII—Office of Stabilization Administrator, Office of War Mobilization and Reconversion

[Directive 87]

PART 4003—SUPPORT PRICES; SUBSIDIES

IMPORTS OF GREEN COFFEE

The Office of Price Administration, the State Department, and the Department of Agriculture have submitted information to me with respect to the critical need for encouraging imports of green coffee. After careful consideration and after consultation with representatives of the interested agencies, I find that in order to obtain adequate supplies of green coffee without increasing coffee prices to the consumer or resuming coffee rationing, it is necessary to provide a temporary program for subsidizing imports of green coffee as an emergency measure to avoid a critical shortage of coffee for domestic civilian consumption during the coming winter.

Accordingly, pursuant to the authority vested in me by the Stabilization Act of 1942, as amended, and by Executive Order 9250 of October 3, 1942 (7 F.R. 7871), Executive Order 9328 of April 8, 1943 (8 F.R. 4681), Executive Order 9599 of August 18, 1945 (10 F.R. 10155), Executive Order 9620 of September 20, 1945 (10 F.R. 12033), the directive of October 13, 1945, issued by the Director of War Mobilization and Reconversion (10 F.R. 12812), and Executive Order 9651 (10 F.R. 13487), It is hereby ordered:

1. The Reconstruction Finance Corporation is authorized and directed to establish and carry out the following subsidy program with respect to imports of green coffee:

(a) The amount of the subsidy shall be 3 cents per pound (net shipping weight basis) of green coffee imported in accordance with the eligibility provisions of this directive.

(b) In no event shall any subsidy payment be made on any green coffee imported in excess of 6,000,000 bags of 60 kilograms each.

(c) The Secretary of Agriculture shall establish a quota for each importer, based upon the aggregate quantity of 6,000,000 bags, proportionate to the importer's allocation as established under War Food Order Number 63, and shall certify these quotas to the Reconstruction Finance Corporation. No subsidy payment shall be made to any importer with respect to coffee imported in excess of the quota assigned to him.

(d) Subsidy payments shall be made to importers who show, with respect to the coffee on which the subsidy is claimed, that:

(i) The coffee has been imported in accordance with the importer's quota as established pursuant to paragraph 1 (c) of this directive;

(ii) The importer has paid no more than the maximum price at which green coffee may be imported under the provisions of Revised Price Schedule No. 50, issued by the Office of Price Administration, as amended in accordance with the provisions of section 2 of this directive;

(iii) The coffee was purchased and loaded on board an exporting carrier after November 18, 1945, and prior to April 1, 1946; or that it was loaded on board an exporting carrier after November 18, 1945, and before November 24, 1945, pursuant to a booking of shipping space made after November 17, 1945;

(iv) The coffee has been landed in the United States not later than May 31, 1946;

(v) The coffee has been imported into the United States for domestic civilian consumption; and

(vi) The importer agrees to the conditions set forth in paragraph 1 (e) of this directive.

(e) The Reconstruction Finance Corporation shall require that each importer, as a condition of obtaining any subsidy payments under this program, agree:

(i) That he will not hold any inventory of green coffee in the United States in excess of a reasonable amount as defined by the Stabilization Administrator or an agency designated by him;

(ii) That the coffee on which the subsidy is claimed will be sold by him only for domestic civilian consumption in the United States.

(f) This directive may be amended to provide for further restrictions on or prohibition of the exportation of coffee in any form, in order to effectuate the purposes for which this program is established.

(g) If the Price Administrator determines that any claimant of subsidy payments under this program has wilfully violated any provision of Revised Price Schedule No. 50, he shall certify that fact to the Reconstruction Finance Corporation and the Reconstruction Finance Corporation shall withhold all subsidy payments to which the claimant would otherwise be entitled under this program.

2. The Price Administrator is authorized and directed to amend Revised Price Schedule No. 50 so as to increase by 3 cents per pound the maximum price at which green coffee may be imported; but this increase in maximum prices shall be applicable only to coffee imported in accordance with the conditions prescribed in this directive with respect to eligibility for subsidy payments.

3. The Secretary of Agriculture is authorized and directed to suspend War Food Order No. 63 with respect to coffee until April 1, 1946.

4. Until April 1, 1946, any importer purchasing green coffee for importation shall, within 5 days of the date of purchase, report the terms of purchase to the Department of Agriculture on a form to be supplied by that Department.

Chapter II—Corps of Engineers War Department

PART 207—NAVIGATION REGULATIONS

ST. MARYS FALLS CANAL AND LOCKS, MICH.

Pursuant to the provisions of section 7 of the River and Harbor Act of August 8, 1917 (40 Stat. 266; 33 U.S.C. 1), the regulations prescribed March 9, 1921, to govern the use, administration, and navigation of the St. Marys Falls Canal and Locks, Michigan, are hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 207.440 St. Marys Falls Canal and Locks, Mich.; use, administration, and navigation. (a) The use, administration, and navigation of the canal and canal grounds shall be under the direction of the District Engineer, Engineer Department at Large, in charge of the locality, and his authorized agents. The term "canal" shall include all of the natural waters of the St. Marys River on the United States side of the International Boundary and all of the canalized waterway and the locks therein between the western or upstream limit, which is a north and south line tangent to the west end of the Northwest Pier, and the eastern or downstream limit, which is a north and south line tangent to the northeast corner of the old Fort Brady Reservation, the distance between limits being 1.9 miles. The term "canal grounds" shall include all of the United States part and other lands, piers, buildings, water level regulation works, hydroelectric power plant, and other appurtenances acquired or constructed for the channel improvement and use of the waterway.

(b) Masters of all registered vessels approaching and desiring to use the locks shall, upon arriving at Sailors Encampment, Little Rapids Cut, and Brush Point, report the name of the vessel and its draft to the Coast Guard Lookout Stations at those points.

(c) Upon approaching the canal, vessels shall request lock dispatch by blowing two long and two short blasts of the whistle. Upon receipt of directions by the lock dispatching signal system, vessels shall acknowledge the assignment by one long and one short blast.

(d) When in the locks, vessels shall not blow whistle signal for tugs, supply vessels, or persons unless authorized to do so by the District Engineer or his authorized agents.

(e) On all vessels of 400 gross tons or over navigating the canal under their own power, there shall be on duty the following ship's officers: In the pilot house, on the bridge, or in the immediate vicinity thereof, the master, one mate, and one wheelsman; in the engine room, the chief engineer, one assistant engineer, and one oiler or other member of the crew familiar with the operation of the engine. During transit of the locks, all vessels of 400 gross tons or over equipped with power operated mooring deck winches shall have, in addition to the winch operators, mates or signalmen at the forward and after ends of the vessel to direct operations from points providing maximum vision of both the winch operators and canal linesmen.

(f) Within the limits of the canal, vessels approaching the locks shall not navigate at a speed greater than 2½ miles per hour, and vessels leaving the locks shall not navigate at a speed greater than 6 miles per hour. Tugs assisting vessels in passing, the locks may be authorized by the District Engineer or his authorized agents to navigate at a higher speed when considered necessary to expedite canal operations.

(g) For passage through the canal, vessels or boats owned or operated by the United States Government may be given precedence over all others.

(h) All registered vessels will be passed through the locks in the order of their arrival at the canal, unless otherwise directed by the District Engineer or his authorized agents. When a vessel that has stopped on its own business is ready to proceed, it is not entitled to precedence over other vessels already dispatched even though it may have preceded such vessels in arriving at any Coast Guard Lookout Station. Unregistered craft must have a special permit for separate lockage.

(i) Unless otherwise directed, all vessels or boats approaching the locks shall stop at the points indicated by signs placed on the canal piers until ordered by the District Engineer or his authorized agents to proceed into the lock.

(j) Vessels and boats shall not proceed to enter or leave a lock until the lock gates are fully in their recesses and the lockmaster has given directions for starting.

(k) Upon each passage through the canal, the master or clerk of the vessel or craft shall report to the canal office, upon the prescribed form, a statement of passengers, freight, and registered tonnage, and such other statistical information as may be required by the blank forms provided for the purpose.

(l) No business, trading, or loading or landing of freight, baggage, or passengers will be allowed on or over the canal piers or lock walls, or over the other piers within the limits of the canal grounds, except by prior authority of the District Engineer or his authorized agents.

(m) No person shall throw material of any kind into the canal, or litter the grounds with any refuse.

(n) The releasing of vessel steam, water, or waste from side discharge openings upon the piers or lock walls, the cleaning of boiler flues in the locks or canal, or the emission of dense smoke from the stack of any vessel while passing through the locks, is forbidden.

(o) No person shall enter or navigate the canal with a boat or other craft which, when entering or while navigating the canal, shall have an iron or irons projecting from it or a rough surface or surfaces on it which would be liable to damage the lock walls or canal piers.

(p) No person shall cause or permit any vessel or boat of which he is in charge or on which he is employed to in any way obstruct the canal or delay in passing through it, except upon prior authority of the District Engineer or his authorized agents.

(q) No person shall enter upon any part of the canal grounds except as permitted, either generally or in specific instances, by the District Engineer or his authorized agents. No person shall willfully or carelessly injure, tamper with, or damage the canal or any of the Government buildings, works or structures, trees or shrubbery, or other public property pertaining to the canal or canal grounds.

(r) All barges or other vessels navigating within the canal and not operated under their own power, whether approaching or leaving the locks, are required to be assisted by one or more tugs of sufficient power to insure full control at all times.

(s) Smoking and open flames are prohibited on the canal grounds within 50 feet of any tanker transiting the canal and locks, and on board the tanker transiting the locks except in such places as may be designated in the ship's regulations.

(t) All oil tankers, barges, and other vessels which are used for transporting inflammable liquids, either with or without cargo, shall, if not equipped with fixed timber fenders, be prevented from contacting any unfendered pier, lock wall, or other structure by an adequate number of suitable fenders of timber, rubber, or rope placed between the vessel and such unfendered structure.

(u) Masters or other persons refusing to comply with these regulations or any orders given in pursuance thereof, or using profane, indecent, or abusive language, may, in the discretion of the District Engineer or his authorized agents, be denied the privileges of the locks or canal grounds. (40 Stat. 266; 33 U.S.C. 1) [Regs. 5 Nov. 1945 (CE 800.211 (St. Marys River, Mich.) SPEWR)]

TITLE 38—PENSIONS, BONUSES, AND VETERANS' RELIEF

Chapter I—Veterans' Administration

PART 2—ADJUDICATION: VETERANS' CLAIMS

SERVICE REQUIREMENTS

§ 2.1000 World Wars I and II. (a) The beginning and termination dates of World War I are April 6, 1917, and November 11, 1918, but as to service in Russia, the ending date is April 1, 1920. Except as to emergency officers' retirement pay, reenlistment in the military or naval service on or after November 12, 1918, and before July 2, 1921, where there was prior active service between April 6, 1917, and November 11, 1918, shall be considered as World War I service under the laws providing compensation or pension for World War I veterans and their dependents. (§ 35.011 (a) (1); section 5, Public No. 304, 75th Congress.) (50 Stat. 661; 38 U.S.C. 424a Supp.)

(b) World War II shall comprise the period from December 7, 1941, to the termination of hostilities incident to the present war as determined by proclamation of the President or by concurrent resolution of the Congress, both dates inclusive. Service on or after September 16, 1940, and prior to the termination of hostilities incident to the present war, both dates inclusive, shall be considered as World War II service for vocational rehabilitation, education or training purposes. (Section 9 (a), Public No. 144, 78th Congress; section 400 (a) and (b), Public No. 346, 78th Congress.) (57 Stat. 554, 58 Stat. 284; 38 U.S.C. 727, 693)

§ 2.1001 Persons included in the acts in addition to commissioned officers and enlisted men. No change in (a) or (b).

(c) Philippine Scouts and others. Philippine Scouts, the Insular Force of the Navy, Samoan Native Guard, Samoan Native Band, and Band of the Navy are within the terms of the Acts, except that neither the Philippine Scouts nor the Insular Force of the Navy were, or are, included in Article II of the War Risk Insurance Act. Members of the organized military forces of the Government of the Commonwealth of the Philippines are included from and after the dates and hours, respectively, that they were called into service of the armed forces of the United States by orders issued from time to time by the general officer, United States Army, designated by the Secretary of War. (Section 2 (a) (12), Public No. 127, 73d Congress.) (48 Stat. 456.)

No change in (d).

(e) Commissioned officers, Public Health Service. Officers of the Public Health Service who were detailed for duty with the Army or Navy are included as officers in the active service. On or after November 11, 1943, commissioned officers of the Public Health Service, regular and reserve, who are (1) detailed for duty with the Army, Navy, or Coast Guard; (2) serving in time of war outside the continental limits of the United States or in Alaska, regardless of whether the disability or death was suffered prior or subsequent to November 11, 1943, the date of enactment of Public No. 184, 78th Congress: Provided, however, That benefits may not be awarded for any period prior to November 11, 1943; or (3) who perform active service in time of war and following the issuance of an Executive order declaring the commissioned corps of the Public Health Service a part of the military forces of the United States, are also included. In regard to (3) above, the Executive order was published on June 29, 1945, effective July 29, 1945; hence, on and after the latter date and for the duration of World War II the above described commissioned officers of the Public Health Service, with respect to active service performed, shall be considered as in active military or naval service and included within the Acts administered by the Veterans Administration. (Section 8, Public No. 184, 78th Congress; Executive Order No. 9575.) (57 Stat. 587; U.S.C. 42, sec. 37)

No change in (f) to (i), inclusive.

(j) Alien beneficiaries. A veteran discharged for alienage during a period of hostilities is ineligible for benefits, unless he can establish that it was not pursuant to his own request. However, such a veteran, if discharged for alienage after the termination of hostilities and if his service was honest and faithful is not barred from benefits if he is found to be otherwise entitled thereto. (58 Stat. 284; 38 U.S.C. 693)

No change in (k).

(m) Under Public No. 2, 73d Congress. (1) Persons who on or after April 6, 1917, and prior to November 12, 1918, applied for enlistment or enrollment in the active service who were provisionally accepted and ordered to report to a place for final acceptance or who were drafted and after reporting pursuant to call of their local draft board, or who were called into the Federal service as members of the National Guard but before enrollment for Federal service suffered an injury or disease in line of duty, are included.

(2) (i) Under Public No. 300, 78th Congress. Any person who on or after August 27, 1940, and prior to termination of the present hostilities, has applied or shall hereafter apply for enlistment or enrollment in the active military or naval forces and who was or shall be provisionally accepted and directed or ordered to report to a place for final acceptance into such military or naval service, or who was or is selected for service and after reporting pursuant to the call of his local board and prior to rejection, or who after being called in the Federal service as a member of the National Guard but before being enrolled for the Federal service suffered or shall suffer an injury or a disease in line of duty and not the result of his own wilful misconduct, is included: Provided, That payments of pension under the terms of this paragraph shall not be effective prior to May 11, 1944.

(ii) The provisions of Public No. 300, 78th Congress, attached whenever a person is acting pursuant to an order of his draft board, including an order to report to the board for a preinduction examination. The protection covers any injury or disease which is or was acquired during time spent away from home or en route home in connection with such order and as a result thereof. An injury or disease which is or was suffered on the trip when reporting for active duty or final induction is covered. The injury or disease to be pensionable must be attributable to some cause or factor relating to his activity in connection with complying with proper orders. These provisions do not extend to such persons as to disease or injury suffered during the period of inactive duty or period of waiting after passing final physical examination and prior to beginning the trip to report for induction. Such protection also applies to a member of the National Guard after he reports to a designated redenzvous pursuant to proper call. (58 Stat. 219; 38 U. S. C. A., Chap. 12, Note)

No change in (n) or (o).

(p) Commissioned officers and enlisted personnel of the Women's Army Corps. On and after July 1, 1943, commissioned officers and enlisted personnel of the Women's Army Corps, from the date of commission or enlistment, shall be entitled to the same rights, privileges and benefits as members of the Officers' Reserve Corps or enlisted men of the United States Army, respectively. (Public No. 110, 78th Congress.)

No change in (q) (57 Stat. 371; U.S.C.A. Appendix 1551.)

§ 2.1002 Persons not included in the Acts—(a) Cadets and Cadet Engineers, Coast Guard. Cadets at the Coast Guard Academy and Cadet Engineers in the Coast Guard who were not assigned to active service are not included unless they served as cadets at the Coast Guard Academy on or after December 7, 1941, and before the termination of hostilities incident to the present war as determined by proclamation of the President or by concurrent resolution of the Congress. (See § 2.1001 (1)) (57 Stat. 554; 38 U.S.C. 730)

No change in (b) to (f), inclusive.

§ 2.1003 Jurisdiction of adjudication division. Within the jurisdiction of field adjudication activities, the adjudication division in each regional office or center, under the direction of an adjudication officer, will be responsible for the preparation and adjudication of claims for disability and death compensation or pension and burial allowance and determining, upon proper request, service-connection for the condition or conditions for which out-patient treatment only is requested; for determining whether the character of discharge is a bar to benefits, including benefits under Titles II, III and V of Public No. 346, 78th Congress, and hospital treatment, domiciliary care, and out-patient treatment for service-connected disabilities under Public No. 2, 73d Congress, as amended, in doubtful cases; for determining whether disabilities are service-connected and pensionable for purposes of vocational rehabilitation, education or training; for determining whether the injury or disability for which discharged, in those instances where the veteran served less than ninety days, was incurred or aggravated in line of duty for the purposes of Titles II, III and V, Public No. 346, 78th Congress; for awarding increased pension payable because of vocational rehabilitation and for the awarding of subsistence allowances payable during a period of education or training. (58 Stat. 284; 38 U.S.C. 693)

§ 2.1004 Jurisdiction of authorization unit. The authorization unit will have jurisdiction over the determination of basic eligibility for monetary benefits in claims under the jurisdiction of the field office; the development of claims in conformity with established Veterans' Administration policy; the adjudication of all claims upon completion of rating action; the maintenance of such follow-up procedure as may be required (this does not apply to follow-up of requested physical examinations); the development and certification of appeals; the certification, upon proper request, of data for consideration in determining eligibility for domiciliary care, or hospital or out-patient treatment; the determination whether the character of discharge is a bar to benefits including benefits under Titles II, III and V of Public No. 346, 78th Congress, and hospital treatment, domiciliary care, and out-patient treatment for service-connected disabilities, under Public No. 2, 73d Congress, as amended, in doubtful cases; the awarding of increased pension payable because of vocational rehabilitation and the awarding of subsistence allowance payable during a period of education or training; the furnishing of technical information, through correspondence or otherwise, to veterans or their representatives in explanation of action taken upon individual claims, and the carrying out of such duties in relation to the, foregoing and adjudication matters, general or otherwise, as may be properly assigned by central office. (58 Stat. 284; 38 U.S.C. 693)

§ 2.1005 Jurisdiction of rating board. (a) The rating boards are vested with authority to determine questions of service connection of disability flowing from diseases and injuries, (including such determinations for purposes of Public No. 346, 78th Congress) in cases in which the jurisdiction is temporarily or permanently vested in the field office concerned; to determine the true prewar occupations of claimants; to determine the necessity for, type of, sufficiency of, and appropriate date of examinations and reexaminations, including hospitalization for observation, for rating purposes; to determine and to evaluate the disability resulting from each and from all such diseases and injuries and to determine whether any such disease or injury is due to the wilful misconduct or misconduct of the veteran; to determine the competency or incompetency of claimants in proper cases; to determine whether the veteran was insane at time of commission of offense resulting in discharge otherwise precluding entitlement to benefits; to determine whether children of veterans are insane, idiotic or otherwise helpless by reason of mental or physical condition; to determine entitlement under section 31, Public No. 141, 73d Congress, as amended by section 12, Public No. 866, 76th Congress, and under § 35.017 (d), as amended.

No change in (b) or (c).

(d) In the event of a dissenting opinion by a rating specialist or a member of the central disability board, no payment will be made based upon the decision, until it has been authoritatively determined whether an appeal will be taken. If appeal from any decision is taken by the adjudication officer, an assistant adjudication officer, the manager, the chief, claims division, or the assistant chief, claims division, in cases adjudicated by the central disability board, no change in payments, based on the decision appealed from, will be made until a decision is rendered by the board of veterans appeals and the case file is returned to the appropriate activity.

(e) If it is decided that an appeal is to be taken by the adjudication officer, an assistant adjudication officer, the manager, the chief, claims division, or the assistant chief, claims division, in central office cases, the claimant or his representative will be promptly informed concerning the question at issue and concerning his right of appearance or representation before the rating board or the board of veterans appeals. As provided in adjudication procedure the formal hearing in the field office will be in lieu of a formal hearing before the board of veterans appeals, except in the unusual case when a special appearance by the veteran or his representative before the board of veterans appeals may be considered necessary. The hearing will not be accepted to serve as a basis for reversal of the majority decision, but such action as may be indicated will be taken where new and material evidence is submitted or where the further development of evidence would appear to be advisable on information submitted by or in behalf of the claimant. A transcribed record of the hearing will be filed. If, upon being informed of the administrative appeal, the claimant or his representative elects to present additional evidence or argument in support of the administrative appeal, such election will be deemed to be an appeal, and the two appeals will be merged and considered in accordance with the provisions of § 3.1328 of this chapter. (58 Stat. 284; 38 U.S.C. 693)

§ 2.1009 Revision of rating board decisions. (a) No rating board will reverse or amend, except upon new and material evidence, a decision rendered by the same or any other rating board, or by any appellate authority, except where such reversal or amendment is clearly warranted by a change in law or by a specific change in interpretation thereof specifically provided for in a Veterans' Administration issue; Provided, That a rating board may reverse or amend a decision by the same or any other rating board where such reversal or amendment is obviously warranted by a clear and unmistakable error shown by the evidence in file at the time the prior decision was rendered, but in each such case there shall be attached to each copy of the rating a signed statement by the rating board definitely fixing the responsibility for the erroneous decision. (See also § 3.1201 of this chapter.) Provided, further, That where the severance of service connection is considered warranted on the facts of record the case file where required by paragraph (d) of this section, will be forwarded without rating to the director of the service concerned in central office, for review, accompanied by a full and clear statement of the underlying reasons and facts. Where the submission with recommendation for severance of service connection is based upon a change of diagnosis it is essential that the requisite medical certificate accepted as showing that the previous diagnosis was not correct be of record in the case file.

No change in (b) or (c).

(d) In those instances wherein the severance of service connection is involved (the burden of proof being on the Government), the claimant will be immediately notified in writing of the contemplated action and the detailed reasons therefor and will be given a reasonable period, not to exceed sixty days, from the date on which such notice is mailed to his last address of record, for the presentation of additional evidence pertinent to the question. This procedure is for application except (1) in case of fraud; (2) in case of a change in law; (3) in case of a change of interpretation of law specifically provided in a Veterans Administration issue; or (4) where the evidence establishes the service connection to be clearly illegal. Severance of service connection not affecting the rate of pension,

i. e., severance where the disability is less than 10% or where after due consideration of the remaining service-connected disabilities, the award will be continued at the same or an increased rate, will not be referred for central office consideration. Final action will be accomplished locally with notification to the veteran of his right of appeal. Severance of service connection under any law, where the error is discovered on the occasion of the first rerating following the initial rating granting service connection, will be similarly accomplished locally. In all other instances the cases will be referred for central office consideration and the notice provided above will be given after return of the case file by central office. (See adjudication procedure.)

No change in (e).

§ 2.1011 Adjudication of applications of veterans residing without the continental limits of the United States. Applications for disability compensation or pension received from veterans who reside outside the continental limits of the United States, with the exception of the Territory of Alaska, which is under the jurisdiction of the Veterans Administration, Seattle, Washington, will be adjudicated in the claims division, veterans claims service, central office. Accordingly, these applications will be forwarded to central office. This provision does not apply to transients inasmuch as residence beyond the continental limits of the United States must be satisfactorily established. However, such residence will be presumed if three consecutive monthly checks are received at the same address. (§ 35.010)

§ 2.1012 Adjudication of applications of employee-claimants. Applications for disability compensation, pension, or subsistence allowance presented by veterans in the employ of the Veterans Administration will be adjudicated in the claims division, veterans claims service, central office. Accordingly, all such applications will be transferred by field offices to central office when an employee-claimant in either the classified or unclassified service or a member-employee has been continuously employed for ninety days: Provided, That no adjudication is necessary during such period. If any adjudication is necessary in the case of an employee-claimant during the ninety-day period, such claim will be transferred to central office immediately.

§ 2.1013 Adjudication of applications of veterans residing in Washington, D. C. Applications for disability compensation, pension, or subsistence allowance submitted by veterans residing in Washington, D. C., other than in the United States Soldiers Home, will be adjudicated in the regional office, Washington, D. C.

§ 2.1023 Jurisdiction in death cases. (a) Applications for death compensation or pension, accrued disability and death compensation or pension (except when all or a part thereof has been deposited to the credit of the veteran in Funds Due Incompetent Beneficiaries), accrued readjustment allowance, subsistence allowance, and burial allowances, will be adjudicated by the appropriate field station, when all service rendered by the deceased veteran in the military or naval forces was subsequent to July 15, 1903, Provided, That the veteran did not die in service on or after October 8, 1940, except when:

No change in (1).

(2) Any claimant for death benefits resides without the continental limits of the United States (Alaska cases are under the jurisdiction of the Seattle office) or where section 4 or 5, Public No. 144, 78th Congress, is involved.

No change in (3) to (6), inclusive.

(7) Rights of a claimant for death benefits have been forfeited under any act.

No change in (8).

(9) Insurance or adjusted compensation is involved. (Insurance will not be considered to be involved in any case where all allowable insurance benefits have been paid or where there is a running award of monthly instalments of National Service Life Insurance. (See paragraph (c) of this section.)

No change in (10).

(b) Subject to the exceptions outlined in paragraph (a) of this section, the office having possession of the case file (as defined in general procedure) of the veteran at the time of his death will have initial jurisdiction over all claims for death benefits. If no case file was established for the veteran during his lifetime, the office having jurisdiction over the area in which the veteran died will have initial jurisdiction over all claims for such benefits.

(c) The following procedure is applicable in those cases in which the veteran died in service on or after October 8, 1940, or in which insurance is involved (see paragraph (a) (9) of this section):

(1) Jurisdiction is vested in central office only until completion of adjudication of all initial claims for death benefits. Thereafter, such cases will be decentralized to the field station of the Veterans Administration having jurisdiction over the area in which the payee or claimant for death compensation or pension resides, in the following order of preference: (i) Widow; (ii) oldest child; (iii) mother, (iv) father; or to the field station having jurisdiction over the area in which the guardian of such person resides. Cases in which the veteran was not survived by a widow, child or parent who could have legal title to pension or compensation, or cases in which monthly instalments of insurance other than National Service Life Insurance, are being paid, will be retained in central office.

(2) When a case file has been properly decentralized, all adjudication actions, except with respect to insurance benefits, will be accomplished by the field station. Jurisdiction over all insurance phases, including correspondence, is vested exclusively in central office. The subsequent transfer of a case file to central office for any action in connection with insurance benefits will be considered a temporary transfer only, unless a permanent transfer is in order because of other circumstances in the case, in which event the field station will be notified. (57 Stat. 554; 38 U.S.C. 728, 729)

DELEGATION OF AUTHORITY

§ 2.1024 Delegation of authority to certain employees. (a) All adjudication officers, assistant adjudication officers, authorization officers, employees designated to act as authorization officers, attorney reviewers, alternate attorney reviewers, senior adjudicators (alternate reviewers), employees designated to act as attorney reviewers, and claims reimbursement authorizers, are hereby delegated authority to make findings and decisions thereon under the applicable laws, regulations, precedents and instructions as to rights of claimants to benefits under all laws administered by the Veterans Administration governing the payment of monetary benefits to veterans and their dependents.

(b) The chairman, central committee on waivers and forfeitures, alternate chairman, central committee on waivers and forfeitures, chairmen and alternate chairmen, committee on waivers, are hereby delegated authority to take final action in the waiver of the recovery of payments from any person pursuant to the provisions of title 38, sections 33, 453, 507 (a), and 809, U. S. Code, as amended, subject to any limitations imposed by current regulations and instructions.

(c) The authority delegated by (a) and (b) above, also the authority heretofore delegated to the designated employees individually, will terminate upon separation from service or change to a position not designated in (a) and (b) hereof. Notice of termination of delegated authority as above provided will be sent immediately to the finance officer or payees accounts division, finance service, by the manager, or responsible official in central office. Upon receipt of notice of termination of authority the signature card provided for in § 2.1025 will be removed from the file of authorized signature cards and deadfiled.

§ 2.1025 Verification of signatures of employees delegated authority under § 2.1024 (a) and (b) hereof. To insure proper certification of signature of employees delegated authority by § 2.1024 (a) and (b), a 3" x 5" card containing the employee's actual signature and designation, dated and certified by the proper official (signature cards for adjudication officers will be certified by the manager; authorization officers by the adjudication officer, etc.), will be prepared for each person delegated authority by § 2.1024 (a) and (b). This card will be delivered to the finance officer or payees accounts division, finance service. A similar card will be certified to the finance officer for each adjudicator. (43 Stat. 608, 38 U.S.C. 426; 46 Stat. 1016, 38 U.S.C. 11a)

FILING OF CLAIMS AND SUPPORTING EVIDENCE

§ 2.1026 Application for benefits. (a) A properly completed and executed Form 526, 526a or 526b, upon receipt by the Veterans' Administration, constitutes an application for benefits indicated below and will be adjudicated under the applicabe laws:

Form 526—Veteran's Application for Pension or Compensation for Disability Resulting from Service in the Active Military or Naval Forces of the United States.

Form 526a—Application for Compensation or Pension under Section 31, Public No. 141, 73d Congress, Section 12, Public No. 866, 76th Congress, and Section 2, Paragraph 4, Public No. 16, 78th Congress.

Form 526b—Veteran's Application for Pension for Disability not the Result of Service in the Active Military or Naval Forces of the United States.

Under Executive Order No. 6017, February 7, 1933, appearing in Title 22, page 161, Code of Federal Regulations of the United States of America, and section 1500, Public No. 346, 78th Congress, diplomatic and consular officers of the Department of State are authorized to act as agents of the Veterans' Administration and therefore a formal claim filed in a foreign country will be considered as filed in the Veterans' Administration as of the date of receipt by the State Department representative.

(b) Applications for compensation, pension, or burial allowance, other than claims for pension under the General Law predicated on service prior to April 21, 1898, need not be sworn to but shall be acceptable on the claimant's own certification, shown to have been made with knowledge of the penalties provided by law for false or fraudulent claims, statements, etc. (58 Stat. 284; 38 U.S.C. 693)

§ 2.1027 Informal claims. Any communication from or action by a claimant or his duly authorized representative, which clearly indicates an intent to apply for disability or death compensation, pension or subsistence allowance may be considered an informal claim. When an informal claim is received and a formal application is forwarded for execution by the claimant, such application shall be considered as evidence necessary to complete the initial application, and unless a formal application is received within one year from the date it was transmitted for execution by the claimant no award shall be made by virtue of such informal claim. If received within one year in such instances, it will be considered filed as of the date of receipt of the informal claim by the Veterans' Administration. However, a communication received from a service organization, pension attorney, or pension agent may not be accepted as an informal claim, if a power of attorney was not executed at the time the communication was written. In cases not covered by this rule, where the probability of an informal claim appears to be indicated, but the facts are too obscure or complicated for determination, the file will be referred to the director of the service concerned for decision upon the facts in the particular case. When benefits are being resumed under § 3.1299 of this chapter, and an informal claim has been filed for a disability incurred or aggravated in the second period of service, the requirements of the second and third sentences of this paragraph are not for application. Under Executive Order No. 6017, February 7, 1933, appearing in Title 22, page 161, Code of Federal Regulations of the United States of America, and section 1500, Public No. 346, 78th Congress, diplomatic and consular officers of the Department of State are authorized to act as agents of the Veterans' Administration and therefore an informal claim filed in a foreign country will be considered as filed in the Veterans' Administration as of the date of receipt by the State Department representative. (58 Stat. 284; 38 U.S.C. 693)

REQUIREMENTS FOR SUBMISSION OF EVIDENCE

§ 2.1030 Written and oral testimony to be under oath; administration of oaths by employees.

No change in (a).

(b) Employees detailed in accordance with section 300, Public No. 844, 74th Congress, may administer the oaths when their services are available without extra cost to the Government. (49 Stat. 2031; 38 U.S.C. 508.)

§ 2.1032 Execution of papers in a foreign country. Any papers required to be executed under oath in a foreign country in connection with a claim for benefits must be authenticated by a United States consular officer or the Department of State.

PROOF OF RELATIONSHIP AND DEPENDENCY

§ 2.1041 Definition of mother or father under Public No. 2, 73d Congress, Public No. 141, 73d Congress, Public No. 484, 73d Congress, Public No. 269, 74th Congress, Public No. 16, 78th Congress, as amended, and Public No. 346, 78th Congress. (a) These terms mean a natural mother or father of a veteran, or mother or father of a veteran through legal adoption. The phrase "natural mother" means the biological female parent, whether the veteran was legitimate or illegitimate. In establishing relationship where the dependency of a mother is for consideration the submission of evidence of birth will suffice, as evidence of the mother's marriage in establishing relationship under these circumstances would serve no useful purpose. Where the dependency of a father, as defined in § 35.010 (g) is involved, evidence establishing the parentage, through marriage or otherwise, will be required. On or after July 13, 1943, for the purposes of Public No. 2, 73d Congress, and Public No. 141, 73d Congress, as amended by Public No. 144, 78th Congress, the terms "parent", "father", and "mother" include a father, mother, father through adoption, mother through adoption, and persons who have stood in loco parentis to a member of the military or naval forces at any time prior to entry into active service for a period of not less than one year (not including stepparent, unless such stepparent stood in loco parentis): Provided, That not more than one father and one mother, as defined, shall be recognized in any case, and preference shall be given to such father or mother who actually exercised parental relationship at the time of or most nearly prior to the date of entry into active service by the person who served. (Section 1, Public No. 144, 78th Congress, and section 1500, Public No. 346, 78th Cong.)

(b) The father of an illegitimate child will be considered to be within the meaning of the word "father" as used in the War Risk Insurance Act, or the World War Veterans' Act, 1924, as amended, upon proof of the existence of the family relationship usual between parent and child at the time the latter entered the service. (48 Stat. 524, 1281; 49 Stat. 614; 57 Stat. 43; 58 Stat. 284; 38 U.S.C. 503, 368, 701, 693)

§ 2.1042 Definition of child for purposes of Public No. 2, 73d Congress, Public No. 141, 73d Congress, Public No. 484, 73d Congress, Public No. 269, 74th Congress, Public No. 16, 78th Congress, as amended, and Public No. 346, 78th Congress. The term "child" means a legitimate child or a child legally adopted, unmarried and under the age of eighteen years, unless prior to reaching the age of eighteen the child becomes or has become permanently incapable of self-support by reason of mental or physical defect. Apportioned compensation or pension may be continued under Public No. 2, 73d Congress, as amended by Public No. 78, 73d Congress, after the age of eighteen years but not after the age of twenty-one years on behalf of any child pursuing a course of instruction approved by the Administrator. On or after July 13, 1943, for the purposes of Public No. 2, 73d Congress, and Public No. 141, 73d Congress, as amended by Public No. 144, 78th Congress, the term "child" means a person unmarried and under the age of eighteen years, unless prior to reaching the age of eighteen years the child becomes or has become permanently incapable of self-support by reason of mental or physical defect, who is a legitimate child; a child legally adopted; a stepchild if a member of the man's household; an illegitimate child, but as to the father, only if acknowledged in writing, signed by him or if he has been judicially ordered or decreed to contribute to the child's support or has been, prior to his death judicially decreed to be the putative father of such child, or if he is otherwise shown by evidence satisfactory to the Administrator of Veterans Affairs to be the putative father of such child; as to the mother proof of birth is all that is required: Provided, That the payment of pension shall be continued after the eighteenth birthday and until completion of education or training (but not after such child reaches the age of twenty-one years), to any child who is or may hereafter be pursuing a course of instruction at a school, college, academy, seminary, technical institute, or university, particularly designated by him and approved by the Administrator, which shall have agreed to report to the Administrator the termination of attendance of such child, and if any such institution of learning fails to make such report promptly the approval shall be withdrawn. (Section 1, Public No. 144, 78th Congress, and section 1500, Public No. 346, 78th Congress.) (48 Stat. 524, 1281; 49 Stat. 614; 57 Stat. 43; 58 Stat. 284; 38 U.S.C. 503, 368, 701, 693)

TITLE 50—WILDLIFE

Chapter I—Fish and Wildlife Service

PART 29—PLAINS REGION NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGES

LOWER SOURIS NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGE, N. DAK.; HUNTING REGULATIONS

Under authority of section 84 of the act of March 4, 1909 (35 Stat. 1104; 18 U.S.C. 145) as amended, and § 12.9 of the General Regulations for the Administration of National Wildlife Refuges (5 F.R. 5284), as amended, the following is ordered:

§ 29.573a Lower Souris National Wildlife Refuge, North Dakota; hunting of deer. Deer may be taken with rifled firearms, except guns using .22-caliber rim fire ammunition, during the open season prescribed therefore by the Game and Fish Department of the State of North Dakota during the calendar year 1945 on certain lands, hereinafter specified, of the United States within the Lower Souris National Wildlife Refuge, North Dakota.

Area open to hunting: That part of the refuge lying south and east of Dam No. 320 except the area north of the Souris River between Dam No. 320 and the east section line of sections 30 and 31, T. 159 N., R. 76 W., 5th P. M.

Entry on and use of the refuge for any purpose is governed by the regulations of the Secretary dated December 19, 1940 (5 F.R. 5284), and strict compliance therewith is required. Persons entering the refuge for the purpose of hunting shall use such routes of travel within the refuge as are designated by posting. The carrying or being in possession of firearms within the areas of the refuge not open to public hunting is prohibited, except that such firearms may be possessed or transported across such closed areas provided they are unloaded, and broken or propery encased. In addition all hunters must comply with State hunting laws and regulations, and must have on their person and exhibit at the request of any authorized Federal or State officer whatever license is required by such laws and regulations.

The provisions of the regulations in this section shall be incorporated in and deemed to be a part of any cooperative agreement between the Director of the Fish and Wildlife Service and the Commissioner of the Game and Fish Department of North Dakota for the regulation, management, and operation of the shooting area established hereunder, the details of which shall be mutually agreed upon between said Director and Commissioner.

Dated: November 19, 1945.

WARD T. BOWER,
Acting Director.

PART 29—PLAINS REGION NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGES

UPPER SOURIS NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGE, N. DAK.; HUNTING REGULATIONS

Under authority of section 84 of the act of March 4, 1909 (35 Stat. 1104; 18 U. S. C. 145) as amended, and § 12.9 of the General Regulations for the Administration of National Wildlife Refuges (5 F.R. 5284), as amended, the following is ordered.

§ 29.919a Upper Souris National Wildlife Refuge, North Dakota; hunting of deer. Deer may be taken with rifled firearms, except guns using .22-caliber rim fire ammunition, during the open season prescribed therefore by the Game and Fish Department of the State of North Dakota during the calendar year 1945 on certain lands, hereinafter specified, of the United States within the Upper Souris National Wildlife Refuge, North Dakota.

Areas open to hunting: That part of the refuge lying south of the Renville County line and that part lying north of the line between townships 159 and 160, north.

Entry on and use of the refuge for any purpose is governed by the regulations of the Secretary dated December 19, 1940 (5 F.R. 5284), and strict compliance therewith is required. Persons entering the refuge for the purpose of hupting shall use such routes of travel within the refuge as are designated by posting. The carrying or being in possession of firearms within the areas of the refuge not open to public hunting is prohibited, except that such firearms may be possessed or transported across such closed areas provided they are unloaded, and broken or properly encased. In addition all hunters must comply with State hunting laws and regulations, and must have on their person and exhibit at the request of any authorized Federal or State officer whatever license is required by such laws and regulations.

The provisions of the regulations in this section shall be incorporated in and deemed to be a part of any cooperative agreement between the Director of the Fish and Wildlife Service and the Commissioner of the Game and Fish Department of North Dakota for the regulation, management, and operation of the shooting area established hereunder, the details of which shall be mutually agreed upon between said Director and Commissioner.

Dated: November 19, 1945.

WARD T. BOWER,
Acting Director.

The preliminary estimate of the probable cost of the works to be provided the District under said contract is $15,500,000. It will be necessary, if construction work is to continue beyond the District's present contract construction obligation of $15,000,000, for the District formally to authorize an increase in its present obligation.

The preliminary estimate of the construction charge per irrigable acre for the works built and to be built under this contract is hereby announced as $216.00 an acre. This per-acre construction charge is preliminary and subject to readjustment upon completion or termination of the construction program for providing the works to the District under said contract and the ascertainment of the actual cost thereof, and is subject to increase or decrease to the end that the District will pay to the United States the full construction cost as finally determined by the Secretary of the Interior.

The construction charges payable by the District to the United States on account of the above described lands of the District will be due and payable in seventy-eight (78) semi-annual instalments, and will be based upon this preliminary estimate until the actual cost of the works to be provided the District under the said contract is determined and announced. The first of these instalments will be Three and no/100 dollars ($3.00) per irrigable acre, as the irrigable acreage is shown on the above list of lands, and will be due and payable by the District to the United States on December 31, 1946. Subsequent semi-annual instalments will be due on June 30 and December 31 of each year beginning with 1947, the last instalment to be due and payable within forty (40) years from the date of this notice. The amount of the remaining seventy-seven (77) instalments will be determined and announced by a later public notice or notices.

Pursuant to article 12 (e) of the aforementioned contract, the operation and maintenance charge payable to the United States on behalf of the above described land for 1946 shall be transferred to and paid as a part of the construction obligation.

H. W. BASHORE,
Commissioner.

(e) Ground mixed feeds will be furnished at tariff prices named above for each constituent plus the grinding charge.

The bedding of all livestock in these yards will be done by the Stockyards Company at charges set out below. No bedding supplies of any kind may be brought into the yards for use by market agencies or patrons, except to the special sales barn and horse barns located north of Swift Avenue.

(a) The charge for bedding at this market will be the current market price in storage at the stockyards plus the following amount:

$0.50 per cwt.

(b) The price to be charged for bedding, determined pursuant to provisions in (a) will be $1.10 per cwt.

For the use of barns equipped for the purpose of applying the "24 hour" test for tuberculosis, labor necessary to clean the barns, and a reasonable amount of feed and bedding for each animal in test, the charge will be $0.25 per head.

For the use of pens for the purpose of applying the "72 hour" test for tuberculosis, the charge will be $.15 per head. If feed or bedding is required, it must be ordered by and at the expense of the owner.

(5) Effect of proposed modification. The effect of such proposed modification, if granted, would be to increase the revenues of the respondent and, accordingly, it appears that public notice should be given to all interested persons of the request of the respondent so as to afford all interested persons, including patrons of the respondent, an opportunity to manifest their desire to be heard on the matter.

Therefore, notice is hereby given to the public and to all interested persons of the request of the respondent for a modification of the order of the Acting Secretary, dated September 7, 1940. This notice is being given for the purpose of affording said respondent and all other interested persons, including patrons of the respondent, an opportunity to be heard upon the matters covered in the petition for modification.

All persons who desire to be heard shall notify the hearing clerk, Office of the Solicitor, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., within fifteen days from the date of the publication of this order.

Copies hereof shall be served on the respondent by registered mail or in person.

SUGARCANE IN HAWAII

NOTICE OF HEARING AND DESIGNATION OF PRESIDING OFFICERS AS TO WAGE RATES

Pursuant to the authority contained in subsections (b) and (d) of section 301 and section 511 of the Sugar Act of 1937 (Public No. 414, 75th Congress), as amended, notice is hereby given that a public hearing will be held at Honolulu, on the Island of Oahu, Territory of Hawaii, on December 14, 1945 at 9:00 a. m., in the Court Room of the United States District Court for the Territory of Hawaii, in the Federal Building at Honolulu.

The purpose of the hearing is to receive evidence likely to be of assistance to the Secretary in determining (1), pursuant to the provisions of section 301 (b) of the said act, fair and reasonable wage rates for persons employed in the production, cultivation, or harvesting of sugarcane during the calendar year 1946 on farms with respect to which applications for payments under the act are made, and (2), pursuant to the provisions of section 301 (d) of the said act, fair and reasonable prices for the 1946 crop of sugarcane to be paid, under either purchase or toll agreements, by processors who as producers apply for payments under the said act; and to receive evidence likely to be of assistance to the Secretary in making recommendations, pursuant to the provisions of section 511 of the said act, with respect to the terms and conditions of contracts between producers and processors of sugarcane, and the terms and conditions of contracts between laborers and producers of sugarcane.

Such hearing, after being called to order at the time and place mentioned above, may for convenience be adjourned to such other place in the same city as the presiding officers may designate, and may be continued from day to day within the discretion of the presiding officers.

Millard D. White and Will N. King are hereby designated as presiding officers to conduct, either jointly or severally, the foregoing hearing.

Issued this 26th day of November 1945.

[SEAL] CLINTON P. ANDERSON,
Secretary of Agriculture.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION.

[File No. 1-342]

RED BANK OIL CO.

ORDER SUMMARILY SUSPENDING TRADING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 23d day of November, A. D. 1945.

In the matter of trading on the New York Curb Exchange in the Common Stock, $1 Par Value, of Red Bank Oil Company, File No. 1-342.

The Commission, by order adopted on October 16, 1945, pursuant to section 19 (a) (4), having summarily suspended trading in the Common Stock, $1 Par Value, of Red Bank Oil Company on the New York Curb Exchange for a period of ten (10) days in order to prevent fraudulent, deceptive, or manipulative acts or practices, and said security having been similarly suspended from trading on said exchange for additional periods of ten (10) days each by orders adopted on October 25, November 2 and November 14, 1945;

The Commission, with due regard for the public interest and the protection of investors, deeming it appropriate that trading in said Common Stock on the New York Curb Exchange be summarily suspended;

The Commission, being of the opinion further that such suspension is necessary in order to prevent fraudulent, deceptive, or manipulative acts or practices, with the result that it will be unlawful under section 15 (c) (2) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and the Commission's Rule X–15C2–2 thereunder for any broker or dealer to make use of the mails or of any means or instrumentality of interstate commerce to effect any transaction in, or to induce or attempt to induce the purchase or sale of, such security otherwise than on a national securities exchange;

It is ordered, Pursuant to section 19 (a) (4) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, that trading in such security on the New York Curb Exchange be, and it hereby is, summarily suspended in order to prevent fraudulent, deceptive, or manipulative acts or practices, effective for a period of ten (10) days from the opening of the trading session on November 26, 1945.

By the Commission.

NEWMONT MINING CORP.

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania on the 23d day of November, A. D. 1945.

Newmont Mining Corporation, a registered investment company, has filed an application pursuant to section 17 (b) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 for an order exempting from the provisions of section 17 (a) of said act a transaction in which the applicant proposes to purchase 357,971 shares of the capital stock of Tombill Gold Mines Ltd. from the estate of Thomas A. Johnson, Deceased, for the sum of $71,594.20 (Canadian) or approximately 20c per share for such stock. Such estate is an affiliated person of Tombill Gold Mines Ltd., and such company is an affiliated person of the applicant within the meaning of the Investment Company Act of 1940.

It is ordered, Pursuant to section 40 (a) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 that a hearing be held on the aforementioned application on December 3, 1945 at 10 o'clock a. m. Eastern Standard Time in Room 318, Securities and Exchange Commission Building, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; and

It is further ordered, That Robert P. Reeder or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at such hearing. The officer so designated is hereby authorized to exercise all the powers granted to the Commission under sections 41 and 42 (b) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 and to trial examiners under the Commission's rules of practice.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to Newmont Mining Corporation, and to any other persons whose participation in such proceedings may be in the public interest or for the protection of investors.

By the Commission.

WILLIAM F. HENNE

In re: Estate of William F. Henne, also known as William Henne, deceased; File No. D–28–9722; E. T. sec. 13623.

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, after investigation, finding;

That the property described as follows: All right, title, interest and claim of any kind or character whatsoever of Marie Steinhilber and Matilda Henne, and each of them, in and to the Estate of William F. Henne, also known as William Henne, deceased, is property payable or deliverable, to, or claimed by, nationals of a designated enemy country, Germany, namely,

Nationals and Last Known Address

Marie Steinhilber, Germany.
Matilda Henne, Germany.

That such property is in the process of administration by Charles Henne, as Administrator, acting under the judicial supervision of the Surrogate's Court, Kings County, New York;

And determining that to the extent that such nationals are persons not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such persons be treated as nationals of a designated enemy country (Germany);

And having made all determinations and taken all action required by law, including appropriate consultation and certification, and deeming it necessary in the national interest, hereby vests in the Alien Property Custodian the property described above, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in an appropriate account or accounts, pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This order shall not be deemed to limit the power of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof in whole or in part, nor shall it be deemed to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined to take any one or all of such actions.

COSTS AND EXPENSES INCURRED IN CERTAIN ACTIONS OR PROCEEDINGS IN CERTAIN COLORADO, OREGON, CALIFORNIA, WASHINGTON AND ARIZONA COURTS

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the Alien Property Custodian:

Having found that each of the persons named in Column 1 of Exhibit A, attached hereto and by reference made a part hereof, was a person within the designated enemy country or enemy-occupied territory appearing opposite such person's respective name in Column 2 of said Exhibit A;

Having determined that it was in the interest of the United States to take measures in connection with representing each of said persons in the court or administrative action or proceeding identified in Column 3 of said Exhibit A, and having taken such measures;

Finding that as a result of such action or proceeding each of said persons obtained or was determined to have an interest in property, which interest is particularly described in Column 4 of said Exhibit A;

Finding that such property is in the possession, custody or control of the person described in Column 5 of said Exhibit A; and

Finding that the Alien Property Custodian has incurred, in each of such court or administrative actions or proceedings, costs and expenses in the amount stated in Column 6 of said Exhibit A, hereby vests in the Alien Property Custodian, to be used or otherwise dealt with in the interest, and for the benefit, of the United States, from the property in the possession, custody, or control of the persons described in said Column 5 of said Exhibit A, the sums stated in said Column 6 of said Exhibit A, such sums being the amounts of such property equal to the costs and expenses incurred by the Alien Property Custodian in such actions or proceedings.

This order shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property if and when it should be determined that such return should be made.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC–1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian.

[Vesting Order CE 68]

COSTS AND EXPENSES INCURRED IN CERTAIN ACTIONS OR PROCEEDINGS IN CERTAIN DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA, PENNSYLVANIA, LOUISIANA, WEST VIRGINIA AND FLORIDA COURTS

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the Alien Property Custodian:

Having found that each of the persons named in Column 1 of Exhibit A, attached hereto and by reference made a part hereof, was a person within the designated enemy country or enemy-occupied territory appearing opposite such person's respective name in Column 2 of said Exhibit A;

Having determined that it was in the interest of the United States to take measures in connection with representing each of said persons in the court or administrative action or proceeding identified in Column 3 of said Exhibit A, and having taken such measures;

Finding that as a result of such action or proceeding each of said persons obtained or was determined to have an interest in property, which interest is particularly described in Column 4 of said Exhibit A;

Finding that such property is in the possession, custody or control of the person described in Column 5 of said Exhibit A; and

Finding that the Alien Property Custodian has incurred, in each of such court or administrative actions or proceedings, costs and expenses in the amount stated in Column 6 of said Exhibit A, hereby vests in the Alien Property Custodian, to be used or otherwise dealt with in the interest, and for the benefit, of the United States, from the property in the possession, custody, or control of the persons described in said Column 5 of said Exhibit A, the sums stated in said Column 6 of said Exhibit A, such sums being the amounts of such property equal to the costs and expenses incurred by the Alien Property Custodian in such actions or proceedings.

This order shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property if and when it should be determined that such return should be made.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form AFC-1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of Executive Order No. 9095, as amended.

Executed at Washington, D. C., on November 16, 1945.

[SEAL] JAMES E. MARKHAM,
Alien Property Custodian.

These maximum prices are for the articles described in the manufacturer's application dated September 27, 1945.

(2) For sales by the manufacturer, the maximum prices apply to all sales and deliveries since Maximum Price Regulation No. 188 became applicable to those sales and deliveries. These prices are f. o. b. factory and subject to a cash discount of 2% for payment within 10 days, net 30 days.

(3) For sales by persons other than the manufacturer, the maximum prices apply to all sales and deliveries after the effective date of this order. Those prices are subject to each seller's customary terms and conditions of sale on sales of similar articles.

(4) If the manufacturer wishes to make sales and deliveries to any other class of purchaser or on other terms and conditions of sale, he must apply to the Office of Price Administration under the Fourth Pricing Method, § 1499.158 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188, for the establishment of maximum prices for those sales, and no sales or deliveries may be made until maximum prices have been authorized by the Office of Price Administration.

(b) The manufacturer shall attach a tag or label to every article for which a maximum price for sales to consumers is established by this order. That tag or label shall state the manufacturer's name or brand name, the model designation and the retail ceiling price in each zone or in the zone in which the article will be sold to the consumer.

(c) Zones: For the purpose of this order "Zone 1" is that area of the following two in which the article covered by this order are manufactured. The other area is "Zone 2".

(1) One area consists of the states of Arizona, New Mexico, California, Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Nevada, Utah, Colorado, Wyoming, Montana, and the following counties of Texas, El Paso, Hudspeth, Culberson, Jeff Davis, Presidio, Brewster, Terrell, Pecos, and Reeves.

(2) The other area consists of the remaining counties of Texas, all other states and the District of Columbia.

(d) At the time of, or prior to, the first invoice to each purchaser for resale at wholesale, the manufacturer shall notify the purchaser in writing of the maximum prices and conditions established by this order for sales by the purchaser. This notice may be given in any convenient form.

(e) This order may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

(f) This order shall become effective on the 23d day of November 1945.

Issued this 21st day of November 1945.

HOWARD MANUFACTURING CO.

ADJUSTMENT OF MAXIMUM PRICES

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith, and filed with the Division of the Federal Register, and pursuant to Second Revised Order A-3 under § 1499.158b of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188, it is ordered:

(a) Manufacturer's maximum prices. Howard Manufacturing Company, Kent, Washington, may sell and deliver to each class of purchaser the articles listed below, which it manufactures at prices no higher than its established maximum prices in effect before this order was issued plus the amount set forth below opposite each article:

Article	Unit	Amount or permitted increase
Painter's Trestle No. 1170	Per foot	$0.08
Extension Scaffolds No. 20:
6' extends to 10½'	Each	.82
8' extends to 13½'	do	1.09
10' extends to 17¼'	do	1.36
Extension Trestles No. 1180:
5' extends to 13'	Per pair	.32
10' extends to 17'	do	1.17
12' extends to 21'	do	.48
16' extends to 28'	do	.64

(b) Ceiling prices of purchasers for resale. Purchasers for resale of such articles which the manufacturer has sold at adjusted maximum prices permitted by paragraph (a) above, shall determine their adjusted maximum prices as follows:

(1) A purchaser for resale who delivered or offered for delivery during March, 1942, an article which meets the definition of "most comparable article" contained in § 1499.3 (a) of the General Maximum Price Regulation, except that it need not be currently offered for sale, shall calculate his ceiling price by adding to his invoice cost the same markup which he had on that comparable article, according to the method and procedure set forth in that section.

The determination of a ceiling price in this way need not be reported to the Office of Price Administration, however, each seller must keep complete records showing all the information called for by OPA Form 620-759 with regard to how he determined his ceiling price, for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect.

(2) If a purchaser for resale cannot determine his ceiling price under the above method, he shall apply to the Office of Price Administration for the establishment of his ceiling price under § 1499.3 (c) of the General Maximum Price Regulation. Ceiling prices established under that section will reflect the supplier's prices adjusted in accordance with this order.

(c) Terms of sale. Ceiling prices adjusted by this order, are subject to each seller's customary terms, discounts, and allowances on sales to each class of purchaser in effect during March 1942, or thereafter properly established by OPA regulations.

(d) Notification. At the time of, or prior to, the first invoice to a purchaser for resale showing a price adjusted in accordance with the terms of this order, the seller shall notify such purchaser in writing of the methods established in paragraph (b) for determining adjusted maximum prices for resales of the articles covered by this order. This notice may be given in any convenient form.

(e) All requests for adjustments of maximum prices not specifically granted by this order are hereby denied.

(f) This order may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

(g) This order shall become effective on the 24th day of November 1945.

Issued this 23d day of November 1945.

(a) This order establishes maximum prices for sales and deliveries of certain articles manufactured by Columbus Specialty Company, 1603 Cottage Avenue, Columbus, Ind.

(1) For all sales and deliveries to the following classes of purchasers by the sellers indicated below, the maximum prices are those set forth below:

Article	Model No.	Maximum prices for sales by any seller to— Wholesalers (jobbers)	Chain and department stores	Other retailers	Consumers
		Each	Each	Each	Each
Steel kitchen stool with foldaway steps, rubber trends on steps	4A	$2.97	[1] $3.57 [2] $3.75	[1] $3.97 [2] $4.17	[1] $5.95 [2] $6.25

[1] Zone 1. [2] Zone 2.

These maximum prices are for the articles described in the manufacturer's application dated September 27, 1945.

(2) For sales by the manufacturer, the maximum prices apply to all sales and deliveries since Maximum Price Regulation No. 188 became applicable to those sales and deliveries. These prices are f. o. b. factory and are subject to a cash discount of 2% for payment within 10 days, net 30 days.

(3) For sales by persons other than the manufacturer, the maximum prices apply to all sales and deliveries after the effective date of this order. Those prices are subject to each seller's customary terms and conditions of sale on sales of similar articles.

(4) If the manufacturer wishes to make sales and deliveries to any other class of purchaser or on other terms and conditions of sale, he must apply to the Office of Price Administration, under the Fourth Pricing Method, § 1499.158 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188, for the establishment of maximum prices for those sales, and no sales or deliveries may be made until maximum prices have been authorized by the Office of Price Administration.

(b) The manufacturer shall attach a tag or label to every article for which a maximum price for sales to consumers is established by this order. That tag or label shall state the manufacturer's name or brand name, the model designation and the retail ceiling price in each zone or in the zone in which the article will be sold to the consumer.

(c) Zones. For the purpose of this order "Zone One" is that area of the following two in which the article covered by this order is manufactured. The other is "Zone Two".

(1) One area consists of the states of Arizona, New Mexico, California, Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Nevada, Utah, Colorado, Wyoming, Montana, and the following counties of Texas, El Paso, Hudspeth, Culberson, Jeff Davis, Presidio, Brewster, Terrell, Pecos and Reeves.

(2) The other area consists of the remaining counties of Texas, all other states and the District of Columbia.

(d) At the time of, or prior to, the first invoice to each purchaser for resale at wholesale, the manufacturer shall notify the purchaser in writing of the maximum prices and conditions established by this order for sales by the purchaser. This notice may be given in any convenient form.

(e) This order may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

(f) This order shall become effective on the 24th day of November 1945.

Issued this 23d day of November 1945.

CHESTER BOWLES,
Administrator.

[RMPR 194, Order A-2]

EGGS AND TURKEYS IMPORTED INTO ALASKA

APPROVAL OF MAXIMUM PRICES

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register, and pursuant to section 18 (a) of Revised Maximum Price Regulation 194, It is ordered:

SECTION 1. Scope of this order—(a) What commodities are covered. The commodities covered by this order are eggs and turkeys imported into Alaska.

(b) What kind of sales are covered. This order applies to all sales at retail. "Sales at retail" means sales to ultimate consumers. Sales to industrial, commercial or institutional users are also "sales at retail" if made by persons who sell principally to individual ultimate consumers.

(c) What areas are covered. This order applies only to the areas in Alaska which are specified in the tables set forth in Sections 3 and 4 below.

(d) Relationship of this order to Revised Maximum Price Regulation 194. This order replaces the pricing provisions of section 5 and 6 and modifies other provisions of Revised Maximum Price Regulation 194. All other provisions of Revised Maximum Price Regulation 194 not inconsistent with the provisions of this order remain in effect. All letters, letter-orders, and general orders previously issued under Maximum Price Regulation 194 or Revised Maximum Price Regulation 194, approving or establishing your maximum prices for any commodities covered by this order are superseded by this Order A-2.

SEC. 2. Definitions. When used in this order, the term: (a) "Invoice cost" means the price you paid to your supplier after deducting all discounts except the discount for prompt payment up to and including 2%. "The price you paid your supplier" must not exceed your supplier's ceiling price.

(b) "Supplier" means a producer, processor, jobber, or wholesaler.

(c) "Transportation cost" means the actual charges incurred by you for freight, surcharge, war risk and marine insurance, wharfage, handling, lighterage and federal transportation tax, but does not include local hauling or local unloading.

SEC. 3. How to figure your ceiling prices for eggs under this order. (a) If your selling establishment is situated in a locality specified in the table of transportation allowances below, you calculate your ceiling price for eggs by adding to the invoice cost thereof the appropriate transportation allowance and dividing the total amount by .85. The resulting figure is your ceiling price.

TABLE OF TRANSPORTATION ALLOWANCES FOR SALES OF EGGS

	Cents per dozen
Ketchikan	4¼
Petersburg, Wrangell	4½
Douglas, Juneau	4¾
Haines, Sitka, Skagway	5
Cordova, Kodiak, Valdez, Seward	6
Anchorage	7½
Palmer	8
Fairbanks, Nenana	11¾

(b) Except as provided in paragraph (a) above, you calculate your ceiling price for eggs by adding the invoice cost and transportation cost thereof and dividing the total of .85. The resulting amount is your ceiling price.

(c) As used in this section "eggs" means shell eggs of the domestic or barnyard hen.

SEC. 4. How to figure your ceiling price for turkeys under this order. (a) If your selling establishment is situated in a locality specified in the table of transportation allowances below, you calculate your ceiling price for turkeys by adding the appropriate transportation allowance to the invoice cost thereof, plus whichever of the following markups is applicable.

	Cents per lb.
For dressed turkeys	15
For drawn turkeys	16
For quick-frozen eviscerated turkeys	18

The resulting figure is your ceiling price.

TABLE OF TRANSPORTATION ALLOWANCES FOR SALES OF TURKEYS

	Cents per pound
First judicial division [1]	2¼
Cordova, Valdez, Seward	3½
Kodiak	3¾
Anchorage	5½
Palmer	6
Nenana, Fairbanks	7¼

[1] First judicial division includes all that part of the Territory of Alaska lying east of the 141st meridian of west longitude.

(b) Except as provided in paragraph (a) above, you calculate your ceiling price for turkeys by adding the invoice cost and transportation cost thereof, plus whichever of the following markups is applicable:

	Cents per pound
For dressed turkeys	15
For drawn turkeys	16
For quick-frozen eviscerated turkeys	18

The resulting figure is your ceiling price.

(c) As used in this section, the term:

(1) "Drawn turkey" means a dressed hen or tom turkey from which the head, shanks, crop, windpipe, esophagus, entrails and gall bladder have been wholly removed without contamination of the body cavity; the gizzard cleaned by removing the contents and lining, and the cleaned gizzard, heart and liver then included with the carcass.

(2) "Dressed turkey" means a hen or tom turkey which has been killed, bled and plucked, but not eviscerated.

(3) "Quick-frozen eviscerated turkey" means a dressed and singed hen or tom turkey, from which the head, shank, crop, windpipe, esophagus, entrails, gall bladder, lungs, kidneys and oilsac have been wholly removed, the giblets removed, cleaned, wrapped and replaced; and the bird whether in whole, split or dismembered form, individually packaged in water resistant paper or cartons, frozen at quick-freezing temperatures, and ready for cooking upon removal from the package.

This order shall become effective November 28, 1945.

Issued this 23d day of November 1945.

CHESTER BOWLES,
Administrator.

The above maximum prices to retailers are f. o. b. New York, New York, and are subject to the seller's customary (March 1942) terms, discounts and allowances. The above maximum retail prices listed above for chronographs are inclusive of the Federal excise tax of 10%, of 20% in the case of watches selling at retail for more than $65.00.

No charge may be added to the above maximum retail prices for the extension of credit except under the conditions specified and to the extent permitted by section 12a of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 499.

(c) Notification. At or prior to the first sale of those watches to a purchaser for resale the importer must supply the purchaser with a copy of this order or a price list incorporating the above prices and containing a certification that they are maximum prices established by the Office of Price Administration. In addition, he shall include on every invoice covering each sale of these watches the following statement:

OPA Order No. 29 under RMPR 499 establishes the maximum prices at which you may sell these watches.

This notification requirement supersedes the notification requirement in Section 12 of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 499 with respect to the watches covered by this order.

(d) Tagging. The importer shall include with every watch covered by this order delivered to a purchaser for resale after its effective date, a tag or label setting forth the style number and maximum retail price of the particular watch. This tag or label must not be removed until the watch is sold to an ultimate consumer.

(e) This order may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

(f) Unless the context otherwise requires the definitions set forth in section 2 of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 499 shall apply to the terms used herein.

This order shall become effective November 24, 1945.

Issued this 23d day of November 1945.

Reconditioned iron single bedstead, knock down type, #26-B-506, old style, complete; outside dimensions 32" x 78½", bent tubular ends 31½" high, made of 1" O/D stock with 3 rigid ⅝" rod upright bars; angle frame 1¾" x 1¾" x ⅛", fabric wire spring with 19-2¼" helical springs at each end; 14½" from floor; and any subsequent specifications of this model including #32-A, dated Apr. 14, 1942, Q/M drawing 2-15-16	5.50	11.00

For the purposes of this order, an article is deemed "Reconditioned" if it meets the following specifications:

(i) All broken and missing parts replaced.

(ii) Metal frame straightened where necessary.

(iii) All splits, holes, gouges, or bruises filled in, and soiled or torn fabric, if any, replaced.

(iv) All exposed surfaces which were originally painted or finished, covered with a finish the color of which is uniform.

If the article does not meet these specifications, the maximum price set forth above for the article used in "as is" serviceable condition applies to the article.

(c) Discounts. Every seller shall continue to maintain his customary discounts for cash.

(d) Notification. Any person who sells the articles described in paragraph (b) to a retailer shall furnish the retailer with an invoice of sale setting forth the retailer's maximum reselling price for each article, and stating that the retailer is required by this order to attach to each article before sale a tag or label which plainly states a selling price not in excess of the appropriate retail ceiling price.

(e) Tagging. Any person who sells the articles described in paragraph (b) at retail shall attach to each article before sale a tag or label which plainly states a selling price not in excess of the appropriate retail ceiling price. If the article has been reconditioned, a statement to that effect must appear on the tag or label.

(f) Relation to other regulations and orders. This order with respect to the commodities it covers supersedes any other regulation or order previously issued by the Office of Price Administration.

(g) Definitions. "Retailer" means any person who normally sells to ultimate consumers.

(h) Revocation and amendment. This order may be revoked or amended at any time.

This order shall become effective November 27, 1945.

Issued this 23d day of November 1945.

[SO 119, Order 17]

ONEIDA, LTD.

ADJUSTMENT OF CEILING PRICES

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register, and pursuant to sections 13 and 14 of Supplementary Order No. 119, it is ordered:

(a) Manufacturer's ceiling prices. Oneida Ltd., Oneida, New York, may increase by no more than 14.25 per cent, its ceiling prices to each class of purchaser for silver plated flatware of its manufacture.

(b) Ceiling prices of purchasers for resale. Purchasers for resale of such articles which the manufacturer has sold at adjusted maximum prices permitted by paragraph (a) above, shall determine their maximum prices as follows:

(1) A purchaser for resale who delivered or offered for delivery during March 1942 an article contained in § 1499.3 (a) of the General Maximum Price Regulation, except that it need not be currently offered for sale, shall calculate his ceiling price by adding to his invoice cost the same markup which he had on that comparable article, according to the method and procedure set forth in that section.

The determination of a ceiling price in this way need not be reported to the Office of Price Administration; however, each seller must keep complete records showing all the information called for by O. P. A. Form 620–759 with regard to how he determined his ceiling price, for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect.

(2) If a purchaser for resale cannot determine his ceiling price under the above method, he shall apply to the Office of Price Administration for the establishment of his ceiling price under § 1499.3 (c) of the General Maximum Price Regulation. Ceiling prices established under that section will reflect the supplier's prices adjusted in accordance with this order.

(c) Terms of sale. Ceiling prices adjusted by this order are subject to each seller's customary terms, discounts, allowances and other price differentials on sales to each class of purchaser in effect during March 1942, or established under any applicable OPA regulation.

(d) Notification. At the time of, or prior to, the first invoice to a purchaser for resale showing a ceiling price adjusted in accordance with the terms of this order, the seller shall notify each purchaser in writing of the adjusted ceiling prices for resales of the articles covered by this order. This notice may be given in any convenient form.

(e) This order may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

(f) Effective date. This order shall become effective on 23d day of November 1945.

Issued this 23d day of November 1945.

CHESTER BOWLES,
Administrator.

[SO 108,[1] Special Order 8]

LENGTHENING OF BASE PERIODS

An opinion accompanying this Special Order No. 8 under section 17 of Supplementary Order 108 has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

SECTION 1. Purpose of this order. If you delivered items in any category between January 1, 1943 and December 31, 1944, and have established quarterly or half-year base periods for that category under section 2 of S. O. 108 this order permits you to change to a longer base period for that category. However, if you establish a new base period under this order for any category, your maximum average price for that category on and after June 1, 1945 is the weighted average price at which you made deliveries of items in that category in the new base period which you establish under this order.

SEC. 2. Lengthening established base periods. (a) If you established quarterly base periods under section 2 of S. O. 108 for any category, you may now change to either half-year or year-round base periods for that category under that section.

(b) If you established half-year base periods under section 2 of S. O. 108 for any category, you may now change to a year-round base period for that category under that section.

(c) In either of the cases set forth in (a) and (b) above, you must file an amended maximum average price chart and a corrected quarterly report for the third quarter of 1945 as provided in sections 3 and 4 below.

SEC. 3. Amended maximum average price chart. If you change to a longer base period for any category under this order you must file with your OPA District Office, on or before December 10, 1945, two copies (signed by an owner, officer or principal) of an amended maximum average price chart containing all of the information required by section 4 (b) of S. O. 108.

SEC. 4. Corrected quarterly report for the third calendar quarter of 1945. If you change to a longer base period for any category under this order, your maximum average price for that category on and after June 1, 1945 is the weighted average price at which you made deliveries in that category during the new base period established. (Note: This maximum average price may be adjusted in accordance with the provisions of Special Orders 3 and 5 under Supplementary Order 108.) If your maximum average price based on this new base period is different from the maximum average price based upon the original base period established by you under section 2 of S. O. 108, you must file with your OPA District Office, on or before December 10, 1945, (together with the amended maximum average price chart required under section 3 above) two copies (signed by an owner, officer or principal) of a corrected quarterly report covering all categories which you delivered during the third calendar quarter of 1945 and containing all of the information required by section 12 (b) (1) of S. O. 108.

This order shall become effective November 26, 1945.

NOTE: All reporting and record keeping requirements of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 26th day of November 1945.

Regional and District Office Orders.

[Region II Order G–7 Under RMPR 251]

INSTALLED RE-SIDING AND RE-ROOFING AND RELATED AND INCIDENTAL CONSTRUCTION WORK IN WILMINGTON, DEL., AREA

An opinion accompanying this order issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of Federal Register.

In the judgment of the Regional Administrator of Region II of the Office of Price Administration, the maximum prices established and the regulations prescribed by this order are generally fair and equitable, are necessary to effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Orders No. 9250 and 9599, and do not exceed the general level of prices fixed by Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 251, and the general level of prices in the area.

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Regional Administrator of Region II of the Office of Price Administration by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and by section 9 of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 251, this order is hereby issued.

SECTION 1. Transactions covered by this order. This order covers all sales of composition re-siding and re-roofing on an installed basis, together with accessories on residential structures in the area hereinafter described. It also includes related and incidental construction work when sold by installers of re-siding and re-roofing, whether such sale is made as a part of a general contract or not.

The term "composition re-siding" includes asphalt shingle re-siding, asbestos cement re-siding, insulated brick or stone re-siding and roll brick re-siding but shall not include wood shingles or wood re-siding.

The term "re-roofing" includes composition re-roofing such as asphalt shingles and mineral surface roll re-roofing and smooth surface roll re-roofing but does not include wood, metal or slate re-roofing.

The term "related" and "incidental" construction work means any installation of building materials or construction work other than installed re-roofing and re-siding, when sold by installers of re-roofing and re-siding.

SEC. 2. Relationship of this order to Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 251. (a) The provisions of this order supersede sections 6, 7 and 8 of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 251 with respect to sales of re-roofing and composition re-siding on an installed basis on residential structures and with respect to related and incidental construction work sold by installers of composition re-siding and re-roofing on an installed basis. All other provisions of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 251 are applicable to transactions subject to this order unless otherwise provided in this order.

(b) On and after the effective date of this order, regardless of any contract or other obligation, no person shall sell, offer to sell or deliver composition re-siding and re-roofing on residential structures on an installed basis or related and incidental construction work as herein defined at prices higher than the maximum prices established by this order: Provided, That deliveries made not more than thirty days after the effective date of this order on bona fide contracts executed prior to the effective date of this order shall not be considered to be violations of this order.

(c) An employer paying or about to pay labor rates higher than those in effect for him on the effective date of this order by reason of the predetermination of wage rates by the Secretary of Labor under the Davis-Bacon Act or any order or authorization of the Wage Adjustment Board, National War Labor Board or Economic Stabilization Director, may file an application for an amendment of this Order to reflect such increased labor rates. Such a petition for amendment shall conform in all respects to the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1, except that it shall be filed with the New York Regional Office of the Office of Price Administration.

SEC. 3. Applicability. This order shall apply in the Wilmington, Del. area which includes all counties of the State of Delaware.

SEC. 4. Maximum prices for sales of composition re-siding and re-roofing on an installed basis. The maximum prices for sales of composition re-siding and re-roofing on an installed basis on residential structures shall be as shown in the following Tables, known as Tables I and II, and shall be upon a price per square basis. Table I covers prices for composition re-siding and accessories, and Table II covers prices for re-roofing and accessories.

On all sales of composition re-siding and re-roofing on an installed basis covered by this order, where the maximum price of the entire job figured in accordance with Tables I and II of this order is less than $50.00, the seller may make a minimum charge of $50.00.

On all sales of composition re-siding and re-roofing on an installed basis covered by this order, an additional charge of 50% of the maximum price per square may be made for the actual areas only which consist of the following on re-siding jobs: bay windows, towers, eye brows, dormer gables and dormer cheeks, porch columns, bulkheads and arches; on re-roofing jobs—towers, eye brows, bay windows, overhangs and shelves.

SEC. 5. Guaranteed price. A seller may sell a composition re-siding or re-roofing job covered by this order on the basis of a guaranteed price, but such guaranteed price must not be higher than the maximum price figured in accordance with the pricing methods and requirements of this order.

SEC. 6. Related and incidental construction work. If on any job, any installed building materials are furnished or any construction service performed by the seller, other than composition re-siding and re-roofing, the cost of such work shall not be included in the cost of installed composition re-siding and re-roofing, but shall be separately priced and billed on all invoices. The maximum price of any such related and incidental work shall be determined under Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 251.

SEC. 7. Measurements. It shall be the seller's responsibility to measure with reasonable accuracy the area or footings to be covered. A "measurement with reasonable accuracy" shall be considered to have been made if the price based on such estimate does not vary by more than 10% from the maximum price computed under the terms of this order.

SEC. 8. Notification. Every person making sales subject to this order shall, if requested by the purchaser, make available to the purchaser a copy of this order and a copy of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 251. Upon completion of any contract for installed re-siding and/or re-roofing, and/or related and incidental construction work, the seller, if requested by the purchaser, must furnish to him an itemized statement showing the number of squares, the maximum price per square of re-siding and re-roofing installed, a list of all extras and the quantities and price of each and a separate statement of any related and incidental construction work other than installed re-siding and re-roofing giving a description of such work and an itemized statement of the prices thereof. The seller shall also include in such statement the date on which the installation was completed, the names and addresses of the sellers and buyers and the terms of sale.

SEC. 9. Evasion. Any practice or device which results in a higher price to the purchaser of composition re-siding and re-roofing on an installed basis and/or related and incidental construction work than is permitted by this order is as much a violation as an outright over ceiling charge and subjects the seller to all the penalties provided by Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 251.

SEC. 10. Records. All sellers of installed composition re-siding and re-roofing and/or related and incidental construction work covered by the terms of this order must keep records concerning each sale subject to this order, including the name and address of the purchaser, the location of the job, the date of the transaction, a description of the materials and services involved, the number of squares and price per square of re-siding and re-roofing, a list of all extras permitted under Tables I and II of this order with the quantity and price of each, and a separate statement of any related and incidental construction work. All such records shall be made available for inspection by representatives of the Office of Price Administration so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect.

SEC. 11. Revocation or amendment. This order may be revised, amended, revoked or modified at any time by the Office of Price Administration.

This order shall become effective November 3, 1945.

Issued this 19th day of October 1945.

LEO F. GENTNER,
Acting Regional Administrator.

SUNNYVALE DRESS CO. ET AL.

ESTABLISHMENT OF MAXIMUM PRICES

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register, and in accordance with section 11 of Supplementary Order 94, it is ordered:

(a) What this order does. This order establishes maximum prices for sales and deliveries in the states of New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland and in the District of Columbia of certain Navy Shirts hereinafter described, which are to be sold by the Sunnyvale Dress Company for the account of the United States Navy and by subsequent resellers.

(b) Maximum prices. Maximum prices for the Navy Shirts described herein shall be:

Style No.	Description	Maximum price to all purchasers other than ultimate consumers	Maximum price to ultimate consumers
604	White cotton short sleeve	$1.76	$3.00
603	White rayon	2.295	3.87
600	Navy blue rayon	2.295	3.87

(c) Discounts. Every seller shall continue to maintain his customary allowances, discounts or other price differentials.

(d) (1) Notification to retailers. Any person who sells the shirts described in paragraph (b) to a retailer shall furnish the retailer with an invoice of sale setting forth the retailer's maximum price and stating that the retailer is required by this order to attach to each shirt before sale, a tag or label containing the following:

Style No. 604, OPA retail ceiling price- $3.00
Style No. 603, OPA retail ceiling price- 3.87
Style No. 600, OPA retail ceiling price- 3.87

(2) Notification to resellers other than retailers. Any person who sells the shirts described in paragraph (b) to any person other than a retailer shall furnish the purchaser with an invoice (i) setting forth the full text of paragraph (d) (1) and (ii) stating that all sales of the shirts are governed by this order, specifying the number and date of this order.

(e) Tagging. Any person who sells the shirts described in paragraph (b) at retail shall attach to each shirt before sale a tag or label which plainly states the retail ceiling price.

(f) Relation to other regulations and orders. This order with respect to the commodities it covers supersedes any maximum price regulation otherwise applicable.

(g) Definitions. (1) "Retailer" means any seller who makes sales to an ultimate consumer other than an industrial, institutional or commercial user.

(2) "Sales to all purchasers other than ultimate consumers" means sale to any person other than an ultimate consumer and shall include sales to industrial, institutional and commercial user.

(3) The term "delivery" when used herein shall apply only to deliveries to the ultimate destination of the purchaser within the states of New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, and in the District of Columbia.

(h) Revocation and amendment. This order may be revoked or amended at any time.

This order shall become effective November 14, 1945.

Issued November 9, 1945.

LAUNDRY SERVICES IN NEW YORK METROPOLITAN AREA

The applications of a group of power laundry establishments in the New York Metropolitan area for adjustment of their maximum prices for their family laundry services were considered by this Office and these applications were granted in Order No. G-20 dated June 7, 1945, as amended, issued under section 16 (a) of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 165, as amended—Services by the New York Regional Office.

For the reasons set forth in the opinion issued simultaneously herewith, it has been decided that said Order No. G-20, as amended, be further amended in certain respects. Accordingly, pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and section 16 (a) of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 165, as amended—Services, It is hereby ordered, That:

(1) Order No. G-20, as amended, and more particularly paragraph (1) thereof, is amended by changing the percentage figure set opposite Leader Laundry Service, Inc. from 3% to 7%.

(2) The above mentioned applicant shall be subject in all respects to all the provisions of said Order No. G-20 as amended, and except as therein or herein otherwise provided, shall remain in all respects subject to the provisions of Maximum Price Regulation No. 165, as amended—Services.

(3) This amendment may be revoked by the Price Administrator or by the Regional Administrator of Region II through the issuance at any time hereafter of any regulation, order, amendment or supplement thereto.

(4) All of the provisions of Order No. G-20, as amended, shall remain in full force and effect except as herein modified.

This amendment shall become effective immediately.

Issued the 9th day of November 1945.

SLABWOOD AND SAWDUST IN UPPER COLUMBIA RIVER TERRITORY IN OREGON AND WASHINGTON

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith, and under the authority vested in the District Director of the Office of Price Administration by § 1499.18 (c), as amended, of the General Maximum Price Regulation and by Order of Delegation No. 75 issued by the Regional Administrator of Region VIII under Revised General Order No. 32, It is hereby ordered, That:

(a) The maximum prices as established by §§ 1499.2 and 1499.3 of the General Maximum Price Regulation, or by any previous order issued pursuant to such regulation except Order No. VIII-P-G-18 (c) 1495, issued on October 1, 1945, to C. E. Kitchel of Hood River, Oregon, or by any supplementary regulation thereto, for the sale and delivery of the types of firewood specified below in certain defined areas in the Upper Columbia River territory in the States of Oregon and Washington are hereby adjusted so that the maximum prices therefor shall be:

Type of firewood	Maximum prices delivered to the premises of the ultimate consumer
	Hood River area; Goldendale area	White Salmon area	Stevenson area; The Dalles area	Cascade Locks area; Bonneville area
4' green slabwood per cord	$4.25	$5.00	$6.00	$7.00
16" or 12" green slabwood per cord	5.00	6.00	7.00	8.00
4' dry slabwood per cord	6.00	7.00	8.00	9.00
16" or 12" dry slabwood per cord	7.00	8.00	9.00	10.00
2' and less inside block and planer ends per cord	5.50	6.50	7.50	8.50
	Sawdust per unit
Maximum prices delivered to the premises of the ultimate consumer:
Hood River area, Goldendale, Stevenson and White Salmon area	$4.00
The Dalles area	5.00
Cascade Locks and Bonneville area	4.50

(b) This Order No. G-26 supersedes all orders except Order No. VIII-P-G-18 (c) 1495, which established maximum prices for the kinds and types of firewood covered by this order when sold in the areas and by the persons covered by this Order No. G-26.

(c) Definitions. (1) "Slabwood" means mill run slabwood, mixed slabwood and block wood, and mixed slabwood and edgings.

(2) "Inside block wood" means block wood which is picked out and separated from slabwood.

(3) "Dry slabwood" means that wood which is generally recognized as being dry by the trade and consuming public, and which has been air-dried for a period of not less than ninety days.

(4) "Hood River area" means the county of Hood River with the exception of that area included in the definition of Cascade Locks Area and Bonneville Area.

(5) "Goldendale area" means that portion of Klickitat county Washington, lying east of a line drawn north and south 3 miles east of the city of Wahkiacus, Washington, and parallel to the eastern boundary of Klickitat county.

(6) "White Salmon area" means that portion of Klickitat county not included in the definition of Goldendale Area and including the city of Underwood and a radius of 5 miles thereof in Skamania county.

(7) "Stevenson area" means the county of Skamania with the exception of that area included in the definition of White Salmon area.

(8) "The Dalles area" means that portion of Wasco county lying north of a line drawn east and west parallel to the southern boundary of Wasco county and 3 miles south of the town of Friend, Oregon.

(9) "Cascade Locks area" means the city of Cascade Locks and the area within a radius of three miles thereof in the State of Oregon.

(10) "Bonneville area" means the city of Bonneville, Oregon, and the area within a radius of three miles thereof in the State of Oregon.

(d) Evasions. No mills or dealers affected by this Order No. G-26 shall evade any of the provisions thereof by changing the customary allowances, discounts, or other price differentials unless such change shall result in a lower price.

(e) Every seller affected by this order shall remain subject to all other provisions of the GMPR.

(f) Invoices and records. Every person making a sale of firewood for which a maximum price is set by this order shall give the purchaser or his agent, at the time of sale, an invoice or other memorandum of sale, which shall show:

(1) The date of sale.

(2) The name and address of the buyer and seller.

(3) The quantity of firewood and sawdust sold.

(4) Description of firewood and sawdust sold, in the same manner as it is described in this order. (This shall include the kind of wood, i. e. dry or green, old or second growth, or hardwood, and the length of the pieces of wood.)

(5) Place of sale. (If the price is dependent on place of delivery, then the place of delivery shall be stated.)

(6) The total price of the wood.

On the invoice or memorandum, a separate statement shall be made of any discounts and of each service rendered such as delivery, carrying, and stacking, and the charge made for each such service.

The seller shall keep an exact copy of such invoice or memorandum for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect, and such copy shall be made available for inspection by the Office of Price Administration. The record keeping provisions of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

This order may be revoked, amended, or corrected at any time. This order shall become effective immediately.

Issued this 7th day of November 1945.

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

Chapter XI—Production and Marketing Administration (War Food Distribution Orders)

[WFO 4–11]

PART 1450—TOBACCO

1945 CROP OF BURLEY TOBACCO

Pursuant to the authority vested in me by War Food Order No. 4 issued on January 7, 1943, as amended (8 F.R. 335, 828, 11331; 9 F.R. 4521, 4319, 9584; 10 F.R. 103, 126, 10419), and to effectuate the purpose of such order, as amended, it is hereby ordered as follows:

§ 1450.17 Restrictions on 1945 crop Burley tobacco—(a) Definitions. (1) "Burley tobacco" means unmanufactured tobacco of Type 31, as defined in the Official Standard Grades for Burley Tobacco (7 CFR 29.206 (11)), promulgated by the Secretary of Agriculture on November 25, 1936, pursuant to the Tobacco Inspection Act (7 U.S.C. 511 et seq.).

(2) "Manufacturer" means any person who processed tobacco during the period from October 1, 1944, to September 30, 1945, inclusive, into a product for consumer use which was subject to taxation under the Internal Revenue Code (26 U. S. C. 2000–2040).

(3) "Dealer" means any person, other than a manufacturer, who purchased Burley tobacco of the crops of 1939, 1940, and 1941, from producers or at auction and redried and packed such tobacco, or had such tobacco redried and packed for his account.

(4) "1945 crop Burley tobacco" means Burley tobacco which was planted and harvested during the calendar year 1945.

(5) "Warehouseman" means any person who offers tobacco for sale at auction as a commission agent for the producer of such tobacco.

(6) "Scrap" means any loose, tangled, untied, and unstemmed 1945 crop Burley tobacco salvaged as a by-product in harvesting, stripping, classing, and tying on the farm and consisting chiefly of barn and strip-house floor sweepings and very inferior quality leaves not sold at auction by growers and any loose, untied, and unstemmed 1945 crop Burley tobacco consisting entirely of warehouse floor sweepings, loose, and tangled leaves, or portions of leaves which accumulate from unavoidable dropping or breakage in the handling of Burley tobacco and which consist exclusively of such tobacco salvaged as a by-product of marketing.

(7) "Person" means any individual partnership, association, business trust, corporation, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(b) Restrictions. (1) No person shall purchase, or otherwise acquire, any 1945 crop Burley tobacco unless such tobacco is purchased or acquired pursuant to the provisions hereof.

(2) No manufacturer shall, directly or indirectly, purchase, or otherwise acquire, any 1945 crop Burley tobacco which will cause the total amount of such tobacco so purchased or acquired by him to exceed 112 percent of the total number of pounds of Burley tobacco used by such person for manufacturing purposes during the period from October 1, 1944, to September 30, 1945, inclusive.

(3) No manufacturer shall purchase at auction a higher proportion of his total allocation of 1945 crop Burley tobacco than his total purchases of Burley tobacco from the crops of 1939, 1940, and 1941 at auction bore to his total purchases of Burley tobacco from such crops.

(4) No dealer shall purchase from producers or at auction for his own account a total quantity of 1945 crop Burley tobacco which is in excess of 110 percent of the amount which was allocated to such dealer pursuant to the provisions of War Food Order 4–8 (9 F.R. 14272), issued on December 1, 1944, as amended, or the amount which he was entitled to have allocated to him pursuant to said war food order, as amended, for such purchases from the 1944 crop of Burley tobacco.

(5) Purchases at auction of any 1945 crop Burley tobacco by a manufacturer or a dealer shall not be charged to such purchaser's allocation of 1945 crop Burley tobacco pursuant to (b), (2), (b) (3), or (b) (4) hereof if such tobacco is purchased at a price less than the maximum price for such tobacco as established by the Office of Price Administration and in effect at the time of such purchase.

(6) Any person other than a manufacturer or dealer may purchase 1945 crop Burley tobacco at auction for resale at auction in substantially the same form and condition: Provided, That the resale of such tobacco at auction shall not be required if such tobacco is purchased at auction at a price less than the maximum price for such tobacco as established by the Office of Price Administration and in effect at the time of such purchase.

(7) Purchases of scrap by a dealer shall not be charged against such dealer's allocation but purchases of scrap by a manufacturer shall be charged against such manufacturer's allocation.

(8) Any 1945 crop Burley tobacco purchased in conformity with an agreement to buy for a principal, either in the principal's name or for his account, shall be charged to the allocation of the principal for whom such Burley tobacco was purchased: Provided, That no principal may make any such agreement with a warehouseman or any person employed, directly or indirectly, by a warehouseman, and this provision applies to any such agreement already made or to be made with respect to the 1945 crop of Burley tobacco.

(9) Tobacco of the 1945 crop Burley tobacco may, from time to time, be allocated by the Assistant Administrator for purchase by the Commodity Credit Corporation.

(10) The poundage figures used in computing allocations pursuant hereto shall be reduced to an undried (green weight) basis. Burley tobacco in the steam-dried condition and in unstemmed form shall be converted to the undried basis by multiplying the number of pounds by the factor 1.11. Burley tobacco in the steam-dried condition and in the stemmed form shall be converted to the undried basis by multiplying the number of pounds by the factor 1.50.

(11) The restrictions of this order shall be observed without regard to the rights of creditors, prior contracts, existing contracts, or payments made prior to the effective time hereof, and acquisitions of 1945 crop Burley tobacco, by purchase or otherwise, prior to the effective time hereof, shall be charged to the respective allocations in accordance with the provisions hereof, as if such acquisitions were made after the effective time of this order.

(c) Modification and amendment. Any allocation granted herein may be modified, amended, or supplemented from time to time by notice or letter, issued by the Assistant Administrator, to any person to whom such allocation has been made; and the Assistant Administrator may, by notice or letter, grant an allocation to any person who is not entitled thereto under the provisions of (b) (2), (b) (3), or (b) (4) hereof.

(d) Effective date. This order shall become effective at 12:01 a. m., e. s. t., November 27, 1945.

NOVEMBER 23, 1945.

Waiving compliance with the provisions of section 4153 of the Revised Statutes, as amended.

Section 4153 of the Revised Statutes, as amended, waived to extent necessary to permit omission of tonnage of enclosed shelter-deck spaces from gross tonnage of vessels upon certain conditions; Treasury Decision 51002, dated February 8, 1944, and Treasury Decision 51086, dated June 28, 1944, amended; and order of Acting Secretary of Commerce dated February 28, 1942, rescinded.

Upon the written recommendations of the Chairman of the United States Maritime Commission and the Administrator of the War Shipping Administration and pursuant to the authority vested in me by the provisions of section 501 of the Second War Powers Act, 1942 (50 U.S.C. App. Sup. 635), as extended by the act of December 20, 1944 (50 U.S.C. App. Sup. 645),

(a) I hereby waive compliance with section 4153 of the Revised Statutes, as amended (46 U.S.C. 77), to the extent necessary to permit the tonnage of the shelter-deck space above the upper deck which is under cover and permanently closed in to be omitted from the gross tonnage: Provided, That—

(1) At the time of construction of the vessel the space above referred to was open to the weather and not permanently closed in;

(2) After construction the space above referred to is closed in by making the weather tight hatch in the shelter deck water tight, and by closing the tonnage openings in the transverse bulkheads between the freeboard and shelter decks, making those bulkheads water tight;

(3) The load line of the vessel is not raised as a result of the closing in of the spaee above referred to; and

(4) The vessel was built before November 6, 1945;

(b) The orders of the Acting Secretary of the Treasury dated February 8, 1944 (T. D. 51002), and June 28, 1944 (T. D. 51086), waiving compliance with the provisions of section 4153 of the Revised Statutes, as amended, to the extent necessary to permit the omission of tonnage of enclosed shelter-deck space from the gross tonnage of certain vessels upon certain conditions specified in such orders, are amended by the addition of a new paragraph at the end of each order reading as follows: "This order shall be effective only as to vessels built before November 6, 1945."

I deem the above action to be necessary in the conduct of the war.

Upon the request of the Secretary of the Navy and pursuant to the authority vested in me by the provisions of section 501 of the Second War Powers Act, 1942 (50 U.S.C. App. Sup. 635), as extended by the act of December 20, 1944 (50 U.S.C. App. Sup. 645), I hereby rescind the order of the Acting Secretary of Commerce dated February 28, 1942 (7 F.R. 1696), which was confirmed and continued by the order of the Acting Secretary of the Treasury dated April 1, 1942 (T. D. 50594), and which waived compliance with the provisions of section 4153 of the Revised Statutes, as amended, to the extent necessary to permit the omission of tonnage of enclosed shelter-deck spaces from the gross tonnage of vessels upon certain conditions specified in that order.

[SEAL] HERBERT E. GASTON,
Acting Secretary of the Treasury.

PART 3—DOCUMENTATION OF VESSELS

PART 4—VESSELS IN FOREIGN OR DOMESTIC TRADES

WAIVERS OF CERTAIN NAVIGATION LAWS RESCINDED IN WHOLE OR IN PART

NOVEMBER 20, 1945.

Rescinding in whole or in part Treasury Decisions 50592, 50653, 50654, 50756, 51025, 51116, and 51265.

Upon the written recommendation of the Administrator of the War Shipping Administration and the Chairman of the United States Maritime Commission and pursuant to the authority vested in me by the provisions of section 501 of the Second War Powers Act, 1942 (50 U.S.C. App. Sup. 635), as extended by the act of December 20, 1944 (50 U.S.C. App. Sup. 645), I hereby rescind:

(a) So much of the order of the Acting Secretary of the Treasury dated March 31, 1942 (T. D. 50592), as waives compliance with the provisions of section 8 of the act of June 19, 1886, as amended (46 U.S.C. 289), and section 27 of the Merchant Marine Act, 1920, as amended (46 U.S.C. 883), to the extent necessary to permit any or all vessels, the use of which has been acquired by either the United States Maritime Commission or the War Shipping Administration pursuant to the act of June 6, 1941 (50 U.S.C. App. Sup. 1271-1275), to engage in the coastwise or intercoastal trade while under foreign flag, when operated by the War Shipping Administration, directly or through agents, or while chartered or leased by either of such agencies to any persons;

(b) So much of the order of the Acting Secretary of the Treasury dated June 10, 1942 (T. D. 50653), as waives compliance with the provisions of section 8 of the act of June 19, 1886, as amended, and section 27 of the Merchant Marine Act, 1920, as amended, to the extent necessary to permit (1) any or all vessels, the use or the title to which has been acquired by either the United States Maritime Commission or the War Shipping Administration pursuant to section 902 of the Merchant Marine Act, 1936, as amended (46 U.S.C. 1242), to engage in the coastwise or intercoastal trade while under United States flag, when operated by the War Shipping Administration, directly or through agents, or while chartered or leased by either of such agencies to any persons, and (2) any or all vessels, the use of which has been acquired by either the United States Maritime Commission or the War Shipping Administration pursuant to section 902 of the Merchant Marine Act, 1936, as amended, to engage in the coastwise or intercoastal trade while under foreign flag, when operated by the War Shipping Administration, directly or through agents, or while chartered or leased by either of such agencies to any persons;

(c) The order of the Acting Secretary of the Treasury dated June 11, 1942 (T. D. 50654), waiving compliance with the provisions of the navigation laws of the United States to the extent necessary to permit Canadian tugs to tow American and Canadian vessels between (1) Pacific Coast points in the continental United States and points in Alaska, and (2) points in Alaska;

(d) So much of the order of the Acting Secretary of the Treasury dated October 30, 1942 (T. D. 50756), as waives compliance with the provisions of section 4132 of the Revised Statutes, as amended, and section 4370 of the Revised Statutes, as amended (46 U.S.C. 11, 316), to the extent necessary to permit the towing of any vessel between any points or places embraced within the coastwise laws or between points within the harbor of any such place by any vessel of any of the classes mentioned in paragraph 1 of that order or in T. D. 50592 or T. D. 50653;

(e) The order of the Acting Secretary of the Treasury dated March 18, 1944 (T. D. 51025), waiving compliance with the provisions of section 4179 of the Revised Statutes (46 U.S.C. 50), and sections 1, 2, and 3 of the act of February 19, 1920, as modified by Executive Order No. 9083 (46 U.S.C. 51-53; 7 F.R. 1609), to the extent necessary to permit the name of any vessel of the United States which is owned by or under bareboat charter to the War Shipping Administration and which has been delivered by that Administration on a bareboat basis to the War Department or to the Navy Department to be changed by such Department without the prior approval of the Commissioner of Customs, without advertising such change of name in some daily or weekly paper at the place of documentation, without payment of any fee for the privilege of securing such change of name, and without surrendering the outstanding registry, enrollment and license, or license of such vessel;

(f) The order of the Acting Secretary of the Treasury dated August 28, 1944 (T. D. 51116), waiving compliance with the provisions of section 8 of the act of June 19, 1886, as amended, and section 27 of the Merchant Marine Act, 1920, as amended, to the extent necessary to permit the transportation of passengers or cargo, or both, in the coastwise trade by any foreign vessel while it is allocated to the War Shipping Administration by the Government of any of the United Nations and has on board a "Certificate of Ownership and Operation" issued by the War Shipping Administration certifying that it is so allocated; and

(g) The order of the Acting Secretary of the Treasury dated July 9, 1945 (T. D. 51265), waiving compliance with the provisions of section 27 of the Merchant Marine Act, 1920, as amended, to the extent necessary to permit the transportation of merchandise between ports in the United States embraced within the coastwise laws by any foreign flag vessel allocated by the Government of any nation which is a party to the United Maritime Authority for operation at the direction of the War Shipping Administration, provided that the collector of customs at the port of lading is notified of such allocation by the War Shipping Administration prior to the departure of the vessel from such port of lading.

Subdivisions (a), (b), (d), (f), and (g) of this order shall be effective at midnight November 20, 1945. Subdivisions (c) and (e) of this order shall be effective at midnight December 15, 1945. If the transportation of any passenger or any merchandise on a vessel which is not entitled to engage in the coastwise trade is not completed on or before midnight November 20, 1945, the orders or parts of orders of the Acting Secretary of the Treasury which are rescinded by subdivisions (a), (b), (f), and (g) of this order will not relieve the vessel of merchandise concerned from the penalties prescribed by section 8 of the act of June 19, 1886, as amended (46 U.S.C. 289) or section 27 of the Merchant Marine Act, 1920, as amended (46 U.S.C. 883). If the towing of any vessel by a vessel which is not entitled to engage in the coastwise trade is not completed on or before midnight November 20, 1945, the part of the order of the Acting Secretary of the Treasury which is rescinded by subdivision (d) of this order will not relieve the towing vessel nor its owner or master from the penalties prescribed by section 4370 of the Revised Statutes, as amended (46 U.S.C. 316). If the towing of any American or Canadian vessel by a Canadian tug is not completed on or before midnight December 15, 1945, the order of the Acting Secretary of the Treasury which is rescinded by subdivision (c) of this order will not relieve the tug nor its owner or master from the penalties prescribed by section 4370 of the Revised Statutes, as amended.

[SEAL] HERBERT E. GASTON,
Acting Secretary of the Treasury.

TITLE 29—LABOR

Chapter II—National Labor Relations Board

PART 203—PROCEDURE UNDER SECTION 9 (c) OF THE ACT FOR THE INVESTIGATION AND CERTIFICATION OF REPRESENTATIVES

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

By virtue of the authority vested in it by the National Labor Relations Act, approved July 5, 1935 (49 Stat. 449), the National Labor Relations Board hereby issues the following amendments to its Rules and Regulations—Series 3, as amended (General Rules and Regulations), which it finds necessary to carry out the provisions of said Act. Said amendments shall become effective upon their signature by the Board, and upon the publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Signed at Washington, D. C., this 27th day of November 1945.

[SEAL] PAUL M. HERZOG,
Chairman.
GERARD D. REILLY,
Member.
JOHN M. HOUSTON,
Member.

Part 203, National Labor Relations Board Rules and Regulations—Series 3, as amended, is hereby further amended as follows:

1. By striking out in the second sentence of § 203.1 of said part the words "the hearing thereon, pursuant to §§ 203.3 and 203.6," and inserting in their stead the words "transfer of the case to the Board, pursuant to § 203.8," and by striking out in the third sentence of said section the words "During the hearing, and thereafter," and inserting in their stead the words "After such transfer." As amended the second and third sentences of § 203.1 shall read as follows:

§ 203.1 Who may file; where to file; withdrawal of petition; form; jurat. * * * Prior to transfer of the case to the Board, pursuant to § 203.8, a petition may be withdrawn only with the consent of the Board or of the regional director with whom such petition was filed. After such transfer, a petition may be withdrawn only with the consent of the Board. * * *

2. By striking out in the first sentence of § 203.3 of said part the words "by issuing a notice of hearing," so that said first sentence of § 203.3 of said part shall read as follows:

§ 203.3 Same; investigation by regional director; definition of parties; notice of hearing; service of notice; withdrawal of notice. After a petition has been filed, if it appears to the regional director that an investigation should be instituted he shall institute such investigation, provided that the regional director shall not institute an investigation on a petition filed by an employer unless it appears to the regional director that two or more labor organizations have presented to the employer conflicting claims that each represents a majority of the employees in the bargaining unit or units claimed to be appropriate. * * *

and by inserting, following the word "appropriate" at the end of the first sentence of said section, the following footnote (to be designated footnote 2):

[2] At any stage of the investigation, either before hearing or after hearing but before transfer of the case to the Board, the regional director may in cases which present no substantial issues, conduct a secret ballot of the employees, or he may decline to continue the investigation.

3. By inserting in the first sentence of § 203.4, following the word "institute," the words "or continue." As amended the first sentence of § 203.4 of Part 203 shall read as follows:

§ 203.4 Appeals to Board by petitioner from action of regional director. If, after a petition has been filed, the regional director declines to institute or continue an investigation, the employee, person, labor organization, or employer filing the petition may obtain a review of such action by filing a request therefor with the Board in Washington, D. C., and filing a copy of such request with the regional director. * * *

4. By inserting in the second sentence of § 203.5, following the words "if made prior to," the words "transfer of the case to the Board but not during." As amended the second sentence of § 203.5 of Part 203 shall read as follows:

§ 203.5 Same; motions; interventions; witnesses; subpenas. * * * Motions to dismiss petitions if made prior to transfer of the case to the Board but not during the hearing, shall be filed with the regional director, and if made during the hearing with the trial examiner, and shall be referred to the Board for appropriate action.

5. By striking out in § 203.8, the words "Upon the close of the hearing the regional director shall," and by inserting in their stead the words, "At any appropriate stage of the investigation following hearing, the regional director may transfer the case to the Board and shall thereupon." As amended, § 203.8 of Part 203 shall read as follows:

§ 203.8 Record; what constitutes; transmission to Board. At any appropriate stage of the investigation following hearing, the regional director may transfer the case to the Board and shall thereupon forward to the Board in Washington, D. C., the petition, notice of hearing, motions, rulings, orders, the stenographic report of the hearing, stipulations, exhibits, documentary evidence, and depositions, all of which shall constitute the record in the proceeding.

6. By striking out, at the end of the second sentence in § 203.9, the words, "the close of the hearing," and by inserting in their stead the words, "notice of transfer of the case to the Board." As amended the second sentence of § 203.9 of Part 203 shall read as follows:

§ 203.9 Proceeding before Board; briefs; further hearing; direction of election; certification of representatives. * * * Should any party desire to file a brief with the Board, the original and three copies thereof shall be filed with the Board at Washington, D. C., within seven days after notice of transfer of the case to the Board. * * *

7. By striking out the first sentence of § 203.10 and inserting in its stead the following sentence:

§ 203.10 Election procedure; tally of the ballots; objections; report on challenged ballots; report on objections; exceptions; action of Board; hearing; contents of record. Unless otherwise directed by the Board, all elections shall be conducted under the supervision of the regional director in whose region the proceeding is pending. * * *

and by inserting at the end of the second paragraph of said section the following footnote (to be designated footnote 3):

[3] This and the subsequent provisions of this section do not apply to elections conducted by the regional director as part of the investigation before hearing (see footnote 2 of this part). In such instances, the regional director, following the election, shall provide for an appropriate hearing upon due notice to all parties, unless it appears to him that the investigation should not be continued; and all issues, including issues with respect to the conduct of the election or conduct affecting the election results and issues raised by challenged ballots, shall be heard at such hearing.

TITLE 32—NATIONAL DEFENSE

Chapter IX—Civilian Production Administration

AUTHORITY: Regulations in this chapter unless otherwise noted at the end of documents affected, issued under sec. 2 (a), 54 Stat. 676, as amended by 55 Stat. 236, 56 Stat. 177, 58 Stat. 827; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, 7 F.R. 527; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; E.O. 9599, 10 F.R. 10155; E.O. 9638, 10 F.R. 12591; CPA Reg. 1, Nov. 5, 1945, 10 F.R. 13714.

PART 944—REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE OPERATION OF THE PRIORITIES SYSTEM

[Priorities Reg. 16, as Amended Nov. 27, 1945]

APPEALS PROCEDURE

§ 944.37 Priorities Regulation 16—(a) What this regulation does. This regulation explains the procedure for appealing from orders, regulations and administrative actions of the Civilian Production Administration, except suspension orders issued on the recommendation of Compliance Commissioners. It also explains how the appeals will be handled by CPA.

(b) Definitions. For purposes of the regulation: "An appeal" means a request for individual relief on the grounds that compliance by the appellant or another would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship which is not suffered generally by others in the same industry or activity, or on the grounds of improper discrimination. It does not include an initial application or initial request for an authorization, a preference rating, an allocation or any other administrative action expressly contemplated by the orders and regulations of CPA. In the absence of exceptional and unreasonable hardship not suffered generally by others or in the absence of improper discrimination an appellant may expect his appeal to be denied. There are two kinds of appeals, and they are defined below:

(1) "Appeal from an order or regulation" means an initial appeal for individual relief from any provision of a published order or regulation (including any published direction, schedule or other supplement to an order or regulation) which applies generally to all persons or to a class of persons described in the order or regulation.

(2) "Appeal from administrative action" means an appeal for reconsideration or modification of CPA action taken with respect to a particular person. Such administrative actions include the issuance of or refusal to issue individual authorizations, directives, preference ratings or quotas. The action of the CPA in granting or denying an initial "appeal from an order or regulation", or in granting or denying an application for an authorization under an order, is an administrative action; so a request for reconsideration of such action on the grounds of hardship or improper discrimination is an "appeal from administrative action".

(c) How appeals are prepared and filed. An appeal not prepared and filed as required below may be returned to the appellant without action.

(1) Number of copies. Unless otherwise specified, all appeals must be filed in triplicate.

(2) Form of appeal. An "appeal from an order or regulation" should refer to the provision appealed from, and must be filed on Form WPB-1477 unless the order or regulation specifies filing upon some other particular form or by letter. An "appeal from administrative action" must (unless otherwise stated in specific instructions) be filed by letter referring to the action appealed from and identifying the initial request by WPB or CPA form number and case number, if any.

(3) Statement of grounds for appeal. The fact that a person is appealing must be stated, and the grounds for claiming exceptional and unreasonable hardship or improper discrimination should be clearly set out.

(4) [Deleted Nov. 27, 1945.]

(5) Request for consideration by the Appeals Board. If the appellant, in the case of an "appeal from administrative action", wants consideration of his appeal by the Appeals Board, he should expressly request in writing its referral to the Appeals Board as further explained in paragraph (e) below.

(d) Where appeals are filed. (1) "Appeals from orders or regulations" must be filed where indicated in the orders or regulations. If there is no indication, such appeals should be addressed to Appeals Routing Unit, Civilian Production Administration, Washington 25, D. C. An exception to this rule is that a person who, in connection with the subject matter of his appeal, is also making an application on any form which he is instructed to file in a field office may, at his election, attach his appeal to the application and file both with the appropriate field office.

(2) An "appeal from administrative action" should be filed at the same place the initial application or "appeal from an order or regulation" was filed, or if the administrative action was based upon neither an application nor an "appeal from an order or regulation" it should be addressed to the Appeals Routing Unit, Civilian Production Administration, Washington 25, D. C. However, any request to reopen a case granted or denied on the recommendation of the Appeals Board may be filed with that Board. Appeals should never be addressed to the Recording Secretary who attests the execution of Civilian Production Administration actions.

(e) Appeals Board. (1) The Appeals Board of the Civilian Production Administration is established as an impartial body primarily to consider "appeals from administrative actions" in cases in which exceptional and unreasonable hardship or improper discrimination is claimed. Any person complaining of administrative action on these grounds may have an "appeal from administrative action" submitted to the Appeals Board for final action if he expressly requests it in writing. On the other hand, the Appeals Board will not normally consider any cases which do not involve these factors or which are not "appeals from administrative actions". It is not its ordinary function to review actions involving judgment as to the proper distribution of materials, programming of military or civilian production and their relative essentiality. If the basis for the appeal is relative essentiality and not a claim of exceptional and unreasonable hardship or improper discrimination no request for referral to the Appeals Board should be made. For further information concerning proceedings before the Appeals Board see Direction 1 to this regulation.

(2) Any "appeal from administrative action" in which exceptional and unreasonable hardship or improper discrimination is claimed, if not granted promptly on the recommendation of the official who took the action appealed from (or an official superior to him) will be referred to the Appeals Board: Provided, That the referral has been expressly requested in writing by the appellant. However, the referral to the Appeals Board will preclude further consideration of the case by such officials on the above grounds, and the decision of the Appeals Board will be final.

(3) [Deleted Oct. 12, 1945.]

(f) Grants and denials of appeals. (1) An "appeal from an order or regulation" will generally be granted or denied on the recommendation of the official administering the order or regulation. When the original administrative action has been taken by a field office of CPA the appeals in certain cases will be sent to Washington. Any "appeal from administrative action" may be granted or denied on the recommendation of the official who took the original action unless referral to the Appeals Board has been requested in writing by the appellant. Any "appeal from administrative action" may be granted or denied on the recommendation of the Appeals Board.

(2) The grant or denial of any appeal in whole or in part will be valid only when issued in the name of the Civilian Production Administration, countersigned or attested by the Recording Secretary, or in accordance with CPA Regulation No. 1 (§ 903.0). The grant or denial of an appeal referred to the Appeals Board will be indicated by a phrase such as "on the recommendation of the Appeals Board".

(3) The denial of any appeal, in whole or in part, on the recommendation of the Appeals Board, is final unless the Appeals Board elects to reopen the matter.

(g) Public files. Whenever an order or another regulation of the Civilian Production Administration expressly so provides, public files containing records relating to the appeals from such orders or regulations or from administrative actions taken under them shall be set up and shall be available for public inspection during the business hours of the Civilian Production Administration.

NOTE: The reporting requirements of this regulation have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 27th day of November 1945.

CIVILIAN PRODUCTION ADMINISTRATION,
By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

ARTICLE VII—GENERAL PROVISIONS

SEC. 7.1 Articles not affected by this order. The provisions of this order do not exempt or suspend from price control articles which are not listed, although such articles may have incorporated in them or be sold with, articles which are exempted or suspended from price control.

SEC. 7.2 Records. Exemption or suspension from price control shall not affect the responsibility of a person to prepare and preserve records which, prior to exemption or suspension, were required to be kept under the provisions of the applicable price regulation or regulations. Records of individual transactions during the period of exemption or suspension need not be kept, unless the exemption or suspension action is accompanied by a provision requiring the keeping of such records.

SEC. 7.3 Relationship between this order and other regulations. The provisions of this supplementary order supersede the provisions of Supplementary Order 45 as to any commodity listed in this order.

Nothing in this order shall apply to sales of any commodities by an eating and drinking establishment for consumption on or about the premises. Such sales remain subject to the appropriate price regulations applicable in the Territories and Possessions.

SEC. 7.4 Definitions for the purpose of this supplementary order. (a) "Person" means an individual, corporation, partnership, association, government agency, or any other organized group of persons or legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing.

(b) "Price regulation" means a price schedule effective in accordance with the provisions of section 206 of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, a maximum price regulation or temporary maximum price regulation issued by the Office of Price Administration, or any order issued pursuant to any such regulation or schedule.

(c) "Canned" means processed and packed in any container whether or not hermetically sealed. It does not include any product when processed by freezing, drying or dehydrating, nor does it include any of the packed products known as preserves, relishes or pickles.

(d) "War procurement agency" means the War Department, the Department of the Navy, the United States Maritime Commission, the War Shipping Administration, the Lend-Lease Section of the Procurement Division of the Treasury Department, and any agency of any of the foregoing.

SEC. 7.5 Geographical applicability. The provisions of this order shall be applicable to purchases, sales and deliveries in the Territories and Possessions of the United States, but not in the Territory of Hawaii.

This Revised Supplementary Order No. 127 shall become effective as of December 3, 1945.

Issued this 27th day of November 1945.

CHESTER BOWLES,
Administrator.

PART 1305—ADMINISTRATION

[SO 131,[1] Amdt. 6]

REVISED MAXIMUM PRICE FOR CERTAIN COTTON TEXTILES

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

Supplementary Order No. 131 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 4 is amended by adding thereto paragraphs (hh) and (ii) to read as follows:

(hh) Woven tickings. (1) In Table VI of § 1316.61 (b) (4) of Revised Price Schedule No. 35,[2] the maximum prices for woven tickings are revised to read as follows (differentials, except jobber's premiums, remain unchanged):

Type of ticking and yards per pound	Higher band	Lower band
	Cents per yard	Cents per yard
Twills:
2.00	27.125	26.375
2.58	22.625	22.00
3.00	20.75	20.125
3.50	18.75	18.125
4.00	16.75	16.375
Sateens:
2.00	32.75	31.875
2.67	25.50	24.875
3.00	22.625	22.00

(2) The seller's maximum price for woven tickings established by § 1400.101 (b) (2) of Maximum Price Regulation 118[3] is increased for the higher band by 16.82% and for the lower band by 13.67%.

(ii) Ginghams, seersuckers and related fabrics. The maximum prices for ginghams, seersuckers and other fabrics described in § 1400.118 (d) (10) (iii) of Maximum Price Regulation No. 118,[4] and the maximum prices for fabrics of the types there described and established prior to November 26, 1945 by in-lining and reporting pursuant to § 1400.101 (b) (1) (ii), are increased for the higher band by 13.62% and for the lower band by 10.34%.

2. In sections 4 (z) (2) and (3), wherever the phrase "per lb." appears, it is deleted.

This amendment shall become effective November 26, 1945.

Issued this 26th day of November 1945.

CHESTER BOWLES,
Administrator.

PART 1316—COTTON TEXTILES

[RPS 35,[1] Amdt. 30]

CARDED GREY AND COLORED-YARN COTTON GOODS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this Amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

Table VI of Revised Price Schedule No. 35 is amended in the following respects:

1. In subdivision (viii) and in the caption thereof the word "jobbers" is changed to "wholesalers".

2. Subdivision (ix) is amended to read as follows:

(ix) Sales by wholesalers. Except as provided in (x) below, no producer of tickings and no person or concern controlling, controlled by, or under common control with the producer of tickings, shall be eligible to charge for tickings the wholesaler's maximum prices set forth in section 2.7 (q) of Supplementary Regulation No. 14E.[2]

3. Subdivision (x) is amended to read as follows:

(x) Special premium for producer-wholesaler. Wm. Whitaker & Sons, Philadelphia, Pa., may charge, in addition to the prices and differentials set forth above, a premium of 10.7% for plain twills and 15% for fancy twills and sateens.

This amendment shall become effective November 26, 1945.

Issued this 26th day of November 1945.

CHESTER BOWLES,
Administrator.

[FPR 2, Amdt. 3 to Supp. 6]

GRAIN SORGHUMS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

Section 12 of Supplement No. 6 to Food Products Regulation No. 2 is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 12. Limitations on total markups of country shippers and merchandisers, and on service charges of commission merchants and brokers which may be included in a maximum price. Except for the markups provided in section 9 (b), 9 (c) (2) and 10 (b) (4), and the elevation charges provided in section 13 (b) of this supplement, the total of all markups and service charges provided for country shippers, merchandisers, commission merchants or brokers under the provisions of this supplement or under the provisions of Food Products Regulation No. 2 are subject to the limitations set forth below.

(a) The maximum price for the sale of any lot of grain sorghums shall never include an amount in excess of 16 cents per hundred as a total of all merchandising markups and of all service charges for brokers and commission merchants, but this maximum of 16 cents per hundred shall be subject to the further zoning limitations as to transactions in zones 1 and 2.

(1) If you are the first purchaser in Zone 1 of a carload quantity of grain sorghums originating or which have originated in Zone 2, on the sale to you such total shall not exceed 5 cents per

(2) When grain sorghums are delivered to anyone in Zone 1, except as provided in (1) above, such total shall not exceed 11 cents per hundred.

(3) If you are the first purchaser in Zone 2 of a carload quantity of grain sorghums originating in Zone 1, or of grain sorghums which has been marketed in Zone 1 previously, on the sale to you such total shall not exceed 11 cents per hundred: Provided, That this zoning limitation shall not apply to sales in Zone 2 by a selling office located in Zone 2 of a merchandiser otherwise entitled to a greater markup under section 2.5 of Food Products Regulation No. 2.

These are limitations on the total of markups and service charges which may be included in any maximum price. They may lessen, but will never increase, the amount of any single maximum markup or maximum service charge.

(b) As used in this section, "Zone 1" includes the states of Louisiana, Texas, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Missouri, Kansas and Colorado, and in addition, the cities of Vicksburg, Mississippi; Memphis, Tennessee; and Cairo and East St. Louis, Illinois.

As used in this section, "Zone 2" includes the District of Columbia and all states not included in Zone 1 as described above.

This amendment shall become effective December 3, 1945.

Issued this 27th day of November 1945.

PART 1389—APPAREL

[2d Rev. MPR 578,[1] Amdt. 2]

MAXIMUM PRICES FOR CERTAIN ESSENTIAL LOW PRICED GARMENTS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

Second Revised Maximum Price Regulation 578 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1 (b) is amended by deleting the word "This" from the first sentence of the first undesignated paragraph and inserting in its place the words "Except for sales excluded by paragraph (c) of this section, this."

2. Section 1 is amended by changing the designation of paragraph "(c)" to "(d)" and adding a new paragraph (c) to read as follows:

(c) What sales are excluded—(1) Sales by house-to-house sellers. This regulation does not apply to sales by a "house-to-house seller." A "house-to-house seller" means a retailer who in the year 1944 secured at least 75% of his dollar volume of business through the personal solicitation of orders by salesmen calling at the homes or places of business of ultimate consumers, who are not commercial, industrial or institutional users. A retailer is a "house-to-house seller" only with respect to articles delivered other than as a manufacturing-retailer and pursuant to orders which had been solicited in the manner stated above.

(2) Certain sales by mail order establishments. This regulation does not apply to sales of garments sold in substantially the same form as purchased by a "mail order establishment" pursuant to orders based upon any catalogs, booklets, circulars or other forms of printed price lists which were printed before October 19, 1945. A "mail order establishment" means a person who regularly makes deliveries by mail to individual ultimate consumers in filling orders received by mail on the basis of catalogs, booklets, circulars or other forms of printed price lists.

3. Section 6 (e) is amended to read as follows:

(e) Special marking provisions for retailers and wholesalers. If a manufacturer has failed to mark the garments as required by this section, this required marking must be made by the retailer. A wholesaler who breaks the package shipped to him or who has reason to know the marking requirements have not been fulfilled, must mark the garment to conform to the marking required under this section.

4. Section 6 (f) is added to read as follows:

(f) Exemption of garments sold through mail order establishments. The marking requirements of this section do not apply to garments which are sold to, or by, mail order establishments (as defined in Section 1 (c) (2)).

5. The first two undesignated paragraphs of Appendix C are amended to read as follows:

APPENDIX C—WOOL GARMENTS

This appendix lists the cut-off prices for garments made of woolen or worsted fabrics. Any garment sold or delivered by the manufacturer or manufacturing-retailer at or below the net price listed in this appendix is covered by this regulation at all levels of distribution.

For purposes of this regulation a garment is considered to be made of woolen or worsted fabric if 50% or more of the yardage incorporated in the garment (exclusive of linings, bindings, and trimmings) is fabric containing 25% or more, by weight, of new, reprocessed or reused wool fiber.

6. The table in Appendix C is amended by deleting the words "knitted or woven" appearing in parentheses after the headings "Snow or skisuits", "Legging sets or coat and ski pants sets" and "Separate ski pants."

This amendment shall become effective December 3, 1945.

Issued this 27th day of November 1945.

Administrator.

PART 1420—BREWERY, DISTILLERY AND WINERY PRODUCTS

[MPR 445,[1] Amdt. 36]

DISTILLED SPIRITS AND WINES

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

Maximum Price Regulation 445 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 6.3 (c) (2) is amended to read as follows:

(2) Packaging and casing domestic distilled spirits: A maximum price determined under section 4 (a) or 4 (b), as the case may be, of Revised Maximum Price Regulation 165 or the maximum price set forth below, whichever is higher.

Case of 12 quarts	$1.50
Case of 12 4/5 quarts	1.50
Case of 15 4/5 quarts	1.88
Case of 24 4/5 pints	2.10
Case of 24 pints	2.10
Case of 48 ½ pints	2.85
3 1 gallons	1.00
4 1 gallons	1.15
240 1/10 pint miniatures	6.50
192 1/10 pint miniatures	5.20
144 1/10 pint miniatures	3.90
72 1/10 pint miniatures	1.95

NOTE: Prices specified above include cost of strip stamps and their affixation as well as any other costs incurred in connection with the service of packaging and casing.

This amendment shall become effective December 3, 1945.

Issued this 27th day of November 1945.

PART 1499—COMMODITIES AND SERVICES

[SR 14E,[1] Amdt. 16]

MODIFICATION OF MAXIMUM PRICES ESTABLISHED BY GENERAL MAXIMUM PRICE REGULATION FOR CERTAIN TEXTILES, LEATHER AND APPAREL

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this Amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

Section 2.7 is amended in the following respects:

1. Paragraph (q) is added to read as follows:

(q) Maximum prices for woven tickings. (1) This paragraph applies to sales at wholesale of woven (as distinguished from printed) tickings.

(2) As used in this paragraph the term "primary wholesaler" means a wholesaler who purchases woven tickings from a producer, and "secondary wholesaler" means a wholesaler who purchases woven tickings from a primary wholesaler and not from any producer.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs (a) (2) and (a) (3) and paragraph (p), deliveries of woven tickings in any calendar month by a primary wholesaler to secondary wholesalers which aggregate not more than 2% of the total yardage of woven tickings delivered by the primary wholesaler to all his customers during the preceding calendar month shall be deemed to be in the performance of a recognized distributive function.[2]

(4) The maximum price for sales at wholesale by a primary wholesaler shall be the seller's net cost of the product as billed to him by his supplier (not to exceed the producer's ceiling less available cash discount) increased by the applicable multiplier set forth in subparagraph (6) below.

(5) The maximum price for woven tickings purchased from a primary wholesaler and sold at wholesale by a secondary wholesaler shall be the seller's net cost of the product as billed to him by his supplier increased by the applicable multiplier set forth in subparagraph (6) below.

(6) The multipliers set forth in this subparagraph (6) shall be applicable to the following types of woven tickings:

Type of woven tickings	Multiplier
Tickings made in weaves requiring a jacquard loom	1.25
Sateen tickings and tickings made in weaves which do not require a jacquard loom but which contain more than one color (other than white or grey warp or colored selvage)	1.15
All other woven tickings	1.107

Where shipment of woven tickings, other than tickings made in weaves requiring a jacquard loom, is made from any wholesaler's warehouse in assortments requiring repackaging, the wholesaler may charge an additional 4.35%: Provided, That in such cases the wholesaler shall, without charge, deliver the goods to the place of business of local customers or, in the case of other customers, to the carrier. As used herein the term "local customer" means a customer whose place of business is located in the same metropolitan area as the wholesaler.

2. Paragraph (b) (6) (iv) is added to read as follows:

(iv) Woven tickings.

This amendment shall become effective November 26, 1945.

Issued this 26th day of November 1945.

CHESTER BOWLES,
Administrator.

PART 1400—TEXTILE FABRICS: COTTON, WOOL, SILK, SILK SYNTHETICS AND ADMIXTURES

[MPR 127,[1] Incl. Amdts. 1–37]

FINISHED PIECE GOODS

This compilation of Maximum Price Regulation 127 includes Amendment 37, effective December 3, 1945. The text added or amended by Amendment 37 is underscored.

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, the prices of finished piece goods have risen to an extent and in a manner inconsistent with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942. The Price Administrator has ascertained and given due consideration to the prices of finished piece goods prevailing between October 1 and October 15, 1941, and has made adjustments for such relevant factors as he has determined and deemed to be of general applicability. So far as practicable, the Price Administrator has advised and consulted with representative members of the industry which will be affected by this regulation.

In the judgment of the Price Administrator the maximum prices established by this regulation are and will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of said Act. A statement of the considerations[2] involved in the issuance of this regulation has been prepared, issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

Such specifications and standards as are used in this regulation or schedule were, prior to such use, in general use in the trade or industry affected or have previously been promulgated and their use lawfully required by another government agency.

[Preamble amended by Supplementary Order No. 71, 8 F.R. 12556, effective 9-11-43]

AUTHORITY: §§ 1400.71 to 1400.85, inclusive, issued under 56 Stat. 23, 765; 57 Stat. 566; Pub. Law 383, 78th Cong.; Pub. Law 108, 79th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871; E.O. 9328, 8 F.R. 4681; E.O. 9599, 10 F.R. 10155.

§ 1400.71 Maximum prices for finished piece goods. On and after May 4, 1942, regardless of any contract, agreement, lease, or other obligation, no person shall sell or deliver finished piece goods, and no person shall buy or receive finished piece goods in the course of trade or business, at prices higher than the maximum prices set forth in Appendix A hereof, incorporated herein as § 1400.82; and no person shall agree, offer, solicit or attempt to do any of the foregoing. The provisions of this section shall not be applicable to sales or deliveries of finished piece goods to a purchaser if prior to May 4, 1942 such finished piece goods had been received by a carrier, other than a carrier owned or controlled by the seller, for shipment to such purchaser, or if within the terms of the Worth Street Rules title to such finished piece goods had passed to the purchaser prior to May 4, 1942.

[NOTE: Supplementary Order No. 7 (7 F.R. 5176) provides that war procurement agencies and governments whose defense is vital to the defense of the United States shall be relieved of liability, civil or criminal, imposed by price regulations issued by the Office of Price Administration.]

§ 1400.72 Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than those set forth in Appendix A (§ 1400.82) may be charged, demanded, paid or offered.

§ 1400.73 Conditional agreements. No seller of finished piece goods shall enter into an agreement permitting the adjustment of the prices to prices which may be higher than the maximum prices provided by § 1400.82, in the event that this Maximum Price Regulation No. 127 is amended or is determined by a court to be invalid or upon any other contingency: Provided, That if a petition for amendment (or for adjustment or for exception under § 1400.82 (i) (3)) has been duly filed, and such petition requires extensive consideration, and the Administrator determines that an exception would be in the public interest pending such consideration, the Administrator may grant an exception from the provisions of this section permitting the making of contracts adjustable upon the granting of the petition for amendment (or for adjustment or exception, as the case may be). Requests for such an exception may be included in the aforesaid petition for amendment (or for adjustment or for exception under § 1400.82 (i) (3)).

§ 1400.74 Evasion. The price limitations set forth in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 127 shall not be evaded, whether by direct or indirect methods, in connection with an offer, solicitation, agreement, sale, delivery, purchase or receipt of or relating to finished piece goods, alone or in conjunction with any other commodity or by way of commission, service, transportation, or other charge, or discount, premium or other privilege, or by tying-agreement or other trade understanding, or otherwise.

§ 1400.75 Records. (a) On and after May 4, 1942, every person making a purchase, sale or delivery of finished piece goods in the course of trade or business, or otherwise dealing in finished piece goods shall keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration, for a period of not less than two years, complete and accurate records of each such purchase, sale, or delivery, showing the date thereof, the terms of sale, the name and address of the buyer or seller, the price paid or received, and the quantity of each type, quality and finish of finished piece goods purchased or sold, and including (in the case of the seller) a record of all items necessary to verify the computation of the maximum price for the finished piece goods.

(b) Persons required to submit reports under § 1400.76 shall, in addition to the records required above, keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration, for a period of not less than two years, complete and accurate records of all items necessary to verify such reports.

§ 1400.76 Reports. (a) Persons subject to this Maximum Price Regulation No. 127 shall submit such reports as the Office of Price Administration may from time to time require.

§ 1400.77 Details required in contract of sale or invoice. (a) Every seller of finished piece goods shall, with respect to each sale thereof, deliver to the purchaser and the purchaser shall retain as a part of his records, either a contract of sale or an invoice which shall contain, in addition to the terms thereof, a full description of each type, quality and finish of finished piece goods sold, or a style number or symbol sufficient to identify in the seller's records maintained pursuant to § 1400.75 hereof, the full details of the construction so delivered.

(b) If the seller is the converter of the fabric sold, the contract of sale or invoice shall contain a statement of the division factors (as specified in § 1400.82 (g)) used in determining the maximum price.

[Paragraph (b) amended by Am. 26, 9 F.R. 14014, effective 12-3-44]

(c) If the seller is a wholesaler, jobber or converter-jobber selling jobbed goods, the contract of sale or invoice shall contain:

(1) If the purchaser is a person other than a wholesaler, jobber, converter-jobber or export merchant, a statement of the division factor used in computing the selling price or a statement that the net selling price does not exceed the maximum price permitted under Maximum Price Regulation No. 127;

(2) If the purchaser is a wholesaler, jobber, converter-jobber, or export merchant, a statement showing:

(i) The selling price; and

(ii) The exact maximum price which the seller would be entitled to charge Class I and Class II purchasers.

[§ 1400.77 amended by Am. 2, 7 F.R. 4180, effective 6-3-42]

§ 1400.78 Exempt sales. The provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 127 shall not apply to the following:

(a) Sales at retail.

(b) Sales of:

(1) Finished piece goods by decorative goods jobbers.

(2) Ecclesiastical fabrics by a producer or converter thereof.

(3) Method for refinished contractor inventory [13] finished piece goods. Notwithstanding any other provision of this section the maximum net selling price f. o. b. point of shipment [12] for finished piece goods made from contractor inventory finished piece goods shall be determined by the following three steps:

Step A. Determine the sum of items 1, 2, 3, and 4 listed below and divide that sum by .915 if the sale is to a Class I purchaser or by .885 if the sale is to a Class II purchaser.

Step B. Divide item 5 listed below by .95.

Step C. Add together the results arrived at in Step A and Step B.

(1) Basic contractor inventory [13] finished piece goods cost, which is the actual sum paid for the goods and shall not exceed the maximum price determined in accordance with Order No. 1 under Supplementary Order No. 130. A producer refinishing his own contractor inventory finished piece goods shall use the maximum price determined pursuant to Order No. 1 under Supplementary Order No. 130.

(2) Contractor inventory finished piece goods freight, which is the actual transportation cost paid in transporting the finished piece goods to the plant where the refinishing process is begun.

(3) Working allowance, determined in accordance with paragraph (d) of this section.

(4) Put-up charges, determined in accordance with paragraph (f) of this section.

(5) Finishing cost, determined in accordance with paragraph (e) of this section.

[Subparagraph (3) added by Am. 36, 10 F.R. 12261, effective 9-26-45]

(4) Method where ceiling for grey goods has been increased by individual adjustment. Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, the maximum net selling price, f. o. b. point of shipment," for finished piece goods made from grey goods for which an adjusted ceiling price has been granted to the seller individually under the provisions of any supplementary order (except Supplementary Order No. 9) shall be the higher of the following two alternatives:

(i) The maximum price computed in accordance with subparagraph (1) above, without regard to any individual adjustment of the maximum price for the grey goods; or

(ii) The maximum price computed in accordance with subparagraph (1) above, with the basic grey goods cost and working allowance computed from the individually adjusted maximum price for the grey goods: Provided, That in the case of finished piece goods sold by the producer the basic grey goods cost and working allowance so arrived at shall be reduced by 4 per cent unless the producer has been granted an individually adjusted grey goods maximum price expressly designated for use in determining his maximum price for finished piece goods under this regulation.

(5) Method for refinished surplus finished piece goods.[14] Notwithstanding any other provision of this section the maximum net selling price f. o. b. point of shipment [12] for finished piece goods made from surplus finished piece goods shall be determined by the following three steps:

Step A. Determine the sum of items 1, 2, 3, and 4 listed below and divide that sum by .915 if the sale is to a Class I purchaser or by .885 if the sale is to a Class II purchaser.

Step B. Divide item 5 listed below by .95.

Step C. Add together the results arrived at in Step A and Step B.

(1) Basic surplus finished goods cost, which must not exceed the actual sum paid to a government agency [14] for the surplus finished piece goods.[14]

(2) The surplus finished piece goods freight, which is the actual transportation paid in transporting the surplus finished piece goods from the place they were stored at the time of purchase from the government agency to the finishing plant where the finishing process is begun.

(3) Working allowance, determined in accordance with paragraph (d) of this section.

(4) Put up charges, determined in accordance with paragraph (f) of this section.

(5) Finishing cost, determined in accordance with paragraph (e) of this section.

[Subparagraphs (2), (4) and (5) added by Am. 34, 10 F.R. 11148, effective 8-28-45]

(b) Basic grey goods cost. (1) Except as otherwise specifically provided in this paragraph and in paragraph (d) of this section, the basic grey goods cost to be used in determining the maximum price for finished piece goods shall be no higher than the established maximum price therefor on the day the contract for the sale of finished piece goods is made, or on the day the goods enter into the finishing process, whichever is earlier.

[Subparagraph (1) amended by Am. 6, 7 F.R. 5364, effective 7-14-42]

(2) For persons, commonly called vertical organizations, customarily engaged in processing their own goods or goods owned by subsidiaries or affiliates, the basic grey goods cost to be used in computing the maximum price under paragraph (a) shall be determined as follows:

(i) For grey or partially finished goods acquired from an outside source other than a subsidiary or affiliate, the basic grey goods cost shall be computed in accordance with subparagraph (1) above.

(ii) For grey goods produced by such person or by a subsidiary or affiliate, for which maximum prices are established by Maximum Price Regulation No. 11,[15] Revised Price Schedule No. 35, or Revised Price Schedule No. 23, as Amended,[16] the basic grey goods cost shall be no higher than the established maximum price therefor on the day the contract for the sale of finished piece goods is made, or on the day the goods enter into the finishing process, whichever is earlier.

[Subparagraph (ii) amended by Am. 11, 8 F.R. 4851, effective 4-19-43]

(iii) For any other grey goods produced by such person or by a subsidiary or affiliate,[17] the basic grey goods cost shall be no higher than the maximum price which would be applicable for a sale of such grey goods to a converter on the day the contract for the sale of finished piece goods is made, or on the day the goods enter into the finishing process, whichever is earlier.

[Subparagraph (2) amended by Am. 2, 7 F.R. 4180, effective 6-3-42]

(3) For finished piece goods which are produced from grey goods manufactured in and imported from a foreign country, the basic grey goods cost shall be:

(i) Where such goods (a) are produced from grey goods imported by the converter pursuant to a contract with the foreign seller or his agent entered into prior to November 10, 1943, and (b) are delivered to the purchaser on or before January 19, 1944, no higher than the actual landed duty paid cost of the grey goods;

(ii) In all other cases (except as provided in paragraph (w) of this section) no higher than the lower of (a) the maximum price which would be applicable to the grey goods if manufactured in the United States and sold to the converter on the day the contract for the sale of the finished piece goods is made or on the day the goods enter into the finishing process, whichever is earlier, or (b) the landed duty paid cost of the grey goods.

[Subparagraph (3) amended by Am. 2, 7 F.R. 4180, effective 6-3-42; and Am. 15, 8 F.R. 16797, effective 12-20-43]

(4) If for any reason the basic grey goods cost cannot be determined under subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph, then the basic grey goods cost shall be no higher than the established maximum price for such grey goods on July 14, 1942.

[Subparagraph (4) amended by Am. 6, 7 F.R. 5364, effective 7-14-42]

(5) [Revoked]

[Subparagraph (5) revoked by Am. 6, 7 F.R. 5364, effective 7-14-42; new (5) added by Am. 22, 9 F.R. 10088, effective 6-30-44 and revoked by Am. 26, 9 F.R. 14014, effective 12-3-44]

(6) Finished duck. (i) As used in this subparagraph the term "finished duck" means finished piece goods made from any of the types of duck in the grey listed in § 1400.118 (d) (8) of Maximum Price Regulation No. 118, Cotton Products.

(ii) Notwithstanding any other provision of this regulation, in determining the maximum price of finished duck which either entered the finishing process or was sold prior to December 6, 1944, and delivered after January 2, 1945, the seller may use as the basic grey goods cost the revised ceiling prices for duck in the grey which became effective December 6, 1944: Provided, That the maximum price so determined shall in no event exceed the contract price in the case of contracts of sale made prior to December 6, 1944.

[Subparagraph (6) added by Am. 27, 10 F.R. 412, effective 1-3-45]

(7) Notwithstanding any other provision of this paragraph (b), for grey goods produced by another person and delivered to a converter at a time when such grey goods are exempt from price control, the converter shall use as his basic grey goods cost the sum actually paid for such grey goods.

[Subparagraph (7) added by Am. 29, 10 F.R. 3093, effective 3-27-45]

(8) In the case of finished piece goods containing 75 per cent or more of cotton by weight, the basic grey goods cost shall be the established maximum price for the grey goods in effect on June 1, 1945, unless a previous provision of this section requires it to be lower.

[Subparagraph (8) added by Am. 35, 10 F.R. 11896, effective 9-17-45]

(c) Grey freight. (1) Subject to the other provisions of this paragraph (c), the grey freight which may be included in computing the maximum price under paragraph (a) of this section shall be no higher than actual transportation charges paid by the seller of the finished piece goods (not absorbed by the finisher) incurred in transporting the basic grey goods to the finishing plant where the finishing process is begun.

(2) In the event the grey goods are transported in a conveyance owned or operated by the converter, or the finisher, or by a person controlling, controlled by, or under common control with the converter or the finisher, and the charges are not absorbed by the finisher, the freight charge shall not exceed the charge which would be applicable to an identical shipment from the same point of shipment to the same receiving point at the lowest available commercial transportation rate.

(3) Where goods are shipped from the grey goods mill to a point other than the finishing plant where the finishing process is begun, only the actual freight (which is not absorbed by the finisher) incurred in the final shipment from such other point to the finishing plant where the finishing process is begun may be used in determining the maximum price under paragraph (a) of this section.

(4) Where goods are trans-shipped from one finishing plant to another (after the goods are partially or wholly finished), the freight charges on such trans-shipments shall not be included in computing the maximum price under paragraph (a) of this section: Provided, (i) That if partially finished goods are trans-shipped from one finishing plant to another for the purpose of screen printing, flock printing, lacquer printing, embossing, or moireing at the second plant, then the freight charges on such trans-shipment may be included in computing the maximum price under paragraph (a) of this section; (ii) That the foregoing limitation shall not apply to the extent that the contrary is expressly provided elsewhere in this regulation.

[Subparagraph (4) amended by Am. 13, 8 F.R. 12935, effective 9-27-43; and Am. 17, 9 F.R. 1906, effective 2-23-44]

(5) For the purpose of determining a grey freight charge in order to quote prices for and make sales of finished piece goods in advance of actual shipment of the grey goods a seller of finished piece goods may use the following allowance for grey freight:

(i) Grey goods containing more than 50% cotton by weight. For shipments from any point in Zone I [18] to any point in Zone II [19] or shipments from any point in Zone II to any point in Zone I, an allowance of 55¢ per hundred pounds less any inward freight allowance made by the finisher; for shipments from any point in Zone I to a point in Zone I or for shipments from any point in Zone II to a point in Zone II, an allowance of 20¢ per hundred pounds, less any inward freight allowance made by the finisher.

(ii) Grey goods containing 50% cotton or less by weight. For shipments from any point in Zone I to any point in Zone II or for shipments from any point in Zone II to any point in Zone I, an allowance of 85¢ per hundred pounds less any inward freight allowance made by the finisher; for shipments from any point in Zone I to a point in Zone I, or for shipments from any point in Zone II to a point in Zone II, an allowance of 25¢ per hundred pounds, less any inward freight allowance made by the finisher: Provided, That in all cases where a forward sale is made upon the basis provided herein, the price may not be subsequently altered after an actual determination of grey freight charges has been made.

[Paragraph (c) amended by Am. 2, 7 F.R. 4180, effective 6-3-42]

(6) For the purpose of determining the grey freight which may be included in computing the maximum price for finished goods produced from imported grey goods the port of entry in the continental United States shall be deemed the point of shipment.

[Subparagraph (6) added by Am. 15, 8 F.R. 16797, effective 12-20-43]

[NOTE: Supplementary Order No. 31 (7 F.R. 9894; 8 F.R. 1312, 3702, 9521) provides that: "Notwithstanding the provisions of any price regulation, the tax on transportation of all property (excepting coal) imposed by section 620 of the Revenue Act of 1942 shall, for purposes of determining the applicable maximum price of any commodity or service, be treated as though it were an increase of 3% in the amount charged by every person engaged in the business of transporting property for hire. It shall not be treated, under any provision of any price regulation or any interpretation thereof, as a tax for which a charge may be made in addition to the maximum price."]

(d) Working allowance—(1) Except as provided in subparagraphs (3) and (4) of this paragraph, the working allowance which may be used in determining the maximum price under paragraph (a) of this section shall be the actual figure specified by the finisher in his contract: Provided, That if the working allowance specified in the contract shall exceed the actual shrinkage of the fabric by more than 2%, then such actual shrinkage plus such 2% tolerance shall constitute the maximum working allowance to be used in determining the maximum price for the finished piece goods.

In the event that there is a net yardage gain as a result of the finishing process, such gain must be deducted from the basic grey goods cost under paragraph (b) of this section.

[11] Existing Contracts: Notwithstanding any other provision of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 127, for finished piece goods delivered on or before January 2, 1945, against a firm contract entered into in conformity with this regulation prior to November 15, 1944, the contract price may be charged.

[12] Where a converter or a subsidiary or affiliate of a converter, sells converted goods from a point of shipment which is located outside of the Atlantic Seaboard States, and the finishing operations with respect to such goods are performed in any of such Atlantic Seaboard States, the seller may add to the otherwise applicable maximum price the actual transportation charges incurred in bringing the finished piece goods to such point of shipment. If the goods are transported to such point of shipment in a conveyance other than a common carrier, the charge shall not exceed the charge which would be applicable in an identical shipment at the lowest available commercial transportation rate.

[13] The term "contractor inventory" is defined in Supplementary Order No. 130.

[14] Defined in paragraph (y) of this section.

[15] 9 F.R. 2661, 3577, 4879, 5162, 11531, 12020, 13056.

[16] 7 F.R. 2899, 2966, 2945, 3242, 3481, 6771.

[17] This includes, but is not limited to, grey goods which would, if sold, be subject to Maximum Price Regulation No. 118—Cotton Products.

[18] Zone I shall consist of the New England States, New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland, Ohio, Indiana and Michigan, and the District of Columbia.

[19] Zone II shall consist of all other states.

(2) [Revoked]

[Subparagraph (1) amended, and (2) revoked by Am. 26, 9 F.R. 14014, effective 12-3-44]

(3) For vertical organizations. For persons, commonly called vertical organizations, customarily engaged in processing their own goods or goods owned by subsidiaries or affiliates, the working allowance used in determining the maximum price under paragraph (a) of this section shall not exceed the allowance which would be applicable had the finishing operation been performed by an independent finisher.

(4) For any new construction or for any new finishing process. The working allowance for any new construction or for any new finishing process may be determined in a preliminary manner from the actual yield of a carefully controlled lot of not less than 1,000 yards of the finished goods: Provided, That the working allowance to be used in determining the maximum price for the finished piece goods shall not exceed the shrinkage determined by the actual yield of the first 10,000 yards of finished fabric.

(e) Finishing cost. Subject to the following provisions, the finishing cost shall be the price specified in the finishing contract and actually paid by the seller of the finished goods and shall not include any finishing costs incurred by any person prior to the acquisition of the goods by such seller.

(1) If the price specified in the finishing contract is made on a "silk basis" or a "store door delivered basis", (i. e., including put up and delivery charges) then such price shall, for the purpose of determining the appropriate division factor, be reduced by ¼¢ per yard: Provided, That the total finishing cost may be included in the final computation of the maximum price for the finished piece goods.

(2) If the price specified in the finishing contract is made on a "cotton basis" (that is, f. o. b. finishing plant) such price, exclusive of charges for cases, papers and tubes, shall, for the purposes of determining the appropriate division factor, constitute the finishing cost.

(3) [Revoked]

[Subparagraph (3) revoked by Am. 10, 8 F.R. 3057, effective 3-18-43]

(4) (i) Where fabrics are printed both face and back, whether register-printed or not, the finishing cost which may be used in determining the appropriate division factor under paragraph (g) of this section shall be 75% of the price specified in the finishing contract and actually paid by the converter: Provided, That the full cost of such printing may be included in the final computation of the maximum price for the finished piece goods.

[Above text designated (i) and (ii) added by Am. 17, 9 F.R. 1906, effective 2-23-44]

(ii) Where fabrics are printed in such a manner that, if by cutting off the edge (or edges) of the fabric which has (or have) been printed, more than 80 percent of the original width of the finished fabric could be retained intact in unprinted form, the cost of such printing shall not be included in the finishing cost unless it can be demonstrated that the print design serves a bona fide decorative or functional purpose and prior certification to this effect has been obtained from the Office of Price Administration, Washington 25, D. C.

(5) For persons, commonly called vertical organizations, customarily engaged in processing their own goods or goods owned by subsidiaries or affiliates, the finishing cost used in determining the appropriate division factor under paragraph (g) of this section shall not exceed the amount which such persons are entitled to charge under Maximum Price Regulation No. 128[30] Processing Piece Goods: Provided, That if such persons have finishing operations performed by independent finishers, the finishing cost shall be determined in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this section.

(6) Extra charges actually made for special folding such as doubling and rolling and book fold, may be included in the finishing cost for the purpose of determining the division factor and the maximum price: Provided, That if such special folding is done by a person other than the person performing the finishing operations, the amount which may be included shall be no more than ¼¢ per yard.

[Subparagraph (6) added by Am. 2, 7 F.R. 4180, effective 6-3-42]

(7) For the purposes of subparagraph (8) below, the cost of each type of processing referred to therein shall be:

(i) In the case of goods finished by a person independent of the converter, the price of such processing as specified in the finishing contract or invoice;

(ii) In the case of goods finished by the converter or by a subsidiary or affiliate of the converter, the price which such person is entitled to charge for such processing under Maximum Price Regulation No. 128 (Processing Piece Goods).

[Subparagraph (7) added by Am. 17, 9 F.R. 1906, effective 2-23-44]

(8) Special limitations on use of entire finishing cost. Certain finishing expenses are to be treated in a special manner as explained in subdivision (i) below. These expenses, which are called "excess finishing cost," are listed in subdivision (ii).

[Above subparagraph amended by Am. 26, 9 F.R. 14014, effective 12-3-44]

(i) How to treat "excess finishing cost". "Excess finishing cost" shall not be included in the finishing cost to which the appropriate division factor (pursuant to Step C in paragraph (a) of this section) is applied, but it may be included in the figure to which the terms factor is applied.

[Subparagraph (i) amended by Am. 26, 9 F.R. 14014, effective 12-3-44]

(ii) What is "excess finishing cost." "Excess finishing cost" means the following:

(a) Where cotton goods, other than "better cotton wash fabrics,"[31] have been roller-printed, any printing cost[32] in excess of the printing cost which would be applicable to a 15,000-yard run of the pattern.

(b) Where rayon goods[33] have been roller-printed, any printing cost[32] in excess of the printing cost which would be applicable to a 6,000-yard run of the pattern.

(c) [Revoked]

(d) [Revoked]

(e) [Revoked]

(f) The cost of applying any finish other than white or dyed to the goods listed below:

(1) Cross-dye fabrics, which means fabrics woven with two or more different synthetic yarns or with a mixture of natural and synthetic yarns;

(2) Yarn-dyed or stock-dyed fabrics, which means fabrics in which any part of the warp and/or the filling is yarn-dyed or stock-dyed.

(3) Synthetic combination crepes, which means fabrics made entirely of synthetic yarns and

(i) Composed entirely or in part of plied crepe-twist or plied voile-twist yarns, or

(ii) Composed entirely of crepe-twist or voile-twist yarns combined with unconverted rayon yarn and/or spun rayon yarn.

(g) Any finishing cost in excess of the following:[34]

Finished piece goods priced under:	Finishing cost (cents per linear yard)
Table I and Ia (white and dyed)	14
Table I and Ia (printed other than screen printed)	14
Table I and Ia (screen printed)	20
Table II (white and dyed)	17
Table II (printed other than screen printed)	17
Table II (screen printed)	24

[Subparagraphs (c), (d) and (e) revoked; (f) and (g) added by Am. 26, 9 F.R. 14014, effective 12-3-44]

(iii) [Revoked]

[Subdivision (iii) revoked by Am. 26, 9 F.R. 14014, effective 12-3-44]

(iv) Existing contracts. Notwithstanding any provision of this subparagraph (8), for goods delivered on or before March 23, 1944 against a firm contract entered into in conformity with this regulation prior to February 17, 1944, the contract price may be charged.

[Subparagraph (8) added by Am. 17, 9 F.R. 1906, effective 2-23-44]

(f) Put-up charges. (1) Except as provided in subparagraph (3) of this paragraph, the put-up charges which may be used under paragraph (a) (5) of this section shall include only the charges for papers, boards, tubes and packing cases and, in the case of sales for export, the charges for export packing. In no event (except for export sales) shall charges for wooden shells be included in such computation.

(2) For persons, commonly called vertical organizations, customarily engaged in processing their own goods or goods owned by subsidiaries or affiliates, the put-up charges used under paragraph (a) (5) of this section in determining the maximum price for finished piece goods shall not exceed the charges which would be applicable had such services been performed and such material furnished by an independent finisher.

(3) Where the finishing cost is on a "cotton basis," a seller of finished piece goods may, for the purpose of determining a put-up charge as defined in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, in order to quote prices for and make sales of finished piece goods in advance of actual production thereof, use a put-up charge of .0020 per yard: Provided, That in all cases where a forward sale is made upon the basis provided herein, the price may not be subsequently altered after an actual determination of the put-up charges has been made.

[Paragraph (f) amended by Am. 2, 7 F.R. 4180, effective 6-3-42]

[NOTE: Second Revised Supplementary Order No. 34 (10 F.R. 2014) permits, under certain conditions, the addition of extra packing expenses to maximum prices on sales to procurement agencies of the United States.]

(g) Tables of division factors—(1) In general. (i) Table I set forth below is to be used for finished piece goods containing 75% or more of cotton by weight unless 4% or more of coverage of the warp or filling in the finished goods is yarn-dyed or stock-dyed, in which case Table III below is to be used. The division factor applied to the sum of basic grey goods cost, grey freight, working allowance and put up charges (see paragraph (b), (c), (d), and (f) of this section respectively) is determined by reference to the class of purchaser to whom the sale is made, the type of grey goods, and the type of finish that is applied. The division factor applied to finishing cost (see paragraph (e) of this section) is separately set forth in Table I and is determined by reference to the type of finish that is applied.

(ii) Table II set forth below is to be used for finished piece goods containing less than 75% cotton by weight unless 4% or more of coverage of the warp or filling in the finished goods is yarn-dyed or stock-dyed, in which case Table III below is to be used. The division factor applied to the sum of basic grey goods cost, grey freight, working allowance and put up charges (see paragraph (b), (c), (d) and (f) of this section respectively) is determined by reference to the basic grey goods cost, the class of purchaser to whom the sale is made, and the type of finish that is applied. The division factor that is applied to finishing cost (see paragraph (e) of this section) is separately set forth in Table II and is determined by reference to the type of finish that is applied.

(iii) Table III set forth below is to be used for finished piece goods of which 4% or more of coverage of either the warp or the filling in the finished piece goods is yarn-dyed or stock-dyed, regardless of the fiber content and regardless of the finish that is applied thereto. The division factor applied to the sum of the basic grey goods cost, grey freight, working allowance and put up charges (see paragraph (b), (c) (d) and (e) respectively of this section) is determined by reference to the class of purchaser. The division factor applied to the cost of finishing (see paragraph (e) of this section) is separately set forth in Table III.

[Subparagraphs (i), (ii) and (iii) amended by Am. 2, 7 F.R. 4180, effective 6-3-42, and Am. 26, 9 F.R. 14014, effective 12-3-44]

(iv) [Revoked]

[Subparagraph (iv) amended by Am. 2 and revoked by Am. 26]

(v) A converter whose production of finished piece goods during the years 1939, 1940 and 1941 consisted predominantly of better cotton wash fabrics which (a) are composed 100% of cotton, (b) are sold to manufacturers of women's and children's dresses, suits and sportswear and to retail outlets, and (c) are of a type that, during the period from August 1, 1941, to September 30, 1941, inclusive, were sold at a price of 27½ cents or more per yard, net after discount, may use Table Ia set forth below with respect to such fabrics: Provided, That no converter shall use Table Ia unless, on or before December 15, 1942, he shall have filed his name and address with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., certifying that he meets the above qualifications, and shall have received written acknowledgment of that fact.

[Subparagraph (v) added by Am. 9, 7 F.R. 9823, effective 12-1-42]

(vi) (a) Table IIa set forth below may be used for sales of better rayon fabrics by those converters, who, prior to February 17, 1944, had certified to the Office of Price Administration that they came within the terms of § 1400.78 (i) as it read between July 5, 1943, and February 22, 1944, or who, prior to May 31, 1945 established that their failure to so certify was due solely to the preemption of their facilities by contracts with War Procurement Agencies.

(b) Table IIa may also be used by those converters who, on or before August 31, 1942 filed their name and address with the Office of Price Administration pursuant to § 1400.78 (i) as it read on June 1, 1945, for sales of better rayon fabrics and for sales of finished piece goods in cut lengths of specified yardage to dressmakers engaged in the production of individually ordered items of apparel or in the repair and alteration thereof by those converters who qualify under subdivision (vi) (b) above and whose total sales, during the years 1939, 1940 and 1941, or such part of those years as they acted as converters, consisted 90% or more of better rayon fabrics: Provided, That no converter shall use Table IIb unless, on or before August 15, 1945, he shall have filed with the Office of Price Administration, Washington 25, D. C., a statement setting forth his name and address and the facts on which he relies to prove his right to use Table IIb and shall have received written acknowledgment of the receipt and sufficiency of such statement.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 127, so long as a converter of better rayon fabrics is required by any government agency to sell a portion of his production to dress manufacturers whose minimum price line for rayon or synthetic fibre dresses, at the time of sale, is less than $16.75, the sale of such portion of his production to such manufacturers may be made at the maximum price permitted him for sales to dress manufacturers whose minimum price line at the time of sale is $16.75.

(vii) (a) Table IIb set forth below may be used for sales of better rayon fabrics by those converters who qualify under subdivision (vi) (a) above and whose total sales, during the years 1939, 1940, and 1941, or such part of those years as they acted as converters, consisted 90% or more of better rayon fabrics: Provided, That no converter shall use Table IIb unless, on or before August 15, 1945, he shall have filed with the Office of Price Administration, Washington 25, D. C., a statement setting forth his name and address and the facts on which he relies to prove his right to use Table IIb and shall have received written acknowledgment of the receipt and sufficiency of such statement.

(b) Table IIb may also be used for sales of better rayon fabrics and for sales of finished piece goods in cut lengths of specified yardage to dressmakers engaged in the production of individually ordered items of apparel or in the repair and alteration thereof by those converters who qualify under subdivision (vi) (b) above and whose total sales, during the years 1939, 1940 and 1941, or such part of those years as they acted as a converter, consisted 90% or more, of better rayon fabrics and/or cut lengths of specified yardage of finished piece goods sold to dressmakers engaged in the production of individually ordered items of apparel or in the repair or alteration thereof: Provided, That no converter shall use Table IIb unless, on or before August 15, 1945, he shall have filed with the Office of Price Administration, Washington 25, D. C., a statement setting forth his name, address and the facts on which he relies to prove his right to use Table IIb and shall have received written acknowledgment of the receipt and sufficiency of such statement.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 127, so long as a converter of better rayon fabrics is required by any government agency to sell a portion of his production to dress manufacturers whose minimum price line for rayon or synthetic fibre dresses, at the time of sale, is less than $16.75, the sale of such portion of his production to such manufacturers may be made at the maximum price permitted him for sales to dress manufacturers whose minimum price line at the time of sale is $16.75.

[2] Determined in accordance with paragraphs (b), (c), (d) and (f), respectively of this section.
[3] A division factor of 0.84 instead of 0.83 and 0.905 instead of 0.815 may be used for combed cotton yarn-dyed or stock-dyed (finished and carded cotton yarns are so constructed that either the warp or the filling consists wholly of combed yarn shall for the purposes of this table be deemed a combed cotton fabric.

[Subparagraph (4) amended by Am. 2, 7 F.R. 4180, effective 6-3-42; and Am. 26, 9 F.R. 14014, effective 12-3-44]

(b) Credit terms. (1) The maximum prices established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 127 are net selling prices.

(2) If a seller desires to sell on a discount basis of 2% off ten days, sixty days extra, he may compute the maximum price on such a sale by dividing the net price by .97: Provided, That if any such sale is made, the seller must allow the buyer the following discounts:

(i) If payment is made within 10 days after delivery, a discount of 3%;

(ii) If payment is made within the next sixty days, a discount of 2% plus ½ of 1% per month for any portion of the sixty days which is anticipated.

(3) If a seller desires to sell on a discount basis of net 10 days, sixty days extra, he may compute the maximum price on such a sale by dividing the net price by .99: Provided, That if any such sale is made, the seller must allow the buyer the following discounts:

(i) If payment is made within 10 days after delivery, a discount of 1%.

(ii) If payment is made within the next 60 days, a discount of ½ of 1% per month for any portion of the sixty days which is anticipated.

(4) The maximum net prices may be increased by an appropriate division factor (in accordance with the formula set forth in subparagraphs (2) and (3) of this paragraph) in any case where the credit terms do not exceed a discount of 3 percent nor a time period in excess of 70 days from the date of the invoice but may not otherwise be increased for the purpose of granting other credit or discount terms.

[Subparagraph (4) amended by Am. 7, 7 F.R. 5675, effective 7-23-42]

(i) Wholesalers and jobbers—(1) General provisions. (i) Subject to the other provisions of this paragraph, the maximum price for finished piece goods sold in the performance of a recognized distributive function [25] by a wholesaler shall be computed by dividing the actual cost [26] by .915 if the sale is to a Class I purchaser and by dividing the actual cost by .83 if the sale is to a Class II purchaser.

[Subparagraph (1) amended by Am. 37, effective 12-3-45]

(ii) Subject to the other provisions of this paragraph, the maximum price for finished piece goods sold in the performance of a recognized distributive function [25] by a jobber or converter-jobber selling jobbed goods, shall be computed by dividing the actual cost [26] by .915 if the sale is to a Class I purchaser and by dividing the actual cost by .885 if the sale is to a Class II purchaser.

(iii) Subject to the other provisions of this paragraph, the maximum price for finished piece goods sold in the performance of a recognized distributive function [25] by a wholesaling-jobber selling jobbed goods, shall be computed by dividing the actual cost [26] by .915 if the sale is to a Class I purchaser and by dividing the actual cost by .83 if the sale is to a Class II purchaser.

(iv) Subject to the other provisions of this paragraph, the maximum price for finished piece goods sold and delivered in the performance of a recognized distributive function [25] by a Pacific Coast jobber selling jobbed goods in the States of California, Oregon and Washington shall be computed by dividing the actual cost [26] by .88 if the sale is to a Class I purchaser and by dividing the actual cost by .83 if the sale is to a Class II purchaser.

[Subparagraphs (iii) and (iv) added by Am. 37, effective 12-3-45]

[Subparagraph (1) amended by Am. 1, 7 F.R. 3242, effective 5-4-42; Am. 5, 7 F.R. 4762, effective 6-25-42; and Am. 32, 10 F.R. 8857, effective 7-21-45]

(2) Restrictions on jobbers' and wholesalers' mark-up. No part of the mark-up provided for in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, may be charged:

[Subparagraph (2) amended by Am. 10, 8 F.R. 3057, effective 3-16-43]

(i) On a sale to a cutter or manufacturer by a jobber or wholesaler who commenced doing business as a jobber or wholesaler after May 4, 1942;

(ii) On a sale by a wholesaler or jobber to a converter or a converter-jobber;

[Subparagraph (ii) amended by Am. 2, 7 F.R. 4180, effective 6-3-42]

(iii) On a sale by a jobber or wholesaler who commenced doing business as a jobber or wholesaler on or after September 1, 1944.

[Subparagraphs (i) and (ii) added by Am. 26, 9 F.R. 14014, effective 12-3-44; former (i) and (iii) revoked by Am. 2, 7 F.R. 4180, effective 6-3-42]

(iv) On an export sale by an export merchant;

(v) On a sale of jobbed goods to any person by a converter-jobber unless and until authorized under subparagraph (3) of this paragraph: [27] Provided, That a converter-jobber who has properly filed a petition for exception under subparagraph (3) of this paragraph, and has been notified by the Secretary of the Office of Price Administration that his petition has been docketed, may, until such time as the petition is acted upon by the Office of Price Administration, sell and deliver the goods which he purchases or has purchased as a jobber or wholesaler in accordance with other provisions of this paragraph (i): Provided, however, That on and after July 1, 1942, the percentage of such jobbing business shall be no greater in relation to his total sales of finished piece goods than the average percentage of such business during the years 1939, 1940, and 1941, or during such part thereof as he acted as a converter-jobber. The restrictions imposed by this subdivision (v) shall not be applicable to a jobber whose converting business consists solely of sales of finished piece goods to a war procurement agency. The Administrator may by order exempt export sales of jobbed goods from the restrictions imposed by this subdivision (v). Any person seeking such exemption shall file a petition for exception under subparagraph (3) of this paragraph, setting forth the dollar volume of his domestic and export sales of converted and jobbed goods for each of the years 1939, 1940 and 1941.

[Subparagraph (v) amended by Am. 2, 7 F.R. 4180, effective 6-3-42; Am. 10, 8 F.R. 3057, effective 3-16-43; and Am. 30, 10 F.R. 4816, effective 5-7-45]

(vi) On a resale of finished piece goods by a cutter or manufacturer: Provided, That this restriction shall not apply (a) where such a resale is made in pursuance of an established trade practice by which the cutter or manufacturer is required, as a necessary part of making sales of his cut or manufactured articles, to furnish to his buyers an additional quantity of piece goods identical with or similar to the goods from which such articles are cut or manufactured; or, (b) where a cutter or manufacturer who, as a separate and substantial portion of his business has regularly been engaged in wholesaling or jobbing, resells finished piece goods purchased exclusively for the purpose of resale and not for use in connection with his cutting or manufacturing operations. Every cutter or manufacturer falling within the category defined in (b) above shall, on or before December 15, 1942, file his name and address with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C. Notwithstanding any of the provisions of Maximum Price Regulation No. 204, the maximum price for finished piece goods sold by a cutter or manufacturer subject to the restrictions of this subdivision (vi), shall be the actual cost of such goods as defined in the footnote to subparagraph (1) of this paragraph.

[Subparagraph (vi) amended by Am. 9, 7 F.R. 9823, effective 12-1-42 and Am. 11, 8 F.R. 4851, effective 4-19-43]

(3) Petitions for exception by a converter-jobber. Any converter-jobber, as defined in § 1400.81 hereof, who desires to continue operating as such, may petition the Office of Price Administration for an exception from the provisions of § 1400.82 (i) (2) (v), and for permission so to do. The Price Administrator may grant such exception upon such terms and conditions as shall appear reasonable and necessary under all the circumstances: Provided, That no such petition will be considered unless it is filed with the Office of Price Administration in the manner provided for applications for adjustment under Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1.

[Subparagraph (3) amended by Am. 2, 7 F.R. 4180, effective 6-3-42 and Am. 11, 8 F.R. 4851, effective 4-19-43]

(4) Where a sale is made by a converter-jobber, wholesaler or jobber to another converter-jobber, wholesaler or jobber or to an export merchant the maximum price which the purchaser may charge on a domestic resale shall be no higher than the price which the original

[25] No sale is made "in the performance of a recognized distributive function" within the meaning of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 127 unless it advances the goods sold to the next stage of distribution.

[26] The actual cost may include only (a) the invoice price of the finished piece goods less all discounts taken (which must not, for any purchases made on or after May 4, 1942, exceed the maximum price established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 127) and (b) the actual transportation charges incurred by the wholesaler or jobber with respect to such finished piece goods. If the goods are transported in a conveyance other than a commercial carrier, the transportation charge shall not exceed the charge which would be applicable in an identical shipment from the same point of shipment to the same receiving point at the lowest available commercial transportation rate. A wholesaler, jobber or converter-jobber, where he mingles in his inventory separate lots of the same pattern of printed goods or separate lots of the same bleached goods, or separate lots of the same dyed goods which he acquired at varying prices, may take the weighted average cost of such mingled lot for the purpose of determining his actual cost thereof: Provided, That if any unsold portion of a lot on which an average cost has been determined is subsequently combined with another lot, the previously determined weighted average cost of such unsold portion shall be used for such unsold portion in computing the weighted average cost of the newly mingled lot.

[27] It is the intention of the Office of Price Administration that this subparagraph shall apply to converters who also act as jobbers and wholesalers and to wholesalers or jobbers who also do some converting.

wholesaler, jobber or converter-jobber would be entitled to charge.

[Subparagraph (4) added by Am. 2, 7 F.R. 4180, effective 6-3-42]

(5) Charges for special folding by a wholesaler or jobber. The actual cost, but not more than ½¢ per yard, may be added to the selling price of finished piece goods by a wholesaler, jobber or converter-jobber selling jobbed goods, for special folding such as doubling and rolling and book fold: Provided, That, (i) special folding has not been performed before the goods were purchased by the wholesaler, jobber or converter-jobber;

(ii) Special folding was performed by or for the account of the wholesaler, jobber or converter-jobber;

(iii) No part of the mark-up provided for in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph may be applied to the cost of such special folding; and

(iv) The portion of the total selling price attributable to special folding shall be itemized separately in an invoice or similar document which shall be delivered to the purchaser of the goods.

[Subparagraph (5) added by Am. 10, 8 F.R. 3057, effective 3-16-43]

(j) Export sales. The maximum price at which a person may sell or deliver finished piece goods for export shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the Maximum Export Price Regulation [25] issued by the Office of Price Administration on April 25, 1942.

(k) Redyeing, reprinting, and overprinting. Unless the contrary is expressly provided elsewhere in this regulation, no charges for reprinting, redyeing, or overprinting subsequent to the original finishing operation shall be or may be added to or included in the computation of the maximum prices established by this regulation.

[Paragraph (k) amended by Am. 13, 8 F.R. 12935, effective 9-27-43; and Am. 17, 9 F.R. 1906, effective 2-23-44]

(l) Substandard goods. The maximum prices above set forth shall be discounted for substandard goods as follows:

(1) Finishers' seconds and shorts (i. e. finished piece goods which are substandard as a result of finishing process):

Regular sized pieces discounted by 10%.

20 to 40 yard lengths discounted by 15%.

10 to 19.99 yard lengths discounted by 20%.

[Subparagraph (1) amended by Am. 11, 8 F.R. 4851, effective 4-19-43]

[Paragraph (m) added by Am. 4, 7 F.R. 4587, effective 6-18-42]

(n) Resales of contractor inventory [26] finished piece goods purchased from a prime contractor or subcontractor. (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section any person (including a jobber and a converter-jobber) may resell contractor inventory finished piece goods purchased from a prime contractor or subcontractor at the markup provided in subparagraph (3) below. However, no part of the markup set forth in subparagraph (3) below may be charged on a sale to a wholesaler, jobber, converter-jobber or converter. Moreover, the markup provided in subparagraph (3) below may not be charged on a resale by a person other than the original purchaser from the prime contractor or subcontractor.

(2) Records. (i) In addition to the details required in the record of every transaction by Section 1400.75, in the case of every purchase, sale or delivery of contractor inventory finished piece goods, the records shall contain the statement that the goods purchased, sold or delivered are contractor inventory finished piece goods.

(ii) In addition to the details required in the contract of sale or invoice by Section 1400.77, the contract of sale or invoice in the case of every sale of contractor inventory finished piece goods, shall state that the goods sold are contractor inventory finished piece goods.

(3) Markup. Subject to the other provisions of this paragraph, the maximum price for contractor inventory finished piece goods sold in the performance of a recognized distributive function [27] shall be computed by dividing the actual cost [26] by .885 if the sale is to a Class II purchaser and .915 if the sale is to a Class I purchaser.

[Paragraph (n) added by Am. 37, effective 12-3-45. Original paragraph (n) added by Am. 6, 7 F.R. 5364, effective 7-14-42; revoked by Am. 28, 10 F.R. 2014, effective 2-17-45]

(o) Averaging of prices by converters. Where a converter produces various colors of the same pattern or style, and where the maximum prices for such colors vary, or where a converter produces separate lots of the same pattern or style with a resulting variation in the maximum prices for such lots, he may after computing the maximum price separately for each color or each lot, determine and use as his maximum price for the entire pattern or style a weighted average of such varying prices.

[Paragraph (o) added by Am. 7, 7 F.R. 5675, effective 7-23-42]

(p) [Revoked.]

[Paragraph (p) added by Am. 8, 7 F.R. 6653, effective 8-26-42, revoked by Am. 32, 10 F.R. 8857, effective 7-21-45]

(q) Specific reductions in prices of work-clothing fabrics. (1) Notwithstanding any of the provisions of § 1400.78 and any other provision of this § 1400.82 of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 127, the maximum prices computed hereunder for the following finished piece goods shall be reduced as set forth in Table IX hereof:

TABLE IX

Type of fabric	Weight	Width (inch basis)	Reduction (cents per yard)
Finished jeans	2.85 yds. per lb	36	¼
Finished drills	2.50 yds. per lb	28-29	¼
Carded poplins	3.25 yds. per lb	35-36	¼
Carded poplins	2.85 yds. per lb	35-36	¼
Carded poplins	2.50 yds. per lb	35-36	¼

[Table IX as amended by Am. 10, 8 F.R. 3057, effective 3-16-43]

(2) The maximum prices established herein shall apply to contracts of sale entered into on or after August 26, 1942, and also to all deliveries made on or after that date against contracts entered into on or after May 4, 1942.

[Paragraph (q) added by Am. 8, 7 F.R. 6653, effective 8-26-42]

(r) [Revoked.]

[Paragraph (r) added by Am. 8, 7 F.R. 6653, effective 8-26-42; amended by Am. 9, 7 F.R. 9823, effective 12-1-42; Am. 10, 8 F.R. 3057, effective 3-16-43; Am. 11, 8 F.R. 4851, effective 4-19-43; Am. 13, 8 F.R. 12935, effective 9-27-43; Am. 14, 8 F.R. 15906, effective 11-27-43; Am. 26, 9 F.R. 14014, effective 12-3-44 and revoked by Am. 36, 10 F.R. 12261, effective 9-26-45]

(s) Restrictions on sales of finished piece goods by certain producers. (1) The percentage of the total business of any producer during any calendar year which is represented by dollar sales of finished piece goods to persons other than cutters, manufacturers, retailers, or war procurement agencies shall be no greater in relation to his total business than the average percentage of such dollar sales during the years 1939, 1940, and 1941: Provided, That without regard to the foregoing a producer may:

(i) Honor a preference rating for goods to be exported; and

(ii) Sell finished piece goods to any wholesaler, jobber, or converter-jobber who has certified in writing to such producer that during any 3-month period between July 1, 1943 and December 31, 1943, 65 per cent or more of his sales of finished piece goods were made to retailers and/or purchasers outside the continental United States.

[Subparagraph (1) amended by Am. 15, 8 F.R. 16797, effective 12-20-43; Am. 16, 9 F.R. 172, effective 1-8-44; Am. 19, 9 F.R. 2464, 3031, effective 3-7-44; and Am. 20, 9 F.R. 4029, effective 4-14-44]

(2) The restrictions contained in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph shall not apply to a producer:

[25] 2d Revision: 8 F.R. 4132, 5937, 7662, 9998, 15193; 9 F.R. 1036, 5435, 5923, 7201, 9834, 11273, 12919, 14346; 10 F.R. 863, 923, 2432, 6590, 8746, 8611, 9586, 10029.

[26] See page 14517.

[27] The term "Contractor Inventory" is defined in Supplementary Order 130.

(i) Whose total dollar sales of finished piece goods during the years 1939, 1940 and 1941 were greater than 50% of his aggregate dollar sales of grey and finished piece goods; or

(ii) Whose sales of finished piece goods consist solely of sales to a war procurement agency and of sales of rejects of such finished piece goods.

(3) Every producer selling finished piece goods shall, on or before April 15, 1943, file with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., his name, address, and a statement of whether or not he comes within the restrictions of this paragraph. Every producer who comes within the restrictions of this paragraph, shall retain for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 remains in effect, accurate records for each year after 1942 and such records as he has for each of the years 1939, 1940 and 1941 of his aggregate dollar sales of all grey and finished piece goods; his total dollar sales of finished piece goods; and his total dollar sales of finished piece goods to persons other than cutters, manufacturers, retailers or war procurement agencies.

[Paragraph (s) added by Am. 9, 7 F.R. 9823, effective 12-1-42 and amended by Am. 10, 8 F.R. 3057, effective 3-16-43; and as otherwise noted]

(t) "Designer-converters" of certain yarn dyed or stock dyed cotton finished piece goods. (1) Any person selling yarn dyed or stock dyed carded cotton finished piece goods shall be regarded as a "designer-converter" as to those fabrics if he

(i) Is not the producer of the goods; and

(ii) Creates the style and supplies the producer with the design, pattern, construction and other specifications and is the person for whom the fabrics so styled are exclusively produced (devising slight or immaterial differences in color, pattern, construction or the like, from existing current styles, shall not be deemed style creation); and

(iii) Purchases such fabrics as are of first quality from the producer in full warp sets only; and

(iv) Customarily receives delivery of such fabrics from the producer in installments according to a contract providing a predetermined schedule of delivery.

(2) Any producer who himself styles and sells yarn dyed or stock dyed cotton finished piece goods of the type customarily styled and sold by designer-converters, shall also be regarded as a designer-converter as to those fabrics.

(3) All designer-converters may use the division factors provided in Table III of paragraph (g) of this section in computing their maximum prices for fabrics of the above type. All wholesalers or jobbers other than designer-converters, who sell such fabrics shall be subject to the provisions of § 1400.82 (l).

[Subparagraph (3) amended by Am. 26, 9 F.R. 14014, effective 12-3-44]

(4) Registration of designer-converters. (i) No designer-converter shall sell or deliver any fabrics of the above type under the provisions of this paragraph unless he shall have filed, with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., his name, address, and the certification referred to in subdivision (ii) or (iii) of this paragraph, and have received written acknowledgment that the certification is proper.

(ii) If the registrant is not the producer of the fabrics as to which he is a designer-converter, his registration shall be accompanied by the certifications of the producers from whom he purchases such fabrics. The certifications shall list each of the qualifications for designer-converters under the provisions of subparagraph (1) of this paragraph and the producers shall certify that the registrant meets each of those qualifications.

(iii) If the registrant is the producer of the fabrics as to which he is a designer-converter, his registration shall be accompanied by his certification to the effect that he meets the qualifications for designer-converters under the provisions of subparagraph (2) of this paragraph.

[Paragraph (t) added by Am. 10, 8 F.R. 3057, effective 3-16-43]

(u) Specific prices for moleskins—(1) Specific prices for moleskins. On and after March 16, 1943, notwithstanding any of the provisions of §§ 1400.77 and 1400.82 except paragraph (i), the maximum prices for the following fabrics shall be as set forth in Tables XI and XII of this paragraph:

(2) [Revoked.]

[Paragraph heading amended and subparagraph (2) revoked by Am. 36, 10 F.R. 12261, effective 9-26-45]

(3) The maximum prices established by subparagraph (1) shall apply to all contracts of sale entered into on or after March 16, 1943.

(4) For any moleskins which are not specifically set forth in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, the maximum price shall be a price in line with [28] the maximum price established in the subparagraph for the most nearly related type, construction, finish, color and dye. The differences in construction, finish, dye, color and such other material factors as, in sound cost determination, are considered to have a direct bearing on the cost of production of the respective fabrics.

[28] As used herein, the term "in line with" means (1) based upon and having a justifiable relationship to, and (2) appropriately increased or decreased to take account of dif-

seller shall make no sale or delivery based upon such price until he has submitted to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., the proposed price, a complete description of the specifications as set forth in Tables XI or XII, whichever is applicable, and the way in which the price was calculated, and until the proposed price has been approved.

[Subparagraph (4) amended by Am. 11, 8 F.R. 4851, effective 4-19-43 and Am. 36]

(5) The maximum prices for moleskins included in this paragraph shall be subject to terms of three percent 10 days, f. o. b. mill.

[Subparagraphs (3) and (5) amended by Am. 36, 10 F.R. 12261, effective 9-26-45]
[Paragraph (u) added by Am. 10, 8 F.R. 3057, effective 3-16-43]

(v) Restrictions on sales of finished piece goods by certain cutters or manufacturers. (1) After March 15, 1943, notwithstanding any of the provisions of Maximum Price Regulation No. 204,[31] no cutter or manufacturer may sell more than 1000 yards of finished piece goods during any calendar month, except that this restriction shall not apply:

[Subparagraph (1) amended by Am. 11, 8 F.R. 4851, effective 4-19-43]

(i) To sales of finished piece goods to another cutter or manufacturer or to a retailer; or

(ii) To finished piece goods which the cutter or manufacturer has had in his possession for more than six months; or

(iii) Where a cutter or manufacturer who, as a separate and substantial portion of his business has regularly been engaged in wholesaling or jobbing, resells finished piece goods purchased exclusively for the purpose of resale and not for use in connection with his cutting or manufacturing operations.

[Paragraph (v) added by Am. 10, 8 F.R. 3057, effective 3-16-43]

(w) Maximum price for finished piece goods produced from certain imported grey goods. (1) Regardless of any contract, agreement, or other obligation the maximum price for finished piece goods which are produced from grey goods manufactured in a foreign country and imported into the continental United States by the converter pursuant to a contract with the foreign seller or his agent entered into prior to November 10, 1943, shall be the aggregate of the actual landed duty paid cost of the grey goods and the four items set forth in subparagraphs (2), (3), (4) and (5) of paragraph (a) of this § 1400.82, which sum may be divided by 0.935 but by no other division factor except in accordance with paragraph (h) of this section.

[Subparagraph (1) amended by Am. 18, 9 F.R. 2087, effective 2-21-44]

(2) Every contract of sale or invoice for finished piece goods the maximum price for which is determined under this paragraph (w) shall contain in addition to the information set forth in paragraph (a) of § 1400.77 a statement that the maximum price is determined under subparagraph (w) of § 1400.82 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 127, and that no mark-up whatsoever over that price is permitted on any resale of the fabric.

(3) Every converter pricing finished piece goods under subparagraph (b) (3) (i) and (w) of this § 1400.82 shall on or before January 3, 1944, file a report of all commitments entered into prior to November 10, 1943, for the purchase of the imported grey goods with the Consumer Goods Division, Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C. Such reports shall contain:

(i) Name and address of the converter.
(ii) Name and address of the foreign seller or his agent.
(iii) Nature of commitment and date thereof.
(iv) The total yardage involved in each commitment.
(v) A description of the grey goods sufficient to identify them in the sellers records maintained pursuant to § 1400.75 hereof.

[Paragraph (w) added by Am. 15, 8 F.R. 16797, effective 12-20-43]

(x) Specific prices for sales to a war procurement agency. Maximum prices for sales and deliveries to a war procurement agency of finished piece goods of the types and made to the specifications (in their present form or as hereafter amended) listed below shall be as set forth in Table XIV hereof. The maximum prices so set forth are based on the widths therein indicated, and shall be reduced or increased in proportion to any reduction or increase in such widths which may be authorized or required by such specifications.

TABLE XIV

Line No.	Description	Specification	Width (inch basis)	Maximum price (cents per yard)
1.00	8.2 oz. combed uniform twill	(a) 6-201 as amended.
1.01	Type I—Khaki		36	(1)
1.02	Type I—Slate grey		36	(1)
1.03	Type II—Khaki		36	(1)
1.04	Type II—Slate grey		36	(1)
1.05	Type III—Khaki		36	(1)
1.06	Type III—Slate grey		36	(1)
1.07	Type IV—Khaki		36	(1)
1.08	Type IV—Slate grey		36	(1)
1.09	Type V—Khaki		36	(1)
1.10	Type V—Slate grey		36	(1)

[1] The maximum price for goods so marked shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of M PR 157 until a specific price is provided in Table XIV. In connection with contracts for the sale and delivery of these goods to war procurement agencies, sellers are authorized to reserve the right to charge the difference, if any, between the maximum price so determined and the specific maximum price which may hereafter be provided in Table XIV.

[Paragraph (x) added by Am. 24, 9 F.R. 12639, effective 10-18-44]

(y) Resales of surplus finished piece goods purchased from a government agency and not refinished. (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section any person (including a jobber and a converter-jobber) may resell surplus finished piece goods purchased from a government agency at the markup provided in subparagraph (3) below. However, no part of the markup set forth in subparagraph (3) below may be charged on a sale to a wholesaler, jobber, converter-jobber or converter. Moreover, the markup provided in subparagraph (3) below may not be charged on a resale by a person other than the original purchaser from the government agency.

"Government agency" means the United States Government or any department, agency, commission, board, corporation or other instrumentality of the United States Government. "Surplus finished piece goods" means finished piece goods sold by a government agency.

(2) Records. (i) In addition to the details required in the record of every transaction by § 1400.75, in the case of every purchase, sale or delivery of surplus finished piece goods, the records shall contain the statement that the goods purchased, sold or delivered are surplus finished piece goods.

(ii) In addition to the details required in the contract of sale or invoice by § 1400.77, the contract of sale or invoice in the case of every sale of surplus finished piece goods, shall state that the goods sold are surplus finished piece goods.

(3) Markup. Subject to the other provisions of this paragraph, the maximum price for surplus finished piece goods sold in the performance of a recognized distributive function[32] shall be computed by dividing the actual cost[33] by .835 if the sale is to a Class II purchaser and .915 if the sale is to a Class I purchaser.

[Paragraph (y) added by Am. 34, 10 F.R. 11148, effective 8-28-45]

§ 1400.83 Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 10—Finished Piece Goods Made of Cotton, Rayon and Mixtures Thereof. On the effective date provided in § 1400.84, this Maximum Price Regulation No. 127 replaces and revokes Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 10[34]—Finished Piece Goods Made of Cotton, Rayon and Mixtures thereof, issued by the Price Administrator. Until

[31] Revised: 8 F.R. 11376, 12795; 9 F.R. 5376, 6819, 7077, 13211.

[32] No sale is made "in the performance of a recognized distributive function" within the meaning of this paragraph (y) unless it advances the goods sold to the next stage of distribution.

[33] The actual cost may include only (a) the actual price paid to the government agency for the surplus finished piece goods and (b) the actual transportation charges incurred by the purchaser from the government agency with respect to such surplus finished piece goods. If the goods are transported in a conveyance other than a common carrier, the transportation charge shall not exceed the charge which would be applicable in an identical shipment from the same point of shipment to the same receiving point at the lowest available common carrier rate.

[34] 7 F.R. 2004.

such date Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 10 remains in full force and effect as set forth in § 1400.12 thereof.

§ 1400.84 Effective date. This Maximum Price Regulation No. 127 (§§ 1400.71 to 1400.84, inclusive) shall become effective May 4, 1942. [Issued April 27, 1942]

NOTE: All reporting and record-keeping requirements of this regulation have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 27th day of November 1945.

Chapter XV—Board of War Communications

[Order 32]

REVOCATION OF DESIGNATED ORDERS

Whereas, the Board of War Communications on 25 March 1942, adopted its Order No. 3 authorizing the Secretary of War and the Secretary of the Navy to take appropriate measures to safeguard the security of military and naval messages handled by means of radio communication and wire communication; and

Whereas, the Board of War Communications on 23 November 1944, adopted its Order No. 8-C entitled "Exemption from Closure of Radiotelegraph Circuits of Globe Wireless Limited", and on 16 March 1944, adopted its Order No. 21-A entitled "Exemption of Federal-State Market News Service from Order No. 11"; and

Whereas, it appears that the purposes of the said Orders Nos. 3, 8-C, and 21-A have been served and that, therefore, the said Orders are no longer required for such purposes;

Now, therefore, by virtue of the authority vested in the Board of War Communications by Executive Order No. 8964 dated 10 December 1941 and Executive Order No. 9089 dated 6 March 1942: It is hereby ordered, That Board of War Communications Orders Nos. 3, 8-C, and 21-A dated 25 March 1942, 23 November 1944, and 16 March 1944, respectively, be, and the same are hereby, cancelled effective the date of this order.

BOARD OF WAR COMMUNICATIONS,
PAUL A. PORTER,
Chairman.

NOVEMBER 13, 1945.

Attest:

HERBERT E. GASTON,
Secretary.

Chapter XXIII—Surplus Property Administration

[SPA Reg. 6]

PART 8306—SALE OF GOVERNMENT-OWNED PLANT EQUIPMENT IN CONTRACTORS' PLANTS

Surplus Property Board Regulation 6, May 21, 1945, entitled "Sale of Government-Owned Plant Equipment in Contractors' Plants" (10 F.R. 6309, 6981, 8665, 10398) is hereby revised and amended as herein set forth as Surplus Property Administration Regulation 6. Order 1, June 16, 1945 (10 F.R. 7579), Order 2,[1] June 24, 1945 (10 F.R. 8374), and Order 3, September 25, 1945 (10 F.R. 12408), under this part, shall remain in effect as revised and reissued herewith.

Sec.
8306.1 Definitions.
8306.2 Scope.
8306.3 Applicability of War Production Board, Civilian Production Administration and Office of Price Administration Regulations.
8306.4 Owning agencies empowered to sell plant equipment to contractors in possession.
8306.5 Pricing policy.
8306.6 Sales of miscellaneous shop equipment, etc., at retail.
8306.7 Disposals other than to contractors in possession.
8306.8 Submission to Attorney General.
8306.9 Plant equipment in possession of subcontractors and sublessees.
8306.10 Options.
8306.11 Disposals under laws other than the Surplus Property Act.
8306.12 Records and reports.
8306.13 Regulations by owning agencies to be reported to the Administrator.

AUTHORITY: §§ 8306.1 to 8306.13, inclusive, issued under Surplus Property Act of 1944, 58 Stat. 765, 50 U.S.C. App. Sup. 1611 and under Pub. Law 181, 79th Cong., 1st Sess.

§ 8306.1 Definitions—(a) Terms defined in act. Terms not defined in paragraph (b) of this section which are defined in the Surplus Property Act of 1944 shall in this part have the meaning given to them in the act.

(b) Other terms. (1) "Facilities contract" means a lease, rental agreement, or other contract or contract provision, specifically governing the acquisition, use, or disposition of Government-owned machinery, tools, building installations, or other property furnished to or acquired by a war contractor for any war production purpose except incorporation in end products.

(2) "Government agency" means any executive department, independent establishment, board, bureau, commission, or other agency of the Federal Government, or any corporation wholly owned (either directly or through one or more corporations) by the United States.

(3) "Plant equipment" means any property which is located in a war contractor's plant and is covered by a facilities contract, except land and buildings erected on land owned by or leased to the United States.

(4) "Readily severable" means capable of being removed and sold without substantial damage to either the property being removed or the premises.

(5) "Special tooling" means plant equipment of such special design that it has apparent value only as scrap except in the manufacture of the particular product which such equipment was specifically designed to produce; it includes only jigs, dies, fixtures, gauges, moulds, and similar equipment.

§ 8306.2 Scope. This part applies only to Government-owned plant equipment that is located in privately owned plants. Except as otherwise provided in §§ 8306.4, 8306.6, 8306.7 and 8306.9, it authorizes only the disposal of such equipment to the contractor in possession for immediate or eventual use in his civilian production.

The Administrator has determined that such sales will not result in the concentration of plant equipment in the hands of large established enterprises, nor prevent the acquisition thereof by other contractors, small as well as large and new as well as established, since the equipment will be sold to contractors in possession whose war contracts have not yet been settled and accordingly it is not yet available for disposition to others. The disposal agencies have available as surplus, and will continue to have available in increasing amounts, equipment of the types to be disposed of hereunder. These will be available for general disposition as surplus to meet the demands of all other contractors at about the same time that the equipment to be sold hereunder would become available for general sale.

In view of the holding of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit, in the case of United States v. Aluminum Company of America, et al., decided March 12, 1945, that as of 1940 the Aluminum Company of America had a monopoly of primary aluminum in violation of law, and in view of the objectives of the Act, no plant equipment shall be disposed of under this part to the Aluminum Company of America or to any of its subsidiaries, unless such disposal is first approved in writing by the Administrator.

§ 8306.3 Applicability of War Production Board, Civilian Production Administration and Office of Price Administration regulations. All disposals hereunder shall be subject to applicable regulations of the War Production Board, the Civilian Production Administration and of the Office of Price Administration.

[1] Order 2 will be filed to appear in a subsequent issue.

§ 8306.4 Owning agencies empowered to sell plant equipment to contractors in possession. In order to further the objectives of the act by assuring the most effective use of Government-owned property for war purposes, aiding in facilitating the transition from wartime to peacetime production and employment, encouraging and fostering post-war employment opportunities, promoting production and disposing of surplus property as promptly as feasible without fostering monopoly or restraint of trade or unduly disturbing the economy or encouraging hoarding, the Administrator hereby empowers each owning agency to dispose of plant equipment to contractors in possession thereof, as provided hereunder. Except in cases of disposals under §§ 8306.6 and 8306.7, there shall be obtained in connection with each disposal of plant equipment hereunder a written representation from the contractor that he intends to use the equipment in his production and that he is not purchasing it for the purpose of reselling it, directly or indirectly at a profit. Owning agencies may make such disposals to contractors in possession at any time before they take possession of plant equipment or report such equipment as surplus to a disposal agency. Nothing herein affects the authority of owning agencies to sell small lots or scrap or salvage in accordance with other regulations of the Surplus Property Administrator.

In any case in which the owning agency shall make a written finding that given special tooling will have no reasonably foreseeable use for civilian production, it may dispose of such tooling hereunder to the contractor in possession at scrap prices. In any such case the contractor shall agree in writing that upon the conclusion of his war production, he will offer such tooling to the owning agency for a period of thirty (30) days at the then scrap price of such tooling and, if the owning agency does not wish to purchase such tooling, he will dispose of it as scrap.

§ 8306.5 Pricing policy. Sales hereunder shall to the greatest extent possible be made at fixed prices rather than at negotiated prices. To this end, all sales shall be made in accordance with the provisions of paragraphs (a) to (e) of this section, except as otherwise provided in § 8306.7.

(a) All sales of used standard general purpose machinery as defined in Part 8313 [1] shall be made at prices determined in accordance with the provisions of that part.

(b) Fixed price schedules for certain other classifications of plant equipment may be prepared by the Administrator and issued from time to time as orders hereunder.

(c) Sales of all readily severable plant equipment which is not governed by a fixed price schedule shall be made at prices that are fair and reasonable and not less than the net proceeds that could reasonably be expected to be obtained if the property were offered for general sale. In all cases where the estimated cost of such plant equipment is $25,000 or more, the sales price shall be approved by an internal board of review. In fixing such prices consideration shall be given to such factors as original cost and reproduction cost (new) of the items, less reasonable depreciation and obsolescence.

(d) Disposals of all plant equipment not readily severable shall be made at prices that are fair and reasonable under all the circumstances taking into account the limited sale value of the property in place and its special value, if any, to the purchaser. In all cases, prior to disposal a written estimate shall be made of both the value of the plant equipment for use in place and its salvage value.

(e) The Reconstruction Finance Corporation shall, upon request, furnish advice and assistance to the owning agencies in the establishment of fair and reasonable prices under paragraphs (c) and (d) of this section.

§ 8306.6 Sales of miscellaneous shop equipment, etc., at retail. In any case in which the contractor in possession does not wish to acquire any plant equipment consisting of small, loose, or hand tools, portable power equipment, or miscellaneous shop equipment, the owning agency may authorize the contractor to sell such plant equipment at retail, subject to the following conditions:

(a) All sales are made at set prices approved in advance by the owning agency, after consultation with Reconstruction Finance Corporation;

(b) Not more than $500 in sales are made to any one person;

(c) The purchaser is required to certify in writing that he is buying the property for his own use;

(d) The contractor gives wide publicity in the immediate locality to offerings of such property for retail sale;

(e) Sales are made for cash.

§ 8306.7 Disposals other than to contractors in possession. (a) No plant equipment costing more than $100,000 shall be disposed of or demolished by the owning agency pursuant to paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section without prior submission to and the consent of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation in the case of industrial property or the Maritime Commission in the case of marine property. At the request of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation or the Maritime Commission any plant equipment not readily severable which is not disposed of to the contractor in possession shall regardless of cost be declared surplus in place to the Reconstruction Finance Corporation or the Maritime Commission and in the case of industrial property disposed of in accordance with the provisions of Part 8310.[2]

(b) In any case in which plant equipment not readily severable is not sold to the contractor in possession and the land is owned by another, such plant equipment may be sold by the owning agency to the owner of the land.

(c) (1) In any case in which plant equipment not readily severable is not sold to the contractor in possession or to the owner of the land, the owning agency may dispose of such plant equipment by any one or more of the following methods:

(i) By sale intact;

(ii) By transfer to another Government agency intact;

(iii) By demolition contract let only on competitive bids, whereby title to the resulting material passes to the demolition contractor;

(iv) By demolition with disposal of surplus used building and construction materials by competitive bidding and of other resulting materials in accordance with any other applicable regulations of the Administrator. Any such competitive bidding shall be conducted under rules and regulations prescribed by the owning agencies containing provisions, among others, requiring lots to be offered in such reasonable quantities as to permit all bidders, small as well as large, to compete on equal terms, requiring wide public notice concerning such sales and time intervals between notice and sale adequate to give all interested purchasers a fair opportunity to buy, and reserving the right to reject all bids.

(v) By abandonment if the owning agency has no obligation to remove such plant equipment and it finds in writing that such property is without commercial value or that the estimated cost of its care, handling, removal, and disposition would exceed the estimated proceeds of sale.

(2) Whenever the owning agency is unable to obtain a fair and reasonable price for the sale in place hereunder of plant equipment not readily severable and it finds in writing that it is not in the best interests of the Government to demolish or remove such plant equipment, the owning agency shall declare such property as surplus in place. Upon such declaration any industrial property shall be disposed of in accordance with the provisions of Part 8310.[2]

§ 8306.8 Submission to Attorney General. Whenever any owning agency shall begin negotiations or, in other than cases of negotiated sales, shall have decided on the terms of a transaction for the disposition under this part of plant equipment which cost the Government $1,000,000 or more, the owning agency shall promptly notify the disposal agency for such type of property of the proposed disposition and the probable terms or conditions thereof. The disposal agency shall promptly transmit such information to the Attorney General in order that the Attorney General may furnish the advice contemplated in section 20 of the act.

§ 8306.9 Plant equipment in possession of subcontractors and sublessees. In any case where plant equipment is, in accordance with the terms of a facilities contract, located in the plant of a subcontractor or sublessee, such subcontractor or sublessee shall for the purpose hereof be considered as the contractor in possession, and owning agencies shall take all steps possible to sell such plant equipment to the sublessee or subcontractor, at his request, on terms and conditions as provided herein. In the case of special tooling, if such subcontractor or sublessee shall state in writing that he does not desire to acquire the property, the contractor holding the covering facilities contract may be permitted to retain the property under a negotiated sale or under a lease for a period of not more than one year. Sale prices and rentals shall be determined on a basis that is fair and reasonable, taking into consideration the limited sale value of the property and its special value to the purchaser or lessee. The owning agency may request the advice and assistance of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation in determining acceptable sale prices and rentals.

§ 8306.10 Options. All sales by owning agencies of plant equipment to contractors shall be made in accordance with the provisions hereof, except sales made in accordance with the terms, conditions, and price provisions as stipulated in any valid option, and except sales for war production purposes. Any contractor purchasing plant equipment in accordance with the provisions hereof shall waive any purchase option, right of refusal, or similar privilege which he may have under the same facilities contract. Owning agencies are, however, authorized to make exceptions to meet unusual cases, but in each instance where an exception is made they shall maintain adequate records which shall be available to the Administrator upon request. No such exception shall be made unless it is approved by an internal board of review.

§ 8306.11 Disposals under laws other than the Surplus Property Act. Disposals of plant equipment as defined herein shall not be made under laws other than the Surplus Property Act of 1944 but shall be made only in strict accordance with the provisions of this part unless the Administrator upon written application by the owning agency shall consent in writing to a different procedure.

§ 8306.12 Records and reports. Owning and disposal agencies shall prepare and maintain such records as will show full compliance with the provisions of this part and with the applicable provisions of the act. Reports shall be prepared and filed with the Surplus Property Administrator in such manner as may be specified by order issued under this part subject to the approval of the Bureau of the Budget pursuant to the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

§ 8306.13 Regulations by owning agencies to be reported to the Administrator. Each owning agency shall file with the Administrator copies of all regulations, orders, and instructions of general applicability which it may issue in furtherance of the provisions, or any of them, of this part.

This revision of this part shall become effective November 16, 1945.

W. STUART SYMINGTON,
Administrator.

PART 8306—SALE OF GOVERNMENT-OWNED PLANT EQUIPMENT IN CONTRACTORS' PLANTS

EMERGENCY PLANT FACILITIES CONTRACTS

Surplus Property Board Regulation 6, Order 1, June 16, 1945 (10 F.R. 7579) is hereby revised and amended as herein set forth as Surplus Property Administration Regulation 6, Order 1.

A considerable number of war plants have been constructed or equipped by contractors under a type of contract known as the Emergency Plant Facilities Contract. Under this type of contract, the expense of construction or equipment is initially borne by the contractor, and the Government reimburses him for the expense by monthly payments over a specified period (usually five years). Title does not pass to the Government until full reimbursement has been made. It is usually provided in these contracts that reimbursement may be accelerated at the option of the Government.

The question has been raised whether and to what extent Emergency Plant Facilities Contracts are covered by this part. Since the plant equipment under Emergency Plant Facilities Contracts becomes Government-owned on completion of the payments, such equipment should be subject to disposal in the manner specified in this part, except in cases where the contract includes the land on which buildings or other facilities are erected. In this latter type of case, the entire project from the land up will be owned by the Government on completion of the payments. Plants of this kind are excluded from this part (§ 8306.1 (b) (3)).

Pursuant to the authority of the Surplus Property Act of 1944 (58 Stat. 765, 50 U.S.C. App. Sup. 1611) and Public Law 181, 79th Congress; It is hereby ordered, That:

1. This order shall apply to Emergency Plant Facilities Contracts under which (a) the expense of construction or equipment is initially borne by the contractor; (b) the Government reimburses him for the expense by monthly payments over a specified period; (c) title does not pass to the Government until full reimbursement has been made; and (d) reimbursement may be accelerated at the option of the Government.

2. Plant equipment which is subject to an Emergency Plant Facilities Contract having the characteristics described above is included within the provisions of this part in all cases except those where on completion of the payments by the Government the Government will own, or have a leasehold interest in, land on which buildings or other facilities have been constructed or installed pursuant to the contract.

This order shall become effective November 16, 1945.

W. STUART SYMINGTON,
Administrator.

PART 8306—SALE OF GOVERNMENT-OWNED PLANT EQUIPMENT IN CONTRACTORS' PLANTS

WAIVER OF REQUIREMENT FOR SUBMISSION OF INVENTORY ON NOVEMBER 1, 1945

Surplus Property Board Regulation 6, Order 3, September 25, 1945 (10 F.R. 12408), is hereby revised and amended as herein set forth as Surplus Property Administration Regulation 6, Order 3.

Pursuant to the authority of the Surplus Property Act of 1944 (58 Stat. 765, 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 1611) and Public Law 181, 79th Congress, and in accordance with § 8306.13; It is hereby ordered, That:

The requirements of Order 2 [1] under Part 8306, entitled "Forms for Reporting Inventories and Sales" that owning agencies submit to the Reconstruction Finance Corporation on or before November 1, 1945, a report as of September 30, 1945 of their inventories of government-owned plant equipment costing $350 or more and that the Reconstruction Finance Corporation submit summaries of such reports to the Surplus Property Administrator, are hereby waived.

This order shall become effective November 16, 1945.

W. STUART SYMINGTON,
Administrator.

TITLE 46—SHIPPING

Chapter I—Coast Guard: Inspection and Navigation

AMENDMENTS TO REGULATIONS

By virtue of the authority vested in me by R. S. 4405, 4417a, 4418, 4426, 4429, 4433, 4438, 4438a, 4450, 4463, 4470, as amended, 49 Stat. 1544, 54 Stat. 163–167, 1028 (46 U.S.C. 375, 391a, 392, 404, 407, 411, 224, 224a, 239, 222, 463, 367, 526–526t, 463a), and Executive Order No. 9083, dated February 28, 1942 (3 CFR, Cum. Supp.), the following amendments to the regulations are prescribed:

Subchapter C—Motorboats, and Certain Vessels Propelled by Machinery Other Than by Steam More Than 65 Feet in Length

PART 25—REQUIREMENTS FOR ALL MOTORBOATS EXCEPT THOSE OF OVER 15 GROSS TONS CARRYING PASSENGERS FOR HIRE

LICENSED OPERATORS

Section 25.8–3 is amended to read as follows:

§ 25.8–3 Professional qualifications and examination. (a) An applicant for a license as an operator shall submit a sworn application on the prescribed form to the Officer in Charge, Marine Inspection. The applicant shall be examined orally concerning his character and fitness to hold such license and a thorough inquiry shall be made into the proofs submitted concerning his character and ability. If, after the oral examination and investigation, the Officer in Charge, Marine Inspection, considers the applicant's capacity, knowledge, experience, character, and habits of life to be such as to warrant entrusting him with the duties and responsibilities involved in the operation and navigation of motorboats carrying passengers for hire, a license authorizing him to discharge such duties on any such motorboats for a term of five years shall be issued to him; except that when the applicant is the holder of a currently valid license as master, pilot, or other deck officer, a motorboat operator's license may be granted without requiring a physical or professional examination if recent service under his license can be shown, and such applicant shall not be required to surrender his license as master, pilot, or other deck officer.

(b) The examination will consist of questions on the regulations governing motorboats, the collision regulations applicable to the waters over which the applicant operates, fire protection and extinguishment, lifesaving equipment, the operation of propelling machinery, and, particularly, the safe and proper handling of gasoline motors, the proper method of operating and navigating motorboats carrying passengers, and simple first-aid. Although applicants will be examined only in the collision regulations applicable to the waters upon which they are operating, it will be incumbent upon them, should they at any time operate on waters for which the collision regulations differ, to familiarize themselves with the appropriate rules.

PART 28—SPECIFICATIONS AND PROCEDURE FOR APPROVAL OF EQUIPMENT

LIFESAVING EQUIPMENT

Section 28.4–8 (g) is amended by the addition of the following sentence at the end thereof:

§ 28.4–8 Specifications for kapok buoyant cushion. • • •

(g) Marking. • • • Tags of the flag or pennant type are not permitted.

Subchapter D—Tank Vessels

PART 36—LICENSED OFFICERS AND CERTIFICATED MEN

LICENSED OFFICERS

Section 36.1–12 is amended to read as follows:

§ 36.1–12 Signing and thumbprinting licenses—T/ALL. Every person to whom a license or certificate of lost license is issued shall place his signature and left thumbprint thereon, and upon any blank sheets attached for additional endorsements.

Subchapter F—Marine Engineering

PART 55—PIPING SYSTEMS

Section 55.19–8 is amended by deleting Figures P–1 to P–10, inclusive, with descriptions, and inserting new Figures P–1 to P–16, inclusive, with descriptions, in their place and by changing paragraph (e) to read as follows:

§ 55.19–8 Flange standards. • • •

(e) Methods of attachments. Flanges shall be attached to the pipe by any method shown by Figures P–1 to P–16, inclusive, or by any additional means that may be approved by the Commandant.

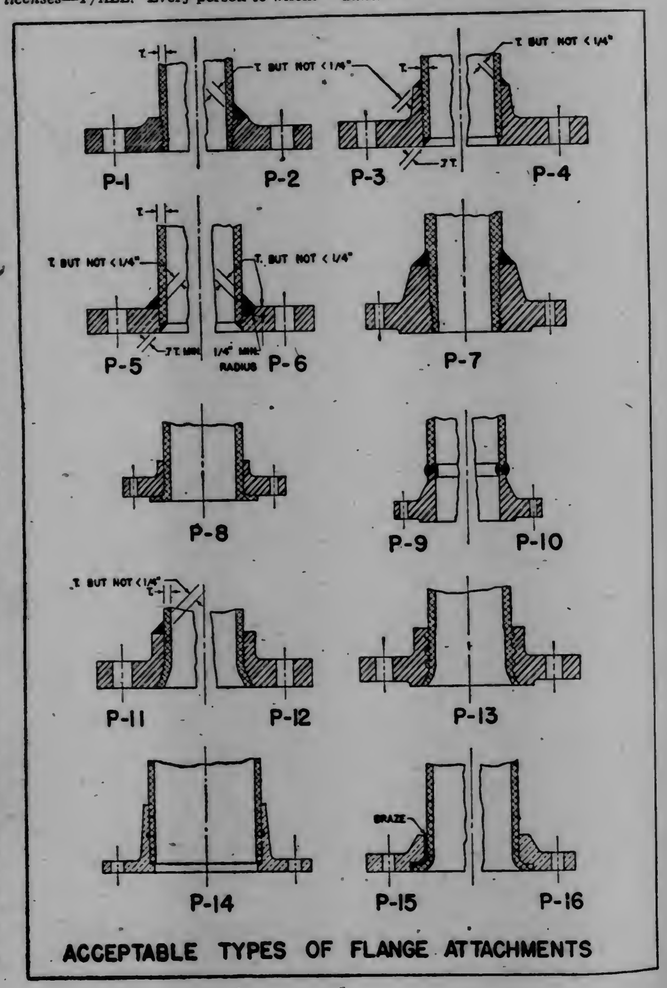

Figure P–1. Flanges with screwed threads may be used for Class I piping not exceeding 2 inches nominal pipe size. For Class II piping, flanges with screwed threads may be used without diameter limitation.

Figure P–2. Low hub flanges with screwed threads plus the addition of a strength fillet weld of the size as shown may be used for Class I piping for pressures not to exceed 300 pounds per square inch and for temperatures not exceeding 750° F.

Figure P–3. Slip-on flanges may be used for Class I piping for nominal pipe size not exceeding 2½ inches and for Class II piping without diameter limitation. The face of the flange shall extend beyond the end of the pipe at least equal to the thickness of the pipe wall and the flange shall be attached as shown by Figure P–3.

Figure P–4. Socket welding flanges may be used for Class I piping of nominal pipe size not exceeding 2½ inches. For Class II piping, socket welding flanges may be used without diameter limitation.

Figure P–5. Flanges machined from steel plate may be used for Class II piping for pressures not exceeding 125 pounds per square inch provided the steel plate meets the requirements of §§ 51.21–1 to 51.21–13, inclusive. The machined flanges shall comply with Table P–3. The face of the flanges shall extend beyond the end of the pipe at least equal to the thickness of the pipe wall and shall be attached as shown by Figure P–5.

Figure P–6. Steel plate flanges meeting the requirements listed for Figure P–5 may be used for Class II piping for pressures exceeding 125 pounds per square inch provided the flange is attached to the pipe as shown by Figure P–6.

Figure P–7. Pipe may be attached to high hub flanges where the end of the pipe and the bore of the flange are machined to a snug fit and the hub welded to the pipe as shown by Figure P–7.

Figure P–8. Lap joint flanges (Van Stone) may be used for Class I and Class II piping. The Van Stone equipment shall be operated by qualified personnel and the ends of the pipe shall be heated from 1650° to 1900° F. dependent upon the size of the pipe prior to the flanging operation. The foregoing temperatures shall be carefully adhered to in order to prevent excess scaling of the pipe. The extra thickness of metal built-up in the end of the pipe during the forming operation shall be machined to restore the pipe to its original diameter. The machined surface shall be free from surface defects and the back of the Van Stone lap shall be machined to a fine tool finish to furnish a line contact with the mating surface on the flange for the full circumference as close as possible to the fillet of the flange. The number of heats to be used in forming a flange shall be determined by the size of the pipe and not more than two push-ups per heat are permitted. The width of the lap flange shall be at least three times the thickness of the pipe wall and the end of the pipe shall be properly stress relieved after the flanging operation is completed. Manufacturers desiring to employ this type of joint shall demonstrate to an inspector that they have the proper equipment and personnel to produce acceptable lap joints.

Figure P–9. Welding neck flanges may be used on any piping provided the flanges are butt welded to the pipe. The joint shall be welded as indicated by Figure P–9 and a backing ring employed which will permit complete penetration of the weld metal.

Figure P–10. Welding neck flanges may also be attached to pipe by double-butt welds as shown by Figure P–10.

Figure P–11. Flanges may be attached by shrinking the flange on to the end of the pipe and flaring the end of the pipe to an angle of not less than 20°. A fillet weld of the size shown by Figure P–11 shall be used to attach the hub to the pipe. This type of flange is limited to a maximum pressure of 250 pounds per square inch at temperatures not exceeding 500° F.

Figure P–12. The flange of the type described and illustrated by Figure P–11 may be used for Class II piping with fillet weld omitted.

Figure P–13. Flanges may be attached by expanding the pipe into the grooves machined in the hub of the flange and flaring the end of the pipe to an angle of not less than 20°. This type of flange is limited to a maximum pressure of 250 pounds per square inch at a temperature not exceeding 500° F. For Class II piping, it is not required that the ends of the pipe be flared.

Figure P–14. Bronze alloy flanges may be used for temperature not exceeding 406° F. The hub of the flange shall be bored to a depth of not less than that required for a threaded connection the same diameter leaving a shoulder for the pipe to butt against. An annular groove of depth of not less than that required for a pipe thread of the same diameter shall be machined inside the hub of the flange. A preinserted ring of silver brazing alloy having a melting point of not less than 1000° F. and of sufficient quantity to fill the annular clearance between the flange and the pipe shall be inserted in the groove. The pipe shall then be inserted in the flange and sufficient heat applied externally to melt the brazing alloy until it completely fills the clearance between the hub of the flange and the pipe. A suitable flux shall be applied to the surfaces to be joined to insure an acceptable joint.

Figure P–15. Flanges may be attached to non-ferrous pipe by inserting the pipe in the flange and flanging the end of the pipe into the recess machined in the face of the flange to receive same. The width of the flange shall be not less than three times the pipe wall thickness. In addition thereto, the pipe shall be securely brazed to the wall of the flange. This flange is limited to a maximum temperature of 406° F.

Section 55.19–11 (d) is amended by changing subparagraphs (1) and (3) to read as follows:

§ 55.19–11 Class II piping. • • •

(d) Flanges. • • •

(1) Flanges shall be made of forged steel, cast steel, steel plate, wrought iron, bronze and malleable or cast iron or such other equivalent material as may be approved by the Commandant.

• • • • • •

(3) Flanges may be attached by any method specified by Figures P–1 to P–16, inclusive, or by any additional means that may be approved by the Commandant.

Subchapter G—Ocean and Coastwise: General Rules and Regulations

PART 61—FIRE APPARATUS; FIRE PREVENTION

Section 61.4 (c) (4) is amended by the addition of the following sentence at the end thereof:

§ 61.4 Steam and inert-gas fire-extinguishing systems. • • •

(c) Steam systems on mechanically propelled vessels contracted for on or after July 1, 1935. • • •

(4) • • • In lamp lockers, oil rooms, and like compartments, adequate means may be provided for ventilation if suitable dampers capable of being operated from outside the spaces are fitted in each vent duct.

Section 61.25 is amended by changing paragraphs (e) (1) and (f) to read as follows:

§ 61.25 Butane and propane gases for heating and cooking. • • •

(e) Piping and fittings. (1) The piping between the cylinders and appliances shall be seamless annealed copper tubing, type K, complying with Federal Specification WW–T–799a. The tubing connections shall be flared and the number held to a minimum.

• • • • • •

(f) Tests. Each joint of the piping between the cylinders and appliance shall have a soap solution applied and be tested with compressed air after installation and at each annual inspection. The test pressure shall be not less than twice the pressure at which the relief valve is set but in no case shall it be less than 50 pounds per square inch.

PART 62—LICENSED OFFICERS AND CERTIFICATED MEN

INSPECTED VESSELS

Section 62.6 is amended to read as follows:

§ 62.6 Signing and thumbprinting licenses. Every person to whom a license or certificate of lost license is issued shall place his signature and left thumbprint thereon, and upon any blank sheets attached for additional endorsements.

LICENSED MASTERS, MATES AND ENGINEERS

Section 62.114 is amended to read as follows:

§ 62.114 Signing and thumbprinting licenses. (a) Every person to whom a license or certificate of lost license is issued shall place his signature and left thumbprint thereon, and upon any blank sheets attached for additional endorsements.

(b) Every master, mate, or engineer, who receives a license shall make oath before an Officer in Charge, Marine Inspection, to be recorded upon his official file, that he will faithfully and honestly, according to his best skill and judgment, without concealment or reservation, perform all the duties required of him by law and obey all lawful orders of his superior officers.

Subchapter H—Great Lakes: General Rules and Regulations

PART 77—FIRE APPARATUS; FIRE PREVENTION

Section 77.4 (c) (4) is amended by the addition of the following sentence at the end thereof:

§ 77.4 Steam and inert-gas fire-extinguishing systems. (See § 61.4 of this chapter, as amended, which is identical with this section.)

Section 77.24 is amended by changing paragraphs (e) (1) and (f) to read as follows:

§ 77.24 Butane and propane gases for heating and cooking. (See § 61.25 of this chapter, as amended, which is identical with this section.)

Subchapter H—Great Lakes: General Rules and Regulations

PART 80—FERRYBOATS

Part 80 is amended by the addition of a new section 80.7 to follow immediately after section 80.6, reading as follows:

§ 80.7 Automobiles or other motor vehicles carried on ferryboats. (a) Automobiles or other motor vehicles shall be stowed in such a manner as to permit both passengers and operators to get out and away from them freely in the event of fire or other disaster. Where there is insufficient clearance to provide for easy egress or ingress at all times, both passengers and operators shall be directed to leave their vehicles and to occupy other spaces reserved for them during the crossing. The decks, where necessary, shall be definitely marked with painted lines to indicate the vehicle runways and the aisle spaces.

(b) The master shall take all necessary precautions to see that automobiles or other motor vehicles have their motors turned off when the ferryboat is under way and the motors shall not be started until the ferryboat is secured to the ferry landing.

(c) The master shall have appropriate "no smoking" signs posted and shall take all necessary precautions to prevent smoking or carrying of lighted or smoldering cigars, cigarettes, etc., in deck areas assigned to automobiles or other motor vehicles.

Part 117 is amended by the addition of a new section 117.7 to follow immediately after section 117.6, reading as follows:

§ 117.7 Automobiles or other motor vehicles carried on ferryboats. (See § 80.7 of this chapter, which is identical with this section.)

Subchapter K—Seamen

PART 136—"A" MARINE INVESTIGATION BOARD RULES

TEMPORARY WARTIME RULES GOVERNING INVESTIGATIONS OF ACCIDENTS AND CASUALTIES

Section 136.108 (c) is amended to read as follows:

§ 136.108 Witnesses and witness fees. • • •

(c) Witnesses, other than government employees, summoned to attend any investigation or other proceeding conducted hereunder shall upon application be paid:

(1) A fee of $2.00 for each day or fraction thereof.

(2) A subsistence allowance of $3.00 for each day or fraction thereof if the witness resides at a distance so far removed from place of hearing as to prohibit his returning home each day; Provided, That his services are required for more than one day.

(3) Five cents per mile is allowed for going from place of residence or place where the subpoena was served to place of hearing and five cents per mile for returning thereto, which travel must be via the shortest route.

(4) Witnesses whose depositions are taken and persons who take depositions shall upon application be paid the same fees as are paid for like services in the District Courts of the United States.

PART 141—MANNING OF INSPECTED VESSELS

Section 141.1 is amended to read as follows:

§ 141.1 Changes in certificates of inspection. All applications for changes in certificates of inspection relative to crew requirements shall be made to the Officer in Charge, Marine Inspection, at the port where the vessel actually is at the time the request is made.

Part 141 is amended by the addition of a new section 141.2 following immediately after section 141.1, reading as follows:

§ 141.2 Right of appeal. Whenever any person directly interested in or affected by any decision or action of any Officer in Charge, Marine Inspection, shall feel aggrieved by such decision or action with respect to manning requirements, he may appeal therefrom to the District Coast Guard Officer having jurisdiction, and a like appeal shall be allowed from any decision or action of the District Coast Guard Officer to the Commandant, whose action shall be final: Provided, however, That such appeals shall be made in writing within 30 days after the decision or action appealed from shall have been rendered or taken: And provided further, That pending the determination of the appeal the crew originally specified must be carried.

Dated: November 26, 1945.

L. T. CHALKER,
Rear Admiral, U. S. Coast Guard,
Acting Commandant.

97.3	247	107.3	297
97.5	248	107.5	298
97.7	249	107.7	299
97.9	250	107.9	300

Amended paragraphs (b) and (c) of § 3.203 Community stations to read:

(b) In Area I, 20 channels beginning with 104.1 megacycles and ending with 107.9 megacycles (Channels 281 through 300) are allocated for Community stations. All of these 20 channels are available in any community which is not the principal city of a metropolitan district. Ten of these channels are also available for assignment in principal cities of metropolitan districts which have fewer than 6 Metropolitan stations.[1]

(c) In Area II, 10 channels beginning with 104.1 megacycles and ending with 105.9 megacycles (Channels 281 through 290) are available for Community stations and may be used in any community which is not the principal city of a metropolitan district.[2]

[1] For the time being, until more FM stations are authorized, the Commission will not authorize Community stations in principal cities of metropolitan districts in Area I having 4 or more AM stations.

[2] The 10 frequencies from 106.1 to 107.9 megacycles which are available for Community stations in Area I but not in Area II will be assigned in Areas II in the future in accordance with the needs of the area as shown by future developments. In the meantime they will be available for facsimile.

Amended paragraph (c) of § 3.204 Metropolitan stations to read:

(c) Sixty frequencies are available for Metropolitan stations in Areas I and II. These frequencies begin at 92.1 megacycles and end at 103.9 megacycles (Channels 221 through 280).

By the Commission.

TITLE 49—TRANSPORTATION AND RAILROADS

Chapter I—Interstate Commerce Commission

[S. O. 71, Amdt. 2]

PART 95—CAR SERVICE

SUSPENSION OF CERTAIN RULES; LIVESTOCK SHIPMENTS

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 3, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 23d day of November A. D. 1945.

Upon further consideration of Service Order No. 71 (8 F.R. 8513), as amended, and good cause appearing therefor: It is ordered, That:

Service Order No. 71 (8 F.R. 8513), as amended be, and it is hereby, further amended by adding the following paragraphs thereto:

(6) Clean and disinfected cars. Feeder livestock requires clean and disinfected cars for transportation and such cars shall not be furnished for loading other livestock which can be transported in other cars. Clean and disinfected cars may be furnished for any livestock when the supply of such cars exceeds the demand for loading feeder livestock.

(7) Expiration date. This order shall expire at 11:59 p. m., December 31, 1945, unless otherwise modified, changed, suspended, or annulled by order of this Commission. (40 Stat. 101, sec. 402, 418; 41 Stat. 476, 485, sec. 4, 10; 54 Stat. 901, 912; 49 U.S.C. 1 (10)–(17))

It is further ordered, That this order shall become effective at 12:01 a. m., November 24, 1945; that copies of this order and direction shall be served upon the Association of American Railroads, Car Service Division, as agent of the railroads subscribing to the car service and per diem agreement under the terms of that agreement; and that notice of this order be given to the general public by depositing a copy in the office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D. C., and by filing it with the Director, Division of the Federal Register.

By the Commission, Division 3.

DISPOSITION OF SURPLUS ELECTRIC ENERGY UNDER CONTROL OF WAR DEPARTMENT

SOUTHWESTERN POWER ADMINISTRATION

I. The Administrator of the Southwestern Power Administration (hereinafter called the "Administrator") is hereby designated the marketing agent for the surplus electric energy, directed by the Act of December 22, 1944, (58 Stat.

[1] 50 CFR, 1944 Supp., 1.9.

837), to be marketed by the Secretary of the Interior, that is generated at the following projects under the control of the War Department:

Red-Ouachita River Basin

1. The Blakeley Mountain Dam Project on the Ouachita River in Arkansas, authorized by the Act of December 22, 1944, (58 Stat. 887, 895).

2. The Denison Dam and Reservoir Project on the Red River in Texas and Oklahoma, authorized by the Act of June 28, 1938, (52 Stat. 1215, 1219).

3. The Narrows Dam and Reservoir Project on the Little Missouri River in Arkansas, authorized by the Act of August 18, 1941, (55 Stat. 638, 645), and the Act of December 22, 1944, (58 Stat. 887, 895).

White River Basin

4. The Norfolk, Bull Shoals, and Table Rock Dam and Reservoir Projects, approved in the Act of June 28, 1938, (52 Stat. 1215, 1219) as modified by the Act of August 18, 1941, (55 Stat. 638, 645).

Arkansas River Basin

5. The Ft. Gibson and Markham Ferry Dam and Reservoir Projects on the Grand River in Oklahoma and Missouri, approved in the Act of August 18, 1941, (55 Stat. 638, 645).

6. The Nimrod Dam and Reservoir Project on the Fourche La Fave River in Arkansas, approved in the Act of June 28, 1938, (52 Stat. 1215, 1218).

Brazos River Basin

7. The Whitney Dam and Reservoir Project on the Brazos River in Texas, authorized by the Act of August 18, 1941 (55 Stat. 638, 642), and the Act of December 22, 1944, (58 Stat. 887, 899).

Neches and Angelina Rivers, Texas

8. The Rockland Reservoir Project on the Neches River, the McGee Bend Reservoir Project on the Angelina River, and power dams "A" and "B" on the Neches River below Rockland Dam, authorized by the Act of March 2, 1945, (Public Law 14, 79th Cong., 1st Sess.).

Guadalupe River, Texas

9. The Canyon Reservoir Project authorized by the Act of March 2, 1945, (Public Law 14, 79th Cong., 1st Sess.).

The Administrator also shall be the marketing agent for surplus energy available to the Secretary for disposition through the Administrator from all other projects that are built by the United States Army Corps of Engineers in the area which is defined as comprising the States of Arkansas and Louisiana, that part of the States of Kansas and Missouri lying south of the Missouri River Basin, and east of the 98th meridian, and that part of the States of Texas and Oklahoma lying east of the 99th meridian and north of the San Antonio River Basin.

The duties of the Administrator hereunder shall be in addition to his duties in connection with the management and operation of the Grand River Dam Project and the marketing of energy available therefrom and from the Denison and Norfolk Dam Projects in accordance with Executive Order 9366 (8 F. R. 10699), Executive Order No. 9373 (8 F. R. 12001), and Departmental Order No. 1865. In view of the increased responsibilities of the Administrator, this order is issued to define and amplify existing policies and procedures and the relationships of the Administrator with the Department as set forth in applicable orders of the Secretary, including Order No. 1820 as amended, which is hereby re-affirmed without modification.

II. Subject to all applicable statutes, Executive orders and orders of the Secretary, and within the limits of appropriations that may be available therefor:

1. The Administrator shall sell and dispose of all electric energy for which he is the marketing agent in such manner as to encourage the most widespread use thereof at the lowest possible rates to consumers consistent with sound business principles, giving preference in sales to public bodies and cooperatives. To the extent and in the manner that in his judgment may be necessary or appropriate for such effective marketing of the energy available to him, the Administrator shall (a) interconnect and arrange for the integrated operation of the electric facilities of all projects for which he is hereby made the marketing agent of surplus energy; and (b) interconnect such projects with other electric power systems and interchange electric energy with and purchase and sell electric energy from and to such systems. The Administrator may exercise the powers and functions vested in the Secretary by Act of December 22, 1944 (58 Stat. 887), Executive Orders Nos. 9366 and 9373, including the construction or acquisition by purchase or other agreement, and operation of transmission lines and other electrical facilities, and may employ such personnel and take such other action as may be necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of this order.

2. The Administrator may make such surveys, investigations, studies, and informational reports and may undertake, cooperate, or participate in such engineering, research and demonstrational work as he may determine to be useful and appropriate to aid the development of markets for the disposition of surplus electric energy for which he is the marketing agent, the widespread distribution and abundant utilization of such energy for industrial, domestic, agricultural, and other purposes. So far as practicable the Administrator shall consult and cooperate with the several Federal agencies, including agencies within the Department of the Interior, having an interest in the economic development of the area, and with the states and public and cooperative agencies therein, in the collecting and dissemination of information and data, the development of plans and the research and demonstrational work contemplated by this order.

3. To provide the widest possible use of and reasonable outlets for electric energy marketed by the Administrator and the purchase thereof by the ultimate consumer at the lowest possible rates consistent with sound business principles, and to prevent the monopolization of such energy by limited groups, the Administrator, to the extent and in the manner that in his judgment may be required, shall advise and assist public bodies and cooperatives who are purchasers or potential purchasers of electric energy from the Administrator in acquiring, operating, and maintaining distribution systems, or any portion or portions thereof, and related electric facilities and equipment.

4. The Administrator shall dispose of electric energy under contracts or agreements which contain such terms and conditions, including resale rate provisions, as in the judgment of the Administrator may be desirable and appropriate to effectuate the marketing policies established by the Congress and expressed in this order. Provision shall be made in contracts with privately-owned utilities engaged in the sale of electric energy to the general public to preserve and effectuate the preferential position of public bodies and cooperatives which may exist or thereafter be organized and which may desire to become purchasers of electric energy from the Administrator.

III. The Administrator shall submit promptly to the Secretary through the Division of Power a monthly and annual consolidated report of power operations, covering all projects for which the Administrator is the marketing agent and all electrical facilities under the control of the Administrator, that show income and expenses, allocation of fixed capital investments, and related financial and statistical information connected with the generation, transmission, purchase and sale of electric power and energy by the Administrator.

IV. The Administrator shall work out such arrangements with the Division and District Offices of the Corps of Engineers as may be necessary or desirable to enable the Administrator to perform his functions and duties hereunder, including arrangements for the exchange of financial information and data, and arrangements for the scheduling and delivery of electric power and energy to the Administrator for which he is the marketing agent.

V. For the coordination and integration of the program, projects, and activities of the agencies in the Department having an interest in the development of the resources of the area, and for the elimination of waste and duplication of effort, the Administrator shall advise such other agencies of the nature, scope, and progress of his activities hereunder that may concern or affect the activities of such other agencies, and shall make available to them such data and information in relation thereto as may be useful in the performance of their duties. All agencies within the Department, including field offices thereof, shall cooperate in like fashion with the Administrator.

VI. The Administrator, or such person as he may designate, shall be given opportunity to participate in the work of any intra-departmental organization or committee, and any inter-departmental organization or committee on which the Department has representation, for the making of surveys, investigations, or studies affecting power matters in the area.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 23d day of October 1945;

The Commission having under consideration the above applications of Nashville Radio Corporation (Docket No. 6108) and A. G. Beaman and T. B. Baker, Jr., a partnership d/b as Capitol Broadcasting Company (Docket No. 6669), both for permits to construct new standard broadcast stations at Nashville, Tennessee, to be operated on the frequency 1450 kilocycles, 250 watts unlimited time; the applications of E. E. Murray, Tony Sudekum, Harben Daniel and J. B. Fuqua, a partnership d/b as Tennessee Broadcasters (Docket No. 6648) and J. W. Birdwell (Docket No. 6649), both for permits to construct new standard broadcast stations at Nashville, Tennessee, to be operated on the frequency 1240 kilocycles, 250 watts unlimited time; the application of Tennessee Radio Corporation (Docket No. 6193) for a permit to construct a new standard broadcast station at Nashville, Tennessee, to be operated on the frequency 1240 kilocycles, 250 watts unlimited time, which was dismissed without prejudice on February 10, 1943, and a petition (filed September 25, 1945) of Tennessee Radio Corporation, requesting the reinstatement, leave to amend, and the granting of said application, as amended; and an application of Cecil N. Elrod, Cecil N. Elrod, Jr. and S. D. Wooten, Jr., a partnership d/b as Murfreesboro Broadcasting Service (Docket No. 6789) for a permit to construct a new station at Murfreesboro, Tennessee, to be operated on the frequency 1240 kilocycles, 250 watts unlimited time;

It is ordered, That the petition of Tennessee Radio Corporation (Docket No. 6193) be, and it is hereby granted, insofar as it requests the amendment of its application and the reinstatement of the said application, as amended.

It is further ordered, That the applications in Dockets Nos. 6108, 6669, 6648, 6649 and 6193, be and they are hereby designated for further hearing in a consolidated proceeding together with the application of Cecil N. Elrod, Cecil N. Elrod, Jr., and S. D. Wooten, Jr., a partnership d/b as Murfreesboro Broadcasting Service (Docket No. 6789), to be held at Washington, D. C., on the 19th day of December, 1945, each upon the following issue, in Dockets Nos. 6108, 6669, 6648, 6649 and 6193:

1. To determine on a comparative basis whether, in view of the facts to be adduced under the issues in Docket No. 6789 and the facts heretofore adduced under the issues in Dockets No. 6108, 6669, 6648, 6649 and 6193, which, if any, of the applications in this consolidated proceeding should be granted, and if so, which of the frequencies 1450 kilocycles or 1240 kilocycles should be assigned to the successful applicant or applicants.

And in the applications in Dockets Nos. 6648, 6649 and 6193, each upon the following additional issue:

2. To determine the nature, extent and effect of any interference which would result from the simultaneous operation of the proposed station with a station at Murfreesboro, Tennessee, as proposed in an application of Cecil N. Elrod, Cecil N. Elrod, Jr. and S. D. Wooten, Jr., a partnership d/b as Murfreesboro Broadcasting Service (Docket No. 6789), the areas and populations affected thereby, and the character of other broadcast service available to such areas and populations.

It is further ordered, That the application of Cecil N. Elrod, Cecil N. Elrod, Jr. and S. D. Wooten, Jr., a partnership d/b as Murfreesboro Broadcasting Service (Docket No. 6789), be and it is designated for hearing in a consolidated proceeding with Dockets Nos. 6108, 6669, 6648, 6649 and 6193, to be held at Washington, D. C. on the 19th day of December, 1945, on the following issues:

1. To determine the legal, technical, financial, and other qualifications of the applicant partnership, and of its members, to construct and operate the proposed station.

2. To determine the areas and populations which may be expected to gain primary service from the operation of the proposed station and the character of other broadcast service available to those areas and populations.

3. To determine the type and character of program service proposed to be rendered, and whether it would meet the requirements of the populations and areas proposed to be served.

4. To determine whether the operation of the proposed station would involve objectionable interference with any existing broadcast stations, and if so, the nature and extent thereof, the areas and populations affected thereby and the availability of other broadcast service to such areas and populations.

5. To determine the nature, extent and effect of any interference which would result from the simultaneous operation of the proposed station with stations at Nashville, Tennessee, as proposed in the applications of E. E. Murrey, Tony Sudekum, Harben Daniel and J. B. Fuqua, a partnership d/b as Tennessee Broadcasters (Docket No. 6648), J. W. Birdwell (Docket No. 6649) and Tennessee Radio Corporation (Docket No. 6193), the areas and populations affected thereby, and the character of other broadcast service available to such areas and populations.

6. To determine whether the operation of the proposed station would involve objectionable interference with services proposed in any other pending applications for broadcast facilities, and is so, the nature and extent thereof, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the character of other broadcast service to such areas and populations.

7. To determine whether the installation and operation of the proposed station would be in compliance with the Commission's rules and standards of good engineering practice concerning standard broadcast stations.

8. To determine whether the erection of the antenna system proposed herein would be consistent with existing Civil Aeronautics Administration requirements and whether such antenna would create an undue aeronautical hazard.

9. To determine whether, in view of the facts to be adduced under the foregoing issues and the facts heretofore adduced under the issues in Dockets Nos. 6108, 6669, 6648, 6649 and 6193, which, if any, of the applications in this consolidated proceeding should be granted, and if so, which of the frequencies 1450 kilocycles or 1240 kilocycles should be assigned to the successful applicant or applicants.

By the Commission.

RAOUL CORTEZ

NOTICE OF HEARING

In the matter of modification of construction permit of Raoul Cortez, San Antonio, Texas, Docket No. 6984, File No. B3-P-3743.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C. on the 14th day of November, 1945;

The Commission having before it the application of Austin Broadcasting Company, for construction permit (File No. B3-P-4192) to erect a new standard broadcast station at Austin, Texas, for the use of the frequency 1300 kc, with 1 kw power, unlimited time, D. A. at night;

It appearing, that on October 24, 1945, the Commission granted the application of Raoul Cortez, San Antonio, Texas, for a construction permit to erect a new standard broadcast station at that place, to operate on the frequency 1300 kc, with 1 kw power, daytime only (File No. B3-P-3743); and

It further appearing, that the use of the frequency 1300 kc, unlimited time, at Austin, Texas, may result in the addition of a new primary broadcast service day and night to a substantial population and area in and around Austin, Texas which may constitute a more efficient use of that frequency than would be the use of that frequency daytime only at San Antonio, Texas; that said frequency 1300 kc can be used unlimited time at Austin, Texas with a power output of 1 kw without resulting in objectionable interference to any existing station, provided the proposed station of Raoul Cortez at San Antonio, Texas, is shifted from the frequency 1300 to 1350 kc; that the frequency 1350 kc may be used at San Antonio, Texas, daytime only, without resulting in objectionable interference to any existing station; and that public interest, convenience and necessity may be served by assigning the frequency 1300 kc to Austin Broadcasting Company at Austin, Texas, and the frequency 1350 kc to Raoul Cortez at San Antonio, Texas;

Now, therefore, It is ordered, That opportunity be, and it is hereby, afforded Raoul Cortez, permittee, San Antonio, Texas, to show cause at a hearing before the Commission, commencing at 10 o'clock A. M., on Monday, the 17th day of December 1945, why the construction permit issued to Raoul Cortez, San Antonio, Texas should not be modified so as to specify the use by him of the frequency 1350 kc in lieu of the frequency 1300 kc.

It is further ordered, That the hearing in the above-entitled matter be, and it is hereby, consolidated with the hearing this day ordered upon the application of Austin Broadcasting Company, Austin, Texas, for construction permit (File No. B3-P-4192, Docket No. 6985).

Docket No. 6773, File No. B4-P-3750.

You are hereby notified that the Commission has examined the application in the above entitled case and has designated the matter for hearing in cosolidation with the applications of the Chronicle Publishing Company, Inc., Marion, Indiana (File No. B4-P-4109; Docket No. 6798) and Booth Radio Stations, Inc., Logansport, Indiana (File No. B4-P-4108; Docket No. 6799), to be held in Washington, D. C. on December 19, 1945 at 10:00 a. m. on the following issues:

1. To determine the legal, technical, financial, and other qualifications of the applicant partnership, and of its members, to construct and operate the proposed station.

2. To determine the areas and populations which may be expected to gain primary service from the operation of the proposed station and the character of other broadcast service available to those areas and populations.

3. To determine the type and character of program service proposed to be rendered and whether it would meet the requirements of the areas and populations proposed to be served.

4. To determine the qualifications of the personnel to be employed in the operation of the proposed station.

5. To determine the extent of any interference which would result from the simultaneous operation of the proposed station and stations WHBU, Anderson, Indiana, WCPO, Cincinnati, Ohio, WBOW, Terre Haute, Indiana and WJOB, Hammond, Indiana, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the character of other broadcast service available to such areas and populations.

6. To determine whether the operation of the proposed station would involve objectionable interference with any other existing broadcast stations, and if so, the nature and extent thereof, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the availability of other broadcast service to such areas and populations.

7. To determine the extent of any interference which would result from the simultaneous operation of the proposed station, and a station at Logansport, Indiana, as proposed in the application of Booth Radio Stations, Inc. (File No. B4-P-4108; Docket No. 6799), the areas and populations affected thereby, and the availability of other broadcast service to such areas and populations.

8. To determine whether the operation of the proposed station would involve objectionable interference with services proposed in any other pending applications for broadcast facilities, and if so, the nature and extent thereof, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the availability of other broadcast service to such areas and populations.

9. To determine whether the installation and operation of the proposed station would be in compliance with the Commission's rules and standards of good engineering practice concerning standard broadcast stations.

10. To determine whether the erection of the antenna system proposed herein would be consistent with existing Civil Aeronautics Administration requirements and whether such antenna would create an undue aeronautical hazard.

The applicant is hereby given the opportunity to obtain a hearing on such issues by filing a written appearance in accordance with the provisions of § 1.382 (b) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure. STATION KROY, SACRAMENTO, CALIF.

PROPOSED ASSIGNMENT OF LICENSE

The Commission hereby gives notice that on November 14, 1945 there was filed with it an application (B5-AL-508) for its consent under section 310 (b) of the Communications Act (47 U. S. C. A. 310) to the proposed assignment of license of standard broadcast station KROY, Sacramento, California from Royal Miller, Marion Miller, L. H. Penney, and Gladys W. Penney, a partnership doing business as Royal Miller Radio, to Harmco, Inc. (a California corporation), Sacramento, California. The proposal to assign said license is based upon an agreement between the above indicated partners and Harmco, Inc. dated October 25, 1945 pursuant to which said partners agree to sell to said corporation the properties, business, and good will of Station KROY (except accounts receivable) for a purchase price of $150,000 of which amount $10,000 is to be paid in escrow (to the Capital National Bank of Sacramento), the remaining $140,000 to be paid immediately upon notification by the Commission of approval of the proposed assignment. Other details of the contract and concerning the application may be determined from the application on file at the offices of the Commission.

In the Commission's decision of September 6, 1945 granting the application for transfer of control of the Crosley Corporation (Docket No. 6767), it was announced that public hearings would be held to consider proposed new rules and regulations for the handling of assignment and transfer applications including provision for public notice by the applicant and the Commission of the filing of such applications and pertinent details in cases where a controlling interest is involved. Thereafter on October 3, 1945, the Commission also gave public notice (10 FR 12926) that pending the issuance of such proposed new rules, hearing thereon, and final adoption, such applications would be deferred unless applicants desired to follow the procedure proposed in the WLW decision, and supplement their applications so as to come within the framework of the announced procedure including the provision for public notice. Pursuant thereto the Commission was advised on November 14, 1945 that notice would be inserted in a newspaper of general circulation in Sacramento, California of the proposed assignment of the license and sale of the properties and business of KROY as indicated above.

In accordance with the procedure proposed in the WLW decision and that announced in the Commission's release no action will be had upon the KROY application for a period of 60 days from November 14, 1945, within which time other persons desiring to apply for the facilities involved may do so upon the same terms and conditions as set forth in the above-described contract.

KMTR RADIO CORP.

PROPOSED TRANSFER OF CONTROL

The Commission hereby gives notice that on November 9, 1945, there was filed with it an application (B5-TC-471) for its consent under section 310 (b) of the Communications Act (47 USCA 310) to the proposed transfer of control of KMTR Radio Corporation (licensee of standard broadcast station KMTR, Los Angeles, California) from Marilynne Dalton Alcorn and other stockholders to Dorothy S. Thackrey, 75 West Street, New York City. The proposed transfer of control of the above licensee is based upon a contract entered into between the selling stockholders and the proposed stock purchaser, Dorothy S. Thackrey, June 6, 1945, as supplemented by a further contract of September 12, 1945, and escrow arrangements with the Chemical Bank and Trust Company of New York. Pursuant to the arrangements, purchaser proposes to acquire 747½ shares of the 1,000 shares issued and outstanding of the common voting stock of licensee for $375 per share, subject to certain adjustments as to differences between current assets and liabilities upon closing. The stock certificates, resignations of officials, and cash, cashier's check, or bonds in the amount of the consideration are to be delivered in escrow to the aforenamed escrow agent subject to Commission approval of the application. The agreement shall be null and void if the Commission denies the application on or before December 31, 1945, or if such approval is not obtained prior to said date, subject to an option in purchaser to extend the time to March 31, 1946. Further details as to the arrangements between the parties and pertaining to the application may be determined from an examination of the application and associated papers on file at the offices of the Commission.

In the Commission's decision of September 6, 1945, granting the application for transfer of control of the Crosley Corporation (Docket No. 6767), it was announced that public hearings would be held to consider proposed new rules and regulations for the handling of assignment and transfer applications including provision for public notice by the applicant and the Commission of the filing of such applications and pertinent details in cases where a controlling interest is involved. Thereafter, on October 3, 1945, the Commission also gave public notice (10 FR 12926) that pending the issuance of such proposed new rules, hearing thereon, and final adoption, consideration of such applications would be deferred unless applicants desired to follow the procedure proposed in the WLW decision, and supplement their applications so as to come within the framework of the announced procedure including the provision for public notice. Pursuant thereto, the Commission was advised on November 16, 1945, that notice would be inserted in the Los Angeles Daily News (a Los Angeles paper of general circulation) of the proposed transfer of control of the licensee.

In accordance with the procedure proposed in the WLW decision and that announced in the Commission's release, no action will be had upon the KMTR application for a period of 60 days from November 9, 1945, within which time other persons desiring to apply for the facilities involved may do so upon the same terms and conditions as set forth in the above-described contract.

NEWARK BROADCASTING CORP.

ORDER DESIGNATING APPLICATION FOR HEARING ON STATED ISSUES

In re application of Newark Broadcasting Corporation, Newark, New Jersey, for construction permit. Docket No. 6190; File No. B1-P-3249.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 23d day of October, 1945;

The Commission having under consideration (1) the above-entitled application of Newark Broadcasting Corporation, for a permit to construct a new standard broadcast station at Newark, New Jersey, to be operated on the frequency 620 kilocycles, with power of 5 kilowatts, unlimited time, using a directional antenna day and night; which application, by Order of the Commission, dated November 9, 1944, was reinstated and designated for hearing upon certain issues contained in the said Order, of November 9, 1944; and (2) the petitions of Newark Broadcasting Corporation, dated respectively January 15, 1945 and September 7, 1945, requesting the "reinstatement" and grant of the above-entitled application;

It is ordered, That the said application be, and the same is hereby designated for hearing in a consolidated proceeding with the applications of: Donald Flamm, New York, N. Y. (Docket No. 6790); The Metropolitan Broadcasting Service, New York, N. Y. (Docket No. 6791); WAGE, Inc. (WAGE), Syracuse, New York (Docket No. 6792); and WCAX Broadcasting Corporation (WCAX), Burlington, Vermont (Docket No. 6793), to be held at Washington, D. C. on the 7th day of January 1946, upon the following issues in Docket No. 6190:

1. To obtain information concerning the legal, technical, financial and other qualifications of the applicant corporation, and of its officers, directors and stockholders, to construct and operate the proposed station.

2. To determine the areas and populations which may be expected to gain primary service from the operation of the proposed station and what other broadcast services are available to these areas and populations.

3. To obtain information concerning the type and character of the program service which applicant may be expected to render and to determine the extent to which such service is now being rendered by any other station or stations servicing the proposed area in whole or in part.

4. To determine the nature of any interference which would result from the simultaneous operation of the proposed station and (1) from the daytime operation of Station WIP, Philadelphia, Pa., and (2) from the daytime operation of Station WICC, Bridgeport, Conn., as well as the areas and populations affected thereby, and the nature of other broadcast services available to those areas and populations.

5. To determine whether the antenna, transmitter and other items of equipment proposed to be employed in the construction and operation of the proposed station would be in compliance with the Commission's Rules and Standards of Good Engineering Practice.

6. To determine whether the operation of the proposed station at the transmitter site specified would be satisfactory and consistent with the Commission's Standards of Good Engineering Practice.

7. To determine whether the operation of the proposed station would provide (1) a minimum field intensity of 25 mv/m to the business district of Newark, and (2) primary service to the New York-Northeastern New Jersey Metropolitan District, in accordance with the Commission's Rules and Standards of Good Engineering Practice.

8. To determine the nature, extent and effect of any interference which would result from the simultaneous operation of the proposed station and from the operation of stations at New York, N. Y., as proposed in the applications of Donald Flamm (Docket No. 6790) and The Metropolitan Broadcasting Service (Docket No. 6791); Station WAGE at Syracuse, New York, as proposed in the application of WAGE, Inc. (Docket No. 6792); and Station WCAX at Burlington, Vermont, as proposed in the application of WCAX Broadcasting Corporation (Docket No. 6793); the areas and populations affected thereby, and the character of other broadcast service available to such areas and populations.

9. To determine whether the operation of the proposed station would involve objectionable interference with services proposed in any other pending applications for broadcasting facilities and if so, the nature and extent thereof, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the availability of other broadcast service to such areas and populations.

10. To determine whether, in view of the facts adduced under the above issues, as well as under the issues in the applications of Donald Flamm (Docket No. 6790), The Metropolitan Broadcasting Service (Docket No. 6791), WAGE, Inc. (WAGE) (Docket No. 6792), and WCAX Broadcasting Corporation (WCAX) (Docket No. 6793), any of these conflicting applications should be granted, and if so, which one.

11. To determine whether the erection of the antenna system proposed herein would be consistent with Civil Aeronautics Administration requirements.

NOTE: The above issues supersede and replace the issues heretofore promulgated in the Commission's Order of November 9, 1944.

It is further ordered, That the Pennsylvania Broadcasting Company (WIP), Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and the Yankee Network (WICC), Bridgeport, Connecticut, be and they are hereby made parties to this proceeding.

It is further ordered, That the above petitions of Newark Broadcasting Corporation, be and they are hereby dismissed.

By the Commission.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 23d day of October 1945;

The Commission having under consideration the above application of WCAX Broadcasting Corporation, for a permit to increase the power of Station WCAX, Burlington, Vermont (operating on the frequency 620 kilocycles) from 1 to 5 kilowatts, to install a new transmitter and to make changes in the directional antenna;

It is ordered, That the said application be, and it is hereby designated for hearing, in a consolidated proceeding with the applications of Donald Flamm, New York City, New York (Docket No. 6790), The Metropolitan Broadcasting Service, New York City, New York (Docket No. 6791), WAGE, Inc. (WAGE), Syracuse, New York (Docket No. 6792) and Newark Broadcasting Corporation, Newark, New Jersey (Docket No. 6190), to be held at Washington, D. C., on the 7th day of January 1946, upon the following issues:

1. To determine the technical, financial, and other qualifications of the applicant corporation and of its directors, officers and stockholders, to construct and operate Station WCAX as proposed.

2. To determine the areas and populations which may be expected to gain or lose primary service from the proposed operation of Station WCAX and the character of other broadcast service available to those areas and populations.

3. To determine the type and character of program service proposed to be rendered and whether it would meet the requirements of the areas and populations proposed to be served.

4. To determine whether the proposed operation of Station WCAX would involve objectionable interference with any existing broadcast stations, and if so, the nature and extent thereof, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the availability of other broadcast service to such areas and populations.

5. To determine the nature, extent and effect of any interference which would result from the simultaneous operation of Station WCAX as proposed with new stations at New York City, New York as proposed in the applications of Donald Flamm (Docket No. 6790) and The Metropolitan Broadcasting Service (Docket No. 6791); Station WAGE at Syracuse, New York, as proposed in the application of WAGE, Inc. (Docket No. 6792), and a new station at Newark, New Jersey, as proposed in the application of Newark Broadcasting Corporation (Docket No. 6190); the areas and populations affected thereby and the character of other broadcast service available to such areas and populations.

6. To determine whether the operation of the proposed station would involve objectionable interference with services proposed in any other pending applications for broadcast facilities, and if so, the nature and extent thereof, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the availability of other broadcast service to such areas and populations.

7. To determine whether the installation and operation of the proposed station would be in compliance with the Commission's Rules and Standards of Good Engineering Practice concerning standard broadcast stations.

8. To determine whether the erection of the antenna system proposed herein would be consistent with Civil Aeronautics Administration requirements.

9. To determine whether, in view of the facts adduced under the foregoing issues and under the issues in the applications of Donald Flamm (Docket No. 6790), The Metropolitan Broadcasting Service (Docket No. 6791), WAGE, Inc. (WAGE) (Docket No. 6792) and Newark Broadcasting Corporation (Docket No. 6190), any of these mutually exclusive applications should be granted, and if so, which one.

By the Commission.

FRANK PARKER

ORDER DESIGNATING APPLICATION FOR CONSOLIDATED HEARING

In re application of Frank Parker, Danbury, Connecticut, for construction permit. Docket No. 6986; File No. B1-P-4209.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 21st day of November 1945;

The Commission having under consideration an application (filed November 9, 1945) by Frank Parker, for a construction permit (File No. B1-P-4209; Docket No. 6986) for a new standard broadcast station at Danbury, Connecticut, using the frequency 1490 kc. with 100 watts power, unlimited time, together with a petition requesting that the said application be consolidated for hearing with the three following conflicting applications, namely: Murray L. Grossman, tr/as The Danbury Broadcasting Company (File No. B1-P-4017; Docket No. 6896); The Berkshire Broadcasting Corporation (File No. B1-P-4155; Docket No. 6897), both for Danbury, Connecticut; and Torrington Broadcasting, Inc., Torrington, Connecticut (File No. B1-P-4154; Docket No. 6895), (all seeking the use of 1490 kc. with 250 watts power, unlimited time), which on October 23, 1945, were designated for hearing in a consolidated proceeding:

It is ordered, That the above petition be granted; and

It is further ordered, That the application of Frank Parker be, and it is hereby designated for hearing in a consolidated proceeding with the above applications of Murray L. Grossman, tr/as The Danbury Broadcasting Company, The Berkshire Broadcasting Corporation, and Torrington Broadcasting, Inc.

PORT HURON BROADCASTING CO.

ORDER DESIGNATING APPLICATION FOR HEARING ON STATED ISSUES

In the matter of the application of Herman L. Stevens and Harmon L. Stevens, d/b as Port Huron Broadcasting Company (WHLS), Port Huron, Michigan, for renewal of license. File No. B2-R-976; Docket No. 6987.

Whereas, a complaint has been received alleging that Herman L. Stevens and Harmon L. Stevens, licensees of Station WHLS, Port Huron, Michigan, after having sold time to Carl E. Muir for a series of broadcasts in support of his candidacy for re-election as a City Commissioner of Port Huron at a municipal election held on April 2, 1945, cancelled the scheduled broadcasts after receipt and examination of the script of the first broadcast prior to its delivery and refused to permit the use of the station's facilities by said Muir on the ground that they believed the script to be unsuitable for broadcasting and to contain certain libelous or defamatory remarks; and

Whereas, a second complaint has been received alleging that the said licensees, after having sold other time for broadcasts in behalf of the candidacies of Harold E. Davis and Nelson Tobias, also candidates for the office of City Commissioner, cancelled the proposed broadcasts because "Mr. Muir has seen fit to cause trouble for WHLS" and the licensees were therefore "refusing the facilities of WHLS to any candidate" for City Commissioner; and

Whereas, it appears that the facilities of Station WHLS were in fact used by Mr. Muir for delivery of a political address on March 5, 1945;

Now, therefore, it is hereby ordered, This 21st day of November, 1945, that pursuant to the provisions of section 309 (a) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the application for renewal of license of Herman L. Stevens and Harmon L. Stevens, d/b as Port Huron Broadcasting Company, licensees of Radio Station WHLS, Port Huron, Michigan, be, and it is hereby, designated for hearing to determine (1) whether the refusal of the said licensees to permit their facilities to be used for the scheduled broadcast by the said Muir constituted an act of censorship by the said licensees in violation of the provisions of section 315 of the Communications Act, and (2) whether the refusal of said licensees to permit their facilities to be used by any of the candidates referred to above on the ground that the facilities were not to be used by any candidate constituted a violation of the provisions of section 315 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

[Docket Nos. G-667, G-668, G-672, G-673]

NORTHERN NATURAL GAS CO.

APPLICATION FOR CERTIFICATE OF PUBLIC CONVENIENCE AND NECESSITY

NOVEMBER 23, 1945

It appearing to the Commission that:

(a) On November 9, 1945, the Commission set the matters involved and the issues presented by the applications for certificates of public convenience and necessity under section 7 (c) of the Natural Gas Act in the above dockets for consolidated hearing in Washington, D. C., on November 28, 1945;

(b) Telegraphic requests have been received from counsel for the railroads serving Iowa and Minnesota and counsel for Maher Coal Bureau, representing Northwest Coal Docks at the head of the Lakes, asking that the hearing in these matters now set for November 28, 1945, be postponed, and representing that attendance at hearings in the Natural Gas Investigation, Docket No. G-580, has made appropriate preparation for such hearing impossible;

(c) On November 5, 1945, Northern Natural Gas Company, on the ground that this winter's requirements of firm customers create an emergency situation justifying the issuance of certificate of public convenience and necessity pursuant to the provisions of section 7 (c) of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, requested authorization to construct and operate the following facilities for which, in addition to other construction, an application for certificate of public convenience and necessity was filed on September 27, 1945, in Docket No. G-667:

	Estimated cost of construction
1. Construction of approximately 20.1 miles of the 31.56 miles of 20-inch O. D. loop line in Iowa, described on page 6 of the Application, extending Northerly from Applicant's Ogden Compressor Station	$469,417
2. Construction of approximately 9.8 miles of the 37.85 miles of 24-inch O. D. loop line in Kansas, described on page 5 of the Application, extending Northeasterly from a point 23.7 miles Northeast of Applicant's Mullinville Compressor Station in continuation of existing loop	291,043
3. Construction of approximately 7.0 miles of the 30.0 miles of 24-inch loop line described on page 5 of the Application, extending Northeasterly from a point approximately 42.5 miles Northeast of Applicant's Bushton Compressor Station in continuation of existing loop line	$213,099
4. Construction of approximately 13.5 miles of 24-inch O. D. pipe line as described on pages 5 and 6 of the Application, extending Southwesterly from Applicant's Beatrice Compressor Station	434,189
Total	$1,407,748

The Commission finds that:

(1) Good cause exists for the postponement of the public hearing in the above consolidated proceedings now set to begin on November 28, 1945, in the Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 1800 Pennsylvania Avenue, N. W., Washington, D. C.;

(2) It is appropriate in the public interest that a public hearing be held respecting the matters involved and the issue arising out of the application of Northern Natural Gas Company for authority to construct and operate the facilities described in paragraph (c) above;

The Commission orders that:

(A) The public hearing with respect to the consolidated proceedings now set to begin on November 28, 1945, in Washington, D. C., be and the same is hereby postponed to a date to be hereafter fixed by order of the Commission;

(B) A public hearing be held with respect to the matters involved and the issues presented by the application of Northern Natural Gas Company for a certificate of public convenience and necessity under section 7 (c) of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, with respect to the facilities set forth in paragraph (c) above, beginning on December 3, 1945, at 10:00 a. m. (C. s. t.) in Room 1050, U. S. Custom House, 610 S. Canal Street, Chicago, Illinois.

(C) Interested State commissions may participate in this hearing in accordance with § 67.4 of the provisional rules of practice and regulations under the Natural Gas Act.

UNLOADING OF CRANE PARTS AT NEW ORLEANS, LA.

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 3, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 26th day of November, A. D. 1945.

It appearing, that car PRR 281820 containing crane parts at New Orleans, Louisiana, on the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company has been on hand for an unreasonable length of time and that the delay in unloading said car is impeding its use; in the opinion of the Commission an emergency exists requiring immediate action; it is ordered, that:

Crane parts at New Orleans, Louisiana, be unloaded. (a) The Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company, its agents or employees shall unload forthwith car PRR 281820 containing crane parts on hand at New Orleans, Louisiana, consigned Higgins Industries, New Orleans, Louisiana.

(b) Said carrier shall notify the Director of the Bureau of Service, Interstate Commerce Commission, Washington, D. C., when such carload has been completely unloaded in compliance with the requirements of paragraph (a). Upon the unloading and receipt of such notice this order shall expire. (40 Stat. 101, sec. 402, 41 Stat. 476, sec. 4, 54 Stat. 901, 911; 49 U.S.C. 1 (10)-(17), 15 (2))

It is further ordered, that this order shall become effective immediately, and that a copy of this order and direction shall be served upon the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company, and upon the Association of American Railroads, Car Service Division, as agent of the railroads subscribing to the car service and per diem agreement under the terms of that agreement; and that notice of this order be given to the general public by depositing a copy in the office of the Secretary of the Commission, at Washington, D. C., and by filing it with the Director, Division of the Federal Register.

EMBARGO OF LESS CARLOAD FREIGHT AT TWIN CITIES, MINN.

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 3, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 26th day of November A. D. 1945.

It appearing, that a strike of terminal truck lines at Minneapolis, St. Paul and Minnesota Transfer, Minnesota, is causing congestion of freight houses of rail carriers serving those points and that the said rail carriers are unable to accept the less-than-carload traffic offered to them for movement over their lines; the Commission is of the opinion an emergency exists requiring immediate action at those three points to avoid congestion of traffic, and to best promote the service in the interest of the public and the commerce of the people: It is ordered, that Embargo of less carload freight at Twin Cities. (a) No common carrier by railroad subject to the Interstate Commerce Act serving, Minneapolis, St. Paul or Minnesota Transfer, Minnesota, shall accept any outbound less-than-carload shipment of freight at those points:

(b) Effective date. This order shall become effective at 12:01 a. m., November 27th, 1945.

(c) Expiration date. This order shall expire at 12:01 a. m., December 6th, 1945, unless otherwise modified, changed, suspended or annulled by order of this Commission. (40 Stat. 101, sec. 402, 418, 41 Stat. 476, 485; sec. 4, 10; 54 Stat. 901, 912; 49 U. S. C. 1 (10)-(17), 15 (4))

It is further ordered, that copies of this order and direction be served upon the Association of American Railroads, Car Service Division, as agent of all railroads subscribing to the car service and per diem agreement under the terms of that agreement; and that notice of this order be given to the general public by depositing a copy thereof in the office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D. C., and by filing it with the Director, Division of the Federal Register.

MARTHA S. PARKER

In re: Trust under the will of Martha S. Parker, deceased; File No. D-6-1211; E. T. Sec. 13572.

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, after investigation, finding;

That the property described as follows: All right, title, interest and claim of any kind or character whatsoever of Martha Sakrausky and her issue, and each of them, in and to the trust created under the will of Martha S. Parker, deceased, is property payable or deliverable to, or claimed by, nationals of a designated enemy country, Germany, namely,

Nationals and Last Known Address

Martha Sakrausky, Austria.
Issue of Martha Sakrausky, Austria.

That such property is in the process of administration by The Fiduciary Trust Company, as sole and surviving trustee under the will of Martha S. Parker, acting under the judicial supervision of the Probate Court, County of Essex, State of Massachusetts;

And determining that to the extent that such nationals are persons not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such persons be treated as nationals of a designated enemy country (Germany);

And having made all determinations and taken all action required by law, including appropriate consultation and certification, and deeming it necessary in the national interest, hereby vests in the Alien Property Custodian the property described above, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in an appropriate account or accounts, pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This order shall not be deemed to limit the power of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof in whole or in part, nor shall it be deemed to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined to take any one or all of such actions.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed, file with the Alien Property Custodian on Form APC-1 a notice of claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of Executive Order No. 9095, as amended.

OFFICE OF PRICE ADMINISTRATION.

[SO 119, Order 18]

THE PRETTY-SCHEFFER CO.

ADJUSTMENT OF CEILING PRICES

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register, and pursuant to sections 13 and 14 of Supplementary Order No. 119, it is ordered:

(a) Manufacturer's maximum prices. The Pretty-Scheffer Company, Cambridge Street, Coshocton, Ohio, may increase by no more than 14.5 percent its ceiling prices to each class of purchaser for natural rubber bathroom accessories of its manufacture.

(b) Ceiling prices of purchasers for resale. Purchasers for resale of such articles which the manufacturer has sold at adjusted maximum prices shall determine their ceiling prices as follows:

(1) A purchaser for resale who delivered or offered for delivery during March 1942 an article which meets the definition of "most comparable article" contained in § 1499.3 (a) of the General Maximum Price Regulation, except that it need not be currently offered for sale, shall calculate his ceiling price by adding to his invoice cost the same markup which he had on that comparable article, according to the method and procedure set forth in that section.

The determination of a ceiling price in this way need not be reported to the Office of Price Administration; however, each seller must keep complete records showing all the information called for by OPA Form 620–759 with regard to how he determined his ceiling price, for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect.

(2) If a purchaser for resale cannot determine his ceiling price under the above method, he shall apply to the Office of Price Administration for the establishment of his ceiling price under § 1499.3 (c) of the General Maximum Price Regulation. Ceiling prices established under that section will reflect the supplier's prices adjusted in accordance with this order.

(c) Terms of sale. Ceiling prices adjusted by this order are subject to each seller's terms, discounts, and allowances on sales to each class of purchaser in effect during March 1942, or thereafter properly established under OPA regulations.

(d) Notification. At the time of, or prior to, the first invoice to a purchaser for resale on and after the effective date of this order, showing prices adjusted in accordance with this order, the seller shall notify the purchaser in writing of the method established in paragraph (b) of this order for determining adjusted maximum prices for resale of the articles. This notice may be given in any convenient form.

(e) All requests for adjustment of maximum prices not specifically granted by this order are hereby denied.

(f) This order may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

(g) This order shall become effective on November 27, 1945.

Issued this 26th day of November 1945.

(b) Ceiling prices of purchasers for resale. Purchasers for resale of such articles which the manufacturer has sold at adjusted maximum prices permitted by paragraph (a) above, shall determine their adjusted maximum prices as follows:

(1) A purchaser for resale who delivered or offered for delivery during March, 1942, an article which meets the definition of "most comparable article" contained in § 1499.3 (a) of the General Maximum Price Regulation, except that it need not be currently offered for sale, shall calculate his ceiling price by adding to his invoice cost the same markup which he had on that comparable article, according to the method and procedure set forth in that section.

The determination of a ceiling price in this way need not be reported to the Office of Price Administration, however, each seller must keep complete records showing all the information called for by OPA Form 620-759 with regard to how he determined his ceiling price, for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect.

(2) If a purchaser for resale cannot determine his ceiling price under the above method, he shall apply to the Office of Price Administration for the establishment of his ceiling price under § 1499.3 (c) of the General Maximum Price Regulation. Ceiling prices established under that section will reflect the supplier's prices adjusted in accordance with this order.

(c) Terms of sale. Ceiling prices adjusted by this order, are subject to each seller's customary terms, discounts and allowances on sales to each class of purchaser in effect during March 1942, or thereafter properly established by OPA regulations.

(d) Notification. At the time of, or prior to, the first invoice to a purchaser for resale showing a price adjusted in accordance with the terms of this order, the seller shall notify such purchaser in writing of the methods established in paragraph (b) for determining adjusted maximum prices for resales of the articles covered by this order. This notice may be given in any convenient form.

(e) All requests for adjustments of maximum prices not specifically granted by this order are hereby denied.

(f) This order may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

(g) This order shall become effective on the 27th day of November 1945.

Issued this 26th day of November 1945.

LANDERS FRARY & CLARK

APPROVAL OF MAXIMUM PRICES

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register, and pursuant to § 1499.158 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188; It is ordered:

(a) This order establishes maximum prices for sales and deliveries of certain articles manufactured by Landers Frary & Clark, New Britain, Conn.

(1) For all sales and deliveries to the following classes of purchasers by the sellers indicated below, the maximum prices are those set forth below:

Article	Model No.	Maximum prices for sales by any seller to— Wholesalers (jobbers)	Retailers (6 units or more)	Retailers (less than 6 units)	Consumers
		Each	Each	Each	Each
Electric percolator	EA4066	$3.83	$4.52	$4.87	$7.30
	EA4069	4.38	5.17	5.57	8.35
	EA4074	4.93	5.82	6.27	9.40

These maximum prices are for the articles described in the manufacturer's application dated November 6, 1945.

(2) For sales by the manufacturer, the maximum prices apply to all sales and deliveries since Maximum Price Regulation No. 188 became applicable to those sales and deliveries. The above prices include the Federal Excise Tax and are subject to the seller's customary terms, discounts, allowances or other price differentials.

(3) For sales by persons other than the manufacturer, the maximum prices apply to all sales and deliveries after the effective date of this order. Those prices are subject to each seller's customary terms and conditions of sale on sales of similar articles.

(4) If the manufacturer wishes to make sales and deliveries to any other class of purchaser or on other terms and conditions of sale, he must apply to the Office of Price Administration, under the Fourth Pricing Method, § 1499.158 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188, for the establishment of maximum prices for those sales, and no sales or deliveries may be made until maximum prices have been authorized by the Office of Price Administration.

(b) The manufacturer shall attach a tag or label to every article for which a maximum price for sales to consumers is established by this order. That tag or label shall contain either of the following statements with the correct order number, model number and retail prices properly filled in:

Order No. 4710
Model No. ------
OPA Retail Ceiling Price—$------
Federal Excise Tax Included
Do Not Detach or Obliterate

or

Landers Frary & Clark
New Britain, Connecticut
Model No. ------
OPA Retail Ceiling Price—$------
Federal Excise Tax Included
Do Not Detach or Obliterate

(c) At the time of, or prior to, the first invoice to each purchaser for resale, the manufacturer shall notify the purchaser in writing of the maximum prices and conditions established by this order for sales by the purchaser. This notice may be given in any convenient form.

(d) This order may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

(e) This order shall become effective on the 27th day of November 1945.

Issued this 26th day of November 1945.

CHESTER BOWLES,
Administrator.

[Rev. Gen. Order 51,[1] Amdt. 3]

AUTHORIZATION TO FIX COMMUNITY CEILING PRICES

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

Revised General Order 51 is amended in the following respect:

Paragraph (k) is amended to read as follows:

(k) Adjustment of prices. Any Regional Office of the Office of Price Administration and any District Office which has been or may be authorized by order issued by the appropriate Regional Office to fix community dollars-and-cents ceiling prices hereunder, is hereby authorized to adjust these dollars-and-cents prices for any Group 3 or Group 4 store in its area when it appears that the "net cost" (as defined in Maximum Price Regulation 422[2]) of such store for the commodities subject to such community prices are substantially higher than those used in computing the applicable community ceiling prices.

This amendment shall become effective December 3, 1945.

Issued this 27th day of November 1945.

[Region VIII Order G–10 Under Supp. Service Reg. 43 to RMPR 165]

COTTON PICKING SERVICES IN CALIFORNIA

For the reasons set forth in the accompanying opinion and pursuant to authority conferred upon the Regional Administrator by § 1499.676 (a) of Supplementary Service Regulation No. 43 to Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 165, It is hereby ordered:

(a) The maximum price that any independent contractor may charge for services rendered in connection with picking cotton, shall be 25 cents per cwt., provided all of the services described in paragraph (b) below are rendered, except that:

(1) When the wages paid pickers in a particular field legally exceed the $2.25 per cwt. maximum rate established by the Secretary of Agriculture in Specific Wage Ceiling Supplement No. 36 under an individual adjustment to relieve "hardship" conditions properly approved by the California Wage Board of the United States Department of Agriculture, the contractor may increase the contract service price established by paragraph (a) above by an amount not exceeding 10 percent of that portion of the wage legally paid pickers in excess of the $2.25 per cwt.

(2) Where it is necessary for any contractor to transport workers for a distance greater than ten miles (one way) an additional amount may be added to the contract service price not to exceed one cent per man for each mile over ten miles, for the distance covered both ways outside the ten mile zone.

(3) When an independent contractor is licensed by the State of California, an additional amount not to exceed the cost of workmen's compensation insurance at the rate of $1.36 per hundred dollars of wages paid to the pickers may be added.

(b) The services covered by this order shall include all services customarily performed in connection with cotton picking operations, including recruiting and transportation of workers, field supervision of pickers, supplying water to pickers in the field, weighing cotton, keeping records of weights and earnings and furnishing payrolls.

(c) The area covered by this order shall be the Counties of Kern, Kings, Tulare, Fresno, Madera and Merced, State of California.

(d) An independent contractor, for the purposes of administering this order, is defined as any person who supplies or offers to supply the services described in paragraph (b) above, other than as an employee.

(e) This order may be amended or revoked at any time.

(f) This order shall become effective November 2, 1945, and shall expire February 2, 1946, unless sooner rescinded as provided for in paragraph (c) above.

Issued this 2d day of November 1945.

BEN C. DUNIWAY,
Regional Administrator.

Regulations

TITLE 6—AGRICULTURAL CREDIT

Chapter I—Farm Credit Administration

PART 10—FEDERAL LAND BANKS, GENERALLY

PURCHASE AND RETIREMENT OF STOCK

Sections 10.223–58, 10.223–63, and 10.223–64 of Title 6, Code of Federal Regulations are hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 10.223–58 Acquiring stock in addition to any available stock which borrower owns—retirement of stock owned by borrower. "Any available stock" already owned by the borrower shall be stock in an unimpaired association which is owned by the borrower or in which the borrower owns the beneficial interest, and which, computed at its par value, is in excess at 5 percent of any indebtedness (unpaid principal, advances, and any other items properly chargeable to the borrower, including accrued interest thereon at the date of acquirement of the purchased asset) to the bank in connection with which such stock was issued. Stock in an unimpaired association other than the one through which the purchased asset is being acquired may be treated as available stock provided such association consents to its retirement. Also, where an association has been through conservatorship and is operating under section 25 (b) of the Farm Credit Act of 1937 with a completed compartment, any stock owned by the borrower in group 1, computed at its fair book value, which is in excess of 5 percent of any bank loan or loans of the borrower through group 1, may be retired and the proceeds thereof used to purchase stock in group 2 in connection with the asset being acquired. Under the foregoing definition, where a borrower has more than one loan through the association or owns stock in connection with a loan which is secured only in part by the property securing the asset being acquired, any excess stock in connection with such loan or loans is available stock. (Sec. 6, 47 Stat. 14; 12 U.S.C. 665; Sec. 13 "Eighth", 39 Stat. 372, as amended; 12 U.S.C. 781 "Eighth", as amended)

§ 10.223–63 Payment in cash by borrower where amount of stock required is not substantial; additional loan to borrower to provide for payment of stock to be purchased; release by bank of conditional payments in amounts sufficient to cover the purchase of required stock; procedure for purchase of stock by borrower. Where the amount of stock required is not substantial, it may be feasible to obtain payment therefor in cash. In other cases the borrower may desire, and it may be feasible, to provide for payment for the stock by means of an additional loan. It will also be appropriate for the bank to permit the release of conditional payments, under section 31 of the Policy Manual for Federal Land Banks, in amounts sufficient to cover the purchase of the required stock. However, where none of the foregoing procedures is followed, the stock may be purchased under either of the following procedures:

(a) The bank may extend credit on a secured or unsecured basis to the borrower in an amount sufficient to purchase such stock. The type of agreement to be entered into with the borrower for the repayment of the purchase price of the stock and the procedure to be followed in handling such transactions on the bank's books shall have the approval of the Administration.

(b) The association, upon application by the borrower, may extend credit in an amount sufficient to purchase such stock, subject to the following:

(1) In such application the borrower shall agree that his liability to the association for such stock shall be secured by a lien on the borrower's property which is security for the paper being acquired, junior to any lien held or to be acquired by the Federal land bank on such property. It is not necessary that the lien for the stock indebtedness be recorded.

(2) The association may charge the borrower interest at a rate not to exceed 4 per centum per annum on the unpaid balance of any indebtedness incurred for this purpose.

(3) The association may in turn, pursuant to 12 U. S. C. 743, borrow from the Federal land bank the amount necessary to purchase stock in the bank where it has sold its stock on credit to its borrowers. Such borrowing may be evidenced by an assignment by the association to the bank of the borrower's agreement to pay for stock in the association.

(4) The applicant may request a deferment of principal payments in order to enable the association or the bank, as the case may be, to collect the amount for indebtedness for stock in the association, and the bank may grant such deferments under the provisions of section 7 of the bill. (Sec. 6, 47 Stat. 14; 12 U.S.C. 665; Sec. 13 "Eighth", 39 Stat. 372, as amended; 12 U.S.C. 781 "Eighth", as amended; Sec. 9, 39 Stat. 368; 12 U.S.C. 743)

§ 10.223–64 Issuance of new stock sufficient to cover existing loan; retirement of existing stock. Where an applicant who does not own the outstanding stock in connection with the existing bank loan on the farm covered by the mortgage or contract being purchased by the bank from the Corporation desires or is required by the bank, in its discretion, to acquire such stock or new stock in lieu thereof but cannot acquire the outstanding stock, the outstanding stock may be retired and paid off and new stock issued to the applicant and pledged in connection with the existing bank loan. The bank should require that the applicant purchase only enough new stock to collateralize the existing bank loan in the proportion of one share of stock for every $100 or major fraction thereof of the unpaid indebtedness under the existing bank loan or the original face amount of the loan, whichever is less. When stock in that amount is issued to the applicant, all other stock outstanding in relation to the existing bank loan should be retired. The Administration hereby approves the retirement of stock in such cases where it is authorized by the bank's board of directors. Where the applicant acquires no stock in connection with the bank loan, then, unless he procures from the owner of the association stock held in connection with the bank loan a power of attorney or other authorization to exercise the exclusive right to vote in connection with both loans, the applicant must agree with the association, in consideration of the bank's purchase of the Corporation asset, to forego the right to vote at any association meeting where he and the other stockholder are present, except when they agree as to which shall cast the one vote. PART 40—AIR CARRIER OPERATING CERTIFICATION

DELTA AIR CORP.; NONCOMPLIANCE WITH FIRST PILOT REQUIREMENTS

Noncompliance with the requirements of § 40.2611 (b) of the Civil Air Regulations with respect to Delta Air Corporation operations between Chicago, Illinois and Miami, Florida.

At a session of the Civil Aeronautics Board held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 16th day of November 1945.

The following Special Civil Air Regulation is made and promulgated to become effective November 16, 1945:

Any first pilot listed in the Delta Air Corporation's current air carrier operating certificate on November 15, 1945, will be deemed to have met the requirements prescribed by § 40.2611 (b) of the Civil Air Regulations with respect to the piloting of aircraft in scheduled air transportation on the approved route between Chicago, Illinois and Charleston, South Carolina, via Anderson-Muncie-New Castle, Indiana; Cincinnati, Ohio; Knoxville, Tennessee; Asheville, North Carolina; Greenville and Spartanburg, South Carolina; Columbia, South Carolina; and the terminal point Charleston, South Carolina; also, between Chicago, Illinois and Miami, Florida, via Anderson-Muncie-New Castle, Indiana; Cincinnati, Ohio; Knoxville, Tennessee; Asheville, North Carolina; Greenville and Spartanburg, South Carolina; Augusta and Savannah, Georgia; Jacksonville, Florida, and the terminal point Miami, Florida, when he has completed 4 one-way trips over the route as first pilot without passengers or as second pilot with or without passengers and 2 one-way trips as an observer from the cockpit. During the 6 above specified trips he shall have made at least one landing at each terminal and scheduled intermediate stop.

This regulation shall terminate February 1, 1946.

PART 903—DELEGATIONS OF AUTHORITY

[Directive 27, as Amended Nov. 27, 1945]

PRIORITIES ACTION BY OFFICE OF INTERNATIONAL TRADE OPERATIONS, DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE

Section 903.139 Directive 27 is amended to read, as follows:

§ 903.139 Directive 27—(a) Rating authority of the Office of International Trade Operations, Department of Commerce. The Office of International Trade Operations, Department of Commerce (hereafter called Office of International Trade Operations) may assign preference ratings to the delivery of material for export to the extent authorized by the Civilian Production Administration in a Priorities Policy Decision, a Program Determination of the Requirements Committee, or an approved Decision of a Division Requirements Committee, as transmitted to the Office of International Trade Operations or the Foreign Economic Administration.

(b) Form of assignment of ratings. The Office of International Trade Operations shall assign ratings under this directive by endorsement of a legend substantially as shown below, to which may be added any further provisions which conform to Civilian Production Administration orders or regulations and which are authorized by the Priorities Policy Decision, program determination or approved decision: "Under authority of the Civilian Production Administration delivery of the material referred to herein is assigned a preference rating of _____, Application and extension of rating shall be made in accordance with Priorities Regulation No. 3." The legend shall be endorsed on the export license or on other appropriate instruments approved for this purpose by the Civilian Production Administration or the War Production Board.

(c) General provisions. (1) The Office of International Trade Operations may exercise the authority delegated in this directive through such of its officials as the Director of the Office of International Trade Operations may determine.

(2) The Office of International Trade Operations shall make to the Civilian Production Administrator such monthly reports on the exercise of the authority granted by this directive as he shall require from time to time.

(3) A true copy of every document on which a preference rating is assigned pursuant to the provisions of this directive shall be maintained by the Office of International Trade Operations for inspection by a representative of the Civilian Production Administration at any time.

(d) Status of ratings assigned before November 27, 1945. This directive, as amended, does not affect the validity of CC ratings properly assigned by the Office of International Trade Operations or the Foreign Economic Administration, under this Directive before November 27, 1945. However, such ratings are subject to all applicable Civilian Production Administration orders and regulations.

Issued this 27th day of November 1945.

J. D. SMALL,
Civilian Production Administrator.

INTERPRETATION 1: Revoked Aug. 28, 1945.

INTERPRETATION 2

LENGTH OF VALIDITY OF RATINGS ASSIGNED ON EXPORT LICENSES

A rating assigned by the Office of International Trade Operations or the Foreign Economic Administration, under the authority of Directive 27, by endorsing the required legend on an export license is valid for the life of the export license in the absence of any applicable rule or restriction set forth in an order or regulation of the Civilian Production Administration governing transactions in the material covered by the rating. This means that the rating must be applied and the material covered by the rating must have been delivered to the holder of the export license before the expiration of the life of the license. Otherwise, the procedure applicable when an individually assigned rating is revoked, provided in § 944.4a of Priorities Regulation 1, will be deemed applicable. On the other hand, if the rating has been applied and the material to which it has been applied has been delivered before the expiration of the life of the export license, its subsequent expiration will not affect the right of the supplier to extend the rating in order to replenish his inventory. Such extension is, of course, subject to the provisions of paragraph (h) (1) of Priorities Regulation 3.

Revocation of an export license on which a rating has been assigned by the Office of International Trade Operations or the Foreign Economic Administration revokes the rating, and § 944.4a of Priorities Regulation 1 is consequently applicable. Extension of the life of an export license, on the other hand, extends the period for which a rating assigned on the export license is valid. (Issued July 5, 1944.)

PART 3290—TEXTILE, CLOTHING AND LEATHER

[Supplementary Order M-317A, as Amended Nov. 28, 1945]

COTTON FABRIC PREFERENCE RATINGS AND RESTRICTIONS

§ 3290.116 Supplementary Order M-317A—(a) Contents of this order. This Order M-317A is supplementary to Order M-317 and contains distribution schedules 1 and 2. These schedules apply only to woven cotton fabrics of more than 12" in width, but do not apply to duck. Restrictions on the production of cotton fabrics appear in Order L-99.

(b) [Deleted Nov. 20, 1945.]

(c) Effect of change in distribution schedules on third quarter set-asides. Cotton fabrics produced in the third quarter of 1945 but not delivered by the producer before October 1, 1945, must be delivered in accordance with the provisions of the Distribution Schedules of Order M-317A as amended September 5, 1945.

Issued this 28th day of November 1945.

CIVILIAN PRODUCTION ADMINISTRATION,
By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

DISTRIBUTION SCHEDULES 1 AND 2

The obligations in Column III of Distribution Schedules 1 and 2 are to be calculated quarterly from the first day of each quarter, beginning October 1, 1945.

(a) Column I indicates the corresponding item numbers of the various cotton fabrics in these schedules as each appears on Form CPA or WPB–658–C (9/7/45) for Fine Cotton Goods and Form CPA or WPB–658–B (9/7/45) for Carded Gray Goods, Colored Yarn and Napped Fabrics and Specialties.

(b) Column II shows the cotton fabrics covered by these schedules.

(c) Column III shows the percentage of the producer's current calendar quarterly production which must be delivered by him to fill export orders. Deliveries of cotton fabrics on orders of garment manufacturers for incorporation into clothing for delivery on export orders may be credited to the Column III obligation. Except for clothing in the above case, only exports of cotton fabrics in piece goods form may be credited to this obligation. For example, delivery of cotton fabrics to a coater to fill an export order for coated fabrics may not be credited to the Column III obligation.

(d) (1) Only deliveries on purchase orders placed in accordance with paragraph (b) (1) or paragraph (e) of Order M-317 may be credited toward the obligations of Column III. When these obligations are fulfilled, the producer is not required to accept any additional export orders, regardless of the provisions of Priorities Regulation 1.

(2) Export by or for the United States Army, Navy, Maritime Commission, War Shipping Administration (including U. S. Army and Marine Corps Post Exchanges, U. S. Navy and Coast Guard Ships' Service Departments, and War Shipping Administration Training Organizations Ships' Service Activities), and the American Red Cross may not be credited toward these obligations.

(3) In calculating the export obligation contained in Distribution Schedule 1 (Fine Cotton Goods) the producer shall eliminate his production of cotton fabrics wider than 42½". However, if he receives and accepts an export order for these goods, the delivery shall be credited toward his export obligation relating to narrow goods within the same reference number.

(e) (1) Column IV contains special provisions concerning the use and delivery of particular fabrics.

(2) Unless otherwise specified, the provisions of Column IV apply only to producers as defined in Order M-317. Where a provision in Column IV requires a purchaser to furnish a certificate, no person giving such a certificate may use or deliver the cotton fabrics he buys contrary to his certificate.

Chapter XI—Office of Price Administration

Part 1391—Bicycles and Bicycle Equipment

[MPR 158, Amdt. 6]

RESALE OF WAR BICYCLES BY DISTRIBUTORS AND DEALERS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

Maximum Price Regulation No. 158 is amended in the following respect:

Section 1391.52 (b) (3) is amended to read as follows:

(3) For a sale by a mail order house the higher of the following:

(i) The seller's published catalogue price in March 1942 for the same or similar bicycle then offered for sale f. o. b. seller's usual point of shipment plus $0.79 per unit when equipped with synthetic tires and tubes, or

(ii) The maximum price established by paragraph (b) (2) immediately above, for the seller's retail sales, other than by mail order, in the same geographical area less the seller's customary differential in effect on January 1, 1942 between his prices for mail order sales and his prices for other retail sales.

This amendment shall become effective on the 3d day of December 1945.

Issued this 28th day of November 1945.

CHESTER BOWLES,
Administrator.

Part 1433—Feathers and Down

[MPR 318,[1] Amdt. 7]

FEATHERS AND DOWN

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith; and it has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

Maximum Price Regulation No. 318 is amended in the following respects:

1. The last paragraph of § 1433.3 (b) is amended to read as follows:

Sellers of processed or manufactured feathers and down in the states of Arizona, California, Colorado, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, New Mexico, Oregon, Utah, Washington, and Wyoming; and the following counties in the state of Texas: Brewster, Culberson, El Paso, Hudspeth, Jeff Davis, Pecos, Presidio, Reeves and Terrel, may add 4 cents per pound to the ceiling price for waterfowl feathers and down except quills and China feathers and down, and 3 cents per pound to the maximum price for processed chicken and turkey feathers.

This amendment shall become effective on December 3, 1945.

Issued this 28th day of November 1945.

CHESTER BOWLES,
Administrator.

Part 1351—Foods and Food Products

[FPR 1,[1] Amdt. 6 to Supp. 13]

PACKED FRUITS, BERRIES AND VEGETABLES (1945 AND LATER PACKS)

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

Supplement 13 to Food Products Regulation No. 1 is amended in the following respects.

1. In section 1 (b) (3) subdivision (v) is added to read as follows: (v) Red sour pitted cherries.

2. In section 5 the note immediately following the first undesignated paragraph and immediately preceding the table of products is deleted.

3. The table in the text of section 5 preceding paragraph (a) is amended to read as follows:

Product	Appendix	Section
Spinach	A	15
Asparagus	B	15
Peas (except blackeye, crowder, cream and field)	C	15
Snap beans	D	15
Tomatoes (except Italian pear shaped), but not including puree	E	15
Tomato juice	F	15
Corn	G	15
Red sour pitted cherries	A	16
Apricots, halves (unpeeled), whole (unpeeled), and whole (peeled), California only	B	16
Sweet cherries, light unpitted, California, Oregon, and Washington	C	16
Yellow cling peaches, halves, sliced, quartered and diced, California only	D	16
Bartlett pears, halves (peeled), quarters (peeled), and diced, California only	E	16
Fruit cocktail, California only	F	16
Applesauce, New York, Virginia, Maryland, West Virginia and Pennsylvania	G	16

4. Section 5 (a) (2) is amended in the following respects:

a. The following undesignated paragraph is added immediately following step 8 of the list of the order in which steps are to be taken:

In addition to the conversion for syrup differential figured under step 3, above (to convert the base period price for an item of fruit packed in syrup the density of which does not correspond to the grade of the fruit, to a price for a fruit item for which a price range is named), the processor who is now pricing an item of fruit in syrup of a density not corresponding to the grade of the fruit shall figure a conversion for syrup differential in accordance with the provisions of the applicable appendix. This conversion is figured after application of the limitations of the price range (step 4) and before conversion for container type and size (step 5), for the reason that the price ranges named for fruits apply in each case to fruit packed in syrup the density of which corresponds to the grade of the fruit.

b. The text of subdivision (i) is amended to read as follows:

(i) First, the processor shall figure his weighted average price per dozen containers or other unit, f. o. b. shipping point, for the item being priced in the manner provided in paragraph (a) (1) (i), above. He shall then convert this weighted average price (for container type and size, and in the case of fruits for syrup differential, in the order named), to a base price for the item (identical except for container size, and syrup density in the case of fruits), with an established price range, that is nearest in container size to the item being priced, by applying the conversion factors named in the applicable appendix.

c. The text of subdivision (iii) is amended to read as follows:

(iii) Next, the processor shall convert the price so figured (for syrup differential in the case of fruits, and for container type and size, in the order named) to a gross maximum price for the item being priced by applying the conversion factors named in the applicable appendix.

5. Section 5 (a) (4) is amended in the following respects:

a. Subdivision (iii), of the First situation, is amended to read as follows:

(iii) Convert to a gross maximum price for the item being priced. Next, the processor shall convert the price so figured for the selected item (for variety, style, sieve size, and grade, in the order named) as may be necessary to arrive at a gross maximum price (except for container size, and syrup density in the case of fruits) for the item being priced, by applying the conversion factors named in the applicable appendix, and by applying to the resulting figure the limitations of the applicable price range. The price so figured shall then be converted (for syrup differential in the case of fruits, and for container type and size, in the order named) to a gross maximum price for the item being priced by applying the conversion factors named in the applicable appendix.

b. Subdivision (iii), of the Second situation, is amended to read as follows:

(iii) Convert to a gross maximum price for the item being priced. Next, the processor shall convert the price so figured for the selected item (for variety, style, sieve size, and grade, in the order named) as may be necessary to arrive at a gross maximum price (except for container size, and syrup density in the case of fruits) for the item being priced, by applying the conversion factors named in the applicable appendix, and by applying to the resulting figure the limitations of the applicable price range. The price so figured shall then be converted (for syrup differential in the case of fruits, and for container type and size, in the order named) to a gross maximum price for the item being priced by applying the conversion factors named in the applicable appendix.

6. The text preceding the table in section 6 (a) (3) is amended to read as follows:

Next, the processor shall add to the resulting figure his 1945 weighted average raw material cost, converted to units of the finished product by applying the simple average of his 1941 and 1943 case (unit) yields and by adjusting for grade yield according to his customary practice. (If he did not pack the product in 1943, he shall use the average of his 1941 and 1942 yields.) The 1945 raw material cost shall be figured on the basis of not less than the first 75% of his purchases of the raw material used by him in processing the product. However, the processor's weighted average raw material cost shall be figured on the basis of a weighted average raw material price no higher than the appropriate average price designated for payment to growers by the Department of Agriculture, as set forth below, except that for the quantities of any fruit actually purchased by grade or district classification announced by the Department of Agriculture, a weighted average raw material price for those purchases shall be included in the weighted average raw material cost, figured on the basis of the weighted average price actually paid for each grade or district classification but not in excess of the price named below for that grade or district classification. In addition, for apple juice and sweet cider the processor's weighted average raw material cost shall be based on a weighted average raw material price not in excess of the amount named below for the product and area in which the processor's customary receiving point is located.

7. The table in section 6 (b) (2) is amended by adding an additional column to "Column B" immediately to the right of the column headed "No. 10" and by adding an additional container size to "Column A" immediately following the listing "No. 10" under the item "Tomato Puree" to read as follows:

COLUMN A

To convert from a can size in this column—	To a can size at the head of a column below, multiply by the appropriate conversion factor
	No. 10	One 5-gallon can
Tomato puree:
No. 10	2.08	0.48
One 5-gallon can

[1] 10 F.R. 11118, 11578, 11748, 12439.

8. In section 6 (c), subparagraphs (6) and (7) are added to read as follows:

(6) Alternative basis for figuring 1945 raw material cost for apples for processors whose factories are located in Oregon or Washington. A processor whose factory is located in Oregon or Washington may, if he so elects, figure his 1945 raw material cost for apples under this subparagraph (6) instead of under paragraph (a) (3), above, by filing a statement to that effect with the Fruits and Vegetables Section, Food Price Division, Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., on or before December 15, 1945. When such an election is made the processor shall figure his 1945 raw material cost under this subparagraph for all apple products processed by him that are covered by this section. The processor who so elects shall figure his 1945 raw material cost on the basis of the raw fruit prices named below instead of those named in paragraph (a) (3) above, and add the weighted average transportation charge per hundred pounds incurred by him in 1944 in transporting the apples used in making the product from his customary receiving point to his factory:

Product:	Raw material price per cwt.
Apples and applesauce	$3.85
Apple juice	2.20
Sweet cider	1.25

The raw material cost shall be converted to units of the finished product in the manner provided in paragraph (a) (3), above.

(7) Raw material cost for processors of beets whose factories are located in Oregon and Washington. A processor whose factory is located in Oregon or Washington who has prior to December 3, 1945, contracted with growers for at least 75% of beets of the 1945 crop to be processed by him on the basis of the graded prices for beets announced by the state Agricultural Conservation Committee of the Department of Agriculture, and has been certified by that agency as having agreed to pay the graded prices, shall figure his 1945 raw material cost under paragraph (a) (3) of this section by using $21.00 per ton as the price paid for raw material.

9. In section 6 (f), subparagraphs (2) and (3) are added to read as follows:

(2) Tomato puree of a specific gravity not sold during the base period. For sales to purchasers other than government procurement agencies, the processor shall figure his maximum price per dozen No. 10 cans, f. o. b. shipping point, for an item of tomato puree of a specific gravity not sold during the base period by adding to or subtracting from his maximum price for the item of tomato puree packed in No. 10 cans with a specific gravity nearest to that of the item being priced, as figured under paragraph (a) or (b) of this section, a factor of $0.09 per thousandth of a point difference in specific gravity. Where the processor has maximum prices for items differing equally in specific gravity from the item being priced, he shall use the one with the lower specific gravity. The processor shall figure his maximum price for any container size of the new specific gravity other than No. 10 cans by converting the maximum price he has or would have for the new specific gravity in No. 10 cans to the can size being priced by the appropriate conversion factor set forth in paragraph (b), above.

(3) Extra standard, ungraded as to sieve size, lima beans, (at least 50% green) containing a higher percentage of green beans than during base period. For sales to purchasers other than government procurement agencies, the processor shall figure his maximum price per dozen No. 2 cans, f. o. b. shipping point, for an item of extra standard, ungraded as to sieve size, lima beans (at least 50% green), containing a higher percentage of green beans than during the base period by adding to his maximum price for the item of extra standard, ungraded as to sieve size, lima beans (at least 50% green), as figured under paragraph (a) or (b) of this section, 4 cents per dozen containers for each 10% of green lima beans that is added in excess of the percentage of green lima beans contained during the base period. The processor shall figure his maximum price for any container size other than No. 2 cans of extra standard, ungraded as to sieve size, lima beans containing a higher percentage of green beans than during the base period by converting the maximum price he has or would have for the new lima bean item in No. 2 cans to the can size being priced by the appropriate conversion factor set forth in paragraph (b), above.

10. In section 6 (g) (2), footnote 2 under the table headed "Part 1—Lima Beans" is amended by deleting the second sentence.

11. Section 16 is added to read as follows:

SEC. 16. Appendices for packed fruits priced under Pricing Method No. 1.

APPENDIX A—RED SOUR PITTED CHERRIES

Explanation of how maximum prices for packed red sour pitted cherries are figured—(a) What this appendix includes. This appendix includes the specific pricing provisions for packed red sour pitted cherries. It does not apply to other styles of pack of red sour cherries. If the processor sold only substandard grade of red sour pitted cherries during the base period, he shall establish his maximum prices under section 5 (b).

(b) Selection of base period item. In figuring a maximum price for an item under the provisions of subparagraph (3) or (4) of section 5 (a), the processor shall select a base period item nearest in container size to item being priced and nearest in such other respects as may be specified in the applicable appendix. After the nearest container size of red sour pitted cherries sold in the base period has been determined, the processor from that classification shall select an item of standard grade water pack if available. If there is no such item, he shall select the nearest grade for which differentials are provided, in Table 7, to the grade being priced. In no case shall substandard grade be used as a base period item.

(c) Conversions for red sour pitted cherries packed in syrup. The permitted increases, price ranges and dollars-and-cents prices specified in Tables 3 and 4, respectively, are based on standard grade fruit packed in water. For any item that is packed in syrup the processor shall add to the price computed from Table 3 or 4 the amount named in Table 6 for the syrup used in the item being priced.

(d) Adjustment for raw material purchased at average price lower than that reflected in permitted increases, price ranges and dollars-and-cents prices. Under section 5 of the supplement the processor is required to subtract from his gross maximum price the difference obtained by subtracting the weighted average price he paid for raw material in 1945 from the Department of Agriculture's recommended price for that raw material. This adjustment is figured for packed red sour pitted cherries under Table 8, which sets forth the raw fruit prices for each area and the amount that each $1.00 per ton paid for red sour cherries is equal to when converted to units of the finished product. Before converting to a finished product basis, the processor shall adjust the difference per ton to the nearest multiple of $1.00, with any figure ending in $0.50 or less being rounded to the next lower dollar figure and any figure ending in $0.51 or more being rounded to the next higher dollar figure. No subtraction is required, however, unless the gross maximum price is reduced by 1% or more.

APPENDIX B—APRICOTS

Explanation of how maximum prices for packed apricots are figured—(a) What this appendix includes. This appendix includes the specific pricing provisions for the following styles of pack of apricots produced in California: halves (unpeeled), whole (unpeeled), and whole (peeled). It does not apply to these styles of pack of apricots produced in states other than California, nor to other styles of pack produced in California. If the processor sold only seconds grade of apricots during the base period, he shall establish his maximum prices under section 5 (b).

(b) Selection of base period item. In figuring a maximum price for an item under the provisions of subparagraph (3) or (4) of section 5 (a), the processor shall select a base period item nearest in container size to item being priced and nearest in such other respects as may be specified in the applicable appendix. After the nearest container size of packed apricots sold in the base period has been determined, the processor from that classification shall:

(1) Select items of the same style of pack if available. If there are no such items select as follows: when pricing halves (unpeeled), select items of whole (peeled) before selecting items of whole (unpeeled); when pricing whole (unpeeled), select items of whole (peeled) before selecting items of halves (unpeeled); when pricing whole (peeled), select item of whole (unpeeled) before selecting items of halves (unpeeled).

(2) From the selected classification select an item of the same grade if available. If there is no such item, select as follows: to price fancy or standard grade select choice grade if available; in all other cases select the nearest grade for which differentials are provided, in Table 8, to the grade being priced.

(c) Conversions for fruit packed in syrup of a density not corresponding to the grade of the fruit. Each grade specified in Tables 3 and 4 refers to the grade of the fruit and the prices are based on fruit packed in syrup of a density which corresponds to the grade of the fruit. For any item that is packed in syrup of which the density does not correspond to the grade of the fruit, the processor shall subtract from the price computed from Table 3 or 4 the amount named in Table 7 for the grade and add to the resulting figure the amount named for the syrup used in the item being priced. The amounts to be subtracted and added in making the conversion for change in packing medium are separately stated for sales to government procurement agencies and for other sales in Part 1 and Part 2, respectively, of Table 7. However, if the change in packing medium is entirely within standard grade (light syrup of 16°–21° Brix) no subtraction or addition shall be made under Part 1 of this table. Furthermore, if the change in packing medium is from light syrup to slightly sweetened water or natural juice or from slightly sweetened water to light syrup, the amount to be subtracted or added for light syrup under Part 1 of Table 7 is the amount named for light syrup of 16°–17.99° Brix. Also, no amount shall be added where the change in the packing medium is from syrup to natural juice or water.

NOTE: Under this appendix the manner of figuring a maximum price for sales to government procurement agencies of an item where conversion to or from light syrup (16°–21° Brix) is required under Part 1 of Table 7, differs from that ordinarily followed in figuring maximum prices for such sales. Thus, for government sales of fancy apricots packed in light syrup of 18°–21° Brix the processor makes the conversion separately from that made in the case of civilian sales (after applying the limitations of the price range), then proceeds with steps 5 and 6 specified in the list at the beginning of section 5 (a) (2) and with application of the provisions of section 10 (j).

(d) Conversions from one style of pack to another style of pack. In each case of conversion from one style of pack to another, the processor shall figure the conversion by taking the difference between the specific dollars-and-cents prices named in Table 4 for the two items and either adding it to or subtracting it from the constructed base price, as the situation requires. Whether the differential is to be added or subtracted depends on whether the dollars-and-cents price named in Table 4 for the item being priced is higher or lower than that named for the item from which the conversion is being made. For example, Y Canning Company, whose factory is located in Area 1, during the base period sold choice apricots, halves (unpeeled) in No. 2½ cans but made no sales of choice apricots, whole (unpeeled) in No. 2½ cans. It is now pricing choice apricots, whole (unpeeled) in No. 2½ cans. To figure the conversion for style of pack the company takes the difference between the dollars-and-cents prices named in Table 4 for choice apricots, halves (unpeeled) and for choice apricots, whole (unpeeled). ($2.59—2.07=$.52). Since the company is pricing an item with a lower dollars-and-cents price than that for the item from which the conversion is made, the $.52 differential is subtracted from its constructed base price in making the conversion for style of pack.

(e) Adjustment for raw material purchased at average price lower than that reflected in permitted increases, price ranges and dollar-and-cents prices. Under section 5 of the supplement the processor is required to subtract from his gross maximum price the difference obtained by subtracting the "weighted average price actually paid" for each grade and district classification of apricots in 1945 from the average of the recommended prices for those grade and district classifications, figured by using the same weighting factors, after converting that difference to units of the finished product. This adjustment is figured for packed apricots under Table 9, which sets forth the raw fruit prices by grade and district classifications and the amount that each $1.00 per ton paid for apricots is equal to when converted to units of the finished product for each style of pack, grade and container size of the finished product. Before converting to a finished product basis, the processor shall adjust the difference per ton to the nearest multiple of $1.00, with any figure ending in $0.50 or less being rounded to the next lower dollar figure, and any figure ending in $0.51 or more being rounded to the next higher dollar figure. No subtraction is required, however, unless the gross maximum price is reduced by 1% or more. (See example in section 5 (a) (1) (iii) for illustration of how adjustment is calculated.)

APPENDIX C—SWEET CHERRIES

Explanation of how maximum prices for packed sweet cherries are figured.—(a) What this appendix includes. This appendix includes the specific pricing provisions for light unpitted sweet cherries produced in California, Oregon and Washington. It does not apply to this style of pack of light sweet cherries produced in states other than California, Oregon and Washington, nor to other styles of pack of light sweet cherries produced in California, Oregon and Washington.

(b) Selection of base period item. In figuring a maximum price for an item under the provisions of subparagraph (3) or (4) of section 5 (a), the processor shall select a base period item nearest in container size to item being priced and nearest in such other respects as may be specified in the applicable appendix. After the nearest container size of packed sweet cherries sold in the base period has been determined, the processor from that classification shall select an item of the same grade, if available. If there is no such item, select as follows: to price fancy or standard grade select choice grade if available; in all other cases select the nearest grade for which differentials are provided, in Table 8, to the grade being priced.

(c) Conversions for fruit packed in syrup of a density not corresponding to the grade of the fruit. Each grade specified in Tables 3 and 4 refers to the grade of the fruit and the prices are based on fruit packed in syrup of a density which corresponds to the grade of the fruit. For any item that is packed in syrup of which the density does not correspond to the grade of the fruit, the processor shall subtract from the price computed from Table 3 or 4 the amount named in Table 7 for the grade and add to the resulting figure the amount named for the syrup used in the item being priced. In the case of sweet cherries the amounts to be subtracted and added in making the conversion for changes in packing medium are the same for both sales to government procurement agencies and sales to other purchasers. If the change in the packing medium is from syrup to natural juice or water no amount shall be added.

(d) Adjustment for raw material purchased at average price lower than that reflected in permitted increases, price ranges and dollars-and-cents prices. Under section 5 of the supplement the processor is required to subtract from his gross maximum price the difference obtained by subtracting the "weighted average price actually paid" for each grade and district classification of light sweet cherries in 1945 from the average of the recommended prices for those grade and district classifications, figured by using the same weighting factors, after converting that difference to units of the finished product. This adjustment is figured for packed light sweet cherries under Table 9, which sets forth the raw fruit prices by grade and district classifications separately for each area and the amount that each $1.00 per ton paid for light sweet cherries is equal to when converted to units of the finished product for each container size of the finished product. Before converting to a finished product basis, the processor shall adjust the difference per ton to the nearest multiple of $1.00, with any figure ending in $0.50 or less being rounded to the next lower dollar figure and any figure ending in $0.51 or more being rounded to the next higher dollar figure. No subtraction is required, however, unless the gross maximum price is reduced by 1% or more. (See example in section 5 (a) (1) (iii) for illustration of how adjustment is calculated.)

APPENDIX D—YELLOW CLING PEACHES, HALVES, SLICED, QUARTERED, AND DICED

Explanation of how maximum prices for packed yellow cling peaches are figured.—(a) What this appendix includes. This appendix includes the specific pricing provisions for the following styles of pack of yellow cling peaches produced in California: halves, sliced, quartered and diced. It does not apply to these styles of pack produced in states other than California, nor to other styles of pack produced in California. If the processor sold only seconds grade of yellow cling peaches during the base period, he shall establish his maximum prices under section 5 (b).

(b) Selection of base period item. In figuring a maximum price for an item under the provisions of subparagraph (3) or (4) of section 5 (a), the processor shall select a base period item nearest in container size to item being priced and nearest in such other respects as may be specified in the applicable appendix. After the nearest container size of packed yellow cling peaches sold in the base period has been determined, the processor from that classification shall:

(1) Select items of the same style of pack if available. If there are no such items select as follows:

(i) When pricing halves, select items of quartered before selecting items of sliced; if none of these items are available select items of diced.

(ii) When pricing quartered, select items of halves before selecting items of sliced; if none of these items are available select items of diced.

(iii) When pricing sliced, select items of quartered before selecting items of halves; if none of these items are available select items of diced.

(iv) When pricing diced, select items of quartered before selecting items of halves; if none of these items are available select items of sliced.

(2) From the selected classification select an item of the same grade if available. If there is no such item, select as follows: to price fancy or standard grade select choice grade if available; in all other cases select the nearest grade for which differentials are provided, in Table 8, to the grade being priced.

(c) Conversions for fruit packed in syrup of a density not corresponding to the grade of the fruit. Each grade specified in Tables 3 and 4 refers to the grade of the fruit and the prices are based on fruit packed in syrup of a density which corresponds to the grade of the fruit. For any item that is packed in syrup of which the density does not correspond to the grade of the fruit, the processor shall subtract from the price computed from Table 3 or 4 the amount named in Table 7 for the grade and add to the resulting figure the amount named for the syrup used in the item being priced. The amounts to be subtracted and added in making the conversion for change in packing medium are separately stated for sales to government procurement agencies and for other sales in Part 1 and Part 2, respectively, of Table 7. However, if the change in the packing medium is entirely within standard grade (light syrup of 14°–19° Brix) no subtraction or addition shall be made under Part 1 of this table. Furthermore, if the change in packing medium is from light syrup to slightly sweetened water or natural juice or water or from slightly sweetened water to light syrup, the amount to be subtracted or added for light syrup under Part 1 of Table 7 is the amount named for light syrup of 14°–15.99° Brix. Also, no amount shall be added where the change in the packing medium is from syrup to natural juice or water.

NOTE: Under this appendix the manner of figuring a maximum price for sales to government procurement agencies of an item where conversion to or from light syrup (14°–19° Brix) is required under Part 1 of Table 7 differs from that ordinarily followed in figuring maximum prices for such sales. Thus, for government sales of fancy yellow cling peaches packed in light syrup of 16°–19° Brix the processor makes the conversion separately from that made in the case of civilian sales (after applying the limitations of the price range), and then proceeds with steps 5 and 6 specified in the list at the beginning of section 5 (a) (2) and with application of the provisions of section 10 (j).

(d) Conversions from one style of pack to another style of pack. In each case of conversion from one style of pack to another, the processor shall figure the conversion by taking the difference between the specific dollars-and-cents prices provided in Table 4 for the two items and either adding it to or subtracting it from the constructed base price, as the situation requires. Whether the differential is to be added or subtracted depends on whether the dollars-and-cents price provided in Table 4 for the item being priced is higher or lower than that provided for the item from which the conversion is being made. For example, X Canning Company, whose factory is located in Area 1, during the base period sold choice sliced yellow cling peaches in No. 2½ cans but made no other sales of yellow cling peaches. It is now pricing choice diced yellow cling peaches in No. 2½ cans. To figure the conversion for style of pack the company takes the difference between the dollars-and-cents price computed under Table 4 for choice diced yellow cling peaches ($2.34+$0.06=$2.40) and the dollars-and-cents price named for choice sliced yellow cling peaches ($2.40−$2.38=$0.02). Since the company is pricing an item with a higher dollars-and-cents price than that for the item from which the conversion is made, the $0.02 differential is added to its constructed base price in making the conversion for style of pack.

(e) Adjustment for raw material purchased at average price lower than that reflected in permitted increases, price ranges and dollars-and-cents prices. Under section 5 of the supplement the processor is required to subtract from his gross maximum price the difference obtained by subtracting the "weighted average price actually paid" for each grade of yellow cling peaches in 1945 from the average of the recommended prices for those grades, figured by using the same weighting factors, after converting that difference to units of the finished product. This adjustment is figured for packed yellow cling peaches under Table 9, which sets forth the raw fruit prices by grades and the amount that each $1.00 per ton paid for yellow cling peaches is equal to when converted to units of the finished product. Before converting to a finished product basis, the processor shall adjust the difference per ton to the nearest multiple of $1.00, with any figure ending in $0.50 or less being rounded to the next lower dollar figure and any figure ending in $0.51 or more being rounded to the next higher dollar figure. No subtraction is required, however, unless the gross maximum price is reduced by 1% or more. (See example in section 5 (a) (1) (iii) for illustration of how adjustment is calculated.)

APPENDIX E.—BARTLETT PEARS, HALVES (PEELED), QUARTERS (PEELED) AND DICED

Explanation of how maximum prices for packed Bartlett pears, halves (peeled), quarters (peeled), and diced are figured.—(a) What this appendix includes. This appendix includes the specific pricing provisions for the following styles of pack of Bartlett pears produced in California: halves (peeled), quarters (peeled), and diced. It does not apply to these styles of pack of Bartlett pears produced in states other than California, nor to other styles of pack produced in California. (Maximum prices for Bartlett pears, halves (peeled) and quarters (peeled) produced in Washington and Oregon will be announced later.) If the processor sold only seconds grade of Bartlett pears during the base period, he shall establish his maximum prices under section 5 (b).

(b) Selection of base period item. In figuring a maximum price under the provisions of subparagraph (3) or (4) of section 5 (a), the processor shall select a base period item nearest in container size to item being priced and nearest in such other respects as may be specified in the applicable appendix. After the nearest container size of packed Bartlett pears sold in the base period has been determined, the processor from that classification shall select an item of the same grade, if available. If there is no such item, select as follows: to price fancy or standard grade select choice grade if available; in all other cases select the nearest grade for which differentials are provided, in Table 8, to the grade being priced.

(c) Conversions for fruit packed in syrup of a density not corresponding to the grade of the fruit. Each grade specified in Tables 3 and 4 refers to the grade of the fruit and the prices are based on fruit packed in syrup of a density which corresponds to the grade of the fruit. For any item that is packed in syrup of which the density does not correspond to the grade of the fruit, the processor shall subtract from the price computed from Table 3 or 4 the amount named in Table 7 for the grade and add to the resulting figure the amount named for the syrup used in the item being priced. The amounts to be subtracted and added in making the conversion for change in packing medium are separately stated for sales to government procurement agencies and for other sales in Part 1 and Part 2, respectively, of Table 7. However, if the change in the packing medium is entirely within standard grade (light syrup of 14°–18° Brix) no subtraction or addition shall be made under Part 1 of this table. Furthermore, if the change in packing medium is from light syrup to slightly sweetened water or natural juice or water or from slightly sweetened water to light syrup, the amount to be subtracted or added for light syrup under Part 1 of Table 7 is the amount named for light syrup of 14°–15.99° Brix. Also no amount shall be added where the change in the packing medium is from syrup to natural juice or water.

NOTE: Under this appendix the manner of figuring a maximum price for sales to government procurement agencies of an item where conversion to or from light syrup (14°–18° Brix) is required under Part 1 of Table 7 differs from that ordinarily followed in figuring maximum prices for such sales. Thus, for government sales of fancy Bartlett pears, halves (peeled) packed in light syrup of 16°–18° Brix, the processor makes the conversion separately from that made in the case of civilian sales (after applying the limitations of the price range), then proceeds with steps 5 and 6 specified in the list at the beginning of section 5 (a) (2) and with application of the provisions of section 10 (j).

(d) Conversions from one style of pack to another style of pack. In each case of conversion from one style of pack to another, the processor shall figure the conversion by taking the difference between the specific dollars-and-cents prices provided in Table 4 for the two items and either adding it to or subtracting it from the constructed base price, as the situation requires. Whether the differential is to be added or subtracted depends on whether the dollars-and-cents price provided in Table 4 for the item being priced is higher or lower than that provided for the item from which the conversion is being made. For example, X Canning Company, whose factory is located in Area 1, during the base period sold choice Bartlett pears, halves (peeled), in No. 2½ cans but made no sales of Bartlett pears, diced, in No. 2½ cans. It is now pricing choice Bartlett pears, diced, in No. 2½ cans. To figure the conversion for style of pack the company takes the difference between the dollars-and-cents price computed from Table 4 for choice Bartlett pears, halves (peeled) ($2.89+$0.06=$2.95) and the dollars-and-cents price provided for choice Bartlett pears, halves (peeled) ($2.95−$2.89=.06). Since the company is pricing an item with a higher dollars-and-cents price than that for the item from which the conversion is made the $0.06 differential is added to its constructed base price in making the conversion for style of pack.

(e) Adjustment for raw material purchased at average price lower than that reflected in permitted increases, price ranges and dollars-and-cents prices. Under section 5 of the supplement the processor is required to subtract from his gross maximum price the difference obtained by subtracting the "weighted average price actually paid" for each grade and district classification of Bartlett pears in 1945 from the average of the recommended prices for those grade and district classifications, figured by using the same weighting factors, after converting that difference to units of the finished product. This adjustment is figured for packed Bartlett pears under Table 9, which sets forth the raw fruit prices by grade and district classifications and the amount that each $1.00 per ton paid for Bartlett pears is equal to when converted to units of the finished product. Before converting to a finished product basis, the processor shall adjust the difference per ton to the nearest multiple of $1.00, with any figure ending in $0.50 or less being rounded to the next lower dollar figure and any figure ending in $0.51 or more being rounded to the next higher dollar figure. No subtraction is required, however, unless the gross maximum price is reduced by 1% or more. (See example in section 5 (a) (1) (iii) for illustration of how adjustment is calculated.)

APPENDIX F—FRUIT COCKTAIL

Explanation of how maximum prices for packed fruit cocktail are figured—(a) What this appendix includes. This appendix includes the specific pricing provisions for fruit cocktail produced in California. It does not apply to fruit cocktail produced in states other than California.

(b) Selection of base period item. In figuring a maximum price for an item under the provisions of subparagraph (3) or (4) of section 5 (a), the processor shall select a base period item nearest in container size to item being priced and nearest in such other respects as may be specified in the applicable appendix. After the nearest container size of packed fruit cocktail sold in the base period has been determined, the processor from that classification shall select an item of the same grade, if available. If there is no such item select choice grade if available.

(c) Conversions for fruit packed in syrup of a density not corresponding to the grade of the fruit. Each grade specified in Tables 3 and 4 refers to the grade of the fruit and the prices are based on fruit packed in syrup of a density which corresponds to the grade of the fruit. For any item that is packed in syrup of which the density does not correspond to the grade of the fruit, the processor shall subtract from the price computed from Table 3 or 4 the amount named in Table 7 for the grade and add to the resulting figure the amount named for the syrup used in the item being priced. The amounts to be subtracted and added in making the conversion for change in packing mediums are separately stated for sales to government procurement agencies and for other sales in Part 1 and Part 2, respectively, of Table 7. However, if the change in packing medium is entirely within standard grade (light syrup of 14°–18° Brix) no subtraction or addition shall be made under Part 1 of this table. Furthermore, if the change in packing medium is from light syrup to natural juice or water, the amount to be subtracted under Part 1 of Table 7 is the amount named for light syrup of 14°–15.99° Brix. Also, no amount shall be added where the change in the packing medium is from syrup to natural juice or water.

NOTE: Under this appendix, the manner of figuring a maximum price for sales to government procurement agencies of an item where conversion to or from light syrup (14°–18° Brix) is required under Part 1 of Table 7 differs from that ordinarily followed in figuring maximum prices for such sales. Thus, for government sales of fancy fruit cocktail packed in light syrup of 16°–18° Brix the processor makes the conversion separately from that made in the case of civilian sales (after applying the limitations of the price range), then proceeds with steps 5 and 6 specified in the list at the beginning of section 5 (a) (2) and with application of the provisions of section 10 (j).

(d) Adjustment for raw material purchased at average price lower than that reflected in permitted increases, price ranges and dollars-and-cents prices. Under section 5 of the supplement the processor is required to subtract from his gross maximum price the difference obtained by subtracting the "weighted average price actually paid" for raw material in 1945 from the Department of Agriculture's recommended price for that raw material. For peaches and pears this difference is obtained in each case by subtracting the "weighted average price actually paid" for each grade and district classification in 1945 from the average of the recommended prices for those grade and district classifications, figured by using the same weighting factors, after converting that difference to units of the finished product. For Thompson seedless grapes, grade and district classifications are not provided. The adjustment is figured for packed fruit cocktail under Table 9, which sets forth the raw fruit prices for those fruits used in making the product for which the adjustment is required and the amount that each $1.00 per ton paid for each of these fruits is equal to when converted to units of the finished product. Before converting to a finished product basis, the processor shall adjust the difference per ton paid for each fruit named in Table 9 to the nearest multiple of $1.00, with any figure ending in $0.50 or less being rounded to the next lower dollar figure, and any figure ending in $0.51 or more being rounded to the next higher dollar figure. If more than one of the fruits named in Table 9 is purchased below the applicable Department of Agriculture's recommended price the total amount to be subtracted is obtained by adding together the amounts specified in Part 2 of Table 9 for each such fruit. No subtraction is required, however, unless the gross maximum price is reduced by 1% or more. (See example in section 5 (a) (1) (iii) for illustration of how adjustment is calculated.)

APPENDIX G—APPLESAUCE

Explanation of how maximum prices for packed applesauce are figured—(a) What this appendix includes. This appendix includes the specific pricing provisions for packed applesauce produced in New York, Virginia, Maryland, West Virginia and Pennsylvania. It does not apply to applesauce produced in other states. If the processor sold only substandard grade of applesauce during the base period, he shall establish his maximum prices under section 5 (b).

(b) Selection of base period item. In figuring a maximum price for an item under the provisions of subparagraph (3) or (4) of section 5 (a), the processor shall select a base period item nearest in container size to item being priced and nearest in such other respects as may be specified in the applicable appendix. After the nearest container size of packed applesauce sold in the base period has been determined, the processor from that classification shall select an item of the same grade if available. In no case shall substandard grade be used as a base period item.

(c) Adjustment for raw material purchased at average price lower than reflected in permitted increases, price ranges and dollars-and-cents prices. Under section 5 of the supplement the processor is required to subtract from his gross maximum price the difference obtained by subtracting the weighted average price he paid for raw material in 1945 from the Department of Agriculture's recommended price for that raw material. This adjustment is figured for packed applesauce under Table 8, which sets forth the raw fruit prices for each area and the amount that each $1.00 per ton paid for apples is equal to when converted to units of the finished product. Before converting to a finished product basis, the processor shall adjust the difference per ton to the nearest multiple of $1.00, with any figure ending in $0.50 or less being rounded to the next lower dollar figure and any figure ending in $0.51 or more being rounded to the next higher dollar figure. No subtraction is required, however, unless the gross maximum price is reduced by 1% or more.

This amendment shall become effective December 3, 1945.

NOTE: All record-keeping and reporting requirements of this amendment have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget, in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 27th day of November 1945.

CHESTER BOWLES,
Administrator.

Approved: November 14, 1945.

J. B. HUTSON,
Acting Secretary of Agriculture.

For the reasons set forth in the statement of considerations and by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Orders Nos. 9250, 9328, 9599 and 9620, I find that the issuance of this amendment, insofar as it establishes maximum prices for packed fruits other than applesauce based on the raw material prices specified in the statement of considerations, is necessary to aid in the effective prosecution of the war or to correct gross inequities.

J. C. COLLET,
Stabilization Administrator.

ARTICLE I—COVERAGE

SECTION 1. Purpose of this regulation. The purpose of this regulation is to provide uniform rules for determining the maximum prices applicable to sales of surplus lumber.

SEC. 2. Relation to other regulations—(a) Regulations and orders superseded. This regulation supersedes Revised Maximum Price Regulation 204 and Supplementary Order 130 insofar as sales of lumber are concerned.

(b) Regulations not superseded. This regulation does not cover sales by distribution yards of lumber purchased by them as surplus and made an integral part of their distribution yard stock. Such sales remain subject to Second Revised Maximum Price Regulation 215, Distribution Yard Sales of Softwood, or Revised Maximum Price Regulation 467, Distribution Yard Sales of Hardwood Lumber.

This regulation does not cover sales of lumber made by sawmills, planing mills, or concentration yards, as defined in, and covered by, the basic mill regulation applicable to the particular species of lumber sold.

SEC. 3. Coverage of this regulation. This regulation applies to sales of surplus lumber, as defined in section 4. It specifically covers sales of surplus lumber by any Government agency and by contractors or subcontractors whose contracts have been terminated or cancelled by a Government agency and who sell for the account of the Government, but such coverage is subject to the paramount provisions of Supplementary Order 94. It also specifically covers resales of surplus lumber purchased from any of the foregoing;

Provided, however, That although this regulation may apply to purchases, it does not cover sales or deliveries by a sawmill, planing mill, or concentration yard of any species of lumber produced in the region in which the mill or concentration yard is located, or sales or deliveries of lumber by distribution yards out of their regular yard stock as defined in Second Revised Maximum Price Regulation 215, or sales or deliveries by lumber wholesalers of lumber purchased from any of the foregoing.

SEC. 4. Definition of terms as used in this regulation. (a) "Lumber" means lumber and forest products which, if sold by the producer or producing mill, would be covered by the maximum price regulations listed below, and any later revisions or amendments thereof, and shall include special items not specifically listed in such regulations but for which a maximum price has been approved by the Lumber Branch of the Office of Price Administration or which would be subject to the special pricing provisions of such regulations. It does not mean used lumber as defined in General Order No. 61.

Maximum price regulations covering producers' sales	Lumber species and products to which this regulation applies
Third RMPR 13	Douglas fir and other softwood plywood.
Second RMPR 19	Southern pine lumber.
MPR 19A	Log-run southern pine lumber.
RMPR 26	Douglas fir and other West Coast lumber.
RMPR 94	Western pine and associated species of lumber.
RMPR 97	Southern hardwood lumber.
MPR 146	Appalachian hardwood lumber.
MPR 155	Central hardwood lumber.
RMPR 164	Western softwood shingles.
RMPR 217	Walnut lumber and walnut gunstock blanks.
Third RMPR 219	Northeastern softwood lumber.
Second RMPR 222	Northern softwood lumber.
MPR 223	Northern hardwood lumber.
MPR 253	Redwood lumber and millwork.
RMPR 290	Sitka spruce lumber.
MPR 368	Northeastern hardwood lumber.
MPR 402	Western red cedar lumber.
MPR 412	Tidewater red cypress lumber.
MPR 454	Aromatic red cedar lumber.

Species and products covered by other regulations may be added to this definition of lumber as the need for their inclusion becomes apparent.

(b) "Surplus lumber" means lumber which was purchased by any person for use or further fabrication and not for resale as lumber in the regular course of business, and which has become excess as a by-product of fabrication or by reason of the modification, termination, cancellation or completion of contracts or for any other reason. Once having become surplus lumber, it shall continue to be treated as surplus lumber for the purpose of this regulation until it is purchased by a user or a seller whose sales are excluded in section 3 from the coverage of this regulation. So long as the lumber sold meets the definition in paragraph (a) of this section, it may be "surplus lumber" even though it has been reworked or remanufactured into specifications varying from those applicable to its purchase.

(c) "Present site" means the place where the surplus lumber is physically located at the time of sale by the person in whose hands it became surplus lumber. For the purpose of computations of price, it is immaterial that the lumber may have been moved after a sale to a reseller.

(d) "Price regulation" means a price schedule effective in accordance with the provisions of section 206 of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, or a maximum price regulation heretofore or hereafter issued, or an amendment to, or order under, any such schedule or regulation, whether such amendment or order is heretofore or hereafter issued.

(e) "Person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association or other organized group of persons, or legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing and includes the United States or any agency thereof or any other government or any of its political subdivisions or any agency of the foregoing.

(f) Meaning of other terms. Unless the context otherwise requires and unless definitions are set forth in this regulation, the definitions set forth in the price regulations listed in section 2 and in section 302 of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, shall apply to other terms used in this regulation.

SEC. 5. Geographical application. The provisions of this regulation shall apply only in the forty-eight States of the United States and in the District of Columbia.

ARTICLE II—MAXIMUM PRICES

SEC. 6. Sales of surplus lumber. On and after December 3, 1945, regardless of any contract or other obligation, no person shall sell or deliver, and no person shall buy or receive any surplus lumber as defined in this regulation in transactions covered by this regulation at prices higher than the maximum prices fixed by this regulation, and no person shall agree, offer, or attempt to do any of these things; except that sales of surplus lumber which would otherwise be subject to this regulation are exempt from all provisions of this or any other maximum price regulation when the total amount of the transaction is less than $50.00.

Prices lower than the ceiling prices may, in any case, be charged and paid.

SEC. 7. Types of sales. Sales of surplus lumber may be of three types, each of which is described below:

(1) Sales "f. o. b. present site" means sales of lumber loaded on cars or vessel if any part of delivery is by rail or water, or loaded on trucks if delivery is entirely by truck. If the lumber must be trucked to a shipping point for transportation by rail or water, loading on the conveyance includes trucking to the shipping point.

(2) Sales "where is" means sales of lumber where located. In this case all loading and movement is to be arranged and performed or paid for by the buyer.

(3) Sales on a delivered basis means sales of lumber delivered f. o. b. final destination.

SEC. 8. Maximum prices—(a) For sales f. o. b. present site, the maximum price is the sum of the f. o. b. mill price and the inbound freight charges, both computed as provided in sections 9 and 10.

(b) For sales "where is", the maximum price is the sum of the f. o. b. mill price and the inbound freight charges, both computed as provided in sections 9 and 10, reduced by $1.50 per M'BM to cover the handling cost and, if the lumber is to move by either rail or water, further reduced by the cost of transportation to the nearest loading-out point computed as follows: For distances up to and including 10 miles, $1.50 per M'BM; over 10 and up to and including 20 miles, $2.00 per M'BM; over 20 and up to and including 30 miles, $2.50 per M'BM.

(c) For sales on a delivered basis, the maximum price is the sum of the f. o. b. mill price and the inbound freight charges, both computed as provided in sections 9 and 10, plus outbound transportation charges figured as follows:

(1) Where delivery is by rail, multiply the estimated weight of the shipment by the lowest through carload rates prevailing at the time of the sale from the rail loading point nearest to the present site of the surplus lumber to the point of delivery selected by the buyer, and add the prevailing transportation tax. Even out the transportation addition to the nearest quarter of a dollar.

If the lumber is a hardwood, the estimated weights are provided in Appendix B, Part 2 of this regulation.

If the lumber is a softwood, the estimated weights are provided in the applicable mill regulation. If the softwood lumber is now dry, regardless of the condition in which bought, you must use the dry weights provided. If the softwood lumber is green and you wish to use green weights, you must apply to the lumber Branch, Office of Price Administration, Washington 25, D. C., for permission to do so.

(2) Where delivery is by truck owned or controlled by the seller, the following amounts may be added for transportation: For distance up to and including 10 miles, $1.50 per M'BM; over 10 and up to and including 20 miles, $2.00 per M'BM; over 20 and up to and including 30 miles, $2.50 per M'BM. Where the distance is greater than 30 miles the seller may charge the amount of the railroad charge at the carload rate for the most similar haul or $3.00 per M'BM, whichever is greater. Distance, as used in this paragraph, means the distance from the "present site" to the point of destination as measured by the speedometer. No addition may be made for the return trip.

SEC. 9. How to compute the f. o. b. mill price. The first step in computing maximum prices is to find the f. o. b. mill price. To compute the f. o. b. mill price you first determine the species of lumber you are selling. If it is softwood lumber, you must find in Appendix A the mill regulation that is applicable to the sale of that species when the lumber is situated at its present site; if it is hardwood lumber, Appendix B will designate the proper mill regulation to be used for the specific species according to the present site of the lumber. In all cases, the mill regulations referred to in the appendices shall apply regardless of the price regulation which actually governed the original sale of the lumber.

Following the provisions of the applicable mill regulation, you find the price f. o. b. mill for a full carload sale of lumber of the same species, grade, size, working and condition as the lumber you are selling. Where the regulation provides different prices for the same species depending on the point of origin of the shipment, the prices you are to use, which are determined by the present site of the lumber, are shown in Appendix A or B. You will note that in order to obtain the proper f. o. b. mill price, you have to grade and tally the lumber you are selling. If you do not have a person available who is competent to grade and tally lumber, call upon your local lumber dealer or other local lumber representative for assistance. You may not rely upon the grading shown on your purchase invoice. Surplus lumber must be regraded before delivery, and sold on proper and accurate grade and tally.

The maximum price thus arrived at from the mill regulations (including all additions applicable to the lumber you are selling which are not expressly denied to you by this section) is the f. o. b. mill price for all species except Southern pine. For Southern pine lumber you may add an additional 4 percent, but not more than $2.00 per M'BM, to the price arrived at from Appendix A or B of Second Revised Maximum Price Regulation 19.

(a) Rules to be observed in computing f. o. b. mill prices. (1) You may not make any additions to the f. o. b. mill price for grade-marking, for small lot or less-than-carload shipments or for mixed-car or mixed-truck shipments, regardless of any provisions in the applicable mill regulation to the contrary.

(2) You may sell surplus lumber in mixed grades of the same species but, if the applicable mill regulation does not give a specific price for the particular combination of grades in the mixture, you must find the price in the applicable mill regulation for the lowest grade in the lot and apply that price to the entire lot.

(3) You may sell surplus lumber in a lot containing more than one species. However, in such a mixed species sale, you must find the prices in the applicable mill regulations for the lowest grade in the lot of each species in the lot and apply the lowest of these prices to the entire lot.

(4) You may, of course, sort the surplus lumber into separate lots according to species and grade and invoice each lot separately.

(5) The prices and provisions currently effective in the applicable mill regulation for the item in its present grade, size, working and condition shall apply, without regard to the original purchase price. Specifically, you may not take into account in computing the f. o. b. mill price, and you may not make any additions for, the fact that

(i) The lumber was originally grade-marked, or was sold in small lot or less-than-carload shipments or in mixed-car or mixed-truck shipments;

(ii) The lumber was originally purchased through a retail outlet;

(iii) The lumber was refabricated to its present size, condition or specification at a cost higher than that established in the mill regulation for the end product;

(iv) The lumber at the time of purchase was in a grade, condition or size that commands a price higher than that for the present grade, condition or size;

(v) The maximum prices established in the applicable mill regulation have been revised since the date of purchase.

SEC. 10. How to compute inbound transportation charges. The second step in computing maximum prices is to figure the permissible inbound freight charges. The permissible inbound freight charges are obtained by multiplying the estimated weight of the lumber sold by the lowest through carload freight rate prevailing at the time of the sale from the appropriate basing point for the species to the rail receiving point that is nearest the present site of the lumber. Add to the total the prevailing transportation tax on a shipment of this nature. The resulting figure is your inbound transportation charge.

(a) How to find the estimated weights. (1) If the surplus lumber being sold is a species of softwood lumber, the estimated weights will be found in a table in the mill regulation which you are using to obtain the f. o. b. mill price. If the lumber is now dry, regardless of the condition in which you bought it, you must use the dry weights. If the lumber is now green and you choose to use green weights, you must apply to the Lumber Branch, Office of Price Administration, Washington 25, D. C., for permission to do so.

(2) If the surplus lumber being sold is a species of hardwood lumber, you must use the dry weights provided in Appendix B, part 2 of this regulation.

(b) How to find the appropriate basing point. Appendix A sets forth the basing points to be used for softwood surplus lumber located in the various states. Appendix B, part 1, sets forth the basing points to be used for hardwood surplus lumber located in the various states.

(c) Rules to be observed in computing inbound transportation charges. (1) In all cases, the applicable basing points found in the appendices to this regulation for each species according to the present site of the surplus lumber shall apply regardless of the actual point from which the lumber was shipped.

(2) In all cases, the lowest through carload rail freight rate prevailing at the time of sale shall apply regardless of the mode of transportation by which the lumber was actually delivered to the seller, or the freight actually paid.

(3) If the surplus lumber is located at the basing point, or within a radius of 10 miles from such point, or at a point which takes a freight rate lower than 10 cents per cwt., a rate of 10 cents per cwt. may be used to figure inbound transportation charges.

(4) Transportation additions shall be evened out to the nearest quarter of a dollar.

SEC. 11. Example of how to figure the maximum price on a sale made f. o. b. present site. Suppose you are an industrial plant in New York City, New York, and have at your plant 25 M'BM of 1 x 12" R/L dry No. 3 Common Ponderosa pine S4S std. which you wish to sell f. o. b. present site because you no longer have use for it. First, in Appendix A of this regulation you find that you are to determine the f. o. b. mill price of the lumber in Revised Maximum Price Regulation 94 (Western pine and associated species of lumber). In RMPR 94, you find, under Article V, that 1 x 12" R/L dry No. 3 Common Ponderosa pine S4S std. is priced at $35.00 per M'BM f. o. b. mill and, under Article VI, that the estimated dry weight is listed as 1900 lbs. per M'BM. Next, in Appendix A of this regulation you find that Klamath Falls, Oregon is the basing point you are to use. The freight rate from Klamath Falls, Oregon to New York City, New York is 82¢ per cwt. To get the freight cost per M'BM, multiply the weight by the rate (1900 lbs. by 82¢ per cwt.), which gives a cost of $15.58 per M'BM. To this you add 3 percent transportation tax (3% of $15.58) or 47¢ per M'BM which, added to the freight cost, makes a total of $16.05 per M'BM or, when evened out to the nearest 25¢, a total of $16.00 per M'BM for inbound transportation charges. Adding the $16.00 and the $35.00 f. o. b. mill price gives you a total of $51.00 per M'BM, which is the maximum price you may charge for this surplus lumber f. o. b. its present site.

ARTICLE III—MISCELLANEOUS

SEC. 12. Prohibited evasive practices—(a) In general. Any practice or device which is an attempt to obtain or has the effect of obtaining a price higher than the maximum price without actually charging a higher price as such, is prohibited and is as much a violation of this regulation as an outright over-ceiling price. This applies to devices making use of commissions, services, transportation arrangements, premiums, special privileges, tying agreements, trade understandings and the like.

(b) Practices specifically prohibited. (1) No person may charge, receive or pay a commission for the service of procuring, buying, selling or locating surplus lumber, or for any related service, such as "expediting," if the commission plus the purchase price results in a total payment by the buyer which is higher than the maximum price in this regulation. A commission is any compensation, however designated, which is based in whole or in part, directly or indirectly, on the quantity, price or value of surplus lumber.

(2) Grading as a special grade, at an addition in price, lumber which is a standard grade; or wrongly grading or invoicing lumber in any other way.

(3) Selling surplus lumber at maximum prices for graded lumber when the lumber has not been regraded by the seller prior to delivery.

(4) Breaking up a transaction which would normally be a single order into a series of smaller orders in order to evade the provisions of this regulation.

(5) Failing to invoice properly and in accordance with the provisions of this regulation.

SEC. 13. What the invoice must contain. All invoices must contain a sufficiently complete description of the lumber to show whether the price is proper or not; i. e., grade, quantity, size, condition, pattern, species, and any other specification which affects the maximum price. The invoice must also show the name of the buyer and seller, the price charged, the site of the lumber at time of sale and, if the sale is of a type other than f. o. b. present site, the amount of the deduction for a "where is" sale, or transportation addition for a delivered sale.

SEC. 14. Records and reports. (a) On and after the effective date of this regulation every person making sales of surplus lumber shall keep available for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for as long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, continues in effect.

(1) Complete and accurate records of each sale of surplus lumber showing

(i) A complete description of the lumber;

(ii) The quantity sold;

(iii) When, at what price, and to whom the lumber is sold; and

(iv) How the selling price was arrived at.

(2) Other records and reports. Persons subject to this regulation shall keep such other records and submit such other reports, subject to the approval of the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942, as the Office of Price Administration may from time to time require or permit, either in addition to or in substitution for records and reports required by this regulation.

SEC. 15. Adjustable pricing. Any person may agree to sell at a price which can be increased up to the maximum price in effect at the time of delivery; but no person may, unless authorized by the Office of Price Administration, deliver or agree to deliver at prices to be adjusted upward in accordance with action taken by the Office of Price Administration after delivery. Such authorization may be given when a request for a change in the applicable maximum price is pending, but only if the authorization is necessary to promote distribution or production and if it will not interfere with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. The authorization may be given by the Administrator or by any official of the Office of Price Administration to whom the authority to grant such authorization has been delegated.

SEC. 16. Applications for adjustment and petitions for amendment—(a) Joint applications for adjustment. Any seller and buyer seeking relief from any of the provisions in this regulation which affect the maximum price on sales of surplus lumber may present the special circumstances of their case in a joint application for an order of adjustment. Such an application shall be filed in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1, shall set forth the facts relating to the hardship to which such provision subjects either or both of the applicants, together with a statement of the reasons why they believe that the granting of relief in the case will not defeat or impair the purpose and intent of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, Executive Orders 9250, 9328 and 9599 and this regulation, and shall establish that the prospective purchaser is able and willing to absorb any increase in price established by an order of adjustment.

(b) Petition for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment of any provision of this regulation may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1, issued by the Office of Price Administration.

SEC. 17. Adjustment of sales prices of purchasers under this regulation. The maximum prices fixed by this regulation for sales and purchases of surplus lumber shall not be used or considered as a basis for amendment, adjustment, exception or other relief under the provisions of any other maximum price regulation, schedule or order.

SEC. 18. Enforcement. Persons violating any provision of this regulation are subject to the criminal penalties, suits for treble damages and civil enforcement actions provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

This regulation shall become effective December 3, 1945.

NOTE: All reporting and record-keeping requirements of this regulation have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 28th day of November 1945.

CHESTER BOWLES,
Administrator.

[1] The location means the place where the lumber was situated at the time of sale by the person in whose hands it became surplus lumber. This is the "present" location regardless of whether the lumber may have been moved after a surplus sale to another reseller.

[2] West of the Cascades, use rate of 10½¢ per cwt.

[3] Use appendix F of 3RMPR 219 for prices and weights.

[4] Upper peninsula, use Chicago, Ill., as basing point.

[5] Use British Columbia and Alberta prices.

[6] The maximum prices for these states are not f. o. b. mill but are delivered prices on a fifty-seven cent (57¢) rate. If the actual freight rate from Eureka, Calif., to the present location of the lumber is greater than 57¢, you may add for inbound transportation only an amount computed by multiplying the excess of the actual rate over the 57¢ rate by the weight of each item, evening off to the nearest 25¢ per thousand feet. If the actual freight rate from Eureka, Calif., is less the 57¢, you must subtract from the eastern area prices an amount computed by multiplying the difference in the rates by the weight per thousand feet (evening off to the nearest 25¢), in order to determine the price per thousand feet f. o. b. present site.

[7] You may make the additions in section 24 of MPR 412 allowed mills in Louisiana.

D* Use appendix D of 3RMPR 219 for prices and weights.

E* Use appendix E of 3RMPR 219 for prices and weights.

[1] The location means the place where the lumber was situated at the time of sale by the person in whose hands it became surplus lumber. This is the "present" location regardless of whether the lumber may have been moved after a surplus sale to another reseller.

[2] The additions to the f. o. b. mill prices, permitted "Tough Ash Specialty Establishments," in RMPR No. 97, may be included when applying the f. o. b. mill price for this species.

[3] The following counties must use MPR 155–SC and Jackson, Tenn., basing point in computing their selling prices: Imperial, Los Angeles, Orange, Riverside, San Bernardino, San Diego, Santa Barbara, Ventura. All other counties use MPR 146 and Jackson, Tenn.

NC*: Use prices provided for North Central Area.
SC*: Use prices provided for South Central Area.

PART 1358—TOBACCO

[RMPR 500]

BURLEY TOBACCO (TYPE NO. 31) OF THE 1943 AND SUBSEQUENT CROPS

Maximum Price Regulation No. 500, is redesignated Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 500, and is revised and amended to read as follows:

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this regulation has been issued and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

Sec.
1. Explanation of regulation.
2. General definitions.
3. Maximum prices for Burley tobacco of the 1943 and subsequent crops.
4. Compliance with regulation.
5. Licensing.
6. Records and reports.
7. Adjustable pricing.
8. Geographical applicability.
9. Export sales.
10. Petitions for amendment.

AUTHORITY: § 1358.256 issued under 56 Stat. 23, 765; 57 Stat. 566; Pub. Law 383, 78 Cong.; Pub. Law 108, 79 Cong. E. O. 9250, 7 F. R. 7871; E. O. 9328, 8 F. R. 4681, E. O. 9599, 10 F. R. 10155.

SECTION 1. Explanation of regulation. The purpose of this regulation is to establish maximum prices for sales and purchases of, and for certain services performed with respect to Burley tobacco of the 1943 and subsequent crops. Specific dollars-and-cents maximum prices are fixed for sales, resales, and purchases of specified grades of the tobacco on the warehouse floor, for sales by and purchases from dealers and for services performed by dealers for purchasers of the tobacco. The maximum prices for the various grades of the tobacco are set forth in paragraph (b) of section 3 of the regulation, and the maximum prices which dealers may charge for their services are set forth in paragraph (d) of that section.

The maximum prices established are not applicable to sales or purchases of, or to services performed with respect to any crop prior to 1943. Maximum prices for the 1942 crop of this tobacco are established by Maximum Price Regulation 283, as amended.

SEC. 2. General Definitions. (a) When used in this regulation, the term:

(1) "Burley tobacco" means U. S. Type 31, as specified in Regulatory Announcement No. 118 of the Bureau of Agricultural Economics, United States Department of Agriculture.

(2) "Person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association or any other organized group of persons or a legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States Government or any agency thereof or any other government, or any of its political subdivisions or any agency of any of the foregoing.

(3) "Dealer" means any person who purchases any grade of Burley tobacco of the 1943 and subsequent crops and resells such tobacco without further processing other than those services set forth in paragraph (d) (2) of Section 3.

(4) "Grade" means a sub-division of the type of tobacco according to group and quality, and according to color when color is of sufficient importance to be treated as a separate factor.

(5) "Drop leaves" refers to Burley tobacco leaves, including broken leaves and scraps, resulting from the handling of tied tobacco in receiving rooms, hanging rooms, packing rooms, green storage, or elsewhere and which are handstemmed, hand picked, sand screened, redried and packed by the dealer separately from tied Burley tobacco.

(b) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in section 302 of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, shall apply to other terms used herein.

SEC. 3. Maximum prices for Burley tobacco of the 1943 and subsequent crops—(a) What warehousemen must do. Every warehouseman or his representative, before any sale of Burley tobacco, shall (1) designate on the basket tag of such tobacco the maximum price specified in paragraph (b) of this section for the grade shown on such tag and (2) announce immediately preceding the sale of such basket and in the presence of the assembled buyers, the grade and maximum price for the tobacco to be sold. Every warehouseman or his representative, before any resale of Burley tobacco previously Government graded and sold on a warehouse floor or otherwise, shall announce immediately before the resale in the presence of the assembled buyers the maximum price for its first sale.

(b) Maximum prices for sales on a warehouse floor. The maximum price on the warehouse floor for each listed grade of the 1943 and subsequent crops of Burley tobacco shall be as follows:

(c) Maximum prices for resales on a warehouse floor or otherwise. For a basket of Government graded Burley tobacco purchased on a warehouse floor or otherwise, the maximum price for the resale of that tobacco on any warehouse floor or otherwise shall be the maximum price which applied or would have applied to its first sale on a warehouse floor. Government graded Burley tobacco purchased on a warehouse floor or otherwise must be resold under the name of its purchaser and may not be resold on any warehouse floor or otherwise if it has been mixed with other tobacco or if it has been divided into smaller baskets. The owner of tobacco which has been Government graded and which is to be resold on a warehouse floor shall inform the warehouseman in writing before the resale the maximum price of the tobacco at its first sale. Government graded Burley tobacco, which has been put up for sale on a warehouse floor, but on which a sale was not consummated on the warehouse floor or otherwise, is not subject to this paragraph.

(d) Maximum prices of dealers—(1) Dealer's warehousing charges. Any dealer who warehouses Burley tobacco after it is packed may make a charge for such warehousing based on the maximum price for the particular grade as set forth in paragraph (b) of this section, but not in excess of one percent of such maximum price per month of warehousing.

(2) Dealer's charges for direct order purchases. (i) A dealer who purchases Burley tobacco on direct order may charge for services rendered in connection with the tobacco purchased, but not in excess of the following amounts:

Services	Maximum charge per 100 pounds (green weight)
Buying at auction market	$0.50
Buying and sheeting (where dealer furnishes sheets)	.75
Buying and sheeting (where dealer does not furnish sheets)	.50
Buying and green prizing	1.75
	Maximum charges per 100 pounds (finished weight)
Redrying only	$2.35
Buying and redrying	2.85
Buying and stemming, other than scrap	7.00
Buying and hand-stemming scrap	10.00
Transportation charge paid to common carrier	actual cost [1]
Hand-stemming, hand-picking, sand-screening, redrying and packing drop leaves	[2] 9.00

[1] If a dealer uses own vehicle, actual cost, not to exceed common carrier rate.

[2] Plus actual cost of packing materials furnished by dealer.

"Purchase on direct order" means a purchase made in conformity with an agreement to buy for a principal either in the principal's name or for his account.

(ii) Dealer's charge for supervisory services on direct order purchase. A dealer performing supervisory services in the purchase on direct order of Burley tobacco of the 1943 and subsequent crops for a particular buyer may charge a fee for such services, but not to exceed the highest customary fee charged by the dealer to the particular buyer for the same services performed with respect to purchases on direct order of the 1942 or 1941 year's crop, whichever is most recent. If the dealer performed no supervisory services for the buyer with respect to purchases on direct order of the 1942 or 1941 year's crop of that type of tobacco, the fee charged by the dealer for such supervisory services shall not exceed the highest customary fee charged therefor by the dealer with respect to purchases on direct order of the 1942 or 1941 year's crop, whichever is most recent, to other buyers of the same class. A dealer performed no supervisory services for the particular buyer or for other buyers of the same class with respect to purchases on direct order of the 1942 or 1941 year's crop, shall apply by letter to the Office of Price Administration, Tobacco Section, Washington, D. C., for authorization to charge a fee for such services based on the fee charged by his most closely competitive dealer of the same class.

"Supervisory services" means services involving responsibility for establishment of proper grade standards, correlation of grading between the several markets, selection of markets affording the greatest abundance of suitable Burley tobacco, decisions as to the rate of buying from week to week and guiding purchases through frequent visits to the several markets.

(3) Dealer's maximum prices for tobacco purchases other than on direct order. A dealer's maximum price for any Burley tobacco of the 1943 and subsequent crops purchased by him other than on direct order shall be an amount determined by adding the following items:

(i) If the tobacco is all of the same grade, the maximum price under paragraph (b) of this section for the quantity of the particular grade (green weight), or,

(ii) If the tobacco is of mixed grades, the weighted average of the maximum prices under paragraph (b) of this section for the particular quantity of each grade (green weight); plus

(iii) The exact amount, if any, paid by the dealer to an independent carrier for transporting the tobacco from its location at the date of purchase to the dealer's prizery or rehandling plant; plus

(iv) A charge for any service listed in sub-paragraph (d) (2) (i) of this section rendered to the dealer by the buyer, but not in excess of the maximum charge under that paragraph for the particular service; plus

(v) Seven percent of the total of items (i) or (ii) and (iii) and (iv) of this sub-paragraph (3), or 2½ cents per pound finished weight; plus

(vi) The actual amount of commission paid by the dealer to a tobacco broker doing business as such during and since March 1942, for the broker's services in negotiating the sale of the tobacco to a manufacturer, but not in excess of three percent of the total of the preceding items of this sub-paragraph; plus

(vii) The charge for warehousing, if any, permitted under sub-paragraph (d) (1) of this section.

However, no dealer who purchases any such tobacco from another dealer shall, in computing his own maximum price therefor, increase the price charged by the dealer from whom he purchased, except to the extent of the charges permitted by this regulation for additional services rendered.

"Weighted average of the maximum prices" means the figures obtained by:

Multiplying the total number of pounds of each grade purchased in each transaction by the maximum price for such grade set forth in paragraph (b) of section 3:

Adding the resulting figures thus obtained; and

Dividing the sum thus obtained by the total number of pounds of all grades purchased in the particular transaction.

(4) Certification by dealers. Any dealer selling Burley tobacco of the 1943 and subsequent crops, on and after December 3, 1945, whether purchased by him on direct order or otherwise, shall place upon the invoice or other evidence of sale of the tobacco, given by him to the purchaser, a complete, correct and signed statement as follows:

> The green weight of the Burley tobacco covered by this invoice (if other evidence of sale is used, specify) was ---------- pounds. The price charged for this tobacco does not exceed our maximum price therefor permitted under Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 500 issued by the Office of Price Administration. The Office of Price Administration requires you to keep this statement for examination.
> (Signed) ---------- > Seller

Only one such statement need be given by a dealer for any particular sale of Burley tobacco.

SEC. 4. Compliance with regulation—(a) No buying or selling above maximum prices. On and after December 3, 1945, regardless of any contract, agreement or other obligation,

(1) No warehouseman or his representative shall sell or deliver, and no person in the course of trade or business shall buy or receive any grade of Burley tobacco of the 1943 and subsequent crops, for which maximum prices are established by this regulation, at a price in excess of the maximum price therein fixed for the sale and purchase on the warehouse floor of the particular grade of tobacco involved, except that,

(i) With respect to sales other than on the warehouse floor of such tobacco purchased by a dealer on direct order, the dealer shall not sell or deliver, and no person in the course of trade or business shall buy or receive, any Burley tobacco of the 1943 and subsequent crops at a price in excess of the maximum price for the particular grade as listed in paragraph (b) of section 3, plus any charges for warehousing or services rendered by the dealer to the buyer, determined in accordance with sub-paragraphs (d) (1) and (2); and

(ii) With respect to sales of such tobacco purchased by a dealer other than on direct order, the dealer shall not sell or deliver, and no person in the course of trade or business shall buy or receive, any Burley tobacco of the 1943 and subsequent crops at a price in excess of the maximum price therefor determined under sub-paragraph (d) (3) of section 3.

(2) No person shall agree, offer, solicit or attempt to do any of the foregoing.

However, lower prices than those established by this regulation may be charged, demanded, paid or offered.

(b) Evasion. (1) The price limitations set forth in this regulation shall not be evaded, whether by direct or indirect methods, in connection with an offer, solicitation, agreement, sale, delivery, purchase or receipt of, or relating to any grade of Burley tobacco of the 1943 and subsequent crops, for which maximum prices are established by this regulation, alone or in conjunction with any other commodity or by way of commission, service, transportation or other charge or discount, premium or other privilege, or by tying agreement or other trade understanding or otherwise.

(2) Specifically, but not exclusively, the following practices in the marketing of any grade of Burely tobacco of the 1943 and subsequent crops, for which maximum prices are established by this regulation, are prohibited.

(i) Any sale or purchase of such tobacco which has not been graded pursuant to the Federal Tobacco Inspection Act, approved August 23, 1935: except that sales and purchases of such tobacco may be made if the tobacco sold and purchased is subsequently graded and resold on a warehouse floor at or below the grade ceilings established by this regulation.

(ii) In the case of a dealer, making any charge for warehousing or for services rendered in the purchase of such tobacco on direct order or otherwise where in fact there has been no warehousing or services rendered.

(iii) In the case of a dealer, making any charge for warehousing or for services rendered in the purchase of such tobacco on direct order in excess of the maximum charges therefor as set forth in sub-paragraphs (d) (1) and (2) of section 3.

(iv) In the case of a dealer, selling or delivering such tobacco purchased by him other than on direct order at prices in excess of the maximum prices determined under sub-paragraph (d) (3) of section 3.

(v) In the case of a dealer, any sale or delivery of such tobacco purchased on direct order or otherwise, without concurrently delivering to the purchaser an invoice or other evidence of sale containing the statement required by sub-paragraph (d) (4) of section 3.

(c) Enforcement. Persons violating any of the provisions of this regulation are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions and suits for treble damages provided by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

SEC. 5. Licensing. The provisions of Licensing Order No. 1 [1] licensing persons who make sales under price control, apply to sellers subject to this regulation, but no such license is required of or granted to a farmer as a condition of selling an agricultural commodity produced by him. A seller's license may be suspended for violations of the license or of one or more applicable price schedules or regulations. A person whose license is suspended may not, during the period of suspension, make any sale for which his license has been suspended.

SEC. 6. Records and reports. (a) Every purchaser of Burley tobacco of the 1943 and subsequent crops subject to this regulation for which maximum prices are established by this regulation, shall make and preserve for examination by the Office of Price Administration, for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect, records setting forth with respect to each purchase of such tobacco (1) the name of the seller and date of purchase; (2) the total number of pounds of each grade; (3) the purchase price paid therefor; and (4) any other records of the same kind as he has customarily kept, relating to the prices which he paid for such tobacco after the effective date of this regulation.

(b) Every warehouseman subject to this regulation in whose warehouse Burley tobacco of the 1943 and subsequent crops is sold, shall keep and make available for examination by the Office of Price Administration, for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect, records setting forth with respect to each of such tobacco (1) the name of the purchaser and date of sale; (2) the total number of pounds of each grade; (3) the selling price received therefor; and (4) any other records of the same kind as he has customarily kept relating to the prices which he received for such tobacco after the effective date of this regulation.

SEC. 7. Adjustable pricing. Any person may agree to sell at a price which can be increased up to the maximum price in effect at the time of delivery; but no person may, unless authorized by the Office of Price Administration, deliver or agree to deliver at prices to be adjusted upward in accordance with action taken by the Office of Price Administration after delivery. Such authorization may be given when a request for a change in the applicable maximum price is pending, but only if the authorization is necessary to promote distribution or, production and if it will not interfere with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. The authorization may be given by the Administrator or by any official of the Office of Price Administration having authority to act upon the pending request for a change in price or to give the authorization.

SEC. 8. Geographical applicability. The provisions of this regulation shall be applicable to the forty-eight states of the United States and the District of Columbia.

SEC. 9. Export sales. The maximum price at which a person may export Burley tobacco of the 1943 and subsequent crops shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the Second Revised Maximum Export Regulation,[2] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

SEC. 10. Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking a general modification of this regulation may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1,[3] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

NOTE: All record keeping and reporting requirements of this regulation have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

This regulation shall become effective December 3, 1945.

Issued this 27th day of November 1945.

10. Provisions of Article III of Food Products Regulation No. 1 applicable to this supplement.

AUTHORITY: § 1351.481 issued under 56 Stat. 23, 765; 57 Stat. 566; Pub. Law 383, 78th Cong., Pub. Law 108, 79th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7817; E.O. 9328, 8 F.R. 4681; E.O. 9599, 10 F.R. 10155; E.O. 9651, 10 F.R. 13487.

ARTICLE I—EXPLANATION OF THE SUPPLEMENT

SECTION 1. Explanation of the supplement. (a) This supplement establishes maximum prices for sales of the following apple products, processed from apples of the 1945 and later crops, by all persons except wholesalers and retailers:

Dried apples.
Boiled cider.
Concentrated cider.
Filtered concentrated apple juice.
Depectinized concentrated apple juice.
Bland apple syrup.
Vinegar stock.
Dried apple pomace.
Dried apple skins and cores.

This supplement also establishes maximum prices for sales, by processors, of items of prior years' packs which have been sold to them by government agencies.

(b) This supplement applies in the 48 states of the United States and the District of Columbia.

(c) This supplement supersedes the provisions of all other maximum price regulations and orders as to the commodities and sellers covered.

(d) This supplement becomes effective November 28, 1945.

SEC. 2. Applicability of Food Products Regulation No. 1. Important: Not all of the provisions affecting the maximum prices of the listed apple products are stated in this supplement. Those which are not specifically set forth here are stated in Food Products Regulation No. 1, and they are just as much a part of this supplement as if they were printed here. The "Explanation of the Regulation" is also a part of this supplement.

The particular sections of Food Products Regulation No. 1 which are applicable to this supplement are listed at appropriate places in the following provisions (in each case, the section number set forth in parentheses is the appropriate section number of Food Products Regulation No. 1). When any applicable section of the regulation is amended, the amendment also is applicable to this supplement.

SEC. 3. Definitions. (a) When used in this supplement the terms:

"Boiled cider" means the product obtained by boiling pure cider in an open receptable to the extent that at least six gallons of pure cider are used to obtain one gallon of boiled cider.

"Concentrated cider" means the product obtained by concentrating pure cider by heating under vacuum.

"Depectinized concentrated apple juice" means the product obtained by filtering pure apple juice, concentrating it by heating under vacuum and depectinizing it to a sufficient extent to result in a liquid concentrate.

"Bland apple syrup" means the product obtained by removing or neutralizing the malic acid from pure apple juice, concentrating after slightly reacidifying, and heating under reduced pressure to the extent that the product meets the minimum test of 40° Baumé.

"Vinegar stock" means fermented apple juice or fermented apple cider or apple juice or apple cider which is in the process of fermenting.

"Dried apples" means apples from which the major portion of the moisture has been removed by natural or artificial drying.

"Dried apple pomace" means the sound, dried residue obtained by removing cider from apples.

(b) The definitions of the following terms, set forth in the designated sections of Food Products Regulation No. 1, are applicable to this supplement:

"Person" (sec. 1.1 of FPR 1).
"Processor" (sec. 1.2 of FPR 1).
"Distributor" (sec. 1.3 of FPR 1).
"Repacker" (sec. 1.4 of FPR 1).
"Primary distributor" (sec. 1.5 of FPR 1).

[1] 9 F.R. 6711.

"Wholesaler" and "retailer" (sec. 1.6 of FPR 1).
"Ultimate consumer" (sec. 1.7 of FPR 1).
"Item" (sec. 1.8 of FPR 1).
"Container type" (sec. 1.9 of FPR 1).
"Sale" (sec. 1.10 of FPR 1).
"Price" (sec. 1.11 of FPR 1).
"Net delivered cost" (sec. 1.12 of FPR 1).
"Records" (sec. 1.14 of FPR 1).

ARTICLE II—PRICING PROVISIONS

SEC. 4. Processors' maximum prices for dried apples. (a) The processor's maximum prices, f. o. b. factory, for sales of dried apples to purchasers other than government procurement agencies shall be the following prices:

Style of pack	Grade	Maximum price
		California, Idaho, Montana, Oregon and Washington
		Per pound
Rings, quarters and slices packed in wood boxes containing 50 pounds	Fancy	$0.410
	Extra choice	.395
	Choice	.380
	Standard	.365
	Unclassified	.310

		California, Idaho, Montana, Oregon and Washington	All other States
Chops, not exceeding 20% moisture content, packed in sacks.		$0.180 per pound	$0.220 per pound.
Chops, exceeding 20% moisture content, but not exceeding 24% moisture content, packed in sacks.		$0.170 per pound	$0.210 per pound.

(b) The boxes or other containers specified in paragraph (a) are standard commercial boxes or containers.

(c) The maximum price for another container type or size of rings, quarters or slices of dried apples shall be figured by differential from the price listed above for the same grade by adding 120% of the dollars-and-cents differential per pound which existed in the processor's selling prices in 1941 when the differential is to be added, and by subtracting 120% of the dollars-and-cents differential per pound which existed in the processor's selling prices in 1941 when the differential is to be subtracted or, if the 1941 differential did not remain constant during that year, 120% of the differential in effect for the greatest length of time during that year.

(d) If the processor (including a processor of rings, quarters or slices whose factory is located in a state not named above) cannot determine his maximum price under the foregoing provisions of this section or under section 9 (a), he shall apply to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., for authorization of a maximum price in accordance with section 9 (c).

SEC. 5. Processors' maximum prices for boiled cider, concentrated cider, filtered concentrated apple juice, depectinized concentrated apple juice and bland apple syrup. (a) The processors' maximum prices, f. o. b. factory, for sales of boiled cider, concentrated cider, filtered concentrated apple juice, depectinized concentrated apple juice and bland apple syrup to purchasers other than government procurement agencies shall be the following prices:

Product	Baumé test	Maximum price
		California, Idaho, Montana, Oregon, and Washington	All other States
Boiled cider	32°	$1.62 per gallon	$1.88 per gallon.
Concentrated cider	32°	$1.72 per gallon	$1.98 per gallon.
Filtered concentrated apple juice	32°	$1.80 per gallon	$2.08 per gallon.
Depectinized concentrated apple juice	32°	$1.90 per gallon	$2.18 per gallon.
Bland apple syrup	40° or better	$0.20 per pound	$0.24 per pound.

(b) To figure a maximum price, f. o. b. factory, for an item of boiled cider, concentrated cider, filtered concentrated apple juice or depectinized concentrated apple juice, testing other than 32 degrees Baumé, the processor shall add to the price named in paragraph (a), five cents per gallon for each degree over 32 degrees which the product tests, and he shall deduct from the named price, five cents per gallon for each degree under 32 degrees. For fractions of degrees over or under 32 degrees, the processor shall add or subtract, as the case may be, the similar fraction of five cents.

SEC. 6. Processors' maximum prices for vinegar stock. The processor's maximum price, f. o. b. factory, for sales to purchasers other than government procurement agencies of vinegar stock of the sugar or alcoholic content required to make vinegar of 5.6 per cent acidity (or greater) shall be 21 cents per gallon if his factory is located in California, Idaho, Montana, Oregon or Washington and 26 cents per gallon if his factory is located in any other state. The processor's maximum price, f. o. b. factory, for sales to purchasers other than government procurement agencies of an item of vinegar stock containing less than the amount of sugar or alcohol required to make vinegar of 5.6 per cent acidity shall bear the same proportion to the maximum price fixed above for the appropriate area as its value for vinegar (in acidity) bears to 5.6 per cent acidity. For example, vinegar stock good for making vinegar of 5.3 per cent acidity would be priced at 53/56ths of 21 cents per gallon for a processor whose factory is located in California.

SEC. 7. Processors' maximum prices for dried apple pomace and dried apple skins and cores. (a) The processor's maximum price for dried apple pomace shall be 4 cents per pound, f. o. b. factory.

(b) The processor's maximum price for dried apple skins and cores shall be 5 cents per pound, f. o. b. factory.

SEC. 8. Processors' maximum prices for sales of prior years' packs of listed products, which have been sold to them by government agencies. The maximum price for sales, by a processor, to purchasers other than government procurement agencies, of that portion of an item of any product listed in section 1 (a) which was packed from apples of any prior year's crop and which has been sold to the processor by a government agency, shall be that processor's maximum price, f. o. b. factory, as established under this supplement for the same item when packed from apples of the 1945 crop. However, differences in brand shall be ignored.

SEC. 9. Provisions of Article II of Food Products Regulation No. 1 applicable to this supplement. The following provisions of Food Products Regulation No. 1 are applicable to this supplement:

(a) Maximum prices for products in new container types or sizes (sec. 2.2 of FPR 1).

(b) Adjustment of dollars-and-cents maximum prices for processors who perform the wholesale or retail function (sec. 2.3 of FPR 1).

(c) Individual authorization of maximum prices (sec. 2.5 of FPR 1). For the purpose of this supplement the processor shall submit the information specified under both paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section.

(d) Uniform prices where the processor or repacker has more than one factory (sec. 2.7 of FPR 1).

(e) Uniform delivered prices where the seller has customarily been selling on an f. o. b. shipping point basis (sec. 2.8 of FPR 1).

(f) Maximum prices for sales by primary distributors (sec. 2.9 of FPR 1). However, for the purpose of this supplement the date December 28, 1945 is substituted for the date October 10, 1945 appearing in section 2.9 (a) (4) and in section 2.9 (c) (3).

(g) Maximum prices for sales by distributors who are not primary distributors, wholesalers or retailers (sec. 2.10 of FPR 1).

(h) Payment of brokers (sec. 2.11 of FPR 1).

(i) Maximum prices for sales to government procurement agencies in certain cases (sec. 2.12 of FPR 1).

(j) Special packing expenses which may be reflected in maximum prices for sales to government procurement agencies (sec. 2.13 of FPR 1).

(k) Treatment of federal and state taxes (sec. 2.14 of FPR 1).

(l) Units of sale and fractions of a cent (sec. 2.15 of FPR 1).

(m) Maintenance of customary discounts and allowances (sec. 2.16 of FPR 1).

ARTICLE III—MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

SEC. 10. Provisions of Article III of Food Products Regulation No. 1 applicable to this supplement. The following provisions of Food Products Regulation No. 1 are applicable to this supplement:

(a) Restrictions on sales to primary distributors (Section 3.1 of FPR 1).

(b) Storage (sec. 3.3 of FPR 1).

(c) Export sales (sec. 3.4 of FPR 1).

(d) Notification of new maximum price (sec. 3.5 of FPR 1). The establishment for the first time of maximum prices under this supplement does not require notification.

(e) Records which must be kept (sec. 3.6 of FPR 1).

(f) Sales slips and receipts (sec. 3.8 of FPR 1).

(g) Transfers of business or stock in trade (sec. 3.9 of FPR 1).

(h) Adjustable pricing (sec. 3.11 of FPR 1).

(i) Compliance with the applicable supplement (sec. 3.12 of FPR 1).

(j) Adjustment of maximum prices of food products under "Government contracts" or subcontracts (sec. 3.13 of FPR 1).

(k) Applications for adjustment by sellers who have been found to have violated the Robinson-Patman Act (sec. 3.14 of FPR 1).

(l) Petitions for amendment (sec. 3.16 of FPR 1).

This supplement shall become effective November 28, 1945.

NOTE: All record-keeping and reporting requirements of this supplement have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget, in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 28th day of November 1945.

CHESTER BOWLES,
Administrator.

Approved: November 21, 1945.

PART 1499—COMMODITIES AND SERVICES

[SR 14J,[1] Amdt. 13]

FEATHERS OR DOWN

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith; and it has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

Supplementary Regulation No. 14J is amended in the following respect:

1. The last paragraph of section 6.1 (b) is amended to read as follows:

Sellers of second hand processed feathers or down in the states of Arizona, California, Colorado, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, New Mexico, Oregon, Utah, Washington and Wyoming; and the following counties in the state of Texas: Brewster, Culberson, El Paso, Hudspeth, Jeff Davis, Pecos, Presidio, Reeves and Terrell, may add 4 cents per pound to the maximum prices listed above.

This amendment shall become effective on December 3, 1945.

Issued this 28th day of November 1945.

CHESTER BOWLES,
Administrator.

PART 95—CAR SERVICE

BAUXITE ORE CONCENTRATES FROM MOBILE, ALA.

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 3, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 26th day of November, A. D. 1945.

It appearing, that the loading of box cars with bauxite ore concentrates from the Aluminum Ore Company, Mobile, Alabama, and the assembling and forwarding of the loaded cars from Mobile in trainload lots of 1800 tons, or more, by common carriers by railroad are impeding the use, control, supply, movement distribution, exchange, and interchange of such cars; in the opinion of the Commission an emergency exists at Mobile, Alabama, requiring immediate action to prevent a shortage of equipment and congestion of traffic: it is ordered, that:

Shipments of bauxite ore concentrates from Mobile, Alabama. (a) Shipments of bauxite ore concentrates to be forwarded within one day (24 hours). Common carriers by railroad subject to the Interstate Commerce Act transporting in switch and line-haul movement trainload shipments of 1800 tons. or more, of bauxite ore concentrates from the Aluminum Ore Company, Mobile, Alabama, shall forward each individual carload consisting of part of a shipment made under section 1, Item 1605 of Agent L. E. Kipp's I. C. C. 1509, or as amended, from Mobile, Alabama, within one day (24 hours) after the first 7 a. m. after the car is loaded.

(b) Cars comprising minimum trainload must be moved within three days (72 hours). Each common carrier by railroad shall forward all carloads comprising minimum trainload shipment mentioned in paragraph (a) of this section from Mobile, Alabama, within three days (72 hours) after the first 7 a. m. after the first car is loaded.

(c) Exceptions. Box cars in which mechanical defects have developed after loading.

(d) Computing time. In computing the time under this order Sundays and bank holidays shall be included.

(e) Special and general permits. The provisions of this order shall be subject to any special or general permits issued by the Director of the Bureau of Service, Interstate Commerce Commission, Washington, D. C., to meet specific needs or exceptional circumstances.

(f) Effective date. This order shall become effective at 12:01 a. m., November 30, 1945.

(g) Expiration date. This order shall expire at 11:59 p. m., March 10, 1946, unless otherwise modified, changed, suspended or annulled by order of the Commission. (40 Stat. 101, sec. 402, 41 Stat. 476, sec. 4, 54 Stat. 901; 49 U.S.C. 1 (10)-(17))

It is further ordered, that a copy of this order and direction shall be served upon the Association of American Railroads, Car Service Division, as agent of the railroads subscribing to the car service and per diem agreement under the terms of that agreement; and that notice of this order be given to the general public by depositing a copy in the office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D. C., and by filing it with the Director, Division of the Federal Register.

OFFICE OF ALIEN PROPERTY CUSTODIAN.

[Vesting Order CE 69]

COSTS AND EXPENSES INCURRED IN CERTAIN ACTIONS OR PROCEEDINGS IN CERTAIN MICHIGAN, ILLINOIS, WISCONSIN AND IOWA COURTS

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the Alien Property Custodian:

Having found that each of the persons named in Column 1 of Exhibit A, attached hereto and by reference made a part hereof, was a person within the designated enemy country or enemy-occupied territory appearing opposite such person's respective name in Column 2 of said Exhibit A;

Having determined that it was in the interest of the United States to take measures in connection with representing each of said persons in the court or administrative action or proceeding identified in Column 3 of said Exhibit A, and having taken such measures:

Finding that as a result of such action or proceeding each of said persons obtained or was determined to have an interest in property, which interest is particularly described in Column 4 of said Exhibit A;

Finding that such property is in the possession, custody or control of the person described in Column 5 of said Exhibit A; and

Finding that the Alien Property Custodian has incurred, in each of such court or administrative actions or proceedings, costs and expenses in the amount stated in Column 6 of said Exhibit A, hereby vests in the Alien Property Custodian, to be used or otherwise dealt with in the interest, and for the benefit, of the United States, from the property in the possession, custody, or control of the persons described in said Column 5 of said Exhibit A, the sums stated in said Column 6 of said Exhibit A, such sums being the amounts of such property equal to the costs and expenses incurred by the Alien Property Custodian in such actions or proceedings.

This order shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property if and when it should be determined that such return should be made.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC–1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of Executive Order No. 9095, as amended.

Executed at Washington, D. C. on November 20, 1945.

[SEAL] JAMES E. MARKHAM,
Alien Property Custodian.

OFFICE OF PRICE ADMINISTRATION.

[MPR 188, Amdt. 1 to Order 109]

NIAGARA SEARCHLIGHT CO., INC.

ADJUSTMENT OF MAXIMUM PRICES

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register; and pursuant to paragraph (a) (16) of Order A–2 under § 1499.159b of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188; It is ordered: That paragraph (a) of Order No. 109 under paragraph (a) (16) of Order A–2 under § 1499.159b of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188 be amended to read as follows:

(a) Manufacturer's maximum prices. Niagara Searchlight Company, Niagara Falls, New York, on and after the effective date of this order may sell its No. 12 portable flashlight lantern without battery, of its manufacture, to wholesalers (jobbers) and retailers at prices no higher than its prices for each such sale in effect prior to the effective date of this order plus an adjustment charge of $.093 each.

This adjustment charge may be collected only if it is separately stated on each invoice. The adjusted prices are subject to the manufacturer's discounts, allowances and other price differentials in effect during March, 1942 on sales to each class of purchaser.

This amendment shall become effective November 28, 1945.

Issued this 27 day of November 1945.

AMERICAN METAL PRODUCTS CO.

APPROVAL OF MAXIMUM PRICES

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register, and pursuant to § 1499.158 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188; It is ordered:

(a) This order establishes maximum prices for sales and deliveries of certain articles manufactured by the American Metal Products Company, 730 Hudgins, Sylvania Station Box 66, Fort Worth 9, Tex.

(1) For all sales and deliveries to the following classes of purchasers by the sellers indicated below, the maximum prices are those set forth below:

Article	Model No.	Maximum prices for sales by any seller to— Wholesalers (jobbers)	Retailers (more than 3 units)	Retailers (less than 3 units)	Consumers
Electric fan	C. F. A. 1646	Each $24	Each $36	Each $40.80	Each $48

These maximum prices are for the articles described in the manufacturer's application dated September 24, 1945.

(2) For sales by the manufacturer, the maximum prices apply to all sales and deliveries since Maximum Price Regulation No. 188 became applicable to those sales and deliveries. These prices are net 30 days, f. o. b. factory. Only the exact amount of the Federal Excise Tax may be added that each particular seller is required to pay.

(3) For sales by persons other than the manufacturer, the maximum prices apply to all sales and deliveries after the effective date of this order. Those prices are subject to each seller's customary terms and conditions of sale on sales of similar articles.

(4) If the manufacturer wishes to make sales and deliveries to any other class of purchaser or on other terms and conditions of sale, he must apply to the Office of Price Administration, under the Fourth Pricing Method, § 1499.158 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188, for the establishment of maximum prices for those sales, and no sales or deliveries may be made until maximum prices have been authorized by the Office of Price Administration.

(b) The manufacturer shall attach a tag or label to every article for which a maximum price for sales to consumers is established by this order. That tag or label shall contain either of the following statements with the correct order number, model number and retail prices properly filled in:

Order No. 4711
Model No. ------
OPA Retail Ceiling Price—$------
Do Not Detach or Obliterate

or

American Metal Products Co.

Sylvania Station Box 66
Fort Worth 9, Texas
Model No. ------
OPA Retail Ceiling Price—$------
Do Not Detach or Obliterate

(c) At the time of, or prior to, the first invoice to each purchaser for resale, the manufacturer shall notify the purchaser in writing of the maximum prices and conditions established by this order for sales by the purchaser. This notice may be given in any convenient form.

(d) This order may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

(e) This order shall become effective on the 28th day of November 1945.

Issued this 27th day of November 1945.

CHESTER BOWLES,
Administrator.

These maximum prices are for the articles described in the manufacturer's application dated October 23, 1945.

(2) For sales by the manufacturer, the maximum prices apply to all sales and deliveries since Maximum Price Regulation No. 188 became applicable to those sales and deliveries. These prices are f. o. b. factory and are subject to a cash discount of 2% for payment in 10 days, net 30 days.

(3) For sales by persons other than the manufacturer, the maximum prices apply to all sales and deliveries after the effective date of this order. Those prices are subject to each seller's customary terms and conditions of sale on sales of similar articles.

(4) If the manufacturer wishes to make sales and deliveries to any other class of purchaser or on other terms and conditions of sale, he must apply to the Office of Price Administration, under the Fourth Pricing Method, § 1499.158 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188, for the establishment of maximum prices for those sales, and no sales or deliveries may be made until maximum prices have been authorized by the Office of Price Administration.

(b) The manufacturer shall attach a tag or label to every article for which a maximum price for sales to consumers is established by this order. That tag or label shall contain the following statement:

Model No. ------
OPA Retail Ceiling Price—$2.75 each
Do Not Detach or Obliterate

(c) At the time of, or prior to, the first invoice to each purchaser for resale at wholesale, the manufacturer shall notify the purchaser in writing of the maximum prices and conditions established by this order for sales by the purchaser. This notice may be give in any convenient form.

(d) This order may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

(e) This order shall become effective on the 28th day of November 1945.

Issued this 27th day of November 1945.

(b) The manufacturer and wholesalers shall grant, with respect to their sales of each brand and size or frontmark of domestic cigars for which maximum prices are established by this order, the discounts they customarily granted in March 1942 on their sales of domestic cigars of the same price class to purchasers of the same class, unless a change therein results in a lower price. Packing differentials charged by the manufacturer or a wholesaler in March 1942 on sales of domestic cigars of the same price class to purchasers of the same class may be charged on corresponding sales of each brand and size or frontmark of cigars priced by this order, but shall not be increased. Packing differentials allowed by the manufacturer or a wholesaler in March 1942 on sales of domestic cigars of the same price class to purchasers of the same class shall be allowed on corresponding sales of each brand and size or frontmark of cigars priced by this order and shall not be reduced. If a brand and size or frontmark of domestic cigars for which maximum prices are established by this order is of a price class not sold by the manufacturer or the particular wholesaler in March 1942, he shall, with respect to his sales thereof, grant the discounts and may charge and shall allow the packing differentials customarily granted, charged or allowed (as the case may be) in March 1942 by his most closely competitive seller of the same class on sales of domestic cigars of the same March 1942 price class to purchasers of the same class.

(c) On or before the first delivery to any purchaser of each brand and size or frontmark of domestic cigars for which maximum prices are established by this order, the manufacturer and every other seller (except a retailer) shall notify the purchaser of the maximum list price and the maximum retail price established by this order for such brand and size or frontmark of domestic cigars. The notice shall conform to and be given in the manner prescribed by § 1358.113 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 260.

(d) Unless the context otherwise requires, appropriate provisions of Maximum Price Regulation No. 260, shall apply to sales for which maximum prices are established by this order.

(e) This order may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

This order shall become effective November 28, 1945.

Issued this 27th day of November 1945.

ADJUSTMENT OF MAXIMUM PRICES

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register, and pursuant to sections 13 and 14 of Supplementary Order No. 119, it is ordered:

(a) Manufacturer's maximum prices. Bersted Manufacturing Company, Fostoria, Ohio, may increase by no more than 12.1% its ceiling prices to each class of purchaser, for small electrical appliances of its manufacturer.

(b) Maximum prices of purchasers for resale. The manufacturer is required to calculate wholesalers' and retailers' ceiling prices for small electrical appliances which he sells at adjusted prices permitted by this order, according to the provisions of this paragraph:

(1) Retailers ceiling prices. The retail ceiling price is the manufacturer's price for the article, exclusive of Federal excise tax, to the class of wholesaler to which the manufacturer sells in the largest volume, plus 100% of such price and the Federal excise tax paid by the manufacturer on a sale to such a wholesaler.

(2) Wholesaler's ceiling prices. (a) The wholesale ceiling price for electric heaters is the retail ceiling price, exclusive of Federal excise tax, as established by this order, less 40% for sales in quantities of three or more units, or less 35% for sales in quantities of less than three units, plus the amount of the Federal excise tax included in the retail ceiling price.

(b) The wholesale ceiling price for other small electrical appliances is the retail ceiling price, exclusive of Federal excise tax, as established by this order, less 40% for sales in quantities of six or more units, or less 35% for sales in quantities of less than six units, plus the amount of the Federal excise tax included in the retail price.

(3) Revision of resellers' ceiling prices. Resellers' ceiling prices permitted by this order are subject to revision at any time in accordance with any industry-wide action which may be taken by the Office of Price Administration which requires resellers to absorb any increase in prices permitted reconversion manufacturers.

(c) Terms of sale. Ceiling prices adjusted by this order are subject to each seller's customary terms, discounts, allowances and other price differentials on sales to each class of purchaser.

(d) Notification. At the time of, or prior to, the first invoice to a purchaser for resale showing a ceiling price adjusted in accordance with the terms of this order, the seller shall notify each purchaser in writing of the adjusted ceiling prices for resales of the articles covered by this order. This notice may be given in any convenient form.

(e) This order may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

(f) Effective date. This order shall become effective on the 28th day of November 1945.

Issued this 27th day of November 1945.

CHESTER BOWLES,
Administrator.

[SO 119, Order 20]

THOMAS L. LEEDOM CO.

ADJUSTMENT OF MAXIMUM PRICES

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith, and filed with the Division of the Federal Register; and pursuant to Supplementary Order No. 119, it is ordered:

(a) Manufacturer's maximum prices. Thomas L. Leedom Company, of Bristol, Pennsylvania, may increase, by eleven percent, its maximum prices in effect immediately prior to the issuance of this order for sales of the wool floor coverings which it manufactures.

(b) Maximum prices of distributors whose sales are covered by Maximum Price Regulation No. 65. (1) If the applicable pricing provision under which the distributor determines his maximum resale prices is § 1352.51 (b) (1) of Maximum Price Regulation No. 65, he shall increase, by eleven percent, each maximum price quoted by the manufacturer in his low-basis price list in effect immediately prior to the issuance of this order; and the resultant prices shall be the reseller's maximum prices.

(2) If the applicable pricing provision under which the distributor determines his maximum resale prices is § 1352.51 (b) (2) of Maximum Price Regulation No. 65, the maximum resale prices established by the Office of Price Administration will reflect the manufacturer's maximum prices as adjusted under this order.

(c) Maximum prices of all other purchasers for resale. (1) If the purchaser for resale must determine his maximum resale prices under Maximum Price Regulation No. 580 by the use of a pricing chart, he shall use the actual invoice cost to him as his cost.

(2) In all other cases, the purchaser for resale shall determine his maximum resale prices, as follows:

(i) A purchaser for resale who delivered or offered for delivery during March 1942 an article which meets the definition of "most comparable article" contained in § 1499.3 (a) of the General Maximum Price Regulation, except that it need not be currently offered for sale, shall calculate his maximum resale prices by adding to his invoice cost the same markup which he had on that comparable article, according to the method and procedure set forth in that section.

The determination of a maximum resale price in this way need not be reported to the Office of Price Administration; however, each seller must keep complete records showing all the information called for by OPA Form 620-759 with regard to how he determined his maximum resale price, for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect.

(ii) If a purchaser for resale cannot determine his maximum resale price under the method specified in (i), he shall apply to the Office of Price Administration for the establishment of his maximum resale price under § 1499.3 (c) of the General Maximum Price Regulation. Maximum resale prices established under that section will reflect the supplier's prices adjusted in accordance with this order.

(d) Notification. At the time of, or prior to, the first invoice to a purchaser for resale, showing a price adjusted in accordance with the terms of this order, the seller shall notify the purchaser in writing of the methods established in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this order for determining adjusted maximum prices for resales of the articles covered by this order. This notice may be given in any convenient form.

(e) Revocation or amendment. This order may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

(f) Effective date. This order shall become effective on the 28th day of November 1945.

Issued this 27th day of November 1945.

RICHARD H. FIELD,
Acting Administrator.

(b) Maximum prices of purchasers for resale. Purchasers for resale of such articles, which the manufacturer has sold at adjusted maximum prices shall determine their maximum resale prices, as follows:

(1) A purchaser for resale who delivered or offered for delivery during March 1942 an article which meets the definition of "most comparable article" contained in § 1499.3 (a) of the General Maximum Price Regulation, except that it need not be currently offered for sale, shall determine his maximum resale price by adding to his invoice cost the same markup which he had on that comparable article, according to the method and procedure set forth in that section.

The determination of a maximum resale price in this way need not be reported to the Office of Price Administration; however, each seller must keep complete records showing all the information called for by OPA Form 620-759 with regard to how he determined his maximum resale price, for inspection by the Office of Price Administration, for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect.

(2) If a purchaser for resale cannot determine his maximum resale price under the above method, he shall apply to the Office of Price Administration for the establishment of his maximum resale price under § 1499.3 (c) of the General Maximum Price Regulation. Maximum resale prices established under that section will reflect the supplier's prices adjusted in accordance with this order.

(c) Notification. At the time of, or prior to, the first invoice to a purchaser for resale, showing a price adjusted in accordance with the terms of this order, the seller shall notify the purchaser in writing of the methods established in paragraph (b) of this order for determining adjusted maximum prices for resales of the articles covered by this order. This notice may be given in any convenient form.

(d) Reports to be filed. The manufacturer shall file the report, described in section 5 of Supplementary Order No. 133, with the Office of Price Administrator, Washington 25, D. C.

(e) Revocation or amendment. This order may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

(f) Effective date. This order shall become effective on November 28, 1945.

Issued this 27th day of November 1945.

OVER-SIZE CLAY BUILDING BRICK PRODUCED IN VIRGINIA

ADJUSTMENT OF MAXIMUM PRICES

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register and pursuant to section 10 of Maximum Price Regulation 592, It is ordered:

(a) The manufacturer's maximum prices for sales of over-size clay building brick (with dimensions of 2½" x 3¾" x 8") produced in the state of Virginia shall be his established maximum price under Maximum Price Regulation 592, as amended, for sales of his current standard size brick (with dimensions of 2¼" x 3¾" x 8") increased by an amount not in excess of 8 percent.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a) above, if the manufacturer, prior to the effective date of this order, had an established price under Maximum Price Regulation 592, for sales of over-size clay building brick (with dimensions of 2½" x 3¾" x 8"), he shall continue to produce and sell this commodity at his established maximum price and shall not increase his prices therefor pursuant to (a) above.

(c) The maximum prices established herein shall be subject to at least the same cash, quantity and other discounts, transportation allowances, services, and other terms and conditions of sale as the seller extended or rendered on comparable sales to purchasers of the same class during March 1942.

(d) Any person purchasing the over-size brick specified above for purposes of resale, from a manufacturer whose prices are established in paragraph (a) above, may establish his resale prices at an amount not in excess of his present maximum prices for standard size brick (with dimensions of 2¼" x 3¾" x 8") to purchasers of the same class for like quantities under similar conditions of sale plus a sum equal to the dollars-and-cents amount of his additional cost for over-size brick as compared with standard size brick.

(e) Every manufacturer making sales of over-size brick whose prices are established by paragraph (a) of this order shall send the following notation to every purchaser of such brick who buys for resale at the time of the first sale to such purchaser after the effective date of this order:

Order No. 6 under section 10 of Maximum Price Regulation 592 issued by the Office of Price Administration established prices for us on over-size clay brick (with dimensions of 2½" x 3¾" x 8") at an amount not in excess of our maximum prices for standard size brick (with dimensions of 2¼" x 3¾" x 8") increased by 8 percent.

Order No. 6 also provides that a reseller may establish his prices for such over-size brick as the sum of his present maximum prices for standard size brick to purchasers of the same class for like quantities under similar conditions of sale plus a sum equal to the dollars-and-cents amount of his additional cost for over-size brick as compared with standard size brick.

(f) All provisions of Maximum Price Regulation 592 not inconsistent with this order shall apply to sales covered by this order.

(g) This order may be amended or revoked by the Office of Price Administration at any time.

This Order No. 6 shall become effective December 1, 1945.

Issued this 28th day of November 1945.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION.

[File Nos. 54-43, 70-1176, 70-1177]

GREAT LAKES UTILITIES CO. ET AL.

NOTICE OF FILING AND ORDER FOR HEARING; ORDER RECONVENING HEARINGS; AND ORDER CONSOLIDATING PROCEEDINGS

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 23d day of November, A. D. 1945.

In the matter of Great Lakes Utilities Company, File No. 54-43; Great Lakes Utilities Company, Ohio Gas, Light & Coke Company, File No. 70-1176; Great Lakes Utilities Company, Paxton Gas Company, and Rochelle Gas Company, File No. 70-1177.

Great Lakes Utilities Company ("Great Lakes"), a registered holding company, having heretofore filed a plan and amendments thereto pursuant to section 11 (e) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 for compliance with sections 11 (b) (1) and 11 (b) (2) of said Act; the Commission having instituted proceedings with respect to Great Lakes and its subsidiaries under sections 11 (b) (1) and 11 (b) (2) of the act; and the Commission having consolidated the proceedings with respect to these matters (Holding Company Act Release No. 3243);

The plan filed by Great Lakes having provided, among other things, for the extension of the maturity date of Great Lakes' outstanding First Lien Collateral Trust Gold Bonds 5½%, due 1942, for the sale of all the assets of Great Lakes and for the application of the proceeds from the sale of the assets ratably to the payment of principal and interest on Great Lakes' bonds and to the payment of necessary expenses and the distribution of the balance of such proceeds, if any, to Great Lakes' stockholders and for the subsequent dissolution of Great Lakes;

The Commission and The District Court of the United States for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania having approved the section 11 (e) plan and amendments thereto, and the maturity date of Great Lakes' outstanding First Lien Collateral Trust Bonds having been extended to May 1, 1945 and The United States District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania having taken exclusive jurisdiction and possession of Great Lakes and its assets;

Great Lakes having sold assets and applied the proceeds therefrom to the reduction of the unpaid principal amount of its bonds from $1,582,500 to $514,312 as of August 31, 1945 and having paid all interest on such bonds due and payable to May 1, 1942, the unpaid principal amount of its bonds and interest thereon as of August 31, 1945 amounting to $626,424, and Great Lakes having heretofore stated that further efforts to sell its remaining assets on a satisfactory basis were unsuccessful and having heretofore filed an amended plan, dated October 1, 1944, pursuant to section 11 (e) of the Act;

Said amended plan having provided, among other things, for the acquisition by Rochelle Gas Company ("Rochelle"), a subsidiary of Great Lakes, of the assets of Paxton Gas Company ("Paxton"), also a subsidiary of Great Lakes, for the issuance and sale by Ohio Gas, Light & Coke Company ("Ohio"), also a subsidiary of Great Lakes, of $325,000 principal amount of First Mortgage Bonds, for the recapitalization of Rochelle and Ohio on the basis of a single class of common stock in each case and for the distribution of $306,586 in cash and 70.158% of the new common stocks of Rochelle and Ohio to Great Lakes' bondholders in complete satisfaction of their claims, and for the distribution of the remaining 29.842% of the common stocks of Rochelle and Ohio to the holders of the common stock of Great Lakes (and Voting Trust Certificates therefor);

Public hearings having been held on the amended plan and Great Lakes having stated thereafter that the company now deems it advisable to carry out certain steps contemplated by the plan of Great Lakes heretofore approved by the Commission and that the consummation of such steps will render impossible the accomplishment of the principal provisions of the amended plan, and Great Lakes having filed an application with this Commission for permission to withdraw the amended plan;

Notice is hereby given that applications and declarations, and amendments thereto, have been filed with this Commission by Great Lakes, Ohio, Rochelle and Paxton pursuant to the applicable provisions of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and the general rules and regulations of this Commission thereunder, with respect to various proposed transactions designed as steps toward the accomplishment of the liquidation and dissolution of Great Lakes pursuant to the section 11 (e) plan of Great Lakes heretofore approved by the Commission.

All interested parties are referred to said documents, which are on file at the offices of this Commission, for a statement of the transactions therein proposed which are summarized as follows:

1. Great Lakes proposes to sell to Frederick E. Zeuch of Chicago, Illinois, its investment in Ohio consisting of all of the outstanding securities of Ohio, at the date of closing, namely, $525,000 principal amount of First Mortgage 6% Gold Bonds, Series A, due 1942 and 1,900 shares of common stock with a par value of $100 per share for a cash consideration of $660,100.

2. Great Lakes proposes, prior to or simultaneously with the closing, to contribute to the capital of Ohio the following:

(i) $125,000 principal amount of Ohio's First Mortgage 6% Gold Bonds, due 1942, such amount being the excess of the outstanding principal amount of such bonds over the principal amount ($525,000) of such bonds proposed to be sold by Great Lakes as set forth in paragraph 1 above.

(ii) All claims for interest on the $650,000 principal amount of Ohio's bonds owned by Great Lakes less interest paid in cash thereon by Ohio between May 1, 1945 and the date of closing.

(iii) All open account, note and other indebtedness owed by Ohio to Great Lakes at the date of the closing, including interest thereon and any claim in respect of the amount of $5,990 heretofore paid by Great Lakes to Ohio in connection with a subscription by Great Lakes to 599 shares of capital stock of Ohio, which subscription will be cancelled.

3. Paxton proposes to sell and Rochelle proposes to acquire pursuant to the express approval of the Illinois Commerce Commission (i) the properties of Paxton for a consideration equal to the net book value thereof ($189,372 at August 31, 1945) to be paid by the assumption by Rochelle of the liabilities of Paxton for consumers' deposits, interest thereon, and of a portion of the note and open account indebtedness plus interest thereon owed by Paxton to Great Lakes and (ii) the current assets (except cash) of Paxton for a cash consideration equivalent to the book amount thereof, ($10,152 at August 31, 1945) and Paxton will thereupon dissolve.

4. Rochelle proposes to amend its Articles of Incorporation to reclassify its presently outstanding 600 shares of capital stock, having a par value of $100 per share, into 15,078 shares of capital stock with a par value of $10 a share and to change its name to Allied Gas Company or such other name as may be appropriate and available. Rochelle will also receive a capital contribution from Great Lakes in the total amount of $198,193 as of August 31, 1945 consisting of indebtedness of $185,659 owed by Paxton to Great Lakes (assumed by Rochelle) and $12,534 in cash.

5. Great Lakes proposes to use a portion of the proceeds from the sale of the foregoing securities of Ohio to satisfy in full the claim of Great Lakes' bondholders for principal and interest to the date of payment which claim, as of August 31, 1945, amounted to $626,424. Great Lakes states that the balance of the proceeds will be applied, to the extent necessary, to the payment of the costs and expenses of winding up Great Lakes, and that any remaining portion of the proceeds will be donated to Rochelle.

Great Lakes states that upon approval by this Commission of the sale by Great Lakes of its investment in Ohio, Great Lakes will apply to The District Court of the United States for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania for an order approving such proposed transactions.

The Commission is also requested to issue an order containing the appropriate recitals and specifications described in sections 371 (b), 371 (f), 373 (a) and 1808 (f) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, with respect to the proposed sale of the securities of Ohio and the transactions incidental thereto and sections 371 (f), 373 (a) and 1808 (f) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, with respect to the acquisition by Rochelle of the assets of Paxton and the recapitalization of Rochelle.

It appearing to the Commission that it is appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that a hearing be held in respect of such matters and that said declarations shall not become effective nor said applications granted except pursuant to further order of the Commission;

It further appearing to the Commission that it is appropriate that the hearings in the proceedings under sections 11 (b) (1) and 11 (b) (2) of the act in the consolidated proceedings (File No. 54–43) be reconvened, and that the issues presented by said consolidated proceedings and by the applications and declarations with respect to the sale by Great Lakes of its interest in Ohio and the acquisition by Rochelle of the assets of Paxton and the recapitalization of Rochelle involve common questions of law and fact and should be heard together:

It is hereby ordered, That the proceedings on the applications and declarations of Great Lakes, Ohio, Paxton and Rochelle be consolidated with the proceedings under sections 11 (b) (1), 11 (b) (2) and 11 (e) of the act, and that a hearing on the matters involved in the applications and declarations of Great Lakes, Ohio, Paxton and Rochelle and in the proceedings under sections 11 (b) (1) and 11 (b) (2) of the act be held on December 5, 1945 at 10:30 a. m., e. s. t., at the offices of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. On such date the hearing room clerk in Room 318 will advise as to the room in which such hearing will be held. All persons desiring to be heard or otherwise wishing to participate in the proceedings should notify the Commission in the manner prescribed by Rule XVII of the rules of practice on or before December 3, 1945.

It is further ordered, That Allen MacCullen, or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at such hearing. The officer so designated to preside at such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (f) of said act and to a trial examiner under the Commission's rules of practice.

It is further ordered, That, without limiting the scope of the issues involved in these proceedings, particular attention will be directed at the hearing to a consideration of the following matters and questions:

1. Whether competitive conditions have been maintained in the negotiation of the proposed sale of the securities of Ohio and whether the proposed consideration to be received for such securities is reasonable.

2. Whether the proposed capital contributions by Great Lakes to Ohio, Paxton and Rochelle comply with the applicable provisions of the act and the rules thereunder.

3. Whether the proposed liquidation and dissolution of Paxton and the transactions incident thereto are in compliance with the applicable provisions of the act and the rules thereunder.

4. Whether the proposed accounting entries on the books of Great Lakes, Ohio, Paxton and Rochelle are appropriate and in conformity with the requirements of the act.

5. Whether the fees, commissions or other remuneration to be paid in connection with the proposed transactions are for necessary services and are reasonable in amount.

6. What terms or conditions, if any, with respect to the proposed transactions should be prescribed in the public interest or for the interest of investors or consumers.

7. Generally, whether in any respect, the proposed transactions are detrimental to the public interest or the interest of investors or consumers or will tend to contravene or circumvent any provisions of the act or the rules thereunder.

At the outset of said hearing, consideration will be given to the issues with respect to the proposed sale by Great Lakes of its interest in Ohio.

It is further ordered, That the Secretary of the Commission shall serve notice of said hearing by mailing a copy of this order by registered mail to Great Lakes, Ohio, Paxton and Rochelle, to Frederick E. Zeuch, the prospective purchaser of the securities of Ohio, to Bank of the Manhattan Company, Trustee under the Trust Indenture securing Great Lakes' bonds, The Pennsylvania Company for Insurances on Lives and Granting Annuities and C. S. Newhall, Trustees under the First Mortgage securing Ohio's bonds, The Ohio Public Utilities Commission, Illinois Commerce Commission, and to the Federal Power Commission; and that notice shall be given to all other persons by general release of this Commission which shall be distributed to the press and mailed to the mailing list for releases under the act; and that further notice be given to all persons by publication of this order in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

It is further ordered, That jurisdiction be, and hereby is, reserved to separate, either for hearing, in whole or in part, or for disposition, in whole or in part, any of the issues which may arise in the proceedings instituted by this order and the proceedings heretofore instituted under sections 11 (b) (1), 11 (b) (2) and 11 (e) of the act.

By the Commission.

SOUTHERN COLORADO POWER CO.

ORDER RELEASING JURISDICTION OVER LEGAL FEES AND EXPENSES

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 23d day of November 1945.

In the matter of Southern Colorado Power Company, File No. 54–55; and Southern Colorado Power Company, File No. 59–51.

Southern Colorado Power Company (Southern Colorado), a subsidiary of Standard Gas and Electric Company, a registered holding company, having filed on June 30, 1942, an application and amendments thereto pursuant to section 11 (e) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 for approval of the company's second amended plan to comply with section 11 (b) (2) of the act; and said proceedings having been consolidated with the proceedings instituted by the Commission with respect to Southern Colorado Power Company under section 11 (b) (2) of the act and hearings held thereon; and the Commission having issued its order dated November 24, 1943, approving said second amended plan, subject to the condition that jurisdiction be reserved to the Commission over all fees and expenses incurred or to be incurred in connection with such plan, which fees and expenses at the time of approval of the plan were estimated in the amount of $69,816.31; and

Such plan having been finally approved by order dated June 26, 1945, of The District Court of the United States for the District of Colorado, in the proceedings entitled "In the Matter of Southern Colorado Power Company Civil No. 670", which order provided that the effective date of such plan should be June 30, 1945; and

Southern Colorado Power Company having filed on October 25, 1945, its petition requesting that the Commission enter an order waiving the jurisdiction heretofore reserved by the Commission with respect to the payment by Southern Colorado Power Company of the fees and expenses incurred by the company in connection with the plan, and stating that the total of such fees and expenses amounts to the sum of $49,243.67, that the unpaid balance of such fees and expenses is the sum of $12,214.78, of which amount $10,500 is due to A. Louis Flynn for legal services rendered the company in connection with the plan and $1,714.78 is due to Butler Disman, a preferred stockholder of the company who appeared and took part in the proceedings herein, for reimbursement for his legal fees in the amount of $1,000 and his expenses in the amount of $714.78; and

The Commission having examined said petition; and it appearing to the Commission that such fees and expenses as set forth in said petition are not unreasonable;

It is ordered, That the jurisdiction heretofore reserved by the Commission's order of November 24, 1943 with respect to the payment of fees and expenses be, and hereby is, released.

By the Commission.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA WATER CO. AND AMERICAN STATES UTILITIES CORP.

ORDER GRANTING APPLICATION AND PERMITTING DECLARATION TO BECOME EFFECTIVE

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 23d day of November, A. D. 1945.

Southern California Water Company ("Southern"), a non-utility subsidiary of American States Utilities Corporation ("American"), a registered holding company, having filed an application and declaration and, together with American, an amendment thereto, pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, with respect to the proposals of Southern (a) to issue and sell 32,000 shares of new 4¼% preferred stock, par value $25, to seven institutional purchasers at $26.50 per share, (b) to use the proceeds of said sale to redeem and retire all of its outstanding shares of preferred stock, consisting of 20,000 shares of 6% preferred stock and 12,000 shares of 5% preferred stock, at their redemption price of $26.25 per share plus dividends unpaid and accrued, (c) to amend its articles of incorporation to provide for the new preferred stock, (d) to solicit authorizations from all its shareholders with respect to the proposed amendment to its articles of incorporation, and (e) to issue to American an aggregate of 61,932 shares of common stock in exchange for its 61,932 outstanding common shares in the hands of American, and with respect to the proposal of American to acquire the shares of common stock to be issued by Southern; and

Notice of said filing having been duly given in the form and manner prescribed by Rule U-23 promulgated pursuant to the act, and the Commission not having received a request for a hearing with respect to said joint application and declaration within the period specified in said notice or otherwise, and not having ordered a hearing thereon; and

The Commission finding that the proposed transactions are not in contravention of the act or any Rules or Regulations promulgated thereunder, that the proposed transactions satisfy the requirements of sections 6 (b), 10, 12 (c), and 12 (e) of the act and of the applicable rules thereunder, and that it is appropriate in the public interest and in the interests of investors and consumers that said application be granted and said declaration be permitted to become effective;

It is hereby ordered, pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of the act and of the rules thereunder, that subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24 the aforesaid application be and the same hereby is granted and the aforesaid declaration be and the same hereby is permitted to become effective forthwith.

CENTRAL ILLINOIS PUBLIC SERVICE CO.

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 23rd day of November, A. D., 1945.

Central Illinois Public Service Company (CIPS), a public utility subsidiary of The Middle West Corporation, a registered holding company, has filed an application pursuant to section 6 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 respecting a proposal to issue and sell to certain banks its unsecured serial notes in the aggregate principal amount of $5,600,000 to mature in the amount of $350,000 on April 1 and October 1 in each of the years 1946 to 1953 inclusive, bearing interest at 2% per annum, and to use the proceeds to prepay and redeem an identical principal amount of unsecured serial notes maturing on April 1 and October 1 in each of the years 1947 to 1951 inclusive, of which notes $2,800,000 principal amount, maturing to October 1949, bear interest at the rate of 2¾% per annum, and $2,800,000 maturing after said date, bear interest at the rate of 3% per annum.

Inasmuch as the proposed issuance of notes by CIPS comes before us on application for exemption pursuant to Section 6 (b) of the act and has been expressly authorized by the Illinois Commerce Commission, the questions before us are confined to (1) whether such issue and sale of securities are solely for the purpose of financing the business of CIPS and (2) whether it is appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors and consumers to impose conditions with respect thereto.

After appropriate notice a public hearing upon the application was duly held. Having considered the record, we make the following findings:

CIPS, an Illinois public utility, produces, purchases, distributes and sells electric energy; distributes and sells natural gas and water; produces and sells manufactured gas and ice and, to a minor extent, conducts a cold storage business and supplies heating service, all in the State of Illinois.

Proceedings are now pending pursuant to sections 11 (b) (2) and 15 (f) of the act with respect to CIPS [1] to determine whether voting power is fairly and equitably distributed among its security holders, and, if not, whether it is necessary or appropriate to require that it shall revise and simplify its capital structure and take other steps to effect fair and equitable distribution of voting power among its security holders, and to determine whether it is necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers to require that it restate its plant and investment, surplus, capital and other accounts.

The proposed transactions will result in a reduction in interest on the long term unsecured indebtedness of CIPS. The schedule of maturities will be modified so that payments on the new notes will be divided into sixteen equal installments through creating two maturities in 1946 and extending four maturities beyond final maturity of the presently outstanding serial notes. The proposed notes may be prepaid without premium, except from borrowings or sales of securities bearing interest at less than 2% per annum. No fees, commissions or other remuneration will be paid and expenses will be nominal.

The issue and sale of the notes is solely for the purpose of financing the business of the company. Since the principal effect of the issuance of the new notes is to reduce interest charges and the note agreement provides for prepayment of the notes without premium and it appears that the proposed transactions will not, in any way, prejudice a complete determination of the issues in the pending proceedings under sections 11 (b) (2) and 15 (f) of the act, we will approve the application without imposing any conditions. We shall, however, reserve full jurisdiction with respect to the proceedings under section 11 (b) (2) and 15 (f) now pending and this order is not intended, nor shall it be construed, to involve any determination regarding any of the issues with respect to the said proceedings. Of course, we will reserve our full powers under section 12 (c) of the act with respect to dividend payments of the company.

It is therefore ordered, That the application be, and the same hereby is granted forthwith, subject to the reservation of jurisdiction above noted, and further, subject to the terms and conditions contained in Rule U-24.

By the Commission.

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING AND ORDER CONSOLIDATING PROCEEDINGS

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 26th day of November A. D. 1945.

In the matter of Providentia, Ltd., The Nineteen Corporation, Instoria, Inc., File Nos. 812-192, 812-193, 812-194.

Applications having been filed by Providentia, Ltd., The Nineteen Corporation and Instoria, Inc., under and pursuant to Section 6 (c) of the Investment Company Act of 1940, for orders granting an extension to January 15, 1946 of an exemption from the provisions of the Investment Company Act of 1940 heretofore granted to applicants and extended to November 30, 1945 by order of the Commission dated March 30, 1945;

It appearing to the Commission that said applications are related and present questions of law and fact common to each of said applications;

It is ordered, That the proceedings on the three applications be and the same hereby are consolidated;

It is further ordered, Pursuant to section 40 (a) of said act, that a hearing on the consolidated matter be held on December 7, 1945 at 10:00 a. m. Eastern Standard Time in Room 318 in the Securities and Exchange Commission Building, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia 3, Pennsylvania;

It is further ordered, That Charles S. Lobingier, or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at the hearing on this matter. The officer so designated is hereby authorized to exercise all the powers granted to the Commission under sections 41 and 42 (b) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 and to trial examiners under the Commission's rules of practice.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to the applicants and to any other persons whose participation in such proceedings may be in the public interest or for the protection of investors.

By the Commission.

EXECUTIVE ORDER 9660

CONFERRING CERTAIN AUTHORITY UPON THE CHIEF OF COUNSEL IN THE PREPARATION AND PROSECUTION OF CHARGES OF WAR CRIMES AGAINST THE MAJOR LEADERS OF JAPAN AND THEIR PRINCIPAL AGENTS AND ACCESSORIES

By virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and the statutes as President of the United States and as Commander in Chief of the Army and the Navy, and to enable Joseph B. Keenan, as Chief of Counsel in the preparation and prosecution of charges of war crimes against the major leaders of Japan and their principal agents and accessories (hereinafter referred to as Chief of Counsel), to perform effectively his functions and duties, it is hereby ordered as follows:

1. The Chief of Counsel is authorized to select and recommend to the President or to the head of any executive department, independent establishment, or other federal agency, necessary personnel to assist him in the performance of his duties. The head of each executive department, independent establishment, and other federal agency is authorized to assist the Chief of Counsel in the performance of his duties and to employ such personnel and make such expenditures, within the limits of the appropriations now or hereafter available for the purpose, as the Chief of Counsel may deem necessary for the accomplishment of his duties, and to make available, assign, or detail for duty with the Chief of Counsel such members of the armed forces and other personnel as may be requested by the Chief of Counsel.

2. The Chief of Counsel shall receive such compensation and allowances for expenses as may be authorized by the Secretary of War.

3. The Chief of Counsel is authorized to cooperate with, and to receive the assistance of, any foreign Government to the extent deemed necessary by him for the accomplishment of his duties.

POSSESSION, CONTROL, AND OPERATION OF THE TRANSPORTATION SYSTEM, PLANTS, AND FACILITIES OF THE GREAT LAKES TOWING COMPANY, CLEVELAND, OHIO

WHEREAS after investigation I find and proclaim that as a result of a labor dispute there are interruptions of the operations of the transportation system, plants, and facilities of The Great Lakes Towing Company located and operated upon the Great Lakes and tributary waters; that the war effort will be unduly impeded and delayed by such interruptions; that it has become necessary to take possession and assume control of the said transportation system, plants, and facilities for purposes that are needful or desirable in connection with the present wartime emergency; and that the exercise, as hereinafter specified, of the powers vested in me is necessary to insure in the national interest the operation of the said transportation system, plants, and facilities:

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and laws of the United States, including section 9 of the Selective Training and Service Act of 1940 as amended by section 3 of the War Labor Disputes Act, the Act of August 29, 1916, 39 Stat. 645, and the First War Powers Act, 1941, as President of the United States and Commander in Chief of the Army and Navy, it is hereby ordered as follows:

1. The Director of the Office of Defense Transportation is authorized and directed, through or with the aid of any public officers, Federal agencies, or other government instrumentalities that he may designate, to take possession and assume control of the said transportation system, plants, and facilities owned or operated by The Great Lakes Towing Company, including all real and personal property and other assets used or useful in connection with the operation of such transportation system, plants, and facilities, and to operate or to arrange for the operation of the said transportation system, plants and facilities in such a manner as he may deem necessary to carry out the provisions, and accomplish the purposes of this order.

2. Subject to applicable provisions of existing law, including the orders of the Office of Defense Transportation issued pursuant to Executive Order 8989, as amended, the said transportation system, plants, and facilities shall be managed and operated under the terms and conditions of employment in effect at the time possession is taken under this order.

3. Except with the prior written consent of the Director, no attachment by mesne process, garnishment, execution, or otherwise shall be levied on or against any of the real or personal property or other assets, tangible or intangible, in the possession of the Director hereunder.

4. Possession, control, and operation of any plant or facility, or of the transportation system, or any part thereof, or any real or personal property, taken under this order shall be terminated by the Director when he determines that such possession, control, and operation are no longer necessary to carry out the provisions, and accomplish the purposes of this order.

5. For the purposes of paragraphs 1 to 4, inclusive, of this order, there are hereby transferred to the Director the functions, powers and duties vested in the Secretary of War by that part of section 1 of the said Act of August 29, 1916, reading as follows:

The President, in time of war, is empowered, through the Secretary of War, to take possession and assume control of any system or systems of transportation, or any part thereof, and to utilize the same, to the exclusion as far as may be necessary of all other traffic thereon, for the transfer or transportation of troops, war material and equipment, or for such other purposes in connection with the emergency as may be needful or desirable.

6. The Director of the Office of Defense Transportation may request the Secretary of the Navy to furnish protection for persons employed or seeking employment in the plants, facilities, or transportation system of which possession is taken and to furnish protection for such plants, facilities, and transportation system, and may request the Secretary of the Navy to furnish equipment, manpower, and other facilities or services deemed necessary by the Director to carry out the provisions, and accomplish the purposes of this order; and the Secretary of the Navy is authorized and directed upon such request to take such action as he deems necessary to furnish such protection, equipment, manpower, or other facilities or services.

Regulations

TITLE 10—ARMY: WAR DEPARTMENT

Chapter V—Military Reservations and National Cemeteries

PART 505—MOTION PICTURE SERVICE

UNITED STATES ARMY MOTION PICTURE SERVICE

Sections 505.1 to 505.10 inclusive, are superseded by the following §§ 505.1 to 505.10, inclusive.

Sec.
505.1 Scope.
505.2 Definition.
505.3 Army Motion Picture Service.
505.4 Regional offices of the Army Motion Picture Service.
505.5 Supervision of Army theaters.
505.6 Films.
505.7 Theater buildings and utilities.
505.8 Admission charge.
505.9 Patronage eligibility.
505.10 Employment of theater personnel.

AUTHORITY: §§ 505.1 to 505.10, inclusive, issued under R. S. 161; 5 U. S. C. 22.

SOURCE: §§ 505.1 to 505.10, inclusive, contained in AR 210–390, 1 Nov. 1945.

§ 505.1 Scope. This part will govern the operation of the Army Motion Picture Service and all Army theaters established for the exhibition of 35-mm entertainment motion pictures at military installations within the continental limits of the United States, Alaska, Newfoundland, Bermuda, and specified bases in Canada.

§ 505.2 Definition. (a) An Army theater as an adjunct of the Army, exhibits 35-mm commercial entertainment motion pictures at an admission charge to specified persons and is financed by nonappropriated funds as defined in AR 210–50.

(b) The Army theater is operated by the post commander under the supervision of the commanding general of the service command as hereinafter defined. As used in this part the designation "commanding general of the service command" will also include commanding generals of departments and of any other commands outside the continental United States served by the Army Motion Picture Service.

§ 505.3 Army Motion Picture Service. (a) The purposes of the Army Motion Picture Service are as follows:

(1) To make available to authorized personnel 35-mm entertainment motion pictures at low cost in the areas prescribed in § 505.1.

(2) To provide dividends to profitable posts, to maintain service at nonprofitable theaters and to procure necessary facilities and equipment for the general improvement of the service.

(b) The Army Motion Picture Service is an adjunct of the Army operated under the Director, Special Services Division, Headquarters Army Service Forces. This service provides staff supervision as hereinafter defined in the operation of such theaters.

(c) Such regional offices as the Chief, Army Motion Picture Service, determines are necessary for the procurement and distribution of film, and the engineering, repair, and spare parts depot will be maintained and classified as class IV installations reporting direct to the Chief, Army Motion Picture Service.

(d) (1) The Army Motion Picture Service will carry adequate insurance of the kinds and on such plans and forms as may be prescribed from time to time by the Chief, Army Motion Picture Service, in conformity with policies established by the Fiscal Director, Headquarters Army Service Forces.

(2) Theater officers, assistant theater officers, and theater employees will be bonded under a blanket position bond as described in TM 28–405, November 1, 1945, Operation of the Army Theater: Army Motion Picture Service.

§ 505.4 Regional offices of the Army Motion Picture Service. The regional offices will perform all functions pertaining to the procurement, booking, and circuiting of entertainment films and advertising material. A regional office may serve more than one service command but no service command will be served by more than one regional office.

§ 505.5 Supervision of Army theaters. (a) The commanding general of the service command is charged with the administrative supervision of Army theaters within the geographical limits of the service command. He will appoint a motion picture officer with such assistants as may be necessary.

(b) Supervision of Army theaters in departments or bases outside the continental limits of the United States will be charged to the commanding generals of such departments or bases.

§ 505.6 Films—(a) Supply. (1) All 35-mm entertainment motion pictures for exhibition at posts in the areas prescribed in § 505.1 will be secured from the Army Motion Picture Service.

(2) Organization day programs and special children's matinees may be held in accordance with policies established by the Chief, Army Motion Picture Service.

(3) With the exceptions of American Red Cross service for patients in hospitals and the authorized prisoner of war programs, 16-mm entertainment motion pictures will not ordinarily be shown at posts where Army theaters are operated. Any unusual conditions that would appear to justify a departure from this policy will be communicated through the service command to the Chief, Army Motion Picture Service, for approval.

(b) Selection. The product of all producers is available for Army theaters and selections thereof are made by the Chief, Army Motion Picture Service, based on quality as determined primarily by past experience gained from study of audience reactions, attendance reports, and comments of individual post commanders.

(c) Suitability. If the post commander objects to the showing of any motion picture scheduled by the Army Motion Picture Service, a substitute booking will be arranged, provided that adequate prior notice is transmitted to the appropriate regional office of the Army Motion Picture Service.

(d) Exhibition. (1) Entertainment motion picture programs furnished by the Army Motion Picture Service will be shown only at the Army theater upon the dates contracted for by the Army Motion Picture Service as shown on the station notification form. No portion of a scheduled motion picture program may be shown to an audience at other than authorized performances. The program will consists only of such subjects as are scheduled by the Army Motion Picture Service.

(2) The sound and projection equipment will be used only for approved performances of entertainment motion picture films booked by the Army Motion Picture Service; and for the exhibition of training films or educational films dealing with subjects applicable to the training of military personnel.

(3) The screens and equipment of Army theaters will not be used during paid performances of entertainment motion picture programs for the showing of films or slides advertising commercial products or services.

§ 505.7 Theater buildings and utilities. (a) The showing of all films supplied by the Army Motion Picture Service will be in a properly equipped building, which for purposes of exhibiting 35-mm entertainment motion pictures will be known as the Army theater.

(b) Theater buildings are availble for substitute entertainment in accordance with policies established by the Chief, Army Motion Picture Service. Such buildings are available at any time for military purposes without regard to previously arranged motion picture schedules.

(c) At posts where theater buildings have not been constructed, the commanding officer may designate for use, as a theater, any public building which may be determined by the commanding general, service command, subject to the approval of the Chief, Army Motion Picture Service, to be suitable for the proper presentation of 35-mm sound motion pictures.

(d) Theater buildings and their utilities will be maintained by the post engineer out of funds applicable to the maintenance of buildings and operation of utilities except as provided in paragraph (e) of this section.

(e) Fuel, water, and electric services in sufficient quantities to satisfy normal needs for lighting, heating, cooling, ventilation, drinking, and sanitation will be supplied at Government expense to theater buildings, except as specifically provided in TM 28-405 (Operation of the Army Theater) with reference to the use of electricity.

§ 505.8 Admission charge. The charge for admission will be 15 cents for adults and 10 cents for children under 14 years of age. Children 14 years and over will be charged the adult admission rate. If considered advisable by the commanding officer and the seating capacity of the theater permits, children under 6 years of age may be admitted free of charge.

§ 505.9 Patronage eligibility. Admission to motion picture shows will be restricted to:

(a) Military personnel on active duty.

(b) Members of the households of military personnel who actually reside at the post, camp, or station to which the individual is assigned for active military duty.

(c) Members of the households of military personnel on active duty when in the company of such military personnel.

(d) Civilians residing within the limits of the post, camp, or station.

§ 505.10 Employment of theater personnel. (a) The names of the positions and the maximum rates of pay that may be paid employees of Army theaters will be as authorized by the Chief, Army Motion Picture Service.

(b) All authorized Army theater positions will be part time, and compensation therefor in the case of assistant managers, chief projectionists, assistant projectionists, cashiers, ticket takers, and ushers will be on a performance basis. In case of janitors, supervising assistant managers, and projection supervisors, compensation will be at a flat rate per show day.

(c) Any authorized theater positions may be filled by civilians or enlisted military personnel. Military personnel may occupy theater positions only where such part time employment will not interfere with the performance of their normal military duties and the work is performed during their leisure time.

[1] For the convenience of exporters, the Department of Commerce Schedule L number is shown for each commodity. Exporters are reminded that in accordance with Department of Commerce regulations, all shipments of merchandise for which the "Shipper's Export Declaration for In Transit Goods" or the "Defense Aid Shipper's Export Declaration for In Transit Goods" are required, must be reported in terms of schedule L. This does not obviate the requirement of showing the schedule B numbers of any of the commodities listed above on these forms.

[2] No schedule B or schedule L number is assigned to this commodity; silver in bullion form is not included in the merchandise total of United States foreign trade statistics, but is shown in separate tables.

(c) Special provisions for certain countries. (1) The provisions of this section apply only to in-transit shipments which originate in or are destined to any of the following countries:

Eire.
Portugal.
Portuguese Atlantic Islands.
Portuguese Guinea.
Spain (including Fernando Po and Balearic Islands).
Spanish Atlantic Islands.
Spanish Morocco.
Tangier.
Sweden.
Switzerland.

(2) In transit shipments originating in or destined to any of the countries set forth in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph of commodities otherwise exportable to the country of ultimate destination under the country group general license set forth in § 802.7 may be exported under this general license without regard to the provisions contained in subparagraphs (3) and (4) of this paragraph.

(3) In transit shipments originating in the British Empire and destined to one of the countries listed in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph of commodities which are not exportable to that country under the country group general license set forth in § 802.7 may be exported under this general license: Provided, That such shipment is accompanied by an export permit or license issued by the British authorities in the country of origin and such certificate is surrendered to a United States Collector of Customs at the last port of exit from the United States.

(4) In transit shipments originating in any country other than a country of the British Empire, or one of those listed in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, and destined to a country listed in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph of commodities which are not exportable to that country under the country group general license set forth in § 802.7 may be exported to that country under this general license: Provided, That such shipment is accompanied by a British navicert issued pursuant to directions of the Joint Anglo-American Blockade Committee and such navicert is surrendered to a United States Collector of Customs at the last port of exit from the United States.

This amendment shall become effective immediately.

PART 3290—TEXTILE, CLOTHING AND LEATHER

[Conservation Order M-217, as Amended Nov. 28, 1945]

FOOTWEAR

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of shoe manufacturing material for defense for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3290.191 Conservation Order M-217—(a) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable regulations of the Civilian Production Administration and Conservation Order M-328, as amended from time to time, except as follows:

(1) Priorities Regulation 17 shall be inapplicable to footwear.

(2) Military footwear which has been rejected by Government inspectors and stamped to indicate its rejection may be sold without regard to § 944.11 of Priorities Regulation 1.

(b) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Footwear" includes house slippers, but does not include (i) rubber footwear or (ii) foot covering designed to be worn over shoes and utilizing no leather.

(2) "Work shoes" means any shoes or boots with unlined quarters which are designed to be worn at any form of work requiring specially heavy or substantially made footwear.

(3) "House slippers" means any footwear designed exclusively for indoor or house wear.

(4) "Line" means footwear of any one of the following types:

Men's dress
Men's work
Youths' and boys'

Women's safety shoes

to the extent that such type of footwear is manufactured for sale by the manufacturer in a price range where the highest list price does not exceed the lowest by more than 10% or 25¢ a pair (whichever is greater): Provided, That:

(i) Footwear of identical kind and quality sold at different prices to different types of purchasers may be included in one line if the highest price in the range is an actual price at which this footwear was sold during the base period, and the concession price for the same footwear is not more than 15% below the highest price in the range.

(ii) In case the sale by the manufacturer is at retail or to a purchaser which controls, is controlled by, or is subject to common control with, the manufacturer, then the applicable price range shall be the retail price range.

(iii) Up to and including the net wholesale price shown on the following schedule, each type of footwear listed may be deemed one line:

Type:	Maximum net wholesale price per pair
Misses' and children's	$1.75
Youths' and boys' (without leather)	1.90
Youths' and boys' (utilizing leather)	2.50
Women's and growing girls' (including safety) (without leather)	1.90
Women's and growing girls' (including safety) (utilizing leather)	2.50
Men's work, dress and safety (without leather)	1.90
Men's work, dress and safety (utilizing leather)	3.00
House slippers (with or without leather)	1.60
Infants', sizes 0-4 (utilizing leather)	.90
Infants', sizes 0-4 (made without leather)	.75
Infants', sizes 4½ to 8 (with or without leather)	1.35

NOTE: For the purposes of this schedule, footwear utilizing no leather except for heel top lifts shall be considered as having been made without leather.

(iv) Nothing in this order shall be deemed to permit overlapping price lines.

(5) "Military footwear" means military type footwear purchased by the Army or Navy of the United States (excluding post exchanges and ship's service stores, wherever situated), the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis, Maryland, the United States Military Academy at West Point, New York, the United States Maritime Commission, the Panama Canal, the Coast and Geodetic Survey, the Coast Guard, the Civil Aeronautics Authority, the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics, the Office of Scientific Research and Development, the War Shipping Administration, the Government of any of the following countries: Belgium, China, Czechoslovakia, Free France, Greece, Iceland, the Netherlands, Norway, Poland, Russia, Turkey, the United Kingdom (including the Dominions, Crown Colonies and Protectorates) and Yugoslavia; military type footwear purchased by any agency of the United States for delivery to or for the account of the Government of any country listed above, or any other country, including those in the Western Hemisphere, pursuant to the Act of March 11, 1941, entitled "An Act to Promote the Defense of the United States" (Lend-Lease Act); and custom-made footwear delivered for personnel of the Army or Navy of the United States.

(6) "Civilian footwear" as used in paragraph (f) includes all footwear except military footwear and rubber footwear.

(7) "Six months' base period" means any consecutive six calendar months within the period from July 1, 1942 through April 30, 1943 selected by a manufacturer as his base period for the purposes of this order.

(8) "Civilian line quota" means the number of pairs of civilian footwear within a single line manufactured by a person during his six months' base period, as set forth on his base period report.

(9) "Safety shoes" means protective occupational footwear incorporating or purporting to incorporate one or more of the following safety features: steel box toe; electrical conductivity; electrical resistance; non-sparking and moulders' (Congress type) protection (shoes which can be quickly removed, worn to protect against splashing metals).

(c) [Deleted Nov. 28, 1945.]

(d) General exceptions. None of the restrictions of this order shall apply to military footwear, or to footwear made as trials or pullovers but not sold.

(e) Restrictions relating to sales and deliveries. (1) No person shall sell or deliver any new footwear manufactured in the United States of America in violation of this order.

(2) No tanner or sole cutter shall deliver any leather to any shoe manufacturer if he knows or has reason to believe said leather is to be used in violation of the terms of this order.

(3) The prohibitions and restrictions of this paragraph shall not apply to:

(i) Deliveries of footwear or leather by or to, any person having temporary custody thereof for the sole purpose of transportation or public warehousing.

(ii) Any bank, banker, or trust company affecting or participating in a sale or delivery of footwear or leather solely by reason of the presentation, collection, or redemption of an instrument, whether negotiable or otherwise.

(4) [Deleted Nov. 28, 1945.]

(f) Restrictions on production of lines of footwear. (1) No person shall, during the four month period beginning September 1, 1945, or in any subsequent four month period, complete the manufacture of more civilian footwear within any line than the percentage of his civilian line quota for such line shown on the following schedule:

Each line of youths' and boys' shoes	100
Each line of men's safety shoes	100
Each line of men's work shoes	100
Each line of men's dress shoes	80
Each line of women's and growing girls' shoes	80
Each line of house slippers	80
Each line of athletic shoes	80
Each line of wome's safety shoes	80

With respect to (i) infants' footwear and (ii) misses' and children's footwear, no manufacturer may exceed 100% of his aggregate civilian line quotas for all lines of infants' footwear, and no manufacturer may exceed 100% of his aggregate civilian line quotas for all lines of misses' and children's footwear, but his production within each of these two types of footwear may be distributed among his established lines in any manner desired, except that the production in any line consisting of less than 50 pairs or 2% of the total production of that type of footwear (whichever is greater) during the base period may not be increased by more than 25%;

Provided, however, That to the extent that a manufacturer's production of military footwear shows a decrease below that during his six months' base period, his production within any line of civilian footwear may exceed the civilian line quota for such line by its proportionate part of such decrease.

(2) No person shall manufacture any line of footwear (except military footwear) not manufactured by him in his six months' base period.

(3) Exceptions to paragraphs (f) (1) and (f) (2). (i) A lower priced line of the same type of civilian footwear may be substituted in whole or in part for a higher priced line.

(ii) The unused quota of any higher priced line may be added to the quota of a lower priced line of the same type of civilian footwear.

Any person may add 100% of the unused portion of his civilian line quota or quotas of men's dress and women's and growing girls' shoes to his quotas of the types shown below:

Type:
Men's work shoes
Youths' and boys' shoes
Misses' and children's shoes
Infants' shoes

In no event shall any unused quota be added to a higher priced line.

(iii) A person may exceed his civilian line quota for any line of women's safety shoes if a pairage equal to such excess is deducted from some other line or lines of footwear.

(iv) During the four month period beginning September 1, 1945, or in any subsequent four month period a manufacturer whose total production for the period will be less than $200,000 (based on wholesale value) is not subject to paragraph (f) (1), provided that no new higher priced lines are added and provided the manufacturer does not exceed his aggregate production in pairs during his six months' base period by more than 40%. The exemption in this paragraph shall not apply to a manufacturer affiliated, as a subsidiary or otherwise with another or others. This paragraph shall not authorize any manufacturer to increase his production by more than 40% in any line consisting of less than 50 pairs or 2% of his total production of that type of footwear (whichever is greater) during the base period.

(v) Paragraphs (f) (1) and (f) (2) shall not apply to footwear for the physically maimed or deformed on a custom-made basis and not for stock, to wood sole clogs utilizing no leather, to shearling or fur house slippers utilizing no other leather (except for outsoles), or to footwear shown on the following schedule if manufactured for sale at or below the net wholesale prices shown opposite the respective types:

Type:	Maximum net wholesale price per pair
Misses' and children's	$1.75
Youths' and boys' (without leather)	1.90
Youths' and boys' (utilizing leather)	2.50
Women's and growing girls' (including safety) (without leather)	1.90
Women's and growing girls' (including safety) (utfilizing leather)	2.50
Men's work, dress and safety (without leather)	1.90
Men's work, dress and safety (utilizing leather)	3.00
House slippers (with or without leather)	1.60
Infants', sizes 0-4 (utilizing leather)	.90
Infants', sizes 0-4 (made without leather)	.75
Infants', sizes 4½ to 8 (with or without leather)	1.35

NOTE: For the purposes of this schedule, footwear utilizing no leather except for heel top lifts shall be considered as having been made without leather.

However, any person who wishes to produce shoes under the exemption given above for footwear produced at or below the specified maximum net wholesale prices must notify the Civilian Production Administration by letter, stating the types of shoes to be made, the materials to be used, the proposed price ranges within the maximum net wholesale prices specified above, and his estimated 4 months' production. A person who has not previously produced shoes in the proposed price ranges must obtain specific price approval from the Office of Price Administration if he must price the shoes under section 2 (b) of the General Maximum Price Regulation. In this event he must submit with his letter evidence of the specific price approval by the Office of Price Administration. In no case may a person commence the production of shoes under the exemption given above for footwear produced at or below the specified maximum net wholesale prices until he has received acknowledgement from the Civilian Production Administration of the receipt of the letter of intention to produce.

(vi) The Civilian Production Administration may authorize transfers of quotas of footwear from one line or type to any other line or type and new or additional production in each line or type. It will in general be the policy of the Civilian Production Administration to authorize new or additional production in lines which will not require materials, components, facilities or labor needed for war purposes, and will not otherwise adversely affect or interfere with production for war or essential civilian purposes. Authorization will not be dependent upon the applicant's having been engaged in the production of shoes during the base period.

Application for such authorization shall be made by letter, describing fully the footwear manufactured or proposed to be manufactured, listing in detail all the materials to be used, and stating the pairs desired to be made in each price range, the source of the manpower that will be required, whether production will be reduced in any other line or lines, and all other facts pertaining to the application. Authorization of production of new lines under this paragraph will be made only with the condition that production may not begin until evidence is furnished of conformity with applicable Office of Price Administration regulations.

The Civilian Production Administration will issue footwear manufacturers' quota numbers for quotas authorized by the Civilian Production Administration or established because of base period production.

Production in new price lines, or increased production in established lines, may be granted by the Civilian Production Administration to cover production of civilian footwear purchased by or on behalf of United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration or any other agency for foreign relief purposes.

(vii) Manufacturers qualifying for an increase in price on footwear with non-marking synthetic rubber soles, or soles and heels, under Order No. 13 under § 1499.3 (e) (3) of General Maximum Price Regulations, issued by the Office of Price Administration, may disregard such increase for the purposes of this paragraph (f). However, where the increase results in production of shoes in a higher price line, the number of pairs so produced shall be reported separately on the manufacturer's production report at the actual price, as indicated in the revised directions to said form.

(viii) Where a manufacturer produced in his base period a line of misses' and children's footwear of less than 50 pair or 2% of his total production of that type, he may increase his production of this line in any four month period to not more than six times his lawful production of the line in January, 1945, Provided, That, he deducts the production in excess of 100% of his base period production in this line from his other lines of misses' and children's shoes.

(ix) Any person with an established quota or quotas for the production of women's and growing girls' shoes may produce up to 10% of his aggregate quota or quotas in women's all-over genuine reptile (including frog) shoes in any line or lines at a net wholesale price of $4.50 per pair or less, provided that the number of pairs of shoes produced under this paragraph (f) (3) (ix) is counted as production against the quota for that line or those lines, if any. In the event that there is no quota in a line in which such shoes are being produced, or that the number of pairs in the quota for that line does not equal the number of all-over genuine reptile (including frog) shoes produced, the number of such shoes produced must be counted as production against the quota for that line, if any, and for the next lower lines in descending order as to price as far as is necessary, and exhausting the quota of each line before proceeding to the next lower line. Records must be kept of the number of all-over genuine reptile shoes produced in each line.

(x) Subject to the rules stated in this paragraph (f) (3) (x), any person who has no quota for the production of footwear, may produce for the four month period beginning September 1, 1945, and for each subsequent four month period, 24,000 pairs in any line or lines; any person whose civilian line quotas total less than 24,000 may increase his quota to 24,000 pairs in any line or lines for the same four month period; and any person whose aggregate quotas total more than 24,000 pair may transfer up to 24,000 pairs to any line or lines.

A person who has no quota, and a person whose production under this paragraph (f) (3) (x) will result in the manufacture of a type for which he has no quota or in a price range higher than his highest established price range for the same type of footwear, must obtain evidence of specific approval of his prices from the Office of Price Administration if he must price the shoes under Section 2 (b) of the General Maximum Price Regulation and submit it by registered mail to the Civilian Production Administration, Textile Division, Washington 25, D. C., Ref.: M-217, together with a letter stating the number of pairs he intends to produce in each new price range and new type, and the kinds of materials he intends to use.

(4) The period selected by any person as his six months' base period shall apply to all lines and may not be subsequently changed. After July 11, 1944, lines manufactured by any person in his six months' base period as previously filed with the War Production Board or the Civilian Production Administration may not be revised, except to bring them into conformity with this order.

(g) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully, the grounds of the appeal.

(h) Records. All persons affected by this order shall keep and preserve records concerning their operations in accordance with § 944.15 of Priorities Regulation 1.

(i) Reports. All persons affected by this order shall file such reports and questionnaires as may be requested by the Civilian Production Administration subject to the approval of the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(j) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: Civilian Production Administration, Textile Division, Washington 25, D. C., Ref.: M-217.

(k) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

Issued this 28th day of November 1945.

FEATHER FILLED PILLOWS AND UPHOLSTERY CUSHION INNERCASINGS

This compilation of Maximum Price Regulation 584 includes Amendment 4, effective December 3, 1945. Additions and amendments by Amendment 4 are indicated by underscoring or notes.

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this regulation has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.[2]

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, the maximum prices established by this regulation are and will be generally fair and equitable, and the regulation will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, the Stabilization Act of 1942, as amended, and of Executive Orders Nos. 9250 and 9328.

The Price Administrator has advised and consulted with members of the industry which will be affected by this regulation, and he has given consideration to their recommendations.

AUTHORITY: § 1373.5 issued under 56 Stat. 23,765; 57 Stat. 566; Pub. Law 383, 78th Cong.; Pub. Law 108, 79th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871; E.O. 9328, 8 F.R. 4681; E.O. 9599, 10 F.R. 10155.

ARTICLE I—WHAT THIS REGULATION COVERS

SECTION 1. Articles covered by this regulation. (a) This regulation covers all new pillows, and new upholstery cushion innercasings, filled in whole, or in part, with new or secondhand feathers or down.

Maximum prices for sales of used pillows or used upholstery cushion innercasings are not covered by this regulation, but are fixed by the provisions of Maximum Price Regulation No. 429[3] as to used pillows and by the General Maximum Price Regulation[4] as to used upholstery cushion innercasings.

(b) When used in this regulation, the following terms have the following meanings:

(1) "Pillow" means any bag or case used to support the head when sleeping, made of fabric and filled or stuffed in whole, or in part, with feathers or down.

[Subparagraph (1) amended by Am. 4, effective 12-3-45]

(2) "Upholstery cushion innercasing" means any bag or case of the type and shape used as a component part of upholstered furniture or of dual-purpose sleeping equipment, made of fabric and filled or stuffed in whole, or in part, with feathers or down.

(3) "Processed secondhand feathers and down" means secondhand feathers and down which have been processed so that they meet the processing specifications set forth in Maximum Price Regulation No. 318[5] and in Section 6.1 of Supplementary Regulation No. 14J[6] to the General Maximum Price Regulation; and those specifications are incorporated by reference into this regulation as if they were set forth here in detail.

SEC. 2. Transactions covered by this regulation—(a) Sales. This regulation establishes maximum prices for all offers, sales and deliveries made by any person of new pillows and new upholstery cushion innercasings, on and after the effective date of this regulation.

(b) Purchase in the course of trade or business. This regulation covers every purchase in the course of trade or business in connection with a sale covered by this regulation.

(c) The term "person" includes an individual, corporation, or any other organized group; their legal successors or representatives; the United States, or any other government, or any of their political subdivisions.

ARTICLE II—SALES BY MANUFACTURERS

SEC. 3. Maximum prices for sales of new pillows by manufacturers to retailers and to institutional users. (a) Maximum prices for most sales of new pillows by manufacturers to retailers and to institutional users are set forth in paragraph (a) of Appendix A.

(b) The maximum price for the sale by a manufacturer to a retailer or to an institutional user of any new pillow, not provided for in paragraph (a) of Appendix A shall be calculated under section 10 of this regulation.

SEC. 4. Maximum prices for sales of new upholstery cushion innercasings by manufacturers to the furniture trade. (a) Maximum prices for most sales of new upholstery cushion innercasings by manufacturers to the furniture trade are set forth in paragraph (b) of Appendix A.

(b) The maximum price for the sale by a manufacturer to the furniture trade of any new upholstery cushion innercasing, not provided for in paragraph (b) of Appendix A, shall be calculated under section 10 of this regulation.

SEC. 5. Maximum prices for sales of new pillows and new upholstery cushion innercasings by manufacturers to jobbers and to government agencies. The manufacturer's maximum price for sales of an article covered by this regulation to jobbers and to government agencies shall be his appropriate maximum price established by section 3, 4 or 10, less a discount of 10 percent.

SEC. 6. Tagging. (a) (1) After the effective date of this regulation no manufacturer shall sell, offer to sell or deliver a new pillow unless the appropriate tag, described in paragraph (b) of this section, is attached to it, except that pillows sold to the United States Government, pursuant to a contract between it and the manufacturer, need not be tagged.

[Subparagraph (1) amended by Am. 1, 10 F.R. 6801, effective 5-11-45]

(2) After the expiration of 120 days from the effective date of this regulation, no jobber or retailer shall sell, offer to sell or deliver any new pillow unless the appropriate tag, described in paragraph (b) of this section, is attached to it.

[Subparagraph (2) amended by Am. 3, 10 F.R. 7634, effective 6-22-45]

(3) No person shall sell or buy or offer to sell or buy any new pillow to which a tag must be attached unless such tag is actually attached to it.

(4) The tag referred to in this section shall not be removed before delivery to the ultimate consumer.

(b) (1) Except as provided in (2) and (3), below, the tag shall be of durable white cloth, stating the following items in the sequence listed, or in any other sequence approved by letter from the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C. The type sizes listed below must be used, and all blank spaces must be properly filled in.

Space to attach	Gothic type size
Mfrs. name or Reg. No.:	12 point (capitals).
Designation of pillow:	8 point (small).
Finished size:
Gross weight:	12 point (capitals).
This pillow contains ____% second hand filling materials.[1]	14 point (capitals).
OPA retail ceiling price, $
If sold in the Far West zone as defined in MPR 584, ____ cents may be added to the above price.[2]	8 point (small).

[1] If the filling components are all new filling materials, substitute "This pillow contains all new filling materials" in 14 point Gothic type (capitals).
[2] If the pillow is not sold in the Far West zone, as defined in paragraph (c) (2) (iii) of Appendix A, this clause need not be on the tag or label.

[Subparagraph (1) amended by Am. 4, effective 12-3-45]

(2) If the tag is affixed by a retailer to pillows in his inventory on April 28, 1945, which he has reported to the Office of Price Administration pursuant to section (13 (a) (2) (ii), the tag shall state such information as shall be specified by the Office of Price Administration in the order establishing the retailer's maximum prices for sales of those pillows.

[Paragraph (b) amended by Am. 1, 10 F.R. 6801, effective 5-11-45; and Am. 2, 10 F.R. 7252, effective 6-14-45 and as otherwise noted]

(3) If the manufacturer shipped the pillows prior to December 3, 1945, and if he has attached to such pillows or if he has furnished to jobbers or retailers, tags in the form set forth in section 6 (b) (1) prior to its amendment on December 3, 1945, then with respect to those pillows, the manufacturer shall be considered as having fully complied with the tagging requirements of this regulation; and new tags need not be affixed to such pillows.

[Subparagraph (3) added by Am. 4, effective 12-3-45]

[3] 9 F.R. 10420, 13716.
[4] 9 F.R. 1385, 5169, 6106, 8150, 10193, 11274.
[5] 8 F.R. 1682, 2029, 6476, 14349; 10 F.R. 4349, 6802, 9928.
[6] 10 F.R. 1216, 2975, 4102, 4108, 4983, 5526, 7500, 8937.

(c) Every manufacturer shall identify each kind of pillow which he manufactures by a specific name, number or other designation, and he shall keep a record of such name, number or other designation and a description of each kind of pillow (containing all the information listed in section 7 (a) (1) except item (ii)), for examination by the Office of Price Administration.

SEC. 7. Manufacturer's invoices. (a) After the effective date hereof, every manufacturer selling any article covered by this regulation shall furnish to each purchaser an invoice or other written evidence of sale and purchase showing:

The date of purchase.
The terms of sale and the selling price.
The seller's name and address.
The purchaser's name and address.

(1) If the article sold is a new pillow, such invoice or other written evidence of sale and purchase shall state, also, for each kind of pillow:

(i) The name, number or other specific designation of the pillow.
(ii) The number of articles sold.
(iii) The weight of the feather filling, per pillow.
(iv) The percentage by weight of each filling component (using the classifications employed in computing the filling allowance).
(v) The class of cover fabric.
(vi) Tailoring extras (if any).
(vii) Finished size.
(viii) Packing extras (if any).
(ix) The maximum price.
(x) West Coast differential (if any).

(2) If the article sold is a new upholstery cushion innercasing, such invoice or other written evidence of sale and purchase shall state, also, for each different upholstery cushion innercasing sold:

(i) The size class.
(ii) The number of articles sold.
(iii) The class of cover fabric.
(iv) The cover allowance.
(v) The total filling weight.
(vi) The percentage by weight of each filling component (using the classifications employed in computing the filling allowance).
(vii) The filling allowance.
(viii) The maximum price (item iv) plus item (vii).
(ix) West Coast differential, (if any).

SEC. 8. Manufacturers to calculate maximum prices on retail sales of new pillows. Each manufacturer shall calculate the maximum price for sales by retailers of a single pillow, manufactured by him, by multiplying his maximum price on the sale of that single new pillow (exclusive of the Far West Zone and quantity differentials) by 175 percent in the case of new pillows filled with chicken or turkey feathers or fibre, or mixtures thereof with crushed waterfowl quills, and by 180 percent in the case of all other pillows. The Far West Zone differential provided in paragraph (c) of Appendix A shall be added to such retail price. The price, so calculated, may be rounded to the nearest five cents. However, if the price so calculated results in a figure exactly midway between the next higher and next lower five cents, it shall be rounded to the next lower five cents.

[Sec. 8 amended by Am. 4, effective 12-3-45]

SEC. 9. Tolerance. Because of the peculiar nature of the manufacturing process and the inexactness unavoidable in a sampling analysis, manufacturers are allowed a tolerance of 5 percent from the net filling weight stated on the invoice of sale of any particular pillow or upholstery cushion innercasing, and a tolerance of 10 percent from the per pound value of the components in the filling mixture stated on the invoice of sale of any particular pillow or upholstery cushion innercasing, except that the specification of a filling mixture upon which a maximum price is based shall not conflict with any declaration of specifications for that mixture made on a tag or other writing attached to the pillow whether or not it is required by any State law.

SEC. 10. Maximum prices of manufacturers where provision is not otherwise made. After the effective date of this regulation, a manufacturer shall not sell, offer to sell or deliver any article covered by this regulation for sales of which a maximum price has not been established in Appendix A, hereof, until he has applied by letter to the Office of Price Administration, Durable Goods Price Branch, Washington 25, D. C., for the establishment of a maximum price for sales to retailers, institutional users or to the furniture trade in line with the level of prices established by this regulation.

(a) The application shall set forth:

(1) The name, number or other designation of the article.

(2) The size of the article.

(3) The gross weight and the net filling weight of the article. (In the case of pillows, the net filling weight shall be determined from the minimum filling weight of the nearest listed size in Appendix A as the relationship based on the proportion of the surface area of the pillow being priced to the surface area of that nearest listed pillow. No account will be taken of any filling weight in excess of the net filling weight so determined. If the filling material of the pillow being priced is new waterfowl feathers or down, the nearest listed size in Appendix A is that size listed for a pillow filled with second-hand waterfowl feathers or down containing the most similar percentages of filling components.)

[Subparagraph (3) amended by Am. 4, effective 12-3-45]

(4) A statement of whether the filling components are new or secondhand.

(5) A statement of each component of filling materials used and the percentage by weight of each component.

(6) A computation of the value of the filling shall be made in the manner set forth in paragraph (b) (1) of Appendix A. However, if the components of the filling material consist of feathers and downs and other materials, then, the value of the filling material shall be determined in the following manner:

(i) The value of the feathers and down components shall be determined in the manner set forth in paragraph (b) (1) of Appendix A, and the value of the other components shall be calculated by multiplying the supplier's maximum price for his sale of the filling material to the pillow manufacturer by 135%. If the invoice price of the filling material to the pillow manufacturer is less than his supplier's maximum price, then the invoice price shall be used in place of the supplier's maximum price.

[Subparagraph (6) amended by Am. 1, 10 F.R. 6801, effective 5-11-45]

(7) A statement of the cost of the fabric cover, based on the f. o. b. mill maximum price or based on cost to the manufacturer, whichever is lower.

(8) The proposed maximum price on sales to retailers and institutional users which shall be the sum of the following:

Pillows

(i) The value of the filling

(ii) A cover allowance determined from the following table:

Finished pillow size (inches)	Cover allowance
	Class I fabric	Class II fabric	Class III fabric	Class IV fabric
12 x 16	$0.30	$0.26	$0.36	$0.41

NOTE: For sizes with a surface area intermediate to the surface area of the sizes, listed above, the cover allowance of the listed size with the nearest surface area shall be used. For other sizes, use 125 percent of the cost of the fabric cover, not exceeding the maximum price of the cover on sales to the manufacturer, plus incoming freight.

[Subdivision (ii) amended by Am. 4, effective 12-3-45]

(iii) The sum of $0.34, per pair.

(iv) Tailoring extras or packing extras if any. If a particular extra is listed in one of the tables in Appendix A, use the maximum price differential set forth in the table for that extra. If a particular extra is not so listed, the manufacturer may apply for the establishment of a maximum price differential for the extra pursuant to paragraph (a) (4) of Appendix A.

[Subparagraph (iv) amended by Am. 4, effective 12-3-45]

(If a Far West Zone differential is added to or any of such extras are included in the proposed maximum price, the nature thereof must be set forth in the application.)

(If a Far West Zone differential is added to the proposed maximum price, the nature thereof must be set forth in the application.)

[Above paragraph amended by Am. 4, effective 12-3-45]

(b) In the absence of a contrary direction from the Office of Price Administration within 15 days after mailing his application, the manufacturer may offer the article in question for sale at the proposed maximum price stated therein. If such proposed maximum price is correctly computed it shall be subject to adjustment (but not retroactively), at any time by order of the Office of Price Administration if it appears that the maximum price so established is out of line with the general level of prices established by this regulation. If the price is incorrectly computed, the maximum price for a sale, offer to sell, or delivery of an article made pursuant to the incorrect report shall be the maximum price which is properly computed under the formula contained in this section.

ARTICLE III—SALES BY JOBBERS

SEC. 11. Maximum prices for sales by jobbers. (a) (1) The maximum price of a jobber for his sale of any article received after the effective date of this regulation shall be 125 percent of either the maximum price of the manufacturer for his sale of the particular article, or of the actual net invoice price, to the jobber, whichever is lower, plus the freight charge paid by the jobber for delivery to him.

(2) In many instances, jobbers will be holding new pillows in their inventories on the effective date of this regulation. For a period ending 120 days after the effective date of this regulation, the maximum price of a jobber for his sales of such pillows shall be his maximum price under the General Maximum Price Regulation.

(i) Prior to the termination of the 120-day period referred to in subparagraph (2), above, the jobber may request the manufacturer to furnish him with tags in the form described in section 6, and he shall attach the appropriate tag to each such pillow he sells. The tag shall set forth the maximum price for retail sales of the particular pillow which the manufacturer shall determine as if the pillow had been sold by him after the effective date of this regulation. The maximum price of the jobber f. o. b. seller's city shall be 64 percent of such retail maximum price.

(ii) However, if the jobber does not secure such a tag from the manufacturer, or if the 120-day period has expired and the jobber continues to have untagged pillows in inventory he shall send a sample to the Office of Price Administration, Durable Goods Price Branch, Washington 25, D. C., and the Office of Price Administration will establish a maximum price for sales by the jobber and by retailers of such pillows, which price will be in line with the prices established by this regulation. After August 26, 1945, the jobber shall not sell any such pillows unless a tag is attached in the form described in section 6.

[Subparagraph (2) amended by Am. 3, 10 F.R. 7634, effective 6-22-45]

(b) The maximum prices established in this section are for sales by jobbers to that class of purchaser to which the jobber sold the greatest quantity of the particular article prior to the effective date of this regulation. To such prices, a jobber shall apply all differentials, discounts, trade allowances and terms and conditions of sale which he allowed on sales of the same type of article, during March 1942.

SEC. 12. Jobber's invoice. Every jobber selling any article covered by this regulation shall furnish each purchaser for resale with an invoice or other similar written evidence of sale and purchase showing the date of purchase, the seller's name and address, the purchaser's name and address, the terms of sale, the name, number or other specific designation of the article purchased, the size class of the article purchased, the quantity purchased and the price charged per unit. This invoice or other written evidence of sale and purchase must be kept by every purchaser for resale and the jobber shall retain a copy for inspection by the Office of Price Administration.

ARTICLE IV—SALES BY RETAILERS

SEC. 13. Maximum prices for sales by retailers. (a) (1) The maximum price of a retailer for his sale of any new pillow to which a tag setting forth the retailer's maximum price has been affixed pursuant to this regulation shall be the price properly stated to be the retailer's maximum price on the tag attached to the pillow.

(2) In many instances, retailers will be holding new pillows in their inventories on the effective date of this regulation to which no retail maximum price tag shall have been attached. For a period ending 120 days after the effective date of this regulation, the maximum price of a retailer for his sales of such pillows shall be his maximum price under the General Maximum Price Regulation.

(i) Prior to the termination of the 120-day period referred to in subparagraph (2) above, the retailer may request the manufacturer to furnish him with tags in the form described in section 6, and he shall attach the appropriate tag to each such pillow he sells. The tag shall set forth the maximum price for retail sales of the particular pillow which the manufacturer shall determine as if the pillow had been sold by him after the effective date of this regulation. The maximum price of the retailer shall be the retail maximum price properly stated on such tag.

[Subparagraph (2) amended by Am. 3, 10 F.R. 7634, effective 6-22-45]

(ii) However, if the retailer does not secure such a tag from the manufacturer, or if the 120-day period has expired, and the retailer continues to have untagged pillows in inventory, he shall submit a signed report in duplicate to the District Office of the Office of Price Administration having jurisdiction over the retailer's place of business, setting forth the following with respect to each type, kind and size-class of untagged pillows remaining in his inventory on the date of the report:

The date of the report.
The retailer's name and address.
The number of untagged pillows in inventory on the date of the report.
The name and address of the manufacturer (if known).
The name and address of the retailer's supplier.
The manufacturer's name, number or other designation of the pillows.
The size-class of the pillows.
The components of the filling mixture, and a statement of whether such components are new or second-hand, (if known).
The date the pillows were acquired by the retailer.
The net invoice price of the pillows, per unit, to the retailer.

After receipt of such report, the Office of Price Administration will issue an order establishing retail ceiling prices for sales of the pillows described in the report, which prices will be in line with the level of retail ceiling prices otherwise established by this regulation.

The order will direct the retailer to affix a retail ceiling price tag to the pillows which it covers and, after August 26, 1945, no person shall sell any such pillows for which a retail ceiling price has been so established unless a tag in the form described in the order is attached thereto.

Any Regional Administrator, or any District Director authorized by the appropriate Regional Administrator may issue orders under this section establishing retail ceiling prices in accordance with the terms of this section.

[Subdivision (ii) amended by Am. 2, 10 F.R. 7252, effective 6-14-45; and Am. 3, 10 F.R. 7634, effective 6-22-45]

SEC. 14. Charges for credit.—(a) Credit charges. Charges for the extension of credit may be added to the retail ceiling prices established by this regulation only as follows:

(1) Sellers who, prior to the effective date of this regulation, collected a separately stated additional charge for the extension of credit on sales of new pillows, may collect a charge for the extension of credit on sales under this regulation, not exceeding such charge in effect prior to the effective date of this regulation on a similar sale on similar terms to the same class of purchaser.

(2) Sellers, who did not so state and collect an additional charge, may collect a charge for the extension of credit only on installment-plan sales, and such charge shall not exceed the separately stated additional charge collected for the extension of credit on a similar sale on similar terms to the same class of purchaser prior to the effective date of this regulation by the seller's closest competitor who made such a separately stated charge. An installment-plan sale is a sale where the unpaid balance is to be paid in installments over a period of either (i) six weeks or more from the date of sale in the case of weekly installments, or (ii) eight weeks or more in the case of other than weekly installments.

(3) All charges for the extension of credit shall be quoted and stated separately.

(4) No seller may require as a condition of sale, that the purchaser must buy on credit.

SEC. 15. Sales slips and receipts. A retailer who customarily gave a purchaser a sales slip, receipt, or other similar evidence of purchase must continue to do so. Upon request, all retailers must give the customer a receipt showing the date of purchase, the retailers name and address, the name, number or other designation of the pillow or upholstery cushion innercasing, the price paid and the kind and amount of any additional charge.

ARTICLE V—GENERAL PROVISIONS

SEC. 16. Definitions. When used in this regulation, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

(a) "Manufacturer" means the person who makes the first sale of the article after it is ready for sale.

(b) "Jobber" means any person who is engaged in the business of buying dry goods, pillows, cushions or other similar items from manufacturers and reselling them to retail dealers, hospitals, hotels or other institutional users.

(c) "Retailer" means any person who sells pillows or cushions to the ultimate user.

(d) "Furniture trade" means manufacturers of bedding or furniture, and industrial users.

SEC. 17. Taxes. Any tax upon or incident to the sale of any commodity covered by this regulation imposed by any statute or ordinance may be added to the maximum price established by this regulation: Provided, That the tax is separately stated and charged. The charge for stamps affixed to any commodity pursuant to State law is not a tax within the meaning of this section and no charge therefor may be added to the maximum price otherwise provided.

SEC. 18. Export sales. The maximum price at which persons may sell any commodity covered by this regulation for export is established by Second Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation.[7]

SEC. 19. Compliance with the regulation—(a) No selling or buying above maximum prices. Regardless of any contract or other obligation, no person shall sell or deliver any commodity covered by this regulation, to any other person, and, in the course of trade or business, no person shall buy or accept delivery of any commodity covered by this regulation at prices higher than the maximum prices fixed by this regulation, and no person shall agree, offer, solicit, or attempt to do any of these things. Prices lower than the maximum prices may be charged or paid.

Any charge which is not quoted and billed separately shall, for the purpose of this regulation, be considered as part of the price charged for the article sold.

(b) Certain practices forbidden. The following are expressly forbidden:

(1) Any practice or device which has the effect of getting a higher-than-maximum price without actually raising the dollars and cents price is as much a violation of this regulation as an outright over-maximum price. This applies, for example, to devices making use of commissions, services, tying agreements and the like.

(2) Removal of a retail ceiling price tag from an article covered by this regulation before it is sold at retail.

(c) Enforcement. Persons violating any provision of this regulation are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, license suspension proceedings, and suits for treble damages provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and the Stabilization Act of 1942, as amended.

(d) Licensing. The provisions of Licensing Order No. 1,[8] licensing all persons who make sales under price control, are applicable to all sellers subject to this regulation. A seller's license may be suspended for violations of the license or of one or more applicable price schedules or regulations. A person whose license is suspended may not, during the period of suspension, make any sale for which his license has been suspended.

(e) Maximum prices for sales made without required OPA price approval. If any person covered by this regulation who is required to file a report or application with the Office of Price Administration for approval of a maximum price violates that requirement by making sales or deliveries of the article before the maximum price is approved, the seller's maximum price for these sales or deliveries is the maximum price subsequently approved by the Office of Price Administration, or the properly computed price based upon that maximum price, whichever the applicable provision of the regulation requires.

(f) Record keeping. All records required by section 6 and section 12 of this regulation shall be kept for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect.

SEC. 20. Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking a modification of any provision of this regulation or any exception not provided for herein may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1[9] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

SEC. 21. Geographical applicability. The provisions of this regulation shall be applicable in the forty-eight states and the District of Columbia of the United States.

APPENDIX A

(a) Maximum prices for sales of new pillows by manufacturers to retailers and to institutional users—(1) General rules to be followed in determining maximum prices. In determining maximum prices for sales of new pillows, it is necessary for the manufacturer to ascertain the size of the pillow and the specific content and weight of the filling in the pillow.

(i) Whenever reference is made in this regulation to "size", finished size is intended, measured in lineal inches from seam to seam before filling, and not "cut" size.

(ii) Whenever reference is made in this regulation to "filling weight", the minimum dry filling weight for the particular size of pillow is intended. A pillow filling is "dry" when it does not lose weight through evaporation of moisture while in shipment or in storage. Filling weights shall not be less than, although they may exceed, the minimum filling weights specified herein.

(iii) The maximum prices established herein are prices, per pair, for a single size and kind of pillow f. o. b. the manufacturer's regular metropolitan free delivery area, packed for shipment.

(iv) The per pound value of the filling mixture shall be determined by multiplying the actual weight of each kind of feather and down component by the appropriate maximum prices specified in Maximum Price Regulation No. 318 or in section 6.1 of Supplementary Regulation No. 14J to the General Maximum Price Regulation.

Where any new pillow contains less than the minimum filling weights specified in Tables I–a, I–b, and II below, the maximum prices established therein shall be reduced by the maximum price of the weight deficit.

(2) Fabric cover classifications. Fabric covers for new pillows are classified as follows:

(i) "Class I" which includes 8-ounce ACA twill, and all fabrics whose maximum price f. o. b. mill, is from 20 cents to 24.99 cents per yard.[10]

(ii) "Class II" which includes 6.2-ounce ACA twill, 3.25-ounce printed floral drills, and all fabrics whose maximum price f. o. b. mill, is from 17 cents to 19.99 cents per yard.[10]

(iii) "Class III" which includes 6 ounce to 7 ounce woven or printed, striped or floral sateen and all fabrics whose maximum price f. o. b. mill, is from 25 cents to 29.99 cents per yard.[10]

(iv) "Class IV" which includes 8 ounce woven or printed, striped or floral sateen and all fabrics whose maximum price f. o. b. mill, is 30 cents to 35 cents per yard.[10]

(3) Differential and extras. (i) The maximum prices established in Tables I–a, I–b and II below, are for new pillows made with Class I fabric. If fabric of a different class is used, the manufacturer shall add to, or subtract from, those maximum prices the appropriate one of the differentials set forth in Table III below.

(ii) The maximum prices, established by this section, may be increased if the pillow is finished with certain tailoring extras. The nature of those extras, and the amount of the permitted increases, are set forth in Table IV below.

(iii) If new pillows are packed, individually or in pairs, in separate containers, the maximum prices established by this section may be increased by the amounts set forth in Table V below.

(4) Maximum prices. (i) Tables I–a, and I–b list the maximum prices on all sales by manufacturers to retailers and to institutional users of new pillows, 21 inches by 27 inches in size, with a plain or taped edge, and covered with Class I fabric.

(ii) Maximum prices on sales by manufacturers to retailers and to institutional users on all sales of new pillows with a plain or taped edge, and covered with Class I fabric, in sizes other than 21 inches by 27 inches shall be the maximum price for a new pillow 21 inches by 27 inches in size of the same filling mixture multiplied by the percentage factors specified in Table II.

NOTE: As used in Table I–a, the term "Chicken feathers" includes both chicken and turkey feathers and fibre.

All weights listed in this table are minimum filling weights.

All prices listed in this table are maximum prices to retailers or to institutional users.

The maximum price for sales to retailers or to institutional users of pillows 21 inches by 27 inches in size containing percentage compositions other than those listed in Table I–a shall be the maximum price of that pillow listed in the table having the percentage composition next lowest to that of the pillow being priced. For example, the maximum price of a pillow with the following specifications:

% of clusters and fibre in mixture, 45; 75% clusters, 25% fibre.

% of feathers in mixture, 55; 85% waterfowl, 15% chicken.

shall be the maximum price listed in Table I–a for the pillow with the specifications set forth below:

% of clusters and fibre in mixture, 40; 70% clusters, 30% fibre.

% of feathers in mixture, 60; 80% waterfowl, 20% chicken.

NOTE: All weights listed are minimum filling weights in ounces. All prices listed are maximum prices.

If the components of the filling mixture of a pillow contain more than three percent of colored chicken and turkey feathers or fibre, the maximum price of the pillow shall be determined as if such feather and fibre components were one hundred percent colored.

If the filling components of a pillow include both chicken and turkey feathers and chicken and turkey fibre, the price of the pillow shall be determined as if such feather and fibre components were one hundred percent chicken and turkey feathers.

The maximum price for sales to retailers or to institutional users of pillows 21 inches and 27 inches in size containing percentage compositions other than those listed in Table I–B shall be the maximum price of that pillow listed in the table having the percentage composition next lowest to that of the pillow being priced.

[1] Pillows in sizes intermediate to those listed in this table take the differential of the listed size with the closest surface area.

A person intending to manufacture pillows with tailoring extras other than those listed above shall apply to the Office of Price Administration, Durable Goods Price Branch, Washington 25, D. C., for the establishment of a maximum price differential for such tailoring extras. The application shall set forth:

The date of the application.

The specifications and a complete description of the tailoring extra.

The additional direct labor and material costs in manufacturing the extra over the direct costs of manufacturing the pillows.

The application shall be accompanied by a sample of the tailoring extra.

After receiving the application and sample, the Office of Price Administration will issue an order establishing a maximum price differential for the tailoring extra which will be in line with the level of prices listed in Table IV above. No person may add any differential to his maximum price for any pillow manufactured with a tailoring extra not listed in Table IV until a maximum price differential for such extra has been established by the Office of Price Administration.

(b) Maximum prices for sales of new upholstery cushion innercasings by manufacturers to the furniture trade. The maximum price for sales of new upholstery cushion innercasings by manufacturers to the furniture trade is the sum of the value of the filling, known as the "filling allowance", plus an allowance for the cover.

(1) In order to determine the filling allowance, the manufacturer shall:

(i) Ascertain the net poundage of each feather component used in the filling according to the classification of feathers and down set forth in Maximum Price Regulation No. 318 and section 6.1 of Supplementary Regulation No. 14J to the General Maximum Price Regulation; and

(ii) Multiply the net poundage of each feather and down component by the appropriate maximum price provided in those regulations; and

(iii) Multiply the product of (ii) by 103 percent. The resultant figure is the filling allowance.

(2) The allowance for covers is set forth in Table VI below:

TABLE VI—UPHOLSTERY CUSHION INNERCASING COVER ALLOWANCES

Class size	Class of fabric
	Fabric with a mill ceiling between 15 cents and 19.99 cents per square yard	Fabric with a mill ceiling between 20 cents and 24.99 cents per square yard	Fabric with a mill ceiling between 25 cents and 29.99 cents per square yard	Fabric with a mill ceiling over 30 cents per square yard
A. All seat and back cushions for chairs and three-section sofas with widths of 26 inches or less	$0.70	$0.80	$0.90	$1.00
B. All cushions designed for a two cushion sofa with widths between 30 and 37 inches	1.00	1.20	1.35	1.50
C. One piece love-seat cushions with widths between 45 and 57 inches	1.40	1.60	1.80	3.00
D. One piece sofa cushions with widths of 60 inches or more	2.10	2.40	2.70	3.00

(c) Terms of sale and zone differentials—(1) Terms of sale. The maximum prices of manufacturers established by this regulation are f. o. b. point of shipment, and they are subject to a 2 percent discount for payment within ten days, net thirty days. On sales of less than three dozen baby pillows, or of less than one dozen pillows in sizes other than baby pillow sizes, an extra charge of 5 percent may be added to the maximum price otherwise provided.

(2) Far West Zone differential. (i) Manufacturers who manufacture or sell "delivered" in the Far West Zone may add the following charges to their maximum prices:

Article	Far West Zone differential[1]
Finished pillow size (inches):
12 x 16 and other baby pillow sizes.	$0.10 per pair.
16 x 24 to and including 22 x 28.	$0.30 per pair.
19 x 34 to and including 21 x 39.	$0.40 per pair.
20 x 54 and 21 x 54	$0.55 per pair.
Upholstery cushion innercasings.	$0.04 per pound gross weight.

[1] Pillow sizes intermediate to those listed in this table take the differential of the listed size with the closest surface area.

These differentials may not be added if the filling material contains China duck or goose feathers or down.

(ii) If a pillow is sold in the Far West Zone, the maximum price for a sale by a retailer, calculated under Section 8, may be increased by the following charges:

Finished pillow size (inches):	Far West Zone differential[1]
12 x 16 and other baby pillow sizes.	$0.10 per pillow.
16 x 24 to and including 22 x 28.	$0.25 per pillow.
19 x 34 to and including 21 x 39.	$0.30 per pillow.
20 x 54 and 21 x 54	$0.40 per pillow.

[1] Pillow sizes intermediate to those listed in this table take the differential of the listed size with the closest surface area.

These differentials may not be added if the filling material contains China duck or goose feathers or down.

(iii) The Far West Zone includes the states of Arizona, California, Colorado, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, New Mexico, Oregon, Utah, Washington and Wyoming; and the following counties in the state of Texas: Brewster, Culberson, El Paso, Hudspeth, Jeff Davis, Pecos, Presidio, Reeves and Terrell.

[Paragraph (c) amended by Am. 4, effective 12–3–45]

This regulation shall become effective on April 28, 1945. [Maximum Price Regulation 584 originally issued April 23, 1945]

[Effective dates of amendments are shown in notes following the parts affected]

NOTE: The record keeping and reporting provisions of this regulation have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 28th day of November 1945.

PART 1341—CANNED AND PRESERVED FOODS

[MPR 428,[1] Amdt. 4]

CIDER VINEGAR

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

Section 2b is added to read as follows:

SEC. 2b. Maximum prices adjusted for 1945 apple costs. This section increases the maximum prices of processors and secondary packers of cider vinegar to compensate for higher 1945 apple costs. On and after December 4, 1945, maximum prices under this section replace maximum prices under section 2a.

(a) General rule. Each maximum price, as adjusted under section 2a (a), is increased by the applicable amount in the following table:

	Products of seller's factory in California, Idaho, Montana, Oregon, or Washington				Products of seller's factory in any other State
	60-grain basis	50–59 grain	45–49 grain	40–44 grain	60-grain basis	50–59 grain	45–49 grain	40–44 grain
Tank car or tank truck lots, per gallon	$0.03¾				$0.10
Barrels, per gallon, cooperage included		$0.03	$0.02¾	$0.02½		$0.08	$0.07¼	$0.06¼
Half-barrels, per gallon, cooperage included		0.03	0.02¾	0.02½		0.08	0.07½	0.06¼
Gallons, per dozen		0.37½	0.34	0.30½		0.97½	0.87	0.76¾
Half-gallons, per dozen		0.18¾	0.17	0.15¼		0.48¾	0.43¼	0.38¼
Quarts, per dozen		0.09½	0.08½	0.07¾		0.24½	0.21¾	0.19¼
Pints, per dozen		0.04¾	0.04¼	0.04		0.12¼	0.11	0.09½

NOTE: For any container size not listed in the table, the applicable amount per gallon is that for barrels of the particular grade of cider vinegar being priced.

(b) Processors and secondary packers who also perform the wholesale or retail service. Each maximum price of a processor or secondary packer described in paragraph (a)(2), (a)(3), (b)(2) or (b)(3) of section 2 is his maximum price refigured, according to whichever of those paragraphs applies, after adding to the factor referred to in subdivision (i) of that paragraph the applicable amounts in the tables in section 2a (a) and in paragraph (a) of this section.

(c) Sellers with factories in both areas. A processor or secondary packer with one or more factories in each area referred to in the table in paragraph (a) may, if he wishes, establish a uniform maximum price for any item for any group of factories by figuring a weighted average of their separate maximum prices. For any two or more factories he selects, he shall figure this "weighted average maximum price" as follows: He shall (a) determine the total estimated receipts that would have been obtained if his production of the item at those factories during the one-year period immediately preceding the date of the calculation had been sold at the separate maximum prices in effect on the date of the calculation and (b) divide that figure by the total number of units of the item (like dozen gallons, dozen quarts, etc.) included in that production. The seller shall refigure his weighted average maximum price at the end of each subsequent one-year period on the basis of sales during the one-year period immediately preceding the date of recalculation.

This amendment shall become effective December 4, 1945.

Issued this 29th day of November 1945.

CHESTER BOWLES,
Administrator.

Approved: November 19, 1945.

CLINTON P. ANDERSON,
Secretary of Agriculture.

has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

Section 1351.1 (a) is amended to read as follows:

(a) On and after December 11, 1941, or the effective date thereof as to any amendment to this schedule, regardless of any contract or obligation:

(1) No person shall sell, offer to sell, attempt to sell, deliver, or transfer green coffee at prices higher than the maximum prices hereinafter established by this schedule.

(2) No person shall by direct or indirect methods, buy, offer to buy, attempt to buy, import or receive, green coffee in the course of trade or business, individually or through any agent, or through a foreign or a domestic corporation or any foreign or domestic subsidiary thereof partly or solely owned or controlled by such person, at prices higher than the maximum prices established in this schedule, except that green coffee to be imported into the Continental United States in conformance with the provisions of an agreement entered into by the importer with the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, may be imported at the maximum prices as otherwise established under this regulation plus an amount not to exceed 3¢ per pound.

This amendment shall become effective as of November 19, 1945.

Issued this 28th day of November 1945.

PART 1360—MOTOR VEHICLES AND MOTOR VEHICLE EQUIPMENT

[MPR 594[1], Amdt. 1]

MAXIMUM PRICES FOR NEW PASSENGER AUTOMOBILES

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment issued simultaneously herewith has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

Maximum Price Regulation 594 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 6 (a) (3) is amended to read as follows:

(3) A charge to cover the cost, if any, of transporting the new automobile and extra, special or optional equipment from the factory to the point at which delivery is made to the purchaser, computed in accordance with the method you had in effect on October 15, 1941.

2. Section 7 (a) (5) is amended to read as follows:

(5) A charge to cover the cost, if any, of transporting the new automobile and extra, special or optional equipment from the factory to the point at which delivery is made to the purchaser, computed in accordance with the method you had in effect on October 15, 1941.

3. Step I in section 8 (d) is amended by changing the reference to "highest base period prices" to read "highest January 1, 1941 prices."

4. Section 11 (c) is amended to read as follows:

(c) A charge to cover transportation expense which shall not exceed the rail freight charge at carload rate, by the most direct route, for the transportation of the new automobile and extra, special or optional equipment from the factory to the receiving station nearest to the place at which delivery is made to the purchaser, except that where the new automobile and extra, special or optional equipment is transported by truck-away, the charge may be the truck-away charge, at truckload rate, for the most direct route from the factory to the place at which delivery is made to the purchaser.

5. Section 12 (c) is amended to read as follows:

(c) A charge to cover transportation expense which shall not exceed the rail freight charge at carload rate, by the most direct route, for the transportation of the new automobile and extra, special or optional equipment from the factory to the receiving station nearest to the place at which delivery is made to the purchaser, except that where the new automobile and extra, special or optional equipment is transported by truck-away, the charge may be the truck-away charge, at truckload rate, for the most direct route from the factory to the place at which delivery is made to the purchaser.

This amendment shall become effective as of the 19th day of November 1945.

Issued this 29th day of November 1945.

PART 1382—HARDWOOD LUMBER

[RMPR 97,[1] Amdt. 21]

SOUTHERN HARDWOOD LUMBER

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

Revised Maximum Price Regulation 97 is amended in the following respects:

1. In § 1382.102 (a) (2) (i), subdivision (b) is amended to read as follows:

(b) A "typical concentration yard" is an establishment which is located in a hardwood lumber producing area, which concentrates either graded hardwood lumber or ungraded hardwood lumber or both; which keeps in stock principally Southern hardwood lumber; which purchases hardwood lumber principally in rough green condition from mills located in its vicinity; which receives its hardwood lumber principally by truck; which prepares graded hardwood lumber for commercial shipment; and which sells hardwood lumber principally for rail shipment.

2. In § 1382.102 (a) (2) (i), subdivision (c) is amended to read as follows:

(c) A "typical distribution yard" is a wholesale or retail yard which is located in a lumber consuming area; which regularly maintains a varied stock of lumber from different regions; which obtains graded lumber principally from mills or from other yards; which receives its lumber principally by rail; which unloads, sorts, stores and redistributes graded hardwood lumber, which from the nature of its lumber inventory is in position to make prompt deliveries of many different items of lumber; and which sells chiefly for truck shipment.

3. In Section 1382.106, the heading of the section and paragraphs (a) and (b) are amended to read as follows:

§ 1382.106 Maximum prices for Southern Hardwood Lumber not specifically priced in this regulation. (a) Southern Hardwood Lumber sold on special grades or specifications or with special services or other extras not specifically priced in this regulation is, nevertheless, subject to this regulation as a "specially priced item" or a "special item". A seller making a sale of hardwood lumber covered by this section, for which that seller does not have a maximum price duly approved by the Office of Price Administration, shall apply to the Lumber Branch of the Office of Price Administration, Washington 25, D. C., for approval of a requested price for that hardwood lumber. The application shall cover only one order or inquiry of hardwood lumber and a copy of that order or inquiry shall accompany the application. The seller must make his application for approval of a maximum price on a copy of Form 197:3, a facsimile of which is in paragraph (c) below.

If the seller had sales in October 1941 of the special item and of the most comparable item specifically priced in this regulation, he shall show on his application the price differential which he maintained between these two items in that month. If the seller did not have sales of both of such items in October 1941 he shall show on the application the price differential between these two items which existed in the first month preceding October 1941 in which he had sales of both of these items. If the seller did not have any sales of these two items in October 1941 or in any month preceding October 1941, the seller shall show on the application the price differential which he would have maintained between these two items in October 1941 if he had made sales of these items in that month.

The seller shall report his requested price in his application, together with an explanation of how he has determined such price. The maximum price shall be a price which is in appropriate relationship to the most comparable standard item, determined from an examination of the data submitted by the seller and from such other data as may be available to the Office of Price Administration. A maximum price duly approved by the Office of Price Administration for a seller for a special item shall apply to subsequent sales by that seller of the identical item of hardwood lumber unless the Office limits the applicability of the approved price in some manner.

If, within thirty (30) days of the receipt of the application by the Lumber Branch of the Office of Price Administration, that Office does not transmit by letter, telegram or in some other manner, a disapproval of the price requested by the seller on the application, that requested price may be deemed approved, but such approval shall be applicable only to the one specific order covered by the application and only to the quantity of the special item contained in that order on the date of the application.

(b) Prior to approval by the Office of Price Administration of the maximum price for a special item of hardwood lumber covered by this section the seller shall not make any collections on ac-

PART 1364—FRESH, CURED AND CANNED MEAT AND FISH

[RMPR 148,[1] Incl. Amdt. 1-30]

DRESSED HOGS AND WHOLESALE PORK CUTS

This compilation of Revised Maximum Price Regulation 148 includes Amendment 30, effective December 3, 1945. The text added or amended by Amendment 30 is underscored. Deletions, redesignations and changes in tables are indicated by notes.

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, it is necessary and proper, in order to effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended and Executive Order No. 9250 issued by the President on October 3, 1942, to maintain as the maximum prices for dressed hogs and wholesale pork cuts the prices prevailing with respect thereto during the period March 3, 1942 to March 7, 1942, inclusive. Prices determined as provided in § 1364.22 reflect the prices prevailing during such period. The Price Administrator has ascertained and given due consideration to the prices of dressed hogs and wholesale pork cuts prevailing between October 1 and October 15, 1941, and has made adjustments for such relevant factors as he has determined and deemed to be of general applicability. So far as practicable, the Price Administrator has advised and consulted with representative members of the industry which will be affected by this regulation.

In the judgment of the Price Administrator the maximum prices established by this regulation are and will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of said act and Executive order. A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this regulation has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.[2]

[1] 9 F.R. 1996.

[2] Statements of considerations are also issued simultaneously with amendments. Copies may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration.

The maximum prices established herein are not below prices which will reflect to producers of the agricultural commodities from which dressed hogs and wholesale pork cuts are produced a price for their products equal to the highest of the prices required by the provisions of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and by the Executive Order of October 3, 1942.

Insofar as this regulation uses specifications and standards which were not, prior to such use, in general use in the trade or industry affected, or insofar as their use was not lawfully required by another Government agency, the Administrator has determined, with respect to such standardization, that no practicable alternative exists for securing effective price control with respect to the commodities subject to this regulation.

[Above sentence added by Supplementary Order No. 63, 8 F.R. 12553, effective 9-11-43]

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250 and in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 1,[1] issued by the Office of Price Administration, Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 148 is hereby issued.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1364.21 to 1364.36, inclusive, issued under 56 Stat. 23, 765; 57 Stat. 566; Pub. Law 383, 78th Cong.; Pub. Law 108, 79th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871; E.O. 9328, 8 F.R. 4681; E.O. 9599, 10 F.R. 10155.

§ 1364.21 Prohibition against selling dressed hogs and wholesale pork cuts at prices above the maximum. On and after November 2, 1942, regardless of any contract, agreement, or other obligation, no person shall sell or deliver dressed hogs or any wholesale pork cut, and no person in the course of trade or business shall buy or receive dressed hogs or any wholesale pork cut at a price higher than the maximum price permitted by § 1364.22; and no person shall agree, offer, solicit or attempt to do any of the foregoing: Provided, That on and after June 14, 1943, a war procurement agency in addition to paying to the seller the maximum price for the commodity prescribed by the applicable provisions of this regulation, may pay to Defense Supplies Corporation an amount equivalent to the meat production payments made by Defense Supplies Corporation on account of the production of such meat.

[§ 1364.21 amended by Am. 5, 8 F.R. 7671]

§ 1364.22 Maximum prices for dressed hogs and wholesale pork cuts. Maximum prices for dressed hogs and wholesale pork cuts shall be computed as provided in this section.

(a) Base price. The base price for each wholesale pork cut shall be the price specified in Schedule I of Appendix A (incorporated herein as § 1364.35), minus the required deductions, if any, specified in Schedule II of Appendix A (§ 1364.35), plus the permitted additions, if any, specified in Schedule III of Appendix A (§ 1364.35).

(b) Maximum prices in central price zone. Except as provided in paragraph (h) of this section, the maximum price for each wholesale pork cut delivered to the buyer within the Central Price Zone, or delivered outside the Central Price Zone by a local delivery beginning in the Central Price Zone, shall be the base price.

(c) Maximum prices in Chicago price zone. Except as provided in paragraphs (b) and (h) of this section, the maximum price for each wholesale pork cut delivered to the buyer in the Chicago Price Zone, or delivered to the buyer outside the Chicago Price Zone and the Central Price Zone by a local delivery beginning in the Chicago Price Zone, shall be the base price plus $0.25 per cwt.

(d) Maximum prices outside central price zone and Chicago price zone. Except as provided in paragraphs (b), (c) and (h) of this section, the maximum price for each wholesale pork cut delivered to the buyer outside the Central Price Zone and the Chicago Price Zone shall be the base price plus a transportation differential determined as follows:

(1) The seller shall ascertain the point at which local delivery begins, if local delivery is made, or the point of delivery if no local delivery is made. If no carload meat freight rates are established to such point, he shall ascertain the nearest point at which such freight rates are established.

(2) If the point ascertained under paragraph (d) (1) of this section is east of the Mississippi River, but is not in Minnesota, Wisconsin, or in that part of Michigan lying between Lake Superior and Lake Michigan or Lake Huron, the transportation differential for any fresh wholesale pork cut shall be 115 percent of the lowest fresh meat carload freight rate from Chicago, Illinois, to such point adjusted to the nearest $0.25 per cwt. and plus $0.25 per cwt., and the transportation differential for any cured or processed wholesale pork cut shall be 115 percent of the lowest packing house product carload freight rate (applicable to cooked, cured or preserved meats and sausage) from Chicago, Illinois, to such point, adjusted to the nearest $0.25 per cwt. and plus $0.25 per cwt. (Caution: This transportation differential is to be added to the base price, not to the maximum price in the Chicago Price Zone.)

(3) If the point ascertained under paragraph (d) (1) of this section is in Missouri, Arkansas, or in those portions of Louisiana west of the Mississippi River, or in those portions of Texas, Oklahoma or Kansas which lie east of the 99th meridian, the transportation differential for any fresh wholesale pork cut shall be 115 percent of the lowest fresh meat carload freight rate from Kansas City, Missouri, to such point, adjusted to the nearest $0.25 per cwt., and the transportation differential for any cured or processed wholesale pork cut shall be 115 percent of the lowest packing house product carload freight rate (applicable to cooked, cured or preserved meats and sausage) from Kansas City, Missouri, to such point, adjusted to the nearest $0.25 per cwt.

[1] Revised: 9 F.R. 10476, 13715; 10 F.R. 11295.

[Subparagraphs (2) and (3) as amended by Am. 15, 9 F.R. 1996]

(4) If the point ascertained under paragraph (d) (1) of this section lies in any other part of the United States than those areas referred to in paragraphs (d) (2) and (d) (3) of this section, and notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (ii) of § 1364.32 (a) (14), the seller shall ascertain the lowest of the packing house product carload freight rates in effect on November 1, 1945 (applicable to cooked, cured or preserved meats and sausage) to such point from Kansas City, Missouri, and South St. Paul, Minnesota. The transportation differential for fresh, cured or processed wholesale pork cuts shall be 115 percent of such lowest rate, adjusted to the nearest $0.25 per hundredweight.

[Subparagraph (4) amended by Am. 29, 10 F.R. 14023]

(e) When products are delivered to the buyer. Dressed hogs and wholesale pork cuts shall be deemed to be delivered to the buyer at the point where physical possession is taken by the buyer or his agent, or where the dressed hogs or wholesale pork cuts, consigned to the buyer,

(1) Are received by a common carrier or contract carrier, other than a railroad, and the charges of such carrier are paid directly to such carrier by the buyer;

(2) Are received by a railroad: (i) for shipment at the railroad carload rate; or (ii) for shipment to an agency of the United States government; and, in each instance, the charges of such railroad are paid directly to such railroad by the buyer.

(3) Are received by a railroad for shipment to a licensed ship supplier under the following conditions:

(i) The wholesale pork cuts so shipped must be obtained from a War Shipping Administration stockpile.

(ii) The Director of the Food Control Division of the War Shipping Administration first must have certified both to the seller and to the buying licensed ship supplier that such purchase and shipment are necessary to provide adequate supplies for ship operators who are dependent upon the named ship supplier for such supplies.

(iii) The shipping charges of such railroad are paid directly to the railroad by the buying licensed ship supplier.

(iv) If less than carload shipments are made the purchasing ship supplier's place of business must be located either in Zone 9 or in Zone 10 (as defined in paragraphs (i) and (j) respectively of § 1364.452 of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 169—Beef and Veal Carcasses and Wholesale Cuts).

[Subparagraph (2) amended and (3) added by Am. 30]

[Paragraph (e) amended by Am. 1, 8 F.R. 544 and as otherwise noted]

(f) Maximum prices of wholesale pork cuts listed in Appendix A. (1) Except as provided in paragraph (h) of this section, if the maximum price for any wholesale pork cut delivered to the buyer cannot be determined under the provisions of the foregoing paragraphs of this section, such maximum price shall be that of the nearest similar wholesale pork cut derived from the same primal cut or combination of primal cuts, making adjustment for the differences in the costs of producing such cuts. Each seller shall file with the Office of Price Administration at Washington, D. C., within 10 days of computation, each maximum price computed under the provisions of this paragraph (f) together with a statement of the method of such computation and the comparative costs included therein, including costs of labor, materials, and overhead, and shrinkage or gain in weight. Any maximum price so computed shall be subject to revision by the Price Administrator. No person shall sell any wholesale pork cut not listed in Schedule I of Appendix A (§ 1364.35), except canned meats subject to the provisions of paragraph (h) of this section, without first filing with the Office of Price Administration at Washington, D. C., a maximum price for such cut as required by the provisions of this paragraph (f).

[Subparagraph (1) amended by Am. 19, 10 F.R. 703]

(2) The last date for computing and filing maximum prices under this paragraph (f) for all wholesale pork cuts, other than those sold exclusively to war procurement agencies, shall be May 31, 1943. On or before June 30, 1943, the Office of Price Administration shall review all maximum prices filed on or before May 31, 1943, and the Price Administrator shall in writing confirm or modify the maximum prices filed by such seller under this paragraph (f). On and after June 1, 1943, no person shall sell in civilian trade any wholesale pork cut not listed in § 1364.35, other than a cut for which such person has, prior to that date, duly filed a maximum price as required by this paragraph (f); nor shall any person who has so filed a maximum price for any wholesale pork cut sell such cut at a price higher than the price authorized by the written confirmation or modification of the Price Administrator.

[Paragraph (f) amended by Am. 1, 8 F.R. 544, and Am. 4, 8 F.R. 7322]

(g) Maximum prices for dressed hogs and slaughtering services. The maximum price for each dressed hog sold and for slaughtering services shall be ascertained in accordance with the provisions of § 1364.36 (Appendix B).

[Paragraph (g) amended by Am. 1, 8 F.R. 544; Am. 2, 8 F.R. 2922; Am. 5, 8 F.R. 7671; Am. 11, 8 F.R. 13296; Am. 20, 10 F.R. 2095; Am. 22, 10 F.R. 3362; and Am. 24, 10 F.R. 5371]

(h) Maximum prices of products sold for export and canned products. (1) The maximum price at which a person may export any dressed hog or wholesale pork cut shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation[1] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

(2) Except for imported canned hams and the canned pork products listed in Schedule I (h) of § 1364.35 (Appendix A), the maximum price for each brand, type and container size of canned meat containing pork shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 156 and Maximum Price Regulation Nos. 421, 422 and 423. [NOTE: The canned pork products listed in Schedule I (h) of § 1364.35 (Appendix A) are made in accordance with government specifications, and are priced for sale only (1) to war procurement agencies, (2) to licensed ship suppliers for resale only to ship operators, and (3) to ship operators. With one exception, they may not be sold to other classes of buyers. The exception made is effective until December 8, 1945, and enables manufacturers of such canned pork products following cancellation of war procurement contracts as specified in section 16 of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 156 to sell them to civilian buyers during the said limited period at the base prices provided in Schedule I (h) of § 1364.35 (Appendix A) of this regulation, subject to the conditions imposed in the said section 16 of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 156.]

[Subparagraph (2) amended by Am. 1, 8 F.R. 544; Am. 24, 10 F.R. 5371 and Am. 30. Paragraph heading amended by Ams. 1 and 2]

(3) [Revoked]

[Subparagraph (3) added by Am. 1, revoked by Am. 2, 8 F.R. 2922]

§ 1364.22a Limitation on carload shipments into Pacific Coast States.—(a) Scope of limitation. (1) The limitations contained in this section are applicable on all straight and/or mixed carload lots of dressed hogs and/or wholesale pork cuts (derived from live hogs slaughtered elsewhere than in the area consisting of the States of California, Oregon and Washington) that are moved into the area consisting of the States of California, Oregon and Washington.

[1] 2nd Revised: 8 F.R. 4132, 5987, 7662, 9998, 15193; 9 F.R. 1036, 5435, 5923, 7201, 9834, 11273, 12919, 14346; 10 F.R. 863, 923, 2432, 6590, 8746, 8611, 9586, 10029.

(2) Nothing herein contained shall be interpreted to preclude or to restrict the right of any person having dressed hogs and/or wholesale pork cuts derived from live hogs slaughtered elsewhere than in the area consisting of the States of California, Oregon and Washington to move such pork products into the area consisting of the States of California, Oregon or Washington, under either of the following conditions:

(i) The total volume by weight so moved is less than a "carload" as defined in § 1364.32 (a) (9); or

(ii) The pork products moved, regardless of total weight, are consigned to:

(a) A war procurement agency;

(b) A licensed ship supplier for sale only to a ship operator; or

(c) A ship operator.

(3) Nothing herein contained shall be intepreted to preclude or to restrict the right of any person to move dressed hogs and/or wholesale pork cuts derived from hogs slaughtered in the area consisting of the States of California, Oregon or Washington into any state.

(b) Limitation. Except as permitted by paragraphs (a) (2) and (b) (1) of this § 1364.22a, and notwithstanding the terms of any contract, agreement or other obligation, no person shall ship, transport, transfer or deliver straight and/or mixed carload lots of dressed hogs and/or wholesale pork cuts (derived from live hogs slaughtered elsewhere than in the area consisting of the States of California, Oregon and Washington) in the said area after November 9, 1945; and except as permitted by the above-cited paragraphs no person in the course of trade or business shall cause such straight and/or mixed carload lots of such pork products to be shipped, transported, transferred or delivered into the said area after November 9, 1945. Other than as permitted by paragraph (a) (2) of this § 1364.22a dressed hogs and/or wholesale pork cuts (derived from live hogs slaughtered elsewhere than in the area consisting of the States of California, Oregon and Washington) may be moved into the area consisting of the States of California, Oregon and Washington on and after November 10, 1945, only in accordance with the following conditions:

(1) No person shall ship, transport, transfer or deliver such carload lots into the said area and no person in the course of trade or business shall cause to be shipped, transported, transferred or delivered such carload lots into the said area unless he has a quota therefor determined on the basis of the total volume by weight of straight and/or mixed carload lot shipments of dressed hogs and/or wholesale pork cuts (derived from live hogs slaughtered elsewhere than in the area consisting of the States of California, Oregon and Washington) moved into the said area other than to war procurement agencies, licensed ship suppliers and ship operators during the appropriate base period specified hereinafter. No person shall have more than one quota, and every person claiming a quota must qualify therefor, and compute the volume thereof by one of the methods provided in following subdivisions (i), (ii), (iii) or (iv), or must apply for a special quota as provided in subdivision (v) hereof.

(i) Each person who moved such carload lots into the area within the base period of from January 1, 1944, through March 31, 1944, is entitled to a quota for each current three month period beginning January 1, April 1, July 1 and October 1; and the quota for each such current quarterly period shall be 75 percent of the total volume by weight so moved into such area within the said base period.

(ii) Each person who moved such carload lots into the area during any period after January 31, 1944, but did not move such carload lots into the area during the month of January 1944, is entitled to a quota for each current three month period beginning January 1, April 1, July 1 and October 1; and the quota for each such current quarterly period shall be 75 percent of the total volume by weight so moved into such area within the first consecutive three calendar month period in which such movements were made following January 31, 1944.

(iii) Each person who is a buyer in the course of trade or business having a selling establishment or establishments located in the said area, and who purchased and caused such carload lots to be moved into such area within the base period of from January 1, 1944, through March 31, 1944, is entitled to a purchasing quota for each current three month period beginning January 1, April 1, July 1 and October 1; and the purchasing quota for each such current quarterly period shall be 75 percent of the total volume by weight so purchased and caused to be moved into such area within the said base period. No person who has established a quota under foregoing subdivisions (i) and (ii) shall be eligible to establish a quota under this subdivision.

(iv) Each person who is a buyer in the course of trade or business having a selling establishment or establishments located in the said area, and who purchased and caused such carload lots to be moved into such area during any period after January 31, 1944, but did not purchase and cause such carload lots to be moved into such area during the month of January 1944, is entitled to a purchasing quota for each current three-month period beginning January 1, April 1, July 1 and October 1; and the purchasing quota for each such current quarterly period shall be 75 percent of the total volume by weight so purchased and caused to be moved into such area within the first consecutive three calendar month period in which such movements were made following January 31, 1944. No person who has established a quota under foregoing subdivisions (i) or (ii) shall be eligible to establish a quota under this subdivision.

(v) Special quotas authorizing persons not having quotas under subdivisions (i) or (ii) to move such carload lots into such area in order to enable persons having quotas under foregoing subdivisions (iii) or (iv) to operate within the limits of such latter quotas may be authorized by the Administrator of the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., only upon a showing that the persons having such latter quotas are unable to obtain such carload lots from persons having quotas under subdivisions (i) or (ii).

(vi) No person having a quota under subdivisions (i) or (ii) shall move carload lots from outside such area to its branch houses, subsidiaries, or financial affiliates located within such area, in excess of 75 percent of the total volume by weight so moved to its branch houses, subsidiaries, or financial affiliates during its quota base period. All such movements shall be charged against the quota.

(vii) Any person having a quota under foregoing subdivisions (i) or (ii) shall not move carload lots from outside the area to a consignee within the area other than a branch house, subsidiary or financial affiliate unless he first shall ascertain that such consignee has an unfilled quota under foregoing subdivisions (iii) or (iv) permitting such movement. All such transactions shall be charged against both quotas.

(viii) The first current quarterly period during which the quota provisions hereinbefore specified shall be operative begins as of October 1, 1945; Provided, That regardless of the total volume by weight moved into the said area during the period of from October 1, 1945, through November 9, 1945, nevertheless two-thirds of any quota hereinbefore authorized may be moved into such area during the period of from November 10, 1945, through December 31, 1945.

(ix) No person having a quota under the provisions of this § 1364.22a (b) (1) shall ship, transport, transfer or deliver, or cause to be shipped, transported, transferred or delivered, such carload lots into such area during any calendar month in excess of 40 percent of his quota for the quarterly period in which the said calendar month occurs.

(2) On or before November 30, 1945, each person claiming a quota under subdivisions (i) or (ii) of foregoing § 1364.22a (b) (1) shall file in duplicate with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., a signed statement setting forth the data required in § 1364.27 (e) (1); and on or before November 30, 1945, each person claiming a quota under subdivision (iii) or (iv) of foregoing § 1364.22a (b) (1) shall file in duplicate with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., a signed statement setting forth the data required in § 1364.27 (e) (2). On and after December 1, 1945, any person claiming a quota under any of such subdivisions who has failed to file such statements under § 1364.27 (e) shall be prohibited from using such quota until the required filing is made.

(3) Each person claiming a quota under subdivision (i) or (ii) of foregoing § 1364.22a (b) (1) shall conform to the quarterly reporting requirements of § 1364.27 (f) (1); each person claiming a purchasing quota under subdivision (iii) or (iv) of foregoing § 1364.22a (b) (1) shall conform to the quarterly reporting requirements of § 1364.27 (f) (2); and each person for whom a quota is established under subdivision (v) of § 1364.22a (b) (1) shall conform to the quarterly reporting requirements of § 1364.27 (f) (3). In the event any person claiming a quota under the above-cited subdivisions fails to file any quarterly report as therein required, his right to operate under such quota shall be prohibited until the required quarterly report is made.

(4) Each person claiming a quota under subdivisions (i), (ii), (iii) or (iv) of foregoing § 1364.22a (b) (1), and each person for whom a special quota is established under the provisions of subdivision (v) of said section shall conform to the record-keeping provisions of § 1364.27 (g). In the event any person claiming or having a quota under the above-cited subdivisions fails to keep the records required by § 1364.27 (g), his right to operate under such quota shall be prohibited for the entire time that such records are not kept, and any carload lots moved into the area by or for such person during such period shall be deemed to be unauthorized insofar as such carload lots relate to the quota of the person failing to keep such records.

(c) Any person subject to the provisions of paragraph (b) of this § 1364.22a who violates any applicable provision of said paragraph (b) shall be subject to the penalties for violation provided by law, and in addition, may be prohibited by administrative suspension order from receiving, selling, using or otherwise disposing of dressed hogs and/or wholesale pork cuts. Such suspension order shall be issued for such period as in the judgment of the Administrator or such person as he may designate for that purpose, is necessary and appropriate in the public interest or to promote the national security.

(d) This § 1364.22a is issued under the authority vested in the Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, in addition to the authorities cited in § 1364.415 (e) of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 169—Beef and Veal Carcasses and Wholesale Cuts.

[§ 1364.22a added by Am. 29, 10 F.R. 14023. Original § 1364.22a added by Am. 6, 8 F.R. 7826; revoked by Am. 15, 9 F.R. 1996]

§ 1364.23 Adjustable pricing and transportation adjustments—(a) Adjustable pricing. Any person may offer or agree to adjust or fix prices to or at prices not in excess of the maximum prices in effect at the time of delivery. In an appropriate situation, where a petition for amendment or for adjustment or exception requires extended consideration, the Price Administrator may, upon application, grant permission to agree to adjust prices upon deliveries made during the pendency of the petition in accordance with the disposition of the petition.

(b) Adjustment for transportation to critical areas. Upon a finding that a critical shortage of meat has occurred in a specific area because of the unavailability of customary sources of supply and because the established maximum prices do not contain a sufficient allowance to cover the cost of transporting meat to that area from other sources of supply, the Administrator may by order designate such area as a critical area for such period as he may prescribe. Subject to such conditions as may be prescribed in the order of the Administrator, the Regional Administrator for the area or any District Manager designated by him, may in writing authorize named sellers to charge and receive, for dressed hogs and wholesale pork cuts sold to buyers in that area, the added cost of transportation in addition to the applicable maximum price.

(c) "Group I ship chandler" adjustments affecting pork. (1) Notwithstanding the pricing provisions of Schedule III (e) of § 1364.35 pertaining to maximum prices for wholesale pork cuts sold to ship operators by licensed ship suppliers, the Price Administrator at Washington, D. C., may, by order, adjust the licensed ship supplier's selling addition established in Schedule III (e) (5) of § 1364.35 for any "Group I ship chandler" (defined in § 1364.32 (a) (26) (i)) who shows:

(i) That in the period covering the entire calendar or fiscal year of 1944, whichever period is used by the applicant for filing Federal Income Tax returns, at least 85% of his total dollar volume of sales consisted of sales of food items;

(ii) That during his most recent 3 month fiscal or calendar accounting period, his total dollar volume derived from the sale of all his products, including but not limited to food items, exceeded his total cost of products sold during such period, adjusted for inventory changes, by an amount which was less than 12½%; and

(iii) That no adequate alternative exists to the price adjustment, such as a reduction of other operating costs.

(2) Any applicant requesting a price adjustment under this paragraph (c) shall file a written application with the Price Administrator, at Washington, D. C., in which he shall certify that he is a "Group I ship chandler", as defined in § 1364.32 (a) (26) (i) of this regulation, that he meets the requirements of subdivisions (i) (i) through (iii) above, and sets forth:

(i) His annual total dollar volume as computed in accordance with the provisions of § 1364.32 (a) (26) (iii) of this regulation;

(ii) His total dollar volume derived from the sale of food items only during the same period, covered by subdivision (i) above;

(iii) The total cost of all products purchased by him (adjusted for inventory changes) during the three consecutive months specified in subdivision (1) (ii) above, and his total dollar volume derived from sales of such products during the same period, setting forth the total dollar volume of sales of (a) all products, including foods, (b) foods, including all meats, (c) beef and veal, and (d) pork; and the total pounds of beef and veal, and pork, separately stated, sold during the same period.

In addition to the foregoing, each application shall be accompanied by a letter signed by the appropriate district food control representative of the War Shipping Administration located in the City of New York, New Orleans or San Francisco, as the case may be, certifying that the applicant is a "Group I ship chandler" as defined in § 1364.32 (a) (26) (i) herein.

(3) Upon receipt of an application satisfying the requirements of subparagraph (c) (2) hereof, the Price Administrator may, subject to such terms and conditions as he may deem necessary, adjust the selling addition established in Schedule III (e) (5) of § 1364.35 for sales by a licensed ship supplier to such an extent as to increase the applicant's gross operating margin percentage-wise to 12½% over cost of products sold, except that in no case shall an adjustment be granted in excess of 50 cents per cwt.

(4) If during any 3 consecutive calendar or fiscal months following the granting of an adjustment pursuant to this paragraph (c), the applicant's dollar volume sales of food items fall below 85% of his total dollar volume of sales of all products sold during such 3 month period the adjustment granted shall be deemed null and void thereafter. If during any three month calendar or fiscal period or a fiscal or calendar year closing after the granting of an adjustment pursuant to this paragraph (c), the applicant's gross operating margin is more than 12½% of cost of products sold, the adjustment granted under this paragraph (c) shall be subject to revocation or modification.

(5) For purposes of convenience an application filed under this section may be combined with a similar application filed under the provision of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 169.[8]

§ 1364.24 Exempt sales and deliveries. The provisions of this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 148 shall not apply

(a) To sales at retail;

(b) To deliveries made to any political subdivision or agency of any state or of the United States, other than the Federal Surplus Commodities Corporation, under contracts entered into prior to November 2, 1942: Provided, That this exemption shall not be construed to permit the upward revision of any prices fixed in such contracts;

(c) To deliveries to the Federal Surplus Commodities Corporation under contracts entered into prior to October 17, 1942; or

(d) To sales outside of the forty-eight states of the United States and the District of Columbia.

(e) Except for the products hereinafter listed, to sales of canned meat made to civilian buyers. (Although exempt from this regulation, sales to civilian buyers are subject to Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 156[6] and Maximum Price Regulations Nos. 421,[7] 422, and 423.) The products not included in this exemption and which consequently must be priced under this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 148 are:

(1) Imported canned hams.

(2) Canned pork products listed in Schedule I (h) of § 1364.35 (Appendix A). [Note: These products are made in accordance with government specifications, and priced for sale only (i) to war procurement agencies, (ii) to licensed ship suppliers for resale to ship operators, and (3) to ship operators. With one exception, they may not be sold to other classes of buyers. See subparagraph (2) of § 1364.22 (h) of this regulation, and section 16 of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 156.]

§ 1364.25 Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than those provided for in § 1364.22 may be charged, demanded, paid or offered.

§ 1364.26 Evasion. (a) The price limitations set forth in this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 148 shall not be evaded, whether by direct or indirect methods, in connection with an offer, solicitation, agreement, sale, delivery, purchase, or receipt of, or relating to, dressed hogs or wholesale pork cuts, alone or in conjunction with any other commodity, or by way of any commission, service, transportation or other charge, or discount, premium or other privilege, or by tying-agreement or other trade understanding: Provided, That the following payments shall not be construed as evasions of such price limitations under the following conditions:

(1) A payment by a buyer to a broker of not to exceed $0.125 per hundredweight in excess of the maximum prices fixed by this regulation for services rendered by the broker to the buyer in connection with a sale of wholesale pork cuts, if the broker has no business affiliation with the seller and if the total compensation received by the broker from both buyer and seller in connection with the sale does not exceed $0.125 per hundredweight.

(2) A payment by a buyer to a seller for icing services performed by the seller after March 1, 1943, and before delivery of dressed hogs or wholesale pork cuts to a railroad whose charges are paid directly to such railroad by the buyer, if the charge for such icing services is no higher than the costs actually incurred by the seller in performing such services and no higher than the charge which could lawfully have been made by the railroad if such services had been performed by the railroad;

(3) A payment by a war procurement agency or a licensed ship supplier who is not a slaughterer, packer or packer's branch house, to a seller (i) for freezing and/or storing dressed hogs or wholesale pork cuts purchased by such agency or licensed ship supplier if such freezing and/or storage charges were actually incurred by the seller and are evidenced by an invoice and warehouse receipt duly issued to the seller from a commercial warehouse; or (ii) for storing dressed hogs or wholesale pork cuts if the storage services were performed by the seller, and not by a commercial warehouse, if such services are evidenced by a warehouse receipt, showing the length of the storage, issued by the seller to the war procurement agency or licensed ship supplier; and if such charges do not exceed the second month's maximum storage rates (under the General Maximum Price Regulation) of commercial warehousemen in the vicinity of the place where the storage occurred.

[Subparagraph (3) amended by Am. 21, 10 F.R. 2514 and Am. 30]

(b) Specifically, but not exclusively, the following practices are prohibited:

(1) Falsely or incorrectly grading or invoicing dressed hogs or wholesale pork cuts;

(2) Selling or invoicing wholesale pork cuts to buyers other than bona fide purveyors of meals at the prices established for sales by hotel supply houses;

(3) Offering, selling or delivering dressed hogs or any wholesale pork cuts on condition that the purchaser is required to purchase some other wholesale pork cut or other commodity;

(4) Selling or transferring title to hogs at a lower price than was paid for such hogs and re-purchasing, purchasing or receiving title to dressed hogs or wholesale pork cuts derived from the hogs so purchased after they have been slaughtered;

(5) Charging, billing or receiving any consideration for or in connection with any service for which specific allowance has not been provided in this regulation;

(6) So curing wholesale pork cuts as to increase their cured weight, before draining and smoking beyond 110% of green weight;

(7) Selling wholesale pork cuts not referred to in Appendix A (§ 1364.35) and not customarily sold by the same seller prior to March 23, 1942.

[§ 1364.26 amended by Am. 2, 8 F.R. 2922, and Am. 9, 8 F.R. 10732]

§ 1364.27 Records and reports. (a) Every person who sells, transfers or delivers, and every person in the course of trade or business who buys, receives or acquires any dressed hogs or wholesale pork cuts shall make and/or preserve for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect, complete and accurate records of each such sale, transfer, delivery, purchase, receipt, acquisition or other such transaction, showing:

(1) The date thereof.

(2) The names and addresses of the parties taking part in the transaction, such as the buyer and seller.

(3) The description, quantity and weight of all wholesale pork cuts sold, transferred, delivered, purchased, received or acquired, specifically showing:

(i) The descriptive name of the wholesale pork cut, including the grade of sliced bacon.

(ii) The weight range or ranges of dressed hogs and/or wholesale pork cuts as named and defined in this regulation.

(iii) The number of pieces in each weight range of any items for which ranges are specified, except spareribs and Boston butts.

(iv) The total weights of all items in each specified weight range.

(4) The price charged, received or paid therefor.

[Paragraph (a) amended by Am. 1, 8 F.R. 544, Am. 2, 8 F.R. 2922, Am. 24, 10 F.R. 5371 and Am. 30]

(b) Persons subject to or affected by this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 148 shall submit to the Office of Price Administration at Washington, D. C.:

(1) The reports of maximum prices required by § 1364.22 (f), together with a statement that the facts recited therein are true and correct;

(2) On or before November 15, 1942, statements of the denominators in sales by them of dressed hogs, determined in accordance with the provisions of § 1364.22 (g), including a statement of the specifications for dressing to which each denominator applies and a statement of the classes of purchasers to which each denominator applies; and

[Subparagraphs (1) and (2) amended by Am. 29, 10 F.R. 14023]

(3) Such other reports as the Office of Price Administration may from time to time require.

(4) [Revoked]

[Subparagraph (4) added by Am. 1, 8 F.R. 544; revoked by Am. 2, 8 F.R. 2922]

(c) Every person making a sale of any dressed hog or any wholesale pork cut shall furnish to the purchaser at the time of delivery of such dressed hog or wholesale pork cut a written statement setting forth the date thereof, the name and address of the buyer and seller; the descriptive name or style of the dressed hog; the descriptive name of the wholesale cut, including the grade of sliced bacon; the weight range or ranges of dressed hogs and wholesale pork cuts as named and defined in this regulation; the quantity (number of pieces in each weight range) of any items including dressed hogs but excluding spareribs and Boston butts for which weight ranges are specified; the total weight of all items, including dressed hogs sold in each specified weight range; the total weights sold of each wholesale cut for which weight ranges are not specified; and the prices charged or received. Every person who sells dressed hogs to a certified dressed hog processor shall invoice such dressed hogs to the buyer by weight ranges set forth in the table in Schedule IV (a) (1) of Appendix B (§ 1364.36). Every person who sells dressed hogs to others than certified dressed hog processors shall invoice such dressed hogs to the buyer by weight ranges set forth in the table in Schedule IV (b) (1) of Appendix B (§ 1364.36). Dressed hogs falling in each such weight range shall be invoiced separately. No person shall sell hogs dressed otherwise than packer style or shipper style.

[Paragraph (c) added by Am. 1, 8 F.R. 544; amended by Am. 24, 10 F.R. 5371]

(d) On and after May 14, 1945, each person who processes for sale aged, dry cured products (as defined and priced in this regulation) shall prepare and keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect, a complete record showing: (1) the exact number of hams, shoulders, bellies, sides and bacon sides included in each lot of such products placed in cure, (2) the total green weight of each class of "aged, dry cured" products named in subparagraph (30) of § 1364.32 (c) included in each lot placed in cure, (3) the date of placing each such lot in cure, (4) the date of shipment of each sale made of any of such products, (5) the name and address of the purchaser, (6) the total shipped weight of each type of product sold to such purchaser, itemizing separately the shipped weights of each type of aged, dry cured product obtained from each curing lot as identified under the provisions of subparagraph (3) of this paragraph (d), and the number of pieces of hams, shoulders, bacon, sides and bacon sides obtained from each such curing lot included in the shipment.

[Paragraph (d) added by Am. 24, 10 F.R. 5371]

(e) On or before November 30, 1945, each person claiming a quota under the provisions of § 1364.22a (b) (1) shall file in duplicate with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., signed statements showing:

(1) If the quota is claimed under subdivision (i) or (ii) of § 1364.22a (b) (1):

(i) Name and address,

(ii) The base period used in determining a quota, and the volume claimed as a quota,

(iii) The total volume by weight of dressed hogs and/or wholesale pork cuts (derived from live hogs slaughtered elsewhere than in the area consisting of the States of California, Oregon and Washington) that was moved into such area in straight and/or mixed carload lots during the base period used,

(iv) The total volume by weight of the amount reported under foregoing subdivision (iii) which was moved directly to consignees other than the reporting person's branch house, subsidiary or financial affiliate located in the said area in straight and/or mixed carload lots.

(2) If the quota is claimed under subdivision (iii) or (iv) of § 1364.22a (b) (1):

(i) Name and address,

(ii) The base period used in determining a quota and the volume claimed as a quota,

(iii) The total volume by weight of dressed hogs and/or wholesale pork cuts (derived from live hogs slaughtered elsewhere than in the area consisting of the States of California, Oregon and Washington) which was received in straight and/or mixed carload lots in such area during the base period used.

(f) On or before the 10th day following the expiration of each three month period ending March 31, June 30, September 30, and December 31, each person claiming a quota, and each person for whom a special quota has been established under the provisions of § 1364.22a (b) (1) shall file with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., a quarterly report in duplicate showing:

(1) If the quota is claimed under subdivisions (i) or (ii) of § 1364.22a (b) (1):

(i) Name, address and date,

(ii) The total volume by weight of dressed hogs and/or wholesale pork cuts subject to the quota handled or moved during the quarterly period for which the report is filed,

(iii) The total volume by weight of the amount reported under foregoing subdivision (ii) hereof which was moved to its own branch houses, subsidiaries or financial affiliates.

(2) If the quota is claimed under subdivision (iii) or (iv) of § 1364.22a (b) (1):

(i) Name, address and date,

(ii) The total volume by weight of dressed hogs and/or wholesale pork cuts subject to the quota received and/or caused to be moved during the quarterly period for which the report is filed.

(3) If the quota is established under subdivision (v) of Section 1364.22a (b) (1):

(i) Name, address and date,

(ii) The total volume by weight of dressed hogs and/or wholesale pork cuts subject to the quota consigned and shipped to holders of quotas under subdivision (iii) or (iv) of Section 1364.22a (b) (1) during the quarterly period for which the report is filed.

(g) On and after November 10, 1945, each person claiming a quota under the provisions of subdivisions (i), (ii), (iii) or (iv) of Section 1364.22a (b) (1), and each person for whom a quota is established under the provisions of subdivision (v) of Section 1364.22a (b) (1), shall prepare and keep, and/or preserve and keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect, a complete record showing:

(1) A cumulative daily total for each current quarterly period ending March 31, June 30, September 30 and December 31 showing the total volume by weight of dressed hogs and/or wholesale pork cuts subject to quota that were shipped, transported, transferred or delivered, or caused to be shipped, transported, transferred or delivered during such period into the area consisting of the States of California, Oregon and Washington.

(2) The names and addresses of the parties and establishments involved in each transaction.

(3) The date of each transaction.

(4) The total volume by weight of dressed hogs and/or wholesale pork cuts subject to quota moved in each transaction.

[Paragraphs (e), (f) and (g) added by Am. 29, 10 F.R. 14023]

§ 1364.28 Enforcement. (a) Persons violating any provision of this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 148 are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, license suspension proceedings, and suits for treble damages provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

(b) Persons who have evidence of any violation of this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 148 or any price schedule, regulation, or order issued by the Office of Price Administration or of any acts or practices which constitute such a violation are urged to communicate with the nearest field or regional office of the Office of Price Administration or its principal office in Washington, D. C.

§ 1364.29 Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment of any provision of this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 148 may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1, issued by the Office of Price Administration.

[§ 1364.29 amended by Am. 15, 9 F.R. 1996]

[Note: Supplementary Order No. 28 (7 F.R. 9619; 8 F.R. 7256) provides for the filing of applications for adjustment or petitions for amendment based on a pending wage or salary increase requiring the approval of the National War Labor Board.]

§ 1364.30 Licensing. The provisions of Licensing Order No. 1,[a] licensing all persons who make sales under price control, are applicable to all sellers subject to this regulation or schedule. A seller's license may be suspended for violations of the license or of one or more applicable price schedules or regulations. A person whose license is suspended may not, during the period of suspension, make any sale for which his license has been suspended.

[§ 1364.30 amended by Supplementary Order No. 72, 8 F.R. 13244, effective 10-1-43]

§ 1364.31 Relation to other regulations. The provisions of this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 148 supersede the provisions of Maximum Price Regulation No. 421 with respect to first sales and deliveries of imported canned meat in the United States for which maximum prices are established by this regulation, if such sales are made by a person who did not manufacture or process such canned meat. The provisions of this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 148 supersede the provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation[b] with respect to all other sales and deliveries for which maximum prices are established by this regulation.

[§ 1364.31 amended by Am. 11, 8 F.R. 13296]

§ 1364.32 Definitions. (a) When used in this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 148, the term:

(1) "Person" means any individual, corporation, partnership, association or any other organized group of persons, or legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States or any agency thereof, or any other government, or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of any of the foregoing: Provided, That no punishment provided by this regulation shall apply to the United States or to any such government, political subdivision, or agency.

[a] 8 F.R. 13240.

[b] 9 F.R. 1385, 5169, 6106, 8150, 10193, 11274.

(2) "Dressed hogs" includes dressed pigs.

(3) "Wholesale pork cuts" means all cuts derived from the carcass of the hog or pig, dressed with head off and kidney and leaf fat out, including but not limited to the following:

(i) All cuts referred to in Appendix A (§ 1364.35);

(ii) Cuts rough or trimmed, bone in or boneless, whole or sliced;

(iii) Cuts fresh or green, fresh or green frozen, cured, smoked, cooked, baked, barbecued, dried, canned or ready-to-eat.

(iv) Cuts loose, wrapped or packed.

Fresh, green, fresh frozen, and green frozen cuts shall not be considered separate wholesale pork cuts. Each brand, type and container size of canned meat listed in Schedule I of Appendix A (§ 1364.35) shall be considered a separate wholesale pork cut. No uncanned sausage other than sausage made in accordance with government specifications and sold to war procurement agencies, shall be considered a wholesale pork cut.

[Subdivision (iii) and (iv) amended by Am. 24, 10 F.R. 5371]

[Subparagraph (3) as amended by Am. 1, 8 F.R. 544]

(4) "Central Price Zone" means the area described as follows: the entire state of Iowa and those parts of Wisconsin, Minnesota, South Dakota, Nebraska, Kansas, Missouri and Illinois which lie south of the 45th parallel, north of the 39th parallel, west of the 91st meridian and east of the 99th meridian, and including Minneapolis, Minnesota, and St. Paul, Minnesota.

(5) "Chicago Price Zone" means the area described as follows: those parts of Wisconsin and Illinois which lie south of the 45th parallel and east of the 91st meridian and including St. Louis, Missouri and St. Louis County, Missouri.

(6) "Sales at retail" mean sales to individuals for consumption by themselves or their families off the seller's premises and/or sales to retailers or purveyors of meals to the extent permitted under the provisions of Maximum Price Regulation No. 336, Maximum Price Regulation No. 355 or Maximum Price Regulation No. 394.

[Subparagraph (6) amended by Am. 1 and Am. 30]

(7) "Local delivery" means:

(i) Delivery otherwise than by rail commencing at the seller's place of business, or, in the case of car routes, at the car route unloading point, and continuing to the buyer's store door or warehouse; or

(ii) Delivery by rail or rail and truck, commencing at the seller's place of business and continuing to the buyer's store door or warehouse. The seller, if he desires, may elect to treat a delivery under this subparagraph (ii) as not constituting a local delivery.

[Subparagraph (7) amended by Am. 4, 8 F.R. 7322; Am. 13, 8 F.R. 15609; and Am. 15, 9 F.R. 1996]

(8) "Similar", when used in the phrase "similar purchaser", refers to the type of purchaser to whom the same price customarily applied during the ninety day period prior to March 9, 1942.

(9) "Carload" means:

(i) A shipment by rail to a single delivery point of at least the minimum weight upon which the railroad carload rate from the point of shipment to the delivery point, as evidenced by the tariffs of railroad carriers, is based: Provided, That where the transportation charge for shipment of the lesser weight at the railroad carload rate would be lower than the transportation charge for such a shipment at the railroad less-than-carload rate, such lesser weight shall be considered a carload;

(ii) A shipment by motor truck or trucks to a single delivery point of 15,000 pounds or more as a single bulk sale transaction; and

(iii) Any single bulk sale transaction wherein the buyer takes delivery at the seller's place of business of 15,000 pounds or more.

[Subparagraph (9) amended by Am. 15, 9 F.R. 1996]

(10) "Peddler-truck sale" means a sale of dressed hogs or wholesale pork cuts from stock carried in a truck where the seller's first record of the transaction is made concurrently with the delivery of the product sold, except that prior orders may be taken by the driver of a truck who conducts his meat selling operations in accordance with the provisions of subdivision (i) of this § 1364.32 (a) (10). Peddler-truck sales may be made:

(i) By a person who purchases dressed hogs or wholesale pork cuts from a seller with whom he has no other financial affiliation or relationship; who takes delivery at his supplier's place of business, at a railroad unloading point or at a truck unloading point; and who does not sell or deal in meat in any manner other than to make sales out of a truck which he drives and which he either owns or rents, and which, if rented, has been used or replaces one which has been used by him for making such sales of meat since October 1, 1944; or

[Subparagraph (i) amended by Am. 30]

(ii) By a driver-salesman who makes all his sales of meat out of stock carried in a truck driven by him but owned by a person who used such truck (or the truck which it replaces) exclusively insofar as meat was transported therein or sold therefrom, for making this type of sale, during the month of March 1942.

[Subparagraph (10) amended by Am. 2, 8 F.R. 2922; and Am. 24, 10 F.R. 5371]

(11) "Shipping container" means a sealed box, sealed crate, sealed barrel or a sack and/or cloth wrapping, which becomes the property of the buyer upon delivery of the wholesale pork cuts therein contained, or a returnable container of solid wood or metal which must be of a type and size which the seller has customarily used in making delivery of wholesale pork cuts and must be carried into the buyer's place of business in making delivery of products packed therein.

[Subparagraph (11) added by Am. 1, 8 F.R. 544; amended by Am. 2, 8 F.R. 2922, and Am. 13, 8 F.R. 15609]

(12) "Certified dressed hog processor" means any person other than a war procurement agency who does not sell pork at retail except to his own employees or any person other than a war procurement agency who obtained more than half of his pork supply during the year 1941 by cutting up dressed hogs or hog carcasses: Provided, That no person may qualify as a certified dressed hog processor until he has (a) filed with a district, state or regional office of the Office of Price Administration an affidavit that he does not sell pork at retail except to his own employees or that he obtained more than half of his pork supply during the year 1941 by cutting up dressed hogs and hog carcasses, and (b) secured from such field office of the Office of Price Administration an endorsement, written on a duplicate copy of such affidavit, acknowledging that he has filed such an affidavit. (This reporting requirement has been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.)

[Subparagraph (12) added by Am. 1, 8 F.R. 544; amended by Am. 2, 8 F.R. 2922; and Am. 20, 10 F.R. 2095]

(13) "Wholesaler" means a person (other than a hotel supply house, a slaughterer or one who makes sales at retail) who processes no more than 25 percent of the total meat purchased by him during any current calendar month, who maintains and operates a separate selling establishment equipped with reasonable and adequate cooling and storage facilities in such a manner that the total amount of meats and meat by-products sold out of stock carried in such establishment constitutes not less than 90 percent of the total monthly poundage of all meats and meat by-products sold by him, who:

(i) Buys pork for resale in the form of dressed hogs and wholesale pork cuts, and who, during the thirty days immediately preceding November 8, 1944, did not make sales at retail, but did maintain and operate a separate selling establishment equipped with reasonable and adequate cooling or storage facilities through which he consummated the major portion of such resales; or

(ii) Engaged in the business of buying pork for resale in the form of dressed hogs and wholesale pork cuts during any three consecutive months in 1942, but did not make sales at retail, who discontinued such business during or after 1942, and who during the last thirty days of the operation of such business maintained and operated a separate selling establishment equipped with reasonable and adequate cooling and storage facilities through which he consummated the major portion of such resales, who reengages in the business of buying pork for resale in the form of dressed hogs and wholesale pork cuts.

[Subparagraph (13) added by Am. 1, 8 F.R. 544; amended by Am. 2, 8 F.R. 2922; and Am. 24, 10 F.R. 5371]

(14) "Lowest carload freight rate" means the lowest carload rail tariff applicable generally to the class of meat designated (fresh meat or packing house products): Provided, (i) That the general freight rate revisions occurring on or about May 15, 1943, shall apply only to sales made on and after June 1, 1943 and not to deliveries under contracts entered into prior to June 1, 1943; and (ii) That any other change in an applicable tariff shall apply only to sales and deliveries made after the effective date of such change.

[Subparagraph (14) added by Am. 4, 8 F.R. 7322]

(15) "Purveyor of meals" means:

(i) Any restaurant, hotel, cafe, cafeteria or establishment which purchases meats and where meals, food portions or refreshments are served for a consideration;

(ii) Any person operating an ocean going vessel, engaged in the transportation of cargo or passengers in foreign, coastwise or intercoastal trade, to the extent that meat is delivered to him as ship's stores for consumption aboard such vessel;

(iii) Any hospital, asylum, orphanage, prison or other similar institution which is operated by any federal, state or local government or agency thereof, except that no order placed by the Chicago Field Headquarters of the Army Quartermaster Corps or by any of the market centers of the Army Quartermaster Corps with any seller for delivery to an army, navy, marine or coast guard hospital, or to a prisoner-of-war installation, shall be considered a sale to a purveyor of meals.

[Subparagraph (iii) amended by Am. 30]

(iv) Any contract school (means and includes any person who is feeding pursuant to a written contract with any agency of the United States, personnel of the armed services of the United States, fed under the command of a commissioned or noncommissioned officer or other authorized representative of the armed services of the United States.)

[Subdivisions (ii), (iii) and (iv), formerly, (iii); (iv) and (v) redesignated and former (ii) revoked by Am. 19, 10 F.R. 703. Subdivision (iv), formerly (v), added by Am. 15, 9 F.R. 1996]

[Subparagraph (15) added by Am. 6, 8 F.R. 7826]

(16) "Intermediate distributor" means a person who is not a "wholesaler" or a "slaughterer" as defined in this § 1364.32 (a), whose business consists of the purchase of meat and its resale in the form of wholesale meat cuts which may be processed by him, who utilizes reasonable and adequate cooling and storage facilities in the conduct of such business in such a manner that during each current calendar month the total amount of meat and meat by-products sold by him out of stock carried in such facilities constitutes not less than 90% of the total poundage of such products sold by him during that month.

(17) "Hotel supply house" means a seller who meets the specifications set forth in §§ 1364.455 (b) (1), and 1364.470 (b) (1) of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 169 or § 1364.160 (a) (5) of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 239.

(18) "Slaughterer" means a person who owns or controls a slaughtering plant or slaughtering facilities, or is owned or controlled by a person who owns or controls a slaughtering plant or slaughtering facilities.

[Subparagraph (18) amended by Am. 30]

(19) "Licensed ship supplier" means any person who has been licensed by the War Food Administration under the provisions of Food Distribution Regulation No. 3, as amended (issued October 8, 1943) to sell and/or deliver meats and other food products to ship operators.

(20) "War procurement agency" includes the War Department, the Department of the Navy, the United States Maritime Commission, the Lend-Lease Section of the Procurement Division of the Treasury Department, the Marine Corps, the Coast Guard, the War Shipping Administration, or any agency of the foregoing.

(21) "Own or control" means to own or control directly or indirectly a partnership equity or in excess of 10% of any class of outstanding stock, or to have made loans or advances in excess of 5% of the other person's monthly sales.

(22) "Slaughtering plant" means any plant equipped and used for the commercial killing of calves, cattle, lambs, sheep or hogs, or which, if currently unused for that purpose, can be reconverted to such use without material alteration or delay.

(23) "Slaughtering facilities" means any equipment designed and used for the commercial killing of calves, cattle, lambs, sheep or hogs, or which, if currently unused for that purpose, can be reconverted to such use without material alteration or delay.

[Subparagraphs (16), through (23), inclusive, added by Am. 24, 10 F.R. 5371]

(24) "Great Lakes marine supplier" means a person operating a selling establishment, other than a hotel supply house, from which he is engaged in the buying of pork for resale in the form of wholesale pork cuts and sausage to an operator or operators of a lake vessel or vessels, and who during the calendar year of 1943 sold or delivered to such buyers for consumption aboard such lake vessel or vessels not less than 25 percent of the total volume of meats and meat products sold or delivered from such selling establishment.

(25) "Operator of a lake vessel" means any person who owns or operates a lake vessel or vessels, other than a passenger boat, engaged in shipping upon the Great Lakes, and who in operating such vessel or vessels purchases or receives meats from a Great Lakes marine supplier for consumption aboard such vessel or vessels.

[Subparagraph (24) and (25) added by Am. 25, 10 F.R. 6244]

(26) (i) A "Group I ship chandler means a licensed ship supplier (as defined in § 1364.32 (a) (19)) (a) who does not engage in the fabrication of meats of any kind and who does not own or control in whole or in substantial part any slaughtering plant or facilities and who is not owned or controlled in whole or in substantial part by a person who owns or controls in whole or in substantial part a slaughtering plant or facilities; (b) who has been allotted a ship store's quota under War Food Order No. 74 covering the sale of each of the following products in addition to meats: butter, cheese, canned fruit and fruit juices, and canned vegetables and vegetable juices; (c) who is currently engaged in the business of selling a complete line of foods and other products to ship operators, including but not limited to meats, poultry, butter, cheese, eggs, fluid milk, canned goods, dry groceries, fresh fruits and vegetables and fresh or frozen fish, and (d) whose "annual total dollar volume" of sales is $500,000.00 or more. (The term "annual total dollar volume" is explained in subdivision (iii) below).

(ii) A "Group II ship chandler" means a licensed ship supplier as defined in § 1364.32 (a) (19) who has met all the requirements of subdivision (i) hereof for a Group I ship chandler except that his "annual total dollar volume" of sales shall be less than $500,000.00 and who has filed a statement with the appropriate regional office of the Office of Price Administration, signed by him and approved by the appropriate district food control representative of the War Shipping Administration located in the City of New York, New Orleans or San Francisco, as the case may be, setting forth that he meets each of the requirements of a "Group II ship chandler" as defined herein, and setting forth in addition his annual total dollar volume of sales. The selling addition provided in Schedule III (e) (8) of § 1364.35 for a "Group II ship chandler" shall not be taken until this statement has been filed as provided herein.

(iii) (a) The term "annual total dollar volume" means the total dollar volume of sales made by a ship chandler during the calendar or fiscal year 1944, whichever he used for filing his Federal Income Tax return. All sales, whether of food or not, as shown on the books shall be used. The ship chandler's Federal Income Tax return shall be used to obtain the dollar volume of sales. (b) If the ship chandler was engaged in business during only a part of the fiscal or calendar year of 1944, he shall divide his total dollar volume of sales from the time he began operations up to and including June 8, 1945, by the number of weeks he was in business. This will represent the weekly average dollar volume of sales. This figure shall be multiplied by 52 and the result shall be deemed his "annual total dollar volume." (c) If the ship chandler started business after June 8,

1945, he shall be deemed to be a "Group II ship chandler." However, after he has been in operation for 3 months, he shall determine again what class he is in by taking his total dollar volume of sales for the three month period and multiplying it by 4. The result will be his "annual total dollar volume."

[Subparagraph (26) added by Am. 27, 10 F.R. 6948]

(b) When used in this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 148 the term:

(1) "Ready to serve without further heating" refers to pork products which have been heated so that all parts of the pork muscle contained therein have reached a temperature of at least 148° F. by a method of heating and under conditions known to insure such result.

[Subparagraph (1) amended by Am. 2, 8 F.R. 2922]

(2) "Baked" refers to a pork product which (i) has been heated in an oven for sufficient time to cause the formation of a brown crust on the surface, the rendering out of the surface fat, the caramelization of sugar, if applied, and the formation of all other characteristics of a baked product; (ii) is ready to serve without further heating; and (iii) the lean meat of which weighs not in excess of 80% of its weight in the green state, or the moisture content of which is not in excess of 3 times the weight of protein minus the weight of sodium chloride as chemically tested.

(3) "Barbecued" refers to a product which (i) has been covered with a spiced sauce and cooked, either in a smokehouse or oven, sufficiently to assume the characteristics of cooked meat; (ii) is ready to serve without further heating; and (iii) the lean meat of which weighs not in excess of 80% of its weight in the green state or the moisture content of which is not in excess of 3 times the weight of protein minus the weight of sodium chloride as chemically tested.

(4) "Cooked" refers to a pork product which (i) has been heated, otherwise than in the smokehouse or by barbecuing or baking, for sufficient time to assume the characteristics of a cooked product; (ii) is ready to serve without further heating; and (iii) the lean meat of which weighs not in excess of 85% of its weight in the green state, or the moisture content of which is not in excess of 3.2 times the weight of protein minus the weight of sodium chloride as chemically tested, except that cooked hams, shoulders and picnics, bone in or boneless, but not fatted, listed in items 1, 3, 4, 5, 12 and 13 of Schedule I (a) of § 1364.35 may have a lean meat weight not in excess of 90% of the weight in the green state, or a moisture content in the lean meat not in excess of 3.4 times the weight of protein minus the weight of sodium chloride as chemically tested.

[Subparagraph (4) amended by Am. 2, 8 F.R. 2922; Am. 16, 9 F.R. 3083; and Am. 19, 10 F.R. 703]

(5) "Ready-to-eat" refers to a pork product which (i) has been heated in the smokehouse for sufficient time to assume the characteristics of a cooked product; (ii) is ready to serve without further heating; and (iii) the lean meat of which weighs not in excess of 90 percent of its weight in the green state, or the moisture content of which is not in excess of 3.4 times the weight of protein minus the weight of sodium chloride as chemically tested.

On and after January 3, 1946, each piece of ready-to-eat wholesale pork cut stuffed in a casing must have the words "ready-to-eat" printed or stamped on such casing in letters not less than ¼ inch in height, at least once for each 1½ inches of the length of the wholesale pork cut. It is not necessary to print or stamp any identification on the meat when such casing is used.

On and after January 3, 1946, each piece of ready-to-eat wholesale pork cut not stuffed in a casing must be identified as follows:

(i) Ham, skin on, must be branded or stamped "ready-to-eat" in letters not less than ⅜ of an inch in height appearing at least once in each 1½ inches of the length from the stifle joint to the butt, and at least once, using the same words in the same size letters on the skin surface on the shank end of the ham (above the stifle joint toward the hock joint).

(ii) Hams, skinned, must be branded or stamped "ready-to-eat" in letters not less than ⅜ of an inch in height appearing at least once in each 1½ inches of the length of the fat surface from the stifle joint to the butt, and at least once, using the same words in the same size letters on the skin surface on the shank end of the ham (above the stifle joint toward the hock joint): Provided, That in lieu of branding or stamping the fat surface, a printed tissue paper strip (Kemex or similar material) bearing the words "ready-to-eat" in letters not less than ¼ of an inch in height and appearing at least once in each 1½ inches of the length of such fat surface of the wholesale pork cut may be firmly affixed thereon.

(iii) Boston butts must be branded or stamped "ready-to-eat" in letters not less than ⅜ of an inch in height at least once for each 1½ inches of the length of such wholesale pork cut: Provided, That in lieu of branding or stamping the fat surface, a printed tissue paper strip (Kemex or similar material) bearing the words "ready-to-eat" in letters not less than ¼ of an inch in height and appearing at least once in each 1½ inches of the length of such fat surface of the wholesale pork cut may be firmly affixed thereon.

(iv) Half skinned picnics must be branded or stamped "ready-to-eat" in letters not less than ⅜ of an inch in height appearing at least once in each 1½ inches of the length of the fat surface of the picnic, and at least once on the skin surface of half skinned picnics: Provided, That in lieu of branding or stamping the fat surface, a printed tissue paper strip (Kemex or similar material) bearing the words "ready-to-eat" in letters not less than ¼ of an inch in height and appearing at least once in each 1½ inches of the length of such fat surface of the picnic may be firmly affixed thereon.

(v) Picnics, skin on, must be branded or stamped "ready-to-eat" in letters not less than ⅜ of an inch in height appearing at least once on the shank half and at least once on the butt half of such cut.

(vi) Canadian bacon must be branded or stamped "ready-to-eat" in letters not less than ⅜ of an inch in height appearing at least once in every 1½ inches of the length of such cut: Provided, That in lieu of branding or stamping the fat and meat surface, a printed tissue paper strip (Kemex or similar material) bearing the words "ready-to-eat" in letters not less than ¼ of an inch in height and appearing at least once in each 1½ inches of the length of such fat and meat surface may be firmly affixed thereon.

(vii) Boneless butts must be branded or stamped "ready-to-eat" in letters not less than ⅜ of an inch in height appearing at least once in every 1½ inches of the length of such cut: Provided, That in lieu of branding or stamping the fat and meat surface, a printed tissue paper strip (Kemex or similar material) bearing the words "ready-to-eat" in letters not less than ¼ of an inch in height and appearing at least once in each 1½ inches of the length of such fat and meat surface of the wholesale pork cut may be firmly affixed thereon.

(viii) The identifications of "ready-to-eat" wholesale pork cuts hereinbefore required may be accompanied by the name of the manufacturer, his brand name and his trade mark. The prices for all "ready-to-eat" wholesale pork cuts not stuffed in casings include an allowance for wrapping such cuts in moisture resistant paper. Whenever used, such moisture resistant paper wrappings must have the words "ready-to-eat" in letters not less than ¼ of an inch in height prominently printed or stamped thereon one or more times. In the event any "ready-to-eat" wholesale pork cut not stuffed in casings is sold not wrapped in moisture resistant paper bearing the printed or stamped words "ready-to-eat" as hereinbefore set forth, the seller shall deduct $0.50 per hundredweight from the applicable maximum price for such cut specified in Schedule I of Section 1364.35 as required by Schedule II (d) of § 1364.35.

[Subparagraph (5) amended by Am. 24, 10 F.R. 5371; Am. 28, 10 F.R. 7849 and Am. 30]

(6) "Chemically tested" means tested by the methods described in Official and Tentative Methods of Analysis of the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists, 5th Edition, 1940:

Salt (sodium chloride)	Ch. XXVIII, para. 2.
Moisture	Ch. XXVIII, para. 5.
Protein	6.25 x wt. of total nitrogen, Ch. XXVIII, para. 8.

(7) "Dried" refers to a product from which moisture has been evaporated so as to produce a yield from green weight not in excess of the yield indicated for such product in Schedule I (d) of § 1364.35. Yield, for the purpose of compliance with this requirement, shall be determined by dividing the final weight of the product by the green weight of the meat used and expressing the quotient as a percentage. The lean meat of aged, dry cured hams, Prosciutti hams, aged, dry cured shoulders, shall have a total moisture content not in excess of 65 percent of such moisture in the green state or not in excess of 2.5 times the weight of protein minus the weight of sodium chloride as chemically tested. The lean meat of aged, dry cured sides, aged, dry cured bacon and aged, dry cured jowls shall have a moisture content not in excess of 3 times the weight of protein minus the weight of sodium chloride as chemically tested.

[Subparagraph (7) amended by Am. 16, 9 F.R. 3083; and Am. 17, 9 F.R 4099]

(8) "Smoked" refers to a product which has been smoked by the actual burning of hardwood or hardwood sawdust in such manner as (i) to impart a smoked flavor to the meat, and (ii) to cause the finished weight to be no more than the green weight and to cause the following smoking and hanging shrinks from the weights at the beginning of the smoking process:

Wholesale pork cut	Minimum smoking and hanging shrink (percent)
Regular and skinned ham	10
Picnic and shoulder	10
Boston butt	8
Boneless butt (cottage butt)	12
Belly (dry cured, semi-dry cured or sweet-pickle cured)	10
Brisket	12
Pork loin	10
Dry salt belly	7
Dry salt fat back	7
Jowl and plate	8
Spareribs	15
Hock, knuckle, and tail	7
Other smoked cuts	7

(9) "Boneless" refers to a product from which all of the bone has been removed.

(10) "Fatted" refers to a product from which the fat has been removed to within ½ inch of the lean.

(11) "Process" for the purposes of this regulation means to cure, smoke, cook, bake, barbecue, prepare as "ready-to-eat", or dry any meat or meat by-product, and includes the manufacture of any meat or meat by-product into sausage or canned meats.

[Subparagraph (11) added by Am. 24, 10 F.R. 5371 and amended by Am. 30]

(c) When used in this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 148 the following names of wholesale pork cuts refer to cuts meeting the following minimum specifications:

(1) "Grade A sliced bacon": Bacon sliced from dry sugar-cured or semi-dry sugar-cured, fancy-trimmed square-cut, seedless whole bellies, from which the rind has been removed, in whole slices not over 9½ inches in length and not over 2¼ inches or less than ¾ of an inch in width, containing no more than two part slices to the package.

(2) "Grade B sliced bacon": Bacon sliced from dry sugar-cured, semi-dry sugar-cured or sweet pickle sugar-cured whole bellies, from which the rind has been removed, in whole slices not over 11 inches in length and not over 3 inches or less than ¾ of an inch in width, containing no more than two part slices to the package.

(3) "Grade C sliced bacon": All bacon sliced from oily bacon bellies, and all other bacon sliced from bellies which will not qualify as Grade A or Grade B sliced bacon, exclusive of ends and broken pieces.

(4) "Regular ham": Hams cut off from the hog carcass not less than 2¼ inches nor more than 2¾ inches from the exposed end of the aitch bone, properly faced, with the shank cut off at or above the hock joint, with loose and gut fat removed from the face and pelvic cavity, with the cushion side well rounded and no excessive flank.

(5) "Skinned ham": Hams cut as regular hams but with the skin removed to leave a collar covering not more than 40% of the length of the ham, with the fat beveled back at least 3 inches from the lean meat at the butt, neatly rounded and beveled on flank and cushion, with not over 1¼ inches of fat left on any portion of the ham from which the skin has been removed.

(6) "Regular or skinned ham, short shank": Regular or skinned hams from which the shank has been cut off 2½ inches shorter than in the regular or skinned hams.

(7) "Regular or skinned ham, shankless": Regular or skinned hams from which the shank (hock) has been cut off not more than 3 inches below the stifle joint (toward the foot).

[Subparagraph (7) amended by Am. 26, 10 F.R. 6233]

(8) "Regular picnics": Picnics cut from shoulders not less than one rib wide in such a manner as to leave not less than 1 inch or more than 2½ inches of blade bone in the picnic, closely trimmed, properly faced, with the lip and breast flap removed, well rounded and with fat properly beveled on the butt end, with the foot cut off at or above the upper knee joint (toward the body of the hog).

(9) "Regular picnic, short shank": Regular picnics from which the shank has been cut off 2 inches from the arm pit and parallel to the knee joint.

(10) "Regular picnic, shankless": Regular picnics from which the shank has been cut off close to the breast and parallel to the knee joint.

(11) "Regular picnic, half skinned": Regular picnics from which the skin has been removed from at least 2½ inches of the butt end of weights 8 pounds or less and from at least 3 inches of the butt end of weights over eight pounds and beveled from the beginning of the skinned portion to the lean meat at the butt end.

[Subparagraphs (8) and (11) amended by Am. 19, 10 F.R. 703]

(12) "Rough shoulder": An untrimmed shoulder with foot and jowl cut off and neck bone left in or out.

(13) "Regular shoulder": Shoulders cut not less than one rib wide, with the breast flap taken off, the jowl removed close to the body of the shoulder and the neck bone removed, and with the foot cut off at or above the upper knee joint (toward the body of the hog).

[Subparagraph (13) amended by Am. 19, 10 F.R. 703; and Am. 24, 10 F.R. 5371]

(14) "Skinned shoulders": Shoulders cut as regular shoulders, but with skin taken off within 4 inches of the base of the shank, neatly beveled on the edges, and with not over ¾ inch of fat left on any portion of the shoulder from which the skin has been removed.

(15) "Regular or skinned shoulder, short shank": Regular or skinned shoulders from which the shank has been cut off 2 inches from the arm pit and parallel to the knee joint.

(16) "Regular or skinned shoulder, shankless": Regular or skinned shoulders from which the shank has been cut off close to the breast and parallel to the knee joint.

(17) "Blade butt or blade bone": Blade bones and lean meat taken from a regular plate in converting it to a clear plate.

(18) "Boston butt": Butts the surplus fat of which has been removed to within ½ inch of the lean meat on all portions of the butt and which are neatly beveled on the edges.

(19) "Boneless butt, cellar trim": Boneless butts from which the lip has been removed and which are trimmed smooth on all edges.

(20) "Regular pork loins": Loins from which all excess fat over the tenderloin has been removed and the fat on the back of which does not exceed ½ inch in thickness.

(21) "Regular pork loins, bladeless": Regular pork loins from which the whole shoulder blade bone has been removed.

(22) "Boneless pork loins or Canadian bacon": The boneless eye-muscle only, which has been separated from the other parts of the pork loin at the natural muscle seam. The fat shall not exceed ¼ inch in thickness.

(23) "Fat back pork": Pork derived from the fat back of well finished hogs and cut into pieces about 6 inches square.

(24) "Bean pork": Jowl butts, neatly trimmed on the face and squared on the edges.

(25) "Clear plate pork": Clear plates, free of bone, reasonably free of lean, and squared on the neck side.

(26) "Regular pork trimmings": Trimmings having not in excess of 50% trimmable fat.

(27) "Special lean pork trimmings": Pork trimmings having not in excess of 15 percent trimmable fat.

(28) "Extra lean pork trimmings": Trimmings having not in excess of 5 percent trimmable fat.

(29) "Blade meat": Meat removed from blade bones and having not in excess of 5 percent trimmable fat.

(30) "Aged, dry cured": Products which have been dry cured and then hung for smoking and drying. The combined period for such curing and hanging for each type of aged, dry cured product listed herein shall constitute not less than the time indicated in the following table, and the total of the cured weights of all pieces of each type of aged, dry cured product obtained from any curing lot after completion of the combined curing and hanging process shall not exceed the yield specified in Schedule I (d).

Item:	Length of combined curing and hanging period (months)
(i) Aged, dry cured hams	5
(ii) Aged, dry cured shoulders	4
(iii) Aged, dry cured bacon	3
(iv) Aged, dry cured sides (packer)	3
(v) Aged, dry cured sides (country)	3
(vi) Aged, dry cured bacon sides (boneless)	3
(vii) Aged, dry cured bacon sides (spareribs in)	3
(viii) Aged, dry cured jowls	2

[Subparagraph (30) amended by Am. 16, 9 F.R. 3083; Am. 19, 10 F.R. 703; and Am. 24, 10 F.R. 5371]

(31) "Bellies, square cut and seedless": Boneless bellies made from smooth barrows, gilts, or sows and trimmed square on all edges except that the flank may be cut on a bias of not to exceed 1 inch, and if derived from gilts or sows, cut down until seed is removed, except for slight traces of firm white or pink seed. This term does not include bellies of 12 lbs. and under, which are less than ⅜ of an inch in thickness, bellies of 12 lbs. and up, which are less than ¾ of an inch in thickness, nor bellies damaged by scribing, or cut extremely long and narrow, or extremely wide and short, or 1¼ inches beyond the scribe mark, which bellies shall be deemed substandard.

(32) "Bellies, fancy trimmed": Boneless bellies of high quality free from skin cuts, hair roots, rough skin and bruises, which meet all requirements for square-cut and seedless bellies except that all traces of seed must be removed, and the cartilage must be removed from the brisket end and they must be practically free of buttons.

(33) "Bellies, fancy trimmed with brisket off": All fancy trimmed bellies from which the brisket has been cut off behind the shoulder crease.

(34) "Clear bellies, dry salt trim": Bellies reasonably square-cut without excessive boot-jack and boneless.

(35) "Rib bellies, dry salt trim": Bellies cut like clear bellies, dry salt trim, but with the spareribs left in.

(36) "Clear bellies, dry salt square cut trim": Boneless bellies with the boot-jack removed and squarely trimmed on all sides.

(37) "Hams, skin on, long cut bone in": Hams cut off from the hog carcass at a point not to exceed three inches beyond the end of the saucer bone (slip bone), with the shank cut off not to exceed one inch below the hock joint, with loose gut fat removed from the face and pelvic cavity, with the cushion side well rounded and no excessive flank.

[Subparagraph 37 amended by Am. 30]

(38) "Dried jowl": includes the lower jawbone with the teeth removed but having attached to it the head meat, tongue, lip and jaws of the pig or hog.

[Subparagraph (38), formerly (39), added by Am. 16, 9 F.R. 3083; redesignated by Am. 17, 9 F.R. 4099]

(39) (i) "Dried side (packer cured)": That part of the dressed hog (side) which remains after removal of the ham, shoulder, and backbone (chine and finger bone). In removing the backbone care should be exercised to avoid scoring or leaving any part of the loin muscle on the backbone. If derived from sows, all milky, black or red seed shall be removed. The bootjack shall be trimmed reasonably square except that the flank end may be cut on a slight bias to allow for shrink in curing and drying. Any portion of the shoulder blade bone remaining in the pork loin must be removed.

[Subparagraph (i) amended by Am. 30]

(ii) "Dried side (country cured)": That part of the dressed hog (side) which remains after removal of the ham, shoulder and country backbone; the ham must be long cut; the shoulder must be cut from the side so that all the brisket is removed from the belly; and the country backbone must be removed in accordance with the requirements of subparagraphs (50) of this § 1364.32 (c). [Note: "Dried sides (country cured)" may be sold only if produced by producers of "country backbones". (See note to § 1364.32 (c) (50)).]

[Subparagraph (39), formerly (40); added by Am. 16, 9 F.R. 3083; redesignated by Am. 17, 9 F.R. 4099; amended by Am. 24, 10 F.R. 5371]

(40) "Cappicola butt": A pork product made from whole cured boneless shoulder butts, cellar trimmed, spiced and stuffed in natural or artificial casings; (i) which has been heated for sufficient time to assume the characteristics of a cooked product; (ii) which is ready to serve without further heating; (iii) and which has a finished weight not in excess of 85 percent of the green weight of the boneless butts used and the moisture content of which does not exceed 3.7 times the weight of the protein minus the weight of the sodium chloride as chemically tested.

[Subparagraph (40) added by Am. 17, 9 F.R. 4099; amended by Am. 19, 10 F.R. 703]

(41) "Belly squares, dry salt trim": Belly squares (or strips) made by cutting dry salt trim bellies at right angles to the length (crosswise) of the bellies, making two or more pieces not less than 4 inches in width measuring from the narrowest part.

(42) "Feet, short cut": Front or hind pigs feet. Front feet are cut from the shoulder at or above the upper knee joint (toward the body of the hog); hind feet are cut from the ham at or above the hock joint (toward the body of the hog), with the exposed part of the gambrel cord (tendon) entirely removed.

(43) "Feet, long cut": Front pigs feet which have been cut from the shoulder at a point not more than two inches from the arm pit and parallel to the knee joint.

(44) "Hocks". (i) "Hocks, shoulder": the lower part of the foreshank, which is removed in making shankless shoulders or picnics. The foot is to be removed at or above the upper knee joint toward the body of the hog.

(ii) "Hocks, ham, from overseas hams": the lower part of the ham which is removed in making overseas hams in accordance with CQD specifications; the foot is to be cut off at or above the hock joint (toward the body of the hog) and the hock is to be removed from the ham by cutting through the stifle joint, deflecting the cut at an angle of approximately 45 degrees toward the exposed flank.

(iii) "Hocks, ham, from shankless regular or skinned hams": the foot is to be cut off at or above the hock joint (toward the body of the hog) and the hock is to be removed from the ham by cutting through the shank not more than three inches below the stifle joint (toward the foot).

[Subparagraph (44) amended by Am. 26, 10 F.R. 6233]

(45) "Knuckles": The lower part of the foreshank (or hind shank), which is removed in making short shank shoulders, picnics or hams. The knuckle removed from shoulders or picnics shall have the foot removed at or above the upper knee joint (toward the body of the hog); the knuckle removed from the hams shall have the foot removed at or above the hock joint (toward the body of the hog).

(46) "Jowl butts": Whole jowls, trimmed free of blood clots and ragged pieces.

(47) "Square jowl butts": Whole jowls which have been pressed or flattened, trimmed square on all edges, face side faced smoothly, and trimmed free from blood clots.

(48) "Neck fat-skin on": Trimmed the same as jowl butts except that part pieces may be included.

(49) "Neck fat-skinned": The same as neck fat-skin on, except that all skin shall be removed.

(50) "Country back bone": Back bone cut from the entire length of the hog carcass, in a reasonably straight line, starting the cuts on each side of the tail bone, and continuing the cuts through the ribs on each side of the chine bone, to the shoulder end of the carcass. All the meat adhering to the back bone in making this cut shall be left attached. The fat attached to the back bone shall not exceed ¾ inch in thickness at any point. All loose fat and skin shall be removed.

Note: This item may be sold at wholesale levels only if produced by bona-fide farmers who do their own slaughtering as an incident to their agricultural operations, and who do not engage in commercial slaughtering either on a full or part-time basis.

[Subparagraph (41) through (50), inclusive, added by Am. 19, 10 F.R. 703]

(51) "Dried bacon side": Bellies made from smooth barrows, gilts or sows as described in subparagraph (31) of this § 1364.32 (c); sides to be trimmed square cut and seedless when green. Removal of the spareribs is optional other than in instances where sow sides require excessive trimming to remove the seed. In these latter cases the spareribs must be removed. Where the spareribs is removed the breastbone also must be removed, making the side boneless except for cartilage remaining after such removal.

(52) "Aged, dry cured bacon": Bacon made from bellies meeting the specifications for "bellies, fancy trimmed with brisket off" as described in subparagraph (33) of this § 1364.32 (c); bellies to be trimmed square cut and seedless when green; and which have been cured and hung for smoking and drying in accordance with the requirements of subparagraph (30) of this § 1364.32 (c).

(53) "Aged, dry cured shoulders": Shoulders meeting the specifications for "regular shoulder" as described in subparagraph (13) of this § 1364.32 (c) except that the foot may be cut off at or above the lower knee joint (toward the body of the hog) and except that the shoulder shall be cut from the side so that it is not less than three ribs wide and all of the brisket is removed from the belly, and which have been cured and hung for smoking and drying in accordance with the requirements of subparagraph (30) of this § 1364.32 (c).

(54) "Aged, dry cured hams": Hams meeting the specifications for "hams,—skin on, long cut, bone in", as described in subparagraph (37) of this § 1364.32 (c) which have been cured and hung for smoking and drying in accordance with the requirements of subparagraph (30) of this § 1364.32 (c).

[Subparagraphs (51) through (54), inclusive, added by Am. 24, 10 F.R. 5371 and amended by Am. 30]

[Paragraph (c) amended by Am. 2, 8 F.R. 2922; Am. 12, 8 F.R. 15191; Am. 14, 8 F.R. 16426; and Am. 15, 9 F.R. 1996]

(d) When used in this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 148, the term:

(1) "Packer style" means a dressed hog, scalded or skinned, with the head off, kidneys and leaf fat out, and ham facings off.

(2) "Shipper style" means a dressed hog, scalded or skinned, with the head on, kidneys and leaf fat in, and ham facings on.

[Subparagraphs (1) and (2) amended by Am. 30]

(3) "Current Chicago live hog price" of hogs other than oily hogs, stags and boars means the highest price quoted, for live hogs of the applicable weight, in the current Chicago Daily Livestock Market Report of the Agricultural Marketing Administration of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, minus an amount $0.30 less than the current live hundredweight subsidy rate. "Current Chicago live hog price" of oily hogs means the price determined by deducting $1.00 per hundredweight and an additional amount $0.30 less than the current live hundredweight subsidy rate from the highest price quoted, for live butcher hogs of the applicable weight, in such current report. "Current Chicago live hog price" of stags means the price determined by deducting $1.50 per hundredweight and an additional amount $0.30 less than the current live hundredweight subsidy rate from the highest price quoted, for live sows or butcher hogs of the applicable weight, in such current report. "Current Chicago live hog price" of boars means the price determined by deducting $4.00 per hundredweight and an additional amount $0.30 less than the current live hundredweight subsidy rate from the highest price quoted, for live sows or butcher hogs of the applicable weight, in such current report. As to all shipments of dressed hogs from points east of the 85th meridian, the current report shall be deemed to be that for the third market day preceding shipment of such dressed hogs. As to all shipments of dressed hogs from points west of the 109th meridian, the current report shall be deemed to be that for the fifth market day preceding such shipment. As to all shipments of dressed hogs from points east of the 109th meridian and west of the 95th meridian and from points east of the Mississippi River, south of Kentucky and west of the 85th meridian, the current report shall be deemed to be that of the second market day preceding such shipment. As to all shipments of dressed hogs from any other point, the current report shall be deemed to be that for the market day preceding such shipment.

[Subparagraph (3) amended by Am. 26, 10 F.R. 6233]

(4) "Designated transportation differential" means a transportation differential determined as provided in subparagraphs (1), (2), (3) and (4) of § 1364.22 (d).

[Paragraph (d) added by Am. 24, 10 F.R. 5371]

(d) For local delivery:

(1) Where the seller makes local delivery to the store door of a buyer who is not the operator of a lake vessel, and such delivery is not made by a peddler delivery as stated in subparagraphs (2) and (3) of this schedule III (d), he may add to the prices specified in Schedule I, the sum of $0.25 per hundredweight if such delivery is completed within 25 miles of the point from which such local delivery begins, or the sum of $0.50 per hundredweight if such delivery is completed over 25 miles from such point of beginning.

[Subparagraph (1) amended by Am. 30]

(2) Where a seller makes a peddler truck sale involving the delivery of not more than 100 pounds of wholesale pork cuts and not more than 250 pounds of meat in any one day to any buyer's store door, the seller may add one of the following:

[Above paragraph amended by Am. 30]

(i) $2.50 per hundredweight to the prices for processed wholesale pork cuts listed in Schedule I if the sale is a peddler truck sale as defined in subdivision (i) of § 1364.32 (a) (10) and the buyer's store is located in Zone 9 north of the Potomac River, as that zone is described in section 17 (a) of Maximum Price Regulation No. 336, "Retail Ceiling Prices of Pork Cuts and Certain Sausage Products"; or

(ii) $2.00 per hundredweight to the prices for all wholesale pork cuts listed in Schedule I if the sale is a peddler truck sale as defined in subdivision (i) of § 1364.32 (a) (10) and is not made subject to subdivision (i) of this Schedule III (d) (2).

(iii) $2.00 per hundredweight to the prices for all wholesale pork cuts listed in Schedule I if the seller is a wholesaler or an intermediate distributor, and the sale is a peddler truck sale as defined in subdivision (ii) of § 1364.32 (a) (10).

(iv) $1.50 per hundredweight to the prices for all wholesale pork cuts listed in Schedule I, if the sale is a peddler truck sale, as defined in subdivision (ii) of § 1364.32 (a) (10), made by a seller other than a wholesaler or an intermediate distributor.

[Subparagraphs (ii) and (iii) amended and (iv) added by Am. 30]

(3) Where a seller makes a peddler truck sale involving the delivery of more than 100 pounds of pork or more than 250 pounds of meat in any one day to any buyer's store door, the seller may add one of the following:

[Above subparagraph amended by Am. 30]

(i) $0.75 per hundredweight to the prices listed in Schedule I, if the sale is a peddler truck sale as defined in subdivision (i) of § 1364.32 (a) (10); or

(ii) $0.75 per hundredweight only if the seller is a wholesaler and the sale is a peddler truck sale as defined in subdivision (ii) of § 1364.32 (a) (10).

(iii) $0.50 per hundredweight only if the seller is an intermediate distributor and the sale is a peddler truck sale as defined in subdivision (ii) of § 1364.32 (a) (10).

(iv) $0.25 per hundredweight if the buyer's store door is located less than 25 miles from the seller's place of business, or $0.50 per hundredweight if the buyer's store door is located more than 25 miles from the seller's place of business, and if, in either event, the sale is a peddler truck sale as defined in subdivision (ii) of § 1364.32 (a) (10) made by a seller other than a wholesaler or an intermediate distributor.

[Subdivisions (ii) amended; and (iii) and (iv) added by Am. 30]

(e) One of the following amounts may be added to all wholesale pork cuts sold other than by peddler truck sale:

(1) To a purveyor of meals, other than a ship operator, by a slaughterer, and if such sale is not negotiated by a broker---- $2.00

(2) To a purveyor of meals other than a ship operator by one other than a slaughterer, and if such sale is not negotiated by a broker ---------- 2.50

[Subparagraphs (1) and (2) amended by Am. 30]

(3) To one other than a purveyor of meals by a wholesaler: Provided, however, That after May 29, 1945, no person shall charge the addition permitted by this Schedule III (e) (3) of § 1364.35 unless such person first shall have filed with the appropriate District Office of the Office of Price Administration a signed statement that the person is a wholesaler as defined in subdivisions (i) or (ii) of § 1364.32 (a) (13) and gives the address of his selling establishment. (The statement herein required must be filed on or after November 8, 1944, and the filing of such statement shall not preclude investigation by the Office of Price Administration of the facts relating to the nature of the business carried on by the person filing the statement, or any action or proceeding arising from such investigation. The statement required by this section may be combined with statements prepared pursuant to §§ 1364.454 (d) and 1364.469 (d) of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 169 and § 1364.170 (a) of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 239, for purposes of convenience) ---------- $0.75

(4) To one other than a purveyor of meals by an intermediate distributor---------- $0.50

(5) To a ship operator by a licensed ship supplier other than a slaughterer or other than a "Group II ship chandler"------- 2.00

(6) To a ship operator by a licensed ship supplier who is a slaughterer---------- 1.50

(7) To an operator of a lake vessel by a Great Lakes marine supplier--- 3.50

(8) To a ship operator by a "Group II ship chandler"---------- 3.00

(f) Other miscellaneous additions. (1) For breaking a box, barrel or other shipping container of wholesale pork cuts and delivering less than 30 pounds of the kinds of cuts contained therein loose to a single buyer, a peddler-truck seller, hotel supply house, intermediate distributor, Great Lakes marine supplier, wholesaler or packer branch house may add to the Schedule I prices for the cuts so delivered, in lieu of the shipping container addition permitted by paragraph (c) (1) of this Schedule III, an amount equal to such permitted shipping container addition. This provision does not apply to sales from branch houses located at or near the seller's packing plant.

(2) Where a sale other than to a purveyor of meals is made by a wholesaler, or where a sale to an operator of a lake vessel is made by a Great Lakes marine supplier, and such wholesaler or Great Lakes marine supplier has paid one of the additions permitted by subparagraph (1) of Schedule III (d) of § 1364.35, he may add such addition to his maximum prices for such products upon resale: Provided, That in no event may the total of all charges for local delivery exceed $0.50 per hundredweight. For the purposes of this subparagraph (2) a charge made for launch delivery under subparagraph (6) of this Schedule III (f) shall not be deemed a charge for local delivery.

(3) For freezing, in the seller's plant and not in a commercial warehouse, wholesale pork cuts sold by the seller to war procurement agencies or to licensed ship suppliers who are not slaughterers, packers or packers' branch houses, $0.10 per hundredweight.

(4) For freezer shrinkage on all fresh or green wholesale pork cuts, including "Wiltshires, scalded, frozen in sacks", sold frozen at frozen weights to war procurement agencies, to licensed ship suppliers or to ship operators, $0.25 per hundredweight.

(5) On a delivery of wholesale pork cuts by a Great Lakes marine supplier to the operator of a lake vessel, made in the seller's motor launch, such seller may add $0.75 per cwt. for such delivery, but except as provided in subparagraph (2) of Schedule III (f), a Great Lakes marine supplier otherwise may not charge the operator of a lake vessel for local delivery.

(6) Special wrapping and packaging additions for sliced bacon. [Note: The additions herein authorized and the appropriate shipping container additions authorized in Schedule III (c) (1) of this section both may be added either if shipping containers are used in addition to the packagings described herein, or if the packaging used under this subparagraph (6) meets the specifications for the shipping containers for which additions are authorized in Schedule III (c) (1) of this section.]

(i) For ½ lb., 1 lb., or 1½ lb. layers of sliced bacon packaged in units of not more than 12 pounds, $0.25 per cwt.

(ii) For sliced bacon in ½ lb., 1 lb. or 1½ lb. cartons, $0.75 per cwt. If bacon so packed is further packaged in units of not more than 12 pounds, the total addition for all packaging of such units except shipping containers shall not exceed $1.00 per cwt.

(iii) For completely enclosing sliced bacon in ½ lb., 1 lb., or 1½ lb. cellophane and/or parchment packages, $0.75 per cwt. If bacon so completely enclosed is further packaged in units of not more than 12 pounds, the total addition for all packaging of such units, except shipping containers, shall not exceed $1.00 per cwt.

[Subparagraph (6) added by Am. 30]

(g) Special additions in lieu of transportation differentials. Only on wholesale pork cuts purchased from War Shipping Administration stockpiles and delivered to a licensed ship supplier in conformity with the provisions of subparagraph (3) of § 1364.22 (e), such licensed ship supplier, upon resale to a ship operator, may charge in lieu of the appropriate transportation differential authorized in § 1364.22 (d) an amount not in excess of the transportation differential included in the invoiced price paid by the licensed ship supplier for such wholesale pork cuts at the point where shipment to him originated, plus the charges paid directly to the railroad for delivery of such shipment.

§ 1364.36 Appendix B—Schedules IV, V and VI—Dressed hogs and slaughtering services. No person shall sell hogs dressed otherwise than packer style or shipper style. The maximum price for each dressed hog sold shall be the base price for the type of hog, style of dress, weight range, and class of buyer, listed in Schedule IV of this § 1364.36 (Appendix B), plus the applicable permitted additions, if any, specified in Schedule V of this § 1364.36 (Appendix B). The maximum price for slaughtering services shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Schedule VI of this § 1364.36 (Appendix B).

SCHEDULE IV—DRESSED HOG APPLICABLE BASE PRICES

(a) Sales to certified dressed hog processors. The applicable maximum base price for each hog sold to a certified dressed hog processor shall be determined by reference to the "Table of weight ranges and seasonal denominators" set forth in subparagraph (1) hereof, and calculated in accordance with the pricing instructions set forth in subparagraph (2) hereof.

(2) Pricing instructions. Ascertain the weight range applicable to the dressed hog to be priced. (Weight range for packer style dressed hogs are in the first column of the table in Schedule IV (a) (1) of this § 1364.36, and weight ranges for shipper style dressed hogs are in the second column). Ascertain the related live hog weight classification of such dressed hog (on the same line in the table but in the third column). Multiply the current Chicago live hog price, for hogs of such related live hog weight classification, by the appropriate seasonal denominator (on the same line in the table, but in one of the last four columns).

Example: A butcher hog dressed shipper style and weighing 190 pounds falls in the 189–213 pound weight range and in the 240–270 pound related live hog classification. If it were slaughtered in New York City and shipped on May 31, 1945, the appropriate seasonal denominator would be 1.305. If we assume that the current Chicago live hog price which was reported three market days earlier was $14.75 per cwt. and that the then current subsidy rate was $1.70 per cwt., the applicable maximum base price for such dressed hog would be determined by subtracting $1.40 (30 cents less than the $1.70 assumed subsidy) from $14.75 (the quoted Chicago price) thus obtaining $13.35 per cwt. as the "current Chicago live hog price." This amount then is multiplied by the appropriate seasonal denominator—1.305 in this instance. The result obtained is $17.42, which is the maximum base price.

[Example amended by Am. 26, 10 F.R. 6233]

(b) Sales to person other than certified dressed hog processors. The applicable maximum base price for each hog sold to a person other than a certified dressed hog processor shall be as specified in the schedule of prices set forth in subparagraph (1) hereof.

On sales to war procurement agencies, $0.50 per hundredweight may be added to the above prices for dressed hogs.

SCHEDULE V—PERMITTED ADDITIONS TO PRICES DETERMINED UNDER SCHEDULE IV

(a) Local delivery. If the seller delivers dressed hogs by local delivery to a point more than 50 miles away from the shipping point, $0.25 per hundredweight may be added.

Example: If in the example stated in Schedule IV (a) (2) such local delivery were made, 25 cents would be added to $17.42, giving a price of $17.67 per hundredweight.

[Example amended by Am. 26, 10 F.R. 6233]

(b) Fresh kill addition. If the dressed hog is derived from a hog killed in the region where the addition is applicable and delivered to a buyer whose place of business is located within such region on or before the second market day after killing, or if the dressed hog is sold to the Commodity Credit Corporation, the applicable one of the following additions may be added:

Region	Permitted addition per cwt. (cents)
(1) New England, New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland, District of Columbia, and those portions of New York and Pennsylvania lying east of the 77th meridian----------	50
(2) Those portions of Pennsylvania and New York lying west of the 77th meridian ----------	35
(3) Virginia; West Virginia; Kentucky; Ohio; Indiana; Chicago, Illinois; and the local peninsula of Michigan (that part of Michigan lying between Lake Michigan and Lake Huron) ----------	15

Example: In the example stated in Schedule V (a), if the dressed hog is sold to a buyer whose place of business is located within the region described in paragraph (b) (1), 50 cents would be added to $17.67 giving a price of $18.17 per hundredweight.

[Example amended by Am. 26, 10 F.R. 6233]

(c) Transportation. Transportation charges may be added in accordance with the provisions of paragraphs (b), (c) and (d) of § 1364.22, substituting for the purposes of this Schedule V (c) the words "dressed hog" wherever the words "Wholesale pork cut" appear therein.

(d) Wholesaler and peddler truck seller's selling addition. For dressed hogs sold by a wholesaler as defined in § 1364.32 (a) (13) or a person making peddler truck sales as defined in subdivision (i) of § 1364.32 (a) (10), the seller may add $0.75 per hundredweight.

(e) Intermediate distributor's selling addition. For dressed hogs sold by an intermediate distributor as defined in § 1364.32 (a) (16), the seller may add $0.50 per hundredweight.

(f) Additions paid by wholesalers, processors, or peddler truck sellers. (1) If a wholesaler has paid a charge for local delivery under paragraph (a) of this Schedule V, he may, upon resale, add the amount of such charge: Provided, That the total of all local delivery charges shall not exceed $0.50 per hundredweight.

(2) If a person other than a slaughterer has paid a charge under the fresh kill addition provisions of paragraph (b) of this Schedule V, he may, upon resale within the time limitations prescribed therein, add the amount of such charge: Provided, That such resale is made within the same region in which the hog was killed.

(g) Wrapping and packaging. To the prices for packer style dressed hogs sold to Commodity Credit Corporation determined in accordance with the provisions of Schedule IV (b) (1), the following addition for wrapping may be added:

Wrapper	Addition per cwt.
1. Krinkled paper with stockinette bags; osnaburg tubing; cotton sheeting bag; or two sheets of melamine krinkled paper and rope----------	$0.50
2. Krinkled paper with osnaburg tubing, burlap tubing, or cotton sheeting bag----------	.75

(h) Broker's fees. The maximum prices for dressed hogs determined in accordance with the provisions of Schedule IV (a) of this § 1364.36 (Appendix B) shall include all charges for brokerage and no addition to such prices may be made for brokers' fees. If the seller pays no brokerage fees on shipments of carload lots, the maximum price shall be reduced by $0.125 per hundredweight. If the seller pays brokerage on such shipments in an amount less than $0.125 per hundredweight, the maximum price shall be reduced by the difference between the amount of brokerage actually paid by the seller and $0.125 per hundredweight. No brokerage fees may be charged or paid on sales of dressed hogs where maximum prices are determined in accordance with the provisions of Schedule IV (b) of this § 1364.36 (Appendix B).

(i) For freezing, in the seller's plant and not in a commercial warehouse, dressed hogs sold by the seller to war procurement agencies or to licensed ship suppliers who are not slaughterers, packers, or packers' branch houses, $0.10 per hundredweight may be added.

(j) For freezer shrinkage on all fresh or green dressed hogs sold frozen at frozen weights to war procurement agencies, $0.25 per hundredweight may be added.

SCHEDULE VI—SLAUGHTERING SERVICES

(a) Any person who slaughters hogs as a service for the purchaser of such hogs shall remit to such purchaser an amount sufficient to make the cost of the dressed hogs to such purchaser equal to or less than the costs which would be incurred by the purchaser if he purchased the dressed hogs from the slaughterer at the maximum price therefor: Provided, That this requirement shall not apply in (i) cases where the purchaser does not acquire the carcasses for resale in any form; or (ii) cases where the live hog slaughtered was purchased at a fair, show or exhibition, from a member of a recognized farm youth organization, during a sale for which prior approval had been obtained from a state office of the Office of Price Administration by a county agent, county club agent, vocational agricultural instructor or the chief administrator of the state department of agriculture. To enable the slaughterer to determine the amount to be remitted to the purchaser, it shall be the duty of such purchaser to advise the slaughterer of the amount paid for the hogs slaughtered.

PART 1382—HARDWOOD LUMBER

[MPR. 146,[1] Amdt. 22]

APPALACHIAN HARDWOOD LUMBER

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

Maximum Price Regulation 146 is amended in the following respects:

1. In § 1382.8 (a) (4), subdivision (ii) is amended to read as follows:

(ii) Which resembles a "typical concentration yard" as defined in this subdivision more nearly than it resembles a "typical distribution yard" as defined in subparagraph 5 (ii) below of this section. A "typical concentration yard" is an establishment which is located in a hardwood lumber producing area; which concentrates either graded hardwood lumber or ungraded hardwood lumber or both; which keeps in stock principally Appalachian hardwood lumber; which purchases hardwood lumber principally in rough green condition from mills located in its vicinity; which receives its hardwood lumber principally by truck; which prepares graded hardwood lumber for commercial shipment; and which sells hardwood lumber principally for rail shipment.

2. In § 1382.8 (a) (5) subdivision (ii) is amended to read as follows:

(ii) Which resembles a "typical distribution yard" more nearly than it resembles a "typical concentration yard" as defined in subparagraph (4) (ii) above of this section. A "typical distribution yard" is a wholesale or retail yard which is located in a lumber consuming area; which regularly maintains a varied stock of lumber from different regions; which obtains graded lumber principally from mills or from other yards; which receives its lumber principally by rail; which unloads, sorts, stores and redistributes graded hardwood lumber, which from the nature of its lumber inventory is in position to make prompt deliveries of many different items of lumber; and which sells chiefly for truck shipment.

3. § 1382.11(b), the price tables in subparagraphs (28), (29) and (30) together with the notes which follow subparagraph (30), and refer to those price tables are deleted.

4. § 1382.14, the heading of paragraph (b) and subparagraphs (1) and (2) of that paragraph are amended to read as follows:

(b) Maximum prices for Appalachian hardwood lumber not specifically priced in this regulation. (1) Appalachian hardwood lumber sold on special grades or specifications or with special services or other extras not specifically priced in this regulation is, nevertheless, subject to this regulation as a "specially priced item" or a "special item." A seller making a sale of hardwood lumber covered by this section, for which that seller does not have a maximum price duly approved by the Office of Price Administration, shall apply to the Lumber Branch of the Office of Price Administration, Washington 25, D. C. for approval of a requested price for that hardwood lumber. The application shall cover only one order or inquiry of hardwood lumber and a copy of that order or inquiry shall accompany the application. The seller must make his application for approval of a maximum price on a copy of Form 246.1, a facsimile of which is in subparagraph (3) below.

If the seller had sales in October 1941 of the special item and of the most comparable item specifically priced in this regulation, he shall show on his application the price differential which he maintained between these two items in that month. If the seller did not have sales of both of such items in October 1941 he shall show on the application the price differential between these two items which existed in the first month preceding October 1941 in which he had sales of both of these items. If the seller did not have any sales of these two items in October 1941 or in any month preceding October 1941, the seller shall show on the application the price differential which he would have maintained between these two items in October 1941 if he had made sales of these items in that month.

The seller shall report his requested price in his application, together with an explanation of how he has determined such price. The maximum price shall be a price which is in appropriate relationship to the most comparable standard item, determined from an examination of the data submitted by the seller and from such other data as may be available to the Office of Price Administration. A maximum price duly approved by the Office of Price Administration for a seller for a special item shall apply to subsequent sales by that seller of the identical item of hardwood lumber unless the Office limits the applicability of the approved price in some manner.

If, within thirty (30) days of the receipt of the application by the Lumber Branch of the Office of Price Administration, that Office does not transmit by letter, telegram or in some other manner, a disapproval of the price requested by the seller on the application, that requested price may be deemed approved, but such approval shall be applicable only to the one specific order covered by the application and only to the quantity of the special item contained in that order on the date of the application.

(2) Prior to approval by the Office of Price Administration of the maximum price for a special item of hardwood lumber covered by this section the seller shall not make any collections on account of the sale price of the special item. However, the seller may proceed with delivery of the special item using the requested price as a tentative maximum price but all quotations, contracts, and invoices must notify the buyer that the price is subject to approval by the Office of Price Administration within the thirty (30) day period described above.

This amendment shall become effective December 4, 1945.

NOTE: All reporting and record keeping requirements of this amendment have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 29th day of November 1945.

Administrator.

PART 1382—HARDWOOD LUMBER

[MPR 155,[1] Amdt. 18]

CENTRAL HARDWOOD LUMBER

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

Maximum Price Regulation 155 is amended in the following respects:

1. In § 1382.58 (a) (6), subdivision (ii) is amended to read as follows:

(ii) Which resembles a "typical concentration yard" as defined in this subdivision more nearly than it resembles a "typical distribution yard" as defined in subparagraph (7) (ii) below of this section. A "typical concentration yard" is an establishment which is located in a hardwood lumber producing area; which concentrates either graded hardwood lumber or ungraded hardwood lumber or both; which keeps in stock principally Central hardwood lumber; which purchases hardwood lumber principally in rough green condition from mills located in its vicinity; which receives its hardwood lumber principally by truck; which prepares graded hardwood lumber for commercial shipment; and which sells hardwood lumber principally for rail shipment.

2. In § 1382.58 (a) (7), subdivision (ii) is amended to read as follows:

(ii) Which resembles a "typical distribution yard" more nearly than it resembles a "typical concentration yard" as defined in subparagraph (6) (ii) above of this section. A "typical distribution yard" is a wholesale or retail yard which is located in a lumber consuming area; which regularly maintains a varied stock of lumber from different regions; which obtains graded lumber principally from mills or from other yards; which receives its lumber principally by rail; which unloads, sorts, stores and redistributes graded hardwood lumber, which from the nature of its lumber inventory is in position to make prompt deliveries of many different items of lumber; and which sells chiefly for truck shipment.

3. In Section 1382.63, the heading of paragraph (b) and subparagraphs (1) and (2) of that paragraph are amended to read as follows:

(b) Maximum prices for North Central Hardwood Lumber not specifically priced in this regulation. (1) North Central Hardwood Lumber sold on special grades or specifications or with special services or other extras not specifically priced in this regulation is, nevertheless, subject to this regulation as a "specially priced item" or a "special item." A seller making a sale of hardwood lumber covered by this section, for which that seller does not have a maximum price duly approved by the Office of Price Administration, shall apply to the Lumber Branch of the Office of Price Administration, Washington 25, D. C. for approval of a requested price for that hardwood lumber. The application shall cover only one order or inquiry of hardwood lumber and a copy of that order or inquiry shall accompany the application. The seller must make his application for approval of a maximum price on a copy of Form 255:1, a facsimile of which is in subparagraph (3) below.

If the seller had sales in October 1941 of the special item and of the most comparable item specifically priced in this regulation, he shall show on his application the price differential which he maintained between these two items in that month. If the seller did not have sales of both of such items in October 1941 he shall show on the application the price differential between these two items which existed in the first month preceding October 1941 in which he had sales of both of these items. If the seller did not have any sales of these two items in October 1941 or in any month preceding October 1941, the seller shall show on the application the price differential which he would have maintained between these two items in October 1941 if he had made sales of these items in that month.

The seller shall report his requested price in his application, together with an explanation of how he has determined such price. The maximum price shall be a price which is in appropriate relationship to the most comparable standard item, determined from an examination of the data submitted by the seller and from such other data as may be available to the Office of Price Administration. A maximum price duly approved by the Office of Price Administration for a seller for a special item shall apply to subsequent sales by that seller of the identical item of hardwood lumber unless the Office limits the applicability of the approved price in some manner.

If, within thirty (30) days of the receipt of the application by the Lumber Branch of the Office of Price Administration, that Office does not transmit by letter, telegram or in some other manner, a disapproval of the price requested by the seller on the application, that requested price may be deemed approved, but such approval shall be applicable only to the one specific order covered by the application and only to the quantity of the special item contained in that order on the date of the application.

(2) Prior to approval by the Office of Price Administration of the maximum price for a special item of hardwood lumber covered by this section the seller shall not make any collection on account of the sale price of the special item. However, the seller may proceed with delivery of the special item using the requested price as a tentative maximum price but all quotations, contracts, and invoices must notify the buyer that the price is subject to approval by the Office of Price Administration within the thirty (30) day period described above.

4. In § 1382.66 the heading of paragraph (b) and subparagraphs (1) and (2) of that paragraph are amended to read as follows:

(b) Maximum prices for South Central Hardwood Lumber not specifically priced in this regulation. (1) South Central Hardwood Lumber sold on special grades or specifications or with special services or other extras not specifically priced in this regulation is, nevertheless, subject to this regulation as a "specially priced item" or a "special item." A seller making a sale of hardwood lumber covered by this section, for which that seller does not have a maximum price duly approved by the Office of Price Administration, shall apply to the Lumber Branch of the Office of Price Administration, Washington 25, D. C., for approval of a requested price for that hardwood lumber. The application shall cover only one order or inquiry of hardwood lumber and a copy of that order or inquiry shall accompany the application. The seller must make his application for approval of a maximum price on a copy of Form 255:2, a facsimile of which is in subparagraph (3) below.

If the seller had sales in October 1941 of the special item and of the most comparable item specifically priced in this regulation, he shall show on his application the price differential which he maintained between these two items in that month. If the seller did not have sales of both of such items in October 1941, he shall show on the application the price differential between these two items which existed in the first month preceding October 1941 in which he had sales of both of these items. If the seller did not have any sales of these two items in October 1941 or in any month preceding October 1941, the seller shall show on the application the price differential which he would have maintained between these two items in October 1941 if he had made sales of these items in that month.

The seller shall report his requested price in his application, together with an explanation of how he has determined such price. The maximum price shall be a price which is in appropriate relationship to the most comparable standard item, determined from an examination of the data submitted by the seller and from such other data as may be available to the Office of Price Administration. A maximum price duly approved by the Office of Price Administration for a seller for a special item shall apply to subsequent sales by that seller of the identical item of hardwood lumber unless the Office limits the applicability of the approved price in some manner.

If, within thirty (30) days of the receipt of the application by the Lumber Branch of the Office of Price Administration, that Office does not transmit by letter, telegram or in some other manner, a disapproval of the price requested by the seller on the application, that requested price may be deemed approved, but such approval shall be applicable only to the one specific order covered by the application and only to the quantity of the special item contained in that order on the date of the application.

(2) Prior to approval by the Office of Price Administration of the maximum price for a special item of hardwood lumber covered by this section, the seller shall not make any collections on account of the sale price of the special item. However, the seller may proceed with delivery of the special item, using the requested price as a tentative maximum price but all quotations, contracts and invoices must notify the buyer that the price is subject to approval by the Office of Price Administration within the thirty (30) day period described above.

This amendment shall become effective December 4, 1945.

NOTE: All reporting and record keeping requirements of the amendment have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 29th day of November 1945.

ment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.[1]

Second Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 578 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1 (b) (3) is amended by the addition of the following sentence:

Where one or more manufacturing units and selling units are under common ownership, sales made by a manufacturing unit to a selling unit will be treated as manufacturers' sales under this regulation unless an order has been issued under section 15 of this regulation permitting sales by the selling unit to be treated as manufacturers' sales for purposes of this regulation.

2. A new section 15 is added to read as follows:

SEC. 15. Applications for permission to treat sales by selling outlets as manufacturer's sales. Where one or more manufacturing units and one or more selling units are under common ownership, application may be made on behalf of the manufacturing and selling units to the Apparel Price Branch, Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., for an order under this section permitting sales by the selling units to be treated as manufacturer's sales under this regulation. Such an order will be issued only where it appears:

(a) That the manufacturing units sell exclusively to the selling units;

(b) That the selling units sell no garments covered by 2d Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 578 other than garments manufactured in the manufacturing units; and

(c) That the arrangement was in existence prior to March 1942 and continuously since that time.

Orders issued under this section may impose any condition or limitation on the permission granted so as to assure that the prices charged by the selling units and used as the base for determining wholesale and retail prices under this regulation are comparable to manufacturers' prices established under the regulations listed in section 2 (b), and that the effect of any other regulation affecting any part of the operation is not altered.

This amendment shall become effective on November 28, 1945.

NOTE: The reporting requirements of this amendment have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 28th day of November 1945.

[MPR 127,[1] Amdt. 38]

FINISHED PIECE GOODS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

Maximum Price Regulation No. 127 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1400.82 (a) (2) is amended to read as follows:

(2) Method for finished piece goods which are not white, bleached, dyed, printed or yarn-dyed. The maximum net selling price f. o. b. point of shipment for finished piece goods which are not white, bleached, dyed, printed or yarn-dyed shall be the sum of the five items set forth in subparagraph (1) above, without any markup thereon: Provided, That the following shall be excepted from the provisions of this subparagraph (2):

(i) Cotton finished piece goods sold to shoe manufacturers for use as shoe linings.

2. Section 1400.82 (a) (1) is amended to read as follows:

(1) The percentage of the total business of any producer during any calendar quarter which is represented by dollar sales of finished piece goods sold at a converter's markup to persons other than cutters, manufacturers, retailers, or war procurement agencies shall be no greater in relation to his total business than the average percentage of such dollar sales during the years 1939, 1940 and 1941, and the maximum price for any finished piece goods sold in excess of this percentage shall be the sum of the five items set forth in § 1400.82 (a) (1) above without any markup thereon: Provided, That without regard to the foregoing a producer may

(i) Honor a preference rating for goods to be exported; and

(ii) Sell finished piece goods to any wholesaler, wholesaling-jobber, jobber or converter-jobber who has certified in writing to such producer that during the period between July 1, 1943 and December 31, 1943, 65% or more of all of his sales of finished piece goods were made to retailers.

This amendment shall become effective November 30, 1945.

Issued this 28th day of November 1945.

Chapter XXIII—Surplus Property Administration

[SPA Reg. 1,[1] Order 8]

PART 8301—DESIGNATION OF DISPOSAL AGENCIES AND PROCEDURES FOR REPORTING SURPLUS PROPERTY LOCATED WITHIN THE CONTINENTAL UNITED STATES, ITS TERRITORIES AND POSSESSIONS

FORMS FOR REPORTING ACQUISITION, DISPOSAL, AND INVENTORY OF SURPLUS PERSONAL PROPERTY[2]

Pursuant to the authority of the Surplus Property Act of 1944 (58 Stat. 765; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 1611) and Public Law 181, 79th Congress, 1st Sess., It is hereby ordered, That:

1. Disposal agencies shall file reports relating to receipt of declarations of surplus, inventory and dispositions of surplus personal property located in the continental United States on Forms SPA–30, 30.1, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, and 39 in accordance with the instructions accompanying these forms. These forms shall supersede Forms SWPA–6, 7, 8, 9, 10 insofar as these forms are used for reporting surplus personal property activities in the continental United States and Form SPB–21.

2. Disposal agencies may reproduce Forms SPA–30 through 39 provided that the formats are identical with those on file with the Division of the Federal Register, sample copies of which may be obtained from the Surplus Property Administrator.

3. Forms SPA–30 through 39 may carry the information required thereon or they may be used as a cover transmittal sheet for mechanical accounting lists. If a machine tabulated form is used, the columnar arrangement shall conform with Forms SPA–30 through 39, and the forms shall be 11" x 14⅞" in size.

NOTE: All reporting requirements of this part have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

This order shall become effective December 1, 1945.

GODFREY L. CABOT, INC.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

NOVEMBER 27, 1945.

Notice is hereby given that on May 29, 1944, Godfrey L. Cabot, Inc. (Applicant), a corporation organized under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts with its principal place of business at 77 Franklin Street, Boston, Massachusetts, filed an application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, as amended.

Applicant requests authorization to construct and operate the following facilities:

(1) Approximately 1 mile of 6-inch pipeline extending from a point in Wood County, West Virginia, to a point of connection with the pipeline of the Gas Transport, Inc. in Wood County, West Virginia, together with meters, regulators and other appurtenant facilities;

(2) Three 4-inch pipelines located in Wood County, West Virginia, approximately 3 miles in length connecting 3 wells now being drilled in Wood County, with the pipeline of Gas Transport, Inc., together with meters, regulators and other appurtenant facilities.

Applicant requests authorization to transport and sell, by means of the above facilities, natural gas to Anchor Hocking Glass Corporation.

Applicant requests in the alternative that the Federal Power Commission disclaim jurisdiction over the above construction, operation, transportation and sale, under the Natural Gas Act, as amended.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said application should, on or before the 12th day of December, 1945, file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., a petition or protest in accordance with the provisional rules of practice and regulations under the Natural Gas Act.

GREAT LAKES TOWING CO.

POSSESSION, CONTROL, AND OPERATION OF THE TRANSPORTATION SYSTEM, PLANTS, AND FACILITIES

To The Great Lakes Towing Company, Cleveland, Ohio:

1. You are hereby notified that, by order of the President of the United States (Executive Order 9661, supra), possession and control of your transportation system, including all real and personal property, plants, facilities, and other assets, wherever situated, used or useful in connection with the operation of such system, are hereby taken and assumed by the Director of the Office of Defense Transportation as of 12:00 o'clock noon, on the 29th day of November 1945. Possession and control is not taken of any of your property, plants, facilities, or other assets, which are not used or useful in the operation of your transportation system.

2. The purpose of possession, control, and operation of your transportation system and properties by the United States pursuant to said Executive order is to assure the maintenance of an effective system of transportation for military and civilian freight traffic movements.

3. Effective this date, Laurence C. Turner is hereby appointed Federal Manager of the transportation system and properties taken hereunder, with full authority, subject to my direction:

(a) To possess, control, and operate, or arrange for the operation of the system and properties taken hereunder in such manner as may be necessary to carry out the provisions, and to accomplish the purposes of the Executive order, through or with the aid of such public or private agencies, persons, or corporations as he may designate;

(b) Subject to the provisions of the Executive order, to manage or operate or arrange for the management or operation of said system and properties under such terms and conditions of employment as he deems advisable and proper;

(c) From time to time, to return to you such real or personal property, or other assets, as he determines to be unnecessary to the operation of your transportation system; and

(d) To request the Secretary of the Navy or such persons as he may designate, to furnish protection for persons employed or seeking employment with the transportation system of which possession is taken hereunder and the properties of such system, and to furnish equipment, manpower, and other facilities or services necessary to carry out the provisions, and to accomplish the purposes of the Executive order of the President.

4. Copies of this notice and order shall be posted by you in your principal place of business, and in each office, terminal, and vessel maintained in connection with the operation of your transportation system.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 29th day of November 1945.

LACKNER CO.

ADJUSTMENT OF CEILING PRICES

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register, and pursuant to sections 13 and 14 of Supplementary Order No. 119, it is ordered:

(a) Manufacturer's ceiling prices. The Lackner Company, Cincinnati, Ohio, may increase by no more than 5.1 percent, its ceiling prices to each class of purchaser, for electrical household clocks of its manufacture.

(b) Ceiling prices of purchasers for resale. The manufacturer is required to calculate wholesalers' and retailers' ceiling prices for the electrical household clocks which he sells at adjusted prices permitted by this order, according to the provisions of this paragraph.

(1) Retailers' ceiling prices. The retail ceiling price, exclusive of the Federal excise tax, is the manufacturer's price for the article to the wholesaler to which the manufacturer sells in the largest volume, plus 108% of such price rounded to the nearest 5¢.

(2) Wholesalers' ceiling prices. The wholesale ceiling price is the retail ceiling price of the article, exclusive of Federal excise tax, as established by this order, less 40%.

(3) The manufacturer shall attach a tag or label to every article for which a maximum price for sales to consumers is established by this order. The tag or label shall contain the following statement:

OPA Ceiling Price—$_____ (Exclusive of Federal Excise Tax)
Do Not Detach

(4) Revision of resellers' ceiling prices. Resellers' ceiling prices permitted by this order are subject to revision at any time in accordance with any industry-wide action which may be taken by the Office of Price Administration which requires resellers to absorb any increase in prices permitted reconversion manufacturers.

(c) Terms of sale. Ceiling prices adjusted by this order are subject to each seller's customary terms, discounts, allowances and other price differentials on sales to each class of purchaser in effect during March 1942, or established under any applicable OPA regulation.

(d) Notification. At the time of, or prior to, the first invoice to a purchaser for resale showing a ceiling price adjusted in accordance with the terms of this order, the seller shall notify each purchaser in writing of the adjusted ceiling prices for resales of the articles covered by this order. This notice may be given in any convenient form.

(e) This order may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

(f) Effective date. This order shall become effective on November 29, 1945.

Issued this 28th day of November 1945.

[SO 133, Order 10]

DURABLE SHOE CO.

ADJUSTMENT OF MAXIMUM PRICES

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaenously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register, and pursuant to Supplementary Order No. 133; it is ordered:

(a) Maximum prices for sales of footwear by The Durable Shoe Company. The maximum prices at which The Durable Shoe Company, Palmyra, Pennsylvania, may sell and deliver the footwear specified below shall be as follows:

Description	Size range	Adjusted maximum price (per pair)
Blucher lace boots	2–6	$1.045
Blucher lace boots	6½–9	1.16
Blucher oxford	6½–9	1.135

The adjusted maximum prices listed above are the highest prices at which The Durable Shoe Company may sell and deliver the specified style of shoes to its least favored class of purchasers. Such maximum prices are subject to the provisions of § 1499.2 of the General Maximum Price Regulation with respect to customary price differentials, terms, discounts, and allowances, on sales to each class of purchaser.

(b) Maximum prices for sales at wholesale. The maximum price for a sale at wholesale of any shoe listed in paragraph (a), above, shall be the wholesaler's maximum price previously established under the General Maximum Price Regulation increased by 5.8 per cent. A wholesaler who has not previously established a maximum price under the General Maximum Price Regulation may increase his maximum price otherwise determined under § 1499.2 of the General Maximum Price Regulation by an amount equal to 5.8 per cent of that price.

(c) Maximum prices for retail sales subject to the General Maximum Price Regulation. The maximum price for a sale or delivery at retail under the General Maximum Price Regulation of any shoe listed in paragraph (a), above, shall be the retailer's maximum price previously established under the General Maximum Price Regulation increased by 5.8 per cent. A retailer who has not previously established a maximum price therefor under the General Maximum Price Regulation may increase his maximum price otherwise determined under § 1499.2 of the General Maximum Price Regulation by an amount equal to 5.8 per cent of that price.

(d) Notification. At the time of (or prior to) the first delivery of each shoe listed in paragraph (a), above, to a purchaser for resale on and after the effective date of this order at a price adjusted in accordance with the terms of this order, the seller shall notify the purchaser in writing of the applicable method established by paragraph (b) or (c), above, for determining maximum prices for resale of the footwear. This notice may be given in any convenient form.

(e) Statement to be submitted to the Office of Price Administration. The manufacturer shall file a report with the Office of Price Administration, Washington 25, D. C., as required by Section 5 of Supplementary Order No. 133.

(f) All requests not specifically granted by this order are hereby denied.

(g) This order may be amended, modified, revised or revoked by the Administrator at any time.

This order shall become effective November 29, 1945.

Issued this 28th day of November 1945.

PHILIP C. GEPHART CIGAR CO.

APPROVAL OF MAXIMUM PRICES

For the reasons set forth in an opinion accompanying this order, and pursuant to § 1358.102 (b) of Maximum Price Regulation No. 260; It is ordered, That:

(a) Philip C. Gephart Cigar Co., 622½ East Main, Independence, Kans. (hereinafter called "manufacturer") and wholesalers and retailers may sell, offer to sell or deliver and any person may buy, offer to buy or receive each brand and size or frontmark, and packing of the following domestic cigars at the appropriate maximum list price and maximum retail price set forth below:

Brand	Size or frontmark	Packing	Maximum list price	Maximum retail price
La Flor de Gephart.	6½" Invincible.	50	Per M $72	Cents 9

(b) The manufacturer and wholesalers shall grant, with respect to their sales of each brand and size or frontmark of domestic cigars for which maximum prices are established by this order, the discounts they customarily granted in March 1942 on their sales of domestic cigars of the same price class to purchasers of the same class, unless a change therein results in a lower price. Packing differentials charged by the manufacturer or a wholesaler in March 1942 on sales of domestic cigars of the same price class to purchasers of the same class may be charged on corresponding sales of each brand and size or frontmark of cigars priced by this order, but shall not be increased. Packing differentials allowed by the manufacturer or a wholesaler in March 1942 on sales of domestic cigars of the same price class to purchasers of the same class shall be allowed on corresponding sales of each brand and size or frontmark of cigars priced by this order and shall not be reduced. If a brand and size or frontmark of domestic cigars for which maximum prices are established by this order is of a price class not sold by the manufacturer or the particular wholesaler in March 1942, he shall, with respect to his sales thereof, grant the discounts and may charge and shall allow the packing differentials customarily granted, charged or allowed (as the case may be) in March 1942 by his most closely competitive seller of the same class on sales of domestic cigars of the same March 1942 price class to purchasers of the same class.

(c) On or before the first delivery to any purchaser of each brand and size or frontmark of domestic cigars for which maximum prices are established by this order, the manufacturer and every other seller (except a retailer) shall notify the purchaser of the maximum list price and the maximum retail price established by this order for such brand and size or frontmark of domestic cigars. The notice shall conform to and be given in the manner prescribed by § 1358.113 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 260.

(d) Unless the context otherwise requires, appropriate provisions of Maximum Price Regulation No. 260, shall apply to sales for which maximum prices are established by this order.

(e) This order may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

This order shall become effective November 29, 1945.

Issued this 28th day of November 1945.

(b) The manufacturer and wholesalers shall grant, with respect to their sales of each brand and size or frontmark of domestic cigars for which maximum prices are established by this order, the discounts they customarily granted in March 1942 on their sales of domestic cigars of the same price class to purchasers of the same class, unless a change therein results in a lower price. Packing differentials charged by the manufacturer or a wholesaler in March 1942 on sales of domestic cigars of the same price class may be charged on corresponding sales of each brand and size or frontmark of cigars priced by this order and shall not be reduced. If a brand and size or frontmark of domestic cigars for which maximum prices are established by this order is of a price class not sold by the manufacturer or the particular wholesaler in March 1942, he shall, with respect to his sales thereof, grant the discounts and may charge and shall allow the packing differentials customarily granted, charged or allowed (as the case may be) in March 1942 by his most closely competitive seller of the same class on sales of domestic cigars of the same March 1942 price class to purchasers of the same class.

(c) On or before the first delivery to any purchaser of each brand and size or frontmark of domestic cigars for which maximum prices are established by this order, the manufacturer and every other seller (except a retailer) shall notify the purchaser of the maximum list price and the maximum retail price established by this order for such brand and size or frontmark of domestic cigars. The notice shall conform to and be given in the manner prescribed by § 1358.113 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 260.

(d) Unless the context otherwise requires, appropriate provisions of Maximum Price Regulation No. 260 shall apply to sales for which maximum prices are established by this order.

(e) This order may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

This order shall become effective November 29, 1945.

Issued this 28th day of November 1945.

SWARTZBAUGH MANUFACTURING CO.

ADJUSTMENT OF CEILING PRICES

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register, and pursuant to sections 13 and 14 of Supplementary Order No. 119, it is ordered:

(a) Manufacturer's ceiling prices. The Swartzbaugh Manufacturing Company may increase by no more than 16 percent, its ceiling prices to each class of purchaser, for portable electric heaters of its manufacture.

(b) Ceiling prices of purchasers for resale. The manufacturer is required to calculate wholesalers' and retailers' ceiling prices for portable electric heaters which he sells at adjusted prices permitted by this order, according to the provisions of this paragraph.

(1) Retailers' ceiling prices. The retail ceiling price is the manufacturer's price for the article, exclusive of Federal excise tax, to the class of wholesaler to which the manufacturer sells in the largest volume, plus 100% of such price and the Federal excise tax paid by the manufacturer on a sale to such a wholesaler.

(2) Wholesalers' ceiling prices. The wholesale ceiling price is the retail ceiling price of the article exclusive of Federal excise tax, as established by this order, less 40% for sales in quantities of three or more units, or less 35% for sales in quantities of less than three units, plus the amount of the Federal excise tax included in the retail ceiling price.

(3) Revision of resellers' ceiling prices. Resellers' ceiling prices permitted by this order are subject to revision at any time in accordance with any industry-wide action which may be taken by the Office of Price Administration which requires resellers to absorb any increase in prices permitted reconversion manufacturers.

(c) Terms of sale. Ceiling prices adjusted by this order are subject to each seller's customary terms, discounts, allowances and other price differentials on sales to each class of purchaser.

(d) Notification. At the time of, or prior to, the first invoice to a purchaser for resale showing a ceiling price adjusted in accordance with the terms of this order, the seller shall notify such purchaser in writing of the methods established in paragraph (b) for determining adjusted ceiling prices for resales of the articles covered by this order. This notice may be given in any convenient form.

(e) This order may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

(f) Effective date. This order shall become effective on November 28, 1945.

Issued this 28th day of November 1945.

CERTAIN AUTOMOTIVE LIFTS

ADJUSTED MAXIMUM PRICES

For the reasons set forth in an opinion, issued simultaneously herewith, and filed with the Division of the Federal Register, and pursuant to section 30 of Revised Maximum Price Regulation 136, it is ordered:

(a) Applicability—(1) Commodities. This order applies to automotive lifts, both portable and stationary, single and multiple post hydraulic, overhead, mechanical electrical, and electro-hydraulic; and accessories, repair and replacement parts which are integral and functional parts of such lifts.

(2) Persons. This order establishes adjusted maximum prices for the sales of the commodities described in the foregoing paragraph (a) (1) only when sold by the manufacturer of such automotive lifts.

(b) Maximum prices. The maximum price for the sale by a manufacturer affected by this order of any automotive lift, accessory, or repair or replacement part, to which this order applies, shall be determined by increasing by 8% the "manufacturer's net price", which the manufacturer had in effect on October 1, 1941, to each class of his purchasers, after deducting average nationwide freight from such "manufacturer's net price." The list prices which the manufacturer had in effect on October 1, 1941 may not be increased but the discounts and allowances extended on October 1, 1941 to the various classes of purchasers may be reduced in order to give effect to the increases in net prices authorized by this order.

(c) Nothing contained in this order shall authorize a reseller to increase the maximum price which he had in effect or would have had in effect just prior to the issuance of this order to any class of his purchasers.

This order shall become effective November 28, 1945.

Issued this 28th day of November 1945.

[Region II Basic Order G-2 Under RMPR 251]

PLUMBING AND HEATING SERVICES AND EQUIPMENT IN NEW YORK REGION

MAXIMUM PRICE REGULATION NO. 251

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and under the authority vested in the Regional Administrator of Region II by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 as amended, by section 9 of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 251 and by Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1, it is hereby ordered:

(a) What this order does. This basic order puts into one document the provisions which will be common to all future orders establishing flat (dollar-and-cents) maximum prices for plumbing and heating services and percentage markups on plumbing fixtures and specialties, heating equipment and materials on an installed basis on jobs of $250.00 and under to be issued by the New York Regional Office, Region II, pursuant to the authority contained in section 9 of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 251. The orders to be issued under this basic order are referred to herein as "adopting orders" and when issued will expressly adopt the provisions of this basic order. The provisions of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 251 remain unaffected by this basic order unless and until adopting orders are issued under this order. When such adopting orders are issued they will supersede the provisions of sections 6, 7 and 8 of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 251 with respect to installed sales of plumbing and heating services and plumbing fixtures and specialties, heating equipment and materials on jobs of $250.00 or under in the area covered by such adopting orders.

(b) Transactions covered by this order. This order covers all sales of plumbing and heating services and plumbing fixtures and specialties, heating equipment and materials on an installed basis on jobs of $250.00 and under, except the cleaning of cesspools and repair and maintenance of oil burners and stokers, maximum prices for which are determined under Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 165.

The term "plumbing and heating services" as used in this order includes all services performed by plumbers or plumbing establishments in the installation, maintenance and repair of plumbing fixtures and specialties and material used in providing means for control of the supply and distribution of water, including power pumps, and gas, for reception and removal of waste or surplus water and sewage and in the installation, maintenance and repair of equipment for heating of buildings by the use of furnaces or heating plants of any type, except the repair and maintenance of oil burners and stokers.

The term "plumbing fixtures" includes all fixtures pertaining to the services of city water, gas, sewers and power pumps including such plumbing fixtures as bathtubs, lavatories, water closets, kitchen and wash sinks, hot water tanks and water heaters.

The term "heating equipment" includes such items as boilers, oil burners, stokers, radiators and unit heaters.

The term "plumbing specialties" includes small items used in the repair of plumbing fixtures and which are known to the trade as "plumbing specialties". The term includes but is not limited to such items as washers, flush valves, float balls, trip levers and other items.

The term "materials" includes all items used in the repair of plumbing fixtures and heating equipment, (except fixtures, equipment and specialties) which are necessary for the installation, maintenance or repair of plumbing fixtures and heating equipment including but not limited to all pipe, fittings and lead.

The term "hourly service rate" means the hourly rate charged to the customer for each hour of labor expended in the performance of a plumbing or heating job.

(c) Relationship of this order and of all adopting orders under this basic order to Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 251. The provisions of this order, when and if adopting orders are issued, supersede sections 6, 7 and 8 of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 251 with respect to all sales covered by this order in the areas affected by such adopting orders. All other provisions of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 251 are applicable to transactions subject to this basic order, and to such adopting orders unless otherwise provided in this order or in such adopting orders. On and after the effective date of any adopting order issued under this basic order, regardless of any contract or other obligation, no person shall sell, offer to sell or deliver plumbing or heating services and plumbing fixtures and specialties, and heating equipment and materials on an installed basis on jobs of $250.00 and under in the area covered by such adopting order at prices higher than those established by such adopting orders.

(d) Pricing provisions applicable to adopting orders. The maximum prices to be fixed by adopting orders under this basic order shall be upon a basis of hourly rates to customers for journeymen, apprentices, helpers or laborers and two men teams and will be computed upon a straight time basis, an overtime basis and a rate for Sundays and holidays.

The number of hours to be charged against any job shall be counted from the time the workman leaves the shop or his previous job (whichever is later) until he completes the job, if he proceeds to another job, or until he returns to the shop if he proceeds there directly. The hours for which charges are made shall not exceed those shown in the seller's payroll records nor those shown in the records which this order requires to be kept. For any job extending into more than one day, time in transit to and from the job may be charged only once.

A journeyman or master plumber owning his own establishment shall compute his hourly service rates for plumbing and heating services actually performed by him at the rate for journeyman plumbers prescribed by the adopting order. If a job requires less than one man hour, a minimum charge equal to the rate for one hour may be made.

Maximum prices for plumbing fixtures and specialties, heating equipment and materials shall be computed by adding to the cost of such materials or specialties delivered to the seller's shop or store room, a percentage markup to be fixed by the adopting order.

(e) Guaranteed prices. A seller may offer to supply plumbing and heating services and plumbing fixtures and specialties, heating equipment and materials covered by this order on the basis of a guaranteed price, but such guaranteed price must not be higher than the maximum price figured in accordance with the pricing methods and requirements of this order and of the applicable adopting order.

(f) Related and incidental work. If on any job covered by this order and an applicable adopting order any installed building materials are furnished or construction services are performed for which specific maximum prices are not fixed by the applicable adopting order, such material and services shall be separately priced and billed on all invoices and sales slips. The maximum prices for such related and incidental work shall be computed under Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 251.

(g) Records. Each seller must keep at his place of business available for inspection by representatives of the Office of Price Administration for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 as amended remains in effect, records concerning each sale covered by any adopting order applicable to the seller's locality and issued under this basic order showing the following:

(1) Name and address of purchaser.
(2) Location of job.
(3) Date of transaction.
(4) An itemized description of the materials and services involved and the prices charged.
(5) A separate statement of any related and incidental work and the prices charged for such work.

(h) Notification. Each seller making a sale covered by an applicable adopting order under this basic order shall post in a conspicuous place in his place of business a list of the hourly rates fixed by such adopting order for sales made by him. He shall also, if required by a purchaser, make available to the purchaser for inspection a copy of this order, a copy of the applicable adopting order, and a copy of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 251. Upon completion of the work, the seller shall, if required by the purchaser, furnish to him a statement showing the following:

(1) The name and address of the seller and of the purchaser.

(2) The location of the job.

(3) The date the job was completed.

(4) An itemized description of the materials and services involved and the prices charged with a separate statement of any related and incidental work performed and the prices charged.

(i) Amendment. This order may be revised, amended, revoked or modified at any time by the Office of Price Administration.

An employer paying or about to pay labor rates higher than those in effect for him on the effective date of any adopting order under this basic order by reason of the predetermination of wage rates by the Secretary of Labor under the Davis-Bacon Act or any order or authorization of the Wage Adjustment Board, National War Labor Board, Office of Economic Stabilization, or any board or officer performing the functions heretofore performed by the boards and officers above named, may file an application for an amendment of such adopting order to reflect such increased labor rates. Such a petition for amendment shall conform in all respects with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1, except that it should be filed with the New York Regional Office of the Office of Price Administration.

This order shall become effective immediately.

Issued this 21st day of November 1945.

LEO F. GENTNER,
Regional Administrator.

[Region II Order G-69 Under RMPR 122]

PENNSYLVANIA ANTHRACITE IN COLUMBIA COUNTY, PA.

Order No. G-69 under §§ 1340.260 and 1340.259 (a) (1) of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122. Solid fuels sold and delivered by dealers.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith, and under the authority vested in the Regional Administrator of the Office of Price Administration by §§ 1340.260 and 1340.259 (a) (1) of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122, it is ordered:

(a) What this order does—(1) Dealers' maximum prices; area covered. If you are a dealer in "Pennsylvania Anthracite", this order fixes the maximum prices which you may charge, and if you are a purchaser in the course of trade or business, this order fixes the maximum prices which you may pay for certain sizes and quantities of "Pennsylvania Anthracite" (hereinafter called simply "anthracite") delivered to or at any point in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania—Coal Area XIII. Coal Area XIII includes the Town of Bloomsburg and the townships of Catawissa, Franklin, Hemlock, Main, Montour, Mount Pleasant and Scott, Columbia County, in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

(2) Schedules of prices, charges and discounts. The applicable prices, authorized charges and required discounts, from which you shall determine the maximum prices for designated sizes and quantities of anthracite delivered within Coal Area XIII are set forth in Schedule I hereafter.

(3) To what sales this order applies. If you are a dealer in anthracite, you are bound by the prices, charges and discounts, and by all other provisions of this order for all deliveries within Coal Area XIII whether or not you are located in Coal Area XIII.

(b) What this order prohibits. Regardless of any contract or other obligations, you shall not:

(1) Sell, or in the course of trade or business, buy anthracite of the sizes and in the quantities set forth in the schedule herein, at prices higher than the maximum prices computed as set forth in paragraph (c) of this order, although you may charge, pay or offer less than maximum prices.

(2) Obtain any price higher than the applicable maximum price by:

(i) Changing the discounts authorized herein, or

(ii) Charging for any service which is not expressly requested by the buyer, or

(iii) Charging for any service for which a charge is not specifically authorized by this order, or

(iv) Charging a price for any service higher than the schedule price for such service, or

(v) Using any tying agreement or requiring that the buyer purchase anything in addition to the fuel requested by him except that a dealer may comply with requirements or standards with respect to deliveries which have been or may be issued by an Agency of the United States Government.

(vi) Using any other device by which a higher price than the applicable maximum price is obtained, directly or indirectly.

(c) How to compute maximum prices. You must figure your maximum price as follows:

(1) Refer to Schedule I which contains separate tables of prices for "Direct-Delivery" sales and "Yard" sales of anthracite. (You will find Schedule I in paragraph (d)).

(2) Take the dollars-and-cents figure set forth in the applicable table of the schedule for the size and quantity you are selling.

(3) If, at your purchaser's request, you actually render him a service for which this order authorizes a charge, you may add to the figure derived as above no more than the maximum authorized service charge. You must state that charge separately on your invoice. The only authorized service charges are those provided for in Schedule I.

(d) Schedule I. Schedule I establishes specific maximum prices for certain sizes of anthracite in certain specific quantities, delivered to or at any point within Coal Area XXII. There are separate tables of prices for "Direct-Delivery" sales and "Yard" sales.

(1) Sales on a "direct-delivery" basis. For sales of anthracite of the sizes and in the quantities specified.

Size	Per net ton	Per net ½ ton
Broken, egg, stove, nut	$12.90	$6.95
Pea	11.05	6.05
Buckwheat	8.90	4.95
Rice	7.90	4.45
Barley	6.65	3.55
Screenings	4.25	2.15

MAXIMUM AUTHORIZED SERVICE CHARGES

Special Service Rendered at the Request of the Purchaser and Maximum Authorized Charges

"Carry" or "wheel": 50¢ per net ton (except for sales amounting to less than one ton). "Carrying" upstairs or downstairs for each full flight above or below the ground floor (except for sales amounting to less than ½ ton). This charge shall be in addition to any charge for "carry" or "wheel": 50¢ per net ton.

(2) "Yard" sales. For sales of anthracite of the sizes and in the quantities specified.

Size	Per net ton	Per net ½ ton
Broken, egg, stove, nut	$11.90	$6.45
Pea	10.05	5.55
Buckwheat	7.90	4.45
Rice	6.90	3.95
Barley	5.65	3.35
Screenings	3.25	1.65

(e) Commingling. If you sell one size of anthracite commingled with another size of anthracite, your maximum price for the combination shall be the maximum price established in this order for the smallest of the sizes so commingled, except in the following situation. Where a purchaser requests that two or more sizes of anthracite be commingled in one delivery, then, and in that event, if those sizes are separately weighed at the point of loading, the dealer may commingle those sizes in the truck or other vehicle in which the delivery is made. The price for anthracite so commingled shall be calculated on the basis of the applicable per net ton price for each size in the combination, and the invoice shall separately state the price, so determined, for the quantity of each size in the combination.

(f) Ex Parte 148 freight rate increase. Since the Ex Parte 148 Freight Rate Increase has been rescinded by the Interstate Commerce Commission, the dealers' freight rates are the same as those of December, 1941. Therefore, you may not increase any schedule price on account of freight rates.

(g) Addition of increase in supplier's maximum prices prohibited. You may not increase the specific maximum prices established by this order to reflect, in whole or in part, any subsequent increase to you in your supplier's maximum price for the same fuel. The specific maximum prices already reflect increases to you in your supplier's maximum prices occurring up to the effective date of this order. If increases in your supplier's maximum prices should occur after such date, as the result of any amendment to or revision of a maximum price regulation issued by the Office of Price Administration governing sales and deliveries made by such suppliers, the Regional Administrator will, if he then deems it to be warranted, take appropriate action to amend this order to reflect such increases.

(h) Taxes. If you are a dealer subject to this order, you may collect, in addition to the specific maximum prices established herein, provided you state it separately, the amount of the Federal Tax upon the transportation or property imposed by section 620 of the Revenue Act of 1942 actually paid or incurred by you, or an amount equal to the amount of such tax paid by any of your prior suppliers and separately stated and collected from you by the supplier from whom you purchased. On sales to the United States or any agency thereof, or to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania or any political subdivision thereof, you need not state this tax separately.

(i) Adjustable pricing. You may not make a price adjustable to a maximum price which will be in effect at some time after delivery of the anthracite has been completed: but the price may be adjustable to the maximum price in effect at the time of delivery.

(j) Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment of any provision of this order may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1 except that a petition shall be filed with the Regional Administrator and acted upon by him.

(k) Right of amendment or revocation. The Regional Administrator or the Price Administrator may amend, revoke or rescind this order or any provision thereof, at any time.

(l) Applicability of other regulations. If you are a dealer subject to this order, you are governed by the licensing provisions of Licensing Order 1. Licensing Order 1 provides in brief, that a license is required of all persons making sales for which maximum prices are established. A license is automatically granted. It is not necessary to apply for the license. The license may be suspended for violations in connection with the sale of any commodity for which maximum prices are established. If your license is suspended, you may not sell any such commodity during the period of suspension.

(m) Records. If you are a dealer subject to this order, you shall preserve, keep and make available for examination by the Office of Price Administration, a record of every sale of anthracite hereunder, showing the date, the name and address of the buyer. If known, the per net ton charged, and the solid fuel sold. The solid fuel shall be identified in the manner in which it is described in the order. The record shall also state separately each service rendered and the charge made for it.

(n) Posting of maximum prices; sales slips and receipts. (1) If you are a dealer subject to this order, you shall post all your maximum prices (as set forth in the applicable table and schedule of this order) in your place of business in a manner plainly visible to and understandable by the purchasing public.

(2) If you are a dealer subject to this order, you shall, except for a sale of less than one-half ton, give each purchaser a sales slip, invoice, or receipt showing your name and address, the kind, size and quantity of the anthracite sold to him, the date of the sale or delivery, and the price charged, separately stating the amount, if any, of the required discounts which must be deducted from and the authorized service charges and the taxes, which may be added to, the specific maximum prices prescribed herein.

In the case of all other sales, you shall give each purchaser a sales slip or receipt containing the information described in the foregoing paragraph, if requested by such purchaser.

(o) Enforcement. (1) Persons violating any provision of this order are subject to civil and criminal penalties, including suits for treble damages, provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

(2) Persons who have any evidence of any violation of this order are urged to communicate with the Scranton District Office of the Office of Price Administration, or with the Price Panel of the appropriate War Price and Rationing Board.

(p) Definitions and explanations. When used in this Order G–69, the term: (1) "Person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons, or legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States or any agency thereof, or any other government, or any of its political sub-divisions, or any agency of any of the foregoing.

(2) "Sell" includes sell, supply, dispose, barter, exchange, lease, transfer and deliver, and contracts and offers to do any of the foregoing. The terms "Sale", "selling", "sold", "seller", "buy", "purchase" and "purchaser" shall be construed accordingly.

(3) "Dealer" means any person selling anthracite of the sizes set forth in the schedules herein, and does not include a producer or distributor making sales at or from a mine, a preparation plant operated as an adjunct of any mine, or a briquette plant.

(4) "Pennsylvania anthracite" means all coal produced in the Lehigh, Schuylkill and Wyoming regions in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

(5) The sizes of "Pennsylvania anthracite" described herein as broken, egg, stove, nut, pea, buckwheat, rice, barley and screenings, shall refer to the same sizes of the same fuel as were sold and delivered in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Coal Area XIII with such designations during December 1941.

(6) "Direct-delivery" means delivery to the buyer's bin or other storage space designated by buyer.

(7) "Carry" and "wheel" refer to the movement of coal to buyer's bin or storage space in baskets or other containers, or by wheelbarrow or barrel, from seller's truck or vehicle, or from the point nearest and most accessible to the buyer's bin or storage space at which the coal is discharged from seller's truck in the course of "direct delivery".

(8) "Yard sales" means sales accompanied by physical transfer to the buyer's truck or vehicle at the yard, dock, barge, car or at a place of business of the seller other than at seller's truck or vehicle.

(9) Except as otherwise provided herein, or as the context may otherwise require, the definitions set forth in §§ 1340.255 and 1340.266 of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122 shall apply to terms used herein.

(c) Effect of order on Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122. This order shall supersede Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122 except as to any sales or deliveries of solid fuels not specifically subject to this order.

NOTE: The record keeping requirements of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

This Order No. G–69 shall become effective November 19th, 1945.

[Sioux Falls Order G–1 Under Gen. Order 68]

CERTAIN BUILDING AND CONSTRUCTION MATERIALS IN SIOUX FALLS, S. DAK., AREA

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith, and pursuant to the provisions of General Order 68, it is ordered:

SECTION 1. What this order covers. This order covers all retail sales made by any seller, except a manufacturer, of commodities specified in Appendix A below delivered to the purchaser in the Sioux Falls area. The Sioux Falls area for the purposes of this order consists of the area within a radius of 15 miles from the County Court House in Sioux Falls, South Dakota.

SEC. 2. Definitions. (a) For the purposes of this regulation a retail sale means a sale to an ultimate user, or to any person for resale on an installed basis.

(b) A consumer sale means the sale of less than two tons of one or more of the items listed in Appendix A to one purchaser at one time.

(c) A truckload sale means the sale of two tons or more of one or more of the items listed in Appendix A to one purchaser at one time.

SEC. 3. Relation to other regulations. The maximum prices fixed by this order supersede any maximum price or pricing method previously fixed by any other regulation or order covering the commodities specified in Appendix A. Except to the extent that they are inconsistent with the provisions of this order, all other provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation, 3rd RMPR 13, MPR 44, (except as to sales covered by MPR 525), MPR 293 (except as to sales covered by MPR 525), and MPR 281, shall continue to apply to sales covered by this order.

SEC. 4. Maximum prices. The maximum prices for the types of sales of building and construction materials listed in Appendix A delivered to a purchaser in the area designated in section 1, by all sellers except manufacturers, are the prices set forth in Appendix A.

SEC. 5. Discounts, allowance and delivery practices. (a) Each seller subject to this order must maintain his customary terms, discounts and allowances in sales to each class of purchaser which he had in effect during March 1942.

(b) No charge for delivery may be made for deliveries within the area designated in Section 1 hereof.

SEC. 6. Posting of maximum prices. Every seller making sales covered by this order shall post a copy of the list of maximum prices fixed by this order in each of his places of business in the area covered by this order in a manner plainly visible to all purchasers. Posting may be accomplished by the seller by removing the second copy of Appendix A attached to this order and posting the same in a conspicuous place on his premises.

NOTE: Every seller making sales covered by this order shall, if requested by the purchaser, make available to the purchaser for inspection a copy of this order.

SEC. 7. Sales slips and records. Every seller covered by this order who has customarily given his customers a sales slip or other evidence of purchase must continue to do so. Upon request from a customer, such seller, regardless of previous custom, shall give the purchaser a receipt showing the date, name and address of the seller, the description, quantity, and price of each item sold. The description shall be in sufficient detail in order to determine whether the price charged has been properly computed under this order. If he customarily prepared his sales slips in more than one copy, he must keep for at least 6 months after delivery a duplicate copy of each sales slip delivered by him pursuant to this section. Each such seller shall also keep such records of each sale as he customarily kept.

SEC. 8. Evasion. On and after the effective date of this order, any person covered by this order, who sells or offers to sell at a price higher than the ceiling price permitted by this order, or otherwise violates any of the provisions of this order, shall be subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, license suspension proceedings and suits for treble damages as provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. No person subject to this order may evade any of the provisions of the order by any stratagem, scheme or device. No person subject to this order may, as a condition of selling any particular item of building and construction material covered by this order require a customer to buy anything else. Any such evasion is punishable as a violation of this order.

SEC. 9. This order may be modified, amended, or revoked at any time.

This order shall become effective December 1, 1945.

Issued this 23d day of November 1945.

E. J. WINTERSTEEN,
District Director.
